[24]But they burned the city and all that was in it with fire. Only the silver and gold, and the vessels of bronze and iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD.

[25]And Joshua spared Rahab the harlot, her father's household, and all that she had. So she dwells in Israel to this day, because she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

[26]Then Joshua charged them at that time, saying, "Cursed be the man before the LORD who rises up and builds this city Jericho; he shall lay its foundation with his firstborn, and with his youngest he shall set up its gates."

[27]So the LORD was with Joshua, and his fame spread throughout all the country.

Joshua 7

Defeat at Ai

[1]But the children of Israel committed a trespass regarding the accursed things, for Achan the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took of the accursed things; so the anger of the LORD burned against the children of Israel.

[2]Now Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is beside Beth Aven, on the east side of Bethel, and spoke to them, saying, "Go up and spy out the country." So the men went up and spied out Ai.

[3]And they returned to Joshua and said to him, "Do not let all the people go up, but let about two or three thousand men go up and attack Ai. Do not weary all the people there, for the people of Ai are few."

[4]So about three thousand men went up there from the people, but they fled before the men of Ai.

[5]And the men of Ai struck down about thirty-six men, for they chased them from before the gate as far as Shebarim, and struck them down on the descent; therefore the hearts of the people melted and became like water.

[6]Then Joshua tore his clothes, and fell to the earth on his face before the ark of the LORD until evening, he and the elders of Israel; and they put dust on their heads.

[7]And Joshua said, "Alas, Lord GOD, why have You brought this people over the Jordan at all—to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us? Oh, that we had been content, and dwelt on the other side of the Jordan!

[8]"O Lord, what shall I say when Israel turns its back before its enemies?

[9]"For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear it, and surround us, and cut off our name from the earth. Then what will You do for Your great name?"

The Sin of Achan

10So the LORD said to Joshua: "Get up! Why do you lie thus on your face?

11"Israel has sinned, and they have also transgressed My covenant which I commanded them. For they have even taken some of the accursed things, and have both stolen and deceived; and they have also put it among their own stuff.

12"Therefore the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they have become doomed to destruction. Neither will I be with you anymore, unless you destroy the accursed from among you.

13"Get up, sanctify the people, and say, 'Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow, because thus says the LORD God of Israel: "There is an accursed thing in your midst, O Israel; you cannot stand before your enemies until you take away the accursed thing from among you."

14'In the morning therefore you shall be brought according to your tribes. And it shall be that the tribe which the LORD takes shall come according to families; and the family which the LORD takes shall come by households; and the household which the LORD takes shall come man by man.

15'Then it shall be that he who is taken with the accursed thing shall be burned with fire, he and all that he has, because he has transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he has done a disgraceful thing in Israel.' "

16So Joshua rose early in the morning and brought Israel by their tribes, and the tribe of Judah was taken.

17He brought the clan of Judah, and he took the family of the Zarhites; and he brought the family of the Zarhites man by man, and Zabdi was taken.

18Then he brought his household man by man, and Achan the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.

19Now Joshua said to Achan, "My son, I beg you, give glory to the LORD God of Israel, and make confession to Him, and tell me now what you have done; do not hide it from me."

20And Achan answered Joshua and said, "Indeed I have sinned against the LORD God of Israel, and this is what I have done:

[21]“When I saw among the spoils a beautiful Babylonian garment, two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold weighing fifty shekels, I coveted them and took them. And there they are, hidden in the earth in the midst of my tent, with the silver under it.”

[22]So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent; and there it was, hidden in his tent, with the silver under it.

[23]And they took them from the midst of the tent, brought them to Joshua and to all the children of Israel, and laid them out before the LORD.

[24]Then Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, the silver, the garment, the wedge of gold, his sons, his daughters, his oxen, his donkeys, his sheep, his tent, and all that he had, and they brought them to the Valley of Achor.

[25]And Joshua said, “Why have you troubled us? The LORD will trouble you this day.” So all Israel stoned him with stones; and they burned them with fire after they had stoned them with stones.

[26]Then they raised over him a great heap of stones, still there to this day. So the LORD turned from the fierceness of His anger. Therefore the name of that place has been called the Valley of Achor to this day.

Joshua 8

The Fall of Ai

[1]Now the LORD said to Joshua: "Do not be afraid, nor be dismayed; take all the people of war with you, and arise, go up to Ai. See, I have given into your hand the king of Ai, his people, his city, and his land.

[2]"And you shall do to Ai and its king as you did to Jericho and its king. Only its spoil and its cattle you shall take as booty for yourselves. Lay an ambush for the city behind it."

[3]So Joshua arose, and all the people of war, to go up against Ai; and Joshua chose thirty thousand mighty men of valor and sent them away by night.

[4]And he commanded them, saying: "Behold, you shall lie in ambush against the city, behind the city. Do not go very far from the city, but all of you be ready.

[5]"Then I and all the people who are with me will approach the city; and it will come about, when they come out against us as at the first, that we shall flee before them.

[6]"For they will come out after us till we have drawn them from the city, for they will say, 'They are fleeing before us as at the first.' Therefore we will flee before them.

[7]"Then you shall rise from the ambush and seize the city, for the LORD your God will deliver it into your hand.

[8]"And it will be, when you have taken the city, that you shall set the city on fire. According to the commandment of the LORD you shall do. See, I have commanded you."

[9]Joshua therefore sent them out; and they went to lie in ambush, and stayed between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of Ai; but Joshua lodged that night among the people.

[10]Then Joshua rose up early in the morning and mustered the people, and went up, he and the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai.

[11]And all the people of war who were with him went up and drew near; and they came before the city and camped on the north side of Ai. Now a valley lay between them and Ai.

[12]So he took about five thousand men and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of the city.

[13]And when they had set the people, all the army that was on the north of the city, and its rear guard on the west of the city, Joshua went that night into the midst of the valley.

[14]Now it happened, when the king of Ai saw it, that the men of the city hurried and rose early and went out against Israel to battle, he and all his people, at an appointed place before the plain. But he did not know that there was an ambush against him behind the city.

[15]And Joshua and all Israel made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness.

[16]So all the people who were in Ai were called together to pursue them. And they pursued Joshua and were drawn away from the city.

[17]There was not a man left in Ai or Bethel who did not go out after Israel. So they left the city open and pursued Israel.

[18]Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Stretch out the spear that is in your hand toward Ai, for I will give it into your hand.” And Joshua stretched out the spear that was in his hand toward the city.

[19]So those in ambush arose quickly out of their place; they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand, and they entered the city and took it, and hurried to set the city on fire.

[20]And when the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and behold, the smoke of the city ascended to heaven. So they had no power to flee this way or that way, and the people who had fled to the wilderness turned back on the pursuers.

[21]Now when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city and that the smoke of the city ascended, they turned back and struck down the men of Ai.

[22]Then the others came out of the city against them; so they were caught in the midst of Israel, some on this side and some on that side. And they struck them down, so that they let none of them remain or escape.

[24]And it came to pass when Israel had made an end of slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness where they pursued them, and when they all had fallen by the edge of the sword until they were consumed, that all the Israelites returned to Ai and struck it with the edge of the sword.

[25]So it was that all who fell that day, both men and women, were twelve thousand—all the people of Ai.

[26]For Joshua did not draw back his hand, with which he stretched out the spear, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.

[27]Only the livestock and the spoil of that city Israel took as booty for themselves, according to the word of the LORD which He had commanded Joshua.

[28]So Joshua burned Ai and made it a heap forever, a desolation to this day.

[29]And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree until evening. And as soon as the sun was down, Joshua commanded that they should take his corpse down from the tree, cast it at the entrance of the gate of the city, and raise over it a great heap of stones that remains to this day.

Joshua Renews the Covenant

[30]Now Joshua built an altar to the LORD God of Israel in Mount Ebal,

[31]as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the Book of the Law of Moses: "an altar of whole stones over which no man has wielded an iron tool." And they offered on it burnt offerings to the LORD, and sacrificed peace offerings.

[32]And there, in the presence of the children of Israel, he wrote on the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he had written.

[33]Then all Israel, with their elders and officers and judges, stood on either side of the ark before the priests, the Levites, who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, the stranger as well as he who was born among them. Half of them were in front of Mount Gerizim and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded before, that they should bless the people of Israel.

[34]And afterward he read all the words of the law, the blessings and the cursings, according to all that is written in the Book of the Law.

[35]There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded which Joshua did not read before all the assembly of Israel, with the women, the little ones, and the strangers who were living among them.

Joshua 9

The Treaty with the Gibeonites

[1]And it came to pass when all the kings who were on this side of the Jordan, in the hills and in the lowland and in all the coasts of the Great Sea toward Lebanon—the Hittite, the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite—heard about it,

[2]that they gathered together to fight with Joshua and Israel with one accord.

[3]But when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and Ai,

[4]they worked craftily, and went and pretended to be ambassadors. And they took old sacks on their donkeys, old wineskins torn and mended,

[5]old and patched sandals on their feet, and old garments on themselves; and all the bread of their provision was dry and moldy.

[6]And they went to Joshua, to the camp at Gilgal, and said to him and to the men of Israel, “We have come from a far country; now therefore, make a covenant with us.”

[7]Then the men of Israel said to the Hivites, “Perhaps you dwell among us; so how can we make a covenant with you?”

[8]But they said to Joshua, “We are your servants.” And Joshua said to them, “Who are you, and where do you come from?”

[9]So they said to him: “From a very far country your servants have come, because of the name of the LORD your God; for we have heard of His fame, and all that He did in Egypt,

[10]“and all that He did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan—to Sihon king of Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, who was at Ashtaroth.

[11]“Therefore our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spoke to us, saying, ‘Take provisions with you for the journey, and go to meet them, and say to them, “We are your servants; now therefore, make a covenant with us.” ’

[12]“This bread of ours we took hot for our provision from our houses on the day we departed to come to you. But now look, it is dry and moldy.

[13]“And these wineskins which we filled were new, and see, they are torn; and these our garments and our sandals have become old because of the very long journey.”

[14]Then the men of Israel took some of their provisions; but they did not ask counsel of the LORD.

[15]So Joshua made peace with them, and made a covenant with them to let them live; and the rulers of the congregation swore to them.

16And it happened at the end of three days, after they had made a covenant with them, that they heard that they were their neighbors who dwelt near them.

[17]Then the children of Israel journeyed and came to their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, Chephirah, Beeroth, and Kirjath Jearim.

[18]But the children of Israel did not attack them, because the rulers of the congregation had sworn to them by the LORD God of Israel. And all the congregation complained against the rulers.

[19]Then all the rulers said to all the congregation, “We have sworn to them by the LORD God of Israel; now therefore, we may not touch them.

[20]“This we will do to them: We will let them live, lest wrath be upon us because of the oath which we swore to them.”

[21]And the rulers said to them, “Let them live, but let them be woodcutters and water carriers for all the congregation, as the rulers had promised them.”

22Then Joshua called for them, and he spoke to them, saying, “Why have you deceived us, saying, ‘We are very far from you,’ when you dwell near us?

[23]“Now therefore, you are cursed, and none of you shall be freed from being slaves—woodcutters and water carriers for the house of my God.”

[24]So they answered Joshua and said, “Because your servants were clearly told that the LORD your God commanded His servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you; therefore we were very much afraid for our lives because of you, and have done this thing.

[25]“And now, here we are, in your hands; do with us as it seems good and right to do to us.”

[26]So he did to them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, so that they did not kill them.

[27]And that day Joshua made them woodcutters and water carriers for the congregation and for the altar of the LORD, in the place which He would choose, even to this day.

Joshua 10

The Sun Stands Still

[1]Now it came to pass when Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem heard how Joshua had taken Ai and had utterly destroyed it—as he had done to Jericho and its king, so he had done to Ai and its king—and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and were among them,

[2]that they feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, like one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all its men were mighty.

[3]Therefore Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem sent to Hoham king of Hebron, Piram king of Jarmuth, Japhia king of Lachish, and Debir king of Eglon, saying,

[4]“Come up to me and help me, that we may attack Gibeon, for it has made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel.”

[5]Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon, gathered together and went up, they and all their armies, and camped before Gibeon and made war against it.

[6]And the men of Gibeon sent to Joshua at the camp at Gilgal, saying, “Do not forsake your servants; come up to us quickly, save us and help us, for all the kings of the Amorites who dwell in the mountains have gathered together against us.”

[7]So Joshua ascended from Gilgal, he and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valor.

[8]And the LORD said to Joshua, “Do not fear them, for I have delivered them into your hand; not a man of them shall stand before you.”

[10]So the LORD routed them before Israel, killed them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, chased them along the road that goes to Beth Horon, and struck them down as far as Azekah and Makkedah.

[11]And it happened, as they fled before Israel and were on the descent of Beth Horon, that the LORD cast down large hailstones from heaven on them as far as Azekah, and they died. There were more who died from the hailstones than the children of Israel killed with the sword.

12Then Joshua spoke to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel:

“Sun, stand still over Gibeon;
And Moon, in the Valley of Aijalon.”
[13]So the sun stood still,
And the moon stopped,
Till the people had revenge
Upon their enemies.

Is this not written in the Book of Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and did not hasten to go down for about a whole day.

[14]And there has been no day like that, before it or after it, that the LORD heeded the voice of a man; for the LORD fought for Israel.

[15]Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

The Amorite Kings Executed

16But these five kings had fled and hidden themselves in a cave at Makkedah.

[17]And it was told Joshua, saying, “The five kings have been found hidden in the cave at Makkedah.”

[18]So Joshua said, “Roll large stones against the mouth of the cave, and set men by it to guard them.

[19]“And do not stay there yourselves, but pursue your enemies, and attack their rear guard. Do not allow them to enter their cities, for the LORD your God has delivered them into your hand.”

[20]Then it happened, while Joshua and the children of Israel made an end of slaying them with a very great slaughter, till they had finished, that those who escaped entered fortified cities.

[21]And all the people returned to the camp, to Joshua at Makkedah, in peace. No one moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel.

22Then Joshua said, “Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out those five kings to me from the cave.”

23And they did so, and brought out those five kings to him from the cave: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.

24So it was, when they brought out those kings to Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said to the captains of the men of war who went with him, “Come near, put your feet on the necks of these kings.” And they drew near and put their feet on their necks.

25Then Joshua said to them, “Do not be afraid, nor be dismayed; be strong and of good courage, for thus the LORD will do to all your enemies against whom you fight.”

26And afterward Joshua struck them and killed them, and hanged them on five trees; and they were hanging on the trees until evening.

27So it was at the time of the going down of the sun that Joshua commanded, and they took them down from the trees, cast them into the cave where they had been hidden, and laid large stones against the cave’s mouth, which remain until this very day.

Conquest of the Southland

28On that day Joshua took Makkedah, and struck it and its king with the edge of the sword. He utterly destroyed them—all the people who were in it. He let none remain. He also did to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king of Jericho.

29Then Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, to Libnah; and they fought against Libnah.

30And the LORD also delivered it and its king into the hand of Israel; he struck it and all the people who were in it with the edge of the sword. He let none remain in it, but did to its king as he had done to the king of Jericho.

31Then Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with him, to Lachish; and they encamped against it and fought against it.

32And the LORD delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel, who took it on the second day, and struck it and all the people who were in it with the edge of the sword, according to all that he had done to Libnah.

[33]Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua struck him and his people, until he left him none remaining.

[34]From Lachish Joshua passed to Eglon, and all Israel with him; and they encamped against it and fought against it.

[35]They took it on that day and struck it with the edge of the sword; all the people who were in it he utterly destroyed that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

[36]So Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with him, to Hebron; and they fought against it.

[37]And they took it and struck it with the edge of the sword—its king, all its cities, and all the people who were in it; he left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Eglon, but utterly destroyed it and all the people who were in it.

[39]And he took it and its king and all its cities; they struck them with the edge of the sword and utterly destroyed all the people who were in it. He left none remaining; as he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir and its king, as he had done also to Libnah and its king.

[40]So Joshua conquered all the land: the mountain country and the South and the lowland and the wilderness slopes, and all their kings; he left none remaining, but utterly destroyed all that breathed, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded.

[41]And Joshua conquered them from Kadesh Barnea as far as Gaza, and all the country of Goshen, even as far as Gibeon.

[42]All these kings and their land Joshua took at one time, because the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel.

[43]Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

Joshua 11

The Northern Conquest

[1]And it came to pass, when Jabin king of Hazor heard these things, that he sent to Jobab king of Madon, to the king of Shimron, to the king of Achshaph,

[2]and to the kings who were from the north, in the mountains, in the plain south of Chinneroth, in the lowland, and in the heights of Dor on the west,

[3]to the Canaanites in the east and in the west, the Amorite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Jebusite in the mountains, and the Hivite below Hermon in the land of Mizpah.

[4]So they went out, they and all their armies with them, as many people as the sand that is on the seashore in multitude, with very many horses and chariots.

[5]And when all these kings had met together, they came and camped together at the waters of Merom to fight against Israel.

[6]But the LORD said to Joshua, “Do not be afraid because of them, for tomorrow about this time I will deliver all of them slain before Israel. You shall hamstring their horses and burn their chariots with fire.”

[7]So Joshua and all the people of war with him came against them suddenly by the waters of Merom, and they attacked them.

[8]And the LORD delivered them into the hand of Israel, who defeated them and chased them to Greater Sidon, to the Brook Misrephoth, and to the Valley of Mizpah eastward; they attacked them until they left none of them remaining.

[9]So Joshua did to them as the LORD had told him: he hamstrung their horses and burned their chariots with fire.

[10]Joshua turned back at that time and took Hazor, and struck its king with the sword; for Hazor was formerly the head of all those kingdoms.

[11]And they struck all the people who were in it with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them. There was none left breathing. Then he burned Hazor with fire.

[12]So all the cities of those kings, and all their kings, Joshua took and struck with the edge of the sword. He utterly destroyed them, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded.

[13]But as for the cities that stood on their mounds, Israel burned none of them, except Hazor only, which Joshua burned.

[14]And all the spoil of these cities and the livestock, the children of Israel took as booty for themselves; but they struck every man with the edge of the sword until they had destroyed them, and they left none breathing.

[15]As the LORD had commanded Moses His servant, so Moses commanded Joshua, and so Joshua did. He left nothing undone of all that the LORD had commanded Moses.

Summary of Joshua's Conquests

[16]Thus Joshua took all this land: the mountain country, all the South, all the land of Goshen, the lowland, and the Jordan plain—the mountains of Israel and its lowlands,

[17]from Mount Halak and the ascent to Seir, even as far as Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon below Mount Hermon. He captured all their kings, and struck them down and killed them.

[18]Joshua made war a long time with all those kings.

[19]There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, except the Hivites, the inhabitants of Gibeon. All the others they took in battle.

[20]For it was of the LORD to harden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battle, that He might utterly destroy them, and that they might receive no mercy, but that He might destroy them, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

[21]And at that time Joshua came and cut off the Anakim from the mountains: from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, from all the mountains of Judah, and from all the mountains of Israel; Joshua utterly destroyed them with their cities.

[22]None of the Anakim were left in the land of the children of Israel; they remained only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod.

[23]So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the LORD had said to Moses; and Joshua gave it as an inheritance to Israel according to their divisions by their tribes. Then the land rested from war.

Joshua 12

The Kings Conquered by Moses

[1]These are the kings of the land whom the children of Israel defeated, and whose land they possessed on the other side of the Jordan toward the rising of the sun, from the River Arnon to Mount Hermon, and all the eastern Jordan plain:

[2]One king was Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon and ruled half of Gilead, from Aroer, which is on the bank of the River Arnon, from the middle of that river, even as far as the River Jabbok, which is the border of the Ammonites,

[3]and the eastern Jordan plain from the Sea of Chinneroth as far as the Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea), the road to Beth Jeshimoth, and southward below the slopes of Pisgah.

[4]The other king was Og king of Bashan and his territory, who was of the remnant of the giants, who dwelt at Ashtaroth and at Edrei,

[5]and reigned over Mount Hermon, over Salcah, over all Bashan, as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maachathites, and over half of Gilead to the border of Sihon king of Heshbon.

[6]These Moses the servant of the LORD and the children of Israel had conquered; and Moses the servant of the LORD had given it as a possession to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh.

The Kings Conquered by Joshua

[7]And these are the kings of the country which Joshua and the children of Israel conquered on this side of the Jordan, on the west, from Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon as far as Mount Halak and the ascent to Seir, which Joshua gave to the tribes of Israel as a possession according to their divisions,

[8]in the mountain country, in the lowlands, in the Jordan plain, in the slopes, in the wilderness, and in the South—the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites:

[9]the king of Jericho, one; the king of Ai, which is beside Bethel, one;

[10]the king of Jerusalem, one; the king of Hebron, one;
[11]the king of Jarmuth, one; the king of Lachish, one;
[12]the king of Eglon, one; the king of Gezer, one;
[13]the king of Debir, one; the king of Geder, one;
[14]the king of Hormah, one; the king of Arad, one;
[15]the king of Libnah, one; the king of Adullam, one;
[16]the king of Makkedah, one; the king of Bethel, one;
[17]the king of Tappuah, one; the king of Hepher, one;
[18]the king of Aphek, one; the king of Lasharon, one;
[19]the king of Madon, one; the king of Hazor, one;
[20]the king of Shimron Meron, one; the king of Achshaph, one;
[21]the king of Taanach, one; the king of Megiddo, one;
[22]the king of Kedesh, one; the king of Jokneam in Carmel, one;
[23]the king of Dor in the heights of Dor, one; the king of the people of Gilgal, one;
[24]the king of Tirzah, one—all the kings, thirty-one.

Joshua 13

Remaining Land to Be Conquered

[1]Now Joshua was old, advanced in years. And the LORD said to him: "You are old, advanced in years, and there remains very much land yet to be possessed.

[2]"This is the land that yet remains: all the territory of the Philistines and all that of the Geshurites,

[3]"from Sihor, which is east of Egypt, as far as the border of Ekron northward (which is counted as Canaanite); the five lords of the Philistines—the Gazites, the Ashdodites, the Ashkelonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites; also the Avites;

[4]"from the south, all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah that belongs to the Sidonians as far as Aphek, to the border of the Amorites;

[5]"the land of the Gebalites, and all Lebanon, toward the sunrise, from Baal Gad below Mount Hermon as far as the entrance to Hamath;

[6]"all the inhabitants of the mountains from Lebanon as far as the Brook Misrephoth, and all the Sidonians—them I will drive out from before the children of Israel; only divide it by lot to Israel as an inheritance, as I have commanded you.

[7]"Now therefore, divide this land as an inheritance to the nine tribes and half the tribe of Manasseh."

The Land Divided East of the Jordan

[8]With the other half-tribe the Reubenites and the Gadites received their inheritance, which Moses had given them, beyond the Jordan eastward, as Moses the servant of the LORD had given them:

[9]from Aroer which is on the bank of the River Arnon, and the town that is in the midst of the ravine, and all the plain of Medeba as far as Dibon;

[10]all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, as far as the border of the children of Ammon;

[11]Gilead, and the border of the Geshurites and Maachathites, all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan as far as Salcah;

[12]all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and Edrei, who remained of the remnant of the giants; for Moses had defeated and cast out these.

[13]Nevertheless the children of Israel did not drive out the Geshurites or the Maachathites, but the Geshurites and the Maachathites dwell among the Israelites until this day.

[14]Only to the tribe of Levi he had given no inheritance; the sacrifices of the LORD God of Israel made by fire are their inheritance, as He said to them.

The Land of Reuben

15And Moses had given to the tribe of the children of Reuben an inheritance according to their families.

[16]Their territory was from Aroer, which is on the bank of the River Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the ravine, and all the plain by Medeba;

[17]Heshbon and all its cities that are in the plain: Dibon, Bamoth Baal, Beth Baal Meon,

[18]Jahaza, Kedemoth, Mephaath,

[19]Kirjathaim, Sibmah, Zereth Shahar on the mountain of the valley,

[20]Beth Peor, the slopes of Pisgah, and Beth Jeshimoth—

[21]all the cities of the plain and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses had struck with the princes of Midian: Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, who were princes of Sihon dwelling in the country.

[22]The children of Israel also killed with the sword Balaam the son of Beor, the soothsayer, among those who were killed by them.

[23]And the border of the children of Reuben was the bank of the Jordan. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben according to their families, the cities and their villages.

The Land of Gad

24Moses also had given an inheritance to the tribe of Gad, to the children of Gad according to their families.

[25]Their territory was Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the Ammonites as far as Aroer, which is before Rabbah,

[26]and from Heshbon to Ramath Mizpah and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to the border of Debir,

[27]and in the valley Beth Haram, Beth Nimrah, Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, with the Jordan as its border, as far as the edge of the Sea of Chinnereth, on the other side of the Jordan eastward.

[28]This is the inheritance of the children of Gad according to their families, the cities and their villages.

Half the Tribe of Manasseh (East)

[29]Moses also had given an inheritance to half the tribe of Manasseh; it was for half the tribe of the children of Manasseh according to their families:

[30]Their territory was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of Jair which are in Bashan, sixty cities;

[31]half of Gilead, and Ashtaroth and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were for the children of Machir the son of Manasseh, for half of the children of Machir according to their families.

[32]These are the areas which Moses had distributed as an inheritance in the plains of Moab on the other side of the Jordan, by Jericho eastward.

[33]But to the tribe of Levi Moses had given no inheritance; the LORD God of Israel was their inheritance, as He had said to them.

Joshua 14

The Land Divided West of the Jordan

[1]These are the areas which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel distributed as an inheritance to them.

[2]Their inheritance was by lot, as the LORD had commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes and the half-tribe.

[3]For Moses had given the inheritance of the two tribes and the half-tribe on the other side of the Jordan; but to the Levites he had given no inheritance among them.

[4]For the children of Joseph were two tribes: Manasseh and Ephraim. And they gave no part to the Levites in the land, except cities to dwell in, with their common-lands for their livestock and their property.

[5]As the LORD had commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did; and they divided the land.

Caleb Inherits Hebron

[6]Then the children of Judah came to Joshua in Gilgal. And Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him: “You know the word which the LORD said to Moses the man of God concerning you and me in Kadesh Barnea.

[7]“I was forty years old when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh Barnea to spy out the land, and I brought back word to him as it was in my heart.

[8]“Nevertheless my brethren who went up with me made the heart of the people melt, but I wholly followed the LORD my God.

[9]“So Moses swore on that day, saying, ‘Surely the land where your foot has trodden shall be your inheritance and your children’s forever, because you have wholly followed the LORD my God.’

[10]“And now, behold, the LORD has kept me alive, as He said, these forty-five years, ever since the LORD spoke this word to Moses while

Israel wandered in the wilderness; and now, here I am this day, eighty-five years old.

[11]"As yet I am as strong this day as on the day that Moses sent me; just as my strength was then, so now is my strength for war, both for going out and for coming in.

[12]"Now therefore, give me this mountain of which the LORD spoke in that day; for you heard in that day how the Anakim were there, and that the cities were great and fortified. It may be that the LORD will be with me, and I shall be able to drive them out as the LORD said."

[13]And Joshua blessed him, and gave Hebron to Caleb the son of Jephunneh as an inheritance.

[14]Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite to this day, because he wholly followed the LORD God of Israel.

[15]And the name of Hebron formerly was Kirjath Arba (Arba was the greatest man among the Anakim). Then the land had rest from war.

Joshua 15

The Land of Judah

[1]So this was the lot of the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families: The border of Edom at the Wilderness of Zin southward was the extreme southern boundary.

[2]And their southern border began at the shore of the Salt Sea, from the bay that faces southward.

[3]Then it went out to the southern side of the Ascent of Akrabbim, passed along to Zin, ascended on the south side of Kadesh Barnea, passed along to Hezron, went up to Adar, and went around to Karkaa.

[4]From there it passed toward Azmon and went out to the Brook of Egypt; and the border ended at the sea. This shall be your southern border.

[5]The east border was the Salt Sea as far as the mouth of the Jordan. And the border on the northern quarter began at the bay of the sea at the mouth of the Jordan.

[6]The border went up to Beth Hoglah and passed north of Beth Arabah; and the border went up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben.

[7]Then the border went up toward Debir from the Valley of Achor, and it turned northward toward Gilgal, which is before the Ascent of Adummim, which is on the south side of the valley. The border continued toward the waters of En Shemesh and ended at En Rogel.

[8]And the border went up by the Valley of the Son of Hinnom to the southern slope of the Jebusite city (which is Jerusalem). The border went up to the top of the mountain that lies before the Valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the end of the Valley of Rephaim northward.

[9]Then the border went around from the top of the hill to the fountain of the water of Nephtoah, and extended to the cities of Mount Ephron. And the border went around to Baalah (which is Kirjath Jearim).

[10]Then the border turned westward from Baalah to Mount Seir, passed along to the side of Mount Jearim on the north (which is Chesalon), went down to Beth Shemesh, and passed on to Timnah.

[11]And the border went out to the side of Ekron northward. Then the border went around to Shicron, passed along to Mount Baalah, and extended to Jabneel; and the border ended at the sea.

[12]The west border was the coastline of the Great Sea. This is the boundary of the children of Judah all around according to their families.

Caleb Occupies Hebron and Debir

[13]Now to Caleb the son of Jephunneh he gave a share among the children of Judah, according to the commandment of the LORD to Joshua, namely, Kirjath Arba, which is Hebron (Arba was the father of Anak).

[14]Caleb drove out the three sons of Anak from there: Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai, the children of Anak.

[15]Then he went up from there to the inhabitants of Debir (formerly the name of Debir was Kirjath Sepher).

[16]And Caleb said, “He who attacks Kirjath Sepher and takes it, to him I will give Achsah my daughter as wife.”

[17]So Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, took it; and he gave him Achsah his daughter as wife.

[18]Now it was so, when she came to him, that she persuaded him to ask her father for a field. So she dismounted from her donkey, and Caleb said to her, “What do you wish?”

[19]She answered, “Give me a blessing; since you have given me land in the South, give me also springs of water.” So he gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

The Cities of Judah

[20]This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families:

[21]The cities at the limits of the tribe of the children of Judah, toward the border of Edom in the South, were Kabzeel, Eder, Jagur,

[22]Kinah, Dimonah, Adadah,

[23]Kedesh, Hazor, Ithnan,

[24]Ziph, Telem, Bealoth,

[25]Hazor, Hadattah, Kerioth, Hezron (which is Hazor),
[26]Amam, Shema, Moladah,
[27]Hazar Gaddah, Heshmon, Beth Pelet,
[28]Hazar Shual, Beersheba, Bizjothjah,
[29]Baalah, Ijim, Ezem,
[30]Eltolad, Chesil, Hormah,
[31]Ziklag, Madmannah, Sansannah,
[32]Lebaoth, Shilhim, Ain, and Rimmon: all the cities are twenty-nine, with their villages.

[33]In the lowland: Eshtaol, Zorah, Ashnah,
[34]Zanoah, En Gannim, Tappuah, Enam,
[35]Jarmuth, Adullam, Socoh, Azekah,
[36]Sharaim, Adithaim, Gederah, and Gederothaim: fourteen cities with their villages;
[37]Zenan, Hadashah, Migdal Gad,
[38]Dilean, Mizpah, Joktheel,
[39]Lachish, Bozkath, Eglon,
[40]Cabbon, Lahmas, Kithlish,
[41]Gederoth, Beth Dagon, Naamah, and Makkedah: sixteen cities with their villages;
[42]Libnah, Ether, Ashan,
[43]Jiphtah, Ashnah, Nezib,
[44]Keilah, Achzib, and Mareshah: nine cities with their villages;
[45]Ekron, with its towns and villages;
[46]from Ekron to the sea, all that lay near Ashdod, with their villages;
[47]Ashdod with its towns and villages, Gaza with its towns and villages—as far as the Brook of Egypt and the Great Sea with its coastline.

[48]And in the mountain country: Shamir, Jattir, Sochoh,
[49]Dannah, Kirjath Sannah (which is Debir),
[50]Anab, Eshtemoh, Anim,
[51]Goshen, Holon, and Giloh: eleven cities with their villages;
[52]Arab, Dumah, Eshean,

[53]Janum, Beth Tappuah, Aphekah,

[54]Humtah, Kirjath Arba (which is Hebron), and Zior: nine cities with their villages;

[55]Maon, Carmel, Ziph, Juttah,

[56]Jezreel, Jokdeam, Zanoah,

[57]Kain, Gibeah, and Timnah: ten cities with their villages;

[58]Halhul, Beth Zur, Gedor,

[59]Maarath, Beth Anoth, and Eltekon: six cities with their villages;

[60]Kirjath Baal (which is Kirjath Jearim) and Rabbah: two cities with their villages.

[61]In the wilderness: Beth Arabah, Middin, Secacah,

[62]Nibshan, the City of Salt, and En Gedi: six cities with their villages.

[63]As for the Jebusites, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the children of Judah could not drive them out; but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Judah at Jerusalem to this day.

Joshua 16

Ephraim and West Manasseh

[1]The lot fell to the children of Joseph from the Jordan, by Jericho, to the waters of Jericho on the east, to the wilderness that goes up from Jericho through the mountains to Bethel,

[2]then went out from Bethel to Luz, passed along to the border of the Archites at Ataroth,

[3]and went down westward to the boundary of the Japhletites, as far as the boundary of Lower Beth Horon to Gezer; and it ended at the sea.

[4]So the children of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, took their inheritance.

The Land of Ephraim

[5]The border of the children of Ephraim, according to their families, was thus: The border of their inheritance on the east side was Ataroth Addar as far as Upper Beth Horon.

[6]And the border went out toward the sea on the north side of Michmethath; then the border went around eastward to Taanath Shiloh, and passed by it on the east of Janohah.

[7]Then it went down from Janohah to Ataroth and Naarah, reached to Jericho, and came out at the Jordan.

[8]The border went out from Tappuah westward to the Brook Kanah, and it ended at the sea. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim according to their families.

[9]The separate cities for the children of Ephraim were among the inheritance of the children of Manasseh, all the cities with their villages.

[10]And they did not drive out the Canaanites who dwelt in Gezer; but the Canaanites dwell among the Ephraimites to this day and have become forced laborers.

Joshua 17

The Other Half-Tribe of Manasseh (West)

[1]There was also a lot for the tribe of Manasseh, for he was the firstborn of Joseph: namely for Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, because he was a man of war; therefore he was given Gilead and Bashan.

[2]And there was a lot for the rest of the children of Manasseh according to their families: for the children of Abiezer, the children of Helek, the children of Asriel, the children of Shechem, the children of Hepher, and the children of Shemida; these were the male children of Manasseh the son of Joseph according to their families.

[3]But Zelophehad the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but only daughters. And these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

[4]And they came near before Eleazar the priest, before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the rulers, saying, “The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brothers.” Therefore, according to the commandment of the LORD, he gave them an inheritance among their father’s brothers.

[5]Ten shares fell to Manasseh, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which were on the other side of the Jordan,

[6]because the daughters of Manasseh received an inheritance among his sons; and the rest of Manasseh’s sons had the land of Gilead.

[7]And the territory of Manasseh was from Asher to Michmethath, that lies east of Shechem; and the border went along south to the inhabitants of En Tappuah.

[8]Manasseh had the land of Tappuah, but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the children of Ephraim.

[9]And the border descended to the Brook Kanah, southward to the brook. These cities of Ephraim are among the cities of Manasseh. The border of Manasseh was on the north side of the brook; and it ended at the sea.

[10]Southward it was Ephraim's, northward it was Manasseh's, and the sea was its border. Manasseh's territory was adjoining Asher on the north and Issachar on the east.

[11]And in Issachar and in Asher, Manasseh had Beth Shean and its towns, Ibleam and its towns, the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, the inhabitants of En Dor and its towns, the inhabitants of Taanach and its towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns—three hilly regions.

[12]Yet the children of Manasseh could not drive out the inhabitants of those cities, but the Canaanites were determined to dwell in that land.

[13]And it happened, when the children of Israel grew strong, that they put the Canaanites to forced labor, but did not utterly drive them out.

More Land for Ephraim and Manasseh

[14]Then the children of Joseph spoke to Joshua, saying, "Why have you given us only one lot and one share to inherit, since we are a great people, inasmuch as the LORD has blessed us until now?"

[15]So Joshua answered them, "If you are a great people, then go up to the forest country and clear a place for yourself there in the land of the Perizzites and the giants, since the mountains of Ephraim are too confined for you."

[16]But the children of Joseph said, "The mountain country is not enough for us; and all the Canaanites who dwell in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, both those who are of Beth Shean and its towns and those who are of the Valley of Jezreel."

[17]And Joshua spoke to the house of Joseph—to Ephraim and Manasseh—saying, "You are a great people and have great power; you shall not have only one lot,

[18]"but the mountain country shall be yours. Although it is wooded, you shall cut it down, and its farthest extent shall be yours; for you shall drive out the Canaanites, though they have iron chariots and are strong."

Joshua 18

The Remainder of the Land Divided

[1]Now the whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled together at Shiloh, and set up the tabernacle of meeting there. And the land was subdued before them.

[2]But there remained among the children of Israel seven tribes which had not yet received their inheritance.

[3]Then Joshua said to the children of Israel: “How long will you neglect to go and possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers has given you?

[4]“Pick out from among you three men for each tribe, and I will send them; they shall rise and go through the land, survey it according to their inheritance, and come back to me.

[5]“And they shall divide it into seven parts. Judah shall remain in their territory on the south, and the house of Joseph shall remain in their territory on the north.

[6]“You shall therefore survey the land in seven parts and bring the survey here to me, that I may cast lots for you here before the LORD our God.

[7]“But the Levites have no part among you, for the priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance. And Gad, Reuben, and half the tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan on the east, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them.”

[8]Then the men arose to go away; and Joshua charged those who went to survey the land, saying, “Go, walk through the land, survey it, and come back to me, that I may cast lots for you here before the LORD in Shiloh.”

[9]So the men went, passed through the land, and wrote the survey in a book in seven parts by cities; and they came to Joshua at the camp in Shiloh.

[10]Then Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD, and there Joshua divided the land to the children of Israel according to their divisions.

The Land of Benjamin

11Now the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came up according to their families, and the territory of their lot came out between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph.

12Their border on the north side began at the Jordan, and the border went up to the side of Jericho on the north, and went up through the mountains westward; it ended at the Wilderness of Beth Aven.

13The border went over from there toward Luz, to the side of Luz (which is Bethel) southward; and the border descended to Ataroth Addar, near the hill that lies on the south side of Lower Beth Horon.

15The south side began at the end of Kirjath Jearim, and the border extended on the west and went out to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah.

16Then the border came down to the end of the mountain that lies before the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, which is in the Valley of the Rephaim on the north, descended to the Valley of Hinnom, to the side of the Jebusite city on the south, and descended to En Rogel.

17And it went around from the north, went out to En Shemesh, and extended toward Geliloth, which is before the Ascent of Adummim, and descended to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben.

18Then it passed along toward the north side of Arabah, and went down to Arabah.

19And the border passed along to the north side of Beth Hoglah; then the border ended at the north bay at the Salt Sea, at the south end of the Jordan. This was the southern boundary.

20The Jordan was its border on the east side. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, according to its boundaries all around, according to their families.

21Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin, according to their families, were Jericho, Beth Hoglah, Emek Keziz,

22Beth Arabah, Zemaraim, Bethel,

[23]Avim, Parah, Ophrah,

[24]Chephar Haammoni, Ophni, and Gaba: twelve cities with their villages;

[25]Gibeon, Ramah, Beeroth,

[26]Mizpah, Chephirah, Mozah,

[27]Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah,

[28]Zelah, Eleph, Jebus (which is Jerusalem), Gibeath, and Kirjath: fourteen cities with their villages. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin according to their families.

Joshua 19

Simeon's Inheritance with Judah

[1]The second lot came out for Simeon, for the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families. And their inheritance was within the inheritance of the children of Judah.

[2]They had in their inheritance Beersheba (Sheba), Moladah,

[3]Hazar Shual, Balah, Ezem,

[4]Eltolad, Bethul, Hormah,

[5]Ziklag, Beth Marcaboth, Hazar Susah,

[6]Beth Lebaoth, and Sharuhen: thirteen cities and their villages;

[7]Ain, Rimmon, Ether, and Ashan: four cities and their villages;

[8]and all the villages that were all around these cities as far as Baalath Beer, Ramah of the South. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families.

[9]The inheritance of the children of Simeon was included in the share of the children of Judah, for the share of the children of Judah was too much for them. Therefore the children of Simeon had their inheritance within the inheritance of that people.

The Land of Zebulun

[10]The third lot came out for the children of Zebulun according to their families, and the border of their inheritance was as far as Sarid.

[11]Their border went toward the west and to Maralah, went to Dabbasheth, and extended along the brook that is east of Jokneam.

[12]Then from Sarid it went eastward toward the sunrise along the border of Chisloth Tabor, and went out toward Daberath, bypassing Japhia.

[13]And from there it passed along on the east of Gath Hepher, toward Eth Kazin, and extended to Rimmon, which borders on Neah.

[14]Then the border went around it on the north side of Hannathon, and it ended in the Valley of Jiphthah El.

[15]Included were Kattath, Nahallal, Shimron, Idalah, and Bethlehem: twelve cities with their villages.

[16]This was the inheritance of the children of Zebulun according to their families, these cities with their villages.

The Land of Issachar

[17]The fourth lot came out to Issachar, for the children of Issachar according to their families.

[18]And their territory went to Jezreel, and included Chesulloth, Shunem,

[19]Haphraim, Shion, Anaharath,

[20]Rabbith, Kishion, Abez,

[21]Remeth, En Gannim, En Haddah, and Beth Pazzez.

[22]And the border reached to Tabor, Shahazimah, and Beth Shemesh; their border ended at the Jordan: sixteen cities with their villages.

[23]This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Issachar according to their families, the cities and their villages.

The Land of Asher

[24]The fifth lot came out for the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families.

[25]And their territory included Helkath, Hali, Beten, Achshaph,

[26]Alammelech, Amad, and Mishal; it reached to Mount Carmel westward, along the Brook Shihor Libnath.

[27]It turned toward the sunrise to Beth Dagon; and it reached to Zebulun and to the Valley of Jiphthah El, then northward beyond Beth Emek and Neiel, bypassing Cabul which was on the left,

[28]including Ebron, Rehob, Hammon, and Kanah, as far as Greater Sidon.

[29]And the border turned to Ramah and to the fortified city of Tyre; then the border turned to Hosah, and ended at the sea by the region of Achzib.

[30]Also Ummah, Aphek, and Rehob were included: twenty-two cities with their villages.

[31]This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families, these cities with their villages.

The Land of Naphtali

32The sixth lot came out to the children of Naphtali, for the children of Naphtali according to their families.

33And their border began at Heleph, enclosing the territory from the terebinth tree in Zaanannim, Adami Nekeb, and Jabneel, as far as Lakkum; it ended at the Jordan.

34From Heleph the border extended westward to Aznoth Tabor, and went out from there toward Hukkok; it adjoined Zebulun on the south side and Asher on the west side, and ended at Judah by the Jordan toward the sunrise.

35And the fortified cities are Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Chinnereth,

36Adamah, Ramah, Hazor,

37Kedesh, Edrei, En Hazor,

38Iron, Migdal El, Horem, Beth Anath, and Beth Shemesh: nineteen cities with their villages.

39This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali according to their families, the cities and their villages.

The Land of Dan

40The seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families.

41And the territory of their inheritance was Zorah, Eshtaol, Ir Shemesh,

42Shaalabbin, Aijalon, Jethlah,

43Elon, Timnah, Ekron,

44Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Baalath,

45Jehud, Bene Berak, Gath Rimmon,

46Me Jarkon, and Rakkon, with the region near Joppa.

47And the border of the children of Dan went beyond these, because the children of Dan went up to fight against Leshem and took it; and they struck it with the edge of the sword, took possession of it, and dwelt in it. They called Leshem, Dan, after the name of Dan their father.

[48]This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.

Joshua's Inheritance

[49]When they had made an end of dividing the land as an inheritance according to their borders, the children of Israel gave an inheritance among them to Joshua the son of Nun.

[50]According to the word of the LORD they gave him the city which he asked for, Timnath Serah in the mountains of Ephraim; and he built the city and dwelt in it.

[51]These were the inheritances which Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel divided as an inheritance by lot in Shiloh before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of meeting. So they made an end of dividing the country.

Joshua 20

The Cities of Refuge

[1]The LORD also spoke to Joshua, saying,

[2]"Speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'Appoint for yourselves cities of refuge, of which I spoke to you through Moses,

[3]'that the slayer who kills a person accidentally or unintentionally may flee there; and they shall be your refuge from the avenger of blood.

[4]'And when he flees to one of those cities, and stands at the entrance of the gate of the city, and declares his case in the hearing of the elders of that city, they shall take him into the city as one of them, and give him a place, that he may dwell among them.

[5]'Then if the avenger of blood pursues him, they shall not deliver the slayer into his hand, because he struck his neighbor unintentionally, but did not hate him beforehand.

[6]'And he shall dwell in that city until he stands before the congregation for judgment, and until the death of the one who is high priest in those days. Then the slayer may return and come to his own city and his own house, to the city from which he fled.' "

[7]So they appointed Kedesh in Galilee, in the mountains of Naphtali, Shechem in the mountains of Ephraim, and Kirjath Arba (which is Hebron) in the mountains of Judah.

[8]And on the other side of the Jordan, by Jericho eastward, they assigned Bezer in the wilderness on the plain, from the tribe of Reuben, Ramoth in Gilead, from the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan, from the tribe of Manasseh.

[9]These were the cities appointed for all the children of Israel and for the stranger who dwelt among them, that whoever killed a person accidentally might flee there, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood until he stood before the congregation.

Joshua 21

Cities of the Levites

[1]Then the heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites came near to Eleazar the priest, to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the heads of the fathers' houses of the tribes of the children of Israel.

[2]And they spoke to them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, "The LORD commanded through Moses to give us cities to dwell in, with their common-lands for our livestock."

[3]So the children of Israel gave to the Levites from their inheritance, at the commandment of the LORD, these cities and their common-lands:

[4]Now the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites. And the children of Aaron the priest, who were of the Levites, had thirteen cities by lot from the tribe of Judah, from the tribe of Simeon, and from the tribe of Benjamin.

[5]The rest of the children of Kohath had ten cities by lot from the families of the tribe of Ephraim, from the tribe of Dan, and from the half-tribe of Manasseh.

[6]And the children of Gershon had thirteen cities by lot from the families of the tribe of Issachar, from the tribe of Asher, from the tribe of Naphtali, and from the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.

[7]The children of Merari according to their families had twelve cities from the tribe of Reuben, from the tribe of Gad, and from the tribe of Zebulun.

[8]And the children of Israel gave these cities with their common-lands by lot to the Levites, as the LORD had commanded by the hand of Moses.

[9]So they gave from the tribe of the children of Judah and from the tribe of the children of Simeon these cities which are designated by name,

[10]which were for the children of Aaron, one of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the children of Levi; for the lot was theirs first.

[11]And they gave them Kirjath Arba (Arba was the father of Anak), which is Hebron, in the mountains of Judah, with the common-land surrounding it.

[12]But the fields of the city and its villages they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh as his possession.

13Thus to the children of Aaron the priest they gave Hebron with its common-land (a city of refuge for the slayer), Libnah with its common-land,

[14]Jattir with its common-land, Eshtemoa with its common-land,

[15]Holon with its common-land, Debir with its common-land,

[16]Ain with its common-land, Juttah with its common-land, and Beth Shemesh with its common-land: nine cities from those two tribes;

[17]and from the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon with its common-land, Geba with its common-land,

[18]Anathoth with its common-land, and Almon with its common-land: four cities.

[19]All the cities of the children of Aaron, the priests, were thirteen cities with their common-lands.

20And the families of the children of Kohath, the Levites, the rest of the children of Kohath, even they had the cities of their lot from the tribe of Ephraim.

[21]For they gave them Shechem with its common-land in the mountains of Ephraim (a city of refuge for the slayer), Gezer with its common-land,

[22]Kibzaim with its common-land, and Beth Horon with its common-land: four cities;

[23]and from the tribe of Dan, Eltekeh with its common-land, Gibbethon with its common-land,

[24]Aijalon with its common-land, and Gath Rimmon with its common-land: four cities;

[25]and from the half-tribe of Manasseh, Tanach with its common-land and Gath Rimmon with its common-land: two cities.

[26]All the ten cities with their common-lands were for the rest of the families of the children of Kohath.

27Also to the children of Gershon, of the families of the Levites, from the other half-tribe of Manasseh, they gave Golan in Bashan with its common-land (a city of refuge for the slayer), and Be Eshterah with its common-land: two cities;

28and from the tribe of Issachar, Kishion with its common-land, Daberath with its common-land,

29Jarmuth with its common-land, and En Gannim with its common-land: four cities;

30and from the tribe of Asher, Mishal with its common-land, Abdon with its common-land,

31Helkath with its common-land, and Rehob with its common-land: four cities;

32and from the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee with its common-land (a city of refuge for the slayer), Hammoth Dor with its common-land, and Kartan with its common-land: three cities.

33All the cities of the Gershonites according to their families were thirteen cities with their common-lands.

34And to the families of the children of Merari, the rest of the Levites, from the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam with its common-land, Kartah with its common-land,

35Dimnah with its common-land, and Nahalal with its common-land: four cities;

36and from the tribe of Reuben, Bezer with its common-land, Jahaz with its common-land,

37Kedemoth with its common-land, and Mephaath with its common-land: four cities;

38and from the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with its common-land (a city of refuge for the slayer), Mahanaim with its common-land, 39Heshbon with its common-land, and Jazer with its common-land: four cities in all.

40So all the cities for the children of Merari according to their families, the rest of the families of the Levites, were by their lot twelve cities.

41All the cities of the Levites within the possession of the children of Israel were forty-eight cities with their common-lands.

[42]Every one of these cities had its common-land surrounding it; thus were all these cities.

The Promise Fulfilled

[43]So the LORD gave to Israel all the land of which He had sworn to give to their fathers, and they took possession of it and dwelt in it.

[44]The LORD gave them rest all around, according to all that He had sworn to their fathers. And not a man of all their enemies stood against them; the LORD delivered all their enemies into their hand.

[45]Not a word failed of any good thing which the LORD had spoken to the house of Israel. All came to pass.

Joshua 22

Eastern Tribes Return to Their Lands

[1]Then Joshua called the Reubenites, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh,

[2]and said to them: “You have kept all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you.

[3]“You have not left your brethren these many days, up to this day, but have kept the charge of the commandment of the LORD your God.

[4]“And now the LORD your God has given rest to your brethren, as He promised them; now therefore, return and go to your tents and to the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side of the Jordan.

[5]“But take careful heed to do the commandment and the law which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways, to keep His commandments, to hold fast to Him, and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul.”

[6]So Joshua blessed them and sent them away, and they went to their tents.

[7]Now to half the tribe of Manasseh Moses had given a possession in Bashan, but to the other half of it Joshua gave a possession among their brethren on this side of the Jordan, westward. And indeed, when Joshua sent them away to their tents, he blessed them,

[8]and spoke to them, saying, “Return with much riches to your tents, with very much livestock, with silver, with gold, with bronze, with iron, and with very much clothing. Divide the spoil of your enemies with your brethren.”

[9]So the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh returned, and departed from the children of Israel at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go to the country of Gilead, to the land of their possession, which they had obtained according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

An Altar by the Jordan

[10]And when they came to the region of the Jordan which is in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh built an altar there by the Jordan—a great, impressive altar.

[11]Now the children of Israel heard someone say, “Behold, the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh have built an altar on the frontier of the land of Canaan, in the region of the Jordan—on the children of Israel’s side.”

[12]And when the children of Israel heard of it, the whole congregation of the children of Israel gathered together at Shiloh to go to war against them.

[13]Then the children of Israel sent Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest to the children of Reuben, to the children of Gad, and to half the tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead,

[14]and with him ten rulers, one ruler each from the chief house of every tribe of Israel; and each one was the head of the house of his father among the divisions of Israel.

[15]Then they came to the children of Reuben, to the children of Gad, and to half the tribe of Manasseh, to the land of Gilead, and they spoke with them, saying,

[16]“Thus says the whole congregation of the LORD: ‘What treachery is this that you have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from following the LORD, in that you have built for yourselves an altar, that you might rebel this day against the LORD?

[17]‘Is the iniquity of Peor not enough for us, from which we are not cleansed till this day, although there was a plague in the congregation of the LORD,

[18]‘but that you must turn away this day from following the LORD? And it shall be, if you rebel today against the LORD, that tomorrow He will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel.

[19]‘Nevertheless, if the land of your possession is unclean, then cross over to the land of the possession of the LORD, where the LORD’s tabernacle stands, and take possession among us; but do not rebel against the LORD, nor rebel against us, by building yourselves an altar besides the altar of the LORD our God.

[20]‘Did not Achan the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the accursed thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel? And that man did not perish alone in his iniquity.’ ”

[21]Then the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh answered and said to the heads of the divisions of Israel:

[22]“The LORD God of gods, the LORD God of gods, He knows, and let Israel itself know—if it is in rebellion, or if in treachery against the LORD, do not save us this day.

[23]“If we have built ourselves an altar to turn from following the LORD, or if to offer on it burnt offerings or grain offerings, or if to offer peace offerings on it, let the LORD Himself require an account.

[24]“But in fact we have done it for fear, for a reason, saying, ‘In time to come your descendants may speak to our descendants, saying, “What have you to do with the LORD God of Israel?

[25]“For the LORD has made the Jordan a border between you and us, you children of Reuben and children of Gad. You have no part in the LORD.” So your descendants would make our descendants cease fearing the LORD.’

[26]“Therefore we said, ‘Let us now prepare to build ourselves an altar, not for burnt offering nor for sacrifice,

[27]‘but that it may be a witness between you and us and our generations after us, that we may perform the service of the LORD before Him with our burnt offerings, with our sacrifices, and with our peace offerings; that your descendants may not say to our descendants in time to come, “You have no part in the LORD.” ’

[28]“Therefore we said that it will be, when they say this to us or to our generations in time to come, that we may say, ‘Here is the replica of the altar of the LORD which our fathers made, though not for burnt offerings nor for sacrifices; but it is a witness between you and us.’

[29]“Far be it from us that we should rebel against the LORD, and turn from following the LORD this day, to build an altar for burnt offerings, for grain offerings, or for sacrifices, besides the altar of the LORD our God which is before His tabernacle.”

30Now when Phinehas the priest and the rulers of the congregation, the heads of the divisions of Israel who were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and the children of Manasseh spoke, it pleased them.

31Then Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said to the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and the children of Manasseh, “This day we perceive that the LORD is among us, because you have not committed this treachery against the LORD. Now you have delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of the LORD.”

32And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and the rulers, returned from the children of Reuben and the children of Gad, from the land of Gilead to the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought back word to them.

33So the thing pleased the children of Israel, and the children of Israel blessed God; they spoke no more of going against them in battle, to destroy the land where the children of Reuben and Gad dwelt.

34The children of Reuben and the children of Gad called the altar, Witness, “For it is a witness between us that the LORD is God.”

Joshua 23

Joshua's Farewell Address

[1]Now it came to pass, a long time after the LORD had given rest to Israel from all their enemies round about, that Joshua was old, advanced in age.

[2]And Joshua called for all Israel, for their elders, for their heads, for their judges, and for their officers, and said to them: "I am old, advanced in age.

[3]"You have seen all that the LORD your God has done to all these nations because of you, for the LORD your God is He who has fought for you.

[4]"See, I have divided to you by lot these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from the Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, as far as the Great Sea westward.

[5]"And the LORD your God will expel them from before you and drive them out of your sight. So you shall possess their land, as the LORD your God promised you.

[6]"Therefore be very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, lest you turn aside from it to the right hand or to the left,

[7]"and lest you go among these nations, these who remain among you. You shall not make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause anyone to swear by them; you shall not serve them nor bow down to them,

[8]"but you shall hold fast to the LORD your God, as you have done to this day.

[9]"For the LORD has driven out from before you great and strong nations; but as for you, no one has been able to stand against you to this day.

[10]"One man of you shall chase a thousand, for the LORD your God is He who fights for you, as He promised you.

[11]"Therefore take careful heed to yourselves, that you love the LORD your God.

[12]“Or else, if indeed you do go back, and cling to the remnant of these nations—these that remain among you—and make marriages with them, and go in to them and they to you,

[13]“know for certain that the LORD your God will no longer drive out these nations from before you. But they shall be snares and traps to you, and scourges on your sides and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from this good land which the LORD your God has given you.

[14]“Behold, this day I am going the way of all the earth. And you know in all your hearts and in all your souls that not one thing has failed of all the good things which the LORD your God spoke concerning you. All have come to pass for you; not one word of them has failed.

[15]“Therefore it shall come to pass, that as all the good things have come upon you which the LORD your God promised you, so the LORD will bring upon you all harmful things, until He has destroyed you from this good land which the LORD your God has given you.

[16]“When you have transgressed the covenant of the LORD your God, which He commanded you, and have gone and served other gods, and bowed down to them, then the anger of the LORD will burn against you, and you shall perish quickly from the good land which He has given you.”

Joshua 24

The Covenant at Shechem

[1]Then Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem and called for the elders of Israel, for their heads, for their judges, and for their officers; and they presented themselves before God.

[2]And Joshua said to all the people, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'Your fathers, including Terah, the father of Abraham and the father of Nahor, dwelt on the other side of the River in old times; and they served other gods.

[3]'Then I took your father Abraham from the other side of the River, led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his descendants and gave him Isaac.

[4]'To Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau. To Esau I gave the mountains of Seir to possess, but Jacob and his children went down to Egypt.

[5]'Also I sent Moses and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, according to what I did among them. Afterward I brought you out.

[6]'Then I brought your fathers out of Egypt, and you came to the sea; and the Egyptians pursued your fathers with chariots and horsemen to the Red Sea.

[7]'So they cried out to the LORD; and He put darkness between you and the Egyptians, brought the sea upon them, and covered them. And your eyes saw what I did in Egypt. Then you dwelt in the wilderness a long time.

[8]'And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, who dwelt on the other side of the Jordan, and they fought with you. But I gave them into your hand, that you might possess their land, and I destroyed them from before you.

[9]'Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose to make war against Israel, and sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you.

[10]'But I would not listen to Balaam; therefore he continued to bless you. So I delivered you out of his hand.

[11]'Then you went over the Jordan and came to Jericho. And the men of Jericho fought against you—also the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. But I delivered them into your hand.

[12]'I sent the hornet before you which drove them out from before you, also the two kings of the Amorites, but not with your sword or with your bow.

[13]'I have given you a land for which you did not labor, and cities which you did not build, and you dwell in them; you eat of the vineyards and olive groves which you did not plant.'

[14]"Now therefore, fear the LORD, serve Him in sincerity and in truth, and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the River and in Egypt. Serve the LORD!

[15]"And if it seems evil to you to serve the LORD, choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the River, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell. But as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD."

[16]So the people answered and said: "Far be it from us that we should forsake the LORD to serve other gods;

[17]"for the LORD our God is He who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, who did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way that we went and among all the people through whom we passed.

[18]"And the LORD drove out from before us all the people, including the Amorites who dwelt in the land. We also will serve the LORD, for He is our God."

[19]But Joshua said to the people, "You cannot serve the LORD, for He is a holy God. He is a jealous God; He will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins.

[20]"If you forsake the LORD and serve foreign gods, then He will turn and do you harm and consume you, after He has done you good."

[21]And the people said to Joshua, "No, but we will serve the LORD!"

[22]So Joshua said to the people, "You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen the LORD for yourselves, to serve Him." And they said, "We are witnesses!"

[23]“Now therefore,” he said, “put away the foreign gods which are among you, and incline your heart to the LORD God of Israel.”

[24]And the people said to Joshua, “The LORD our God we will serve, and His voice we will obey!”

[25]So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and made for them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem.

[26]Then Joshua wrote these words in the Book of the Law of God. And he took a large stone, and set it up there under the oak that was by the sanctuary of the LORD.

[27]And Joshua said to all the people, “Behold, this stone shall be a witness to us, for it has heard all the words of the LORD which He spoke to us. It shall therefore be a witness to you, lest you deny your God.”

[28]So Joshua let the people depart, each to his own inheritance.

Death of Joshua and Eleazar

[29]Now it came to pass after these things that Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being one hundred and ten years old.

[30]And they buried him within the border of his inheritance at Timnath Serah, which is in the mountains of Ephraim, on the north side of Mount Gaash.

[31]Israel served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had known all the works of the LORD which He had done for Israel.

[32]The bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel had brought up out of Egypt, they buried at Shechem, in the plot of ground which Jacob had bought from the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem for one hundred pieces of silver, and which had become an inheritance of the children of Joseph.

[33]And Eleazar the son of Aaron died. They buried him in a hill belonging to Phinehas his son, which was given to him in the mountains of Ephraim.

The Book of
Judges

Judges 1

The Continuing Conquest of Canaan

[1]Now after the death of Joshua it came to pass that the children of Israel asked the LORD, saying, “Who shall be first to go up for us against the Canaanites to fight against them?”

[2]And the LORD said, “Judah shall go up. Indeed I have delivered the land into his hand.”

[3]So Judah said to Simeon his brother, “Come up with me to my allotted territory, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and I will likewise go with you to your allotted territory.” And Simeon went with him.

[4]Then Judah went up, and the LORD delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand; and they killed ten thousand men at Bezek.

[5]And they found Adoni-Bezek in Bezek, and fought against him; and they defeated the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

[6]Then Adoni-Bezek fled, and they pursued him and caught him and cut off his thumbs and big toes.

[7]And Adoni-Bezek said, “Seventy kings with their thumbs and big toes cut off used to gather scraps under my table; as I have done, so God has repaid me.” Then they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.

[8]Now the children of Judah fought against Jerusalem and took it; they struck it with the edge of the sword and set the city on fire.

[9]And afterward the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites who dwelt in the mountains, in the South, and in the lowland.

[10]Then Judah went against the Canaanites who dwelt in Hebron. (Now the name of Hebron was formerly Kirjath Arba.) And they killed Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai.

[11]From there they went against the inhabitants of Debir. (The name of Debir was formerly Kirjath Sepher.)

[12]Then Caleb said, “Whoever attacks Kirjath Sepher and takes it, to him I will give my daughter Achsah as wife.”

[13]And Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb’s younger brother, took it; so he gave him his daughter Achsah as wife.

[14]Now it happened, when she came to him, that she urged him to ask her father for a field. And she dismounted from her donkey, and Caleb said to her, “What do you wish?”

[15]So she said to him, “Give me a blessing; since you have given me land in the South, give me also springs of water.” And Caleb gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

16Now the children of the Kenite, Moses’ father-in-law, went up from the City of Palms with the children of Judah into the Wilderness of Judah, which lies in the South near Arad; and they went and dwelt among the people.

[17]And Judah went with his brother Simeon, and they attacked the Canaanites who inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. So the name of the city was called Hormah.

[18]Also Judah took Gaza with its territory, Ashkelon with its territory, and Ekron with its territory.

[19]So the LORD was with Judah. And they drove out the mountaineers, but they could not drive out the inhabitants of the lowland, because they had chariots of iron.

[20]And they gave Hebron to Caleb, as Moses had said. Then he expelled from there the three sons of Anak.

[21]But the children of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites who inhabited Jerusalem; so the Jebusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem to this day.

22And the house of Joseph also went up against Bethel, and the LORD was with them.

[23]So the house of Joseph sent men to spy out Bethel. (The name of the city was formerly Luz.)

[24]And when the spies saw a man coming out of the city, they said to him, “Please show us the entrance to the city, and we will show you mercy.”

[25]So he showed them the entrance to the city, and they struck the city with the edge of the sword; but they let the man and all his family go.

[26]And the man went to the land of the Hittites, built a city, and called its name Luz, which is its name to this day.

Incomplete Conquest of the Land

[27]However, Manasseh did not drive out the inhabitants of Beth Shean and its villages, or Taanach and its villages, or the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, or the inhabitants of Ibleam and its villages, or the inhabitants of Megiddo and its villages; for the Canaanites were determined to dwell in that land.

[28]And it came to pass, when Israel was strong, that they put the Canaanites under tribute, but did not completely drive them out.

[29]Nor did Ephraim drive out the Canaanites who dwelt in Gezer; so the Canaanites dwelt in Gezer among them.

[30]Nor did Zebulun drive out the inhabitants of Kitron or the inhabitants of Nahalol; so the Canaanites dwelt among them, and were put under tribute.

[31]Nor did Asher drive out the inhabitants of Acco or the inhabitants of Sidon, or of Ahlab, Achzib, Helbah, Aphik, or Rehob.

[32]So the Asherites dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; for they did not drive them out.

[33]Nor did Naphtali drive out the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh or the inhabitants of Beth Anath; but they dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land. Nevertheless the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh and Beth Anath were put under tribute to them.

[34]And the Amorites forced the children of Dan into the mountains, for they would not allow them to come down to the valley;

[35]and the Amorites were determined to dwell in Mount Heres, in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim; yet when the strength of the house of Joseph became greater, they were put under tribute.

[36]Now the boundary of the Amorites was from the Ascent of Akrabbim, from Sela, and upward.

Judges 2

Israel's Disobedience

[1]Then the Angel of the LORD came up from Gilgal to Bochim, and said: "I led you up from Egypt and brought you to the land of which I swore to your fathers; and I said, 'I will never break My covenant with you.

[2]'And you shall make no covenant with the inhabitants of this land; you shall tear down their altars.' But you have not obeyed My voice. Why have you done this?

[3]"Therefore I also said, 'I will not drive them out before you; but they shall be thorns in your side, and their gods shall be a snare to you.' "

[4]So it was, when the Angel of the LORD spoke these words to all the children of Israel, that the people lifted up their voices and wept.

[5]Then they called the name of that place Bochim; and they sacrificed there to the LORD.

[6]And when Joshua had dismissed the people, the children of Israel went each to his own inheritance to possess the land.

Death of Joshua

[7]So the people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great works of the LORD which He had done for Israel.

[8]Now Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died when he was one hundred and ten years old.

[9]And they buried him within the border of his inheritance at Timnath Heres, in the mountains of Ephraim, on the north side of Mount Gaash.

[10]When all that generation had been gathered to their fathers, another generation arose after them who did not know the LORD nor the work which He had done for Israel.

Israel's Unfaithfulness

[11]Then the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and served the Baals;

[12]and they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt; and they followed other gods from among the gods of the people who were all around them, and they bowed down to them; and they provoked the LORD to anger.

[13]They forsook the LORD and served Baal and the Ashtoreths.

[14]And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel. So He delivered them into the hands of plunderers who despoiled them; and He sold them into the hands of their enemies all around, so that they could no longer stand before their enemies.

[15]Wherever they went out, the hand of the LORD was against them for calamity, as the LORD had said, and as the LORD had sworn to them. And they were greatly distressed.

[16]Nevertheless, the LORD raised up judges who delivered them out of the hand of those who plundered them.

[17]Yet they would not listen to their judges, but they played the harlot with other gods, and bowed down to them. They turned quickly from the way in which their fathers walked, in obeying the commandments of the LORD; they did not do so.

[18]And when the LORD raised up judges for them, the LORD was with the judge and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; for the LORD was moved to pity by their groaning because of those who oppressed them and harassed them.

[19]And it came to pass, when the judge was dead, that they reverted and behaved more corruptly than their fathers, by following other gods, to serve them and bow down to them. They did not cease from their own doings nor from their stubborn way.

[20]Then the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel; and He said, “Because this nation has transgressed My covenant which I commanded their fathers, and has not heeded My voice,

[21]“I also will no longer drive out before them any of the nations which Joshua left when he died,

[22]“so that through them I may test Israel, whether they will keep the ways of the LORD, to walk in them as their fathers kept them, or not.”

[23]Therefore the LORD left those nations, without driving them out immediately; nor did He deliver them into the hand of Joshua.

Judges 3

The Nations Remaining in the Land

[1]Now these are the nations which the LORD left, that He might test Israel by them, that is, all who had not known any of the wars in Canaan

[2](this was only so that the generations of the children of Israel might be taught to know war, at least those who had not formerly known it),

[3]namely, five lords of the Philistines, all the Canaanites, the Sidonians, and the Hivites who dwelt in Mount Lebanon, from Mount Baal Hermon to the entrance of Hamath.

[4]And they were left, that He might test Israel by them, to know whether they would obey the commandments of the LORD, which He had commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

[5]Thus the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

[6]And they took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their sons; and they served their gods.

Othniel

[7]So the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD. They forgot the LORD their God, and served the Baals and Asherahs.

[8]Therefore the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and He sold them into the hand of Cushan-Rishathaim king of Mesopotamia; and the children of Israel served Cushan-Rishathaim eight years.

[9]When the children of Israel cried out to the LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer for the children of Israel, who delivered them: Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother.

[10]The Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he judged Israel. He went out to war, and the LORD delivered Cushan-Rishathaim king of Mesopotamia into his hand; and his hand prevailed over Cushan-Rishathaim.

[11]So the land had rest for forty years. Then Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

Ehud

12And the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD. So the LORD strengthened Eglon king of Moab against Israel, because they had done evil in the sight of the LORD.

13Then he gathered to himself the people of Ammon and Amalek, went and defeated Israel, and took possession of the City of Palms.

14So the children of Israel served Eglon king of Moab eighteen years.

15But when the children of Israel cried out to the LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer for them: Ehud the son of Gera, the Benjamite, a left-handed man. By him the children of Israel sent tribute to Eglon king of Moab.

16Now Ehud made himself a dagger (it was double-edged and a cubit in length) and fastened it under his clothes on his right thigh.

17So he brought the tribute to Eglon king of Moab. (Now Eglon was a very fat man.)

18And when he had finished presenting the tribute, he sent away the people who had carried the tribute.

19But he himself turned back from the stone images that were at Gilgal, and said, “I have a secret message for you, O king.” He said, “Keep silence!” And all who attended him went out from him.

20So Ehud came to him (now he was sitting upstairs in his cool private chamber). Then Ehud said, “I have a message from God for you.” So he arose from his seat.

22Even the hilt went in after the blade, and the fat closed over the blade, for he did not draw the dagger out of his belly; and his entrails came out.

23Then Ehud went out through the porch and shut the doors of the upper room behind him and locked them.

24When he had gone out, Eglon’s servants came to look, and to their surprise, the doors of the upper room were locked. So they said, “He is probably attending to his needs in the cool chamber.”

25So they waited till they were embarrassed, and still he had not opened the doors of the upper room. Therefore they took the key and opened them. And there was their master, fallen dead on the floor.

26But Ehud had escaped while they delayed, and passed beyond the stone images and escaped to Seirah.

27And it happened, when he arrived, that he blew the trumpet in the mountains of Ephraim, and the children of Israel went down with him from the mountains; and he led them.

28Then he said to them, “Follow me, for the LORD has delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand.” So they went down after him, seized the fords of the Jordan leading to Moab, and did not allow anyone to cross over.

29And at that time they killed about ten thousand men of Moab, all stout men of valor; not a man escaped.

30So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And the land had rest for eighty years.

Shamgar

31After him was Shamgar the son of Anath, who killed six hundred men of the Philistines with an ox goad; and he also delivered Israel.

Judges 4

Deborah

[1]When Ehud was dead, the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD.

[2]So the LORD sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor. The commander of his army was Sisera, who dwelt in Harosheth Hagoyim.

[3]And the children of Israel cried out to the LORD; for Jabin had nine hundred chariots of iron, and for twenty years he had harshly oppressed the children of Israel.

[4]Now Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lapidoth, was judging Israel at that time.

[5]And she would sit under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the mountains of Ephraim. And the children of Israel came up to her for judgment.

[6]Then she sent and called for Barak the son of Abinoam from Kedesh in Naphtali, and said to him, “Has not the LORD God of Israel commanded, ‘Go and deploy troops at Mount Tabor; take with you ten thousand men of the sons of Naphtali and of the sons of Zebulun;

[7]‘and against you I will deploy Sisera, the commander of Jabin’s army, with his chariots and his multitude at the River Kishon; and I will deliver him into your hand’?”

[8]And Barak said to her, “If you will go with me, then I will go; but if you will not go with me, I will not go!”

[9]So she said, “I will surely go with you; nevertheless there will be no glory for you in the journey you are taking, for the LORD will sell Sisera into the hand of a woman.” Then Deborah arose and went with Barak to Kedesh.

[10]And Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh; he went up with ten thousand men under his command, and Deborah went up with him.

[11]Now Heber the Kenite, of the children of Hobab the father-in-law of Moses, had separated himself from the Kenites and pitched his tent near the terebinth tree at Zaanaim, which is beside Kedesh.

[12]And they reported to Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor.

[13]So Sisera gathered together all his chariots, nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people who were with him, from Harosheth Hagoyim to the River Kishon.

[14]Then Deborah said to Barak, “Up! For this is the day in which the LORD has delivered Sisera into your hand. Has not the LORD gone out before you?” So Barak went down from Mount Tabor with ten thousand men following him.

[15]And the LORD routed Sisera and all his chariots and all his army with the edge of the sword before Barak; and Sisera alighted from his chariot and fled away on foot.

[16]But Barak pursued the chariots and the army as far as Harosheth Hagoyim, and all the army of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword; not a man was left.

[17]However, Sisera had fled away on foot to the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite; for there was peace between Jabin king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite.

[18]And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said to him, “Turn aside, my lord, turn aside to me; do not fear.” And when he had turned aside with her into the tent, she covered him with a blanket.

[19]Then he said to her, “Please give me a little water to drink, for I am thirsty.” So she opened a jug of milk, gave him a drink, and covered him.

[20]And he said to her, “Stand at the door of the tent, and if any man comes and inquires of you, and says, ‘Is there any man here?’ you shall say, ‘No.’ ”

[21]Then Jael, Heber’s wife, took a tent peg and took a hammer in her hand, and went softly to him and drove the peg into his temple, and it went down into the ground; for he was fast asleep and weary. So he died.

[22]And then, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him, and said to him, “Come, I will show you the man whom you seek.” And when he went into her tent, there lay Sisera, dead with the peg in his temple.

[23]So on that day God subdued Jabin king of Canaan in the presence of the children of Israel.

[24]And the hand of the children of Israel grew stronger and stronger against Jabin king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.

Judges 5

The Song of Deborah

[1]Then Deborah and Barak the son of Abinoam sang on that day, saying:

[2]“When leaders lead in Israel,
When the people willingly offer themselves,
Bless the LORD!

[3]“Hear, O kings! Give ear, O princes!
I, even I, will sing to the LORD;
I will sing praise to the LORD God of Israel.

[4]“LORD, when You went out from Seir,
When You marched from the field of Edom,
The earth trembled and the heavens poured,
The clouds also poured water;
[5]The mountains gushed before the LORD,
This Sinai, before the LORD God of Israel.

[6]“In the days of Shamgar, son of Anath,
In the days of Jael,
The highways were deserted,
And the travelers walked along the byways.
[7]Village life ceased, it ceased in Israel,
Until I, Deborah, arose,
Arose a mother in Israel.
[8]They chose new gods;
Then there was war in the gates;
Not a shield or spear was seen among forty thousand in Israel.
[9]My heart is with the rulers of Israel
Who offered themselves willingly with the people.
Bless the LORD!

[10]“Speak, you who ride on white donkeys,

Who sit in judges' attire,
And who walk along the road.
[11]Far from the noise of the archers, among the watering places,
There they shall recount the righteous acts of the LORD,
The righteous acts for His villagers in Israel;
Then the people of the LORD shall go down to the gates.

[12]"Awake, awake, Deborah!
Awake, awake, sing a song!
Arise, Barak, and lead your captives away,
O son of Abinoam!

[13]"Then the survivors came down, the people against the nobles;
The LORD came down for me against the mighty.
[14]From Ephraim were those whose roots were in Amalek.
After you, Benjamin, with your peoples,
From Machir rulers came down,
And from Zebulun those who bear the recruiter's staff.
[15]And the princes of Issachar were with Deborah;
As Issachar, so was Barak
Sent into the valley under his command;
Among the divisions of Reuben
There were great resolves of heart.
[16]Why did you sit among the sheepfolds,
To hear the pipings for the flocks?
The divisions of Reuben have great searchings of heart.
[17]Gilead stayed beyond the Jordan,
And why did Dan remain on ships?
Asher continued at the seashore,
And stayed by his inlets.
[18]Zebulun is a people who jeopardized their lives to the point of death,
Naphtali also, on the heights of the battlefield.

[19]"The kings came and fought,

Then the kings of Canaan fought
In Taanach, by the waters of Megiddo;
They took no spoils of silver.
[20]They fought from the heavens;
The stars from their courses fought against Sisera.
[21]The torrent of Kishon swept them away,
That ancient torrent, the torrent of Kishon.
O my soul, march on in strength!
[22]Then the horses' hooves pounded,
The galloping, galloping of his steeds.
[23]'Curse Meroz,' said the angel of the LORD,
'Curse its inhabitants bitterly,
Because they did not come to the help of the LORD,
To the help of the LORD against the mighty.'

[24]"Most blessed among women is Jael,
The wife of Heber the Kenite;
Blessed is she among women in tents.
[25]He asked for water, she gave milk;
She brought out cream in a lordly bowl.
[26]She stretched her hand to the tent peg,
Her right hand to the workmen's hammer;
She pounded Sisera, she pierced his head,
She split and struck through his temple.
[27]At her feet he sank, he fell, he lay still;
At her feet he sank, he fell;
Where he sank, there he fell dead.

[28]"The mother of Sisera looked through the window,
And cried out through the lattice,
'Why is his chariot so long in coming?
Why tarries the clatter of his chariots?'
[29]Her wisest ladies answered her,
Yes, she answered herself,
[30]'Are they not finding and dividing the spoil:
To every man a girl or two;

For Sisera, plunder of dyed garments,
Plunder of garments embroidered and dyed,
Two pieces of dyed embroidery for the neck of the looter?’

[31]“Thus let all Your enemies perish, O LORD!
But let those who love Him be like the sun
When it comes out in full strength.”

So the land had rest for forty years.

Judges 6

Midianites Oppress Israel

[1]Then the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD. So the LORD delivered them into the hand of Midian for seven years,

[2]and the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel. Because of the Midianites, the children of Israel made for themselves the dens, the caves, and the strongholds which are in the mountains.

[3]So it was, whenever Israel had sown, Midianites would come up; also Amalekites and the people of the East would come up against them.

[4]Then they would encamp against them and destroy the produce of the earth as far as Gaza, and leave no sustenance for Israel, neither sheep nor ox nor donkey.

[5]For they would come up with their livestock and their tents, coming in as numerous as locusts; both they and their camels were without number; and they would enter the land to destroy it.

[6]So Israel was greatly impoverished because of the Midianites, and the children of Israel cried out to the LORD.

[7]And it came to pass, when the children of Israel cried out to the LORD because of the Midianites,

[8]that the LORD sent a prophet to the children of Israel, who said to them, “Thus says the LORD God of Israel: ‘I brought you up from Egypt and brought you out of the house of bondage;

[9]‘and I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians and out of the hand of all who oppressed you, and drove them out before you and gave you their land.

[10]‘Also I said to you, “I am the LORD your God; do not fear the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell.” But you have not obeyed My voice.’ ”

Gideon

[11]Now the Angel of the LORD came and sat under the terebinth tree which was in Ophrah, which belonged to Joash the Abiezrite, while his son Gideon threshed wheat in the winepress, in order to hide it from the Midianites.

[12]And the Angel of the LORD appeared to him, and said to him, “The LORD is with you, you mighty man of valor!”

[13]Gideon said to Him, “O my lord, if the LORD is with us, why then has all this happened to us? And where are all His miracles which our fathers told us about, saying, ‘Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt?’ But now the LORD has forsaken us and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites.”

[14]Then the LORD turned to him and said, “Go in this might of yours, and you shall save Israel from the hand of the Midianites. Have I not sent you?”

[15]So he said to Him, “O my Lord, how can I save Israel? Indeed my clan is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father’s house.”

[16]And the LORD said to him, “Surely I will be with you, and you shall defeat the Midianites as one man.”

[17]Then he said to Him, “If now I have found favor in Your sight, then show me a sign that it is You who talk with me.

[18]“Do not depart from here, I pray, until I come to You and bring out my offering and set it before You.” And He said, “I will wait until you come back.”

[19]So Gideon went in and prepared a young goat, and unleavened bread from an ephah of flour. The meat he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot; and he brought them out to Him under the terebinth tree and presented them.

[20]The Angel of God said to him, “Take the meat and the unleavened bread and lay them on this rock, and pour out the broth.” And he did so.

[21]Then the Angel of the LORD put out the end of the staff that was in His hand, and touched the meat and the unleavened bread; and fire rose out of the rock and consumed the meat and the unleavened bread. And the Angel of the LORD departed out of his sight.

[22]Now Gideon perceived that He was the Angel of the LORD. So Gideon said, “Alas, O Lord GOD! For I have seen the Angel of the LORD face to face.”

[23]Then the LORD said to him, “Peace be with you; do not fear, you shall not die.”

[24]So Gideon built an altar there to the LORD, and called it The-LORD-Is-Peace. To this day it is still in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

[25]Now it came to pass the same night that the LORD said to him, “Take your father’s young bull, the second bull of seven years old, and tear down the altar of Baal that your father has, and cut down the wooden image that is beside it;

[26]“and build an altar to the LORD your God on top of this rock in the proper arrangement, and take the second bull and offer a burnt sacrifice with the wood of the image which you shall cut down.”

[27]So Gideon took ten men from among his servants and did as the LORD had said to him. But because he feared his father’s household and the men of the city too much to do it by day, he did it by night.

Gideon Destroys the Altar of Baal

[28]And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, there was the altar of Baal, torn down; and the wooden image that was beside it was cut down, and the second bull was being offered on the altar which had been built.

[29]So they said to one another, “Who has done this thing?” And when they had inquired and asked, they said, “Gideon the son of Joash has done this thing.”

[30]Then the men of the city said to Joash, “Bring out your son, that he may die, because he has torn down the altar of Baal, and because he has cut down the wooden image that was beside it.”

[31]But Joash said to all who stood against him, “Would you plead for Baal? Would you save him? Let the one who would plead for him be put to death by morning! If he is a god, let him plead for himself, because his altar has been torn down!”

[32]Therefore on that day he called him Jerubbaal, saying, “Let Baal plead against him, because he has torn down his altar.”

[33]Then all the Midianites and Amalekites, the people of the East, gathered together; and they crossed over and encamped in the Valley of Jezreel.

[34]But the Spirit of the LORD came upon Gideon; then he blew the trumpet, and the Abiezrites gathered behind him.

[35]And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh, who also gathered behind him. He also sent messengers to Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali; and they came up to meet them.

The Sign of the Fleece

[36]So Gideon said to God, “If You will save Israel by my hand as You have said—

[37]“look, I shall put a fleece of wool on the threshing floor; if there is dew on the fleece only, and it is dry on all the ground, then I shall know that You will save Israel by my hand, as You have said.”

[38]And it was so. When he rose early the next morning and squeezed the fleece together, he wrung the dew out of the fleece, a bowlful of water.

[39]Then Gideon said to God, “Do not be angry with me, but let me speak just once more: Let me test, I pray, just once more with the fleece; let it now be dry only on the fleece, but on all the ground let there be dew.”

[40]And God did so that night. It was dry on the fleece only, but there was dew on all the ground.

Judges 7

Gideon's Valiant Three Hundred

[1]Then Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) and all the people who were with him rose early and encamped beside the well of Harod, so that the camp of the Midianites was on the north side of them by the hill of Moreh in the valley.

[2]And the LORD said to Gideon, "The people who are with you are too many for Me to give the Midianites into their hands, lest Israel claim glory for itself against Me, saying, 'My own hand has saved me.'

[3]"Now therefore, proclaim in the hearing of the people, saying, 'Whoever is fearful and afraid, let him turn and depart at once from Mount Gilead.' " And twenty-two thousand of the people returned, and ten thousand remained.

[4]But the LORD said to Gideon, "The people are still too many; bring them down to the water, and I will test them for you there. Then it will be, that of whom I say to you, 'This one shall go with you,' the same shall go with you; and of whomever I say to you, 'This one shall not go with you,' the same shall not go."

[5]So he brought the people down to the water. And the LORD said to Gideon, "Everyone who laps from the water with his tongue, as a dog laps, you shall set apart by himself; likewise everyone who gets down on his knees to drink."

[6]And the number of those who lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, was three hundred men; but all the rest of the people got down on their knees to drink water.

[7]Then the LORD said to Gideon, "By the three hundred men who lapped I will save you, and deliver the Midianites into your hand. Let all the other people go, every man to his place."

[8]So the people took provisions and their trumpets in their hands. And he sent away all the rest of Israel, every man to his tent, and retained those three hundred men. Now the camp of Midian was below him in the valley.

9It happened on the same night that the LORD said to him, “Arise, go down against the camp, for I have delivered it into your hand.

10“But if you are afraid to go down, go down to the camp with Purah your servant,

11“and you shall hear what they say; and afterward your hands shall be strengthened to go down against the camp.” Then he went down with Purah his servant to the outpost of the armed men who were in the camp.

12Now the Midianites and Amalekites, all the people of the East, were lying in the valley as numerous as locusts; and their camels were without number, as the sand by the seashore in multitude.

13And when Gideon had come, there was a man telling a dream to his companion. He said, “I have had a dream: To my surprise, a loaf of barley bread tumbled into the camp of Midian; it came to a tent and struck it so that it fell and overturned, and the tent collapsed.”

14Then his companion answered and said, “This is nothing else but the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel! Into his hand God has delivered Midian and the whole camp.”

15And so it was, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream and its interpretation, that he worshiped. He returned to the camp of Israel, and said, “Arise, for the LORD has delivered the camp of Midian into your hand.”

16Then he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put a trumpet into every man’s hand, with empty pitchers, and torches inside the pitchers.

17And he said to them, “Look at me and do likewise; watch, and when I come to the edge of the camp you shall do as I do:

18“When I blow the trumpet, I and all who are with me, then you also blow the trumpets on every side of the whole camp, and say, ‘The sword of the LORD and of Gideon!’ ”

19So Gideon and the hundred men who were with him came to the outpost of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, just as they had posted the watch; and they blew the trumpets and broke the pitchers that were in their hands.

[20]Then the three companies blew the trumpets and broke the pitchers—they held the torches in their left hands and the trumpets in their right hands for blowing—and they cried, “The sword of the LORD and of Gideon!”

[21]And every man stood in his place all around the camp; and the whole army ran and cried out and fled.

[22]When the three hundred blew the trumpets, the LORD set every man’s sword against his companion throughout the whole camp; and the army fled to Beth Acacia, toward Zererah, as far as the border of Abel Meholah, by Tabbath.

[23]And the men of Israel gathered together from Naphtali, Asher, and all Manasseh, and pursued the Midianites.

[24]Then Gideon sent messengers throughout all the mountains of Ephraim, saying, “Come down against the Midianites, and seize from them the watering places as far as Beth Barah and the Jordan.” Then all the men of Ephraim gathered together and seized the watering places as far as Beth Barah and the Jordan.

[25]And they captured two princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb. They killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and Zeeb they killed at the winepress of Zeeb. They pursued Midian and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon on the other side of the Jordan.

Judges 8

Gideon Subdues the Midianites

[1]Now the men of Ephraim said to him, “Why have you done this to us by not calling us when you went to fight with the Midianites?” And they reprimanded him sharply.

[2]So he said to them, “What have I done now in comparison with you? Is not the gleaning of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer?

[3]“God has delivered into your hands the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb. And what was I able to do in comparison with you?” Then their anger toward him subsided when he said that.

[4]When Gideon came to the Jordan, he and the three hundred men who were with him crossed over, exhausted but still in pursuit.

[5]Then he said to the men of Succoth, “Please give loaves of bread to the people who follow me, for they are exhausted, and I am pursuing Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of Midian.”

[6]And the leaders of Succoth said, “Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread to your army?”

[7]So Gideon said, “For this cause, when the LORD has delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers!”

[8]Then he went up from there to Penuel and spoke to them in the same way. And the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered.

[9]So he also spoke to the men of Penuel, saying, “When I come back in peace, I will tear down this tower!”

[10]Now Zebah and Zalmunna were at Karkor, and their armies with them, about fifteen thousand, all who were left of all the army of the people of the East; for one hundred and twenty thousand men who drew the sword had fallen.

[11]Then Gideon went up by the road of those who dwell in tents on the east of Nobah and Jogbehah; and he attacked the army while the camp felt secure.

[12]When Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he pursued them; and he took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and routed the whole army.

[14]And he caught a young man of the men of Succoth and interrogated him; and he wrote down for him the leaders of Succoth and its elders, seventy-seven men.

[15]Then he came to the men of Succoth and said, "Here are Zebah and Zalmunna, about whom you ridiculed me, saying, 'Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread to your weary men?' "

[16]And he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he taught the men of Succoth.

[17]Then he tore down the tower of Penuel and killed the men of the city.

[18]And he said to Zebah and Zalmunna, "What kind of men were they whom you killed at Tabor?" So they answered, "As you are, so were they; each one resembled the son of a king."

[19]Then he said, "They were my brothers, the sons of my mother. As the LORD lives, if you had let them live, I would not kill you."

[20]And he said to Jether his firstborn, "Rise, kill them!" But the youth would not draw his sword; for he was afraid, because he was still a youth.

[21]So Zebah and Zalmunna said, "Rise yourself, and kill us; for as a man is, so is his strength." So Gideon arose and killed Zebah and Zalmunna, and took the crescent ornaments that were on their camels' necks.

Gideon's Ephod

[22]Then the men of Israel said to Gideon, "Rule over us, both you and your son, and your grandson also; for you have delivered us from the hand of Midian."

[23]But Gideon said to them, "I will not rule over you, nor shall my son rule over you; the LORD shall rule over you."

[24]Then Gideon said to them, “I would like to make a request of you, that each of you would give me the earrings from his plunder.” For they had golden earrings, because they were Ishmaelites.

[25]So they answered, “We will gladly give them.” And they spread out a garment, and each man threw into it the earrings from his plunder.

[26]Now the weight of the gold earrings that he requested was one thousand seven hundred shekels of gold, besides the crescent ornaments, pendants, and purple robes which were on the kings of Midian, and besides the chains that were around their camels’ necks.

[27]Then Gideon made it into an ephod and set it up in his city, Ophrah. And all Israel played the harlot with it there. It became a snare to Gideon and to his house.

[28]Thus Midian was subdued before the children of Israel, so that they lifted their heads no more. And the country was quiet for forty years in the days of Gideon.

Death of Gideon

[29]Then Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and dwelt in his own house.

[30]Gideon had seventy sons who were his own offspring, for he had many wives.

[31]And his concubine who was in Shechem also bore him a son, whose name he called Abimelech.

[32]Now Gideon the son of Joash died at a good old age, and was buried in the tomb of Joash his father, in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

[33]So it was, as soon as Gideon was dead, that the children of Israel again played the harlot with the Baals, and made Baal-Berith their god.

[34]Thus the children of Israel did not remember the LORD their God, who had delivered them from the hands of all their enemies on every side;

[35]nor did they show kindness to the house of Jerubbaal (Gideon) in accordance with the good he had done for Israel.

Judges 9

Abimelech's Conspiracy

[1]Then Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem, to his mother's brothers, and spoke with them and with all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying,

[2]"Please speak in the hearing of all the men of Shechem: 'Which is better for you, that all seventy of the sons of Jerubbaal reign over you, or that one reign over you?' Remember that I am your own flesh and bone."

[3]And his mother's brothers spoke all these words concerning him in the hearing of all the men of Shechem; and their heart was inclined to follow Abimelech, for they said, "He is our brother."

[4]So they gave him seventy shekels of silver from the temple of Baal-Berith, with which Abimelech hired worthless and reckless men; and they followed him.

[5]Then he went to his father's house at Ophrah and killed his brothers, the seventy sons of Jerubbaal, on one stone. But Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left, because he hid himself.

[6]And all the men of Shechem gathered together, all of Beth Millo, and they went and made Abimelech king beside the terebinth tree at the pillar that was in Shechem.

The Parable of the Trees

[7]Now when they told Jotham, he went and stood on top of Mount Gerizim, and lifted his voice and cried out. And he said to them:

> "Listen to me, you men of Shechem,
> That God may listen to you!
> [8]"The trees once went forth to anoint a king over them.
> And they said to the olive tree,
> 'Reign over us!'
> [9]But the olive tree said to them,
> 'Should I cease giving my oil,

With which they honor God and men,
And go to sway over trees?’

[10]“Then the trees said to the fig tree,
‘You come and reign over us!’
[11]But the fig tree said to them,
‘Should I cease my sweetness and my good fruit,
And go to sway over trees?’

[12]“Then the trees said to the vine,
‘You come and reign over us!’
[13]But the vine said to them,
‘Should I cease my new wine,
Which cheers both God and men,
And go to sway over trees?’

[14]“Then all the trees said to the bramble,
‘You come and reign over us!’
[15]And the bramble said to the trees,
‘If in truth you anoint me as king over you,
Then come and take shelter in my shade;
But if not, let fire come out of the bramble
And devour the cedars of Lebanon!’

[16]“Now therefore, if you have acted in truth and sincerity in making Abimelech king, and if you have dealt well with Jerubbaal and his house, and have done to him as he deserves—

[17]“for my father fought for you, risked his life, and delivered you out of the hand of Midian;

[18]“but you have risen up against my father’s house this day, and killed his seventy sons on one stone, and made Abimelech, the son of his female servant, king over the men of Shechem, because he is your brother—

[19]“if then you have acted in truth and sincerity with Jerubbaal and with his house this day, then rejoice in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you.

[20]"But if not, let fire come from Abimelech and devour the men of Shechem and Beth Millo; and let fire come from the men of Shechem and from Beth Millo and devour Abimelech!"

[21]And Jotham ran away and fled; and he went to Beer and dwelt there, for fear of Abimelech his brother.

Downfall of Abimelech

[22]After Abimelech had reigned over Israel three years,

[23]God sent a spirit of ill will between Abimelech and the men of Shechem; and the men of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech,

[24]that the crime done to the seventy sons of Jerubbaal might be settled and their blood be laid on Abimelech their brother, who killed them, and on the men of Shechem, who aided him in the killing of his brothers.

[25]And the men of Shechem set men in ambush against him on the tops of the mountains, and they robbed all who passed by them along that way; and it was told Abimelech.

[26]Now Gaal the son of Ebed came with his brothers and went over to Shechem; and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him.

[27]So they went out into the fields, and gathered grapes from their vineyards and trod them, and made merry. And they went into the house of their god, and ate and drank, and cursed Abimelech.

[28]Then Gaal the son of Ebed said, "Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Is he not the son of Jerubbaal, and is not Zebul his officer? Serve the men of Hamor the father of Shechem; but why should we serve him?

[29]"If only this people were under my authority! Then I would remove Abimelech." So he said to Abimelech, "Increase your army and come out!"

[30]When Zebul, the ruler of the city, heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger was aroused.

[31]And he sent messengers to Abimelech secretly, saying, "Take note! Gaal the son of Ebed and his brothers have come to Shechem; and here they are, fortifying the city against you.

[32]“Now therefore, get up by night, you and the people who are with you, and lie in wait in the field.

[33]“And it shall be, as soon as the sun is up in the morning, that you shall rise early and rush upon the city; and when he and the people who are with him come out against you, you may then do to them as you find opportunity.”

[34]So Abimelech and all the people who were with him rose by night, and lay in wait against Shechem in four companies.

[35]When Gaal the son of Ebed went out and stood in the entrance to the city gate, Abimelech and the people who were with him rose from lying in wait.

[36]And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, “Look, people are coming down from the tops of the mountains!” But Zebul said to him, “You see the shadows of the mountains as if they were men.”

[37]So Gaal spoke again and said, “See, people are coming down from the center of the land, and another company is coming from the Diviners’ Terebinth Tree.”

[38]Then Zebul said to him, “Where indeed is your mouth now, with which you said, ‘Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him?’ Are not these the people whom you despised? Go out, if you will, and fight with them now.”

[40]And Abimelech chased him, and he fled from him; and many fell wounded, to the very entrance of the gate.

[41]Then Abimelech dwelt at Arumah, and Zebul drove out Gaal and his brothers, so that they would not dwell in Shechem.

[42]And it came about on the next day that the people went out into the field, and they told Abimelech.

[43]So he took his people, divided them into three companies, and lay in wait in the field. And he looked, and there were the people, coming out of the city; and he rose against them and attacked them.

[44]Then Abimelech and the company that was with him rushed forward and stood at the entrance of the gate of the city; and the other two companies rushed upon all who were in the fields and killed them.

[45]So Abimelech fought against the city all that day; he took the city and killed the people who were in it; and he demolished the city and sowed it with salt.

[46]Now when all the men of the tower of Shechem had heard that, they entered the stronghold of the temple of the god Berith.

[47]And it was told Abimelech that all the men of the tower of Shechem were gathered together.

[48]Then Abimelech went up to Mount Zalmon, he and all the people who were with him. And Abimelech took an ax in his hand and cut down a bough from the trees, and took it and laid it on his shoulder; then he said to the people who were with him, "What you have seen me do, make haste and do as I have done."

[49]So each of the people likewise cut down his own bough and followed Abimelech, put them against the stronghold, and set the stronghold on fire above them, so that all the people of the tower of Shechem died, about a thousand men and women.

[50]Then Abimelech went to Thebez, and he encamped against Thebez and took it.

[51]But there was a strong tower in the city, and all the men and women —all the people of the city—fled there and shut themselves in; then they went up to the top of the tower.

[52]So Abimelech came as far as the tower and fought against it; and he drew near the door of the tower to burn it with fire.

[53]But a certain woman dropped an upper millstone on Abimelech's head and crushed his skull.

[54]Then he called quickly to the young man, his armorbearer, and said to him, "Draw your sword and kill me, lest men say of me, 'A woman killed him.' " So his young man thrust him through, and he died.

[55]And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed, every man to his place.

[56]Thus God repaid the wickedness of Abimelech, which he had done to his father by killing his seventy brothers.

[57]And all the evil of the men of Shechem God returned on their own heads, and on them came the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal.

Judges 10

Tola

[1]After Abimelech there arose to save Israel Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar; and he dwelt in Shamir in the mountains of Ephraim.

[2]He judged Israel twenty-three years; and he died and was buried in Shamir.

Jair

[3]After him arose Jair, a Gileadite; and he judged Israel twenty-two years.

[4]Now he had thirty sons who rode on thirty donkeys; they also had thirty towns, which are called "Havoth Jair" to this day, which are in the land of Gilead.

[5]And Jair died and was buried in Camon.

Israel Oppressed Again

[6]Then the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD, and served the Baals and the Ashtoreths, the gods of Syria, the gods of Sidon, the gods of Moab, the gods of the people of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines; and they forsook the LORD and did not serve Him.

[7]So the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel; and He sold them into the hands of the Philistines and into the hands of the people of Ammon.

[8]From that year they harassed and oppressed the children of Israel for eighteen years—all the children of Israel who were on the other side of the Jordan in the land of the Amorites, in Gilead.

[9]Moreover the people of Ammon crossed over the Jordan to fight against Judah also, against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim, so that Israel was severely distressed.

[10]And the children of Israel cried out to the LORD, saying, "We have sinned against You, because we have both forsaken our God and served the Baals!"

[11]So the LORD said to the children of Israel, "Did I not deliver you from the Egyptians and from the Amorites and from the people of Ammon and from the Philistines?

[12]"Also the Sidonians and Amalekites and Maonites oppressed you; and you cried out to Me, and I delivered you from their hand.

[13]"Yet you have forsaken Me and served other gods. Therefore I will deliver you no more.

[14]"Go and cry out to the gods which you have chosen; let them deliver you in your time of distress."

[15]And the children of Israel said to the LORD, "We have sinned! Do to us whatever seems best to You; only deliver us this day, we pray."

[16]So they put away the foreign gods from among them and served the LORD. And His soul could no longer endure the misery of Israel.

[17]Then the people of Ammon gathered together and encamped in Gilead. And the children of Israel assembled together and encamped in Mizpah.

[18]And the people, the leaders of Gilead, said to one another, "Who is the man who will begin the fight against the people of Ammon? He shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead."

Judges 11

Jephthah

[1]Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty man of valor, but he was the son of a harlot; and Gilead begot Jephthah.

[2]Gilead's wife bore sons; and when his wife's sons grew up, they drove Jephthah out, and said to him, "You shall have no inheritance in our father's house, for you are the son of another woman."

[3]Then Jephthah fled from his brothers and dwelt in the land of Tob; and worthless men banded together with Jephthah and went out raiding with him.

[4]It came to pass after a time that the people of Ammon made war against Israel.

[5]And so it was, when the people of Ammon made war against Israel, that the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah from the land of Tob.

[6]Then they said to Jephthah, "Come and be our commander, that we may fight against the people of Ammon."

[7]So Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "Did you not hate me, and expel me from my father's house? Why have you come to me now when you are in distress?"

[8]And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "That is why we have turned again to you now, that you may go with us and fight against the people of Ammon, and be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead."

[9]So Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "If you take me back home to fight against the people of Ammon, and the LORD delivers them to me, shall I be your head?"

[10]And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "The LORD will be a witness between us, if we do not do according to your words."

[11]Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and commander over them; and Jephthah spoke all his words before the LORD in Mizpah.

[12]Now Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the people of Ammon, saying, "What do you have against me, that you have come to fight against me in my land?"

[13]And the king of the people of Ammon answered the messengers of Jephthah, “Because Israel took away my land when they came up out of Egypt, from the Arnon as far as the Jabbok, and to the Jordan. Now therefore, restore those lands peaceably.”

[14]So Jephthah again sent messengers to the king of the people of Ammon,

[15]and said to him, “Thus says Jephthah: ‘Israel did not take away the land of Moab, nor the land of the people of Ammon;

[16]‘for when Israel came up from Egypt, they walked through the wilderness as far as the Red Sea and came to Kadesh.

[17]‘Then Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, “Please let me pass through your land.” But the king of Edom would not heed. And in like manner they sent to the king of Moab, but he would not consent. So Israel remained in Kadesh.

[18]‘And they went along through the wilderness and bypassed the land of Edom and the land of Moab, came to the east side of the land of Moab, and encamped on the other side of the Arnon. But they did not enter the border of Moab, for the Arnon was the border of Moab.

[19]‘Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, king of Heshbon; and Israel said to him, “Please let us pass through your land into our place.”

[20]‘But Sihon did not trust Israel to pass through his territory. So Sihon gathered all his people together, encamped in Jahaz, and fought against Israel.

[21]‘And the LORD God of Israel delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they defeated them. Thus Israel gained possession of all the land of the Amorites, who inhabited that country.

[22]‘They took possession of all the territory of the Amorites, from the Arnon to the Jabbok and from the wilderness to the Jordan.

[23]‘And now the LORD God of Israel has dispossessed the Amorites from before His people Israel; should you then possess it?

[24]‘Will you not possess whatever Chemosh your god gives you to possess? So whatever the LORD our God takes possession of before us, we will possess.

[25]‘And now, are you any better than Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever strive against Israel? Did he ever fight against them?

[26]‘While Israel dwelt in Heshbon and its villages, in Aroer and its villages, and in all the cities along the banks of the Arnon, for three hundred years, why did you not recover them within that time?

[27]‘Therefore I have not sinned against you, but you wronged me by fighting against me. May the LORD, the Judge, render judgment this day between the children of Israel and the people of Ammon.’ ”

[28]However, the king of the people of Ammon did not heed the words which Jephthah sent him.

Jephthah’s Vow and Victory

[29]Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah, and he passed through Gilead and Manasseh, and passed through Mizpah of Gilead; and from Mizpah of Gilead he advanced toward the people of Ammon.

[30]And Jephthah made a vow to the LORD, and said, “If You will indeed deliver the people of Ammon into my hands,

[31]“then it will be that whatever comes out of the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the people of Ammon, shall surely be the LORD’s, and I will offer it up as a burnt offering.”

[32]So Jephthah advanced toward the people of Ammon to fight against them, and the LORD delivered them into his hands.

[33]And he defeated them from Aroer as far as Minnith—twenty cities—and to Abel Keramim, with a very great slaughter. Thus the people of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel.

Jephthah’s Daughter

[34]When Jephthah came to his house at Mizpah, there was his daughter, coming out to meet him with timbrels and dancing; and she was his only child. Besides her he had neither son nor daughter.

[35]And it came to pass, when he saw her, that he tore his clothes, and said, “Alas, my daughter! You have brought me very low! You are among those who trouble me! For I have given my word to the LORD, and I cannot go back on it.”

[36]So she said to him, “My father, if you have given your word to the LORD, do to me according to what has gone out of your mouth, because the LORD has avenged you of your enemies, the people of Ammon.”

[37]Then she said to her father, “Let this thing be done for me: let me alone for two months, that I may go and wander on the mountains and bewail my virginity, my friends and I.”

[38]So he said, “Go.” And he sent her away for two months; and she went with her friends, and bewailed her virginity on the mountains.

[39]And it was so at the end of two months that she returned to her father, and he carried out his vow with her which he had vowed. She knew no man. And it became a custom in Israel

[40]that the daughters of Israel went four days each year to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite.

Judges 12

Jephthah's Conflict with Ephraim

[1]Then the men of Ephraim gathered together, crossed over toward Zaphon, and said to Jephthah, "Why did you cross over to fight against the people of Ammon, and did not call us to go with you? We will burn your house down on you with fire!"

[2]And Jephthah said to them, "My people and I were in a great struggle with the people of Ammon; and when I called you, you did not deliver me out of their hands.

[3]"So when I saw that you would not deliver me, I took my life in my hands and crossed over against the people of Ammon; and the LORD delivered them into my hand. Why then have you come up to me this day to fight against me?"

[4]Now Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gilead and fought against Ephraim. And the men of Gilead defeated Ephraim, because they said, "You Gileadites are fugitives of Ephraim among the Ephraimites and among the Manassites."

[5]The Gileadites seized the fords of the Jordan before the Ephraimites arrived. And when any Ephraimite who escaped said, "Let me cross over," the men of Gilead would say to him, "Are you an Ephraimite?" If he said, "No,"

[6]then they would say to him, "Then say, 'Shibboleth'!" And he would say, "Sibboleth," for he could not pronounce it right. Then they would take him and kill him at the fords of the Jordan. There fell at that time forty-two thousand Ephraimites.

[7]And Jephthah judged Israel six years. Then Jephthah the Gileadite died and was buried among the cities of Gilead.

Ibzan, Elon, and Abdon

[8]After him, Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel.

[9]He had thirty sons. And he gave away thirty daughters in marriage, and brought in thirty daughters from elsewhere for his sons. He judged Israel seven years.

[10]Then Ibzan died and was buried at Bethlehem.

[11]After him, Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel. He judged Israel ten years.

[12]And Elon the Zebulunite died and was buried at Aijalon in the country of Zebulun.

[13]After him, Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite judged Israel.

[14]He had forty sons and thirty grandsons, who rode on seventy young donkeys. He judged Israel eight years.

[15]Then Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the mountains of the Amalekites.

Judges 13

The Birth of Samson

[1]Again the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and the LORD delivered them into the hand of the Philistines for forty years.

[2]Now there was a certain man from Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; and his wife was barren and had no children.

[3]And the Angel of the LORD appeared to the woman and said to her, “Indeed now, you are barren and have borne no children, but you shall conceive and bear a son.

[4]“Now therefore, please be careful not to drink wine or similar drink, and not to eat anything unclean.

[5]“For behold, you shall conceive and bear a son. And no razor shall come upon his head, for the child shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb; and he shall begin to deliver Israel out of the hand of the Philistines.”

[6]So the woman came and told her husband, saying, “A Man of God came to me, and His countenance was like the countenance of the Angel of God, very awesome; but I did not ask Him where He was from, and He did not tell me His name.

[7]“And He said to me, ‘Behold, you shall conceive and bear a son. Now drink no wine or similar drink, nor eat anything unclean, for the child shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb to the day of his death.’ ”

[8]Then Manoah prayed to the LORD, and said, “O my Lord, please let the Man of God whom You sent come to us again and teach us what we shall do for the child who will be born.”

[9]And God listened to the voice of Manoah, and the Angel of God came to the woman again as she was sitting in the field; but Manoah her husband was not with her.

[10]Then the woman ran in haste and told her husband, and said to him, “Look, the Man who came to me the other day has just now appeared to me!”

[11]So Manoah arose and followed his wife. When he came to the Man, he said to Him, “Are You the Man who spoke to this woman?” And He said, “I am.”

[12]Manoah said, “Now let Your words come to pass! What will be the boy’s rule of life, and his work?”

[13]So the Angel of the LORD said to Manoah, “Of all that I said to the woman let her be careful.

[14]“She may not eat anything that comes from the vine, nor may she drink wine or similar drink, nor eat anything unclean. All that I commanded her let her observe.”

15Then Manoah said to the Angel of the LORD, “Please let us detain You, and we will prepare a young goat for You.”

[16]And the Angel of the LORD said to Manoah, “Though you detain Me, I will not eat your food. But if you offer a burnt offering, you must offer it to the LORD.” (For Manoah did not know He was the Angel of the LORD.)

[17]Then Manoah said to the Angel of the LORD, “What is Your name, that when Your words come to pass we may honor You?”

[18]And the Angel of the LORD said to him, “Why do you ask My name, seeing it is wonderful?”

[19]So Manoah took the young goat with the grain offering, and offered it upon the rock to the LORD. And He did a wondrous thing while Manoah and his wife looked on—

[20]it happened as the flame went up toward heaven from the altar—the Angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar! When Manoah and his wife saw this, they fell on their faces to the ground.

[21]When the Angel of the LORD appeared no more to Manoah and his wife, then Manoah knew that He was the Angel of the LORD.

[22]And Manoah said to his wife, “We shall surely die, because we have seen God!”

[23]But his wife said to him, “If the LORD had desired to kill us, He would not have accepted a burnt offering and a grain offering from our hands, nor would He have shown us all these things, nor would He have told us such things as these at this time.”

24So the woman bore a son and called his name Samson; and the child grew, and the LORD blessed him.

25And the Spirit of the LORD began to move upon him at Mahaneh Dan between Zorah and Eshtaol.

Judges 14

Samson's Philistine Wife

[1]Now Samson went down to Timnah, and saw a woman in Timnah of the daughters of the Philistines.

[2]So he went up and told his father and mother, saying, "I have seen a woman in Timnah of the daughters of the Philistines; now therefore, get her for me as a wife."

[3]Then his father and mother said to him, "Is there no woman among the daughters of your brethren, or among all my people, that you must go and get a wife from the uncircumcised Philistines?" And Samson said to his father, "Get her for me, for she pleases me well."

[4]But his father and mother did not know that it was of the LORD—that He was seeking an occasion to move against the Philistines. For at that time the Philistines had dominion over Israel.

[5]So Samson went down to Timnah with his father and mother, and came to the vineyards of Timnah.

Now to his surprise, a young lion came roaring against him.

[6]And the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and he tore the lion apart as one would have torn apart a young goat, though he had nothing in his hand. But he did not tell his father or his mother what he had done.

[7]Then he went down and talked with the woman; and she pleased Samson well.

[8]After some time, when he returned to get her, he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion. And behold, a swarm of bees and honey were in the carcass of the lion.

[9]He took some of it in his hands and went along, eating. When he came to his father and mother, he gave some to them, and they also ate. But he did not tell them that he had taken the honey out of the carcass of the lion.

[10]So his father went down to the woman. And Samson gave a feast there, for young men used to do so.

[11]And it happened, when they saw him, that they brought thirty companions to be with him.

[12]Then Samson said to them, “Let me pose a riddle to you. If you can correctly solve and explain it to me within the seven days of the feast, then I will give you thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothing.

[13]“But if you cannot explain it to me, then you shall give me thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothing.” And they said to him, “Pose your riddle, that we may hear it.”

[14]So he said to them:

> “Out of the eater came something to eat,
> And out of the strong came something sweet.”

Now for three days they could not explain the riddle.

15But it came to pass on the seventh day that they said to Samson’s wife, “Entice your husband, that he may explain the riddle to us, or else we will burn you and your father’s house with fire. Have you invited us in order to take what is ours? Is that not so?”

[16]Then Samson’s wife wept on him, and said, “You only hate me! You do not love me! You have posed a riddle to the sons of my people, but you have not explained it to me.” And he said to her, “Look, I have not explained it to my father or my mother; so should I explain it to you?”

[17]Now she had wept on him the seven days while their feast lasted. And it happened on the seventh day that he told her, because she pressed him so much. Then she explained the riddle to the sons of her people.

[18]So the men of the city said to him on the seventh day before the sun went down:

> “What is sweeter than honey?
> And what is stronger than a lion?”

And he said to them:

> “If you had not plowed with my heifer,
> You would not have solved my riddle!”

[19]Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon him mightily, and he went down to Ashkelon and killed thirty of their men, took their apparel, and gave the changes of clothing to those who had explained the riddle. So his anger was aroused, and he went back up to his father's house.

[20]And Samson's wife was given to his companion, who had been his best man.

Judges 15

Samson Defeats the Philistines

[1]After a while, in the time of wheat harvest, it happened that Samson visited his wife with a young goat. And he said, “Let me go in to my wife, into her room.” But her father would not permit him to go in.

[2]Her father said, “I really thought that you thoroughly hated her; therefore I gave her to your companion. Is not her younger sister better than she? Please, take her instead.”

[3]And Samson said to them, “This time I shall be blameless regarding the Philistines if I harm them!”

[4]Then Samson went and caught three hundred foxes; and he took torches, turned the foxes tail to tail, and put a torch between each pair of tails.

[5]When he had set the torches on fire, he let the foxes go into the standing grain of the Philistines, and burned up both the shocks and the standing grain, as well as the vineyards and olive groves.

[6]Then the Philistines said, “Who has done this?” And they answered, “Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he has taken his wife and given her to his companion.” So the Philistines came up and burned her and her father with fire.

[7]Samson said to them, “Since you would do a thing like this, I will surely take revenge on you, and after that I will cease.”

[8]So he attacked them hip and thigh with a great slaughter; then he went down and dwelt in the cleft of the rock of Etam.

[10]And the men of Judah said, “Why have you come up against us?” So they answered, “We have come up to arrest Samson, to do to him as he has done to us.”

[11]Then three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam, and said to Samson, “Do you not know that the Philistines rule over us? What is this you have done to us?” And he said to them, “As they did to me, so I have done to them.”

[12]But they said to him, “We have come down to arrest you, that we may deliver you into the hand of the Philistines.” Then Samson said to them, “Swear to me that you will not kill me yourselves.”

[13]So they spoke to him, saying, “No, but we will tie you securely and deliver you into their hand; but we will surely not kill you.” And they bound him with two new ropes and brought him up from the rock.

[14]When he came to Lehi, the Philistines came shouting against him. Then the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him; and the ropes that were on his arms became like flax that is burned with fire, and his bonds broke loose from his hands.

[15]He found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, reached out his hand and took it, and killed a thousand men with it.

[16]Then Samson said:

“With the jawbone of a donkey,
Heaps upon heaps,
With the jawbone of a donkey
I have slain a thousand men!”

[17]And so it was, when he had finished speaking, that he threw the jawbone from his hand, and called that place Ramath Lehi.

[18]Then he became very thirsty; so he cried out to the LORD and said, “You have given this great deliverance by the hand of Your servant; and now shall I die of thirst and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?”

[19]So God split the hollow place that is in Lehi, and water came out, and he drank; and his spirit returned, and he revived. Therefore he called its name En Hakkore, which is in Lehi to this day.

Judges 16

Samson and Delilah

[1]Now Samson went to Gaza and saw a harlot there, and went in to her.

[2]When the Gazites were told, "Samson has come here!" they surrounded the place and lay in wait for him all night at the gate of the city. They were quiet all night, saying, "In the morning, when it is daylight, we will kill him."

[3]And Samson lay low till midnight; then he arose at midnight, took hold of the doors of the gate of the city and the two gateposts, pulled them up, bar and all, put them on his shoulders, and carried them to the top of the hill that faces Hebron.

[4]Afterward it happened that he loved a woman in the Valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah.

[5]And the lords of the Philistines came up to her and said to her, "Entice him, and find out where his great strength lies, and by what means we may overpower him, that we may bind him to afflict him; and every one of us will give you eleven hundred pieces of silver."

[6]So Delilah said to Samson, "Please tell me where your great strength lies, and with what you may be bound to afflict you."

[7]And Samson said to her, "If they bind me with seven fresh bowstrings, not yet dried, then I shall become weak, and be like any other man."

[8]So the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven fresh bowstrings, not yet dried, and she bound him with them.

[9]Now men were lying in wait, staying with her in the room. And she said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" But he broke the bowstrings as a strand of yarn breaks when it touches fire. So the secret of his strength was not known.

[10]Then Delilah said to Samson, "Look, you have mocked me and told me lies. Now, please tell me what you may be bound with."

[11]So he said to her, "If they bind me securely with new ropes that have never been used, then I shall become weak, and be like any other man."

[12]Therefore Delilah took new ropes and bound him with them, and said to him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” And men were lying in wait, staying in the room. But he broke them off his arms like a thread.

[13]Delilah said to Samson, “Until now you have mocked me and told me lies. Tell me what you may be bound with.” And he said to her, “If you weave the seven locks of my head into the web of the loom”—

[14]So she wove it tightly with the batten of the loom, and said to him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” But he awoke from his sleep, and pulled out the batten and the web from the loom.

[15]Then she said to him, “How can you say, ‘I love you,’ when your heart is not with me? You have mocked me these three times, and have not told me where your great strength lies.”

[16]And it came to pass, when she pestered him daily with her words and pressed him, so that his soul was vexed to death,

[17]that he told her all his heart, and said to her, “No razor has ever come upon my head, for I have been a Nazirite to God from my mother’s womb. If I am shaven, then my strength will leave me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man.”

[18]When Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, “Come up once more, for he has told me all his heart.” So the lords of the Philistines came up to her and brought the money in their hand.

[19]Then she lulled him to sleep on her knees, and called for a man and had him shave off the seven locks of his head. Then she began to torment him, and his strength left him.

[20]And she said, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” So he awoke from his sleep, and said, “I will go out as before, at other times, and shake myself free!” But he did not know that the LORD had departed from him.

[21]Then the Philistines took him and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza. They bound him with bronze fetters, and he became a grinder in the prison.

[22]However, the hair of his head began to grow again after it had been shaven.

Samson Dies with the Philistines

23Now the lords of the Philistines gathered together to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god, and to rejoice. And they said:

> “Our god has delivered into our hands
> Samson our enemy!”

24When the people saw him, they praised their god; for they said:

> “Our god has delivered into our hands our enemy,
> The destroyer of our land,
> And the one who multiplied our dead.”

25So it happened, when their hearts were merry, that they said, “Call for Samson, that he may perform for us.” So they called for Samson from the prison, and he performed for them. And they stationed him between the pillars.

26Then Samson said to the lad who held him by the hand, “Let me feel the pillars which support the temple, so that I can lean on them.”

27Now the temple was full of men and women. All the lords of the Philistines were there—about three thousand men and women on the roof watching while Samson performed.

28Then Samson called to the LORD, saying, “O Lord GOD, remember me, I pray! Strengthen me, I pray, just this once, O God, that I may with one blow take vengeance on the Philistines for my two eyes!”

29And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars which supported the temple, and he braced himself against them, one on his right and the other on his left.

30Then Samson said, “Let me die with the Philistines!” And he pushed with all his might, and the temple fell on the lords and all the people who were in it. So the dead that he killed at his death were more than he had killed in his life.

31And his brothers and all his father’s household came down and took him, and brought him up and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the tomb of his father Manoah. He had judged Israel twenty years.

Judges 17

Micah's Idolatry

[1]Now there was a man from the mountains of Ephraim, whose name was Micah.

[2]And he said to his mother, "The eleven hundred shekels of silver that were taken from you, and on which you put a curse, even saying it in my ears—here is the silver with me; I took it." And his mother said, "May you be blessed by the LORD, my son!"

[3]So when he had returned the eleven hundred shekels of silver to his mother, his mother said, "I had wholly dedicated the silver from my hand to the LORD for my son, to make a carved image and a molded image; now therefore, I will return it to you."

[4]Thus he returned the silver to his mother. Then his mother took two hundred shekels of silver and gave them to the silversmith, and he made it into a carved image and a molded image; and they were in the house of Micah.

[5]The man Micah had a shrine, and made an ephod and household idols; and he consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest.

[6]In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did what was right in his own eyes.

[7]Now there was a young man from Bethlehem in Judah, of the family of Judah; he was a Levite, and was staying there.

[8]The man departed from the city of Bethlehem in Judah to stay wherever he could find a place. Then he came to the mountains of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, as he journeyed.

[9]And Micah said to him, "Where do you come from?" So he said to him, "I am a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah, and I am on my way to find a place to stay."

[10]Micah said to him, "Dwell with me, and be a father and a priest to me, and I will give you ten shekels of silver per year, a suit of clothes, and your sustenance." So the Levite went in.

[11]Then the Levite was content to dwell with the man; and the young man became like one of his sons to him.

[12]So Micah consecrated the Levite, and the young man became his priest, and lived in the house of Micah.

[13]Then Micah said, “Now I know that the LORD will be good to me, since I have a Levite as priest!”

Judges 18

The Danites Adopt Micah's Idolatry

[1]In those days there was no king in Israel. And in those days the tribe of the Danites was seeking an inheritance for itself to dwell in; for until that day their inheritance among the tribes of Israel had not fallen to them.

[2]So the children of Dan sent five men of their family from their territory, men of valor from Zorah and Eshtaol, to spy out the land and search it. They said to them, "Go, search the land." So they went to the mountains of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, and lodged there.

[3]While they were at the house of Micah, they recognized the voice of the young Levite. They turned aside and said to him, "Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? What do you have here?"

[4]He said to them, "Thus and so Micah did for me. He has hired me, and I have become his priest."

[5]So they said to him, "Please inquire of God, that we may know whether the journey on which we go will be prosperous."

[6]And the priest said to them, "Go in peace. The presence of the LORD be with you on your way."

[7]So the five men departed and went to Laish. They saw the people who were there, how they dwelt safely, in the manner of the Sidonians, quiet and secure. There were no rulers in the land who might put them to shame for anything. They were far from the Sidonians, and they had no ties with anyone.

[8]Then the spies came back to their brethren at Zorah and Eshtaol, and their brethren said to them, "What is your report?"

[9]So they said, "Arise, let us go up against them. For we have seen the land, and indeed it is very good. Would you do nothing? Do not hesitate to go, and enter to possess the land.

[10]"When you go, you will come to a secure people and a large land. For God has given it into your hands, a place where there is no lack of anything that is on the earth."

[11]And six hundred men of the family of the Danites went from there, from Zorah and Eshtaol, armed with weapons of war.

[12]Then they went up and encamped in Kirjath Jearim in Judah. (Therefore they call that place Mahaneh Dan to this day. There it is, west of Kirjath Jearim.)

[13]And they passed from there to the mountains of Ephraim, and came to the house of Micah.

[14]Then the five men who had gone to spy out the country of Laish answered and said to their brethren, “Do you know that there are in these houses an ephod, household idols, a carved image, and a molded image? Now therefore, consider what you should do.”

[15]So they turned aside there, and came to the house of the young Levite man—to the house of Micah—and greeted him.

[16]The six hundred men armed with their weapons of war, who were of the children of Dan, stood by the entrance of the gate.

[17]Then the five men who had gone to spy out the land went up. Entering there, they took the carved image, the ephod, the household idols, and the molded image. The priest stood at the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men who were armed with weapons of war.

[18]When these went into Micah’s house and took the carved image, the ephod, the household idols, and the molded image, the priest said to them, “What are you doing?”

[19]And they said to him, “Be quiet, put your hand over your mouth, and come with us; be a father and a priest to us. Is it better for you to be a priest to the household of one man, or that you be a priest to a tribe and a family in Israel?”

[20]So the priest’s heart was glad; and he took the ephod, the household idols, and the carved image, and took his place among the people.

[21]Then they turned and departed, and put the little ones, the livestock, and the goods in front of them.

[22]When they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men who were in the houses near Micah’s house gathered together and overtook the children of Dan.

[23]And they called out to the children of Dan. So they turned around and said to Micah, “What ails you, that you have gathered such a company?”

[24]So he said, “You have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and you have gone away. Now what more do I have? How can you say to me, ‘What ails you?’ ”

[25]And the children of Dan said to him, “Do not let your voice be heard among us, lest angry men fall upon you, and you lose your life, with the lives of your household!”

[26]Then the children of Dan went their way. And when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house.

Danites Settle in Laish

[27]So they took the things Micah had made, and the priest who had belonged to him, and went to Laish, to a people quiet and secure; and they struck them with the edge of the sword and burned the city with fire.

[28]There was no deliverer, because it was far from Sidon, and they had no ties with anyone. It was in the valley that belongs to Beth Rehob. So they rebuilt the city and dwelt there.

[29]And they called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born to Israel. However, the name of the city formerly was Laish.

[30]Then the children of Dan set up for themselves the carved image; and Jonathan the son of Gershom, the son of Manasseh, and his sons were priests to the tribe of Dan until the day of the captivity of the land.

[31]So they set up for themselves Micah’s carved image which he made, all the time that the house of God was in Shiloh.

Judges 19

The Levite's Concubine

[1]And it came to pass in those days, when there was no king in Israel, that there was a certain Levite staying in the remote mountains of Ephraim. He took for himself a concubine from Bethlehem in Judah.

[2]But his concubine played the harlot against him, and went away from him to her father's house at Bethlehem in Judah, and was there four whole months.

[3]Then her husband arose and went after her, to speak kindly to her and bring her back, having his servant and a couple of donkeys with him. So she brought him into her father's house; and when the father of the young woman saw him, he was glad to meet him.

[4]Now his father-in-law, the young woman's father, detained him; and he stayed with him three days. So they ate and drank and lodged there.

[5]Then it came to pass on the fourth day that they arose early in the morning, and he stood to depart; but the young woman's father said to his son-in-law, "Refresh your heart with a morsel of bread, and afterward go your way."

[6]So they sat down, and the two of them ate and drank together. Then the young woman's father said to the man, "Please be content to stay all night, and let your heart be merry."

[7]And when the man stood to depart, his father-in-law urged him; so he lodged there again.

[8]Then he arose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart, but the young woman's father said, "Please refresh your heart." So they delayed until afternoon; and both of them ate.

[9]And when the man stood to depart—he and his concubine and his servant—his father-in-law, the young woman's father, said to him, "Look, the day is now drawing toward evening; please spend the night. See, the day is coming to an end; lodge here, that your heart may be merry. Tomorrow go your way early, so that you may get home."

[10]However, the man was not willing to spend that night; so he rose and departed, and came to opposite Jebus (that is, Jerusalem). With him were the two saddled donkeys; his concubine was also with him.

[11]They were near Jebus, and the day was far spent; and the servant said to his master, “Come, please, and let us turn aside into this city of the Jebusites and lodge in it.”

[12]But his master said to him, “We will not turn aside here into a city of foreigners, who are not of the children of Israel; we will go on to Gibeah.”

[13]So he said to his servant, “Come, let us draw near to one of these places, and spend the night in Gibeah or in Ramah.”

[14]And they passed by and went their way; and the sun went down on them near Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin.

[15]They turned aside there to go in to lodge in Gibeah. And when he went in, he sat down in the open square of the city, for no one would take them into his house to spend the night.

[16]Just then an old man came in from his work in the field at evening, who also was from the mountains of Ephraim; he was staying in Gibeah, whereas the men of the place were Benjamites.

[17]And when he raised his eyes, he saw the traveler in the open square of the city; and the old man said, “Where are you going, and where do you come from?”

[18]So he said to him, “We are passing from Bethlehem in Judah toward the remote mountains of Ephraim; I am from there. I went to Bethlehem in Judah; now I am going to the house of the LORD. But there is no one who will take me into his house,

[19]“although we have both straw and fodder for our donkeys, and bread and wine for myself, for your female servant, and for the young man who is with your servant; there is no lack of anything.”

[20]And the old man said, “Peace be with you! However, let all your needs be my responsibility; only do not spend the night in the open square.”

[21]So he brought him into his house, and gave fodder to the donkeys. And they washed their feet, and ate and drank.

Gibeah’s Crime

22As they were enjoying themselves, suddenly certain men of the city, perverted men, surrounded the house and beat on the door. They spoke to the master of the house, the old man, saying, "Bring out the man who came to your house, that we may know him carnally!"

23But the man, the master of the house, went out to them and said to them, "No, my brethren! I beg you, do not act so wickedly! Seeing this man has come into my house, do not commit this outrage.

24"Look, here is my virgin daughter and the man's concubine; let me bring them out now. Humble them, and do with them as you please; but to this man do not do such a vile thing!"

25But the men would not heed him. So the man took his concubine and brought her out to them. And they knew her and abused her all night until morning; and when the day began to break, they let her go.

26Then the woman came as the day was dawning, and fell down at the door of the man's house where her master was, till it was light.

27When her master arose in the morning, and opened the doors of the house and went out to go his way, there was his concubine, fallen at the door of the house with her hands on the threshold.

28And he said to her, "Get up and let us be going." But there was no answer. So the man lifted her onto the donkey; and the man got up and went to his place.

29When he entered his house he took a knife, laid hold of his concubine, and divided her into twelve pieces, limb by limb, and sent her throughout all the territory of Israel.

30And so it was that all who saw it said, "No such deed has been done or seen from the day that the children of Israel came up from the land of Egypt until this day. Consider it, confer, and speak up!"

Judges 20

Israel's War with the Benjamites

[1]So all the children of Israel came out, from Dan to Beersheba, as well as from the land of Gilead, and the congregation gathered together as one man before the LORD at Mizpah.

[2]And the leaders of all the people, all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand foot soldiers who drew the sword.

[3](Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel had gone up to Mizpah.) Then the children of Israel said, "Tell us, how did this wicked deed happen?"

[4]So the Levite, the husband of the woman who was murdered, answered and said, "My concubine and I went into Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin, to spend the night.

[5]"And the men of Gibeah rose against me, and surrounded the house at night because of me. They intended to kill me, but instead they ravished my concubine so that she died.

[6]"So I took hold of my concubine, cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the territory of the inheritance of Israel, because they committed lewdness and outrage in Israel.

[7]"Look! All of you are children of Israel; give your advice and counsel here and now!"

8So all the people arose as one man, saying, "None of us will go to his tent, nor will any turn back to his house;

[9]"but now this is the thing which we will do to Gibeah: We will go up against it by lot.

[10]"We will take ten men out of every hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, a hundred out of every thousand, and a thousand out of every ten thousand, to make provisions for the people, that when they come to Gibeah in Benjamin, they may repay all the vileness that they have done in Israel."

[11]So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, united together as one man.

12Then the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, “What is this wickedness that has occurred among you?

13“Now therefore, deliver up the men, the perverted men who are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death and remove the evil from Israel!” But the children of Benjamin would not listen to the voice of their brethren, the children of Israel.

14Instead, the children of Benjamin gathered together from their cities to Gibeah, to go to battle against the children of Israel.

15And from their cities at that time the children of Benjamin numbered twenty-six thousand men who drew the sword, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah, who numbered seven hundred select men.

16Among all this people were seven hundred select men who were left-handed; every one could sling a stone at a hair’s breadth and not miss.

17Now besides Benjamin, the men of Israel numbered four hundred thousand men who drew the sword; all of these were men of war.

18Then the children of Israel arose and went up to the house of God to inquire of God. They said, “Which of us shall go up first to battle against the children of Benjamin?” The LORD said, “Judah first!”

19So the children of Israel rose in the morning and encamped against Gibeah.

20And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin, and the men of Israel put themselves in battle array to fight against them at Gibeah.

21Then the children of Benjamin came out of Gibeah, and on that day cut down to the ground twenty-two thousand men of the Israelites.

22And the people, that is, the men of Israel, encouraged themselves and again formed the battle line at the place where they had put themselves in array on the first day.

23Then the children of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until evening, and asked counsel of the LORD, saying, “Shall I again draw near for battle against the children of my brother Benjamin?” And the LORD said, “Go up against him.”

24So the children of Israel approached the children of Benjamin on the second day.

[25]And Benjamin went out against them from Gibeah on the second day, and cut down to the ground eighteen thousand more of the children of Israel; all these drew the sword.

[26]Then all the children of Israel, that is, all the people, went up and came to the house of God and wept. They sat there before the LORD and fasted that day until evening; and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

[27]So the children of Israel inquired of the LORD (the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, [28]and Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days), saying, “Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of my brother Benjamin, or shall I cease?” And the LORD said, “Go up, for tomorrow I will deliver them into your hand.”

[29]Then Israel set men in ambush all around Gibeah.

[30]And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in battle array against Gibeah as at the other times.

[31]So the children of Benjamin went out against the people, and were drawn away from the city. They began to strike down and kill some of the people, as at the other times, in the highways (one of which goes up to Bethel and the other to Gibeah) and in the field, about thirty men of Israel.

[32]And the children of Benjamin said, “They are defeated before us, as at first.” But the children of Israel said, “Let us flee and draw them away from the city to the highways.”

[33]So all the men of Israel rose from their place and put themselves in battle array at Baal Tamar. Then Israel’s men in ambush burst forth from their position in the plain of Geba.

[34]And ten thousand select men from all Israel came against Gibeah, and the battle was fierce. But the Benjamites did not know that disaster was upon them.

[35]The LORD defeated Benjamin before Israel. And the children of Israel destroyed that day twenty-five thousand one hundred Benjamites; all these drew the sword.

36So the children of Benjamin saw that they were defeated. The men of Israel had given ground to the Benjamites, because they relied on the men in ambush whom they had set against Gibeah.

[37]And the men in ambush quickly rushed upon Gibeah; the men in ambush spread out and struck the whole city with the edge of the sword.

[38]Now the appointed signal between the men of Israel and the men in ambush was that they would make a great cloud of smoke rise up from the city,

[39]whereupon the men of Israel would turn in battle. Now Benjamin had begun to strike and kill about thirty of the men of Israel. For they said, "Surely they are defeated before us, as in the first battle."

[40]But when the cloud began to rise from the city in a column of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them, and there was the whole city going up in smoke to heaven.

[41]And when the men of Israel turned back, the men of Benjamin panicked, for they saw that disaster had come upon them.

[42]Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel in the direction of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them, and whoever came out of the cities they destroyed in their midst.

[43]They surrounded the Benjamites, chased them, and easily trampled them down as far as the front of Gibeah toward the east.

[45]Then they turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon; and they cut down five thousand of them on the highways. Then they pursued them relentlessly up to Gidom, and killed two thousand of them.

[46]So all who fell of Benjamin that day were twenty-five thousand men who drew the sword; all these were men of valor.

[47]But six hundred men turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, and they stayed at the rock of Rimmon for four months.

[48]And the men of Israel turned back against the children of Benjamin, and struck them down with the edge of the sword—from every city, men and beasts, all who were found. They also set fire to all the cities they came to.

Judges 21

Wives Provided for the Benjamites

[1]Now the men of Israel had sworn an oath at Mizpah, saying, “None of us shall give his daughter to Benjamin as a wife.”

[2]Then the people came to the house of God, and remained there before God till evening. They lifted up their voices and wept bitterly,

[3]and said, “O LORD God of Israel, why has this come to pass in Israel, that today there should be one tribe missing in Israel?”

[4]So it was, on the next morning, that the people rose early and built an altar there, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.

[5]The children of Israel said, “Who is there among all the tribes of Israel who did not come up with the assembly to the LORD?” For they had made a great oath concerning anyone who had not come up to the LORD at Mizpah, saying, “He shall surely be put to death.”

[6]And the children of Israel grieved for Benjamin their brother, and said, “One tribe is cut off from Israel today.

[7]“What shall we do for wives for those who remain, seeing we have sworn by the LORD that we will not give them our daughters as wives?”

[8]And they said, “What one is there from the tribes of Israel who did not come up to Mizpah to the LORD?” And, in fact, no one had come to the camp from Jabesh Gilead to the assembly.

[9]For when the people were counted, indeed, not one of the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead was there.

[10]So the congregation sent out there twelve thousand of their most valiant men, and commanded them, saying, “Go and strike the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead with the edge of the sword, including the women and children.

[11]“And this is the thing that you shall do: You shall utterly destroy every male, and every woman who has known a man intimately.”

[12]So they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead four hundred young virgins who had not known a man intimately; and they brought them to the camp at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

[13]Then the whole congregation sent word to the children of Benjamin who were at the rock of Rimmon, and announced peace to them.

[14]So Benjamin came back at that time, and they gave them the women whom they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh Gilead; and yet they had not found enough for them.

[15]And the people grieved for Benjamin, because the LORD had made a void in the tribes of Israel.

[16]Then the elders of the congregation said, "What shall we do for wives for those who remain, since the women of Benjamin have been destroyed?"

[17]And they said, "There must be an inheritance for the survivors of Benjamin, that a tribe may not be destroyed from Israel.

[18]"However, we cannot give them wives from our daughters, for the children of Israel have sworn an oath, saying, 'Cursed be the one who gives a wife to Benjamin.' "

[19]Then they said, "In fact, there is a yearly feast of the LORD in Shiloh, which is north of Bethel, on the east side of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and south of Lebonah."

[20]Therefore they instructed the children of Benjamin, saying, "Go, lie in wait in the vineyards, [21]"and watch; and just when the daughters of Shiloh come out to perform their dances, then come out from the vineyards, and every man catch a wife for himself from the daughters of Shiloh; then go to the land of Benjamin.

[22]"Then it shall be, when their fathers or their brothers come to us to complain, that we will say to them, 'Be kind to them for our sakes, because we did not take a wife for any of them in the war; for it is not as though you have given the women to them at this time, making yourselves guilty of your oath.' "

[23]And the children of Benjamin did so; they took enough wives for their number from those who danced, whom they caught. Then they went and returned to their inheritance, and they rebuilt the cities and dwelt in them.

[24]So the children of Israel departed from there at that time, every man to his tribe and family; they went out from there, every man to his inheritance.

[25]In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did what was right in his own eyes.

The Book of

Ruth

Ruth 1

Elimelech's Family Goes to Moab

[1]Now it came to pass, in the days when the judges ruled, that there was a famine in the land. And a certain man of Bethlehem, Judah, went to dwell in the country of Moab, he and his wife and his two sons.

[2]The name of the man was Elimelech, the name of his wife was Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion—Ephrathites of Bethlehem, Judah. And they went to the country of Moab and remained there.

[3]Then Elimelech, Naomi's husband, died; and she was left, and her two sons.

[4]Now they took wives of the women of Moab: the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth. And they dwelt there about ten years.

[5]Then both Mahlon and Chilion also died; so the woman survived her two sons and her husband.

Naomi Returns with Ruth

[6]Then she arose with her daughters-in-law that she might return from the country of Moab, for she had heard in the country of Moab that the LORD had visited His people by giving them bread.

[7]Therefore she went out from the place where she was, and her two daughters-in-law with her; and they went on the way to return to the land of Judah.

[8]And Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go, return each to her mother's house. The LORD deal kindly with you, as you have dealt with the dead and with me.

[9]"The LORD grant that you may find rest, each in the house of her husband." So she kissed them, and they lifted up their voices and wept.

[10]And they said to her, "Surely we will return with you to your people."

[11]But Naomi said, "Turn back, my daughters; why will you go with me? Are there still sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands?

[12]"Turn back, my daughters, go—for I am too old to have a husband. If I should say I have hope, if I should have a husband tonight and should also bear sons,

[13]"would you wait for them till they were grown? Would you restrain yourselves from having husbands? No, my daughters; for it grieves me very much for your sakes that the hand of the LORD has gone out against me!"

[14]Then they lifted up their voices and wept again; and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth clung to her.

15And she said, "Look, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her gods; return after your sister-in-law."

[16]But Ruth said:

"Entreat me not to leave you,
Or to turn back from following after you;
For wherever you go, I will go;
And wherever you lodge, I will lodge;
Your people shall be my people,
And your God, my God.
[17]Where you die, I will die,
And there will I be buried.
The LORD do so to me, and more also,
If anything but death parts you and me."

[18]When she saw that she was determined to go with her, she stopped speaking to her.

19Now the two of them went until they came to Bethlehem. And it happened, when they had come to Bethlehem, that all the city was excited because of them; and the women said, "Is this Naomi?"

[20]But she said to them, "Do not call me Naomi; call me Mara, for the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me.

[21]"I went out full, and the LORD has brought me home again empty. Why do you call me Naomi, since the LORD has testified against me, and the Almighty has afflicted me?"

22So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess her daughter-in-law with her, who returned from the country of Moab. Now they came to Bethlehem at the beginning of barley harvest.

Ruth 2

Ruth Meets Boaz

[1]There was a relative of Naomi's husband, a man of great wealth, of the family of Elimelech. His name was Boaz.

[2]So Ruth the Moabitess said to Naomi, "Please let me go to the field, and glean heads of grain after him in whose sight I may find favor." And she said to her, "Go, my daughter."

[3]Then she left, and went and gleaned in the field after the reapers. And she happened to come to the part of the field belonging to Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech.

[4]Now behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem, and said to the reapers, "The LORD be with you!" And they answered him, "The LORD bless you!"

[5]Then Boaz said to his servant who was in charge of the reapers, "Whose young woman is this?"

[6]So the servant who was in charge of the reapers answered and said, "It is the young Moabite woman who came back with Naomi from the country of Moab.

[7]"And she said, 'Please let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves.' So she came and has continued from morning until now, though she rested a little in the house."

[8]Then Boaz said to Ruth, "You will listen, my daughter, will you not? Do not go to glean in another field, nor go from here, but stay close by my young women.

[9]"Let your eyes be on the field which they reap, and go after them. Have I not commanded the young men not to touch you? And when you are thirsty, go to the vessels and drink from what the young men have drawn."

[10]So she fell on her face, bowed down to the ground, and said to him, "Why have I found favor in your eyes, that you should take notice of me, since I am a foreigner?"

[11]And Boaz answered and said to her, "It has been fully reported to me, all that you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband, and how you have left your father and your mother and the land of your birth, and have come to a people whom you did not know before.

[12]"The LORD repay your work, and a full reward be given you by the LORD God of Israel, under whose wings you have come for refuge."

[13]Then she said, "Let me find favor in your sight, my lord; for you have comforted me, and have spoken kindly to your maidservant, though I am not like one of your maidservants."

14Now Boaz said to her at mealtime, "Come here, and eat of the bread, and dip your piece of bread in the vinegar." So she sat beside the reapers, and he passed parched grain to her; and she ate and was satisfied, and kept some back.

[15]And when she rose up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, "Let her glean even among the sheaves, and do not reproach her.

[16]"Also let grain from the bundles fall purposely for her; leave it that she may glean, and do not rebuke her."

17So she gleaned in the field until evening, and beat out what she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah of barley.

[18]Then she took it up and went into the city, and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. So she brought out and gave to her what she had kept back after she had been satisfied.

[19]And her mother-in-law said to her, "Where have you gleaned today? And where did you work? Blessed be the one who took notice of you." So she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, and said, "The man's name with whom I worked today is Boaz."

[20]Then Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, "Blessed be he of the LORD, who has not forsaken His kindness to the living and the dead!" And Naomi said to her, "This man is a relation of ours, one of our close relatives."

[21]Ruth the Moabitess said, "He also said to me, 'You shall stay close by my young men until they have finished all my harvest.' "

[22]And Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, "It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his young women, and that people do not meet you in any other field."

[23]So she stayed close by the young women of Boaz, to glean until the end of barley harvest and wheat harvest; and she dwelt with her mother-in-law.

Ruth 3

Ruth's Redemption Assured

[1]Then Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, "My daughter, shall I not seek security for you, that it may be well with you?

[2]"Now Boaz, whose young women you were with, is he not our relative? In fact, he is winnowing barley tonight at the threshing floor.

[3]"Therefore wash yourself and anoint yourself, put on your best garment and go down to the threshing floor; but do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking.

[4]"Then it shall be, when he lies down, that you shall notice the place where he lies; and you shall go in, uncover his feet, and lie down; and he will tell you what you should do."

[5]And she said to her, "All that you say to me I will do."

[6]So she went down to the threshing floor and did according to all that her mother-in-law instructed her.

[7]And after Boaz had eaten and drunk, and his heart was cheerful, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain; and she came softly, uncovered his feet, and lay down.

[8]Now it happened at midnight that the man was startled, and turned himself; and there, a woman was lying at his feet.

[9]And he said, "Who are you?" So she answered, "I am Ruth, your maidservant. Take your maidservant under your wing, for you are a close relative."

[10]Then he said, "Blessed are you of the LORD, my daughter! For you have shown more kindness at the end than at the beginning, in that you did not go after young men, whether poor or rich.

[11]"And now, my daughter, do not fear. I will do for you all that you request, for all the people of my town know that you are a virtuous woman.

[12]"Now it is true that I am a close relative; however, there is a relative closer than I.

[13]"Stay this night, and in the morning it shall be that if he will perform the duty of a close relative for you—good; let him do it. But if he does not want to perform the duty for you, then I will perform the duty for you, as the LORD lives! Lie down until morning."

[14]So she lay at his feet until morning, and she arose before one could recognize another. Then he said, "Do not let it be known that the woman came to the threshing floor."

[15]Also he said, "Bring the shawl that is on you and hold it." And when she held it, he measured six ephahs of barley, and laid it on her. Then she went into the city.

[16]When she came to her mother-in-law, she said, "Is that you, my daughter?" Then she told her all that the man had done for her.

[17]And she said, "These six ephahs of barley he gave me; for he said to me, 'Do not go empty-handed to your mother-in-law.' "

[18]Then she said, "Sit still, my daughter, until you know how the matter will turn out; for the man will not rest until he has concluded the matter this day."

Ruth 4

Boaz Redeems Ruth

[1]Now Boaz went up to the gate and sat down there; and behold, the close relative of whom Boaz had spoken came by. So Boaz said, “Come aside, friend, sit down here.” So he came aside and sat down.

[2]And he took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, “Sit down here.” So they sat down.

[3]Then he said to the close relative, “Naomi, who has come back from the country of Moab, sold the piece of land which belonged to our brother Elimelech.

[4]“And I thought to inform you, saying, ‘Buy it back in the presence of the inhabitants and the elders of my people. If you will redeem it, redeem it; but if you will not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know; for there is no one but you to redeem it, and I am next after you.’ ” And he said, “I will redeem it.”

[5]Then Boaz said, “On the day you buy the field from the hand of Naomi, you must also buy it from Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, to perpetuate the name of the dead through his inheritance.”

[6]And the close relative said, “I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I ruin my own inheritance. You redeem my right of redemption for yourself, for I cannot redeem it.”

[7]Now this was the custom in former times in Israel concerning redeeming and exchanging, to confirm anything: one man took off his sandal and gave it to the other, and this was a confirmation in Israel.

[8]Therefore the close relative said to Boaz, “Buy it for yourself.” So he took off his sandal.

[9]And Boaz said to the elders and all the people, “You are witnesses this day that I have bought all that was Elimelech’s, and all that was Chilion’s and Mahlon’s, from the hand of Naomi.

[10]“Moreover, Ruth the Moabitess, the widow of Mahlon, I have acquired as my wife, to perpetuate the name of the dead through his inheritance, that the name of the dead may not be cut off from among his brethren and from his position at the gate. You are witnesses this day."

[11]And all the people who were at the gate, and the elders, said, "We are witnesses. The LORD make the woman who is coming to your house like Rachel and Leah, the two who built the house of Israel; and may you prosper in Ephrathah and be famous in Bethlehem.

[12]"May your house be like the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, because of the offspring which the LORD will give you from this young woman."

Descendants of Boaz and Ruth

13So Boaz took Ruth and she became his wife; and when he went in to her, the LORD gave her conception, and she bore a son.

[14]Then the women said to Naomi, "Blessed be the LORD, who has not left you this day without a close relative; and may his name be famous in Israel!

[15]"And may he be to you a restorer of life and a nourisher of your old age; for your daughter-in-law, who loves you, who is better to you than seven sons, has borne him."

[16]Then Naomi took the child and laid him on her bosom, and became a nurse to him.

[17]Also the neighbor women gave him a name, saying, "There is a son born to Naomi." And they called his name Obed. He is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

18Now this is the genealogy of Perez: Perez begot Hezron;

[19]Hezron begot Ram, and Ram begot Amminadab;

[20]Amminadab begot Nahshon, and Nahshon begot Salmon;

[21]Salmon begot Boaz, and Boaz begot Obed;

[22]Obed begot Jesse, and Jesse begot David.

The First Book of
Samuel

1 Samuel 1

The Family of Elkanah

[1]Now there was a certain man of Ramathaim Zophim, of the mountains of Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite.

[2]And he had two wives: the name of one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

[3]This man went up from his city yearly to worship and sacrifice to the LORD of hosts in Shiloh. Also the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, the priests of the LORD, were there.

[4]And whenever the time came for Elkanah to make an offering, he would give portions to Peninnah his wife and to all her sons and daughters.

[5]But to Hannah he would give a double portion, for he loved Hannah, although the LORD had closed her womb.

[6]And her rival also provoked her severely, to make her miserable, because the LORD had closed her womb.

[7]So it was, year by year, when she went up to the house of the LORD, that she provoked her; therefore she wept and did not eat.

Hannah's Vow

[8]Then Elkanah her husband said to her, “Hannah, why do you weep? Why do you not eat? And why is your heart grieved? Am I not better to you than ten sons?”

[9]So Hannah arose after they had finished eating and drinking in Shiloh. Now Eli the priest was sitting on the seat by the doorpost of the tabernacle of the LORD.

[10]And she was in bitterness of soul, and prayed to the LORD and wept in anguish.

[11]Then she made a vow and said, “O LORD of hosts, if You will indeed look on the affliction of Your maidservant and remember me, and not forget Your maidservant, but will give Your maidservant a male child, then I will give him to the LORD all the days of his life, and no razor shall come upon his head."

12And it happened, as she continued praying before the LORD, that Eli watched her mouth.

13Now Hannah spoke in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard. Therefore Eli thought she was drunk.

14So Eli said to her, "How long will you be drunk? Put your wine away from you!"

15But Hannah answered and said, "No, my lord, I am a woman of sorrowful spirit. I have drunk neither wine nor intoxicating drink, but have poured out my soul before the LORD.

16"Do not consider your maidservant a wicked woman, for out of the abundance of my complaint and grief I have spoken until now."

17Then Eli answered and said, "Go in peace, and the God of Israel grant your petition which you have asked of Him."

18And she said, "Let your maidservant find favor in your sight." So the woman went her way and ate, and her face was no longer sad.

Samuel Is Born and Dedicated

19Then they rose early in the morning and worshiped before the LORD, and returned and came to their house at Ramah. And Elkanah knew Hannah his wife, and the LORD remembered her.

20So it came to pass in the process of time that Hannah conceived and bore a son, and called his name Samuel, saying, "Because I have asked for him from the LORD."

21Now the man Elkanah and all his house went up to offer to the LORD the yearly sacrifice and his vow.

22But Hannah did not go up, for she said to her husband, "Not until the child is weaned; then I will take him, that he may appear before the LORD and remain there forever."

23So Elkanah her husband said to her, "Do what seems best to you; wait until you have weaned him. Only let the LORD establish His word." Then the woman stayed and nursed her son until she had weaned him.

[24]Now when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with three bulls, one ephah of flour, and a skin of wine, and brought him to the house of the LORD in Shiloh. And the child was young.

[26]And she said, “O my lord! As your soul lives, my lord, I am the woman who stood by you here, praying to the LORD.

[27]“For this child I prayed, and the LORD has granted me my petition which I asked of Him.

[28]“Therefore I also have lent him to the LORD; as long as he lives he shall be lent to the LORD.” So they worshiped the LORD there.

1 Samuel 2

Hannah's Prayer

[1] And Hannah prayed and said:

"My heart rejoices in the LORD;
My horn is exalted in the LORD.
I smile at my enemies,
Because I rejoice in Your salvation.

[2] "No one is holy like the LORD,
For there is none besides You,
Nor is there any rock like our God.

[3] "Talk no more so very proudly;
Let no arrogance come from your mouth,
For the LORD is the God of knowledge;
And by Him actions are weighed.

[4] "The bows of the mighty men are broken,
And those who stumbled are girded with strength.
[5] Those who were full have hired themselves out for bread,
And the hungry have ceased to hunger.
Even the barren has borne seven,
And she who has many children has become feeble.

[6] "The LORD kills and makes alive;
He brings down to the grave and brings up.
[7] The LORD makes poor and makes rich;
He brings low and lifts up.
[8] He raises the poor from the dust
And lifts the beggar from the ash heap,
To set them among princes
And make them inherit the throne of glory.

"For the pillars of the earth are the LORD's,
And He has set the world upon them.

[9]He will guard the feet of His saints,
But the wicked shall be silent in darkness.

“For by strength no man shall prevail.
[10]The adversaries of the LORD shall be broken in pieces;
From heaven He will thunder against them.
The LORD will judge the ends of the earth.

“He will give strength to His king,
And exalt the horn of His anointed.”

[11]Then Elkanah went to his house at Ramah. But the child ministered to the LORD before Eli the priest.

The Wicked Sons of Eli

[12]Now the sons of Eli were corrupt; they did not know the LORD.

[13]And the priests’ custom with the people was that when any man offered a sacrifice, the priest’s servant would come with a three-pronged fleshhook in his hand while the meat was boiling.

[14]Then he would thrust it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; and the priest would take for himself all that the fleshhook brought up. So they did in Shiloh to all the Israelites who came there.

[15]Also, before they burned the fat, the priest’s servant would come and say to the man who sacrificed, “Give meat for roasting to the priest, for he will not take boiled meat from you, but raw.”

[16]And if the man said to him, “They should really burn the fat first; then you may take as much as your heart desires,” he would then answer him, “No, but you must give it now; and if not, I will take it by force.”

[17]Therefore the sin of the young men was very great before the LORD, for men abhorred the offering of the LORD.

Samuel’s Childhood Ministry

[18]But Samuel ministered before the LORD, even as a child, wearing a linen ephod.

[19]Moreover his mother used to make him a little robe, and bring it to him year by year when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.

[20]And Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife, and say, “The LORD give you descendants from this woman for the loan that was given to the LORD.” Then they would go to their own home.

[21]And the LORD visited Hannah, so that she conceived and bore three sons and two daughters. Meanwhile the child Samuel grew before the LORD.

Prophecy Against Eli’s Household

[22]Now Eli was very old; and he heard everything his sons did to all Israel, and how they lay with the women who assembled at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

[23]So he said to them, “Why do you do such things? For I hear of your evil dealings from all the people.

[24]“No, my sons! For it is not a good report that I hear. You make the LORD’s people transgress.

[25]“If one man sins against another, God will judge him. But if a man sins against the LORD, who will intercede for him?” Nevertheless they did not heed the voice of their father, because the LORD desired to kill them.

[26]And the child Samuel grew in stature, and in favor both with the LORD and men.

[27]Then a man of God came to Eli and said to him, “Thus says the LORD: ‘Did I not clearly reveal Myself to the house of your father when they were in Egypt in Pharaoh’s house?

[28]‘Did I not choose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be My priest, to offer upon My altar, to burn incense, and to wear an ephod before Me? And did I not give to the house of your father all the offerings of the children of Israel made by fire?

[29]‘Why do you kick at My sacrifice and My offering which I have commanded in My dwelling place, and honor your sons more than Me, to make yourselves fat with the best of all the offerings of Israel My people?’

[30]“Therefore the LORD God of Israel says: ‘I said indeed that your house and the house of your father would walk before Me forever.’ But now the LORD says: ‘Far be it from Me; for those who honor Me I will honor, and those who despise Me shall be lightly esteemed.

[31]‘Behold, the days are coming that I will cut off your arm and the arm of your father’s house, so that there will not be an old man in your house.

[32]‘And you will see an enemy in My dwelling place, despite all the good which God does for Israel. And there shall not be an old man in your house forever.

[33]‘But any of your men whom I do not cut off from My altar shall consume your eyes and grieve your heart. And all the descendants of your house shall die in the flower of their age.

[34]‘Now this shall be a sign to you that will come upon your two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas: in one day they shall die, both of them.

[35]‘Then I will raise up for Myself a faithful priest who shall do according to what is in My heart and in My mind. I will build him a sure house, and he shall walk before My anointed forever.

[36]‘And it shall come to pass that everyone who is left in your house will come and bow down to him for a piece of silver and a morsel of bread, and say, “Please, put me in one of the priestly positions, that I may eat a piece of bread.” ’ ”

1 Samuel 3

Samuel's First Prophecy

[1]Now the boy Samuel ministered to the LORD before Eli. And the word of the LORD was rare in those days; there was no widespread revelation.

[2]And it came to pass at that time, while Eli was lying down in his place, and when his eyes had begun to grow so dim that he could not see,

[3]and before the lamp of God went out in the tabernacle of the LORD where the ark of God was, and while Samuel was lying down,

[4]that the LORD called Samuel. And he answered, "Here I am!"

[5]So he ran to Eli and said, "Here I am, for you called me." And he said, "I did not call; lie down again." And he went and lay down.

[6]Then the LORD called yet again, "Samuel!" So Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." He answered, "I did not call, my son; lie down again."

[7](Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, nor was the word of the LORD yet revealed to him.)

[8]And the LORD called Samuel again the third time. So he arose and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you did call me." Then Eli perceived that the LORD had called the boy.

[9]Therefore Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down; and it shall be, if He calls you, that you must say, 'Speak, LORD, for Your servant hears.' " So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

[10]Now the LORD came and stood and called as at other times, "Samuel! Samuel!" And Samuel answered, "Speak, for Your servant hears."

[11]Then the LORD said to Samuel: "Behold, I will do something in Israel at which both ears of everyone who hears it will tingle.

[12]"In that day I will perform against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house, from beginning to end.

[13]"For I have told him that I will judge his house forever for the iniquity which he knows, because his sons made themselves vile, and he did not restrain them.

[14]"And therefore I have sworn to the house of Eli that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be atoned for by sacrifice or offering forever."

[15]So Samuel lay down until morning, and opened the doors of the house of the LORD. And Samuel was afraid to tell Eli the vision.

[16]Then Eli called Samuel and said, "Samuel, my son!" He answered, "Here I am."

[17]And he said, "What is the word that the LORD spoke to you? Please do not hide it from me. God do so to you, and more also, if you hide anything from me of all the things that He said to you."

[18]Then Samuel told him everything, and hid nothing from him. And he said, "It is the LORD. Let Him do what seems good to Him."

[19]So Samuel grew, and the LORD was with him and let none of his words fall to the ground.

[20]And all Israel from Dan to Beersheba knew that Samuel had been established as a prophet of the LORD.

[21]Then the LORD appeared again in Shiloh. For the LORD revealed Himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the word of the LORD.

1 Samuel 4

[1]And the word of Samuel came to all Israel.

The Ark of God Captured

Now Israel went out to battle against the Philistines, and encamped beside Ebenezer; and the Philistines encamped in Aphek.

[2]Then the Philistines put themselves in battle array against Israel. And when they joined battle, Israel was defeated by the Philistines, who killed about four thousand men of the army in the field.

[3]And when the people had come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, “Why has the LORD defeated us today before the Philistines? Let us bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD from Shiloh to us, that when it comes among us it may save us from the hand of our enemies.”

[4]So the people sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from there the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, who dwells between the cherubim. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

[5]And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted so loudly that the earth shook.

[6]Now when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, “What does the sound of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews mean?” Then they understood that the ark of the LORD had come into the camp.

[7]So the Philistines were afraid, for they said, “God has come into the camp!” And they said, “Woe to us! For such a thing has never happened before.

[8]“Woe to us! Who will deliver us from the hand of these mighty gods? These are the gods who struck the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness.

[9]“Be strong and conduct yourselves like men, you Philistines, that you do not become servants of the Hebrews, as they have been to you. Conduct yourselves like men, and fight!”

[10]So the Philistines fought, and Israel was defeated, and every man fled to his tent. There was a very great slaughter, and there fell of Israel thirty thousand foot soldiers.

[11]Also the ark of God was captured; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, died.

Death of Eli

[12]Then a man of Benjamin ran from the battle line the same day, and came to Shiloh with his clothes torn and dirt on his head.

[13]Now when he came, there was Eli, sitting on a seat by the wayside watching, for his heart trembled for the ark of God. And when the man came into the city and told it, all the city cried out.

[14]When Eli heard the noise of the outcry, he said, “What does the sound of this tumult mean?” And the man came quickly and told Eli.

[15]Eli was ninety-eight years old, and his eyes were so dim that he could not see.

[16]Then the man said to Eli, “I am he who came from the battle. And I fled today from the battle line.” And he said, “What happened, my son?”

[17]So the messenger answered and said, “Israel has fled before the Philistines, and there has been a great slaughter among the people. Also your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead; and the ark of God has been captured.”

[18]Then it happened, when he made mention of the ark of God, that Eli fell off the seat backward by the side of the gate; and his neck was broken and he died, for the man was old and heavy. And he had judged Israel forty years.

Ichabod

[19]Now his daughter-in-law, Phinehas’ wife, was with child, due to be delivered; and when she heard the news that the ark of God was captured, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and gave birth, for her labor pains came upon her.

[20]And about the time of her death the women who stood by her said to her, “Do not fear, for you have borne a son.” But she did not answer, nor did she regard it.

[21]Then she named the child Ichabod, saying, “The glory has departed from Israel!” because the ark of God had been captured and because of her father-in-law and her husband.

[22]And she said, “The glory has departed from Israel, for the ark of God has been captured.”

1 Samuel 5

The Philistines and the Ark

[1]Then the Philistines took the ark of God and brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod.

[2]When the Philistines took the ark of God, they brought it into the house of Dagon and set it by Dagon.

[3]And when the people of Ashdod arose early in the morning, there was Dagon, fallen on its face to the earth before the ark of the LORD. So they took Dagon and set it in its place again.

[4]And when they arose early the next morning, there was Dagon, fallen on its face to the ground before the ark of the LORD. The head of Dagon and both the palms of its hands were broken off on the threshold; only Dagon's torso was left of it.

[5]Therefore neither the priests of Dagon nor any who come into Dagon's house tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod to this day.

[6]But the hand of the LORD was heavy on the people of Ashdod, and He ravaged them and struck them with tumors, both Ashdod and its territory.

[7]And when the men of Ashdod saw how it was, they said, "The ark of the God of Israel must not remain with us, for His hand is harsh toward us and Dagon our god."

[8]Therefore they sent and gathered to themselves all the lords of the Philistines, and said, "What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel?" And they answered, "Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried away to Gath." So they carried the ark of the God of Israel away.

[9]So it was, after they had carried it away, that the hand of the LORD was against the city with a very great destruction; and He struck the men of the city, both small and great, and tumors broke out on them.

[10]Therefore they sent the ark of God to Ekron. So it was, as the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, "They have brought the ark of the God of Israel to us, to kill us and our people!"

[11]So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, "Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go back to its own place, so that it does not kill us and our people.” For there was a deadly destruction throughout all the city; the hand of God was very heavy there.

[12]And the men who did not die were stricken with the tumors, and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

1 Samuel 6

The Ark Returned to Israel

[1]Now the ark of the LORD was in the country of the Philistines seven months.

[2]And the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, “What shall we do with the ark of the LORD? Tell us how we should send it to its place.”

[3]So they said, “If you send away the ark of the God of Israel, do not send it empty; but by all means return it to Him with a trespass offering. Then you will be healed, and it will be known to you why His hand is not removed from you.”

[4]Then they said, “What is the trespass offering which we shall return to Him?” They answered, “Five golden tumors and five golden rats, according to the number of the lords of the Philistines. For the same plague was on all of you and on your lords.

[5]“Therefore you shall make images of your tumors and images of your rats that ravage the land, and you shall give glory to the God of Israel; perhaps He will lighten His hand from you, from your gods, and from your land.

[6]“Why then do you harden your hearts as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? When He did mighty things among them, did they not let the people go, that they might depart?

[7]“Now therefore, make a new cart, take two milk cows which have never been yoked, and hitch the cows to the cart; and take their calves home, away from them.

[8]“Then take the ark of the LORD and set it on the cart; and put the articles of gold which you are returning to Him as a trespass offering in a chest by its side. Then send it away, and let it go.

[9]“And watch: if it goes up the road to its own territory, to Beth Shemesh, then He has done us this great evil. But if not, then we shall know that it is not His hand that struck us—it happened to us by chance.”

10Then the men did so; they took two milk cows and hitched them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home.

11And they set the ark of the LORD on the cart, and the chest with the gold rats and the images of their tumors.

12Then the cows headed straight for the road to Beth Shemesh, and went along the highway, lowing as they went, and did not turn aside to the right hand or the left. And the lords of the Philistines went after them to the border of Beth Shemesh.

13Now the people of Beth Shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley; and they lifted their eyes and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it.

14Then the cart came into the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh, and stood there; a large stone was there. So they split the wood of the cart and offered the cows as a burnt offering to the LORD.

15The Levites took down the ark of the LORD and the chest that was with it, in which were the articles of gold, and put them on the large stone. Then the men of Beth Shemesh offered burnt offerings and made sacrifices the same day to the LORD.

16So when the five lords of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron the same day.

17These are the golden tumors which the Philistines returned as a trespass offering to the LORD: one for Ashdod, one for Gaza, one for Ashkelon, one for Gath, one for Ekron;

18and the golden rats, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both fortified cities and country villages, even as far as the large stone of Abel on which they set the ark of the LORD, which stone remains to this day in the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh.

19Then He struck the men of Beth Shemesh, because they had looked into the ark of the LORD. He struck fifty thousand and seventy men of the people, and the people lamented because the LORD had struck the people with a great slaughter.

The Ark at Kirjath Jearim

20And the men of Beth Shemesh said, “Who is able to stand before this holy LORD God? And to whom shall it go up from us?”

21So they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kirjath Jearim, saying, “The Philistines have brought back the ark of the LORD; come down and take it up with you.”

1 Samuel 7

[1]Then the men of Kirjath Jearim came and took the ark of the LORD, and brought it into the house of Abinadab on the hill, and consecrated Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the LORD.

Samuel Judges Israel

[2]So it was that the ark remained in Kirjath Jearim a long time; it was there twenty years. And all the house of Israel lamented after the LORD.

[3]Then Samuel spoke to all the house of Israel, saying, “If you return to the LORD with all your hearts, then put away the foreign gods and the Ashtoreths from among you, and prepare your hearts for the LORD, and serve Him only; and He will deliver you from the hand of the Philistines.”

[4]So the children of Israel put away the Baals and the Ashtoreths, and served the LORD only.

[5]And Samuel said, “Gather all Israel to Mizpah, and I will pray to the LORD for you.”

[6]So they gathered together at Mizpah, drew water, and poured it out before the LORD. And they fasted that day, and said there, “We have sinned against the LORD.” And Samuel judged the children of Israel at Mizpah.

[7]Now when the Philistines heard that the children of Israel had gathered together at Mizpah, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the children of Israel heard of it, they were afraid of the Philistines.

[8]So the children of Israel said to Samuel, “Do not cease to cry out to the LORD our God for us, that He may save us from the hand of the Philistines.”

[9]And Samuel took a suckling lamb and offered it as a whole burnt offering to the LORD. Then Samuel cried out to the LORD for Israel, and the LORD answered him.

[10]Now as Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel. But the LORD thundered with a loud thunder upon the Philistines that day, and so confused them that they were overcome before Israel.

[11]And the men of Israel went out of Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, and drove them back as far as below Beth Car.

[12]Then Samuel took a stone and set it up between Mizpah and Shen, and called its name Ebenezer, saying, “Thus far the LORD has helped us.”

[13]So the Philistines were subdued, and they did not come anymore into the territory of Israel. And the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.

[14]Then the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron to Gath; and Israel recovered its territory from the hands of the Philistines. Also there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

[15]And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life.

[16]He went from year to year on a circuit to Bethel, Gilgal, and Mizpah, and judged Israel in all those places.

[17]But he always returned to Ramah, for his home was there. There he judged Israel, and there he built an altar to the LORD.

1 Samuel 8

Israel Demands a King

[1]Now it came to pass when Samuel was old that he made his sons judges over Israel.

[2]The name of his firstborn was Joel, and the name of his second, Abijah; they were judges in Beersheba.

[3]But his sons did not walk in his ways; they turned aside after dishonest gain, took bribes, and perverted justice.

[4]Then all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah,

[5]and said to him, “Look, you are old, and your sons do not walk in your ways. Now make us a king to judge us like all the nations.”

[6]But the thing displeased Samuel when they said, “Give us a king to judge us.” So Samuel prayed to the LORD.

[7]And the LORD said to Samuel, “Heed the voice of the people in all that they say to you; for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected Me, that I should not reign over them.

[8]“According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt, even to this day—with which they have forsaken Me and served other gods—so they are doing to you also.

[9]“Now therefore, heed their voice. However, you shall solemnly forewarn them, and show them the behavior of the king who will reign over them.”

[10]So Samuel told all the words of the LORD to the people who asked him for a king.

[11]And he said, “This will be the behavior of the king who will reign over you: He will take your sons and appoint them for his own chariots and to be his horsemen, and some will run before his chariots.

[12]“He will appoint captains over his thousands and captains over his fifties, will set some to plow his ground and reap his harvest, and some to make his weapons of war and equipment for his chariots.

[13]“He will take your daughters to be perfumers, cooks, and bakers.

[14]“And he will take the best of your fields, your vineyards, and your olive groves, and give them to his servants.

[15]“He will take a tenth of your grain and your vintage, and give it to his officers and servants.

[16]“And he will take your male servants, your female servants, your finest young men, and your donkeys, and put them to his work.

[17]“He will take a tenth of your sheep. And you will be his servants.

[18]“And you will cry out in that day because of your king whom you have chosen for yourselves, and the LORD will not hear you in that day.”

[19]Nevertheless the people refused to obey the voice of Samuel; and they said, “No, but we will have a king over us,

[20]“that we also may be like all the nations, and that our king may judge us and go out before us and fight our battles.”

[21]And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he repeated them in the hearing of the LORD.

[22]So the LORD said to Samuel, “Heed their voice, and make them a king.” And Samuel said to the men of Israel, “Every man go to his city.”

1 Samuel 9

Saul Chosen to Be King

[1]There was a man of Benjamin whose name was Kish the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Aphiah, a Benjamite, a mighty man of power.

[2]And he had a choice and handsome son whose name was Saul. There was not a more handsome person than he among the children of Israel. From his shoulders upward he was taller than any of the people.

[3]Now the donkeys of Kish, Saul's father, were lost. And Kish said to his son Saul, "Please take one of the servants with you, and arise, go and look for the donkeys."

[4]So he passed through the mountains of Ephraim and through the land of Shalisha, but they did not find them. Then they passed through the land of Shaalim, and they were not there. Then he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they did not find them.

[5]When they had come to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant who was with him, "Come, let us return, lest my father cease caring about the donkeys and become worried about us."

[6]And he said to him, "Look now, there is in this city a man of God, and he is an honorable man; all that he says surely comes to pass. So let us go there; perhaps he can show us the way that we should go."

[7]Then Saul said to his servant, "But look, if we go, what shall we bring the man? For the bread in our vessels is all gone, and there is no present to bring to the man of God. What do we have?"

[8]And the servant answered Saul again and said, "Look, I have here at hand one-fourth of a shekel of silver. I will give that to the man of God, to tell us our way."

[9](Formerly in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, he spoke thus: "Come, let us go to the seer"; for he who is now called a prophet was formerly called a seer.)

[10]Then Saul said to his servant, "Well said; come, let us go." So they went to the city where the man of God was.

11As they went up the hill to the city, they met some young women going out to draw water, and said to them, “Is the seer here?”

12And they answered them and said, “Yes, there he is, just ahead of you. Hurry now; for today he came to this city, because there is a sacrifice of the people today on the high place.

13“As soon as you come into the city, you will surely find him before he goes up to the high place to eat. For the people will not eat until he comes, because he must bless the sacrifice; afterward those who are invited will eat. Now therefore, go up, for about this time you will find him.”

14So they went up to the city. As they were coming into the city, there was Samuel, coming out toward them on his way up to the high place.

15Now the LORD had told Samuel in his ear the day before Saul came, saying,

16“Tomorrow about this time I will send you a man from the land of Benjamin, and you shall anoint him commander over My people Israel, that he may save My people from the hand of the Philistines; for I have looked upon My people, because their cry has come to Me.”

17So when Samuel saw Saul, the LORD said to him, “There he is, the man of whom I spoke to you. This one shall reign over My people.”

18Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate, and said, “Please tell me, where is the seer’s house?”

19Samuel answered Saul and said, “I am the seer. Go up before me to the high place, for you shall eat with me today; and tomorrow I will let you go and will tell you all that is in your heart.

20“But as for your donkeys that were lost three days ago, do not be anxious about them, for they have been found. And on whom is all the desire of Israel? Is it not on you and on all your father’s house?”

21And Saul answered and said, “Am I not a Benjamite, of the smallest of the tribes of Israel, and my family the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? Why then do you speak like this to me?”

22Now Samuel took Saul and his servant and brought them into the hall, and had them sit in the place of honor among those who were invited; there were about thirty persons.

[23]And Samuel said to the cook, “Bring the portion which I gave you, of which I said to you, ‘Set it apart.’ ”

[24]So the cook took up the thigh with its upper part and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, “Here it is, what was kept back. It was set apart for you. Eat; for until this time it has been kept for you, since I said I invited the people.” So Saul ate with Samuel that day.

[25]When they had come down from the high place into the city, Samuel spoke with Saul on the top of the house.

[26]They arose early; and it was about the dawning of the day that Samuel called to Saul on the top of the house, saying, “Get up, that I may send you on your way.” And Saul arose, and both of them went outside, he and Samuel.

Saul Anointed King

[27]As they were going down to the outskirts of the city, Samuel said to Saul, “Tell the servant to go on ahead of us.” And he went on. “But you stand here awhile, that I may announce to you the word of God.”

1 Samuel 10

[1]Then Samuel took a flask of oil and poured it on his head, and kissed him and said: "Is it not because the LORD has anointed you commander over His inheritance?

[2]"When you have departed from me today, you will find two men by Rachel's tomb in the territory of Benjamin at Zelzah; and they will say to you, 'The donkeys which you went to look for have been found. And now your father has ceased caring about the donkeys and is worrying about you, saying, "What shall I do about my son?" '

[3]"Then you shall go on forward from there and come to the terebinth tree of Tabor. There three men going up to God at Bethel will meet you, one carrying three young goats, another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a skin of wine.

[4]"And they will greet you and give you two loaves of bread, which you shall receive from their hands.

[5]"After that you shall come to the hill of God where the Philistine garrison is. And it will happen, when you have come there to the city, that you will meet a group of prophets coming down from the high place with a stringed instrument, a tambourine, a flute, and a harp before them; and they will be prophesying.

[6]"Then the Spirit of the LORD will come upon you, and you will prophesy with them and be turned into another man.

[7]"And let it be, when these signs come to you, that you do as the occasion demands; for God is with you.

[8]"You shall go down before me to Gilgal; and surely I will come down to you to offer burnt offerings and make sacrifices of peace offerings. Seven days you shall wait, till I come to you and show you what you should do."

[9]So it was, when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, that God gave him another heart; and all those signs came to pass that day.

[10]When they came there to the hill, there was a group of prophets to meet him; then the Spirit of God came upon him, and he prophesied among them.

[11]And it happened, when all who knew him formerly saw that he indeed prophesied among the prophets, that the people said to one another, “What is this that has come upon the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?”

[12]Then a man from there answered and said, “But who is their father?” Therefore it became a proverb: “Is Saul also among the prophets?”

[13]And when he had finished prophesying, he went to the high place.

14Then Saul’s uncle said to him and his servant, “Where did you go?” So he said, “To look for the donkeys. When we saw that they were nowhere to be found, we went to Samuel.”

[15]And Saul’s uncle said, “Tell me, please, what Samuel said to you.”

[16]So Saul said to his uncle, “He told us plainly that the donkeys had been found.” But about the matter of the kingdom, he did not tell him what Samuel had said.

Saul Proclaimed King

17Then Samuel called the people together to the LORD at Mizpah,

[18]and said to the children of Israel, “Thus says the LORD God of Israel: ‘I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the hand of all kingdoms and from those who oppressed you.’

[19]“But you have today rejected your God, who Himself saved you from all your adversities and your tribulations; and you have said to Him, ‘No, set a king over us!’ Now therefore, present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes and by your clans.”

[20]And when Samuel had caused all the tribes of Israel to come near, the tribe of Benjamin was chosen.

[21]When he had caused the tribe of Benjamin to come near by their families, the family of Matri was chosen. And Saul the son of Kish was chosen. But when they sought him, he could not be found.

[22]Therefore they inquired of the LORD further, “Has the man come here yet?” And the LORD answered, “There he is, hidden among the equipment.”

[23]So they ran and brought him from there; and when he stood among the people, he was taller than any of the people from his shoulders upward.

[24]And Samuel said to all the people, “Do you see him whom the LORD has chosen, that there is no one like him among all the people?” So all the people shouted and said, “Long live the king!”

[25]Then Samuel explained to the people the behavior of royalty, and wrote it in a book and laid it up before the LORD. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house.

[26]And Saul also went home to Gibeah; and valiant men went with him, whose hearts God had touched.

[27]But some rebels said, “How can this man save us?” So they despised him, and brought him no presents. But he held his peace.

1 Samuel 11

Saul Saves Jabesh Gilead

[1]Then Nahash the Ammonite came up and encamped against Jabesh Gilead; and all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, “Make a covenant with us, and we will serve you.”

[2]And Nahash the Ammonite answered them, “On this condition I will make a covenant with you, that I may put out all your right eyes, and bring reproach on all Israel.”

[3]Then the elders of Jabesh said to him, “Hold off for seven days, that we may send messengers to all the territory of Israel. And then, if there is no one to save us, we will come out to you.”

[4]So the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul and told the news in the hearing of the people. And all the people lifted up their voices and wept.

[5]Now there was Saul, coming behind the herd from the field; and Saul said, “What troubles the people, that they weep?” And they told him the words of the men of Jabesh.

[6]Then the Spirit of God came upon Saul when he heard this news, and his anger was greatly aroused.

[7]So he took a yoke of oxen and cut them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the territory of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, “Whoever does not go out with Saul and Samuel to battle, so it shall be done to his oxen.” And the fear of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out with one consent.

[8]When he numbered them in Bezek, the children of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand.

[9]And they said to the messengers who came, “Thus you shall say to the men of Jabesh Gilead: ‘Tomorrow, by the time the sun is hot, you shall have help.’ ” Then the messengers came and reported it to the men of Jabesh, and they were glad.

[10]Therefore the men of Jabesh said, “Tomorrow we will come out to you, and you may do with us whatever seems good to you.”

[11]So it was, on the next day, that Saul put the people in three companies; and they came into the midst of the camp in the morning watch, and killed Ammonites until the heat of the day. And it happened that those who survived were scattered, so that no two of them were left together.

[12]Then the people said to Samuel, “Who is he who said, ‘Shall Saul reign over us?’ Bring the men, that we may put them to death.”

[13]But Saul said, “Not a man shall be put to death this day, for today the LORD has accomplished salvation in Israel.”

[14]Then Samuel said to the people, “Come, let us go to Gilgal and renew the kingdom there.”

[15]So all the people went to Gilgal, and there they made Saul king before the LORD in Gilgal. There they made sacrifices of peace offerings before the LORD, and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

1 Samuel 12

Samuel's Address at Saul's Coronation

[1]Now Samuel said to all Israel: "Indeed I have heeded your voice in all that you said to me, and have made a king over you.

[2]"And now here is the king, walking before you; and I am old and grayheaded, and look, my sons are with you. I have walked before you from my childhood to this day.

[3]"Here I am. Witness against me before the LORD and before His anointed: Whose ox have I taken, or whose donkey have I taken, or whom have I cheated? Whom have I oppressed, or from whose hand have I received any bribe with which to blind my eyes? I will restore it to you."

[4]And they said, "You have not cheated us or oppressed us, nor have you taken anything from any man's hand."

[5]Then he said to them, "The LORD is witness against you, and His anointed is witness this day, that you have not found anything in my hand." And they answered, "He is witness."

[6]Then Samuel said to the people, "It is the LORD who raised up Moses and Aaron, and who brought your fathers up from the land of Egypt.

[7]"Now therefore, stand still, that I may reason with you before the LORD concerning all the righteous acts of the LORD which He did to you and your fathers:

[8]"When Jacob had gone into Egypt, and your fathers cried out to the LORD, then the LORD sent Moses and Aaron, who brought your fathers out of Egypt and made them dwell in this place.

[9]"And when they forgot the LORD their God, He sold them into the hand of Sisera, commander of the army of Hazor, into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab; and they fought against them.

[10]"Then they cried out to the LORD, and said, 'We have sinned, because we have forsaken the LORD and served the Baals and

Ashtoreths; but now deliver us from the hand of our enemies, and we will serve You.'

[11]"And the LORD sent Jerubbaal, Bedan, Jephthah, and Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side; and you dwelt in safety.

[12]"And when you saw that Nahash king of the Ammonites came against you, you said to me, 'No, but a king shall reign over us,' when the LORD your God was your king.

[13]"Now therefore, here is the king whom you have chosen and whom you have desired. And take note, the LORD has set a king over you.

[14]"If you fear the LORD and serve Him and obey His voice, and do not rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then both you and the king who reigns over you will continue following the LORD your God.

[15]"However, if you do not obey the voice of the LORD, but rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then the hand of the LORD will be against you, as it was against your fathers.

[16]"Now therefore, stand and see this great thing which the LORD will do before your eyes:

[17]"Is today not the wheat harvest? I will call to the LORD, and He will send thunder and rain, that you may perceive and see that your wickedness is great, which you have done in the sight of the LORD, in asking a king for yourselves."

[18]So Samuel called to the LORD, and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day; and all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel.

[19]And all the people said to Samuel, "Pray for your servants to the LORD your God, that we may not die; for we have added to all our sins the evil of asking a king for ourselves."

[20]Then Samuel said to the people, "Do not fear. You have done all this wickedness; yet do not turn aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart.

[21]"And do not turn aside; for then you would go after empty things which cannot profit or deliver, for they are nothing.

[22]"For the LORD will not forsake His people, for His great name's sake, because it has pleased the LORD to make you His people.

[23]“Moreover, as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the LORD in ceasing to pray for you; but I will teach you the good and the right way.

[24]“Only fear the LORD, and serve Him in truth with all your heart; for consider what great things He has done for you.

[25]“But if you still do wickedly, you shall be swept away, both you and your king.”

1 Samuel 13

Saul's Unlawful Sacrifice

[1]Saul reigned one year; and when he had reigned two years over Israel,

[2]Saul chose for himself three thousand men of Israel. Two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and in the mountains of Bethel, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin. The rest of the people he sent away, every man to his tent.

[3]And Jonathan attacked the garrison of the Philistines that was in Geba, and the Philistines heard of it. Then Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, "Let the Hebrews hear!"

[4]Now all Israel heard it said that Saul had attacked a garrison of the Philistines, and that Israel had also become an abomination to the Philistines. And the people were called together to Saul at Gilgal.

[5]Then the Philistines gathered together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand which is on the seashore in multitude. And they came up and encamped in Michmash, to the east of Beth Aven.

[6]When the men of Israel saw that they were in danger (for the people were distressed), then the people hid in caves, in thickets, in rocks, in holes, and in pits.

[7]And some of the Hebrews crossed over the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. As for Saul, he was still in Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling.

[8]Then he waited seven days, according to the time set by Samuel. But Samuel did not come to Gilgal; and the people were scattered from him.

[9]So Saul said, "Bring a burnt offering and peace offerings here to me." And he offered the burnt offering.

[10]Now it happened, as soon as he had finished presenting the burnt offering, that Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that he might greet him.

[11]And Samuel said, "What have you done?" Saul said, "When I saw that the people were scattered from me, and that you did not come within the days appointed, and that the Philistines gathered together at Michmash,

[12]"then I said, 'The Philistines will now come down on me at Gilgal, and I have not made supplication to the LORD.' Therefore I felt compelled, and offered a burnt offering."

[13]And Samuel said to Saul, "You have done foolishly. You have not kept the commandment of the LORD your God, which He commanded you. For now the LORD would have established your kingdom over Israel forever.

[14]"But now your kingdom shall not continue. The LORD has sought for Himself a man after His own heart, and the LORD has commanded him to be commander over His people, because you have not kept what the LORD commanded you."

[15]Then Samuel arose and went up from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul numbered the people present with him, about six hundred men.

No Weapons for the Army

[16]Saul, Jonathan his son, and the people present with them remained in Gibeah of Benjamin. But the Philistines encamped in Michmash.

[17]Then raiders came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies. One company turned onto the road to Ophrah, to the land of Shual,

[18]another company turned to the road to Beth Horon, and another company turned to the road of the border that overlooks the Valley of Zeboim toward the wilderness.

[19]Now there was no blacksmith to be found throughout all the land of Israel, for the Philistines said, "Lest the Hebrews make swords or spears."

[20]But all the Israelites would go down to the Philistines to sharpen each man's plowshare, his mattock, his ax, and his sickle;

[21]and the charge for a sharpening was a pim for the plowshares, the mattocks, the forks, and the axes, and to set the points of the goads.

[22]So it came about, on the day of battle, that there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people who were with Saul and Jonathan. But they were found with Saul and Jonathan his son.

[23]And the garrison of the Philistines went out to the pass of Michmash.

1 Samuel 14

Jonathan Defeats the Philistines

[1]Now it happened one day that Jonathan the son of Saul said to the young man who bore his armor, “Come, let us go over to the Philistines’ garrison that is on the other side.” But he did not tell his father.

[2]And Saul was sitting in the outskirts of Gibeah under a pomegranate tree which is in Migron. The people who were with him were about six hundred men.

[3]Ahijah the son of Ahitub, Ichabod’s brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the LORD’s priest in Shiloh, was wearing an ephod. But the people did not know that Jonathan had gone.

[4]Between the passes, by which Jonathan sought to go over to the Philistines’ garrison, there was a sharp rock on one side and a sharp rock on the other side. And the name of one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh.

[6]Then Jonathan said to the young man who bore his armor, “Come, let us go over to the garrison of these uncircumcised; it may be that the LORD will work for us. For nothing restrains the LORD from saving by many or by few.”

[7]So his armorbearer said to him, “Do all that is in your heart. Go then; here I am with you, according to your heart.”

[8]Then Jonathan said, “Very well, let us cross over to these men, and we will show ourselves to them.

[9]“If they say thus to us, ‘Wait until we come to you,’ then we will stand still in our place and not go up to them.

[10]“But if they say thus, ‘Come up to us,’ then we will go up. For the LORD has delivered them into our hand, and this will be a sign to us.”

[11]So both of them showed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines. And the Philistines said, “Look, the Hebrews are coming out of the holes where they have hidden.”

[12]Then the men of the garrison called to Jonathan and his armorbearer, and said, “Come up to us, and we will show you something.” Jonathan said to his armorbearer, “Come up after me, for the LORD has delivered them into the hand of Israel.”

[13]And Jonathan climbed up on his hands and knees with his armorbearer after him; and they fell before Jonathan. And as he came after him, his armorbearer killed them.

[14]That first slaughter which Jonathan and his armorbearer made was about twenty men within about half an acre of land.

[15]And there was trembling in the camp, in the field, and among all the people. The garrison and the raiders also trembled; and the earth quaked, so that it was a very great trembling.

[16]Now the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked, and there was the multitude, melting away; and they went here and there.

[17]Then Saul said to the people who were with him, “Now call the roll and see who has gone from us.” And when they had called the roll, surprisingly, Jonathan and his armorbearer were not there.

[18]And Saul said to Ahijah, “Bring the ark of God here” (for at that time the ark of God was with the children of Israel).

[19]Now it happened, while Saul talked to the priest, that the noise which was in the camp of the Philistines continued to increase; so Saul said to the priest, “Withdraw your hand.”

[20]Then Saul and all the people who were with him assembled, and they went to the battle; and indeed every man’s sword was against his neighbor, and there was very great confusion.

[21]Moreover the Hebrews who were with the Philistines before that time, who went up with them into the camp from the surrounding country, they also joined the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan.

[22]Likewise all the men of Israel who had hidden in the mountains of Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, they also followed hard after them in the battle.

[23]So the LORD saved Israel that day, and the battle shifted to Beth Aven.

Saul’s Rash Oath

24And the men of Israel were distressed that day, for Saul had placed the people under oath, saying, “Cursed is the man who eats any food until evening, before I have taken vengeance on my enemies.” So none of the people tasted food.

25Now all the people of the land came to a forest; and there was honey on the ground.

26And when the people had come into the woods, there was the honey, dripping; but no one put his hand to his mouth, for the people feared the oath.

27But Jonathan had not heard his father charge the people with the oath; therefore he stretched out the end of the rod that was in his hand and dipped it in a honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his countenance brightened.

28Then one of the people said, “Your father strictly charged the people with an oath, saying, ‘Cursed is the man who eats food this day.’ ” And the people were faint.

29But Jonathan said, “My father has troubled the land. Look now, how my countenance has brightened because I tasted a little of this honey.

30“How much better if the people had eaten freely today of the spoil of their enemies which they found! For now would there not have been a much greater slaughter among the Philistines?”

31Now they had driven back the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon. So the people were very faint.

32And the people rushed on the spoil, and took sheep, oxen, and calves, and slaughtered them on the ground; and the people ate them with the blood.

33Then they told Saul, saying, “Look, the people are sinning against the LORD by eating with the blood!” So he said, “You have dealt treacherously; roll a large stone to me this day.”

34Then Saul said, “Disperse yourselves among the people, and say to them, ‘Bring me here every man’s ox and every man’s sheep, slaughter them here, and eat; and do not sin against the LORD by eating with the blood.’ ” So every one of the people brought his ox with him that night, and slaughtered it there.

[35]Then Saul built an altar to the LORD. This was the first altar that he built to the LORD.

[36]Now Saul said, “Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and plunder them until the morning light; and let us not leave a man of them.” And they said, “Do whatever seems good to you.” Then the priest said, “Let us draw near to God here.”

[37]So Saul asked counsel of God, “Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will You deliver them into the hand of Israel?” But He did not answer him that day.

[38]And Saul said, “Come over here, all you chiefs of the people, and know and see what this sin was today.

[39]“For as the LORD lives, who saves Israel, though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die.” But not a man among all the people answered him.

[40]Then he said to all Israel, “You be on one side, and my son Jonathan and I will be on the other side.” And the people said to Saul, “Do what seems good to you.”

[41]Therefore Saul said to the LORD God of Israel, “Give a perfect lot.” So Saul and Jonathan were taken, but the people escaped.

[42]And Saul said, “Cast lots between my son Jonathan and me.” So Jonathan was taken.

[43]Then Saul said to Jonathan, “Tell me what you have done.” And Jonathan told him, and said, “I only tasted a little honey with the end of the rod that was in my hand. So now I must die!”

[45]But the people said to Saul, “Shall Jonathan die, who has accomplished this great deliverance in Israel? Certainly not! As the LORD lives, not one hair of his head shall fall to the ground, for he has worked with God this day.” So the people rescued Jonathan, and he did not die.

[46]Then Saul returned from pursuing the Philistines, and the Philistines went to their own place.

Saul’s Continuing Wars

[47]So Saul established his sovereignty over Israel, and fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, against the people of Ammon, against Edom, against the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines. Wherever he turned, he harassed them.

[48]And he gathered an army and attacked the Amalekites, and delivered Israel from the hands of those who plundered them.

[49]The sons of Saul were Jonathan, Jishui, and Malchishua. And the names of his two daughters were these: the name of the firstborn Merab, and the name of the younger Michal.

[50]The name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam the daughter of Ahimaaz. And the name of the commander of his army was Abner the son of Ner, Saul's uncle.

[51]Kish was the father of Saul, and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.

[52]Now there was fierce war with the Philistines all the days of Saul. And when Saul saw any strong man or any valiant man, he took him for himself.

1 Samuel 15

Saul Spares King Agag

[1]Samuel also said to Saul, “The LORD sent me to anoint you king over His people, over Israel. Now therefore, heed the voice of the words of the LORD.

[2]“Thus says the LORD of hosts: ‘I will punish Amalek for what he did to Israel, how he ambushed him on the way when he came up from Egypt.

[3]‘Now go and attack Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and do not spare them. But kill both man and woman, infant and nursing child, ox and sheep, camel and donkey.’ ”

[4]So Saul gathered the people together and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand foot soldiers and ten thousand men of Judah.

[5]And Saul came to a city of Amalek, and lay in wait in the valley.

[6]Then Saul said to the Kenites, “Go, depart, get down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them. For you showed kindness to all the children of Israel when they came up out of Egypt.” So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

[7]And Saul attacked the Amalekites, from Havilah all the way to Shur, which is east of Egypt.

[8]He also took Agag king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.

[9]But Saul and the people spared Agag and the best of the sheep, the oxen, the fatlings, the lambs, and all that was good, and were unwilling to utterly destroy them. But everything despised and worthless, that they utterly destroyed.

Saul Rejected as King

[10]Now the word of the LORD came to Samuel, saying,

[11]“I greatly regret that I have set up Saul as king, for he has turned back from following Me, and has not performed My commandments.” And it grieved Samuel, and he cried out to the LORD all night.

[12]So when Samuel rose early in the morning to meet Saul, it was told Samuel, saying, "Saul went to Carmel, and indeed, he set up a monument for himself; and he has gone on around, passed by, and gone down to Gilgal."

[13]Then Samuel went to Saul, and Saul said to him, "Blessed are you of the LORD! I have performed the commandment of the LORD."

[14]But Samuel said, "What then is this bleating of the sheep in my ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?"

[15]And Saul said, "They have brought them from the Amalekites; for the people spared the best of the sheep and the oxen, to sacrifice to the LORD your God; and the rest we have utterly destroyed."

[16]Then Samuel said to Saul, "Be quiet! And I will tell you what the LORD said to me last night." And he said to him, "Speak on."

[17]So Samuel said, "When you were little in your own eyes, were you not head of the tribes of Israel? And did not the LORD anoint you king over Israel?

[18]"Now the LORD sent you on a mission, and said, 'Go, and utterly destroy the sinners, the Amalekites, and fight against them until they are consumed.'

[19]"Why then did you not obey the voice of the LORD? Why did you swoop down on the spoil, and do evil in the sight of the LORD?"

[20]And Saul said to Samuel, "But I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, and gone on the mission on which the LORD sent me, and brought back Agag king of Amalek; I have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.

[21]"But the people took of the plunder, sheep and oxen, the best of the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice to the LORD your God in Gilgal."

[22]So Samuel said:

"Has the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices,
As in obeying the voice of the LORD?
Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice,
And to heed than the fat of rams.
[23]For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft,

And stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry.
Because you have rejected the word of the LORD,
He also has rejected you from being king."

24Then Saul said to Samuel, "I have sinned, for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD and your words, because I feared the people and obeyed their voice.

25"Now therefore, please pardon my sin, and return with me, that I may worship the LORD."

26But Samuel said to Saul, "I will not return with you, for you have rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel."

27And as Samuel turned around to go away, Saul seized the edge of his robe, and it tore.

28So Samuel said to him, "The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel from you today, and has given it to a neighbor of yours, who is better than you.

29"And also the Strength of Israel will not lie nor relent. For He is not a man, that He should relent."

30Then he said, "I have sinned; yet honor me now, please, before the elders of my people and before Israel, and return with me, that I may worship the LORD your God."

31So Samuel turned back after Saul, and Saul worshiped the LORD.

32Then Samuel said, "Bring Agag king of the Amalekites here to me." So Agag came to him cautiously. And Agag said, "Surely the bitterness of death is past."

33But Samuel said, "As your sword has made women childless, so shall your mother be childless among women." And Samuel hacked Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal.

34Then Samuel went to Ramah, and Saul went up to his house at Gibeah of Saul.

35And Samuel went no more to see Saul until the day of his death. Nevertheless Samuel mourned for Saul, and the LORD regretted that He had made Saul king over Israel.

1 Samuel 16

David Anointed King

[1]Now the LORD said to Samuel, “How long will you mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? Fill your horn with oil, and go; I am sending you to Jesse the Bethlehemite. For I have provided Myself a king among his sons.”

[2]And Samuel said, “How can I go? If Saul hears it, he will kill me.” But the LORD said, “Take a heifer with you, and say, ‘I have come to sacrifice to the LORD.’

[3]“Then invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do; you shall anoint for Me the one I name to you.”

[4]So Samuel did what the LORD said, and went to Bethlehem. And the elders of the town trembled at his coming, and said, “Do you come peaceably?”

[5]And he said, “Peaceably; I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. Sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice.” Then he consecrated Jesse and his sons, and invited them to the sacrifice.

[6]So it was, when they came, that he looked at Eliab and said, “Surely the LORD’s anointed is before Him!”

[7]But the LORD said to Samuel, “Do not look at his appearance or at his physical stature, because I have refused him. For the LORD does not see as man sees; for man looks at the outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart.”

[8]So Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, “Neither has the LORD chosen this one.”

[9]Then Jesse made Shammah pass by. And he said, “Neither has the LORD chosen this one.”

[10]Thus Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel. And Samuel said to Jesse, “The LORD has not chosen these.”

[11]And Samuel said to Jesse, “Are all the young men here?” Then he said, “There remains yet the youngest, and there he is, keeping the sheep.” And Samuel said to Jesse, “Send and bring him. For we will not sit down till he comes here.”

[12]So he sent and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, with bright eyes, and good-looking. And the LORD said, “Arise, anoint him; for this is the one!”

[13]Then Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers; and the Spirit of the LORD came upon David from that day forward. So Samuel arose and went to Ramah.

A Distressing Spirit Troubles Saul

14But the Spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and a distressing spirit from the LORD troubled him.

[15]And Saul’s servants said to him, “Surely, a distressing spirit from God is troubling you.

[16]“Let our master now command your servants, who are before you, to seek out a man who is a skillful player on the harp. And it shall be that he will play it with his hand when the distressing spirit from God is upon you, and you shall be well.”

[17]So Saul said to his servants, “Provide me now a man who can play well, and bring him to me.”

[18]Then one of the servants answered and said, “Look, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, who is skillful in playing, a mighty man of valor, a man of war, prudent in speech, and a handsome person; and the LORD is with him.”

19Therefore Saul sent messengers to Jesse, and said, “Send me your son David, who is with the sheep.”

[20]And Jesse took a donkey loaded with bread, a skin of wine, and a young goat, and sent them by his son David to Saul.

[21]So David came to Saul and stood before him. And he loved him greatly, and he became his armorbearer.

[22]Then Saul sent to Jesse, saying, “Please let David stand before me, for he has found favor in my sight.”

[23]And so it was, whenever the spirit from God was upon Saul, that David would take a harp and play it with his hand. Then Saul would become refreshed and well, and the distressing spirit would depart from him.

1 Samuel 17

David and Goliath

[1]Now the Philistines gathered their armies together to battle, and were gathered at Sochoh, which belongs to Judah; they encamped between Sochoh and Azekah, in Ephes Dammim.

[2]And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and they encamped in the Valley of Elah, and drew up in battle array against the Philistines.

[3]The Philistines stood on a mountain on one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side, with a valley between them.

[4]And a champion went out from the camp of the Philistines, named Goliath, from Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span.

[5]He had a bronze helmet on his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail, and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of bronze.

[6]And he had bronze armor on his legs and a bronze javelin between his shoulders.

[7]Now the staff of his spear was like a weaver’s beam, and his iron spearhead weighed six hundred shekels; and a shield-bearer went before him.

[8]Then he stood and cried out to the armies of Israel, and said to them, “Why have you come out to line up for battle? Am I not a Philistine, and you the servants of Saul? Choose a man for yourselves, and let him come down to me.

[9]“If he is able to fight with me and kill me, then we will be your servants. But if I prevail against him and kill him, then you shall be our servants and serve us.”

[10]And the Philistine said, “I defy the armies of Israel this day; give me a man, that we may fight together.”

[11]When Saul and all Israel heard these words of the Philistine, they were dismayed and greatly afraid.

[12]Now David was the son of that Ephrathite of Bethlehem Judah, whose name was Jesse, and who had eight sons. And the man was old, advanced in years, in the days of Saul.

[13]The three oldest sons of Jesse had gone to follow Saul to the battle. The names of his three sons who went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, next to him Abinadab, and the third Shammah.

[14]David was the youngest. And the three oldest followed Saul.

[15]But David occasionally went and returned from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Bethlehem.

[16]And the Philistine drew near and presented himself forty days, morning and evening.

[17]Then Jesse said to his son David, "Take now for your brothers an ephah of this dried grain and these ten loaves, and run to your brothers at the camp.

[18]"And carry these ten cheeses to the captain of their thousand, and see how your brothers fare, and bring back news of them."

[19]Now Saul and they and all the men of Israel were in the Valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.

[20]So David rose early in the morning, left the sheep with a keeper, and took the things and went as Jesse had commanded him. And he came to the camp as the army was going out to the fight and shouting for the battle.

[22]And David left his supplies in the hand of the supply keeper, ran to the army, and came and greeted his brothers.

[23]Then as he talked with them, there was the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, coming up from the armies of the Philistines; and he spoke according to the same words. So David heard them.

[24]And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him and were dreadfully afraid.

[25]So the men of Israel said, "Have you seen this man who has come up? Surely he has come up to defy Israel; and it shall be that the man who kills him the king will enrich with great riches, will give him his daughter, and give his father's house exemption from taxes in Israel."

[26]Then David spoke to the men who stood by him, saying, "What shall be done for the man who kills this Philistine and takes away the reproach from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God?”

[27]And the people answered him in this manner, saying, “So shall it be done for the man who kills him.”

[28]Now Eliab his oldest brother heard when he spoke to the men; and Eliab’s anger was aroused against David, and he said, “Why did you come down here? And with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your pride and the insolence of your heart, for you have come down to see the battle.”

[29]And David said, “What have I done now? Is there not a cause?”

[30]Then he turned from him toward another and said the same thing; and these people answered him as the first ones did.

[31]Now when the words which David spoke were heard, they reported them to Saul; and he sent for him.

[32]Then David said to Saul, “Let no man’s heart fail because of him; your servant will go and fight with this Philistine.”

[33]And Saul said to David, “You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for you are a youth, and he a man of war from his youth.”

[34]But David said to Saul, “Your servant used to keep his father’s sheep, and when a lion or a bear came and took a lamb out of the flock, [35]“I went out after it and struck it, and delivered the lamb from its mouth; and when it arose against me, I caught it by its beard, and struck and killed it.

[36]“Your servant has killed both lion and bear; and this uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them, seeing he has defied the armies of the living God.”

[37]Moreover David said, “The LORD, who delivered me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, He will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine.” And Saul said to David, “Go, and the LORD be with you!”

[38]So Saul clothed David with his armor, and he put a bronze helmet on his head; he also clothed him with a coat of mail.

[39]David fastened his sword to his armor and tried to walk, for he had not tested them. And David said to Saul, “I cannot walk with these, for I have not tested them.” So David took them off.

40Then he took his staff in his hand; and he chose for himself five smooth stones from the brook, and put them in a shepherd’s bag, in a pouch which he had, and his sling was in his hand. And he drew near to the Philistine.

41So the Philistine came, and began drawing near to David, and the man who bore the shield went before him.

42And when the Philistine looked about and saw David, he disdained him; for he was only a youth, ruddy and good-looking.

43So the Philistine said to David, “Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks?” And the Philistine cursed David by his gods.

44And the Philistine said to David, “Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the air and the beasts of the field!”

45Then David said to the Philistine, “You come to me with a sword, with a spear, and with a javelin. But I come to you in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied.

46“This day the LORD will deliver you into my hand, and I will strike you and take your head from you. And this day I will give the carcasses of the camp of the Philistines to the birds of the air and the wild beasts of the earth, that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel.

47“Then all this assembly shall know that the LORD does not save with sword and spear; for the battle is the LORD’s, and He will give you into our hands.”

48So it was, when the Philistine arose and came and drew near to meet David, that David hurried and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine.

49Then David put his hand in his bag and took out a stone; and he slung it and struck the Philistine in his forehead, so that the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell on his face to the earth.

50So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone, and struck the Philistine and killed him. But there was no sword in the hand of David.

51Therefore David ran and stood over the Philistine, took his sword and drew it out of its sheath and killed him, and cut off his head with it. And when the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled.

[52]Now the men of Israel and Judah arose and shouted, and pursued the Philistines as far as the entrance of the valley and to the gates of Ekron. And the wounded of the Philistines fell along the road to Shaaraim, even as far as Gath and Ekron.

[53]Then the children of Israel returned from chasing the Philistines, and they plundered their tents.

[54]And David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem, but he put his armor in his tent.

[55]When Saul saw David going out against the Philistine, he said to Abner, the commander of the army, “Abner, whose son is this youth?” And Abner said, “As your soul lives, O king, I do not know.”

[56]So the king said, “Inquire whose son this young man is.”

[57]Then, as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand.

[58]And Saul said to him, “Whose son are you, young man?” So David answered, “I am the son of your servant Jesse the Bethlehemite.”

1 Samuel 18

Saul Resents David

[1]Now when he had finished speaking to Saul, the soul of Jonathan was knit to the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul.

[2]Saul took him that day, and would not let him go home to his father's house anymore.

[3]Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul.

[4]And Jonathan took off the robe that was on him and gave it to David, with his armor, even to his sword and his bow and his belt.

5So David went out wherever Saul sent him, and behaved wisely. And Saul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

[6]Now it had happened as they were coming home, when David was returning from the slaughter of the Philistine, that the women had come out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet King Saul, with tambourines, with joy, and with musical instruments.

[7]So the women sang as they danced, and said:

> "Saul has slain his thousands,
> And David his ten thousands."

[8]Then Saul was very angry, and the saying displeased him; and he said, "They have ascribed to David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed only thousands. Now what more can he have but the kingdom?"

[9]So Saul eyed David from that day forward.

10And it happened on the next day that the distressing spirit from God came upon Saul, and he prophesied inside the house. So David played music with his hand, as at other times; but there was a spear in Saul's hand.

[11]And Saul cast the spear, for he said, "I will pin David to the wall!" But David escaped his presence twice.

12Now Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him, but had departed from Saul.

13Therefore Saul removed him from his presence, and made him his captain over a thousand; and he went out and came in before the people.

14And David behaved wisely in all his ways, and the LORD was with him.

15Therefore, when Saul saw that he behaved very wisely, he was afraid of him.

16But all Israel and Judah loved David, because he went out and came in before them.

David Marries Michal

17Then Saul said to David, “Here is my older daughter Merab; I will give her to you as a wife. Only be valiant for me, and fight the LORD’s battles.” For Saul thought, “Let my hand not be against him, but let the hand of the Philistines be against him.”

18So David said to Saul, “Who am I, and what is my life or my father’s family in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king?”

19But it happened at the time when Merab, Saul’s daughter, should have been given to David, that she was given to Adriel the Meholathite as a wife.

20Now Michal, Saul’s daughter, loved David. And they told Saul, and the thing pleased him.

21So Saul said, “I will give her to him, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him.” Therefore Saul said to David a second time, “You shall be my son-in-law today.”

22And Saul commanded his servants, “Communicate with David secretly, and say, ‘Look, the king has delight in you, and all his servants love you. Now therefore, become the king’s son-in-law.’ ”

23So Saul’s servants spoke those words in the hearing of David. And David said, “Does it seem to you a light thing to be a king’s son-in-law, seeing I am a poor and lightly esteemed man?”

24And the servants of Saul told him, saying, “In this manner David spoke.”

[25]Then Saul said, “Thus you shall say to David: ‘The king does not desire any dowry but one hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to take vengeance on the king’s enemies.’ ” But Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.

[26]So when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to become the king’s son-in-law. Now the days had not expired;

[27]therefore David arose and went, he and his men, and killed two hundred men of the Philistines. And David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full count to the king, that he might become the king’s son-in-law. Then Saul gave him Michal his daughter as a wife.

[28]Thus Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David, and that Michal, Saul’s daughter, loved him;

[29]and Saul was still more afraid of David. So Saul became David’s enemy continually.

[30]Then the princes of the Philistines went out to war. And so it was, whenever they went out, that David behaved more wisely than all the servants of Saul, so that his name became highly esteemed.

1 Samuel 19

Saul Persecutes David

[1]Now Saul spoke to Jonathan his son and to all his servants, that they should kill David; but Jonathan, Saul's son, delighted greatly in David.

[2]So Jonathan told David, saying, "My father Saul seeks to kill you. Therefore please be on your guard until morning, and stay in a secret place and hide.

[3]"And I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I will speak with my father about you. Then what I observe, I will tell you."

[4]Thus Jonathan spoke well of David to Saul his father, and said to him, "Let not the king sin against his servant, against David, because he has not sinned against you, and because his works have been very good toward you.

[5]"For he took his life in his hands and killed the Philistine, and the LORD brought about a great deliverance for all Israel. You saw it and rejoiced. Why then will you sin against innocent blood, to kill David without a cause?"

[6]So Saul heeded the voice of Jonathan, and Saul swore, "As the LORD lives, he shall not be killed."

[7]Then Jonathan called David, and Jonathan told him all these things. So Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence as in times past.

[8]And there was war again; and David went out and fought with the Philistines, and struck them with a mighty blow, and they fled from him.

[9]Now the distressing spirit from the LORD came upon Saul as he sat in his house with his spear in his hand. And David was playing music with his hand.

[10]Then Saul sought to pin David to the wall with the spear, but he slipped away from Saul's presence; and he drove the spear into the wall. So David fled and escaped that night.

[11]Saul also sent messengers to David’s house to watch him and to kill him in the morning. And Michal, David’s wife, told him, saying, “If you do not save your life tonight, tomorrow you will be killed.”

[12]So Michal let David down through a window. And he went and fled and escaped.

[13]And Michal took an image and laid it in the bed, put a cover of goats’ hair for his head, and covered it with clothes.

[14]So when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, “He is sick.”

[15]Then Saul sent the messengers back to see David, saying, “Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may kill him.”

[16]And when the messengers had come in, there was the image in the bed, with a cover of goats’ hair for his head.

[17]Then Saul said to Michal, “Why have you deceived me like this, and sent my enemy away, so that he has escaped?” And Michal answered Saul, “He said to me, ‘Let me go! Why should I kill you?’ ”

[18]So David fled and escaped, and went to Samuel at Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and stayed in Naioth.

[19]Now it was told Saul, saying, “Take note, David is at Naioth in Ramah!”

[20]Then Saul sent messengers to take David. And when they saw the group of prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as leader over them, the Spirit of God came upon the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied.

[21]And when Saul was told, he sent other messengers, and they prophesied likewise. Then Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they prophesied also.

[22]Then he also went to Ramah, and came to the great well that is at Sechu. So he asked, and said, “Where are Samuel and David?” And someone said, “Indeed they are at Naioth in Ramah.”

[23]So he went there to Naioth in Ramah. Then the Spirit of God was upon him also, and he went on and prophesied until he came to Naioth in Ramah.

[24]And he also stripped off his clothes and prophesied before Samuel in like manner, and lay down naked all that day and all that night.

Therefore they say, “Is Saul also among the prophets?”

1 Samuel 20

Jonathan's Loyalty to David

[1]Then David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and went and said to Jonathan, "What have I done? What is my iniquity, and what is my sin before your father, that he seeks my life?"

[2]So Jonathan said to him, "By no means! You shall not die! Indeed, my father will do nothing either great or small without first telling me. And why should my father hide this thing from me? It is not so!"

[3]Then David took an oath again, and said, "Your father certainly knows that I have found favor in your eyes, and he has said, 'Do not let Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved.' But truly, as the LORD lives and as your soul lives, there is but a step between me and death."

[4]So Jonathan said to David, "Whatever you yourself desire, I will do it for you."

[5]And David said to Jonathan, "Indeed tomorrow is the New Moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king to eat. But let me go, that I may hide in the field until the third day at evening.

[6]"If your father misses me at all, then say, 'David earnestly asked permission of me that he might run over to Bethlehem, his city, for there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.'

[7]"If he says thus: 'It is well,' your servant will be safe. But if he is very angry, be sure that evil is determined by him.

[8]"Therefore you shall deal kindly with your servant, for you have brought your servant into a covenant of the LORD with you. Nevertheless, if there is iniquity in me, kill me yourself, for why should you bring me to your father?"

[9]But Jonathan said, "Far be it from you! For if I knew certainly that evil was determined by my father to come upon you, then would I not tell you?"

[10]Then David said to Jonathan, "Who will tell me, or what if your father answers you roughly?"

[11]And Jonathan said to David, "Come, let us go out into the field." So both of them went out into the field.

12Then Jonathan said to David: "The LORD God of Israel is witness! When I have sounded out my father sometime tomorrow, or the third day, and indeed there is good toward David, and I do not send to you and tell you,

13"may the LORD do so and much more to Jonathan. But if it pleases my father to do you evil, then I will report it to you and send you away, that you may go in safety. And the LORD be with you as He has been with my father.

14"And you shall not only show me the kindness of the LORD while I still live, that I may not die;

15"but you shall not cut off your kindness from my house forever, no, not when the LORD has cut off every one of the enemies of David from the face of the earth."

16So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, "Let the LORD require it at the hand of David's enemies."

17Now Jonathan again caused David to vow, because he loved him; for he loved him as he loved his own soul.

18Then Jonathan said to David, "Tomorrow is the New Moon; and you will be missed, because your seat will be empty.

19"And when you have stayed three days, go down quickly and come to the place where you hid on the day of the deed; and remain by the stone Ezel.

20"Then I will shoot three arrows to the side, as though I shot at a target;

21"and there I will send a lad, saying, 'Go, find the arrows.' If I expressly say to the lad, 'Look, the arrows are on this side of you; get them and come'—then, as the LORD lives, there is safety for you and no harm.

22"But if I say thus to the young man, 'Look, the arrows are beyond you'—go your way, for the LORD has sent you away.

23"And as for the matter which you and I have spoken of, indeed the LORD be between you and me forever."

24Then David hid in the field. And when the New Moon had come, the king sat down to eat the feast.

[25]Now the king sat on his seat, as at other times, on a seat by the wall. And Jonathan arose, and Abner sat by Saul's side, but David's place was empty.

[26]Nevertheless Saul did not say anything that day, for he thought, "Something has happened to him; he is unclean, surely he is unclean."

[27]And it happened the next day, the second day of the month, that David's place was empty. And Saul said to Jonathan his son, "Why has the son of Jesse not come to eat, either yesterday or today?"

[28]So Jonathan answered Saul, "David earnestly asked permission of me to go to Bethlehem.

[29]"And he said, 'Please let me go, for our family has a sacrifice in the city, and my brother has commanded me to be there. And now, if I have found favor in your eyes, please let me get away and see my brothers.' Therefore he has not come to the king's table."

[30]Then Saul's anger was aroused against Jonathan, and he said to him, "You son of a perverse, rebellious woman! Do I not know that you have chosen the son of Jesse to your own shame and to the shame of your mother's nakedness?

[31]"For as long as the son of Jesse lives on the earth, you shall not be established, nor your kingdom. Now therefore, send and bring him to me, for he shall surely die."

[32]And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said to him, "Why should he be killed? What has he done?"

[33]Then Saul cast a spear at him to kill him, by which Jonathan knew that it was determined by his father to kill David.

[34]So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and ate no food the second day of the month, for he was grieved for David, because his father had treated him shamefully.

[35]And so it was, in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with David, and a little lad was with him.

[36]Then he said to his lad, "Now run, find the arrows which I shoot." As the lad ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.

[37]When the lad had come to the place where the arrow was which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried out after the lad and said, "Is not the arrow beyond you?"

[38]And Jonathan cried out after the lad, “Make haste, hurry, do not delay!” So Jonathan’s lad gathered up the arrows and came back to his master.

[39]But the lad did not know anything. Only Jonathan and David knew of the matter.

[40]Then Jonathan gave his weapons to his lad, and said to him, “Go, carry them to the city.”

[41]As soon as the lad had gone, David arose from a place toward the south, fell on his face to the ground, and bowed down three times. And they kissed one another; and they wept together, but David more so.

[42]Then Jonathan said to David, “Go in peace, since we have both sworn in the name of the LORD, saying, ‘May the LORD be between you and me, and between your descendants and my descendants, forever.’ ” So he arose and departed, and Jonathan went into the city.

1 Samuel 21

David and the Holy Bread

[1]Now David came to Nob, to Ahimelech the priest. And Ahimelech was afraid when he met David, and said to him, “Why are you alone, and no one is with you?”

[2]So David said to Ahimelech the priest, “The king has ordered me on some business, and said to me, ‘Do not let anyone know anything about the business on which I send you, or what I have commanded you.’ And I have directed my young men to such and such a place.

[3]“Now therefore, what have you on hand? Give me five loaves of bread in my hand, or whatever can be found.”

[4]And the priest answered David and said, “There is no common bread on hand; but there is holy bread, if the young men have at least kept themselves from women.”

[5]Then David answered the priest, and said to him, “Truly, women have been kept from us about three days since I came out. And the vessels of the young men are holy, and the bread is in effect common, even though it was consecrated in the vessel this day.”

[6]So the priest gave him holy bread; for there was no bread there but the showbread which had been taken from before the LORD, in order to put hot bread in its place on the day when it was taken away.

[7]Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD. And his name was Doeg, an Edomite, the chief of the herdsmen who belonged to Saul.

[8]And David said to Ahimelech, “Is there not here on hand a spear or a sword? For I have brought neither my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king’s business required haste.”

[9]So the priest said, “The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the Valley of Elah, there it is, wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod. If you will take that, take it. For there is no other except that one here.” And David said, “There is none like it; give it to me.”

David Flees to Gath

10Then David arose and fled that day from before Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath.

11And the servants of Achish said to him, "Is this not David the king of the land? Did they not sing of him to one another in dances, saying:

> 'Saul has slain his thousands,
> And David his ten thousands'?"

12Now David took these words to heart, and was very much afraid of Achish the king of Gath.

13So he changed his behavior before them, pretended madness in their hands, scratched on the doors of the gate, and let his saliva fall down on his beard.

14Then Achish said to his servants, "Look, you see the man is insane. Why have you brought him to me?

15"Have I need of madmen, that you have brought this fellow to play the madman in my presence? Shall this fellow come into my house?"

1 Samuel 22

David's Four Hundred Men

[1]David therefore departed from there and escaped to the cave of Adullam. So when his brothers and all his father's house heard it, they went down there to him.

[2]And everyone who was in distress, everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was discontented gathered to him. So he became captain over them. And there were about four hundred men with him.

[3]Then David went from there to Mizpah of Moab; and he said to the king of Moab, "Please let my father and mother come here with you, till I know what God will do for me."

[4]So he brought them before the king of Moab, and they dwelt with him all the time that David was in the stronghold.

[5]Now the prophet Gad said to David, "Do not stay in the stronghold; depart, and go to the land of Judah." So David departed and went into the forest of Hereth.

Saul Murders the Priests

[6]When Saul heard that David and the men who were with him had been discovered—now Saul was staying in Gibeah under a tamarisk tree in Ramah, with his spear in his hand, and all his servants standing about him—

[7]then Saul said to his servants who stood about him, "Hear now, you Benjamites! Will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards, and make you all captains of thousands and captains of hundreds?

[8]"All of you have conspired against me, and there is no one who reveals to me that my son has made a covenant with the son of Jesse; and there is not one of you who is sorry for me or reveals to me that my son has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as it is this day."

[9]Then answered Doeg the Edomite, who was set over the servants of Saul, and said, "I saw the son of Jesse going to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub.

[10]"And he inquired of the LORD for him, gave him provisions, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine."

[11]So the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests who were in Nob. And they all came to the king.

[12]And Saul said, "Hear now, son of Ahitub!" He answered, "Here I am, my lord."

[13]Then Saul said to him, "Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, in that you have given him bread and a sword, and have inquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as it is this day?"

[14]So Ahimelech answered the king and said, "And who among all your servants is as faithful as David, who is the king's son-in-law, who goes at your bidding, and is honorable in your house?

[15]"Did I then begin to inquire of God for him? Far be it from me! Let not the king impute anything to his servant, or to any in the house of my father. For your servant knew nothing of all this, little or much."

[16]And the king said, "You shall surely die, Ahimelech, you and all your father's house!"

[17]Then the king said to the guards who stood about him, "Turn and kill the priests of the LORD, because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled and did not tell it to me." But the servants of the king would not lift their hands to strike the priests of the LORD.

[18]And the king said to Doeg, "You turn and kill the priests!" So Doeg the Edomite turned and struck the priests, and killed on that day eighty-five men who wore a linen ephod.

[19]Also Nob, the city of the priests, he struck with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and nursing infants, oxen and donkeys and sheep—with the edge of the sword.

[21]And Abiathar told David that Saul had killed the LORD's priests.

[22]So David said to Abiathar, “I knew that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. I have caused the death of all the persons of your father’s house.

[23]“Stay with me; do not fear. For he who seeks my life seeks your life, but with me you shall be safe.”

1 Samuel 23

David Saves the City of Keilah

[1]Then they told David, saying, “Look, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah, and they are robbing the threshing floors.”

[2]Therefore David inquired of the LORD, saying, “Shall I go and attack these Philistines?” And the LORD said to David, “Go and attack the Philistines, and save Keilah.”

[3]But David’s men said to him, “Look, we are afraid here in Judah. How much more then if we go to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?”

[4]Then David inquired of the LORD once again. And the LORD answered him and said, “Arise, go down to Keilah. For I will deliver the Philistines into your hand.”

[5]And David and his men went to Keilah and fought with the Philistines, struck them with a mighty blow, and took away their livestock. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

[6]Now it happened, when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David at Keilah, that he went down with an ephod in his hand.

[7]And Saul was told that David had gone to Keilah. So Saul said, “God has delivered him into my hand, for he has shut himself in by entering a town that has gates and bars.”

[8]Then Saul called all the people together for war, to go down to Keilah to besiege David and his men.

[9]When David knew that Saul plotted evil against him, he said to Abiathar the priest, “Bring the ephod here.”

[10]Then David said, “O LORD God of Israel, Your servant has certainly heard that Saul seeks to come to Keilah to destroy the city for my sake.

[11]“Will the men of Keilah deliver me into his hand? Will Saul come down, as Your servant has heard? O LORD God of Israel, I pray, tell Your servant.” And the LORD said, “He will come down.”

[12]Then David said, “Will the men of Keilah deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul?” And the LORD said, “They will deliver you.”

[13]So David and his men, about six hundred, arose and departed from Keilah and went wherever they could go. Then it was told Saul that David had escaped from Keilah; so he halted the expedition.

David in Wilderness Strongholds

[14]And David stayed in strongholds in the wilderness, and remained in the mountains in the Wilderness of Ziph. Saul sought him every day, but God did not deliver him into his hand.

[15]So David saw that Saul had come out to seek his life. And David was in the Wilderness of Ziph in a forest.

[16]Then Jonathan, Saul's son, arose and went to David in the woods and strengthened his hand in God.

[17]And he said to him, "Do not fear, for the hand of Saul my father shall not find you. You shall be king over Israel, and I shall be next to you. Even my father Saul knows that."

[18]So the two of them made a covenant before the LORD. And David stayed in the woods, and Jonathan went to his own house.

[19]Then the Ziphites came up to Saul at Gibeah, saying, "Is David not hiding with us in strongholds in the woods, in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the south of Jeshimon?

[20]"Now therefore, O king, come down according to all the desire of your soul to come down; and our part shall be to deliver him into the king's hand."

[21]And Saul said, "Blessed are you of the LORD, for you have compassion on me.

[22]"Please go and find out for sure, and see the place where his hideout is, and who has seen him there. For I am told he is very crafty.

[23]"See therefore, and take knowledge of all the lurking places where he hides; and come back to me with certainty, and I will go with you. And it shall be, if he is in the land, that I will search for him throughout all the clans of Judah."

[24]So they arose and went to Ziph before Saul. But David and his men were in the Wilderness of Maon, in the plain on the south of Jeshimon.

[25]When Saul and his men went to seek him, they told David. Therefore he went down to the rock, and stayed in the Wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard that, he pursued David in the Wilderness of Maon.

[26]Then Saul went on one side of the mountain, and David and his men on the other side of the mountain. So David made haste to get away from Saul, for Saul and his men were encircling David and his men to take them.

[27]But a messenger came to Saul, saying, “Hurry and come, for the Philistines have invaded the land!”

[28]Therefore Saul returned from pursuing David, and went against the Philistines; so they called that place the Rock of Escape.

[29]Then David went up from there and dwelt in strongholds at En Gedi.

1 Samuel 24

David Spares Saul

[1]Now it happened, when Saul had returned from following the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, “Take note! David is in the Wilderness of En Gedi.”

[2]Then Saul took three thousand chosen men from all Israel, and went to seek David and his men on the Rocks of the Wild Goats.

[3]So he came to the sheepfolds by the road, where there was a cave; and Saul went in to attend to his needs. (David and his men were staying in the recesses of the cave.)

[4]Then the men of David said to him, “This is the day of which the LORD said to you, ‘Behold, I will deliver your enemy into your hand, that you may do to him as it seems good to you.’ ” And David arose and secretly cut off a corner of Saul’s robe.

[5]Now it happened afterward that David’s heart troubled him because he had cut Saul’s robe.

[6]And he said to his men, “The LORD forbid that I should do this thing to my master, the LORD’s anointed, to stretch out my hand against him, seeing he is the anointed of the LORD.”

[7]So David restrained his servants with these words, and did not allow them to rise against Saul. And Saul got up from the cave and went on his way.

[8]David also arose afterward, went out of the cave, and called out to Saul, saying, “My lord the king!” And when Saul looked behind him, David stooped with his face to the earth, and bowed down.

[9]And David said to Saul: “Why do you listen to the words of men who say, ‘Indeed David seeks your harm’?

[10]“Look, this day your eyes have seen that the LORD delivered you today into my hand in the cave, and someone urged me to kill you. But my eye spared you, and I said, ‘I will not stretch out my hand against my lord, for he is the LORD’s anointed.’

[11]“Moreover, my father, see! Yes, see the corner of your robe in my hand! For in that I cut off the corner of your robe, and did not kill you, know and see that there is neither evil nor rebellion in my hand, and I have not sinned against you. Yet you hunt my life to take it.

[12]“Let the LORD judge between you and me, and let the LORD avenge me on you. But my hand shall not be against you.

[13]“As the proverb of the ancients says, ‘Wickedness proceeds from the wicked.’ But my hand shall not be against you.

[14]“After whom has the king of Israel come out? Whom do you pursue? A dead dog? A flea?

[15]“Therefore let the LORD be judge, and judge between you and me, and see and plead my case, and deliver me out of your hand.”

[16]So it was, when David had finished speaking these words to Saul, that Saul said, “Is this your voice, my son David?” And Saul lifted up his voice and wept.

[17]Then he said to David: “You are more righteous than I; for you have rewarded me with good, whereas I have rewarded you with evil.

[18]“And you have shown this day how you have dealt well with me; for when the LORD delivered me into your hand, you did not kill me.

[19]“For if a man finds his enemy, will he let him get away safely? Therefore may the LORD reward you with good for what you have done to me this day.

[20]“And now I know indeed that you shall surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in your hand.

[21]“Therefore swear now to me by the LORD that you will not cut off my descendants after me, and that you will not destroy my name from my father’s house.”

[22]So David swore to Saul. And Saul went home, but David and his men went up to the stronghold.

1 Samuel 25

Death of Samuel

[1]Then Samuel died; and the Israelites gathered together and lamented for him, and buried him at his home in Ramah. And David arose and went down to the Wilderness of Paran.

David and the Wife of Nabal

[2]Now there was a man in Maon whose business was in Carmel, and the man was very rich. He had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats. And he was shearing his sheep in Carmel.

[3]The name of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wife Abigail. And she was a woman of good understanding and beautiful appearance; but the man was harsh and evil in his doings. He was of the house of Caleb.

[4]When David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep,

[5]David sent ten young men; and David said to the young men, "Go up to Carmel, go to Nabal, and greet him in my name.

[6]"And thus you shall say to him who lives in prosperity: 'Peace be to you, peace to your house, and peace to all that you have!

[7]'Now I have heard that you have shearers. Your shepherds were with us, and we did not hurt them, nor was there anything missing from them all the while they were in Carmel.

[8]'Ask your young men, and they will tell you. Therefore let my young men find favor in your eyes, for we come on a feast day. Please give whatever comes to your hand to your servants and to your son David.' "

[9]So when David's young men came, they spoke to Nabal according to all these words in the name of David, and waited.

[10]Then Nabal answered David's servants, and said, "Who is David, and who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants nowadays who break away each one from his master.

[11]"Shall I then take my bread and my water and my meat that I have killed for my shearers, and give it to men when I do not know where they are from?”

[12]So David’s young men turned on their heels and went back; and they came and told him all these words.

[13]Then David said to his men, “Every man gird on his sword.” So every man girded on his sword, and David also girded on his sword. And about four hundred men went with David, and two hundred stayed with the supplies.

[14]Now one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal’s wife, saying, “Look, David sent messengers from the wilderness to greet our master; and he reviled them.

[15]“But the men were very good to us, and we were not hurt, nor did we miss anything as long as we accompanied them, when we were in the fields.

[16]“They were a wall to us both by night and day, all the time we were with them keeping the sheep.

[17]“Now therefore, know and consider what you will do, for harm is determined against our master and against all his household. For he is such a scoundrel that one cannot speak to him.”

[18]Then Abigail made haste and took two hundred loaves of bread, two skins of wine, five sheep already dressed, five seahs of roasted grain, one hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and loaded them on donkeys.

[19]And she said to her servants, “Go on before me; see, I am coming after you.” But she did not tell her husband Nabal.

[20]So it was, as she rode on the donkey, that she went down under cover of the hill; and there were David and his men, coming down toward her, and she met them.

[21]Now David had said, “Surely in vain I have protected all that this fellow has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that belongs to him. And he has repaid me evil for good.

[22]“May God do so, and more also, to the enemies of David, if I leave one male of all who belong to him by morning light.”

[23]Now when Abigail saw David, she dismounted quickly from the donkey, fell on her face before David, and bowed down to the ground.

[24]So she fell at his feet and said: “On me, my lord, on me let this iniquity be! And please let your maidservant speak in your ears, and hear the words of your maidservant.

[25]“Please, let not my lord regard this scoundrel Nabal. For as his name is, so is he: Nabal is his name, and folly is with him! But I, your maidservant, did not see the young men of my lord whom you sent.

[26]“Now therefore, my lord, as the LORD lives and as your soul lives, since the LORD has held you back from coming to bloodshed and from avenging yourself with your own hand, now then, let your enemies and those who seek harm for my lord be as Nabal.

[27]“And now this present which your maidservant has brought to my lord, let it be given to the young men who follow my lord.

[28]“Please forgive the trespass of your maidservant. For the LORD will certainly make for my lord an enduring house, because my lord fights the battles of the LORD, and evil is not found in you throughout your days.

[29]“Yet a man has risen to pursue you and seek your life, but the life of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of the living with the LORD your God; and the lives of your enemies He shall sling out, as from the pocket of a sling.

[30]“And it shall come to pass, when the LORD has done for my lord according to all the good that He has spoken concerning you, and has appointed you ruler over Israel,

[31]“that this will be no grief to you, nor offense of heart to my lord, either that you have shed blood without cause, or that my lord has avenged himself. But when the LORD has dealt well with my lord, then remember your maidservant.”

[32]Then David said to Abigail: “Blessed is the LORD God of Israel, who sent you this day to meet me!

[33]“And blessed is your advice and blessed are you, because you have kept me this day from coming to bloodshed and from avenging myself with my own hand.

[34]“For indeed, as the LORD God of Israel lives, who has kept me back from hurting you, unless you had hurried and come to meet me, surely by morning light no males would have been left to Nabal!”

[35]So David received from her hand what she had brought him, and said to her, “Go up in peace to your house. See, I have heeded your voice and respected your person.”

[36]Now Abigail went to Nabal, and there he was, holding a feast in his house, like the feast of a king. And Nabal’s heart was merry within him, for he was very drunk; therefore she told him nothing, little or much, until morning light.

[37]So it was, in the morning, when the wine had gone from Nabal, and his wife had told him these things, that his heart died within him, and he became like a stone.

[38]Then it happened, after about ten days, that the LORD struck Nabal, and he died.

[39]So when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, “Blessed be the LORD, who has pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and has kept His servant from evil! For the LORD has returned the wickedness of Nabal on his own head.” And David sent and proposed to Abigail, to take her as his wife.

[40]When the servants of David had come to Abigail at Carmel, they spoke to her saying, “David sent us to you, to ask you to become his wife.”

[41]Then she arose, bowed her face to the earth, and said, “Here is your maidservant, a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord.”

[42]So Abigail rose in haste and rode on a donkey, attended by five of her maidens; and she followed the messengers of David, and became his wife.

[43]David also took Ahinoam of Jezreel, and so both of them were his wives.

[44]But Saul had given Michal his daughter, David’s wife, to Palti the son of Laish, who was from Gallim.

1 Samuel 26

David Spares Saul a Second Time

[1]Now the Ziphites came to Saul at Gibeah, saying, “Is David not hiding in the hill of Hachilah, opposite Jeshimon?”

[2]Then Saul arose and went down to the Wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the Wilderness of Ziph.

[3]And Saul encamped in the hill of Hachilah, which is opposite Jeshimon, by the road. But David stayed in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness.

[4]David therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saul had indeed come.

[5]So David arose and came to the place where Saul had encamped. And David saw the place where Saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner, the commander of his army. Now Saul lay within the camp, with the people encamped all around him.

[6]Then David answered, and said to Ahimelech the Hittite and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, brother of Joab, saying, “Who will go down with me to Saul in the camp?” And Abishai said, “I will go down with you.”

[7]So David and Abishai came to the people by night; and there Saul lay sleeping within the camp, with his spear stuck in the ground by his head. And Abner and the people lay all around him.

[8]Then Abishai said to David, “God has delivered your enemy into your hand this day. Now therefore, please, let me strike him at once with the spear, right to the earth; and I will not have to strike him a second time!”

[9]But David said to Abishai, “Do not destroy him; for who can stretch out his hand against the LORD’s anointed, and be guiltless?”

[10]David said furthermore, “As the LORD lives, the LORD shall strike him, or his day shall come to die, or he shall go out to battle and perish.

[11]“The LORD forbid that I should stretch out my hand against the LORD’s anointed. But please, take now the spear and the jug of water that are by his head, and let us go."

[12]So David took the spear and the jug of water by Saul's head, and they got away; and no man saw or knew it or awoke. For they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from the LORD had fallen on them.

[13]Now David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of a hill afar off, a great distance being between them.

[14]And David called out to the people and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, "Do you not answer, Abner?" Then Abner answered and said, "Who are you, calling out to the king?"

[15]So David said to Abner, "Are you not a man? And who is like you in Israel? Why then have you not guarded your lord the king? For one of the people came in to destroy your lord the king.

[16]"This thing that you have done is not good. As the LORD lives, you deserve to die, because you have not guarded your master, the LORD's anointed. And now see where the king's spear is, and the jug of water that was by his head."

[17]Then Saul knew David's voice, and said, "Is that your voice, my son David?" David said, "It is my voice, my lord, O king."

[18]And he said, "Why does my lord thus pursue his servant? For what have I done, or what evil is in my hand?

[19]"Now therefore, please, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant: If the LORD has stirred you up against me, let Him accept an offering. But if it is the children of men, may they be cursed before the LORD, for they have driven me out this day from sharing in the inheritance of the LORD, saying, 'Go, serve other gods.'

[20]"So now, do not let my blood fall to the earth before the face of the LORD. For the king of Israel has come out to seek a flea, as when one hunts a partridge in the mountains."

[21]Then Saul said, "I have sinned. Return, my son David. For I will harm you no more, because my life was precious in your eyes this day. Indeed I have played the fool and erred exceedingly."

[22]And David answered and said, "Here is the king's spear. Let one of the young men come over and get it.

[23]"May the LORD repay every man for his righteousness and his faithfulness; for the LORD delivered you into my hand today, but I would not stretch out my hand against the LORD’s anointed.

[24]“And indeed, as your life was valued much this day in my eyes, so let my life be valued much in the eyes of the LORD, and let Him deliver me out of all tribulation.”

[25]Then Saul said to David, “May you be blessed, my son David! You shall both do great things and also still prevail.” So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

1 Samuel 27

David Allied with the Philistines

[1]And David said in his heart, "Now I shall perish someday by the hand of Saul. There is nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape to the land of the Philistines; and Saul will despair of me, to seek me anymore in any part of Israel. So I shall escape out of his hand."

[2]Then David arose and went over with the six hundred men who were with him to Achish the son of Maoch, king of Gath.

[3]So David dwelt with Achish at Gath, he and his men, each man with his household, and David with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the Carmelitess, Nabal's widow.

[4]And it was told Saul that David had fled to Gath; so he sought him no more.

[5]Then David said to Achish, "If I have now found favor in your eyes, let them give me a place in some town in the country, that I may dwell there. For why should your servant dwell in the royal city with you?"

[6]So Achish gave him Ziklag that day. Therefore Ziklag has belonged to the kings of Judah to this day.

[7]Now the time that David dwelt in the country of the Philistines was one full year and four months.

[8]And David and his men went up and raided the Geshurites, the Girzites, and the Amalekites. For those nations were the inhabitants of the land from of old, as you go to Shur, even as far as the land of Egypt.

[9]Whenever David attacked the land, he left neither man nor woman alive, but took away the sheep, the oxen, the donkeys, the camels, and the apparel, and returned and came to Achish.

[10]Then Achish would say, "Where have you made a raid today?" And David would say, "Against the southern area of Judah, or against the southern area of the Jerahmeelites, or against the southern area of the Kenites."

[11]David would save neither man nor woman alive, to bring news to Gath, saying, "Lest they should inform on us, saying, 'Thus David did.’ ” And thus was his behavior all the time he dwelt in the country of the Philistines.

[12]So Achish believed David, saying, “He has made his people Israel utterly abhor him; therefore he will be my servant forever.”

1 Samuel 28

[1]Now it happened in those days that the Philistines gathered their armies together for war, to fight with Israel. And Achish said to David, “You assuredly know that you will go out with me to battle, you and your men.”

[2]So David said to Achish, “Surely you know what your servant can do.” And Achish said to David, “Therefore I will make you one of my chief guardians forever.”

Saul Consults a Medium

[3]Now Samuel had died, and all Israel had lamented for him and buried him in Ramah, in his own city. And Saul had put the mediums and the spiritists out of the land.

[4]Then the Philistines gathered together, and came and encamped at Shunem. So Saul gathered all Israel together, and they encamped at Gilboa.

[5]When Saul saw the army of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart trembled greatly.

[6]And when Saul inquired of the LORD, the LORD did not answer him, either by dreams or by Urim or by the prophets.

[7]Then Saul said to his servants, “Find me a woman who is a medium, that I may go to her and inquire of her.” And his servants said to him, “In fact, there is a woman who is a medium at En Dor.”

[8]So Saul disguised himself and put on other clothes, and he went, and two men with him; and they came to the woman by night. And he said, “Please conduct a séance for me, and bring up for me the one I shall name to you.”

[9]Then the woman said to him, “Look, you know what Saul has done, how he has cut off the mediums and the spiritists from the land. Why then do you lay a snare for my life, to cause me to die?”

[10]And Saul swore to her by the LORD, saying, “As the LORD lives, no punishment shall come upon you for this thing.”

[11]Then the woman said, “Whom shall I bring up for you?” And he said, “Bring up Samuel for me.”

[12]When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out with a loud voice. And the woman spoke to Saul, saying, “Why have you deceived me? For you are Saul!”

[13]And the king said to her, “Do not be afraid. What did you see?” And the woman said to Saul, “I saw a spirit ascending out of the earth.”

[14]So he said to her, “What is his form?” And she said, “An old man is coming up, and he is covered with a mantle.” And Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he stooped with his face to the ground and bowed down.

[15]Now Samuel said to Saul, “Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?” And Saul answered, “I am deeply distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God has departed from me and does not answer me anymore, neither by prophets nor by dreams. Therefore I have called you, that you may reveal to me what I should do.”

[16]Then Samuel said: “So why do you ask me, seeing the LORD has departed from you and has become your enemy?

[17]“And the LORD has done for Himself as He spoke by me. For the LORD has torn the kingdom out of your hand and given it to your neighbor, David.

[18]“Because you did not obey the voice of the LORD nor execute His fierce wrath upon Amalek, therefore the LORD has done this thing to you this day.

[19]“Moreover the LORD will also deliver Israel with you into the hand of the Philistines. And tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. The LORD will also deliver the army of Israel into the hand of the Philistines.”

[20]Immediately Saul fell full length on the ground, and was dreadfully afraid because of the words of Samuel. And there was no strength in him, for he had eaten no food all day or all night.

[21]And the woman came to Saul and saw that he was severely troubled, and said to him, “Look, your maidservant has obeyed your voice, and I have put my life in my hands and heeded the words which you spoke to me.

[22]“Now therefore, please, heed also the voice of your maidservant, and let me set a piece of bread before you; and eat, that you may have strength when you go on your way.”

[23]But he refused and said, “I will not eat.” So his servants, together with the woman, urged him; and he heeded their voice. Then he arose from the ground and sat on the bed.

[24]Now the woman had a fatted calf in the house, and she hastened to kill it. And she took flour and kneaded it, and baked unleavened bread from it.

[25]So she brought it before Saul and his servants, and they ate. Then they rose and went away that night.

1 Samuel 29

The Philistines Reject David

[1]Then the Philistines gathered together all their armies at Aphek, and the Israelites encamped by a fountain which is in Jezreel.

[2]And the lords of the Philistines passed in review by hundreds and by thousands, but David and his men passed in review at the rear with Achish.

[3]Then the princes of the Philistines said, "What are these Hebrews doing here?" And Achish said to the princes of the Philistines, "Is this not David, the servant of Saul king of Israel, who has been with me these days, or these years? And to this day I have found no fault in him since he defected to me."

[4]But the princes of the Philistines were angry with him; so the princes of the Philistines said to him, "Make this fellow return, that he may go back to the place which you have appointed for him, and do not let him go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he become our adversary. For with what could he reconcile himself to his master, if not with the heads of these men?

[5]"Is this not David, of whom they sang to one another in dances, saying:

> 'Saul has slain his thousands,
> And David his ten thousands'?"

[6]Then Achish called David and said to him, "Surely, as the LORD lives, you have been upright, and your going out and your coming in with me in the army is good in my sight. For to this day I have not found evil in you since the day of your coming to me. Nevertheless the lords do not favor you.

[7]"Therefore return now, and go in peace, that you may not displease the lords of the Philistines."

[8]So David said to Achish, "But what have I done? And to this day what have you found in your servant as long as I have been with you, that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?"

[9]Then Achish answered and said to David, “I know that you are as good in my sight as an angel of God; nevertheless the princes of the Philistines have said, ‘He shall not go up with us to the battle.’

[10]“Now therefore, rise early in the morning with your master’s servants who have come with you. And as soon as you are up early in the morning and have light, depart.”

[11]So David and his men rose early to depart in the morning, to return to the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

1 Samuel 30

David's Conflict with the Amalekites

[1]Now it happened, when David and his men came to Ziklag, on the third day, that the Amalekites had invaded the South and Ziklag, attacked Ziklag and burned it with fire,

[2]and had taken captive the women and those who were there, from small to great; they did not kill anyone, but carried them away and went their way.

[3]So David and his men came to the city, and there it was, burned with fire; and their wives, their sons, and their daughters had been taken captive.

[4]Then David and the people who were with him lifted up their voices and wept, until they had no more power to weep.

[5]And David's two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite, had been taken captive.

[6]Now David was greatly distressed, for the people spoke of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and his daughters. But David strengthened himself in the LORD his God.

[7]Then David said to Abiathar the priest, Ahimelech's son, "Please bring the ephod here to me." And Abiathar brought the ephod to David.

[8]So David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I pursue this troop? Shall I overtake them?" And He answered him, "Pursue, for you shall surely overtake them and without fail recover all."

[9]So David went, he and the six hundred men who were with him, and came to the Brook Besor, where those stayed who were left behind.

[10]But David pursued, he and four hundred men; for two hundred stayed behind, who were so weary that they could not cross the Brook Besor.

[11]Then they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David; and they gave him bread and he ate, and they let him drink water.

[12]And they gave him a piece of a cake of figs and two clusters of raisins. So when he had eaten, his strength came back to him; for he had eaten no bread nor drunk water for three days and three nights.

[13]Then David said to him, “To whom do you belong, and where are you from?” And he said, “I am a young man from Egypt, servant of an Amalekite; and my master left me behind, because three days ago I fell sick.

[14]“We made an invasion of the southern area of the Cherethites, in the territory which belongs to Judah, and of the southern area of Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire.”

[15]And David said to him, “Can you take me down to this troop?” So he said, “Swear to me by God that you will neither kill me nor deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will take you down to this troop.”

[16]And when he had brought him down, there they were, spread out over all the land, eating and drinking and dancing, because of all the great spoil which they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from the land of Judah.

[17]Then David attacked them from twilight until the evening of the next day. Not a man of them escaped, except four hundred young men who rode on camels and fled.

[18]So David recovered all that the Amalekites had carried away, and David rescued his two wives.

[19]And nothing of theirs was lacking, either small or great, sons or daughters, spoil or anything which they had taken from them; David recovered all.

[20]Then David took all the flocks and herds they had driven before those other livestock, and said, “This is David’s spoil.”

[21]Now David came to the two hundred men who had been so weary that they could not follow David, whom they also had made to stay at the Brook Besor. So they went out to meet David and to meet the people who were with him. And when David came near the people, he greeted them.

[22]Then all the wicked and worthless men of those who went with David answered and said, “Because they did not go with us, we will not give them any of the spoil that we have recovered, except for every man’s wife and children, that they may lead them away and depart.”

[23]But David said, “My brethren, you shall not do so with what the LORD has given us, who has preserved us and delivered into our hand the troop that came against us.

[24]“For who will heed you in this matter? But as his part is who goes down to the battle, so shall his part be who stays by the supplies; they shall share alike.”

[25]So it was, from that day forward; he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel to this day.

[26]Now when David came to Ziklag, he sent some of the spoil to the elders of Judah, to his friends, saying, “Here is a present for you from the spoil of the enemies of the LORD”—

[27]to those who were in Bethel, those who were in Ramoth of the South, those who were in Jattir,

[28]those who were in Aroer, those who were in Siphmoth, those who were in Eshtemoa,

[29]those who were in Rachal, those who were in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, those who were in the cities of the Kenites,

[30]those who were in Hormah, those who were in Chorashan, those who were in Athach,

[31]those who were in Hebron, and to all the places where David himself and his men were accustomed to rove.

1 Samuel 31

The Tragic End of Saul and His Sons

[1]Now the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell slain on Mount Gilboa.

[2]Then the Philistines followed hard after Saul and his sons. And the Philistines killed Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua, Saul's sons.

[3]The battle became fierce against Saul. The archers hit him, and he was severely wounded by the archers.

[4]Then Saul said to his armorbearer, "Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised men come and thrust me through and abuse me." But his armorbearer would not, for he was greatly afraid. Therefore Saul took a sword and fell on it.

[5]And when his armorbearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword, and died with him.

[6]So Saul, his three sons, his armorbearer, and all his men died together that same day.

[7]And when the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley, and those who were on the other side of the Jordan, saw that the men of Israel had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook the cities and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

[8]So it happened the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

[9]And they cut off his head and stripped off his armor, and sent word throughout the land of the Philistines, to proclaim it in the temple of their idols and among the people.

[10]Then they put his armor in the temple of the Ashtoreths, and they fastened his body to the wall of Beth Shan.

[11]Now when the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul,

[12]all the valiant men arose and traveled all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth Shan; and they came to Jabesh and burned them there.

[13]Then they took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree at Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

The Second Book of

Samuel

2 Samuel 1

The Report of Saul's Death

[1]Now it came to pass after the death of Saul, when David had returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, and David had stayed two days in Ziklag,

[2]on the third day, behold, it happened that a man came from Saul's camp with his clothes torn and dust on his head. So it was, when he came to David, that he fell to the ground and prostrated himself.

[3]And David said to him, "Where have you come from?" So he said to him, "I have escaped from the camp of Israel."

[4]Then David said to him, "How did the matter go? Please tell me." And he answered, "The people have fled from the battle, many of the people are fallen and dead, and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also."

[5]So David said to the young man who told him, "How do you know that Saul and Jonathan his son are dead?"

[6]Then the young man who told him said, "As I happened by chance to be on Mount Gilboa, there was Saul, leaning on his spear; and indeed the chariots and horsemen followed hard after him.

[7]"Now when he looked behind him, he saw me and called to me. And I answered, 'Here I am.'

[8]"And he said to me, 'Who are you?' So I answered him, 'I am an Amalekite.'

[9]"He said to me again, 'Please stand over me and kill me, for anguish has come upon me, but my life still remains in me.'

[10]"So I stood over him and killed him, because I was sure that he could not live after he had fallen. And I took the crown that was on his head and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them here to my lord."

[11]Therefore David took hold of his own clothes and tore them, and so did all the men who were with him.

[12]And they mourned and wept and fasted until evening for Saul and for Jonathan his son, for the people of the LORD and for the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.

[13]Then David said to the young man who told him, “Where are you from?” And he answered, “I am the son of an alien, an Amalekite.”

[14]So David said to him, “How was it you were not afraid to put forth your hand to destroy the LORD’s anointed?”

[15]Then David called one of the young men and said, “Go near, and execute him!” And he struck him so that he died.

[16]So David said to him, “Your blood is on your own head, for your own mouth has testified against you, saying, ‘I have killed the LORD’s anointed.’ ”

The Song of the Bow

17Then David lamented with this lamentation over Saul and over Jonathan his son,

[18]and he told them to teach the children of Judah the Song of the Bow; indeed it is written in the Book of Jasher:

[19]“The beauty of Israel is slain on your high places!
How the mighty have fallen!
[20]Tell it not in Gath,
Proclaim it not in the streets of Ashkelon—
Lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice,
Lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.

[21]“O mountains of Gilboa,
Let there be no dew nor rain upon you,
Nor fields of offerings.
For the shield of the mighty is cast away there!
The shield of Saul, not anointed with oil.
[22]From the blood of the slain,
From the fat of the mighty,
The bow of Jonathan did not turn back,
And the sword of Saul did not return empty.

[23]“Saul and Jonathan were beloved and pleasant in their lives,
And in their death they were not divided;

They were swifter than eagles,
They were stronger than lions.

[24]“O daughters of Israel, weep over Saul,
Who clothed you in scarlet, with luxury;
Who put ornaments of gold on your apparel.

[25]“How the mighty have fallen in the midst of the battle!
Jonathan was slain in your high places.
[26]I am distressed for you, my brother Jonathan;
You have been very pleasant to me;
Your love to me was wonderful,
Surpassing the love of women.

[27]“How the mighty have fallen,
And the weapons of war perished!”

2 Samuel 2

David Anointed King of Judah

[1]It happened after this that David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go up to any of the cities of Judah?" And the LORD said to him, "Go up." David said, "Where shall I go up?" And He said, "To Hebron."

[2]So David went up there, and his two wives also, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite.

[3]And David brought up the men who were with him, every man with his household. So they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

[4]Then the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah. And they told David, saying, "The men of Jabesh Gilead were the ones who buried Saul."

[5]So David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh Gilead, and said to them, "You are blessed of the LORD, for you have shown this kindness to your lord, to Saul, and have buried him.

[6]"And now may the LORD show kindness and truth to you. I also will repay you this kindness, because you have done this thing.

[7]"Now therefore, let your hands be strengthened, and be valiant; for your master Saul is dead, and also the house of Judah has anointed me king over them."

Ishbosheth Made King of Israel

[8]But Abner the son of Ner, commander of Saul's army, took Ishbosheth the son of Saul and brought him over to Mahanaim;

[9]and he made him king over Gilead, over the Ashurites, over Jezreel, over Ephraim, over Benjamin, and over all Israel.

[10]Ishbosheth, Saul's son, was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he reigned two years. Only the house of Judah followed David.

[11]And the time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

Israel and Judah at War

12Now Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon.

13And Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out and met them by the pool of Gibeon. So they sat down, one on one side of the pool and the other on the other side of the pool.

14Then Abner said to Joab, “Let the young men now arise and compete before us.” And Joab said, “Let them arise.”

15So they arose and went over by number, twelve from Benjamin, followers of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and twelve from the servants of David.

16And each one grasped his opponent by the head and thrust his sword in his opponent’s side; so they fell down together. Therefore that place was called the Field of Sharp Swords, which is in Gibeon.

17So there was a very fierce battle that day, and Abner and the men of Israel were beaten before the servants of David.

18Now the three sons of Zeruiah were there: Joab and Abishai and Asahel. And Asahel was as fleet of foot as a wild gazelle.

19So Asahel pursued Abner, and in going he did not turn to the right hand or to the left from following Abner.

20Then Abner looked behind him and said, “Are you Asahel?” He answered, “I am.”

21And Abner said to him, “Turn aside to your right hand or to your left, and lay hold on one of the young men and take his armor for yourself.” But Asahel would not turn aside from following him.

22So Abner said again to Asahel, “Turn aside from following me. Why should I strike you to the ground? How then could I face your brother Joab?”

23However, he refused to turn aside. Therefore Abner struck him in the stomach with the blunt end of the spear, so that the spear came out of his back; and he fell down there and died on the spot. So it was that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and died, stood still.

24Joab and Abishai also pursued Abner. And the sun was going down when they came to the hill of Ammah, which is before Giah by the road to the Wilderness of Gibeon.

[25]Now the children of Benjamin gathered together behind Abner and became a unit, and took their stand on top of a hill.

[26]Then Abner called to Joab and said, “Shall the sword devour forever? Do you not know that it will be bitter in the latter end? How long will it be then until you tell the people to return from pursuing their brethren?”

[27]And Joab said, “As God lives, unless you had spoken, surely then by morning all the people would have given up pursuing their brethren.”

[28]So Joab blew a trumpet; and all the people stood still and did not pursue Israel anymore, nor did they fight anymore.

[29]Then Abner and his men went on all that night through the plain, crossed over the Jordan, and went through all Bithron; and they came to Mahanaim.

[30]So Joab returned from pursuing Abner. And when he had gathered all the people together, there were missing of David’s servants nineteen men and Asahel.

[31]But the servants of David had struck down, of Benjamin and Abner’s men, three hundred and sixty men who died.

[32]Then they took up Asahel and buried him in his father’s tomb, which was in Bethlehem. And Joab and his men went all night, and they came to Hebron at daybreak.

2 Samuel 3

[1]Now there was a long war between the house of Saul and the house of David. But David grew stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul grew weaker and weaker.

Sons of David

[2]Sons were born to David in Hebron: His firstborn was Amnon by Ahinoam the Jezreelitess;

[3]his second, Chileab, by Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite; the third, Absalom the son of Maacah, the daughter of Talmai, king of Geshur;

[4]the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital;

[5]and the sixth, Ithream, by David's wife Eglah. These were born to David in Hebron.

Abner Joins Forces with David

[6]Now it was so, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner was strengthening his hold on the house of Saul.

[7]And Saul had a concubine, whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah. So Ishbosheth said to Abner, "Why have you gone in to my father's concubine?"

[8]Then Abner became very angry at the words of Ishbosheth, and said, "Am I a dog's head that belongs to Judah? Today I show loyalty to the house of Saul your father, to his brothers, and to his friends, and have not delivered you into the hand of David; and you charge me today with a fault concerning this woman?

[9]"May God do so to Abner, and more also, if I do not do for David as the LORD has sworn to him—

[10]"to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul, and set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan to Beersheba."

[11]And he could not answer Abner another word, because he feared him.

[12]Then Abner sent messengers on his behalf to David, saying, “Whose is the land?” saying also, “Make your covenant with me, and indeed my hand shall be with you to bring all Israel to you.”

[13]And David said, “Good, I will make a covenant with you. But one thing I require of you: you shall not see my face unless you first bring Michal, Saul’s daughter, when you come to see my face.”

[14]So David sent messengers to Ishbosheth, Saul’s son, saying, “Give me my wife Michal, whom I betrothed to myself for a hundred foreskins of the Philistines.”

[16]Then her husband went along with her to Bahurim, weeping behind her. So Abner said to him, “Go, return!” And he returned.

[17]Now Abner had communicated with the elders of Israel, saying, “In time past you were seeking for David to be king over you.

[18]“Now then, do it! For the LORD has spoken of David, saying, ‘By the hand of My servant David, I will save My people Israel from the hand of the Philistines and the hand of all their enemies.’ ”

[19]And Abner also spoke in the hearing of Benjamin. Then Abner also went to speak in the hearing of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel and the whole house of Benjamin.

[20]So Abner and twenty men with him came to David at Hebron. And David made a feast for Abner and the men who were with him.

[21]Then Abner said to David, “I will arise and go, and gather all Israel to my lord the king, that they may make a covenant with you, and that you may reign over all that your heart desires.” So David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.

Joab Murders Abner

[22]At that moment the servants of David and Joab came from a raid and brought much spoil with them. But Abner was not with David in Hebron, for he had sent him away, and he had gone in peace.

[23]When Joab and all the troops that were with him had come, they told Joab, saying, "Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he sent him away, and he has gone in peace."

[24]Then Joab came to the king and said, "What have you done? Look, Abner came to you; why is it that you sent him away, and he has already gone?

[25]"Surely you realize that Abner the son of Ner came to deceive you, to know your going out and your coming in, and to know all that you are doing."

[26]And when Joab had gone from David's presence, he sent messengers after Abner, who brought him back from the well of Sirah. But David did not know it.

[27]Now when Abner had returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside in the gate to speak with him privately, and there stabbed him in the stomach, so that he died for the blood of Asahel his brother.

[28]Afterward, when David heard it, he said, "My kingdom and I are guiltless before the LORD forever of the blood of Abner the son of Ner.

[29]"Let it rest on the head of Joab and on all his father's house; and let there never fail to be in the house of Joab one who has a discharge or is a leper, who leans on a staff or falls by the sword, or who lacks bread."

[30]So Joab and Abishai his brother killed Abner, because he had killed their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battle.

David's Mourning for Abner

[31]Then David said to Joab and to all the people who were with him, "Tear your clothes, gird yourselves with sackcloth, and mourn for Abner." And King David followed the coffin.

[32]So they buried Abner in Hebron; and the king lifted up his voice and wept at the grave of Abner, and all the people wept.

[33]And the king sang a lament over Abner and said:

> "Should Abner die as a fool dies?
> [34]Your hands were not bound
> Nor your feet put into fetters;
> As a man falls before wicked men, so you fell."

Then all the people wept over him again.

[35]And when all the people came to persuade David to eat food while it was still day, David took an oath, saying, “God do so to me, and more also, if I taste bread or anything else till the sun goes down!”

[36]Now all the people took note of it, and it pleased them, since whatever the king did pleased all the people.

[37]For all the people and all Israel understood that day that it had not been the king’s intent to kill Abner the son of Ner.

[38]Then the king said to his servants, “Do you not know that a prince and a great man has fallen this day in Israel?

[39]“And I am weak today, though anointed king; and these men, the sons of Zeruiah, are too harsh for me. The LORD shall repay the evildoer according to his wickedness.”

2 Samuel 4

Ishbosheth Is Murdered

[1]When Saul’s son heard that Abner had died in Hebron, he lost heart, and all Israel was troubled.

[2]Now Saul’s son had two men who were captains of troops. The name of one was Baanah and the name of the other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, of the children of Benjamin. (For Beeroth also was part of Benjamin,

[3]because the Beerothites fled to Gittaim and have been sojourners there until this day.)

[4]Jonathan, Saul’s son, had a son who was lame in his feet. He was five years old when the news about Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel; and his nurse took him up and fled. And it happened, as she made haste to flee, that he fell and became lame. His name was Mephibosheth.

[5]Then the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, set out and came at about the heat of the day to the house of Ishbosheth, who was lying on his bed at noon.

[6]And they came there, all the way into the house, as though to get wheat, and they stabbed him in the stomach. Then Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped.

[7]For when they came into the house, he was lying on his bed in his bedroom; then they struck him and killed him, beheaded him and took his head, and were all night escaping through the plain.

[8]And they brought the head of Ishbosheth to David at Hebron, and said to the king, “Here is the head of Ishbosheth, the son of Saul your enemy, who sought your life; and the LORD has avenged my lord the king this day of Saul and his descendants.”

[9]But David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said to them, “As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my life from all adversity,

[10]“when someone told me, saying, ‘Look, Saul is dead,’ thinking to have brought good news, I arrested him and had him executed in Ziklag—the one who thought I would give him a reward for his news.

[11]"How much more, when wicked men have killed a righteous person in his own house on his bed? Therefore, shall I not now require his blood at your hand and remove you from the earth?"

[12]So David commanded his young men, and they executed them, cut off their hands and feet, and hanged them by the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ishbosheth and buried it in the tomb of Abner in Hebron.

2 Samuel 5

David Reigns over All Israel

[1]Then all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron and spoke, saying, "Indeed we are your bone and your flesh.

[2]"Also, in time past, when Saul was king over us, you were the one who led Israel out and brought them in; and the LORD said to you, 'You shall shepherd My people Israel, and be ruler over Israel.' "

[3]Therefore all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the LORD. And they anointed David king over Israel.

[4]David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years.

[5]In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah.

The Conquest of Jerusalem

[6]And the king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, who spoke to David, saying, "You shall not come in here; but the blind and the lame will repel you," thinking, "David cannot come in here."

[7]Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion (that is, the City of David).

[8]Now David said on that day, "Whoever climbs up by way of the water shaft and defeats the Jebusites (the lame and the blind, who are hated by David's soul), he shall be chief and captain." Therefore they say, "The blind and the lame shall not come into the house."

[9]Then David dwelt in the stronghold, and called it the City of David. And David built all around from the Millo and inward.

[10]So David went on and became great, and the LORD God of hosts was with him.

[11]Then Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and carpenters and masons. And they built David a house.

[12]So David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel, and that He had exalted His kingdom for the sake of His people Israel.

[13]And David took more concubines and wives from Jerusalem, after he had come from Hebron. Also more sons and daughters were born to David.

[14]Now these are the names of those who were born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,

[15]Ibhar, Elishua, Nepheg, Japhia,

[16]Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphelet.

The Philistines Defeated

[17]Now when the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines went up to search for David. And David heard of it and went down to the stronghold.

[18]The Philistines also went and deployed themselves in the Valley of Rephaim.

[19]So David inquired of the LORD, saying, “Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will You deliver them into my hand?” And the LORD said to David, “Go up, for I will doubtless deliver the Philistines into your hand.”

[20]So David went to Baal Perazim, and David defeated them there; and he said, “The LORD has broken through my enemies before me, like a breakthrough of water.” Therefore he called the name of that place Baal Perazim.

[22]Then the Philistines went up once again and deployed themselves in the Valley of Rephaim.

[23]Therefore David inquired of the LORD, and He said, “You shall not go up; circle around behind them, and come upon them in front of the mulberry trees.

[24]“And it shall be, when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, then you shall advance quickly. For then the LORD will go out before you to strike the camp of the Philistines.”

[25]And David did so, as the LORD commanded him; and he drove back the Philistines from Geba as far as Gezer.

2 Samuel 6

The Ark Brought to Jerusalem

[1]Again David gathered all the choice men of Israel, thirty thousand.

[2]And David arose and went with all the people who were with him from Baale Judah to bring up from there the ark of God, whose name is called by the Name, the LORD of Hosts, who dwells between the cherubim.

[3]So they set the ark of God on a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill; and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drove the new cart.

[4]And they brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill, accompanying the ark of God; and Ahio went before the ark.

[5]Then David and all the house of Israel played music before the LORD on all kinds of instruments of fir wood, on harps, on stringed instruments, on tambourines, on sistrums, and on cymbals.

[6]And when they came to Nachon's threshing floor, Uzzah put out his hand to the ark of God and took hold of it, for the oxen stumbled.

[7]Then the anger of the LORD was aroused against Uzzah, and God struck him there for his error; and he died there by the ark of God.

[8]And David became angry because of the LORD's outbreak against Uzzah; and he called the name of the place Perez Uzzah to this day.

[9]David was afraid of the LORD that day; and he said, "How can the ark of the LORD come to me?"

[10]So David would not move the ark of the LORD with him into the City of David; but David took it aside into the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite.

[11]The ark of the LORD remained in the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite three months. And the LORD blessed Obed-Edom and all his household.

[12]Now it was told King David, saying, "The LORD has blessed the house of Obed-Edom and all that belongs to him, because of the ark of God." So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-Edom to the City of David with gladness.

[13]And so it was, when those bearing the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, that he sacrificed oxen and fatted sheep.

[14]Then David danced before the LORD with all his might; and David was wearing a linen ephod.

[15]So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting and with the sound of the trumpet.

[16]Now as the ark of the LORD came into the City of David, Michal, Saul's daughter, looked through a window and saw King David leaping and whirling before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.

[17]So they brought the ark of the LORD, and set it in its place in the midst of the tabernacle that David had erected for it. Then David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

[18]And when David had finished offering burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts.

[19]Then he distributed among all the people, among the whole multitude of Israel, both the women and the men, to everyone a loaf of bread, a piece of meat, and a cake of raisins. So all the people departed, everyone to his house.

[20]Then David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, "How glorious was the king of Israel today, uncovering himself today in the eyes of the maids of his servants, as one of the base fellows shamelessly uncovers himself!"

[21]So David said to Michal, "It was before the LORD, who chose me instead of your father and all his house, to appoint me ruler over the people of the LORD, over Israel. Therefore I will play music before the LORD.

[22]"And I will be even more undignified than this, and will be humble in my own sight. But as for the maidservants of whom you have spoken, by them I will be held in honor."

[23]Therefore Michal the daughter of Saul had no children to the day of her death.

2 Samuel 7

God’s Covenant with David

[1]Now it came to pass when the king was dwelling in his house, and the LORD had given him rest from all his enemies all around,

[2]that the king said to Nathan the prophet, “See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of God dwells inside tent curtains.”

[3]Then Nathan said to the king, “Go, do all that is in your heart, for the LORD is with you.”

[4]But it happened that night that the word of the LORD came to Nathan, saying,

[5]“Go and tell My servant David, ‘Thus says the LORD: “Would you build a house for Me to dwell in?

[6]“For I have not dwelt in a house since the time that I brought the children of Israel up from Egypt, even to this day, but have moved about in a tent and in a tabernacle.

[7]“Wherever I have moved about with all the children of Israel, have I ever spoken a word to anyone from the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people Israel, saying, ‘Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?’ ” ’

[8]“Now therefore, thus shall you say to My servant David, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts: “I took you from the sheepfold, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My people, over Israel.

[9]“And I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you, and have made you a great name, like the name of the great men who are on the earth.

[10]“Moreover I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own and move no more; nor shall the sons of wickedness oppress them anymore, as previously,

[11]“since the time that I commanded judges to be over My people Israel, and have caused you to rest from all your enemies. Also the LORD tells you that He will make you a house.

12“When your days are fulfilled and you rest with your fathers, I will set up your seed after you, who will come from your body, and I will establish his kingdom.

13“He shall build a house for My name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever.

14“I will be his Father, and he shall be My son. If he commits iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men and with the blows of the sons of men.

15“But My mercy shall not depart from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I removed from before you.

16“And your house and your kingdom shall be established forever before you. Your throne shall be established forever.” ’ ”

17According to all these words and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

David’s Thanksgiving to God

18Then King David went in and sat before the LORD; and he said: “Who am I, O Lord GOD? And what is my house, that You have brought me this far?

19“And yet this was a small thing in Your sight, O Lord GOD; and You have also spoken of Your servant’s house for a great while to come. Is this the manner of man, O Lord GOD?

20“Now what more can David say to You? For You, Lord GOD, know Your servant.

21“For Your word’s sake, and according to Your own heart, You have done all these great things, to make Your servant know them.

22“Therefore You are great, O Lord GOD. For there is none like You, nor is there any God besides You, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

23“And who is like Your people, like Israel, the one nation on the earth whom God went to redeem for Himself as a people, to make for Himself a name—and to do for Yourself great and awesome deeds for Your land—before Your people whom You redeemed for Yourself from Egypt, the nations, and their gods?

[24]“For You have made Your people Israel Your very own people forever; and You, LORD, have become their God.

[25]“Now, O LORD God, the word which You have spoken concerning Your servant and concerning his house, establish it forever and do as You have said.

[26]“So let Your name be magnified forever, saying, ‘The LORD of hosts is the God over Israel.’ And let the house of Your servant David be established before You.

[27]“For You, O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, have revealed this to Your servant, saying, ‘I will build you a house.’ Therefore Your servant has found it in his heart to pray this prayer to You.

[28]“And now, O Lord GOD, You are God, and Your words are true, and You have promised this goodness to Your servant.

[29]“Now therefore, let it please You to bless the house of Your servant, that it may continue before You forever; for You, O Lord GOD, have spoken it, and with Your blessing let the house of Your servant be blessed forever.”

2 Samuel 8

David's Further Conquests

[1]After this it came to pass that David attacked the Philistines and subdued them. And David took Metheg Ammah from the hand of the Philistines.

[2]Then he defeated Moab. Forcing them down to the ground, he measured them off with a line. With two lines he measured off those to be put to death, and with one full line those to be kept alive. So the Moabites became David's servants, and brought tribute.

[3]David also defeated Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to recover his territory at the River Euphrates.

[4]David took from him one thousand chariots, seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand foot soldiers. Also David hamstrung all the chariot horses, except that he spared enough of them for one hundred chariots.

[5]When the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David killed twenty-two thousand of the Syrians.

[6]Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought tribute. So the LORD preserved David wherever he went.

[7]And David took the shields of gold that had belonged to the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

[8]Also from Betah and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, King David took a large amount of bronze.

[9]When Toi king of Hamath heard that David had defeated all the army of Hadadezer,

[10]then Toi sent Joram his son to King David, to greet him and bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him (for Hadadezer had been at war with Toi); and Joram brought with him articles of silver, articles of gold, and articles of bronze.

[11]King David also dedicated these to the LORD, along with the silver and gold that he had dedicated from all the nations which he had subdued—

[12]from Syria, from Moab, from the people of Ammon, from the Philistines, from Amalek, and from the spoil of Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

[13]And David made himself a name when he returned from killing eighteen thousand Syrians in the Valley of Salt.

[14]He also put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom he put garrisons, and all the Edomites became David's servants. And the LORD preserved David wherever he went.

David's Administration

[15]So David reigned over all Israel; and David administered judgment and justice to all his people.

[16]Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder;

[17]Zadok the son of Ahitub and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar were the priests; Seraiah was the scribe;

[18]Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over both the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were chief ministers.

2 Samuel 9

David's Kindness to Mephibosheth

[1]Now David said, "Is there still anyone who is left of the house of Saul, that I may show him kindness for Jonathan's sake?"

[2]And there was a servant of the house of Saul whose name was Ziba. So when they had called him to David, the king said to him, "Are you Ziba?" He said, "At your service!"

[3]Then the king said, "Is there not still someone of the house of Saul, to whom I may show the kindness of God?" And Ziba said to the king, "There is still a son of Jonathan who is lame in his feet."

[4]So the king said to him, "Where is he?" And Ziba said to the king, "Indeed he is in the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, in Lo Debar."

[5]Then King David sent and brought him out of the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, from Lo Debar.

[6]Now when Mephibosheth the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, had come to David, he fell on his face and prostrated himself. Then David said, "Mephibosheth?" And he answered, "Here is your servant!"

[7]So David said to him, "Do not fear, for I will surely show you kindness for Jonathan your father's sake, and will restore to you all the land of Saul your grandfather; and you shall eat bread at my table continually."

[8]Then he bowed himself, and said, "What is your servant, that you should look upon such a dead dog as I?"

[9]And the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said to him, "I have given to your master's son all that belonged to Saul and to all his house.

[10]"You therefore, and your sons and your servants, shall work the land for him, and you shall bring in the harvest, that your master's son may have food to eat. But Mephibosheth your master's son shall eat bread at my table always." Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

[11]Then Ziba said to the king, "According to all that my lord the king has commanded his servant, so will your servant do." "As for Mephibosheth," said the king, "he shall eat at my table like one of the king's sons."

[12]Mephibosheth had a young son whose name was Micha. And all who dwelt in the house of Ziba were servants of Mephibosheth.

[13]So Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem, for he ate continually at the king's table. And he was lame in both his feet.

2 Samuel 10

The Ammonites and Syrians Defeated

[1]It happened after this that the king of the people of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his place.

[2]Then David said, “I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father showed kindness to me.” So David sent by the hand of his servants to comfort him concerning his father. And David’s servants came into the land of the people of Ammon.

[3]And the princes of the people of Ammon said to Hanun their lord, “Do you think that David really honors your father because he has sent comforters to you? Has David not rather sent his servants to you to search the city, to spy it out, and to overthrow it?”

[4]Therefore Hanun took David’s servants, shaved off half of their beards, cut off their garments in the middle, at their buttocks, and sent them away.

[5]When they told David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, “Wait at Jericho until your beards have grown, and then return.”

[6]When the people of Ammon saw that they had made themselves repulsive to David, the people of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Beth Rehob and the Syrians of Zoba, twenty thousand foot soldiers; and from the king of Maacah one thousand men, and from Ish-Tob twelve thousand men.

[7]Now when David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the army of the mighty men.

[8]Then the people of Ammon came out and put themselves in battle array at the entrance of the gate. And the Syrians of Zoba, Beth Rehob, Ish-Tob, and Maacah were by themselves in the field.

[9]When Joab saw that the battle line was against him before and behind, he chose some of Israel’s best and put them in battle array against the Syrians.

[10]And the rest of the people he put under the command of Abishai his brother, that he might set them in battle array against the people of Ammon.

[11]Then he said, “If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the people of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will come and help you.

[12]“Be of good courage, and let us be strong for our people and for the cities of our God. And may the LORD do what is good in His sight.”

[13]So Joab and the people who were with him drew near for the battle against the Syrians, and they fled before him.

[14]When the people of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fleeing, they also fled before Abishai, and entered the city. So Joab returned from the people of Ammon and went to Jerusalem.

[15]When the Syrians saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they gathered together.

[16]Then Hadadezer sent and brought out the Syrians who were beyond the River, and they came to Helam. And Shobach the commander of Hadadezer’s army went before them.

[17]When it was told David, he gathered all Israel, crossed over the Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in battle array against David and fought with him.

[18]Then the Syrians fled before Israel; and David killed seven hundred charioteers and forty thousand horsemen of the Syrians, and struck Shobach the commander of their army, who died there.

[19]And when all the kings who were servants to Hadadezer saw that they were defeated by Israel, they made peace with Israel and served them. So the Syrians were afraid to help the people of Ammon anymore.

2 Samuel 11

David, Bathsheba, and Uriah

[1]It happened in the spring of the year, at the time when kings go out to battle, that David sent Joab and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the people of Ammon and besieged Rabbah. But David remained at Jerusalem.

[2]Then it happened one evening that David arose from his bed and walked on the roof of the king's house. And from the roof he saw a woman bathing, and the woman was very beautiful to behold.

[3]So David sent and inquired about the woman. And someone said, "Is this not Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?"

[4]Then David sent messengers, and took her; and she came to him, and he lay with her, for she was cleansed from her impurity; and she returned to her house.

[5]And the woman conceived; so she sent and told David, and said, "I am with child."

[6]Then David sent to Joab, saying, "Send me Uriah the Hittite." And Joab sent Uriah to David.

[7]When Uriah had come to him, David asked how Joab was doing, and how the people were doing, and how the war prospered.

[8]And David said to Uriah, "Go down to your house and wash your feet." So Uriah departed from the king's house, and a gift of food from the king followed him.

[9]But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and did not go down to his house.

[10]So when they told David, saying, "Uriah did not go down to his house," David said to Uriah, "Did you not come from a journey? Why did you not go down to your house?"

[11]And Uriah said to David, "The ark and Israel and Judah are dwelling in tents, and my lord Joab and the servants of my lord are encamped in the open fields. Shall I then go to my house to eat and drink, and to lie with my wife? As you live, and as your soul lives, I will not do this thing."

[12]Then David said to Uriah, "Wait here today also, and tomorrow I will let you depart." So Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day and the next.

[13]Now when David called him, he ate and drank before him; and he made him drunk. And at evening he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but he did not go down to his house.

14In the morning it happened that David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it by the hand of Uriah.

[15]And he wrote in the letter, saying, "Set Uriah in the forefront of the hottest battle, and retreat from him, that he may be struck down and die."

[16]So it was, while Joab besieged the city, that he assigned Uriah to a place where he knew there were valiant men.

[17]Then the men of the city came out and fought with Joab. And some of the people of the servants of David fell; and Uriah the Hittite died also.

18Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war,

[19]and charged the messenger, saying, "When you have finished telling the matters of the war to the king,

[20]"if it happens that the king's wrath rises, and he says to you: 'Why did you approach so near to the city when you fought? Did you not know that they would shoot from the wall?

[21]'Who struck Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth? Was it not a woman who cast a piece of a millstone on him from the wall, so that he died in Thebez? Why did you go near the wall?'—then you shall say, 'Your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.' "

22So the messenger went, and came and told David all that Joab had sent by him.

[23]And the messenger said to David, "Surely the men prevailed against us and came out to us in the field; then we drove them back as far as the entrance of the gate.

[24]"The archers shot from the wall at your servants; and some of the king's servants are dead, and your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.”

[25]Then David said to the messenger, “Thus you shall say to Joab: ‘Do not let this thing displease you, for the sword devours one as well as another. Strengthen your attack against the city, and overthrow it.’ So encourage him.”

[26]When the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she mourned for her husband.

[27]And when her mourning was over, David sent and brought her to his house, and she became his wife and bore him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased the LORD.

2 Samuel 12

Nathan's Parable and David's Confession

[1]Then the LORD sent Nathan to David. And he came to him, and said to him: "There were two men in one city, one rich and the other poor.

[2]"The rich man had exceedingly many flocks and herds.

[3]"But the poor man had nothing, except one little ewe lamb which he had bought and nourished; and it grew up together with him and with his children. It ate of his own food and drank from his own cup and lay in his bosom; and it was like a daughter to him.

[4]"And a traveler came to the rich man, who refused to take from his own flock and from his own herd to prepare one for the wayfaring man who had come to him; but he took the poor man's lamb and prepared it for the man who had come to him."

[5]So David's anger was greatly aroused against the man, and he said to Nathan, "As the LORD lives, the man who has done this shall surely die!

[6]"And he shall restore fourfold for the lamb, because he did this thing and because he had no pity."

[7]Then Nathan said to David, "You are the man! Thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you from the hand of Saul.

[8]'I gave you your master's house and your master's wives into your keeping, and gave you the house of Israel and Judah. And if that had been too little, I also would have given you much more!

[9]'Why have you despised the commandment of the LORD, to do evil in His sight? You have killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword; you have taken his wife to be your wife, and have killed him with the sword of the people of Ammon.

[10]'Now therefore, the sword shall never depart from your house, because you have despised Me, and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife.'

[11]"Thus says the LORD: 'Behold, I will raise up adversity against you from your own house; and I will take your wives before your eyes and give them to your neighbor, and he shall lie with your wives in the sight of this sun.

[12]'For you did it secretly, but I will do this thing before all Israel, before the sun.' "

[13]So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the LORD." And Nathan said to David, "The LORD also has put away your sin; you shall not die.

[14]"However, because by this deed you have given great occasion to the enemies of the LORD to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die."

[15]Then Nathan departed to his house.

The Death of David's Son

And the LORD struck the child that Uriah's wife bore to David, and it became ill.

[16]David therefore pleaded with God for the child, and David fasted and went in and lay all night on the ground.

[17]So the elders of his house arose and went to him, to raise him up from the ground. But he would not, nor did he eat food with them.

[18]Then on the seventh day it came to pass that the child died. And the servants of David were afraid to tell him that the child was dead. For they said, "Indeed, while the child was alive, we spoke to him, and he would not heed our voice. How can we tell him that the child is dead? He may do some harm!"

[19]When David saw that his servants were whispering, David perceived that the child was dead. Therefore David said to his servants, "Is the child dead?" And they said, "He is dead."

[20]So David arose from the ground, washed and anointed himself, and changed his clothes; and he went into the house of the LORD and worshiped. Then he went to his own house; and when he requested, they set food before him, and he ate.

[21]Then his servants said to him, "What is this that you have done? You fasted and wept for the child while he was alive, but when the child died, you arose and ate food."

[22]And he said, "While the child was alive, I fasted and wept; for I said, 'Who can tell whether the LORD will be gracious to me, that the child may live?’

[23]“But now he is dead; why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me.”

Solomon Is Born

[24]Then David comforted Bathsheba his wife, and went in to her and lay with her. So she bore a son, and he called his name Solomon. Now the LORD loved him,

[25]and He sent word by the hand of Nathan the prophet: So he called his name Jedidiah, because of the LORD.

Rabbah Is Captured

[26]Now Joab fought against Rabbah of the people of Ammon, and took the royal city.

[27]And Joab sent messengers to David, and said, “I have fought against Rabbah, and I have taken the city’s water supply.

[28]“Now therefore, gather the rest of the people together and encamp against the city and take it, lest I take the city and it be called after my name.”

[29]So David gathered all the people together and went to Rabbah, fought against it, and took it.

[30]Then he took their king’s crown from his head. Its weight was a talent of gold, with precious stones. And it was set on David’s head. Also he brought out the spoil of the city in great abundance.

[31]And he brought out the people who were in it, and put them to work with saws and iron picks and iron axes, and made them cross over to the brick works. So he did to all the cities of the people of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 13

Amnon and Tamar

[1]After this Absalom the son of David had a lovely sister, whose name was Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her.

[2]Amnon was so distressed over his sister Tamar that he became sick; for she was a virgin. And it was improper for Amnon to do anything to her.

[3]But Amnon had a friend whose name was Jonadab the son of Shimeah, David's brother. Now Jonadab was a very crafty man.

[4]And he said to him, "Why are you, the king's son, becoming thinner day after day? Will you not tell me?" Amnon said to him, "I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister."

[5]So Jonadab said to him, "Lie down on your bed and pretend to be ill. And when your father comes to see you, say to him, 'Please let my sister Tamar come and give me food, and prepare the food in my sight, that I may see it and eat it from her hand.' "

[6]Then Amnon lay down and pretended to be ill; and when the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, "Please let Tamar my sister come and make a couple of cakes for me in my sight, that I may eat from her hand."

[7]And David sent home to Tamar, saying, "Now go to your brother Amnon's house, and prepare food for him."

[8]So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was lying down. Then she took flour and kneaded it, made cakes in his sight, and baked the cakes.

[9]And she took the pan and placed them out before him, but he refused to eat. Then Amnon said, "Have everyone go out from me." And they all went out from him.

[10]Then Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into the bedroom, that I may eat from your hand." And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them to Amnon her brother in the bedroom.

[11]Now when she had brought them to him to eat, he took hold of her and said to her, "Come, lie with me, my sister."

[12]But she answered him, “No, my brother, do not force me, for no such thing should be done in Israel. Do not do this disgraceful thing!

[13]“And I, where could I take my shame? And as for you, you would be like one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, please speak to the king; for he will not withhold me from you.”

[14]However, he would not heed her voice; and being stronger than she, he forced her and lay with her.

[15]Then Amnon hated her exceedingly, so that the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. And Amnon said to her, “Arise, be gone!”

[16]So she said to him, “No, indeed! This evil of sending me away is worse than the other that you did to me.” But he would not listen to her.

[17]Then he called his servant who attended him, and said, “Here! Put this woman out, away from me, and bolt the door behind her.”

[18]Now she had on a robe of many colors, for the king’s virgin daughters wore such apparel. And his servant put her out and bolted the door behind her.

[19]Then Tamar put ashes on her head, and tore her robe of many colors that was on her, and laid her hand on her head and went away crying bitterly.

[20]And Absalom her brother said to her, “Has Amnon your brother been with you? But now hold your peace, my sister. He is your brother; do not take this thing to heart.” So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absalom’s house.

[21]But when King David heard of all these things, he was very angry.

[22]And Absalom spoke to his brother Amnon neither good nor bad. For Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

Absalom Murders Amnon

[23]And it came to pass, after two full years, that Absalom had sheepshearers in Baal Hazor, which is near Ephraim; so Absalom invited all the king’s sons.

[24]Then Absalom came to the king and said, “Kindly note, your servant has sheepshearers; please, let the king and his servants go with your servant.”

[25]But the king said to Absalom, “No, my son, let us not all go now, lest we be a burden to you.” Then he urged him, but he would not go; and he blessed him.

[26]Then Absalom said, “If not, please let my brother Amnon go with us.” And the king said to him, “Why should he go with you?”

[27]But Absalom urged him; so he let Amnon and all the king’s sons go with him.

[28]Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, “Watch now, when Amnon’s heart is merry with wine, and when I say to you, ‘Strike Amnon!’ then kill him. Do not be afraid. Have I not commanded you? Be courageous and valiant.”

[29]So the servants of Absalom did to Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king’s sons arose, and each one got on his mule and fled.

[30]And it came to pass, while they were on the way, that news came to David, saying, “Absalom has killed all the king’s sons, and not one of them is left!”

[31]So the king arose and tore his garments and lay on the ground, and all his servants stood by with their clothes torn.

[32]Then Jonadab the son of Shimeah, David’s brother, answered and said, “Let not my lord suppose they have killed all the young men, the king’s sons, for only Amnon is dead. For by the command of Absalom this has been determined from the day that he forced his sister Tamar.

[33]“Now therefore, let not my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the king’s sons are dead. For only Amnon is dead.”

Absalom Flees to Geshur

[34]Then Absalom fled. And the young man who was keeping watch lifted his eyes and looked, and there, many people were coming from the road on the hillside behind him.

[35]And Jonadab said to the king, “Look, the king’s sons are coming; as your servant said, so it is.”

[36]So it was, as soon as he had finished speaking, that the king’s sons indeed came, and they lifted up their voice and wept. Also the king and all his servants wept very bitterly.

[37]But Absalom fled and went to Talmai the son of Ammihud, king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son every day.

[38]So Absalom fled and went to Geshur, and was there three years.

[39]And King David longed to go to Absalom. For he had been comforted concerning Amnon, because he was dead.

2 Samuel 14

Absalom Returns to Jerusalem

[1]So Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king’s heart was concerned about Absalom.

[2]And Joab sent to Tekoa and brought from there a wise woman, and said to her, “Please pretend to be a mourner, and put on mourning apparel; do not anoint yourself with oil, but act like a woman who has been mourning a long time for the dead.

[3]“Go to the king and speak to him in this manner.” So Joab put the words in her mouth.

[4]And when the woman of Tekoa spoke to the king, she fell on her face to the ground and prostrated herself, and said, “Help, O king!”

[5]Then the king said to her, “What troubles you?” And she answered, “Indeed I am a widow, my husband is dead.

[6]“Now your maidservant had two sons; and the two fought with each other in the field, and there was no one to part them, but the one struck the other and killed him.

[7]“And now the whole family has risen up against your maidservant, and they said, ‘Deliver him who struck his brother, that we may execute him for the life of his brother whom he killed; and we will destroy the heir also.’ So they would extinguish my ember that is left, and leave to my husband neither name nor remnant on the earth.”

[8]Then the king said to the woman, “Go to your house, and I will give orders concerning you.”

[9]And the woman of Tekoa said to the king, “My lord, O king, let the iniquity be on me and on my father’s house, and the king and his throne be guiltless.”

[10]So the king said, “Whoever says anything to you, bring him to me, and he shall not touch you anymore.”

[11]Then she said, “Please let the king remember the LORD your God, and do not permit the avenger of blood to destroy anymore, lest they destroy my son.” And he said, “As the LORD lives, not one hair of your son shall fall to the ground.”

12Therefore the woman said, “Please, let your maidservant speak another word to my lord the king.” And he said, “Say on.”

13So the woman said: “Why then have you schemed such a thing against the people of God? For the king speaks this thing as one who is guilty, in that the king does not bring his banished one home again.

14“For we will surely die and become like water spilled on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again. Yet God does not take away a life; but He devises means, so that His banished ones are not expelled from Him.

15“Now therefore, I have come to speak of this thing to my lord the king because the people have made me afraid. And your maidservant said, ‘I will now speak to the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his maidservant.

16‘For the king will hear and deliver his maidservant from the hand of the man who would destroy me and my son together from the inheritance of God.’

17“Your maidservant said, ‘The word of my lord the king will now be comforting; for as the angel of God, so is my lord the king in discerning good and evil. And may the LORD your God be with you.’ ”

18Then the king answered and said to the woman, “Please do not hide from me anything that I ask you.” And the woman said, “Please, let my lord the king speak.”

19So the king said, “Is the hand of Joab with you in all this?” And the woman answered and said, “As you live, my lord the king, no one can turn to the right hand or to the left from anything that my lord the king has spoken. For your servant Joab commanded me, and he put all these words in the mouth of your maidservant.

20“To bring about this change of affairs your servant Joab has done this thing; but my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of the angel of God, to know everything that is in the earth.”

21And the king said to Joab, “All right, I have granted this thing. Go therefore, bring back the young man Absalom.”

22Then Joab fell to the ground on his face and bowed himself, and thanked the king. And Joab said, “Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your sight, my lord, O king, in that the king has fulfilled the request of his servant.”

[23]So Joab arose and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.

[24]And the king said, “Let him return to his own house, but do not let him see my face.” So Absalom returned to his own house, but did not see the king’s face.

David Forgives Absalom

[25]Now in all Israel there was no one who was praised as much as Absalom for his good looks. From the sole of his foot to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him.

[26]And when he cut the hair of his head—at the end of every year he cut it because it was heavy on him—when he cut it, he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels according to the king’s standard.

[27]To Absalom were born three sons, and one daughter whose name was Tamar. She was a woman of beautiful appearance.

[28]And Absalom dwelt two full years in Jerusalem, but did not see the king’s face.

[29]Therefore Absalom sent for Joab, to send him to the king, but he would not come to him. And when he sent again the second time, he would not come.

[30]So he said to his servants, “See, Joab’s field is near mine, and he has barley there; go and set it on fire.” And Absalom’s servants set the field on fire.

[31]Then Joab arose and came to Absalom’s house, and said to him, “Why have your servants set my field on fire?”

[32]And Absalom answered Joab, “Look, I sent to you, saying, ‘Come here, so that I may send you to the king, to say, “Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me to be there still.” ’ Now therefore, let me see the king’s face; but if there is iniquity in me, let him execute me.”

[33]So Joab went to the king and told him. And when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king. Then the king kissed Absalom.

2 Samuel 15

Absalom's Treason

[1]After this it happened that Absalom provided himself with chariots and horses, and fifty men to run before him.

[2]Now Absalom would rise early and stand beside the way to the gate. So it was, whenever anyone who had a lawsuit came to the king for a decision, that Absalom would call to him and say, "What city are you from?" And he would say, "Your servant is from such and such a tribe of Israel."

[3]Then Absalom would say to him, "Look, your case is good and right; but there is no deputy of the king to hear you."

[4]Moreover Absalom would say, "Oh, that I were made judge in the land, and everyone who has any suit or cause would come to me; then I would give him justice."

[5]And so it was, whenever anyone came near to bow down to him, that he would put out his hand and take him and kiss him.

[6]In this manner Absalom acted toward all Israel who came to the king for judgment. So Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

[7]Now it came to pass after forty years that Absalom said to the king, "Please, let me go to Hebron and pay the vow which I made to the LORD.

[8]"For your servant took a vow while I dwelt at Geshur in Syria, saying, 'If the LORD indeed brings me back to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD.' "

[9]And the king said to him, "Go in peace." So he arose and went to Hebron.

[10]Then Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then you shall say, 'Absalom reigns in Hebron!' "

[11]And with Absalom went two hundred men invited from Jerusalem, and they went along innocently and did not know anything.

[12]Then Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counselor, from his city—from Giloh—while he offered sacrifices. And the conspiracy grew strong, for the people with Absalom continually increased in number.

David Escapes from Jerusalem

[13]Now a messenger came to David, saying, “The hearts of the men of Israel are with Absalom.”

[14]So David said to all his servants who were with him at Jerusalem, “Arise, and let us flee, or we shall not escape from Absalom. Make haste to depart, lest he overtake us suddenly and bring disaster upon us, and strike the city with the edge of the sword.”

[15]And the king’s servants said to the king, “We are your servants, ready to do whatever my lord the king commands.”

[16]Then the king went out with all his household after him. But the king left ten women, concubines, to keep the house.

[17]And the king went out with all the people after him, and stopped at the outskirts.

[18]Then all his servants passed before him; and all the Cherethites, all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men who had followed him from Gath, passed before the king.

[19]Then the king said to Ittai the Gittite, “Why are you also going with us? Return and remain with the king. For you are a foreigner and also an exile from your own place.

[20]“In fact, you came only yesterday. Should I make you wander up and down with us today, since I go I know not where? Return, and take your brethren back. Mercy and truth be with you.”

[21]But Ittai answered the king and said, “As the LORD lives, and as my lord the king lives, surely in whatever place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even there also your servant will be.”

[22]So David said to Ittai, “Go, and cross over.” Then Ittai the Gittite and all his men and all the little ones who were with him crossed over.

[23]And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people crossed over. The king himself also crossed over the Brook Kidron, and all the people crossed over toward the way of the wilderness.

[24]There was Zadok also, and all the Levites with him, bearing the ark of the covenant of God. And they set down the ark of God, and Abiathar went up until all the people had finished crossing over from the city.

[25]Then the king said to Zadok, “Carry the ark of God back into the city. If I find favor in the eyes of the LORD, He will bring me back and show me both it and His dwelling place.

[26]“But if He says thus: ‘I have no delight in you,’ here I am, let Him do to me as seems good to Him.”

[27]The king also said to Zadok the priest, “Are you not a seer? Return to the city in peace, and your two sons with you, Ahimaaz your son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar.

[28]“See, I will wait in the plains of the wilderness until word comes from you to inform me.”

[29]Therefore Zadok and Abiathar carried the ark of God back to Jerusalem. And they remained there.

[30]So David went up by the Ascent of the Mount of Olives, and wept as he went up; and he had his head covered and went barefoot. And all the people who were with him covered their heads and went up, weeping as they went up.

[31]Then someone told David, saying, “Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom.” And David said, “O LORD, I pray, turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness!”

[32]Now it happened when David had come to the top of the mountain, where he worshiped God—there was Hushai the Archite coming to meet him with his robe torn and dust on his head.

[33]David said to him, “If you go on with me, then you will become a burden to me.

[34]“But if you return to the city, and say to Absalom, ‘I will be your servant, O king; as I was your father’s servant previously, so I will now also be your servant,’ then you may defeat the counsel of Ahithophel for me.

[35]“And do you not have Zadok and Abiathar the priests with you there? Therefore it will be that whatever you hear from the king’s house, you shall tell to Zadok and Abiathar the priests.

[36]“Indeed they have there with them their two sons, Ahimaaz, Zadok’s son, and Jonathan, Abiathar’s son; and by them you shall send me everything you hear.”

[37]So Hushai, David’s friend, went into the city. And Absalom came into Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 16

Mephibosheth's Servant

[1]When David was a little past the top of the mountain, there was Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth, who met him with a couple of saddled donkeys, and on them two hundred loaves of bread, one hundred clusters of raisins, one hundred summer fruits, and a skin of wine.

[2]And the king said to Ziba, "What do you mean to do with these?" So Ziba said, "The donkeys are for the king's household to ride on, the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat, and the wine for those who are faint in the wilderness to drink."

[3]Then the king said, "And where is your master's son?" And Ziba said to the king, "Indeed he is staying in Jerusalem, for he said, 'Today the house of Israel will restore the kingdom of my father to me.' "

[4]So the king said to Ziba, "Here, all that belongs to Mephibosheth is yours." And Ziba said, "I humbly bow before you, that I may find favor in your sight, my lord, O king!"

Shimei Curses David

[5]Now when King David came to Bahurim, there was a man from the family of the house of Saul, whose name was Shimei the son of Gera, coming from there. He came out, cursing continuously as he came.

[6]And he threw stones at David and at all the servants of King David. And all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left.

[7]Also Shimei said thus when he cursed: "Come out! Come out! You bloodthirsty man, you rogue!

[8]"The LORD has brought upon you all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned; and the LORD has delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom your son. So now you are caught in your own evil, because you are a bloodthirsty man!"

[9]Then Abishai the son of Zeruiah said to the king, "Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Please, let me go over and take off his head!"

[10]But the king said, “What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah? So let him curse, because the LORD has said to him, ‘Curse David.’ Who then shall say, ‘Why have you done so?’ ”

[11]And David said to Abishai and all his servants, “See how my son who came from my own body seeks my life. How much more now may this Benjamite? Let him alone, and let him curse; for so the LORD has ordered him.

[12]“It may be that the LORD will look on my affliction, and that the LORD will repay me with good for his cursing this day.”

[13]And as David and his men went along the road, Shimei went along the hillside opposite him and cursed as he went, threw stones at him and kicked up dust.

[14]Now the king and all the people who were with him became weary; so they refreshed themselves there.

The Advice of Ahithophel

[15]Meanwhile Absalom and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem; and Ahithophel was with him.

[16]And so it was, when Hushai the Archite, David’s friend, came to Absalom, that Hushai said to Absalom, “Long live the king! Long live the king!”

[17]So Absalom said to Hushai, “Is this your loyalty to your friend? Why did you not go with your friend?”

[18]And Hushai said to Absalom, “No, but whom the LORD and this people and all the men of Israel choose, his I will be, and with him I will remain.

[19]“Furthermore, whom should I serve? Should I not serve in the presence of his son? As I have served in your father’s presence, so will I be in your presence.”

[20]Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, “Give advice as to what we should do.”

[21]And Ahithophel said to Absalom, “Go in to your father’s concubines, whom he has left to keep the house; and all Israel will hear that you are abhorred by your father. Then the hands of all who are with you will be strong.”

[22]So they pitched a tent for Absalom on the top of the house, and Absalom went in to his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel.

[23]Now the advice of Ahithophel, which he gave in those days, was as if one had inquired at the oracle of God. So was all the advice of Ahithophel both with David and with Absalom.

2 Samuel 17

[1]Moreover Ahithophel said to Absalom, “Now let me choose twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue David tonight.

[2]“I will come upon him while he is weary and weak, and make him afraid. And all the people who are with him will flee, and I will strike only the king.

[3]“Then I will bring back all the people to you. When all return except the man whom you seek, all the people will be at peace.”

[4]And the saying pleased Absalom and all the elders of Israel.

The Advice of Hushai

[5]Then Absalom said, “Now call Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear what he says too.”

[6]And when Hushai came to Absalom, Absalom spoke to him, saying, “Ahithophel has spoken in this manner. Shall we do as he says? If not, speak up.”

[7]So Hushai said to Absalom: “The advice that Ahithophel has given is not good at this time.

[8]“For,” said Hushai, “you know your father and his men, that they are mighty men, and they are enraged in their minds, like a bear robbed of her cubs in the field; and your father is a man of war, and will not camp with the people.

[9]“Surely by now he is hidden in some pit, or in some other place. And it will be, when some of them are overthrown at the first, that whoever hears it will say, ‘There is a slaughter among the people who follow Absalom.’

[10]“And even he who is valiant, whose heart is like the heart of a lion, will melt completely. For all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man, and those who are with him are valiant men.

[11]“Therefore I advise that all Israel be fully gathered to you, from Dan to Beersheba, like the sand that is by the sea for multitude, and that you go to battle in person.

[12]“So we will come upon him in some place where he may be found, and we will fall on him as the dew falls on the ground. And of him and all the men who are with him there shall not be left so much as one.

[13]“Moreover, if he has withdrawn into a city, then all Israel shall bring ropes to that city; and we will pull it into the river, until there is not one small stone found there.”

[14]So Absalom and all the men of Israel said, “The advice of Hushai the Archite is better than the advice of Ahithophel.” For the LORD had purposed to defeat the good advice of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring disaster on Absalom.

Hushai Warns David to Escape

[15]Then Hushai said to Zadok and Abiathar the priests, “Thus and so Ahithophel advised Absalom and the elders of Israel, and thus and so I have advised.

[16]“Now therefore, send quickly and tell David, saying, ‘Do not spend this night in the plains of the wilderness, but speedily cross over, lest the king and all the people who are with him be swallowed up.’ ”

[17]Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz stayed at En Rogel, for they dared not be seen coming into the city; so a female servant would come and tell them, and they would go and tell King David.

[18]Nevertheless a lad saw them, and told Absalom. But both of them went away quickly and came to a man’s house in Bahurim, who had a well in his court; and they went down into it.

[19]Then the woman took and spread a covering over the well’s mouth, and spread ground grain on it; and the thing was not known.

[20]And when Absalom’s servants came to the woman at the house, they said, “Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?” So the woman said to them, “They have gone over the water brook.” And when they had searched and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

[21]Now it came to pass, after they had departed, that they came up out of the well and went and told King David, and said to David, “Arise and cross over the water quickly. For thus has Ahithophel advised against you.”

[22]So David and all the people who were with him arose and crossed over the Jordan. By morning light not one of them was left who had not gone over the Jordan.

[23]Now when Ahithophel saw that his advice was not followed, he saddled a donkey, and arose and went home to his house, to his city. Then he put his household in order, and hanged himself, and died; and he was buried in his father's tomb.

[24]Then David went to Mahanaim. And Absalom crossed over the Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him.

[25]And Absalom made Amasa captain of the army instead of Joab. This Amasa was the son of a man whose name was Jithra, an Israelite, who had gone in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister of Zeruiah, Joab's mother.

[26]So Israel and Absalom encamped in the land of Gilead.

[27]Now it happened, when David had come to Mahanaim, that Shobi the son of Nahash from Rabbah of the people of Ammon, Machir the son of Ammiel from Lo Debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim,

[28]brought beds and basins, earthen vessels and wheat, barley and flour, parched grain and beans, lentils and parched seeds,

[29]honey and curds, sheep and cheese of the herd, for David and the people who were with him to eat. For they said, "The people are hungry and weary and thirsty in the wilderness."

2 Samuel 18

Absalom's Defeat and Death

[1]And David numbered the people who were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them.

[2]Then David sent out one third of the people under the hand of Joab, one third under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and one third under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. And the king said to the people, "I also will surely go out with you myself."

[3]But the people answered, "You shall not go out! For if we flee away, they will not care about us; nor if half of us die, will they care about us. But you are worth ten thousand of us now. For you are now more help to us in the city."

[4]Then the king said to them, "Whatever seems best to you I will do." So the king stood beside the gate, and all the people went out by hundreds and by thousands.

[5]Now the king had commanded Joab, Abishai, and Ittai, saying, "Deal gently for my sake with the young man Absalom." And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains orders concerning Absalom.

[6]So the people went out into the field of battle against Israel. And the battle was in the woods of Ephraim.

[7]The people of Israel were overthrown there before the servants of David, and a great slaughter of twenty thousand took place there that day.

[8]For the battle there was scattered over the face of the whole countryside, and the woods devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.

[9]Then Absalom met the servants of David. Absalom rode on a mule. The mule went under the thick boughs of a great terebinth tree, and his head caught in the terebinth; so he was left hanging between heaven and earth. And the mule which was under him went on.

[10]Now a certain man saw it and told Joab, and said, "I just saw Absalom hanging in a terebinth tree!"

[11]So Joab said to the man who told him, “You just saw him! And why did you not strike him there to the ground? I would have given you ten shekels of silver and a belt.”

[12]But the man said to Joab, “Though I were to receive a thousand shekels of silver in my hand, I would not raise my hand against the king’s son. For in our hearing the king commanded you and Abishai and Ittai, saying, ‘Beware lest anyone touch the young man Absalom!’

[13]“Otherwise I would have dealt falsely against my own life. For there is nothing hidden from the king, and you yourself would have set yourself against me.”

[14]Then Joab said, “I cannot linger with you.” And he took three spears in his hand and thrust them through Absalom’s heart, while he was still alive in the midst of the terebinth tree.

[15]And ten young men who bore Joab’s armor surrounded Absalom, and struck and killed him.

[16]So Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing Israel. For Joab held back the people.

[17]And they took Absalom and cast him into a large pit in the woods, and laid a very large heap of stones over him. Then all Israel fled, everyone to his tent.

[18]Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and set up a pillar for himself, which is in the King’s Valley. For he said, “I have no son to keep my name in remembrance.” He called the pillar after his own name. And to this day it is called Absalom’s Monument.

David Hears of Absalom’s Death

[19]Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said, “Let me run now and take the news to the king, how the LORD has avenged him of his enemies.”

[20]And Joab said to him, “You shall not take the news this day, for you shall take the news another day. But today you shall take no news, because the king’s son is dead.”

[21]Then Joab said to the Cushite, “Go, tell the king what you have seen.” So the Cushite bowed himself to Joab and ran.

[22]And Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said again to Joab, “But whatever happens, please let me also run after the Cushite.” So Joab said, “Why will you run, my son, since you have no news ready?”

[23]“But whatever happens,” he said, “let me run.” So he said to him, “Run.” Then Ahimaaz ran by way of the plain, and outran the Cushite.

[24]Now David was sitting between the two gates. And the watchman went up to the roof over the gate, to the wall, lifted his eyes and looked, and there was a man, running alone.

[25]Then the watchman cried out and told the king. And the king said, “If he is alone, there is news in his mouth.” And he came rapidly and drew near.

[26]Then the watchman saw another man running, and the watchman called to the gatekeeper and said, “There is another man, running alone!” And the king said, “He also brings news.”

[27]So the watchman said, “I think the running of the first is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok.” And the king said, “He is a good man, and comes with good news.”

[28]So Ahimaaz called out and said to the king, “All is well!” Then he bowed down with his face to the earth before the king, and said, “Blessed be the LORD your God, who has delivered up the men who raised their hand against my lord the king!”

[29]The king said, “Is the young man Absalom safe?” Ahimaaz answered, “When Joab sent the king’s servant and me your servant, I saw a great tumult, but I did not know what it was about.”

[30]And the king said, “Turn aside and stand here.” So he turned aside and stood still.

[31]Just then the Cushite came, and the Cushite said, “There is good news, my lord the king! For the LORD has avenged you this day of all those who rose against you.”

[32]And the king said to the Cushite, “Is the young man Absalom safe?” So the Cushite answered, “May the enemies of my lord the king, and all who rise against you to do harm, be like that young man!”

David’s Mourning for Absalom

[33]Then the king was deeply moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept. And as he went, he said thus: “O my son Absalom—my son, my son Absalom—if only I had died in your place! O Absalom my son, my son!”

2 Samuel 19

[1]And Joab was told, “Behold, the king is weeping and mourning for Absalom.”

[2]So the victory that day was turned into mourning for all the people. For the people heard it said that day, “The king is grieved for his son.”

[3]And the people stole back into the city that day, as people who are ashamed steal away when they flee in battle.

[4]But the king covered his face, and the king cried out with a loud voice, “O my son Absalom! O Absalom, my son, my son!”

[5]Then Joab came into the house to the king, and said, “Today you have disgraced all your servants who today have saved your life, the lives of your sons and daughters, the lives of your wives and the lives of your concubines,

[6]“in that you love your enemies and hate your friends. For you have declared today that you regard neither princes nor servants; for today I perceive that if Absalom had lived and all of us had died today, then it would have pleased you well.

[7]“Now therefore, arise, go out and speak comfort to your servants. For I swear by the LORD, if you do not go out, not one will stay with you this night. And that will be worse for you than all the evil that has befallen you from your youth until now.”

[8]Then the king arose and sat in the gate. And they told all the people, saying, “There is the king, sitting in the gate.” So all the people came before the king. For everyone of Israel had fled to his tent.

David Returns to Jerusalem

[9]Now all the people were in a dispute throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, “The king saved us from the hand of our enemies, he delivered us from the hand of the Philistines, and now he has fled from the land because of Absalom.

[10]“But Absalom, whom we anointed over us, has died in battle. Now therefore, why do you say nothing about bringing back the king?”

11So King David sent to Zadok and Abiathar the priests, saying, "Speak to the elders of Judah, saying, 'Why are you the last to bring the king back to his house, since the words of all Israel have come to the king, to his very house?

[12]'You are my brethren, you are my bone and my flesh. Why then are you the last to bring back the king?'

[13]"And say to Amasa, 'Are you not my bone and my flesh? God do so to me, and more also, if you are not commander of the army before me continually in place of Joab.' "

[14]So he swayed the hearts of all the men of Judah, just as the heart of one man, so that they sent this word to the king: "Return, you and all your servants!"

[15]Then the king returned and came to the Jordan. And Judah came to Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to escort the king across the Jordan.

[16]And Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite, who was from Bahurim, hurried and came down with the men of Judah to meet King David.

[17]There were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they went over the Jordan before the king.

[18]Then a ferryboat went across to carry over the king's household, and to do what he thought good.

David's Mercy to Shimei

Now Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king when he had crossed the Jordan.

[19]Then he said to the king, "Do not let my lord impute iniquity to me, or remember what wrong your servant did on the day that my lord the king left Jerusalem, that the king should take it to heart.

[20]"For I, your servant, know that I have sinned. Therefore here I am, the first to come today of all the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king."

[21]But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, "Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD's anointed?"

[22]And David said, “What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah, that you should be adversaries to me today? Shall any man be put to death today in Israel? For do I not know that today I am king over Israel?”

[23]Therefore the king said to Shimei, “You shall not die.” And the king swore to him.

David and Mephibosheth Meet

[24]Now Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king. And he had not cared for his feet, nor trimmed his mustache, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he returned in peace.

[25]So it was, when he had come to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said to him, “Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?”

[26]And he answered, “My lord, O king, my servant deceived me. For your servant said, ‘I will saddle a donkey for myself, that I may ride on it and go to the king,’ because your servant is lame.

[27]“And he has slandered your servant to my lord the king, but my lord the king is like the angel of God. Therefore do what is good in your eyes.

[28]“For all my father’s house were but dead men before my lord the king. Yet you set your servant among those who eat at your own table. Therefore what right have I still to cry out anymore to the king?”

[29]So the king said to him, “Why do you speak anymore of your matters? I have said, ‘You and Ziba divide the land.’ ”

[30]Then Mephibosheth said to the king, “Rather, let him take it all, inasmuch as my lord the king has come back in peace to his own house.”

David’s Kindness to Barzillai

[31]And Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim and went across the Jordan with the king, to escort him across the Jordan.

[32]Now Barzillai was a very aged man, eighty years old. And he had provided the king with supplies while he stayed at Mahanaim, for he was a very rich man.

[33]And the king said to Barzillai, "Come across with me, and I will provide for you while you are with me in Jerusalem."

[34]But Barzillai said to the king, "How long have I to live, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem?

[35]"I am today eighty years old. Can I discern between the good and bad? Can your servant taste what I eat or what I drink? Can I hear any longer the voice of singing men and singing women? Why then should your servant be a further burden to my lord the king?

[36]"Your servant will go a little way across the Jordan with the king. And why should the king repay me with such a reward?

[37]"Please let your servant turn back again, that I may die in my own city, near the grave of my father and mother. But here is your servant Chimham; let him cross over with my lord the king, and do for him what seems good to you."

[38]And the king answered, "Chimham shall cross over with me, and I will do for him what seems good to you. Now whatever you request of me, I will do for you."

[39]Then all the people went over the Jordan. And when the king had crossed over, the king kissed Barzillai and blessed him, and he returned to his own place.

The Quarrel About the King

[40]Now the king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went on with him. And all the people of Judah escorted the king, and also half the people of Israel.

[41]Just then all the men of Israel came to the king, and said to the king, "Why have our brethren, the men of Judah, stolen you away and brought the king, his household, and all David's men with him across the Jordan?"

[42]So all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, "Because the king is a close relative of ours. Why then are you angry over this matter? Have we ever eaten at the king's expense? Or has he given us any gift?"

[43]And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, "We have ten shares in the king; therefore we also have more right to David than you. Why then do you despise us—were we not the first to advise bringing back our king?” Yet the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

2 Samuel 20

The Rebellion of Sheba

[1]And there happened to be there a rebel, whose name was Sheba the son of Bichri, a Benjamite. And he blew a trumpet, and said:

> "We have no share in David,
> Nor do we have inheritance in the son of Jesse;
> Every man to his tents, O Israel!"

[2]So every man of Israel deserted David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri. But the men of Judah, from the Jordan as far as Jerusalem, remained loyal to their king.

[3]Now David came to his house at Jerusalem. And the king took the ten women, his concubines whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in seclusion and supported them, but did not go in to them. So they were shut up to the day of their death, living in widowhood.

[4]And the king said to Amasa, "Assemble the men of Judah for me within three days, and be present here yourself."

[5]So Amasa went to assemble the men of Judah. But he delayed longer than the set time which David had appointed him.

[6]And David said to Abishai, "Now Sheba the son of Bichri will do us more harm than Absalom. Take your lord's servants and pursue him, lest he find for himself fortified cities, and escape us."

[7]So Joab's men, with the Cherethites, the Pelethites, and all the mighty men, went out after him. And they went out of Jerusalem to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri.

[8]When they were at the large stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa came before them. Now Joab was dressed in battle armor; on it was a belt with a sword fastened in its sheath at his hips; and as he was going forward, it fell out.

[9]Then Joab said to Amasa, "Are you in health, my brother?" And Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him.

[10]But Amasa did not notice the sword that was in Joab's hand. And he struck him with it in the stomach, and his entrails poured out on the ground; and he did not strike him again. Thus he died. Then Joab and Abishai his brother pursued Sheba the son of Bichri.

[11]Meanwhile one of Joab's men stood near Amasa, and said, "Whoever favors Joab and whoever is for David—follow Joab!"

[12]But Amasa wallowed in his blood in the middle of the highway. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he moved Amasa from the highway to the field and threw a garment over him, when he saw that everyone who came upon him halted.

[13]When he was removed from the highway, all the people went on after Joab to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri.

[14]And he went through all the tribes of Israel to Abel and Beth Maachah and all the Berites. So they were gathered together and also went after Sheba.

[15]Then they came and besieged him in Abel of Beth Maachah; and they cast up a siege mound against the city, and it stood by the rampart. And all the people who were with Joab battered the wall to throw it down.

[16]Then a wise woman cried out from the city, "Hear, hear! Please say to Joab, 'Come nearby, that I may speak with you.' "

[17]When he had come near to her, the woman said, "Are you Joab?" He answered, "I am." Then she said to him, "Hear the words of your maidservant." And he answered, "I am listening."

[18]So she spoke, saying, "They used to talk in former times, saying, 'They shall surely seek guidance at Abel,' and so they would end disputes.

[19]"I am among the peaceable and faithful in Israel. You seek to destroy a city and a mother in Israel. Why would you swallow up the inheritance of the LORD?"

[20]And Joab answered and said, "Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy!

[21]"That is not so. But a man from the mountains of Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, has raised his hand against the king, against David. Deliver him only, and I will depart from the city." So the woman said to Joab, "Watch, his head will be thrown to you over the wall."

[22]Then the woman in her wisdom went to all the people. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and threw it out to Joab. Then he blew a trumpet, and they withdrew from the city, every man to his tent. So Joab returned to the king at Jerusalem.

David's Government Officers

[23]And Joab was over all the army of Israel; Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites;

[24]Adoram was in charge of revenue; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder;

[25]Sheva was scribe; Zadok and Abiathar were the priests;

[26]and Ira the Jairite was a chief minister under David.

2 Samuel 21

David Avenges the Gibeonites

[1]Now there was a famine in the days of David for three years, year after year; and David inquired of the LORD. And the LORD answered, "It is because of Saul and his bloodthirsty house, because he killed the Gibeonites."

[2]So the king called the Gibeonites and spoke to them. Now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites; the children of Israel had sworn protection to them, but Saul had sought to kill them in his zeal for the children of Israel and Judah.

[3]Therefore David said to the Gibeonites, "What shall I do for you? And with what shall I make atonement, that you may bless the inheritance of the LORD?"

[4]And the Gibeonites said to him, "We will have no silver or gold from Saul or from his house, nor shall you kill any man in Israel for us." So he said, "Whatever you say, I will do for you."

[5]Then they answered the king, "As for the man who consumed us and plotted against us, that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the territories of Israel,

[6]"let seven men of his descendants be delivered to us, and we will hang them before the LORD in Gibeah of Saul, whom the LORD chose." And the king said, "I will give them."

[7]But the king spared Mephibosheth the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, because of the LORD's oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.

[8]So the king took Armoni and Mephibosheth, the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bore to Saul, and the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she brought up for Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite;

[9]and he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them on the hill before the LORD. So they fell, all seven together, and were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, in the beginning of barley harvest.

[10]Now Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth and spread it for herself on the rock, from the beginning of harvest until the late rains poured on them from heaven. And she did not allow the birds of the air to rest on them by day nor the beasts of the field by night.

[11]And David was told what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done.

[12]Then David went and took the bones of Saul, and the bones of Jonathan his son, from the men of Jabesh Gilead who had stolen them from the street of Beth Shan, where the Philistines had hung them up, after the Philistines had struck down Saul in Gilboa.

[13]So he brought up the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from there; and they gathered the bones of those who had been hanged.

[14]They buried the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son in the country of Benjamin in Zelah, in the tomb of Kish his father. So they performed all that the king commanded. And after that God heeded the prayer for the land.

Philistine Giants Destroyed

[15]When the Philistines were at war again with Israel, David and his servants with him went down and fought against the Philistines; and David grew faint.

[16]Then Ishbi-Benob, who was one of the sons of the giant, the weight of whose bronze spear was three hundred shekels, who was bearing a new sword, thought he could kill David.

[17]But Abishai the son of Zeruiah came to his aid, and struck the Philistine and killed him. Then the men of David swore to him, saying, “You shall go out no more with us to battle, lest you quench the lamp of Israel.”

[18]Now it happened afterward that there was again a battle with the Philistines at Gob. Then Sibbechai the Hushathite killed Saph, who was one of the sons of the giant.

[19]Again there was war at Gob with the Philistines, where Elhanan the son of Jaare-Oregim the Bethlehemite killed the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver’s beam.

[20]Yet again there was war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature, who had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in number; and he also was born to the giant.

[21]So when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea, David’s brother, killed him.

[22]These four were born to the giant in Gath, and fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

2 Samuel 22

Praise for God's Deliverance

[1]Then David spoke to the LORD the words of this song, on the day when the LORD had delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul.

[2]And he said:

"The LORD is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer;
[3]The God of my strength, in whom I will trust;
My shield and the horn of my salvation,
My stronghold and my refuge;
My Savior, You save me from violence.
[4]I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised;
So shall I be saved from my enemies.

[5]"When the waves of death surrounded me,
The floods of ungodliness made me afraid.
[6]The sorrows of Sheol surrounded me;
The snares of death confronted me.
[7]In my distress I called upon the LORD,
And cried out to my God;
He heard my voice from His temple,
And my cry entered His ears.

[8]"Then the earth shook and trembled;
The foundations of heaven quaked and were shaken,
Because He was angry.
[9]Smoke went up from His nostrils,
And devouring fire from His mouth;
Coals were kindled by it.
[10]He bowed the heavens also, and came down
With darkness under His feet.
[11]He rode upon a cherub, and flew;
And He was seen upon the wings of the wind.

[12]He made darkness canopies around Him,
Dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.
[13]From the brightness before Him
Coals of fire were kindled.

[14]"The LORD thundered from heaven,
And the Most High uttered His voice.
[15]He sent out arrows and scattered them;
Lightning bolts, and He vanquished them.
[16]Then the channels of the sea were seen,
The foundations of the world were uncovered,
At the rebuke of the LORD,
At the blast of the breath of His nostrils.

[17]"He sent from above, He took me,
He drew me out of many waters.
[18]He delivered me from my strong enemy,
From those who hated me;
For they were too strong for me.
[19]They confronted me in the day of my calamity,
But the LORD was my support.
[20]He also brought me out into a broad place;
He delivered me because He delighted in me.

[21]"The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness;
According to the cleanness of my hands
He has recompensed me.
[22]For I have kept the ways of the LORD,
And have not wickedly departed from my God.
[23]For all His judgments were before me;
And as for His statutes, I did not depart from them.
[24]I was also blameless before Him,
And I kept myself from my iniquity.
[25]Therefore the LORD has recompensed me according to my righteousness,
According to my cleanness in His eyes.

[26]"With the merciful You will show Yourself merciful;
With a blameless man You will show Yourself blameless;
[27]With the pure You will show Yourself pure;
And with the devious You will show Yourself shrewd.
[28]You will save the humble people;
But Your eyes are on the haughty, that You may bring them down.

[29]"For You are my lamp, O LORD;
The LORD shall enlighten my darkness.
[30]For by You I can run against a troop;
By my God I can leap over a wall.
[31]As for God, His way is perfect;
The word of the LORD is proven;
He is a shield to all who trust in Him.

[32]"For who is God, except the LORD?
And who is a rock, except our God?
[33]God is my strength and power,
And He makes my way perfect.
[34]He makes my feet like the feet of deer,
And sets me on my high places.
[35]He teaches my hands to make war,
So that my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

[36]"You have also given me the shield of Your salvation;
Your gentleness has made me great.
[37]You enlarged my path under me;
So my feet did not slip.

[38]"I have pursued my enemies and destroyed them;
Neither did I turn back again till they were destroyed.
[39]And I have destroyed them and wounded them,
So that they could not rise;
They have fallen under my feet.
[40]For You have armed me with strength for the battle;
You have subdued under me those who rose against me.

[41]You have also given me the necks of my enemies,
So that I destroyed those who hated me.
[42]They looked, but there was none to save;
Even to the LORD, but He did not answer them.
[43]Then I beat them as fine as the dust of the earth;
I trod them like dirt in the streets,
And I spread them out.

[44]"You have also delivered me from the strivings of my people;
You have kept me as the head of the nations.
A people I have not known shall serve me.
[45]The foreigners submit to me;
As soon as they hear, they obey me.
[46]The foreigners fade away,
And come frightened from their hideouts.

[47]"The LORD lives!
Blessed be my Rock!
Let God be exalted,
The Rock of my salvation!
[48]It is God who avenges me,
And subdues the peoples under me;
[49]He delivers me from my enemies.
You also lift me up above those who rise against me;
You have delivered me from the violent man.
[50]Therefore I will give thanks to You, O LORD, among the Gentiles,
And sing praises to Your name.

[51]"He is the tower of salvation to His king,
And shows mercy to His anointed,
To David and his descendants forevermore."

2 Samuel 23

David's Last Words

[1]Now these are the last words of David.

Thus says David the son of Jesse;
Thus says the man raised up on high,
The anointed of the God of Jacob,
And the sweet psalmist of Israel:

[2]"The Spirit of the LORD spoke by me,
And His word was on my tongue.
[3]The God of Israel said,
The Rock of Israel spoke to me:
'He who rules over men must be just,
Ruling in the fear of God.
[4]And he shall be like the light of the morning when the sun rises,
A morning without clouds,
Like the tender grass springing out of the earth,
By clear shining after rain.'

[5]"Although my house is not so with God,
Yet He has made with me an everlasting covenant,
Ordered in all things and secure.
For this is all my salvation and all my desire;
Will He not make it increase?
[6]But the sons of rebellion shall all be as thorns thrust away,
Because they cannot be taken with hands.
[7]But the man who touches them
Must be armed with iron and the shaft of a spear,
And they shall be utterly burned with fire in their place."

David's Mighty Men

8These are the names of the mighty men whom David had: Josheb-Basshebeth the Tachmonite, chief among the captains. He was called Adino the Eznite, because he had killed eight hundred men at one time.

9And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with David when they defied the Philistines who were gathered there for battle, and the men of Israel had retreated.

10He arose and attacked the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand stuck to the sword. The LORD brought about a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to plunder.

11And after him was Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite. The Philistines had gathered together into a troop where there was a piece of ground full of lentils. So the people fled from the Philistines.

12But he stationed himself in the middle of the field, defended it, and killed the Philistines. So the LORD brought about a great victory.

13Then three of the thirty chief men went down at harvest time and came to David at the cave of Adullam. And the troop of Philistines encamped in the Valley of Rephaim.

14David was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem.

15And David said with longing, “Oh, that someone would give me a drink of the water from the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!”

16So the three mighty men broke through the camp of the Philistines, drew water from the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate, and took it and brought it to David. Nevertheless he would not drink it, but poured it out to the LORD.

17And he said, “Far be it from me, O LORD, that I should do this! Is this not the blood of the men who went in jeopardy of their lives?” Therefore he would not drink it. These things were done by the three mighty men.

18Now Abishai the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief of another three. He lifted his spear against three hundred men, killed them, and won a name among these three.

19Was he not the most honored of three? Therefore he became their captain. However, he did not attain to the first three.

20Benaiah was the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man from Kabzeel, who had done many deeds. He had killed two lion-like heroes of Moab. He also had gone down and killed a lion in the midst of a pit on a snowy day.

[21]And he killed an Egyptian, a spectacular man. The Egyptian had a spear in his hand; so he went down to him with a staff, wrested the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear.

[22]These things Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did, and won a name among three mighty men.

[23]He was more honored than the thirty, but he did not attain to the first three. And David appointed him over his guard.

24Asahel the brother of Joab was one of the thirty; Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem,

[25]Shammah the Harodite, Elika the Harodite,

[26]Helez the Paltite, Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite,

[27]Abiezer the Anathothite, Mebunnai the Hushathite,

[28]Zalmon the Ahohite, Maharai the Netophathite,

[29]Heleb the son of Baanah (the Netophathite), Ittai the son of Ribai from Gibeah of the children of Benjamin,

[30]Benaiah a Pirathonite, Hiddai from the brooks of Gaash,

[31]Abi-Albon the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Barhumite,

[32]Eliahba the Shaalbonite (of the sons of Jashen), Jonathan,

[33]Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam the son of Sharar the Hararite,

[34]Eliphelet the son of Ahasbai, the son of the Maachathite, Eliam the son of Ahithophel the Gilonite,

[35]Hezrai the Carmelite, Paarai the Arbite,

[36]Igal the son of Nathan of Zobah, Bani the Gadite,

[37]Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Beerothite (armorbearer of Joab the son of Zeruiah),

[38]Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,

[39]and Uriah the Hittite: thirty-seven in all.

2 Samuel 24

David's Census of Israel and Judah

[1]Again the anger of the LORD was aroused against Israel, and He moved David against them to say, "Go, number Israel and Judah."

[2]So the king said to Joab the commander of the army who was with him, "Now go throughout all the tribes of Israel, from Dan to Beersheba, and count the people, that I may know the number of the people."

[3]And Joab said to the king, "Now may the LORD your God add to the people a hundred times more than there are, and may the eyes of my lord the king see it. But why does my lord the king desire this thing?"

[4]Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab and against the captains of the army. Therefore Joab and the captains of the army went out from the presence of the king to count the people of Israel.

[5]And they crossed over the Jordan and camped in Aroer, on the right side of the town which is in the midst of the ravine of Gad, and toward Jazer.

[6]Then they came to Gilead and to the land of Tahtim Hodshi; they came to Dan Jaan and around to Sidon;

[7]and they came to the stronghold of Tyre and to all the cities of the Hivites and the Canaanites. Then they went out to South Judah as far as Beersheba.

[8]So when they had gone through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

[9]Then Joab gave the sum of the number of the people to the king. And there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men who drew the sword, and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

The Judgment on David's Sin

[10]And David's heart condemned him after he had numbered the people. So David said to the LORD, "I have sinned greatly in what I have done; but now, I pray, O LORD, take away the iniquity of Your servant, for I have done very foolishly."

[11]Now when David arose in the morning, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Gad, David’s seer, saying,

[12]“Go and tell David, ‘Thus says the LORD: “I offer you three things; choose one of them for yourself, that I may do it to you.” ’ ”

[13]So Gad came to David and told him; and he said to him, “Shall seven years of famine come to you in your land? Or shall you flee three months before your enemies, while they pursue you? Or shall there be three days’ plague in your land? Now consider and see what answer I should take back to Him who sent me.”

[14]And David said to Gad, “I am in great distress. Please let us fall into the hand of the LORD, for His mercies are great; but do not let me fall into the hand of man.”

[15]So the LORD sent a plague upon Israel from the morning till the appointed time. From Dan to Beersheba seventy thousand men of the people died.

[16]And when the angel stretched out His hand over Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD relented from the destruction, and said to the angel who was destroying the people, “It is enough; now restrain your hand.” And the angel of the LORD was by the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

[17]Then David spoke to the LORD when he saw the angel who was striking the people, and said, “Surely I have sinned, and I have done wickedly; but these sheep, what have they done? Let Your hand, I pray, be against me and against my father’s house.”

The Altar on the Threshing Floor

[18]And Gad came that day to David and said to him, “Go up, erect an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.”

[19]So David, according to the word of Gad, went up as the LORD commanded.

[20]Now Araunah looked, and saw the king and his servants coming toward him. So Araunah went out and bowed before the king with his face to the ground.

[21]Then Araunah said, “Why has my lord the king come to his servant?” And David said, “To buy the threshing floor from you, to build an altar to the LORD, that the plague may be withdrawn from the people.”

[22]Now Araunah said to David, “Let my lord the king take and offer up whatever seems good to him. Look, here are oxen for burnt sacrifice, and threshing implements and the yokes of the oxen for wood.

[23]“All these, O king, Araunah has given to the king.” And Araunah said to the king, “May the LORD your God accept you.”

[24]Then the king said to Araunah, “No, but I will surely buy it from you for a price; nor will I offer burnt offerings to the LORD my God with that which costs me nothing.” So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.

[25]And David built there an altar to the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. So the LORD heeded the prayers for the land, and the plague was withdrawn from Israel.

The First Book of the

Kings

1 Kings 1

Adonijah Presumes to Be King

[1]Now King David was old, advanced in years; and they put covers on him, but he could not get warm.

[2]Therefore his servants said to him, “Let a young woman, a virgin, be sought for our lord the king, and let her stand before the king, and let her care for him; and let her lie in your bosom, that our lord the king may be warm.”

[3]So they sought for a lovely young woman throughout all the territory of Israel, and found Abishag the Shunammite, and brought her to the king.

[4]The young woman was very lovely; and she cared for the king, and served him; but the king did not know her.

[5]Then Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, “I will be king”; and he prepared for himself chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him.

[6](And his father had not rebuked him at any time by saying, “Why have you done so?” He was also very good-looking. His mother had borne him after Absalom.)

[7]Then he conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah and with Abiathar the priest, and they followed and helped Adonijah.

[8]But Zadok the priest, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, Nathan the prophet, Shimei, Rei, and the mighty men who belonged to David were not with Adonijah.

[9]And Adonijah sacrificed sheep and oxen and fattened cattle by the stone of Zoheleth, which is by En Rogel; he also invited all his brothers, the king’s sons, and all the men of Judah, the king’s servants.

[10]But he did not invite Nathan the prophet, Benaiah, the mighty men, or Solomon his brother.

[11]So Nathan spoke to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, “Have you not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith has become king, and David our lord does not know it?

[12]“Come, please, let me now give you advice, that you may save your own life and the life of your son Solomon.

[13]“Go immediately to King David and say to him, ��Did you not, my lord, O king, swear to your maidservant, saying, “Assuredly your son Solomon shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne”? Why then has Adonijah become king?’

[14]“Then, while you are still talking there with the king, I also will come in after you and confirm your words.”

[15]So Bathsheba went into the chamber to the king. (Now the king was very old, and Abishag the Shunammite was serving the king.)

[16]And Bathsheba bowed and did homage to the king. Then the king said, “What is your wish?”

[17]Then she said to him, “My lord, you swore by the LORD your God to your maidservant, saying, ‘Assuredly Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne.’

[18]“So now, look! Adonijah has become king; and now, my lord the king, you do not know about it.

[19]“He has sacrificed oxen and fattened cattle and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the sons of the king, Abiathar the priest, and Joab the commander of the army; but Solomon your servant he has not invited.

[20]“And as for you, my lord, O king, the eyes of all Israel are on you, that you should tell them who will sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

[21]“Otherwise it will happen, when my lord the king rests with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon will be counted as offenders.”

[22]And just then, while she was still talking with the king, Nathan the prophet also came in.

[23]So they told the king, saying, “Here is Nathan the prophet.” And when he came in before the king, he bowed down before the king with his face to the ground.

[24]And Nathan said, “My lord, O king, have you said, ‘Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne’?

[25]“For he has gone down today, and has sacrificed oxen and fattened cattle and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the king’s sons, and the commanders of the army, and Abiathar the priest; and look! They are eating and drinking before him; and they say, ‘Long live King Adonijah!’

[26]“But he has not invited me—me your servant—nor Zadok the priest, nor Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, nor your servant Solomon.

[27]“Has this thing been done by my lord the king, and you have not told your servant who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?”

David Proclaims Solomon King

[28]Then King David answered and said, “Call Bathsheba to me.” So she came into the king’s presence and stood before the king.

[29]And the king took an oath and said, “As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my life from every distress,

[30]“just as I swore to you by the LORD God of Israel, saying, ‘Assuredly Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne in my place,’ so I certainly will do this day.”

[31]Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the earth, and paid homage to the king, and said, “Let my lord King David live forever!”

[32]And King David said, “Call to me Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada.” So they came before the king.

[33]The king also said to them, “Take with you the servants of your lord, and have Solomon my son ride on my own mule, and take him down to Gihon.

[34]“There let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him king over Israel; and blow the horn, and say, ‘Long live King Solomon!’

[35]“Then you shall come up after him, and he shall come and sit on my throne, and he shall be king in my place. For I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and Judah.”

[36]Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king and said, “Amen! May the LORD God of my lord the king say so too.

[37]“As the LORD has been with my lord the king, even so may He be with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord King David.”

[38]So Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the Cherethites, and the Pelethites went down and had Solomon ride on King David’s mule, and took him to Gihon.

[39]Then Zadok the priest took a horn of oil from the tabernacle and anointed Solomon. And they blew the horn, and all the people said, “Long live King Solomon!”

[40]And all the people went up after him; and the people played the flutes and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth seemed to split with their sound.

[41]Now Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard it as they finished eating. And when Joab heard the sound of the horn, he said, “Why is the city in such a noisy uproar?”

[42]While he was still speaking, there came Jonathan, the son of Abiathar the priest. And Adonijah said to him, “Come in, for you are a prominent man, and bring good news.”

[43]Then Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, “No! Our lord King David has made Solomon king.

[44]“The king has sent with him Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the Cherethites, and the Pelethites; and they have made him ride on the king’s mule.

[45]“So Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king at Gihon; and they have gone up from there rejoicing, so that the city is in an uproar. This is the noise that you have heard.

[46]“Also Solomon sits on the throne of the kingdom.

[47]“And moreover the king’s servants have gone to bless our lord King David, saying, ‘May God make the name of Solomon better than your name, and may He make his throne greater than your throne.’ Then the king bowed himself on the bed.

[48]“Also the king said thus, ‘Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who has given one to sit on my throne this day, while my eyes see it!’ ”

[49]So all the guests who were with Adonijah were afraid, and arose, and each one went his way.

[50]Now Adonijah was afraid of Solomon; so he arose, and went and took hold of the horns of the altar.

[51]And it was told Solomon, saying, “Indeed Adonijah is afraid of King Solomon; for look, he has taken hold of the horns of the altar, saying, ‘Let King Solomon swear to me today that he will not put his servant to death with the sword.’ ”

[52]Then Solomon said, “If he proves himself a worthy man, not one hair of him shall fall to the earth; but if wickedness is found in him, he shall die.”

[53]So King Solomon sent them to bring him down from the altar. And he came and fell down before King Solomon; and Solomon said to him, “Go to your house.”

1 Kings 2

David's Instructions to Solomon

[1]Now the days of David drew near that he should die, and he charged Solomon his son, saying:

[2]"I go the way of all the earth; be strong, therefore, and prove yourself a man.

[3]"And keep the charge of the LORD your God: to walk in His ways, to keep His statutes, His commandments, His judgments, and His testimonies, as it is written in the Law of Moses, that you may prosper in all that you do and wherever you turn;

[4]"that the LORD may fulfill His word which He spoke concerning me, saying, 'If your sons take heed to their way, to walk before Me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul,' He said, 'you shall not lack a man on the throne of Israel.'

[5]"Moreover you know also what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, and what he did to the two commanders of the armies of Israel, to Abner the son of Ner and Amasa the son of Jether, whom he killed. And he shed the blood of war in peacetime, and put the blood of war on his belt that was around his waist, and on his sandals that were on his feet.

[6]"Therefore do according to your wisdom, and do not let his gray hair go down to the grave in peace.

[7]"But show kindness to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be among those who eat at your table, for so they came to me when I fled from Absalom your brother.

[8]"And see, you have with you Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite from Bahurim, who cursed me with a malicious curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim. But he came down to meet me at the Jordan, and I swore to him by the LORD, saying, 'I will not put you to death with the sword.'

[9]"Now therefore, do not hold him guiltless, for you are a wise man and know what you ought to do to him; but bring his gray hair down to the grave with blood."

Death of David

10So David rested with his fathers, and was buried in the City of David.

11The period that David reigned over Israel was forty years; seven years he reigned in Hebron, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years.

12Then Solomon sat on the throne of his father David; and his kingdom was firmly established.

Solomon Executes Adonijah

13Now Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. So she said, “Do you come peaceably?” And he said, “Peaceably.”

14Moreover he said, “I have something to say to you.” And she said, “Say it.”

15Then he said, “You know that the kingdom was mine, and all Israel had set their expectations on me, that I should reign. However, the kingdom has been turned over, and has become my brother’s; for it was his from the LORD.

16“Now I ask one petition of you; do not deny me.” And she said to him, “Say it.”

17Then he said, “Please speak to King Solomon, for he will not refuse you, that he may give me Abishag the Shunammite as wife.”

18So Bathsheba said, “Very well, I will speak for you to the king.”

19Bathsheba therefore went to King Solomon, to speak to him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her and bowed down to her, and sat down on his throne and had a throne set for the king’s mother; so she sat at his right hand.

20Then she said, “I desire one small petition of you; do not refuse me.” And the king said to her, “Ask it, my mother, for I will not refuse you.”

21So she said, “Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah your brother as wife.”

22And King Solomon answered and said to his mother, “Now why do you ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask for him the kingdom also—for he is my older brother—for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah."

[23]Then King Solomon swore by the LORD, saying, "May God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah has not spoken this word against his own life!

[24]"Now therefore, as the LORD lives, who has confirmed me and set me on the throne of David my father, and who has established a house for me, as He promised, Adonijah shall be put to death today!"

[25]So King Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he struck him down, and he died.

Abiathar Exiled, Joab Executed

26And to Abiathar the priest the king said, "Go to Anathoth, to your own fields, for you are deserving of death; but I will not put you to death at this time, because you carried the ark of the Lord GOD before my father David, and because you were afflicted every time my father was afflicted."

[27]So Solomon removed Abiathar from being priest to the LORD, that he might fulfill the word of the LORD which He spoke concerning the house of Eli at Shiloh.

28Then news came to Joab, for Joab had defected to Adonijah, though he had not defected to Absalom. So Joab fled to the tabernacle of the LORD, and took hold of the horns of the altar.

[29]And King Solomon was told, "Joab has fled to the tabernacle of the LORD; there he is, by the altar." Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, "Go, strike him down."

[30]So Benaiah went to the tabernacle of the LORD, and said to him, "Thus says the king, 'Come out!' " And he said, "No, but I will die here." And Benaiah brought back word to the king, saying, "Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me."

[31]Then the king said to him, "Do as he has said, and strike him down and bury him, that you may take away from me and from the house of my father the innocent blood which Joab shed.

[32]"So the LORD will return his blood on his head, because he struck down two men more righteous and better than he, and killed them with the sword—Abner the son of Ner, the commander of the army of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, the commander of the army of Judah—though my father David did not know it.

[33]"Their blood shall therefore return upon the head of Joab and upon the head of his descendants forever. But upon David and his descendants, upon his house and his throne, there shall be peace forever from the LORD."

[34]So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up and struck and killed him; and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness.

[35]The king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his place over the army, and the king put Zadok the priest in the place of Abiathar.

Shimei Executed

[36]Then the king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, "Build yourself a house in Jerusalem and dwell there, and do not go out from there anywhere.

[37]"For it shall be, on the day you go out and cross the Brook Kidron, know for certain you shall surely die; your blood shall be on your own head."

[38]And Shimei said to the king, "The saying is good. As my lord the king has said, so your servant will do." So Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days.

[39]Now it happened at the end of three years, that two slaves of Shimei ran away to Achish the son of Maachah, king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, "Look, your slaves are in Gath!"

[40]So Shimei arose, saddled his donkey, and went to Achish at Gath to seek his slaves. And Shimei went and brought his slaves from Gath.

[41]And Solomon was told that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and had come back.

[42]Then the king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, "Did I not make you swear by the LORD, and warn you, saying, 'Know for certain that on the day you go out and travel anywhere, you shall surely die'? And you said to me, 'The word I have heard is good.'

[43]"Why then have you not kept the oath of the LORD and the commandment that I gave you?"

[44]The king said moreover to Shimei, “You know, as your heart acknowledges, all the wickedness that you did to my father David; therefore the LORD will return your wickedness on your own head.

[45]“But King Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD forever.”

[46]So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he went out and struck him down, and he died. Thus the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

1 Kings 3

Solomon Requests Wisdom

[1]Now Solomon made a treaty with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and married Pharaoh's daughter; then he brought her to the City of David until he had finished building his own house, and the house of the LORD, and the wall all around Jerusalem.

[2]Meanwhile the people sacrificed at the high places, because there was no house built for the name of the LORD until those days.

[3]And Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of his father David, except that he sacrificed and burned incense at the high places.

[4]Now the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the great high place: Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar.

[5]At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, "Ask! What shall I give you?"

[6]And Solomon said: "You have shown great mercy to Your servant David my father, because he walked before You in truth, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with You; You have continued this great kindness for him, and You have given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day.

[7]"Now, O LORD my God, You have made Your servant king instead of my father David, but I am a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in.

[8]"And Your servant is in the midst of Your people whom You have chosen, a great people, too numerous to be numbered or counted.

[9]"Therefore give to Your servant an understanding heart to judge Your people, that I may discern between good and evil. For who is able to judge this great people of Yours?"

[10]The speech pleased the LORD, that Solomon had asked this thing.

[11]Then God said to him: "Because you have asked this thing, and have not asked long life for yourself, nor have asked riches for yourself, nor have asked the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern justice,

[12]“behold, I have done according to your words; see, I have given you a wise and understanding heart, so that there has not been anyone like you before you, nor shall any like you arise after you.

[13]“And I have also given you what you have not asked: both riches and honor, so that there shall not be anyone like you among the kings all your days.

[14]“So if you walk in My ways, to keep My statutes and My commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your days.”

[15]Then Solomon awoke; and indeed it had been a dream. And he came to Jerusalem and stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, offered up burnt offerings, offered peace offerings, and made a feast for all his servants.

Solomon’s Wise Judgment

[16]Now two women who were harlots came to the king, and stood before him.

[17]And one woman said, “O my lord, this woman and I dwell in the same house; and I gave birth while she was in the house.

[18]“Then it happened, the third day after I had given birth, that this woman also gave birth. And we were together; no one was with us in the house, except the two of us in the house.

[19]“And this woman’s son died in the night, because she lay on him.

[20]“So she arose in the middle of the night and took my son from my side, while your maidservant slept, and laid him in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom.

[21]“And when I rose in the morning to nurse my son, there he was, dead. But when I had examined him in the morning, indeed, he was not my son whom I had borne.”

[22]Then the other woman said, “No! But the living one is my son, and the dead one is your son.” And the first woman said, “No! But the dead one is your son, and the living one is my son.” Thus they spoke before the king.

[23]And the king said, “The one says, ‘This is my son, who lives, and your son is the dead one’; and the other says, ‘No! But your son is the dead one, and my son is the living one.' "

[24]Then the king said, "Bring me a sword." So they brought a sword before the king.

[25]And the king said, "Divide the living child in two, and give half to one, and half to the other."

[26]Then the woman whose son was living spoke to the king, for she yearned with compassion for her son; and she said, "O my lord, give her the living child, and by no means kill him!" But the other said, "Let him be neither mine nor yours, but divide him."

[27]So the king answered and said, "Give the first woman the living child, and by no means kill him; she is his mother."

[28]And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had rendered; and they feared the king, for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him to administer justice.

1 Kings 4

Solomon's Administration

[1]So King Solomon was king over all Israel.

[2]And these were his officials: Azariah the son of Zadok, the priest;

[3]Elihoreph and Ahijah, the sons of Shisha, scribes; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, the recorder;

[4]Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, over the army; Zadok and Abiathar, the priests;

[5]Azariah the son of Nathan, over the officers; Zabud the son of Nathan, a priest and the king's friend;

[6]Ahishar, over the household; and Adoniram the son of Abda, over the labor force.

[7]And Solomon had twelve governors over all Israel, who provided food for the king and his household; each one made provision for one month of the year.

[8]These are their names: Ben-Hur, in the mountains of Ephraim;

[9]Ben-Deker, in Makaz, Shaalbim, Beth Shemesh, and Elon Beth Hanan;

[10]Ben-Hesed, in Arubboth; to him belonged Sochoh and all the land of Hepher;

[11]Ben-Abinadab, in all the regions of Dor; he had Taphath the daughter of Solomon as wife;

[12]Baana the son of Ahilud, in Taanach, Megiddo, and all Beth Shean, which is beside Zaretan below Jezreel, from Beth Shean to Abel Meholah, as far as the other side of Jokneam;

[13]Ben-Geber, in Ramoth Gilead; to him belonged the towns of Jair the son of Manasseh, in Gilead; to him also belonged the region of Argob in Bashan—sixty large cities with walls and bronze gate-bars;

[14]Ahinadab the son of Iddo, in Mahanaim;

[15]Ahimaaz, in Naphtali; he also took Basemath the daughter of Solomon as wife;

[16]Baanah the son of Hushai, in Asher and Aloth;

[17]Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah, in Issachar;

[18]Shimei the son of Elah, in Benjamin;

[19]Geber the son of Uri, in the land of Gilead, in the country of Sihon king of the Amorites, and of Og king of Bashan. He was the only governor who was in the land.

Prosperity and Wisdom of Solomon's Reign

[20]Judah and Israel were as numerous as the sand by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking and rejoicing.

[21]So Solomon reigned over all kingdoms from the River to the land of the Philistines, as far as the border of Egypt. They brought tribute and served Solomon all the days of his life.

[22]Now Solomon's provision for one day was thirty kors of fine flour, sixty kors of meal,

[23]ten fatted oxen, twenty oxen from the pastures, and one hundred sheep, besides deer, gazelles, roebucks, and fatted fowl.

[24]For he had dominion over all the region on this side of the River from Tiphsah even to Gaza, namely over all the kings on this side of the River; and he had peace on every side all around him.

[25]And Judah and Israel dwelt safely, each man under his vine and his fig tree, from Dan as far as Beersheba, all the days of Solomon.

[26]Solomon had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen.

[27]And these governors, each man in his month, provided food for King Solomon and for all who came to King Solomon's table. There was no lack in their supply.

[28]They also brought barley and straw to the proper place, for the horses and steeds, each man according to his charge.

[29]And God gave Solomon wisdom and exceedingly great understanding, and largeness of heart like the sand on the seashore.

[30]Thus Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the men of the East and all the wisdom of Egypt.

[31]For he was wiser than all men—than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, Chalcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol; and his fame was in all the surrounding nations.

[32]He spoke three thousand proverbs, and his songs were one thousand and five.

[33]Also he spoke of trees, from the cedar tree of Lebanon even to the hyssop that springs out of the wall; he spoke also of animals, of birds, of creeping things, and of fish.

[34]And men of all nations, from all the kings of the earth who had heard of his wisdom, came to hear the wisdom of Solomon.

1 Kings 5

Solomon Prepares to Build the Temple

[1]Now Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon, because he heard that they had anointed him king in place of his father, for Hiram had always loved David.

[2]Then Solomon sent to Hiram, saying:

> [3]You know how my father David could not build a house for the name of the LORD his God because of the wars which were fought against him on every side, until the LORD put his foes under the soles of his feet.
>
> [4]But now the LORD my God has given me rest on every side; there is neither adversary nor evil occurrence.
>
> [5]And behold, I propose to build a house for the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD spoke to my father David, saying, "Your son, whom I will set on your throne in your place, he shall build the house for My name."
>
> [6]Now therefore, command that they cut down cedars for me from Lebanon; and my servants will be with your servants, and I will pay you wages for your servants according to whatever you say. For you know there is none among us who has skill to cut timber like the Sidonians.

[7]So it was, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly and said,

> Blessed be the LORD this day, for He has given David a wise son over this great people!

[8]Then Hiram sent to Solomon, saying:

> I have considered the message which you sent me, and I will do all you desire concerning the cedar and cypress logs.
>
> [9]My servants shall bring them down from Lebanon to the sea; I will float them in rafts by sea to the place you indicate to me, and will have them broken apart there; then you can take them away. And you shall fulfill my desire by giving food for my household.

[10]Then Hiram gave Solomon cedar and cypress logs according to all his desire.

[11]And Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand kors of wheat as food for his household, and twenty kors of pressed oil. Thus Solomon gave to Hiram year by year.

[12]So the LORD gave Solomon wisdom, as He had promised him; and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon, and the two of them made a treaty together.

[13]Then King Solomon raised up a labor force out of all Israel; and the labor force was thirty thousand men.

[14]And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month in shifts: they were one month in Lebanon and two months at home; Adoniram was in charge of the labor force.

[15]Solomon had seventy thousand who carried burdens, and eighty thousand who quarried stone in the mountains,

[16]besides three thousand three hundred from the chiefs of Solomon’s deputies, who supervised the people who labored in the work.

[17]And the king commanded them to quarry large stones, costly stones, and hewn stones, to lay the foundation of the temple.

[18]So Solomon’s builders, Hiram’s builders, and the Gebalites quarried them; and they prepared timber and stones to build the temple.

1 Kings 6

Solomon Builds the Temple

[1]And it came to pass in the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel had come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month of Ziv, which is the second month, that he began to build the house of the LORD.

[2]Now the house which King Solomon built for the LORD, its length was sixty cubits, its width twenty, and its height thirty cubits.

[3]The vestibule in front of the sanctuary of the house was twenty cubits long across the width of the house, and the width of the vestibule extended ten cubits from the front of the house.

[4]And he made for the house windows with beveled frames.

[5]Against the wall of the temple he built chambers all around, against the walls of the temple, all around the sanctuary and the inner sanctuary. Thus he made side chambers all around it.

[6]The lowest chamber was five cubits wide, the middle was six cubits wide, and the third was seven cubits wide; for he made narrow ledges around the outside of the temple, so that the support beams would not be fastened into the walls of the temple.

[7]And the temple, when it was being built, was built with stone finished at the quarry, so that no hammer or chisel or any iron tool was heard in the temple while it was being built.

[8]The doorway for the middle story was on the right side of the temple. They went up by stairs to the middle story, and from the middle to the third.

[9]So he built the temple and finished it, and he paneled the temple with beams and boards of cedar.

[10]And he built side chambers against the entire temple, each five cubits high; they were attached to the temple with cedar beams.

[11]Then the word of the LORD came to Solomon, saying:

[12]"Concerning this temple which you are building, if you walk in My statutes, execute My judgments, keep all My commandments, and walk in them, then I will perform My word with you, which I spoke to your father David.

[13]"And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake My people Israel."

14So Solomon built the temple and finished it.

[15]And he built the inside walls of the temple with cedar boards; from the floor of the temple to the ceiling he paneled the inside with wood; and he covered the floor of the temple with planks of cypress.

[16]Then he built the twenty-cubit room at the rear of the temple, from floor to ceiling, with cedar boards; he built it inside as the inner sanctuary, as the Most Holy Place.

[17]And in front of it the temple sanctuary was forty cubits long.

[18]The inside of the temple was cedar, carved with ornamental buds and open flowers. All was cedar; there was no stone to be seen.

[19]And he prepared the inner sanctuary inside the temple, to set the ark of the covenant of the LORD there.

[20]The inner sanctuary was twenty cubits long, twenty cubits wide, and twenty cubits high. He overlaid it with pure gold, and overlaid the altar of cedar.

[21]So Solomon overlaid the inside of the temple with pure gold. He stretched gold chains across the front of the inner sanctuary, and overlaid it with gold.

[22]The whole temple he overlaid with gold, until he had finished all the temple; also he overlaid with gold the entire altar that was by the inner sanctuary.

23Inside the inner sanctuary he made two cherubim of olive wood, each ten cubits high.

[24]One wing of the cherub was five cubits, and the other wing of the cherub five cubits: ten cubits from the tip of one wing to the tip of the other.

[25]And the other cherub was ten cubits; both cherubim were of the same size and shape.

[26]The height of one cherub was ten cubits, and so was the other cherub.

[27]Then he set the cherubim inside the inner room; and they stretched out the wings of the cherubim so that the wing of the one touched one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall. And their wings touched each other in the middle of the room.

[28]Also he overlaid the cherubim with gold.

[29]Then he carved all the walls of the temple all around, both the inner and outer sanctuaries, with carved figures of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers.

[30]And the floor of the temple he overlaid with gold, both the inner and outer sanctuaries.

[31]For the entrance of the inner sanctuary he made doors of olive wood; the lintel and doorposts were one-fifth of the wall.

[32]The two doors were of olive wood; and he carved on them figures of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold; and he spread gold on the cherubim and on the palm trees.

[33]So for the door of the sanctuary he also made doorposts of olive wood, one-fourth of the wall.

[34]And the two doors were of cypress wood; two panels comprised one folding door, and two panels comprised the other folding door.

[35]Then he carved cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers on them, and overlaid them with gold applied evenly on the carved work.

[36]And he built the inner court with three rows of hewn stone and a row of cedar beams.

[37]In the fourth year the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid, in the month of Ziv.

[38]And in the eleventh year, in the month of Bul, which is the eighth month, the house was finished in all its details and according to all its plans. So he was seven years in building it.

1 Kings 7

Solomon's Other Buildings

[1]But Solomon took thirteen years to build his own house; so he finished all his house.

[2]He also built the House of the Forest of Lebanon; its length was one hundred cubits, its width fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits, with four rows of cedar pillars, and cedar beams on the pillars.

[3]And it was paneled with cedar above the beams that were on forty-five pillars, fifteen to a row.

[4]There were windows with beveled frames in three rows, and window was opposite window in three tiers.

[5]And all the doorways and doorposts had rectangular frames; and window was opposite window in three tiers.

[6]He also made the Hall of Pillars: its length was fifty cubits, and its width thirty cubits; and in front of them was a portico with pillars, and a canopy was in front of them.

[7]Then he made a hall for the throne, the Hall of Judgment, where he might judge; and it was paneled with cedar from floor to ceiling.

[8]And the house where he dwelt had another court inside the hall, of like workmanship. Solomon also made a house like this hall for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had taken as wife.

[9]All these were of costly stones cut to size, trimmed with saws, inside and out, from the foundation to the eaves, and also on the outside to the great court.

[10]The foundation was of costly stones, large stones, some ten cubits and some eight cubits.

[11]And above were costly stones, hewn to size, and cedar wood.

[12]The great court was enclosed with three rows of hewn stones and a row of cedar beams. So were the inner court of the house of the LORD and the vestibule of the temple.

Hiram the Craftsman

[13]Now King Solomon sent and brought Huram from Tyre.

[14]He was the son of a widow from the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a bronze worker; he was filled with wisdom and understanding and skill in working with all kinds of bronze work. So he came to King Solomon and did all his work.

The Bronze Pillars for the Temple

[15]And he cast two pillars of bronze, each one eighteen cubits high, and a line of twelve cubits measured the circumference of each.

[16]Then he made two capitals of cast bronze, to set on the tops of the pillars. The height of one capital was five cubits, and the height of the other capital was five cubits.

[17]He made a lattice network, with wreaths of chainwork, for the capitals which were on top of the pillars: seven chains for one capital and seven for the other capital.

[18]So he made the pillars, and two rows of pomegranates above the network all around to cover the capitals that were on top; and thus he did for the other capital.

[19]The capitals which were on top of the pillars in the hall were in the shape of lilies, four cubits.

[20]The capitals on the two pillars also had pomegranates above, by the convex surface which was next to the network; and there were two hundred such pomegranates in rows on each of the capitals all around.

[21]Then he set up the pillars by the vestibule of the temple; he set up the pillar on the right and called its name Jachin, and he set up the pillar on the left and called its name Boaz.

[22]The tops of the pillars were in the shape of lilies. So the work of the pillars was finished.

The Sea and the Oxen

[23]And he made the Sea of cast bronze, ten cubits from one brim to the other; it was completely round. Its height was five cubits, and a line of thirty cubits measured its circumference.

[24]Below its brim were ornamental buds encircling it all around, ten to a cubit, all the way around the Sea. The ornamental buds were cast in two rows when it was cast.

[25]It stood on twelve oxen: three looking toward the north, three looking toward the west, three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east; the Sea was set upon them, and all their back parts pointed inward.

[26]It was a handbreadth thick; and its brim was shaped like the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It contained two thousand baths.

The Carts and the Lavers

[27]He also made ten carts of bronze; four cubits was the length of each cart, four cubits its width, and three cubits its height.

[28]And this was the design of the carts: They had panels, and the panels were between frames;

[29]on the panels that were between the frames were lions, oxen, and cherubim. And on the frames was a pedestal on top. Below the lions and oxen were wreaths of plaited work.

[30]Every cart had four bronze wheels and axles of bronze, and its four feet had supports. Under the laver were supports of cast bronze beside each wreath.

[31]Its opening inside the crown at the top was one cubit in diameter; and the opening was round, shaped like a pedestal, one and a half cubits in outside diameter; and also on the opening were engravings, but the panels were square, not round.

[32]Under the panels were the four wheels, and the axles of the wheels were joined to the cart. The height of a wheel was one and a half cubits.

[33]The workmanship of the wheels was like the workmanship of a chariot wheel; their axle pins, their rims, their spokes, and their hubs were all of cast bronze.

[34]And there were four supports at the four corners of each cart; its supports were part of the cart itself.

[35]On the top of the cart, at the height of half a cubit, it was perfectly round. And on the top of the cart, its flanges and its panels were of the same casting.

[36]On the plates of its flanges and on its panels he engraved cherubim, lions, and palm trees, wherever there was a clear space on each, with wreaths all around.

[37]Thus he made the ten carts. All of them were of the same mold, one measure, and one shape.

[38]Then he made ten lavers of bronze; each laver contained forty baths, and each laver was four cubits. On each of the ten carts was a laver.

[39]And he put five carts on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house. He set the Sea on the right side of the house, toward the southeast.

Furnishings of the Temple

[40]Huram made the lavers and the shovels and the bowls. So Huram finished doing all the work that he was to do for King Solomon for the house of the LORD:

[41]the two pillars, the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on top of the two pillars; the two networks covering the two bowl-shaped capitals which were on top of the pillars;

[42]four hundred pomegranates for the two networks (two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on top of the pillars);

[43]the ten carts, and ten lavers on the carts;

[44]one Sea, and twelve oxen under the Sea;

[45]the pots, the shovels, and the bowls. All these articles which Huram made for King Solomon for the house of the LORD were of burnished bronze.

[46]In the plain of Jordan the king had them cast in clay molds, between Succoth and Zaretan.

[47]And Solomon did not weigh all the articles, because there were so many; the weight of the bronze was not determined.

[48]Thus Solomon had all the furnishings made for the house of the LORD: the altar of gold, and the table of gold on which was the showbread;

[49]the lampstands of pure gold, five on the right side and five on the left in front of the inner sanctuary, with the flowers and the lamps and the wick-trimmers of gold;

[50]the basins, the trimmers, the bowls, the ladles, and the censers of pure gold; and the hinges of gold, both for the doors of the inner room (the Most Holy Place) and for the doors of the main hall of the temple.

[51]So all the work that King Solomon had done for the house of the LORD was finished; and Solomon brought in the things which his father David had dedicated: the silver and the gold and the furnishings. He put them in the treasuries of the house of the LORD.

1 Kings 8

The Ark Brought into the Temple

[1]Now Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the chief fathers of the children of Israel, to King Solomon in Jerusalem, that they might bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the City of David, which is Zion.

[2]Therefore all the men of Israel assembled with King Solomon at the feast in the month of Ethanim, which is the seventh month.

[3]So all the elders of Israel came, and the priests took up the ark.

[4]Then they brought up the ark of the LORD, the tabernacle of meeting, and all the holy furnishings that were in the tabernacle. The priests and the Levites brought them up.

[5]Also King Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel who were assembled with him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen that could not be counted or numbered for multitude.

[6]Then the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the temple, to the Most Holy Place, under the wings of the cherubim.

[7]For the cherubim spread their two wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim overshadowed the ark and its poles.

[8]The poles extended so that the ends of the poles could be seen from the holy place, in front of the inner sanctuary; but they could not be seen from outside. And they are there to this day.

[9]Nothing was in the ark except the two tablets of stone which Moses put there at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.

[10]And it came to pass, when the priests came out of the holy place, that the cloud filled the house of the LORD,

[11]so that the priests could not continue ministering because of the cloud; for the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD.

[12]Then Solomon spoke:

“The LORD said He would dwell in the dark cloud.

[13]I have surely built You an exalted house,
And a place for You to dwell in forever."

Solomon's Speech at Completion of the Work

14Then the king turned around and blessed the whole assembly of Israel, while all the assembly of Israel was standing.

[15]And he said: "Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who spoke with His mouth to my father David, and with His hand has fulfilled it, saying,

[16]'Since the day that I brought My people Israel out of Egypt, I have chosen no city from any tribe of Israel in which to build a house, that My name might be there; but I chose David to be over My people Israel.'

[17]"Now it was in the heart of my father David to build a temple for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

[18]"But the LORD said to my father David, 'Whereas it was in your heart to build a temple for My name, you did well that it was in your heart.

[19]'Nevertheless you shall not build the temple, but your son who will come from your body, he shall build the temple for My name.'

[20]"So the LORD has fulfilled His word which He spoke; and I have filled the position of my father David, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised; and I have built a temple for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

[21]"And there I have made a place for the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD which He made with our fathers, when He brought them out of the land of Egypt."

Solomon's Prayer of Dedication

22Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread out his hands toward heaven;

[23]and he said: "LORD God of Israel, there is no God in heaven above or on earth below like You, who keep Your covenant and mercy with Your servants who walk before You with all their hearts.

[24]"You have kept what You promised Your servant David my father; You have both spoken with Your mouth and fulfilled it with Your hand, as it is this day.

[25]"Therefore, LORD God of Israel, now keep what You promised Your servant David my father, saying, 'You shall not fail to have a man sit before Me on the throne of Israel, only if your sons take heed to their way, that they walk before Me as you have walked before Me.'

[26]"And now I pray, O God of Israel, let Your word come true, which You have spoken to Your servant David my father.

[27]"But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain You. How much less this temple which I have built!

[28]"Yet regard the prayer of Your servant and his supplication, O LORD my God, and listen to the cry and the prayer which Your servant is praying before You today:

[29]"that Your eyes may be open toward this temple night and day, toward the place of which You said, 'My name shall be there,' that You may hear the prayer which Your servant makes toward this place.

[30]"And may You hear the supplication of Your servant and of Your people Israel, when they pray toward this place. Hear in heaven Your dwelling place; and when You hear, forgive.

[31]"When anyone sins against his neighbor, and is forced to take an oath, and comes and takes an oath before Your altar in this temple, [32]"then hear in heaven, and act, and judge Your servants, condemning the wicked, bringing his way on his head, and justifying the righteous by giving him according to his righteousness.

[33]"When Your people Israel are defeated before an enemy because they have sinned against You, and when they turn back to You and confess Your name, and pray and make supplication to You in this temple, [34]"then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and bring them back to the land which You gave to their fathers.

[35]"When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against You, when they pray toward this place and confess Your name, and turn from their sin because You afflict them,

[36]“then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of Your servants, Your people Israel, that You may teach them the good way in which they should walk; and send rain on Your land which You have given to Your people as an inheritance.

[37]“When there is famine in the land, pestilence or blight or mildew, locusts or grasshoppers; when their enemy besieges them in the land of their cities; whatever plague or whatever sickness there is;

[38]“whatever prayer, whatever supplication is made by anyone, or by all Your people Israel, when each one knows the plague of his own heart, and spreads out his hands toward this temple:

[39]“then hear in heaven Your dwelling place, and forgive, and act, and give to everyone according to all his ways, whose heart You know (for You alone know the hearts of all the sons of men),

[40]“that they may fear You all the days that they live in the land which You gave to our fathers.

[41]“Moreover, concerning a foreigner, who is not of Your people Israel, but has come from a far country for Your name’s sake

[42]“(for they will hear of Your great name and Your strong hand and Your outstretched arm), when he comes and prays toward this temple,

[43]“hear in heaven Your dwelling place, and do according to all for which the foreigner calls to You, that all peoples of the earth may know Your name and fear You, as do Your people Israel, and that they may know that this temple which I have built is called by Your name.

[44]“When Your people go out to battle against their enemy, wherever You send them, and when they pray to the LORD toward the city which You have chosen and the temple which I have built for Your name, [45]“then hear in heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

[46]“When they sin against You (for there is no one who does not sin), and You become angry with them and deliver them to the enemy, and they take them captive to the land of the enemy, far or near;

[47]“yet when they come to themselves in the land where they were carried captive, and repent, and make supplication to You in the land of those who took them captive, saying, ‘We have sinned and done wrong, we have committed wickedness’;

[48]“and when they return to You with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their enemies who led them away captive, and pray to You toward their land which You gave to their fathers, the city which You have chosen and the temple which I have built for Your name:

[49]“then hear in heaven Your dwelling place their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause,

[50]“and forgive Your people who have sinned against You, and all their transgressions which they have transgressed against You; and grant them compassion before those who took them captive, that they may have compassion on them

[51]“(for they are Your people and Your inheritance, whom You brought out of Egypt, out of the iron furnace), [52]“that Your eyes may be open to the supplication of Your servant and the supplication of Your people Israel, to listen to them whenever they call to You.

[53]“For You separated them from among all the peoples of the earth to be Your inheritance, as You spoke by Your servant Moses, when You brought our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord GOD.”

Solomon Blesses the Assembly

[54]And so it was, when Solomon had finished praying all this prayer and supplication to the LORD, that he arose from before the altar of the LORD, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to heaven.

[55]Then he stood and blessed all the assembly of Israel with a loud voice, saying:

[56]“Blessed be the LORD, who has given rest to His people Israel, according to all that He promised. There has not failed one word of all His good promise, which He promised through His servant Moses.

[57]“May the LORD our God be with us, as He was with our fathers. May He not leave us nor forsake us, [58]“that He may incline our hearts to Himself, to walk in all His ways, and to keep His commandments and His statutes and His judgments, which He commanded our fathers.

[59]“And may these words of mine, with which I have made supplication before the LORD, be near the LORD our God day and night, that He may maintain the cause of His servant and the cause of His people Israel, as each day may require,

[60]"that all the peoples of the earth may know that the LORD is God; there is no other.

[61]"Let your heart therefore be loyal to the LORD our God, to walk in His statutes and keep His commandments, as at this day."

Solomon Dedicates the Temple

[62]Then the king and all Israel with him offered sacrifices before the LORD.

[63]And Solomon offered a sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered to the LORD, twenty-two thousand bulls and one hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD.

[64]On the same day the king consecrated the middle of the court that was in front of the house of the LORD; for there he offered burnt offerings, grain offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar that was before the LORD was too small to receive the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings.

[65]At that time Solomon held a feast, and all Israel with him, a great assembly from the entrance of Hamath to the Brook of Egypt, before the LORD our God, seven days and seven more days—fourteen days.

[66]On the eighth day he sent the people away; and they blessed the king, and went to their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the good that the LORD had done for His servant David, and for Israel His people.

1 Kings 9

God’s Second Appearance to Solomon

[1]And it came to pass, when Solomon had finished building the house of the LORD and the king’s house, and all Solomon’s desire which he wanted to do,

[2]that the LORD appeared to Solomon the second time, as He had appeared to him at Gibeon.

[3]And the LORD said to him: “I have heard your prayer and your supplication that you have made before Me; I have consecrated this house which you have built to put My name there forever, and My eyes and My heart will be there perpetually.

[4]“Now if you walk before Me as your father David walked, in integrity of heart and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded you, and if you keep My statutes and My judgments,

[5]“then I will establish the throne of your kingdom over Israel forever, as I promised David your father, saying, ‘You shall not fail to have a man on the throne of Israel.’

[6]“But if you or your sons at all turn from following Me, and do not keep My commandments and My statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods and worship them,

[7]“then I will cut off Israel from the land which I have given them; and this house which I have consecrated for My name I will cast out of My sight. Israel will be a proverb and a byword among all peoples.

[8]“And as for this house, which is exalted, everyone who passes by it will be astonished and will hiss, and say, ‘Why has the LORD done thus to this land and to this house?’

[9]“Then they will answer, ‘Because they forsook the LORD their God, who brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have embraced other gods, and worshiped them and served them; therefore the LORD has brought all this calamity on them.’ ”

Solomon and Hiram Exchange Gifts

10Now it happened at the end of twenty years, when Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD and the king's house

11(Hiram the king of Tyre had supplied Solomon with cedar and cypress and gold, as much as he desired), that King Solomon then gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.

12Then Hiram went from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him, but they did not please him.

13So he said, "What kind of cities are these which you have given me, my brother?" And he called them the land of Cabul, as they are to this day.

14Then Hiram sent the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold.

Solomon's Additional Achievements

15And this is the reason for the labor force which King Solomon raised: to build the house of the LORD, his own house, the Millo, the wall of Jerusalem, Hazor, Megiddo, and Gezer.

16(Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up and taken Gezer and burned it with fire, had killed the Canaanites who dwelt in the city, and had given it as a dowry to his daughter, Solomon's wife.)

17And Solomon built Gezer, Lower Beth Horon,

18Baalath, and Tadmor in the wilderness, in the land of Judah,

19all the storage cities that Solomon had, cities for his chariots and cities for his cavalry, and whatever Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

20All the people who were left of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, who were not of the children of Israel—

21that is, their descendants who were left in the land after them, whom the children of Israel had not been able to destroy completely—from these Solomon raised forced labor, as it is to this day.

22But of the children of Israel Solomon made no forced laborers, because they were men of war and his servants: his officers, his captains, commanders of his chariots, and his cavalry.

23Others were chiefs of the officials who were over Solomon's work: five hundred and fifty, who ruled over the people who did the work.

[24]But Pharaoh’s daughter came up from the City of David to her house which Solomon had built for her. Then he built the Millo.

[25]Now three times a year Solomon offered burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar which he had built for the LORD, and he burned incense with them on the altar that was before the LORD. So he finished the temple.

[26]King Solomon also built a fleet of ships at Ezion Geber, which is near Elath on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom.

[27]Then Hiram sent his servants with the fleet, seamen who knew the sea, to work with the servants of Solomon.

[28]And they went to Ophir, and acquired four hundred and twenty talents of gold from there, and brought it to King Solomon.

1 Kings 10

The Queen of Sheba's Praise of Solomon

[1]Now when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the LORD, she came to test him with hard questions.

[2]She came to Jerusalem with a very great retinue, with camels that bore spices, very much gold, and precious stones; and when she came to Solomon, she spoke with him about all that was in her heart.

[3]So Solomon answered all her questions; there was nothing so difficult for the king that he could not explain it to her.

[4]And when the queen of Sheba had seen all the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built,

[5]the food on his table, the seating of his servants, the service of his waiters and their apparel, his cupbearers, and his entryway by which he went up to the house of the LORD, there was no more spirit in her.

[6]Then she said to the king: "It was a true report which I heard in my own land about your words and your wisdom.

[7]"However I did not believe the words until I came and saw with my own eyes; and indeed the half was not told me. Your wisdom and prosperity exceed the fame of which I heard.

[8]"Happy are your men and happy are these your servants, who stand continually before you and hear your wisdom!

[9]"Blessed be the LORD your God, who delighted in you, setting you on the throne of Israel! Because the LORD has loved Israel forever, therefore He made you king, to do justice and righteousness."

[10]Then she gave the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold, spices in great quantity, and precious stones. There never again came such abundance of spices as the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

[11]Also, the ships of Hiram, which brought gold from Ophir, brought great quantities of almug wood and precious stones from Ophir.

[12]And the king made steps of the almug wood for the house of the LORD and for the king's house, also harps and stringed instruments for singers. There never again came such almug wood, nor has the like been seen to this day.

[13]Now King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba all she desired, whatever she asked, besides what Solomon had given her according to the royal generosity. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.

Solomon's Great Wealth

[14]The weight of gold that came to Solomon yearly was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold,

[15]besides that from the traveling merchants, from the income of traders, from all the kings of Arabia, and from the governors of the country.

[16]And King Solomon made two hundred large shields of hammered gold; six hundred shekels of gold went into each shield.

[17]He also made three hundred shields of hammered gold; three minas of gold went into each shield. The king put them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon.

[18]Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold.

[19]The throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round at the back; there were armrests on either side of the place of the seat, and two lions stood beside the armrests.

[20]Twelve lions stood there, one on each side of the six steps; nothing like this had been made for any other kingdom.

[21]All King Solomon's drinking vessels were gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold. Not one was silver, for this was accounted as nothing in the days of Solomon.

[22]For the king had merchant ships at sea with the fleet of Hiram. Once every three years the merchant ships came bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and monkeys.

[23]So King Solomon surpassed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.

[24]Now all the earth sought the presence of Solomon to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.

[25]Each man brought his present: articles of silver and gold, garments, armor, spices, horses, and mules, at a set rate year by year.

[26]And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen; he had one thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king at Jerusalem.

[27]The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedar trees as abundant as the sycamores which are in the lowland.

[28]Also Solomon had horses imported from Egypt and Keveh; the king’s merchants bought them in Keveh at the current price.

[29]Now a chariot that was imported from Egypt cost six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse one hundred and fifty; and thus, through their agents, they exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Syria.

1 Kings 11

Solomon's Heart Turns from the LORD

[1]But King Solomon loved many foreign women, as well as the daughter of Pharaoh: women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians, and Hittites—

[2]from the nations of whom the LORD had said to the children of Israel, "You shall not intermarry with them, nor they with you. Surely they will turn away your hearts after their gods." Solomon clung to these in love.

[3]And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines; and his wives turned away his heart.

[4]For it was so, when Solomon was old, that his wives turned his heart after other gods; and his heart was not loyal to the LORD his God, as was the heart of his father David.

[5]For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, and after Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.

[6]Solomon did evil in the sight of the LORD, and did not fully follow the LORD, as did his father David.

[7]Then Solomon built a high place for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, on the hill that is east of Jerusalem, and for Molech the abomination of the people of Ammon.

[8]And he did likewise for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and sacrificed to their gods.

[9]So the LORD became angry with Solomon, because his heart had turned from the LORD God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice,

[10]and had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods; but he did not keep what the LORD had commanded.

[11]Therefore the LORD said to Solomon, "Because you have done this, and have not kept My covenant and My statutes, which I have commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom away from you and give it to your servant.

[12]"Nevertheless I will not do it in your days, for the sake of your father David; I will tear it out of the hand of your son.

[13]"However I will not tear away the whole kingdom; I will give one tribe to your son for the sake of My servant David, and for the sake of Jerusalem which I have chosen."

Adversaries of Solomon

[14]Now the LORD raised up an adversary against Solomon, Hadad the Edomite; he was a descendant of the king in Edom.

[15]For it happened, when David was in Edom, and Joab the commander of the army had gone up to bury the slain, after he had killed every male in Edom

[16](because for six months Joab remained there with all Israel, until he had cut down every male in Edom),

[17]that Hadad fled to go to Egypt, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him. Hadad was still a little child.

[18]Then they arose from Midian and came to Paran; and they took men with them from Paran and came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave him a house, apportioned food for him, and gave him land.

[19]And Hadad found great favor in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him as wife the sister of his own wife, that is, the sister of Queen Tahpenes.

[20]Then the sister of Tahpenes bore him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house. And Genubath was in Pharaoh's household among the sons of Pharaoh.

[21]So when Hadad heard in Egypt that David rested with his fathers, and that Joab the commander of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Let me depart, that I may go to my own country."

[22]Then Pharaoh said to him, "But what have you lacked with me, that suddenly you seek to go to your own country?" So he answered, "Nothing, but do let me go anyway."

[23]And God raised up another adversary against him, Rezon the son of Eliadah, who had fled from his lord, Hadadezer king of Zobah.

[24]So he gathered men to him and became captain over a band of raiders, when David killed those of Zobah. And they went to Damascus and dwelt there, and reigned in Damascus.

[25]He was an adversary of Israel all the days of Solomon (besides the trouble that Hadad caused); and he abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria.

Jeroboam's Rebellion

[26]Then Solomon's servant, Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephraimite from Zereda, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow, also rebelled against the king.

[27]And this is what caused him to rebel against the king: Solomon had built the Millo and repaired the damages to the City of David his father.

[28]The man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valor; and Solomon, seeing that the young man was industrious, made him the officer over all the labor force of the house of Joseph.

[29]Now it happened at that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite met him on the way; and he had clothed himself with a new garment, and the two were alone in the field.

[30]Then Ahijah took hold of the new garment that was on him, and tore it into twelve pieces.

[31]And he said to Jeroboam, "Take for yourself ten pieces, for thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'Behold, I will tear the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon and will give ten tribes to you

[32]'(but he shall have one tribe for the sake of My servant David, and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel),

[33]'because they have forsaken Me, and worshiped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the people of Ammon, and have not walked in My ways to do what is right in My eyes and keep My statutes and My judgments, as did his father David.

[34]'However I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand, because I have made him ruler all the days of his life for the sake of My servant David, whom I chose because he kept My commandments and My statutes.

[35]‘But I will take the kingdom out of his son’s hand and give it to you —ten tribes.

[36]‘And to his son I will give one tribe, that My servant David may always have a lamp before Me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen for Myself, to put My name there.

[37]‘So I will take you, and you shall reign over all your heart desires, and you shall be king over Israel.

[38]‘Then it shall be, if you heed all that I command you, walk in My ways, and do what is right in My sight, to keep My statutes and My commandments, as My servant David did, then I will be with you and build for you an enduring house, as I built for David, and will give Israel to you.

[39]‘And I will afflict the descendants of David because of this, but not forever.’ ”

[40]Solomon therefore sought to kill Jeroboam. But Jeroboam arose and fled to Egypt, to Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

Death of Solomon

[41]Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the book of the acts of Solomon?

[42]And the period that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years.

[43]Then Solomon rested with his fathers, and was buried in the City of David his father. And Rehoboam his son reigned in his place.

1 Kings 12

The Revolt Against Rehoboam

[1]And Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had gone to Shechem to make him king.

[2]So it happened, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard it (he was still in Egypt, for he had fled from the presence of King Solomon and had been dwelling in Egypt),

[3]that they sent and called him. Then Jeroboam and the whole assembly of Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying,

[4]“Your father made our yoke heavy; now therefore, lighten the burdensome service of your father, and his heavy yoke which he put on us, and we will serve you.”

[5]So he said to them, “Depart for three days, then come back to me.” And the people departed.

[6]Then King Rehoboam consulted the elders who stood before his father Solomon while he still lived, and he said, “How do you advise me to answer these people?”

[7]And they spoke to him, saying, “If you will be a servant to these people today, and serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever.”

[8]But he rejected the advice which the elders had given him, and consulted the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him.

[9]And he said to them, “What advice do you give? How should we answer this people who have spoken to me, saying, ‘Lighten the yoke which your father put on us’?”

[10]Then the young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, “Thus you should speak to this people who have spoken to you, saying, ‘Your father made our yoke heavy, but you make it lighter on us’—thus you shall say to them: ‘My little finger shall be thicker than my father’s waist!

[11]‘And now, whereas my father put a heavy yoke on you, I will add to your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you

with scourges!' "

12So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had directed, saying, "Come back to me the third day."

13Then the king answered the people roughly, and rejected the advice which the elders had given him;

14and he spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scourges!"

15So the king did not listen to the people; for the turn of events was from the LORD, that He might fulfill His word, which the LORD had spoken by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16Now when all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered the king, saying:

"What share have we in David?
We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse.
To your tents, O Israel!
Now, see to your own house, O David!"

So Israel departed to their tents.

17But Rehoboam reigned over the children of Israel who dwelt in the cities of Judah.

18Then King Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was in charge of the revenue; but all Israel stoned him with stones, and he died. Therefore King Rehoboam mounted his chariot in haste to flee to Jerusalem.

19So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

20Now it came to pass when all Israel heard that Jeroboam had come back, they sent for him and called him to the congregation, and made him king over all Israel. There was none who followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only.

21And when Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah with the tribe of Benjamin, one hundred and eighty thousand chosen men who were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, that he might restore the kingdom to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.

[22]But the word of God came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

[23]“Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, to all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people, saying,

[24]‘Thus says the LORD: “You shall not go up nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel. Let every man return to his house, for this thing is from Me.” ’ ” Therefore they obeyed the word of the LORD, and turned back, according to the word of the LORD.

Jeroboam’s Gold Calves

[25]Then Jeroboam built Shechem in the mountains of Ephraim, and dwelt there. Also he went out from there and built Penuel.

[26]And Jeroboam said in his heart, “Now the kingdom may return to the house of David:

[27]“If these people go up to offer sacrifices in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then the heart of this people will turn back to their lord, Rehoboam king of Judah, and they will kill me and go back to Rehoboam king of Judah.”

[28]Therefore the king asked advice, made two calves of gold, and said to the people, “It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem. Here are your gods, O Israel, which brought you up from the land of Egypt!”

[29]And he set up one in Bethel, and the other he put in Dan.

[30]Now this thing became a sin, for the people went to worship before the one as far as Dan.

[31]He made shrines on the high places, and made priests from every class of people, who were not of the sons of Levi.

[32]Jeroboam ordained a feast on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, like the feast that was in Judah, and offered sacrifices on the altar. So he did at Bethel, sacrificing to the calves that he had made. And at Bethel he installed the priests of the high places which he had made.

[33]So he made offerings on the altar which he had made at Bethel on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, in the month which he had devised in his own heart. And he ordained a feast for the children of Israel, and offered sacrifices on the altar and burned incense.

1 Kings 13

The Message of the Man of God

[1]And behold, a man of God went from Judah to Bethel by the word of the LORD, and Jeroboam stood by the altar to burn incense.

[2]Then he cried out against the altar by the word of the LORD, and said, "O altar, altar! Thus says the LORD: 'Behold, a child, Josiah by name, shall be born to the house of David; and on you he shall sacrifice the priests of the high places who burn incense on you, and men's bones shall be burned on you.' "

[3]And he gave a sign the same day, saying, "This is the sign which the LORD has spoken: Surely the altar shall split apart, and the ashes on it shall be poured out."

[4]So it came to pass when King Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of God, who cried out against the altar in Bethel, that he stretched out his hand from the altar, saying, "Arrest him!" Then his hand, which he stretched out toward him, withered, so that he could not pull it back to himself.

[5]The altar also was split apart, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD.

[6]Then the king answered and said to the man of God, "Please entreat the favor of the LORD your God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored to me." So the man of God entreated the LORD, and the king's hand was restored to him, and became as before.

[7]Then the king said to the man of God, "Come home with me and refresh yourself, and I will give you a reward."

[8]But the man of God said to the king, "If you were to give me half your house, I would not go in with you; nor would I eat bread nor drink water in this place.

[9]"For so it was commanded me by the word of the LORD, saying, 'You shall not eat bread, nor drink water, nor return by the same way you came.' "

[10]So he went another way and did not return by the way he came to Bethel.

Death of the Man of God

[11]Now an old prophet dwelt in Bethel, and his sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Bethel; they also told their father the words which he had spoken to the king.

[12]And their father said to them, “Which way did he go?” For his sons had seen which way the man of God went who came from Judah.

[13]Then he said to his sons, “Saddle the donkey for me.” So they saddled the donkey for him; and he rode on it,

[14]and went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak. Then he said to him, “Are you the man of God who came from Judah?” And he said, “I am.”

[15]Then he said to him, “Come home with me and eat bread.”

[16]And he said, “I cannot return with you nor go in with you; neither can I eat bread nor drink water with you in this place.

[17]“For I have been told by the word of the LORD, ‘You shall not eat bread nor drink water there, nor return by going the way you came.’ ”

[18]He said to him, “I too am a prophet as you are, and an angel spoke to me by the word of the LORD, saying, ‘Bring him back with you to your house, that he may eat bread and drink water.’ ” (He was lying to him.)

[19]So he went back with him, and ate bread in his house, and drank water.

[20]Now it happened, as they sat at the table, that the word of the LORD came to the prophet who had brought him back;

[21]and he cried out to the man of God who came from Judah, saying, “Thus says the LORD: ‘Because you have disobeyed the word of the LORD, and have not kept the commandment which the LORD your God commanded you,

[22]‘but you came back, ate bread, and drank water in the place of which the LORD said to you, “Eat no bread and drink no water,” your corpse shall not come to the tomb of your fathers.’ ”

23So it was, after he had eaten bread and after he had drunk, that he saddled the donkey for him, the prophet whom he had brought back.

24When he was gone, a lion met him on the road and killed him. And his corpse was thrown on the road, and the donkey stood by it. The lion also stood by the corpse.

25And there, men passed by and saw the corpse thrown on the road, and the lion standing by the corpse. Then they went and told it in the city where the old prophet dwelt.

26Now when the prophet who had brought him back from the way heard it, he said, “It is the man of God who was disobedient to the word of the LORD. Therefore the LORD has delivered him to the lion, which has torn him and killed him, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke to him.”

27And he spoke to his sons, saying, “Saddle the donkey for me.” So they saddled it.

28Then he went and found his corpse thrown on the road, and the donkey and the lion standing by the corpse. The lion had not eaten the corpse nor torn the donkey.

29And the prophet took up the corpse of the man of God, laid it on the donkey, and brought it back. So the old prophet came to the city to mourn, and to bury him.

30Then he laid the corpse in his own tomb; and they mourned over him, saying, “Alas, my brother!”

31So it was, after he had buried him, that he spoke to his sons, saying, “When I am dead, then bury me in the tomb where the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones.

32“For the saying which he cried out by the word of the LORD against the altar in Bethel, and against all the shrines on the high places which are in the cities of Samaria, will surely come to pass.”

33After this event Jeroboam did not turn from his evil way, but again he made priests from every class of people for the high places; whoever wished, he consecrated him, and he became one of the priests of the high places.

34And this thing was the sin of the house of Jeroboam, so as to exterminate and destroy it from the face of the earth.

1 Kings 14

Judgment on the House of Jeroboam

[1]At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam became sick.

[2]And Jeroboam said to his wife, “Please arise, and disguise yourself, that they may not recognize you as the wife of Jeroboam, and go to Shiloh. Indeed, Ahijah the prophet is there, who told me that I would be king over this people.

[3]“Also take with you ten loaves, some cakes, and a jar of honey, and go to him; he will tell you what will become of the child.”

[4]And Jeroboam’s wife did so; she arose and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. But Ahijah could not see, for his eyes were glazed by reason of his age.

[5]Now the LORD had said to Ahijah, “Here is the wife of Jeroboam, coming to ask you something about her son, for he is sick. Thus and thus you shall say to her; for it will be, when she comes in, that she will pretend to be another woman.”

[6]And so it was, when Ahijah heard the sound of her footsteps as she came through the door, he said, “Come in, wife of Jeroboam. Why do you pretend to be another person? For I have been sent to you with bad news.

[7]“Go, tell Jeroboam, ‘Thus says the LORD God of Israel: “Because I exalted you from among the people, and made you ruler over My people Israel,

[8]“and tore the kingdom away from the house of David, and gave it to you; and yet you have not been as My servant David, who kept My commandments and who followed Me with all his heart, to do only what was right in My eyes;

[9]“but you have done more evil than all who were before you, for you have gone and made for yourself other gods and molded images to provoke Me to anger, and have cast Me behind your back—

[10]“therefore behold! I will bring disaster on the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam every male in Israel, bond and free; I will take away the remnant of the house of Jeroboam, as one takes away refuse until it is all gone.

[11]“The dogs shall eat whoever belongs to Jeroboam and dies in the city, and the birds of the air shall eat whoever dies in the field; for the LORD has spoken!” ’

[12]“Arise therefore, go to your own house. When your feet enter the city, the child shall die.

[13]“And all Israel shall mourn for him and bury him, for he is the only one of Jeroboam who shall come to the grave, because in him there is found something good toward the LORD God of Israel in the house of Jeroboam.

[14]“Moreover the LORD will raise up for Himself a king over Israel who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam; this is the day. What? Even now!

[15]“For the LORD will strike Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water. He will uproot Israel from this good land which He gave to their fathers, and will scatter them beyond the River, because they have made their wooden images, provoking the LORD to anger.

[16]“And He will give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, who sinned and who made Israel sin.”

[17]Then Jeroboam’s wife arose and departed, and came to Tirzah. When she came to the threshold of the house, the child died.

[18]And they buried him; and all Israel mourned for him, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke through His servant Ahijah the prophet.

Death of Jeroboam

[19]Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he made war and how he reigned, indeed they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

[20]The period that Jeroboam reigned was twenty-two years. So he rested with his fathers. Then Nadab his son reigned in his place.

Rehoboam Reigns in Judah

21And Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king. He reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put His name there. His mother’s name was Naamah, an Ammonitess.

22Now Judah did evil in the sight of the LORD, and they provoked Him to jealousy with their sins which they committed, more than all that their fathers had done.

23For they also built for themselves high places, sacred pillars, and wooden images on every high hill and under every green tree.

24And there were also perverted persons in the land. They did according to all the abominations of the nations which the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

25It happened in the fifth year of King Rehoboam that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem.

26And he took away the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king’s house; he took away everything. He also took away all the gold shields which Solomon had made.

27Then King Rehoboam made bronze shields in their place, and committed them to the hands of the captains of the guard, who guarded the doorway of the king’s house.

28And whenever the king entered the house of the LORD, the guards carried them, then brought them back into the guardroom.

29Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

30And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days.

31So Rehoboam rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. His mother’s name was Naamah, an Ammonitess. Then Abijam his son reigned in his place.

1 Kings 15

Abijam Reigns in Judah

[1]In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam the son of Nebat, Abijam became king over Judah.

[2]He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Maachah the granddaughter of Abishalom.

[3]And he walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him; his heart was not loyal to the LORD his God, as was the heart of his father David.

[4]Nevertheless for David's sake the LORD his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, by setting up his son after him and by establishing Jerusalem;

[5]because David did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, and had not turned aside from anything that He commanded him all the days of his life, except in the matter of Uriah the Hittite.

[6]And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life.

[7]Now the rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam.

[8]So Abijam rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David. Then Asa his son reigned in his place.

Asa Reigns in Judah

[9]In the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Asa became king over Judah.

[10]And he reigned forty-one years in Jerusalem. His grandmother's name was Maachah the granddaughter of Abishalom.

[11]Asa did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, as did his father David.

[12]And he banished the perverted persons from the land, and removed all the idols that his fathers had made.

[13]Also he removed Maachah his grandmother from being queen mother, because she had made an obscene image of Asherah. And Asa cut down her obscene image and burned it by the Brook Kidron.

[14]But the high places were not removed. Nevertheless Asa's heart was loyal to the LORD all his days.

[15]He also brought into the house of the LORD the things which his father had dedicated, and the things which he himself had dedicated: silver and gold and utensils.

[16]Now there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

[17]And Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

[18]Then Asa took all the silver and gold that was left in the treasuries of the house of the LORD and the treasuries of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants. And King Asa sent them to Ben-Hadad the son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, who dwelt in Damascus, saying,

[19]"Let there be a treaty between you and me, as there was between my father and your father. See, I have sent you a present of silver and gold. Come and break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, so that he will withdraw from me."

[20]So Ben-Hadad heeded King Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel. He attacked Ijon, Dan, Abel Beth Maachah, and all Chinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali.

[21]Now it happened, when Baasha heard it, that he stopped building Ramah, and remained in Tirzah.

[22]Then King Asa made a proclamation throughout all Judah; none was exempted. And they took away the stones and timber of Ramah, which Baasha had used for building; and with them King Asa built Geba of Benjamin, and Mizpah.

[23]The rest of all the acts of Asa, all his might, all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? But in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet.

[24]So Asa rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David his father. Then Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place.

Nadab Reigns in Israel

[25]Now Nadab the son of Jeroboam became king over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and he reigned over Israel two years.

[26]And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin by which he had made Israel sin.

[27]Then Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him. And Baasha killed him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines, while Nadab and all Israel laid siege to Gibbethon.

[28]Baasha killed him in the third year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his place.

[29]And it was so, when he became king, that he killed all the house of Jeroboam. He did not leave to Jeroboam anyone that breathed, until he had destroyed him, according to the word of the LORD which He had spoken by His servant Ahijah the Shilonite,

[30]because of the sins of Jeroboam, which he had sinned and by which he had made Israel sin, because of his provocation with which he had provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger.

[31]Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

[32]And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

Baasha Reigns in Israel

[33]In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha the son of Ahijah became king over all Israel in Tirzah, and reigned twenty-four years.

[34]He did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin by which he had made Israel sin.

1 Kings 16

[1]Then the word of the LORD came to Jehu the son of Hanani, against Baasha, saying:

[2]"Inasmuch as I lifted you out of the dust and made you ruler over My people Israel, and you have walked in the way of Jeroboam, and have made My people Israel sin, to provoke Me to anger with their sins,

[3]"surely I will take away the posterity of Baasha and the posterity of his house, and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

[4]"The dogs shall eat whoever belongs to Baasha and dies in the city, and the birds of the air shall eat whoever dies in the fields."

[5]Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, what he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

[6]So Baasha rested with his fathers and was buried in Tirzah. Then Elah his son reigned in his place.

[7]And also the word of the LORD came by the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha and his house, because of all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD in provoking Him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam, and because he killed them.

Elah Reigns in Israel

[8]In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah the son of Baasha became king over Israel, and reigned two years in Tirzah.

[9]Now his servant Zimri, commander of half his chariots, conspired against him as he was in Tirzah drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, steward of his house in Tirzah.

[10]And Zimri went in and struck him and killed him in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his place.

[11]Then it came to pass, when he began to reign, as soon as he was seated on his throne, that he killed all the household of Baasha; he did not leave him one male, neither of his relatives nor of his friends.

[12]Thus Zimri destroyed all the household of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD, which He spoke against Baasha by Jehu the prophet,

[13]for all the sins of Baasha and the sins of Elah his son, by which they had sinned and by which they had made Israel sin, in provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their idols.

[14]Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

Zimri Reigns in Israel

[15]In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri had reigned in Tirzah seven days. And the people were encamped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines.

[16]Now the people who were encamped heard it said, “Zimri has conspired and also has killed the king.” So all Israel made Omri, the commander of the army, king over Israel that day in the camp.

[17]Then Omri and all Israel with him went up from Gibbethon, and they besieged Tirzah.

[18]And it happened, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the citadel of the king’s house and burned the king’s house down upon himself with fire, and died,

[19]because of the sins which he had committed in doing evil in the sight of the LORD, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he had committed to make Israel sin.

[20]Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and the treason he committed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

Omri Reigns in Israel

[21]Then the people of Israel were divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king, and half followed Omri.

[22]But the people who followed Omri prevailed over the people who followed Tibni the son of Ginath. So Tibni died and Omri reigned.

[23]In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri became king over Israel, and reigned twelve years. Six years he reigned in Tirzah.

[24]And he bought the hill of Samaria from Shemer for two talents of silver; then he built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, Samaria, after the name of Shemer, owner of the hill.

[25]Omri did evil in the eyes of the LORD, and did worse than all who were before him.

[26]For he walked in all the ways of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sin by which he had made Israel sin, provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their idols.

[27]Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and the might that he showed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

[28]So Omri rested with his fathers and was buried in Samaria. Then Ahab his son reigned in his place.

Ahab Reigns in Israel

[29]In the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah, Ahab the son of Omri became king over Israel; and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years.

[30]Now Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD, more than all who were before him.

[31]And it came to pass, as though it had been a trivial thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took as wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal, king of the Sidonians; and he went and served Baal and worshiped him.

[32]Then he set up an altar for Baal in the temple of Baal, which he had built in Samaria.

[33]And Ahab made a wooden image. Ahab did more to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger than all the kings of Israel who were before him.

[34]In his days Hiel of Bethel built Jericho. He laid its foundation with Abiram his firstborn, and with his youngest son Segub he set up its gates, according to the word of the LORD, which He had spoken through Joshua the son of Nun.

1 Kings 17

Elijah Proclaims a Drought

[1]And Elijah the Tishbite, of the inhabitants of Gilead, said to Ahab, "As the LORD God of Israel lives, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, except at my word."

[2]Then the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

[3]"Get away from here and turn eastward, and hide by the Brook Cherith, which flows into the Jordan.

[4]"And it will be that you shall drink from the brook, and I have commanded the ravens to feed you there."

[5]So he went and did according to the word of the LORD, for he went and stayed by the Brook Cherith, which flows into the Jordan.

[6]The ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning, and bread and meat in the evening; and he drank from the brook.

[7]And it happened after a while that the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land.

Elijah and the Widow

[8]Then the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

[9]"Arise, go to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and dwell there. See, I have commanded a widow there to provide for you."

[10]So he arose and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, indeed a widow was there gathering sticks. And he called to her and said, "Please bring me a little water in a cup, that I may drink."

[11]And as she was going to get it, he called to her and said, "Please bring me a morsel of bread in your hand."

[12]So she said, "As the LORD your God lives, I do not have bread, only a handful of flour in a bin, and a little oil in a jar; and see, I am gathering a couple of sticks that I may go in and prepare it for myself and my son, that we may eat it, and die."

[13]And Elijah said to her, "Do not fear; go and do as you have said, but make me a small cake from it first, and bring it to me; and afterward make some for yourself and your son.

[14]"For thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'The bin of flour shall not be used up, nor shall the jar of oil run dry, until the day the LORD sends rain on the earth.' "

[15]So she went away and did according to the word of Elijah; and she and he and her household ate for many days.

[16]The bin of flour was not used up, nor did the jar of oil run dry, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke by Elijah.

Elijah Revives the Widow's Son

[17]Now it happened after these things that the son of the woman who owned the house became sick. And his sickness was so serious that there was no breath left in him.

[18]So she said to Elijah, "What have I to do with you, O man of God? Have you come to me to bring my sin to remembrance, and to kill my son?"

[19]And he said to her, "Give me your son." So he took him out of her arms and carried him to the upper room where he was staying, and laid him on his own bed.

[20]Then he cried out to the LORD and said, "O LORD my God, have You also brought tragedy on the widow with whom I lodge, by killing her son?"

[21]And he stretched himself out on the child three times, and cried out to the LORD and said, "O LORD my God, I pray, let this child's soul come back to him."

[22]Then the LORD heard the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came back to him, and he revived.

[23]And Elijah took the child and brought him down from the upper room into the house, and gave him to his mother. And Elijah said, "See, your son lives!"

[24]Then the woman said to Elijah, "Now by this I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in your mouth is the truth."

1 Kings 18

Elijah's Message to Ahab

[1]And it came to pass after many days that the word of the LORD came to Elijah, in the third year, saying, "Go, present yourself to Ahab, and I will send rain on the earth."

[2]So Elijah went to present himself to Ahab; and there was a severe famine in Samaria.

[3]And Ahab had called Obadiah, who was in charge of his house. (Now Obadiah feared the LORD greatly.

[4]For so it was, while Jezebel massacred the prophets of the LORD, that Obadiah had taken one hundred prophets and hidden them, fifty to a cave, and had fed them with bread and water.)

[5]And Ahab had said to Obadiah, "Go into the land to all the springs of water and to all the brooks; perhaps we may find grass to keep the horses and mules alive, so that we will not have to kill any livestock."

[6]So they divided the land between them to explore it; Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.

[7]Now as Obadiah was on his way, suddenly Elijah met him; and he recognized him, and fell on his face, and said, "Is that you, my lord Elijah?"

[8]And he answered him, "It is I. Go, tell your master, 'Elijah is here.' "

[9]So he said, "How have I sinned, that you are delivering your servant into the hand of Ahab, to kill me?

[10]"As the LORD your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom where my master has not sent someone to hunt for you; and when they said, 'He is not here,' he took an oath from the kingdom or nation that they could not find you.

[12]"And it shall come to pass, as soon as I am gone from you, that the Spirit of the LORD will carry you to a place I do not know; so when I go and tell Ahab, and he cannot find you, he will kill me. But I your servant have feared the LORD from my youth.

[13]"Was it not reported to my lord what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of the LORD, how I hid one hundred men of the LORD's prophets, fifty to a cave, and fed them with bread and water?

[14]"And now you say, 'Go, tell your master, "Elijah is here." ' He will kill me!"

[15]Then Elijah said, "As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, I will surely present myself to him today."

[16]So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him; and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

[17]Then it happened, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said to him, "Is that you, O troubler of Israel?"

[18]And he answered, "I have not troubled Israel, but you and your father's house have, in that you have forsaken the commandments of the LORD and have followed the Baals.

[19]"Now therefore, send and gather all Israel to me on Mount Carmel, the four hundred and fifty prophets of Baal, and the four hundred prophets of Asherah, who eat at Jezebel's table."

Elijah's Mount Carmel Victory

[20]So Ahab sent for all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together on Mount Carmel.

[21]And Elijah came to all the people, and said, "How long will you falter between two opinions? If the LORD is God, follow Him; but if Baal, follow him." But the people answered him not a word.

[22]Then Elijah said to the people, "I alone am left a prophet of the LORD; but Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men.

[23]"Therefore let them give us two bulls; and let them choose one bull for themselves, cut it in pieces, and lay it on the wood, but put no fire under it; and I will prepare the other bull, and lay it on the wood, but put no fire under it.

[24]"Then you call on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the LORD; and the God who answers by fire, He is God." So all the people answered and said, "It is well spoken."

[25]Now Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, "Choose one bull for yourselves and prepare it first, for you are many; and call on the name of your god, but put no fire under it."

[26]So they took the bull which was given them, and they prepared it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even till noon, saying, "O Baal, hear us!" But there was no voice; no one answered. Then they leaped about the altar which they had made.

[27]And so it was, at noon, that Elijah mocked them and said, "Cry aloud, for he is a god; either he is meditating, or he is busy, or he is on a journey, or perhaps he is sleeping and must be awakened."

[28]So they cried aloud, and cut themselves, as was their custom, with knives and lances, until the blood gushed out on them.

[29]And when midday was past, they prophesied until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice. But there was no voice; no one answered, no one paid attention.

[30]Then Elijah said to all the people, "Come near to me." So all the people came near to him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down.

[31]And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD had come, saying, "Israel shall be your name."

[32]Then with the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD; and he made a trench around the altar large enough to hold two seahs of seed.

[33]And he put the wood in order, cut the bull in pieces, and laid it on the wood, and said, "Fill four waterpots with water, and pour it on the burnt sacrifice and on the wood."

[34]Then he said, "Do it a second time," and they did it a second time; and he said, "Do it a third time," and they did it a third time.

[35]So the water ran all around the altar; and he also filled the trench with water.

[36]And it came to pass, at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near and said, "LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, let it be known this day that You are God in Israel and I am Your servant, and that I have done all these things at Your word.

[37]“Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that You are the LORD God, and that You have turned their hearts back to You again.”

[38]Then the fire of the LORD fell and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood and the stones and the dust, and it licked up the water that was in the trench.

[39]Now when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces; and they said, “The LORD, He is God! The LORD, He is God!”

[40]And Elijah said to them, “Seize the prophets of Baal! Do not let one of them escape!” So they seized them; and Elijah brought them down to the Brook Kishon and executed them there.

The Drought Ends

[41]Then Elijah said to Ahab, “Go up, eat and drink; for there is the sound of abundance of rain.”

[42]So Ahab went up to eat and drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; then he bowed down on the ground, and put his face between his knees,

[43]and said to his servant, “Go up now, look toward the sea.” So he went up and looked, and said, “There is nothing.” And seven times he said, “Go again.”

[44]Then it came to pass the seventh time, that he said, “There is a cloud, as small as a man’s hand, rising out of the sea!” So he said, “Go up, say to Ahab, ‘Prepare your chariot, and go down before the rain stops you.’ ”

[45]Now it happened in the meantime that the sky became black with clouds and wind, and there was a heavy rain. So Ahab rode away and went to Jezreel.

[46]Then the hand of the LORD came upon Elijah; and he girded up his loins and ran ahead of Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

1 Kings 19

Elijah Escapes from Jezebel

[1]And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, also how he had executed all the prophets with the sword.

[2]Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, ���So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I do not make your life as the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time.”

[3]And when he saw that, he arose and ran for his life, and went to Beersheba, which belongs to Judah, and left his servant there.

[4]But he himself went a day’s journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a broom tree. And he prayed that he might die, and said, “It is enough! Now, LORD, take my life, for I am no better than my fathers!”

[5]Then as he lay and slept under a broom tree, suddenly an angel touched him, and said to him, “Arise and eat.”

[6]Then he looked, and there by his head was a cake baked on coals, and a jar of water. So he ate and drank, and lay down again.

[7]And the angel of the LORD came back the second time, and touched him, and said, “Arise and eat, because the journey is too great for you.”

[8]So he arose, and ate and drank; and he went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights as far as Horeb, the mountain of God.

[9]And there he went into a cave, and spent the night in that place; and behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and He said to him, “What are you doing here, Elijah?”

[10]So he said, “I have been very zealous for the LORD God of hosts; for the children of Israel have forsaken Your covenant, torn down Your altars, and killed Your prophets with the sword. I alone am left; and they seek to take my life.”

God’s Revelation to Elijah

[11]Then He said, “Go out, and stand on the mountain before the LORD.” And behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind tore into the mountains and broke the rocks in pieces before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake;

[12]and after the earthquake a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire; and after the fire a still small voice.

[13]So it was, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood in the entrance of the cave. Suddenly a voice came to him, and said, “What are you doing here, Elijah?”

[14]And he said, “I have been very zealous for the LORD God of hosts; because the children of Israel have forsaken Your covenant, torn down Your altars, and killed Your prophets with the sword. I alone am left; and they seek to take my life.”

[15]Then the LORD said to him: “Go, return on your way to the Wilderness of Damascus; and when you arrive, anoint Hazael as king over Syria.

[16]“Also you shall anoint Jehu the son of Nimshi as king over Israel. And Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel Meholah you shall anoint as prophet in your place.

[17]“It shall be that whoever escapes the sword of Hazael, Jehu will kill; and whoever escapes the sword of Jehu, Elisha will kill.

[18]“Yet I have reserved seven thousand in Israel, all whose knees have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth that has not kissed him.”

Elisha Follows Elijah

[19]So he departed from there, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he was with the twelfth. Then Elijah passed by him and threw his mantle on him.

[20]And he left the oxen and ran after Elijah, and said, “Please let me kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you.” And he said to him, “Go back again, for what have I done to you?”

[21]So Elisha turned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen and slaughtered them and boiled their flesh, using the oxen’s equipment, and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he arose and followed Elijah, and became his servant.

1 Kings 20

Ahab Defeats the Syrians

[1]Now Ben-Hadad the king of Syria gathered all his forces together; thirty-two kings were with him, with horses and chariots. And he went up and besieged Samaria, and made war against it.

[2]Then he sent messengers into the city to Ahab king of Israel, and said to him, “Thus says Ben-Hadad:

[3]‘Your silver and your gold are mine; your loveliest wives and children are mine.’ ”

[4]And the king of Israel answered and said, “My lord, O king, just as you say, I and all that I have are yours.”

[5]Then the messengers came back and said, “Thus speaks Ben-Hadad, saying, ‘Indeed I have sent to you, saying, “You shall deliver to me your silver and your gold, your wives and your children”;

[6]‘but I will send my servants to you tomorrow about this time, and they shall search your house and the houses of your servants. And it shall be, that whatever is pleasant in your eyes, they will put in their hands and take it.’ ”

[7]So the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, “Notice, please, and see how this man seeks trouble, for he sent to me for my wives, my children, my silver, and my gold; and I did not deny him.”

[8]And all the elders and all the people said to him, “Do not listen or consent.”

[9]Therefore he said to the messengers of Ben-Hadad, “Tell my lord the king, ‘All that you sent for to your servant the first time I will do, but this thing I cannot do.’ ” And the messengers departed and brought back word to him.

[10]Then Ben-Hadad sent to him and said, “The gods do so to me, and more also, if enough dust is left of Samaria for a handful for each of the people who follow me.”

[11]So the king of Israel answered and said, “Tell him, ‘Let not the one who puts on his armor boast like the one who takes it off.’ ”

[12]And it happened when Ben-Hadad heard this message, as he and the kings were drinking at the command post, that he said to his servants, “Get ready.” And they got ready to attack the city.

[13]Suddenly a prophet approached Ahab king of Israel, saying, “Thus says the LORD: ‘Have you seen all this great multitude? Behold, I will deliver it into your hand today, and you shall know that I am the LORD.’ ”

[14]So Ahab said, “By whom?” And he said, “Thus says the LORD: ‘By the young leaders of the provinces.’ ” Then he said, “Who will set the battle in order?” And he answered, “You.”

[15]Then he mustered the young leaders of the provinces, and there were two hundred and thirty-two; and after them he mustered all the people, all the children of Israel—seven thousand.

[16]So they went out at noon. Meanwhile Ben-Hadad and the thirty-two kings helping him were getting drunk at the command post.

[17]The young leaders of the provinces went out first. And Ben-Hadad sent out a patrol, and they told him, saying, “Men are coming out of Samaria!”

[18]So he said, “If they have come out for peace, take them alive; and if they have come out for war, take them alive.”

[19]Then these young leaders of the provinces went out of the city with the army which followed them.

[20]And each one killed his man; so the Syrians fled, and Israel pursued them; and Ben-Hadad the king of Syria escaped on a horse with the cavalry.

[21]Then the king of Israel went out and attacked the horses and chariots, and killed the Syrians with a great slaughter.

[22]And the prophet came to the king of Israel and said to him, “Go, strengthen yourself; take note, and see what you should do, for in the spring of the year the king of Syria will come up against you.”

The Syrians Again Defeated

[23]Then the servants of the king of Syria said to him, “Their gods are gods of the hills. Therefore they were stronger than we; but if we fight against them in the plain, surely we will be stronger than they.

[24]“So do this thing: Dismiss the kings, each from his position, and put captains in their places;

[25]“and you shall muster an army like the army that you have lost, horse for horse and chariot for chariot. Then we will fight against them in the plain; surely we will be stronger than they.” And he listened to their voice and did so.

[26]So it was, in the spring of the year, that Ben-Hadad mustered the Syrians and went up to Aphek to fight against Israel.

[27]And the children of Israel were mustered and given provisions, and they went against them. Now the children of Israel encamped before them like two little flocks of goats, while the Syrians filled the countryside.

[28]Then a man of God came and spoke to the king of Israel, and said, “Thus says the LORD: ‘Because the Syrians have said, “The LORD is God of the hills, but He is not God of the valleys,” therefore I will deliver all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am the LORD.’ ”

[29]And they encamped opposite each other for seven days. So it was that on the seventh day the battle was joined; and the children of Israel killed one hundred thousand foot soldiers of the Syrians in one day.

[30]But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; then a wall fell on twenty-seven thousand of the men who were left. And Ben-Hadad fled and went into the city, into an inner chamber.

Ahab’s Treaty with Ben-Hadad

[31]Then his servants said to him, “Look now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings. Please, let us put sackcloth around our waists and ropes around our heads, and go out to the king of Israel; perhaps he will spare your life.”

[32]So they wore sackcloth around their waists and put ropes around their heads, and came to the king of Israel and said, “Your servant Ben-Hadad says, ‘Please let me live.’ ” And he said, “Is he still alive? He is my brother.”

[33]Now the men were watching closely to see whether any sign of mercy would come from him; and they quickly grasped at this word and said, “Your brother Ben-Hadad.” So he said, “Go, bring him.” Then Ben-Hadad came out to him; and he had him come up into the chariot.

[34]So Ben-Hadad said to him, “The cities which my father took from your father I will restore; and you may set up marketplaces for yourself in Damascus, as my father did in Samaria.” Then Ahab said, “I will send you away with this treaty.” So he made a treaty with him and sent him away.

Ahab Condemned

[35]Now a certain man of the sons of the prophets said to his neighbor by the word of the LORD, “Strike me, please.” And the man refused to strike him.

[36]Then he said to him, “Because you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, surely, as soon as you depart from me, a lion shall kill you.” And as soon as he left him, a lion found him and killed him.

[37]And he found another man, and said, “Strike me, please.” So the man struck him, inflicting a wound.

[38]Then the prophet departed and waited for the king by the road, and disguised himself with a bandage over his eyes.

[39]Now as the king passed by, he cried out to the king and said, “Your servant went out into the midst of the battle; and there, a man came over and brought a man to me, and said, ‘Guard this man; if by any means he is missing, your life shall be for his life, or else you shall pay a talent of silver.’

[40]“While your servant was busy here and there, he was gone.” Then the king of Israel said to him, “So shall your judgment be; you yourself have decided it.”

[41]And he hastened to take the bandage away from his eyes; and the king of Israel recognized him as one of the prophets.

[42]Then he said to him, “Thus says the LORD: ‘Because you have let slip out of your hand a man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore your life shall go for his life, and your people for his people.’ ”

[43]So the king of Israel went to his house sullen and displeased, and came to Samaria.

1 Kings 21

Naboth Is Murdered for His Vineyard

[1]And it came to pass after these things that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard which was in Jezreel, next to the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.

[2]So Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, "Give me your vineyard, that I may have it for a vegetable garden, because it is near, next to my house; and for it I will give you a vineyard better than it. Or, if it seems good to you, I will give you its worth in money."

[3]But Naboth said to Ahab, "The LORD forbid that I should give the inheritance of my fathers to you!"

[4]So Ahab went into his house sullen and displeased because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him; for he had said, "I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers." And he lay down on his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no food.

[5]But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said to him, "Why is your spirit so sullen that you eat no food?"

[6]He said to her, "Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite, and said to him, 'Give me your vineyard for money; or else, if it pleases you, I will give you another vineyard for it.' And he answered, 'I will not give you my vineyard.' "

[7]Then Jezebel his wife said to him, "You now exercise authority over Israel! Arise, eat food, and let your heart be cheerful; I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite."

[8]And she wrote letters in Ahab's name, sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters to the elders and the nobles who were dwelling in the city with Naboth.

[9]She wrote in the letters, saying,

> Proclaim a fast, and seat Naboth with high honor among the people; [10]and seat two men, scoundrels, before him to bear witness against him, saying, "You have blasphemed God and the king." Then take him out, and stone him, that he may die.

11So the men of his city, the elders and nobles who were inhabitants of his city, did as Jezebel had sent to them, as it was written in the letters which she had sent to them.

12They proclaimed a fast, and seated Naboth with high honor among the people.

13And two men, scoundrels, came in and sat before him; and the scoundrels witnessed against him, against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, "Naboth has blasphemed God and the king!" Then they took him outside the city and stoned him with stones, so that he died.

14Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, "Naboth has been stoned and is dead."

15And it came to pass, when Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, "Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give you for money; for Naboth is not alive, but dead."

16So it was, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab got up and went down to take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.

The LORD Condemns Ahab

17Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

18"Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, who lives in Samaria. There he is, in the vineyard of Naboth, where he has gone down to take possession of it.

19"You shall speak to him, saying, 'Thus says the LORD: "Have you murdered and also taken possession?" ' And you shall speak to him, saying, 'Thus says the LORD: "In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth, dogs shall lick your blood, even yours." ' "

20So Ahab said to Elijah, "Have you found me, O my enemy?" And he answered, "I have found you, because you have sold yourself to do evil in the sight of the LORD:

21'Behold, I will bring calamity on you. I will take away your posterity, and will cut off from Ahab every male in Israel, both bond and free.

[22]‘I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, because of the provocation with which you have provoked Me to anger, and made Israel sin.’

[23]“And concerning Jezebel the LORD also spoke, saying, ‘The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel.’

[24]“The dogs shall eat whoever belongs to Ahab and dies in the city, and the birds of the air shall eat whoever dies in the field.”

[25]But there was no one like Ahab who sold himself to do wickedness in the sight of the LORD, because Jezebel his wife stirred him up.

[26]And he behaved very abominably in following idols, according to all that the Amorites had done, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

[27]So it was, when Ahab heard those words, that he tore his clothes and put sackcloth on his body, and fasted and lay in sackcloth, and went about mourning.

[28]And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

[29]“See how Ahab has humbled himself before Me? Because he has humbled himself before Me, I will not bring the calamity in his days. In the days of his son I will bring the calamity on his house.”

1 Kings 22

Micaiah Warns Ahab

[1]Now three years passed without war between Syria and Israel.

[2]Then it came to pass, in the third year, that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went down to visit the king of Israel.

[3]And the king of Israel said to his servants, “Do you know that Ramoth in Gilead is ours, but we hesitate to take it out of the hand of the king of Syria?”

[4]So he said to Jehoshaphat, “Will you go with me to fight at Ramoth Gilead?” Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, “I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses.”

[5]Also Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, “Please inquire for the word of the LORD today.”

[6]Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said to them, “Shall I go against Ramoth Gilead to fight, or shall I refrain?” So they said, “Go up, for the Lord will deliver it into the hand of the king.”

[7]And Jehoshaphat said, “Is there not still a prophet of the LORD here, that we may inquire of Him?”

[8]So the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “There is still one man, Micaiah the son of Imlah, by whom we may inquire of the LORD; but I hate him, because he does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil.” And Jehoshaphat said, “Let not the king say such things!”

[9]Then the king of Israel called an officer and said, “Bring Micaiah the son of Imlah quickly!”

[10]The king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, having put on their robes, sat each on his throne, at a threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them.

[11]Now Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made horns of iron for himself; and he said, “Thus says the LORD: ‘With these you shall gore the Syrians until they are destroyed.’ ”

[12]And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, “Go up to Ramoth Gilead and prosper, for the LORD will deliver it into the king’s hand.”

[13]Then the messenger who had gone to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, “Now listen, the words of the prophets with one accord encourage the king. Please, let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak encouragement.”

[14]And Micaiah said, “As the LORD lives, whatever the LORD says to me, that I will speak.”

[15]Then he came to the king; and the king said to him, “Micaiah, shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall we refrain?” And he answered him, “Go and prosper, for the LORD will deliver it into the hand of the king!”

[16]So the king said to him, “How many times shall I make you swear that you tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?”

[17]Then he said, “I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd. And the LORD said, ‘These have no master. Let each return to his house in peace.’ ”

[18]And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Did I not tell you he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?”

[19]Then Micaiah said, “Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, and all the host of heaven standing by, on His right hand and on His left.

[20]“And the LORD said, ‘Who will persuade Ahab to go up, that he may fall at Ramoth Gilead?’ So one spoke in this manner, and another spoke in that manner.

[21]“Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD, and said, ‘I will persuade him.’

[22]“The LORD said to him, ‘In what way?’ So he said, ‘I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.’ And the LORD said, ‘You shall persuade him, and also prevail. Go out and do so.’

[23]“Therefore look! The LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these prophets of yours, and the LORD has declared disaster against you.”

[24]Now Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, “Which way did the spirit from the LORD go from me to speak to you?”

[25]And Micaiah said, "Indeed, you shall see on that day when you go into an inner chamber to hide!"

[26]So the king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah, and return him to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king's son;

[27]"and say, 'Thus says the king: "Put this fellow in prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and water of affliction, until I come in peace." ' "

[28]But Micaiah said, "If you ever return in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me." And he said, "Take heed, all you people!"

Ahab Dies in Battle

[29]So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead.

[30]And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into battle; but you put on your robes." So the king of Israel disguised himself and went into battle.

[31]Now the king of Syria had commanded the thirty-two captains of his chariots, saying, "Fight with no one small or great, but only with the king of Israel."

[32]So it was, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, "Surely it is the king of Israel!" Therefore they turned aside to fight against him, and Jehoshaphat cried out.

[33]And it happened, when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.

[34]Now a certain man drew a bow at random, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of his armor. So he said to the driver of his chariot, "Turn around and take me out of the battle, for I am wounded."

[35]The battle increased that day; and the king was propped up in his chariot, facing the Syrians, and died at evening. The blood ran out from the wound onto the floor of the chariot.

[36]Then, as the sun was going down, a shout went throughout the army, saying, "Every man to his city, and every man to his own country!"

[37]So the king died, and was brought to Samaria. And they buried the king in Samaria.

[38]Then someone washed the chariot at a pool in Samaria, and the dogs licked up his blood while the harlots bathed, according to the word of the LORD which He had spoken.

[39]Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, the ivory house which he built and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

[40]So Ahab rested with his fathers. Then Ahaziah his son reigned in his place.

Jehoshaphat Reigns in Judah

[41]Jehoshaphat the son of Asa had become king over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel.

[42]Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

[43]And he walked in all the ways of his father Asa. He did not turn aside from them, doing what was right in the eyes of the LORD. Nevertheless the high places were not taken away, for the people offered sacrifices and burned incense on the high places.

[44]Also Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel.

[45]Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, the might that he showed, and how he made war, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

[46]And the rest of the perverted persons, who remained in the days of his father Asa, he banished from the land.

[47]There was then no king in Edom, only a deputy of the king.

[48]Jehoshaphat made merchant ships to go to Ophir for gold; but they never sailed, for the ships were wrecked at Ezion Geber.

[49]Then Ahaziah the son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Let my servants go with your servants in the ships." But Jehoshaphat would not.

[50]And Jehoshaphat rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David his father. Then Jehoram his son reigned in his place.

Ahaziah Reigns in Israel

51Ahaziah the son of Ahab became king over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned two years over Israel.

52He did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father and in the way of his mother and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin;

53for he served Baal and worshiped him, and provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger, according to all that his father had done.

The Second Book of the
Kings

2 Kings 1

God Judges Ahaziah

[1]Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab.

[2]Now Ahaziah fell through the lattice of his upper room in Samaria, and was injured; so he sent messengers and said to them, “Go, inquire of Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron, whether I shall recover from this injury.”

[3]But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, “Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say to them, ‘Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going to inquire of Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron?’

[4]“Now therefore, thus says the LORD: ‘You shall not come down from the bed to which you have gone up, but you shall surely die.’ ” So Elijah departed.

5And when the messengers returned to him, he said to them, “Why have you come back?”

[6]So they said to him, “A man came up to meet us, and said to us, ‘Go, return to the king who sent you, and say to him, “Thus says the LORD: ‘Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are sending to inquire of Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you shall not come down from the bed to which you have gone up, but you shall surely die.’ ” ’ ”

[7]Then he said to them, “What kind of man was it who came up to meet you and told you these words?”

[8]So they answered him, “A hairy man wearing a leather belt around his waist.” And he said, “It is Elijah the Tishbite.”

9Then the king sent to him a captain of fifty with his fifty men. So he went up to him; and there he was, sitting on the top of a hill. And he spoke to him: “Man of God, the king has said, ‘Come down!’ ”

[10]So Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, “If I am a man of God, then let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men.” And fire came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty.

[11]Then he sent to him another captain of fifty with his fifty men. And he answered and said to him: “Man of God, thus has the king said, ‘Come down quickly!’ ”

[12]So Elijah answered and said to them, “If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men.” And the fire of God came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty.

[13]Again, he sent a third captain of fifty with his fifty men. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and pleaded with him, and said to him: “Man of God, please let my life and the life of these fifty servants of yours be precious in your sight.

[14]“Look, fire has come down from heaven and burned up the first two captains of fifties with their fifties. But let my life now be precious in your sight.”

[15]And the angel of the LORD said to Elijah, “Go down with him; do not be afraid of him.” So he arose and went down with him to the king.

[16]Then he said to him, “Thus says the LORD: ‘Because you have sent messengers to inquire of Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron, is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of His word? Therefore you shall not come down from the bed to which you have gone up, but you shall surely die.’ ”

[17]So Ahaziah died according to the word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken. Because he had no son, Jehoram became king in his place, in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah.

[18]Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

2 Kings 2

Elijah Ascends to Heaven

[1]And it came to pass, when the LORD was about to take up Elijah into heaven by a whirlwind, that Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal.

[2]Then Elijah said to Elisha, “Stay here, please, for the LORD has sent me on to Bethel.” But Elisha said, “As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you!” So they went down to Bethel.

[3]Now the sons of the prophets who were at Bethel came out to Elisha, and said to him, “Do you know that the LORD will take away your master from over you today?” And he said, “Yes, I know; keep silent!”

[4]Then Elijah said to him, “Elisha, stay here, please, for the LORD has sent me on to Jericho.” But he said, “As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you!” So they came to Jericho.

[5]Now the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho came to Elisha and said to him, “Do you know that the LORD will take away your master from over you today?” So he answered, “Yes, I know; keep silent!”

[6]Then Elijah said to him, “Stay here, please, for the LORD has sent me on to the Jordan.” But he said, “As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you!” So the two of them went on.

[7]And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went and stood facing them at a distance, while the two of them stood by the Jordan.

[8]Now Elijah took his mantle, rolled it up, and struck the water; and it was divided this way and that, so that the two of them crossed over on dry ground.

[9]And so it was, when they had crossed over, that Elijah said to Elisha, “Ask! What may I do for you, before I am taken away from you?” Elisha said, “Please let a double portion of your spirit be upon me.”

[10]So he said, “You have asked a hard thing. Nevertheless, if you see me when I am taken from you, it shall be so for you; but if not, it shall not be so.”

[11]Then it happened, as they continued on and talked, that suddenly a chariot of fire appeared with horses of fire, and separated the two of them; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven.

[12]And Elisha saw it, and he cried out, “My father, my father, the chariot of Israel and its horsemen!” So he saw him no more. And he took hold of his own clothes and tore them into two pieces.

[13]He also took up the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and went back and stood by the bank of the Jordan.

[14]Then he took the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and struck the water, and said, “Where is the LORD God of Elijah?” And when he also had struck the water, it was divided this way and that; and Elisha crossed over.

[15]Now when the sons of the prophets who were from Jericho saw him, they said, “The spirit of Elijah rests on Elisha.” And they came to meet him, and bowed to the ground before him.

[16]Then they said to him, “Look now, there are fifty strong men with your servants. Please let them go and search for your master, lest perhaps the Spirit of the LORD has taken him up and cast him upon some mountain or into some valley.” And he said, “You shall not send anyone.”

[17]But when they urged him till he was ashamed, he said, “Send them!” Therefore they sent fifty men, and they searched for three days but did not find him.

[18]And when they came back to him, for he had stayed in Jericho, he said to them, “Did I not say to you, ‘Do not go’?”

Elisha Performs Miracles

[19]Then the men of the city said to Elisha, “Please notice, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord sees; but the water is bad, and the ground barren.”

[20]And he said, “Bring me a new bowl, and put salt in it.” So they brought it to him.

[21]Then he went out to the source of the water, and cast in the salt there, and said, “Thus says the LORD: ‘I have healed this water; from it there shall be no more death or barrenness.’ ”

[22]So the water remains healed to this day, according to the word of Elisha which he spoke.

[23]Then he went up from there to Bethel; and as he was going up the road, some youths came from the city and mocked him, and said to him, “Go up, you baldhead! Go up, you baldhead!”

[24]So he turned around and looked at them, and pronounced a curse on them in the name of the LORD. And two female bears came out of the woods and mauled forty-two of the youths.

[25]Then he went from there to Mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.

2 Kings 3

Moab Rebels Against Israel

[1]Now Jehoram the son of Ahab became king over Israel at Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years.

[2]And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, but not like his father and mother; for he put away the sacred pillar of Baal that his father had made.

[3]Nevertheless he persisted in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin; he did not depart from them.

[4]Now Mesha king of Moab was a sheepbreeder, and he regularly paid the king of Israel one hundred thousand lambs and the wool of one hundred thousand rams.

[5]But it happened, when Ahab died, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

[6]So King Jehoram went out of Samaria at that time and mustered all Israel.

[7]Then he went and sent to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, saying, “The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me to fight against Moab?” And he said, “I will go up; I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses.”

[8]Then he said, “Which way shall we go up?” And he answered, “By way of the Wilderness of Edom.”

[9]So the king of Israel went with the king of Judah and the king of Edom, and they marched on that roundabout route seven days; and there was no water for the army, nor for the animals that followed them.

[10]And the king of Israel said, “Alas! For the LORD has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab.”

[11]But Jehoshaphat said, “Is there no prophet of the LORD here, that we may inquire of the LORD by him?” So one of the servants of the king of Israel answered and said, “Elisha the son of Shaphat is here, who poured water on the hands of Elijah.”

[12]And Jehoshaphat said, “The word of the LORD is with him.” So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

[13]Then Elisha said to the king of Israel, “What have I to do with you? Go to the prophets of your father and the prophets of your mother.” But the king of Israel said to him, “No, for the LORD has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab.”

[14]And Elisha said, “As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, surely were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, I would not look at you, nor see you.

[15]“But now bring me a musician.” Then it happened, when the musician played, that the hand of the LORD came upon him.

[16]And he said, “Thus says the LORD: ‘Make this valley full of ditches.’

[17]“For thus says the LORD: ‘You shall not see wind, nor shall you see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, so that you, your cattle, and your animals may drink.’

[18]“And this is a simple matter in the sight of the LORD; He will also deliver the Moabites into your hand.

[19]“Also you shall attack every fortified city and every choice city, and shall cut down every good tree, and stop up every spring of water, and ruin every good piece of land with stones.”

[20]Now it happened in the morning, when the grain offering was offered, that suddenly water came by way of Edom, and the land was filled with water.

[21]And when all the Moabites heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, all who were able to bear arms and older were gathered; and they stood at the border.

[22]Then they rose up early in the morning, and the sun was shining on the water; and the Moabites saw the water on the other side as red as blood.

[23]And they said, “This is blood; the kings have surely struck swords and have killed one another; now therefore, Moab, to the spoil!”

[24]So when they came to the camp of Israel, Israel rose up and attacked the Moabites, so that they fled before them; and they entered their land, killing the Moabites.

[25]Then they destroyed the cities, and each man threw a stone on every good piece of land and filled it; and they stopped up all the springs of water and cut down all the good trees. But they left the stones of Kir Haraseth intact. However the slingers surrounded and attacked it.

[26]And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too fierce for him, he took with him seven hundred men who drew swords, to break through to the king of Edom, but they could not.

[27]Then he took his eldest son who would have reigned in his place, and offered him as a burnt offering upon the wall; and there was great indignation against Israel. So they departed from him and returned to their own land.

2 Kings 4

Elisha and the Widow's Oil

[1]A certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets cried out to Elisha, saying, "Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that your servant feared the LORD. And the creditor is coming to take my two sons to be his slaves."

[2]So Elisha said to her, "What shall I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house?" And she said, "Your maidservant has nothing in the house but a jar of oil."

[3]Then he said, "Go, borrow vessels from everywhere, from all your neighbors—empty vessels; do not gather just a few.

[4]"And when you have come in, you shall shut the door behind you and your sons; then pour it into all those vessels, and set aside the full ones."

[5]So she went from him and shut the door behind her and her sons, who brought the vessels to her; and she poured it out.

[6]Now it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said to her son, "Bring me another vessel." And he said to her, "There is not another vessel." So the oil ceased.

[7]Then she came and told the man of God. And he said, "Go, sell the oil and pay your debt; and you and your sons live on the rest."

Elisha Raises the Shunammite's Son

[8]Now it happened one day that Elisha went to Shunem, where there was a notable woman, and she persuaded him to eat some food. So it was, as often as he passed by, he would turn in there to eat some food.

[9]And she said to her husband, "Look now, I know that this is a holy man of God, who passes by us regularly.

[10]"Please, let us make a small upper room on the wall; and let us put a bed for him there, and a table and a chair and a lampstand; so it will be, whenever he comes to us, he can turn in there."

[11]And it happened one day that he came there, and he turned in to the upper room and lay down there.

[12]Then he said to Gehazi his servant, “Call this Shunammite woman.” When he had called her, she stood before him.

[13]And he said to him, “Say now to her, ‘Look, you have been concerned for us with all this care. What can I do for you? Do you want me to speak on your behalf to the king or to the commander of the army?’ ” She answered, “I dwell among my own people.”

[14]So he said, “What then is to be done for her?” And Gehazi answered, “Actually, she has no son, and her husband is old.”

[15]So he said, “Call her.” When he had called her, she stood in the doorway.

[16]Then he said, “About this time next year you shall embrace a son.” And she said, “No, my lord. Man of God, do not lie to your maidservant!”

[17]But the woman conceived, and bore a son when the appointed time had come, of which Elisha had told her.

[18]And the child grew. Now it happened one day that he went out to his father, to the reapers.

[19]And he said to his father, “My head, my head!” So he said to a servant, “Carry him to his mother.”

[20]When he had taken him and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and then died.

[21]And she went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, shut the door upon him, and went out.

[22]Then she called to her husband, and said, “Please send me one of the young men and one of the donkeys, that I may run to the man of God and come back.”

[23]So he said, “Why are you going to him today? It is neither the New Moon nor the Sabbath.” And she said, “It is well.”

[24]Then she saddled a donkey, and said to her servant, “Drive, and go forward; do not slacken the pace for me unless I tell you.”

[25]And so she departed, and went to the man of God at Mount Carmel.

So it was, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to his servant Gehazi, “Look, the Shunammite woman!

[26]“Please run now to meet her, and say to her, ‘Is it well with you? Is it well with your husband? Is it well with the child?’ ” And she answered, “It is well.”

[27]Now when she came to the man of God at the hill, she caught him by the feet, but Gehazi came near to push her away. But the man of God said, “Let her alone; for her soul is in deep distress, and the LORD has hidden it from me, and has not told me.”

[28]So she said, “Did I ask a son of my lord? Did I not say, ‘Do not deceive me’?”

[29]Then he said to Gehazi, “Get yourself ready, and take my staff in your hand, and be on your way. If you meet anyone, do not greet him; and if anyone greets you, do not answer him; but lay my staff on the face of the child.”

[30]And the mother of the child said, “As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you.” So he arose and followed her.

[31]Now Gehazi went on ahead of them, and laid the staff on the face of the child; but there was neither voice nor hearing. Therefore he went back to meet him, and told him, saying, “The child has not awakened.”

[32]When Elisha came into the house, there was the child, lying dead on his bed.

[33]He went in therefore, shut the door behind the two of them, and prayed to the LORD.

[34]And he went up and lay on the child, and put his mouth on his mouth, his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands; and he stretched himself out on the child, and the flesh of the child became warm.

[35]He returned and walked back and forth in the house, and again went up and stretched himself out on him; then the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes.

[36]And he called Gehazi and said, “Call this Shunammite woman.” So he called her. And when she came in to him, he said, “Pick up your son.”

[37]So she went in, fell at his feet, and bowed to the ground; then she picked up her son and went out.

Elisha Purifies the Pot of Stew

38And Elisha returned to Gilgal, and there was a famine in the land. Now the sons of the prophets were sitting before him; and he said to his servant, “Put on the large pot, and boil stew for the sons of the prophets.”

39So one went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered from it a lapful of wild gourds, and came and sliced them into the pot of stew, though they did not know what they were.

40Then they served it to the men to eat. Now it happened, as they were eating the stew, that they cried out and said, “Man of God, there is death in the pot!” And they could not eat it.

41So he said, “Then bring some flour.” And he put it into the pot, and said, “Serve it to the people, that they may eat.” And there was nothing harmful in the pot.

Elisha Feeds One Hundred Men

42Then a man came from Baal Shalisha, and brought the man of God bread of the firstfruits, twenty loaves of barley bread, and newly ripened grain in his knapsack. And he said, “Give it to the people, that they may eat.”

43But his servant said, “What? Shall I set this before one hundred men?” He said again, “Give it to the people, that they may eat; for thus says the LORD: ‘They shall eat and have some left over.’ ”

44So he set it before them; and they ate and had some left over, according to the word of the LORD.

2 Kings 5

Naaman's Leprosy Healed

[1]Now Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Syria, was a great and honorable man in the eyes of his master, because by him the LORD had given victory to Syria. He was also a mighty man of valor, but a leper.

[2]And the Syrians had gone out on raids, and had brought back captive a young girl from the land of Israel. She waited on Naaman's wife.

[3]Then she said to her mistress, "If only my master were with the prophet who is in Samaria! For he would heal him of his leprosy."

[4]And Naaman went in and told his master, saying, "Thus and thus said the girl who is from the land of Israel."

5Then the king of Syria said, "Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel." So he departed and took with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold, and ten changes of clothing.

[6]Then he brought the letter to the king of Israel, which said,

> Now be advised, when this letter comes to you, that I have sent Naaman my servant to you, that you may heal him of his leprosy.

[7]And it happened, when the king of Israel read the letter, that he tore his clothes and said, "Am I God, to kill and make alive, that this man sends a man to me to heal him of his leprosy? Therefore please consider, and see how he seeks a quarrel with me."

8So it was, when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, "Why have you torn your clothes? Please let him come to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel."

[9]Then Naaman went with his horses and chariot, and he stood at the door of Elisha's house.

[10]And Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored to you, and you shall be clean."

[11]But Naaman became furious, and went away and said, “Indeed, I said to myself, ‘He will surely come out to me, and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God, and wave his hand over the place, and heal the leprosy.’

[12]“Are not the Abanah and the Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them and be clean?” So he turned and went away in a rage.

[13]And his servants came near and spoke to him, and said, “My father, if the prophet had told you to do something great, would you not have done it? How much more then, when he says to you, ‘Wash, and be clean’?”

[14]So he went down and dipped seven times in the Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God; and his flesh was restored like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean.

[15]And he returned to the man of God, he and all his aides, and came and stood before him; and he said, “Indeed, now I know that there is no God in all the earth, except in Israel; now therefore, please take a gift from your servant.”

[16]But he said, “As the LORD lives, before whom I stand, I will receive nothing.” And he urged him to take it, but he refused.

[17]So Naaman said, “Then, if not, please let your servant be given two mule-loads of earth; for your servant will no longer offer either burnt offering or sacrifice to other gods, but to the LORD.

[18]“Yet in this thing may the LORD pardon your servant: when my master goes into the temple of Rimmon to worship there, and he leans on my hand, and I bow down in the temple of Rimmon—when I bow down in the temple of Rimmon, may the LORD please pardon your servant in this thing.”

[19]Then he said to him, “Go in peace.” So he departed from him a short distance.

Gehazi’s Greed

[20]But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, “Look, my master has spared Naaman this Syrian, while not receiving from his hands what he brought; but as the LORD lives, I will run after him and take something from him.”

[21]So Gehazi pursued Naaman. When Naaman saw him running after him, he got down from the chariot to meet him, and said, "Is all well?"

[22]And he said, "All is well. My master has sent me, saying, 'Indeed, just now two young men of the sons of the prophets have come to me from the mountains of Ephraim. Please give them a talent of silver and two changes of garments.' "

[23]So Naaman said, "Please, take two talents." And he urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of garments, and handed them to two of his servants; and they carried them on ahead of him.

[24]When he came to the citadel, he took them from their hand, and stored them away in the house; then he let the men go, and they departed.

[25]Now he went in and stood before his master. Elisha said to him, "Where did you go, Gehazi?" And he said, "Your servant did not go anywhere."

[26]Then he said to him, "Did not my heart go with you when the man turned back from his chariot to meet you? Is it time to receive money and to receive clothing, olive groves and vineyards, sheep and oxen, male and female servants?

[27]"Therefore the leprosy of Naaman shall cling to you and your descendants forever." And he went out from his presence leprous, as white as snow.

2 Kings 6

The Floating Ax Head

[1]And the sons of the prophets said to Elisha, “See now, the place where we dwell with you is too small for us.

[2]“Please, let us go to the Jordan, and let every man take a beam from there, and let us make there a place where we may dwell.” So he answered, “Go.”

[3]Then one said, “Please consent to go with your servants.” And he answered, “I will go.”

[4]So he went with them. And when they came to the Jordan, they cut down trees.

[5]But as one was cutting down a tree, the iron ax head fell into the water; and he cried out and said, “Alas, master! For it was borrowed.”

[6]So the man of God said, “Where did it fall?” And he showed him the place. So he cut off a stick, and threw it in there; and he made the iron float.

[7]Therefore he said, “Pick it up for yourself.” So he reached out his hand and took it.

The Blinded Syrians Captured

[8]Now the king of Syria was making war against Israel; and he consulted with his servants, saying, “My camp will be in such and such a place.”

[9]And the man of God sent to the king of Israel, saying, “Beware that you do not pass this place, for the Syrians are coming down there.”

[10]Then the king of Israel sent someone to the place of which the man of God had told him. Thus he warned him, and he was watchful there, not just once or twice.

[11]Therefore the heart of the king of Syria was greatly troubled by this thing; and he called his servants and said to them, “Will you not show me which of us is for the king of Israel?”

[12]And one of his servants said, “None, my lord, O king; but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedroom."

13So he said, "Go and see where he is, that I may send and get him." And it was told him, saying, "Surely he is in Dothan."

14Therefore he sent horses and chariots and a great army there, and they came by night and surrounded the city.

15And when the servant of the man of God arose early and went out, there was an army, surrounding the city with horses and chariots. And his servant said to him, "Alas, my master! What shall we do?"

16So he answered, "Do not fear, for those who are with us are more than those who are with them."

17And Elisha prayed, and said, "LORD, I pray, open his eyes that he may see." Then the LORD opened the eyes of the young man, and he saw. And behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.

18So when the Syrians came down to him, Elisha prayed to the LORD, and said, "Strike this people, I pray, with blindness." And He struck them with blindness according to the word of Elisha.

19Now Elisha said to them, "This is not the way, nor is this the city. Follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom you seek." But he led them to Samaria.

20So it was, when they had come to Samaria, that Elisha said, "LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see." And the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw; and there they were, inside Samaria!

21Now when the king of Israel saw them, he said to Elisha, "My father, shall I kill them? Shall I kill them?"

22But he answered, "You shall not kill them. Would you kill those whom you have taken captive with your sword and your bow? Set food and water before them, that they may eat and drink and go to their master."

23Then he prepared a great feast for them; and after they ate and drank, he sent them away and they went to their master. So the bands of Syrian raiders came no more into the land of Israel.

Syria Besieges Samaria in Famine

24And it happened after this that Ben-Hadad king of Syria gathered all his army, and went up and besieged Samaria.

25And there was a great famine in Samaria; and indeed they besieged it until a donkey's head was sold for eighty shekels of silver, and one-fourth of a kab of dove droppings for five shekels of silver.

26Then, as the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, a woman cried out to him, saying, "Help, my lord, O king!"

27And he said, "If the LORD does not help you, where can I find help for you? From the threshing floor or from the winepress?"

28Then the king said to her, "What is troubling you?" And she answered, "This woman said to me, 'Give your son, that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.'

29"So we boiled my son, and ate him. And I said to her on the next day, 'Give your son, that we may eat him'; but she has hidden her son."

30Now it happened, when the king heard the words of the woman, that he tore his clothes; and as he passed by on the wall, the people looked, and there underneath he had sackcloth on his body.

31Then he said, "God do so to me and more also, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat remains on him today!"

32But Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. And the king sent a man ahead of him, but before the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, "Do you see how this son of a murderer has sent someone to take away my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door, and hold him fast at the door. Is not the sound of his master's feet behind him?"

33And while he was still talking with them, there was the messenger, coming down to him; and then the king said, "Surely this calamity is from the LORD; why should I wait for the LORD any longer?"

2 Kings 7

[1]Then Elisha said, “Hear the word of the LORD. Thus says the LORD: ‘Tomorrow about this time a seah of fine flour shall be sold for a shekel, and two seahs of barley for a shekel, at the gate of Samaria.’ ”

[2]So an officer on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God and said, “Look, if the LORD would make windows in heaven, could this thing be?” And he said, “In fact, you shall see it with your eyes, but you shall not eat of it.”

The Syrians Flee

[3]Now there were four leprous men at the entrance of the gate; and they said to one another, “Why are we sitting here until we die?

[4]“If we say, ‘We will enter the city,’ the famine is in the city, and we shall die there. And if we sit here, we die also. Now therefore, come, let us surrender to the army of the Syrians. If they keep us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall only die.”

[5]And they rose at twilight to go to the camp of the Syrians; and when they had come to the outskirts of the Syrian camp, to their surprise no one was there.

[6]For the LORD had caused the army of the Syrians to hear the noise of chariots and the noise of horses—the noise of a great army; so they said to one another, “Look, the king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Hittites and the kings of the Egyptians to attack us!”

[7]Therefore they arose and fled at twilight, and left the camp intact—their tents, their horses, and their donkeys—and they fled for their lives.

[8]And when these lepers came to the outskirts of the camp, they went into one tent and ate and drank, and carried from it silver and gold and clothing, and went and hid them; then they came back and entered another tent, and carried some from there also, and went and hid it.

[9]Then they said to one another, “We are not doing right. This day is a day of good news, and we remain silent. If we wait until morning light, some punishment will come upon us. Now therefore, come, let us go and tell the king’s household.”

[10]So they went and called to the gatekeepers of the city, and told them, saying, “We went to the Syrian camp, and surprisingly no one was there, not a human sound—only horses and donkeys tied, and the tents intact.”

[11]And the gatekeepers called out, and they told it to the king’s household inside.

[12]So the king arose in the night and said to his servants, “Let me now tell you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we are hungry; therefore they have gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, ‘When they come out of the city, we shall catch them alive, and get into the city.’ ”

[14]Therefore they took two chariots with horses; and the king sent them in the direction of the Syrian army, saying, “Go and see.”

[15]And they went after them to the Jordan; and indeed all the road was full of garments and weapons which the Syrians had thrown away in their haste. So the messengers returned and told the king.

[16]Then the people went out and plundered the tents of the Syrians. So a seah of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two seahs of barley for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD.

[17]Now the king had appointed the officer on whose hand he leaned to have charge of the gate. But the people trampled him in the gate, and he died, just as the man of God had said, who spoke when the king came down to him.

[18]So it happened just as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, “Two seahs of barley for a shekel, and a seah of fine flour for a shekel, shall be sold tomorrow about this time in the gate of Samaria.”

[19]Then that officer had answered the man of God, and said, “Now look, if the LORD would make windows in heaven, could such a thing be?” And he had said, “In fact, you shall see it with your eyes, but you shall not eat of it.”

[20]And so it happened to him, for the people trampled him in the gate, and he died.

2 Kings 8

The King Restores the Shunammite's Land

[1]Then Elisha spoke to the woman whose son he had restored to life, saying, "Arise and go, you and your household, and stay wherever you can; for the LORD has called for a famine, and furthermore, it will come upon the land for seven years."

[2]So the woman arose and did according to the saying of the man of God, and she went with her household and dwelt in the land of the Philistines seven years.

[3]It came to pass, at the end of seven years, that the woman returned from the land of the Philistines; and she went to make an appeal to the king for her house and for her land.

[4]Then the king talked with Gehazi, the servant of the man of God, saying, "Tell me, please, all the great things Elisha has done."

[5]Now it happened, as he was telling the king how he had restored the dead to life, that there was the woman whose son he had restored to life, appealing to the king for her house and for her land. And Gehazi said, "My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son whom Elisha restored to life."

[6]And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed a certain officer for her, saying, "Restore all that was hers, and all the proceeds of the field from the day that she left the land until now."

Death of Ben-Hadad

[7]Then Elisha went to Damascus, and Ben-Hadad king of Syria was sick; and it was told him, saying, "The man of God has come here."

[8]And the king said to Hazael, "Take a present in your hand, and go to meet the man of God, and inquire of the LORD by him, saying, 'Shall I recover from this disease?' "

[9]So Hazael went to meet him and took a present with him, of every good thing of Damascus, forty camel-loads; and he came and stood before him, and said, “Your son Ben-Hadad king of Syria has sent me to you, saying, ‘Shall I recover from this disease?’ ”

[10]And Elisha said to him, “Go, say to him, ‘You shall certainly recover.’ However the LORD has shown me that he will really die.”

[11]Then he set his countenance in a stare until he was ashamed; and the man of God wept.

[12]And Hazael said, “Why is my lord weeping?” He answered, “Because I know the evil that you will do to the children of Israel: Their strongholds you will set on fire, and their young men you will kill with the sword; and you will dash their children, and rip open their women with child.”

[13]So Hazael said, “But what is your servant—a dog, that he should do this gross thing?” And Elisha answered, “The LORD has shown me that you will become king over Syria.”

[14]Then he departed from Elisha, and came to his master, who said to him, “What did Elisha say to you?” And he answered, “He told me you would surely recover.”

[15]But it happened on the next day that he took a thick cloth and dipped it in water, and spread it over his face so that he died; and Hazael reigned in his place.

Jehoram Reigns in Judah

[16]Now in the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab, king of Israel, Jehoshaphat having been king of Judah, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat began to reign as king of Judah.

[17]He was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

[18]And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab had done, for the daughter of Ahab was his wife; and he did evil in the sight of the LORD.

[19]Yet the LORD would not destroy Judah, for the sake of His servant David, as He promised him to give a lamp to him and his sons forever.

[20]In his days Edom revolted against Judah’s authority, and made a king over themselves.

[21]So Joram went to Zair, and all his chariots with him. Then he rose by night and attacked the Edomites who had surrounded him and the captains of the chariots; and the troops fled to their tents.

[22]Thus Edom has been in revolt against Judah's authority to this day. And Libnah revolted at that time.

[23]Now the rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

[24]So Joram rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. Then Ahaziah his son reigned in his place.

Ahaziah Reigns in Judah

[25]In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab, king of Israel, Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, began to reign.

[26]Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah the granddaughter of Omri, king of Israel.

[27]And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did evil in the sight of the LORD, like the house of Ahab, for he was the son-in-law of the house of Ahab.

[28]Now he went with Joram the son of Ahab to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth Gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram.

[29]Then King Joram went back to Jezreel to recover from the wounds which the Syrians had inflicted on him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

2 Kings 9

Jehu Anointed King of Israel

[1]And Elisha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets, and said to him, “Get yourself ready, take this flask of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth Gilead.

[2]“Now when you arrive at that place, look there for Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, and go in and make him rise up from among his associates, and take him to an inner room.

[3]“Then take the flask of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, ‘Thus says the LORD: “I have anointed you king over Israel.” ’ Then open the door and flee, and do not delay.”

4So the young man, the servant of the prophet, went to Ramoth Gilead.

[5]And when he arrived, there were the captains of the army sitting; and he said, “I have a message for you, Commander.” Jehu said, “For which one of us?” And he said, “For you, Commander.”

[6]Then he arose and went into the house. And he poured the oil on his head, and said to him, “Thus says the LORD God of Israel: ‘I have anointed you king over the people of the LORD, over Israel.

[7]‘You shall strike down the house of Ahab your master, that I may avenge the blood of My servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, at the hand of Jezebel.

[8]‘For the whole house of Ahab shall perish; and I will cut off from Ahab all the males in Israel, both bond and free.

[9]‘So I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah.

[10]‘The dogs shall eat Jezebel on the plot of ground at Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her.’ ” And he opened the door and fled.

11Then Jehu came out to the servants of his master, and one said to him, “Is all well? Why did this madman come to you?” And he said to them, “You know the man and his babble.”

[12]And they said, “A lie! Tell us now.” So he said, “Thus and thus he spoke to me, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD: “I have anointed you king

over Israel.” ’ ”

[13]Then each man hastened to take his garment and put it under him on the top of the steps; and they blew trumpets, saying, “Jehu is king!”

Joram of Israel Killed

[14]So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, conspired against Joram. (Now Joram had been defending Ramoth Gilead, he and all Israel, against Hazael king of Syria.

[15]But King Joram had returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds which the Syrians had inflicted on him when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.) And Jehu said, “If you are so minded, let no one leave or escape from the city to go and tell it in Jezreel.”

[16]So Jehu rode in a chariot and went to Jezreel, for Joram was laid up there; and Ahaziah king of Judah had come down to see Joram.

[17]Now a watchman stood on the tower in Jezreel, and he saw the company of Jehu as he came, and said, “I see a company of men.” And Joram said, “Get a horseman and send him to meet them, and let him say, ‘Is it peace?’ ”

[18]So the horseman went to meet him, and said, “Thus says the king: ‘Is it peace?’ ” And Jehu said, “What have you to do with peace? Turn around and follow me.” So the watchman reported, saying, “The messenger went to them, but is not coming back.”

[19]Then he sent out a second horseman who came to them, and said, “Thus says the king: ‘Is it peace?’ ” And Jehu answered, “What have you to do with peace? Turn around and follow me.”

[20]So the watchman reported, saying, “He went up to them and is not coming back; and the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi, for he drives furiously!”

[21]Then Joram said, “Make ready.” And his chariot was made ready. Then Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot; and they went out to meet Jehu, and met him on the property of Naboth the Jezreelite.

[22]Now it happened, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, “Is it peace, Jehu?” So he answered, “What peace, as long as the harlotries of your mother Jezebel and her witchcraft are so many?”

[23]Then Joram turned around and fled, and said to Ahaziah, “Treachery, Ahaziah!”

[24]Now Jehu drew his bow with full strength and shot Jehoram between his arms; and the arrow came out at his heart, and he sank down in his chariot.

[25]Then Jehu said to Bidkar his captain, “Pick him up, and throw him into the tract of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite; for remember, when you and I were riding together behind Ahab his father, that the LORD laid this burden upon him:

[26]‘Surely I saw yesterday the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons,’ says the LORD, ‘and I will repay you in this plot,’ says the LORD. Now therefore, take and throw him on the plot of ground, according to the word of the LORD.”

Ahaziah of Judah Killed

[27]But when Ahaziah king of Judah saw this, he fled by the road to Beth Haggan. So Jehu pursued him, and said, “Shoot him also in the chariot.” And they shot him at the Ascent of Gur, which is by Ibleam. Then he fled to Megiddo, and died there.

[28]And his servants carried him in the chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his tomb with his fathers in the City of David.

[29]In the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab, Ahaziah had become king over Judah.

Jezebel’s Violent Death

[30]Now when Jehu had come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she put paint on her eyes and adorned her head, and looked through a window.

[31]Then, as Jehu entered at the gate, she said, “Is it peace, Zimri, murderer of your master?”

[32]And he looked up at the window, and said, “Who is on my side? Who?” So two or three eunuchs looked out at him.

[33]Then he said, “Throw her down.” So they threw her down, and some of her blood spattered on the wall and on the horses; and he trampled her underfoot.

[34]And when he had gone in, he ate and drank. Then he said, “Go now, see to this accursed woman, and bury her, for she was a king’s daughter.”

[35]So they went to bury her, but they found no more of her than the skull and the feet and the palms of her hands.

[36]Therefore they came back and told him. And he said, “This is the word of the LORD, which He spoke by His servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, ‘On the plot of ground at Jezreel dogs shall eat the flesh of Jezebel;

[37]‘and the corpse of Jezebel shall be as refuse on the surface of the field, in the plot at Jezreel, so that they shall not say, “Here lies Jezebel.” ’ ”

2 Kings 10

Ahab's Seventy Sons Killed

[1]Now Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote and sent letters to Samaria, to the rulers of Jezreel, to the elders, and to those who reared Ahab's sons, saying:

> [2]Now as soon as this letter comes to you, since your master's sons are with you, and you have chariots and horses, a fortified city also, and weapons,
>
> [3]choose the best qualified of your master's sons, set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house.

[4]But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, "Look, two kings could not stand up to him; how then can we stand?"

[5]And he who was in charge of the house, and he who was in charge of the city, the elders also, and those who reared the sons, sent to Jehu, saying, "We are your servants, we will do all you tell us; but we will not make anyone king. Do what is good in your sight."

[6]Then he wrote a second letter to them, saying:

> If you are for me and will obey my voice, take the heads of the men, your master's sons, and come to me at Jezreel by this time tomorrow.

Now the king's sons, seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, who were rearing them.

[7]So it was, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons and slaughtered seventy persons, put their heads in baskets and sent them to him at Jezreel.

[8]Then a messenger came and told him, saying, "They have brought the heads of the king's sons." And he said, "Lay them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until morning."

[9]So it was, in the morning, that he went out and stood, and said to all the people, "You are righteous. Indeed I conspired against my master and killed him; but who killed all these?

[10]"Know now that nothing shall fall to the earth of the word of the LORD which the LORD spoke concerning the house of Ahab; for the LORD has done what He spoke by His servant Elijah."

[11]So Jehu killed all who remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men and his close acquaintances and his priests, until he left him none remaining.

Ahaziah's Forty-two Brothers Killed

[12]And he arose and departed and went to Samaria. On the way, at Beth Eked of the Shepherds,

[13]Jehu met with the brothers of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, "Who are you?" So they answered, "We are the brothers of Ahaziah; we have come down to greet the sons of the king and the sons of the queen mother."

[14]And he said, "Take them alive!" So they took them alive, and killed them at the well of Beth Eked, forty-two men; and he left none of them.

The Rest of Ahab's Family Killed

[15]Now when he departed from there, he met Jehonadab the son of Rechab, coming to meet him; and he greeted him and said to him, "Is your heart right, as my heart is toward your heart?" And Jehonadab answered, "It is." Jehu said, "If it is, give me your hand." So he gave him his hand, and he took him up to him into the chariot.

[16]Then he said, "Come with me, and see my zeal for the LORD." So they had him ride in his chariot.

[17]And when he came to Samaria, he killed all who remained to Ahab in Samaria, till he had destroyed them, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke to Elijah.

Worshipers of Baal Killed

[18]Then Jehu gathered all the people together, and said to them, "Ahab served Baal a little, Jehu will serve him much.

[19]"Now therefore, call to me all the prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests. Let no one be missing, for I have a great sacrifice for Baal. Whoever is missing shall not live." But Jehu acted deceptively, with the intent of destroying the worshipers of Baal.

[20]And Jehu said, “Proclaim a solemn assembly for Baal.” So they proclaimed it.

[21]Then Jehu sent throughout all Israel; and all the worshipers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left who did not come. So they came into the temple of Baal, and the temple of Baal was full from one end to the other.

[22]And he said to the one in charge of the wardrobe, “Bring out vestments for all the worshipers of Baal.” So he brought out vestments for them.

[23]Then Jehu and Jehonadab the son of Rechab went into the temple of Baal, and said to the worshipers of Baal, “Search and see that no servants of the LORD are here with you, but only the worshipers of Baal.”

[24]So they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had appointed for himself eighty men on the outside, and had said, “If any of the men whom I have brought into your hands escapes, whoever lets him escape, it shall be his life for the life of the other.”

[25]Now it happened, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, “Go in and kill them; let no one come out!” And they killed them with the edge of the sword; then the guards and the officers threw them out, and went into the inner room of the temple of Baal.

[26]And they brought the sacred pillars out of the temple of Baal and burned them.

[27]Then they broke down the sacred pillar of Baal, and tore down the temple of Baal and made it a refuse dump to this day.

[28]Thus Jehu destroyed Baal from Israel.

[29]However Jehu did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin, that is, from the golden calves that were at Bethel and Dan.

[30]And the LORD said to Jehu, “Because you have done well in doing what is right in My sight, and have done to the house of Ahab all that was in My heart, your sons shall sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation.”

[31]But Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of the LORD God of Israel with all his heart; for he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam, who had made Israel sin.

Death of Jehu

[32]In those days the LORD began to cut off parts of Israel; and Hazael conquered them in all the territory of Israel

[33]from the Jordan eastward: all the land of Gilead—Gad, Reuben, and Manasseh—from Aroer, which is by the River Arnon, including Gilead and Bashan.

[34]Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

[35]So Jehu rested with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria. Then Jehoahaz his son reigned in his place.

[36]And the period that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.

2 Kings 11

Athaliah Reigns in Judah

[1]When Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal heirs.

[2]But Jehosheba, the daughter of King Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king's sons who were being murdered; and they hid him and his nurse in the bedroom, from Athaliah, so that he was not killed.

[3]So he was hidden with her in the house of the LORD for six years, while Athaliah reigned over the land.

Joash Crowned King of Judah

4In the seventh year Jehoiada sent and brought the captains of hundreds—of the bodyguards and the escorts—and brought them into the house of the LORD to him. And he made a covenant with them and took an oath from them in the house of the LORD, and showed them the king's son.

[5]Then he commanded them, saying, "This is what you shall do: One-third of you who come on duty on the Sabbath shall be keeping watch over the king's house,

[6]"one-third shall be at the gate of Sur, and one-third at the gate behind the escorts. You shall keep the watch of the house, lest it be broken down.

[7]"The two contingents of you who go off duty on the Sabbath shall keep the watch of the house of the LORD for the king.

[8]"But you shall surround the king on all sides, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whoever comes within range, let him be put to death. You are to be with the king as he goes out and as he comes in."

9So the captains of the hundreds did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. Each of them took his men who were to be on duty on the Sabbath, with those who were going off duty on the Sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest.

[10]And the priest gave the captains of hundreds the spears and shields which had belonged to King David, that were in the temple of the LORD.

[11]Then the escorts stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, all around the king, from the right side of the temple to the left side of the temple, by the altar and the house.

[12]And he brought out the king’s son, put the crown on him, and gave him the Testimony; they made him king and anointed him, and they clapped their hands and said, “Long live the king!”

Death of Athaliah

[13]Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the escorts and the people, she came to the people in the temple of the LORD.

[14]When she looked, there was the king standing by a pillar according to custom; and the leaders and the trumpeters were by the king. All the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets. So Athaliah tore her clothes and cried out, “Treason! Treason!”

[15]And Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of the hundreds, the officers of the army, and said to them, “Take her outside under guard, and slay with the sword whoever follows her.” For the priest had said, “Do not let her be killed in the house of the LORD.”

[16]So they seized her; and she went by way of the horses’ entrance into the king’s house, and there she was killed.

[17]Then Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD, the king, and the people, that they should be the LORD’s people, and also between the king and the people.

[18]And all the people of the land went to the temple of Baal, and tore it down. They thoroughly broke in pieces its altars and images, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed officers over the house of the LORD.

[19]Then he took the captains of hundreds, the bodyguards, the escorts, and all the people of the land; and they brought the king down from the house of the LORD, and went by way of the gate of the escorts to the king’s house. Then he sat on the throne of the kings.

[20]So all the people of the land rejoiced; and the city was quiet, for they had slain Athaliah with the sword in the king’s house.

[21] Jehoash was seven years old when he became king.

2 Kings 12

Jehoash Repairs the Temple

[1]In the seventh year of Jehu, Jehoash became king, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba.

[2]Jehoash did what was right in the sight of the LORD all the days in which Jehoiada the priest instructed him.

[3]But the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

[4]And Jehoash said to the priests, "All the money of the dedicated gifts that are brought into the house of the LORD—each man's census money, each man's assessment money—and all the money that a man purposes in his heart to bring into the house of the LORD,

[5]"let the priests take it themselves, each from his constituency; and let them repair the damages of the temple, wherever any dilapidation is found."

[6]Now it was so, by the twenty-third year of King Jehoash, that the priests had not repaired the damages of the temple.

[7]So King Jehoash called Jehoiada the priest and the other priests, and said to them, "Why have you not repaired the damages of the temple? Now therefore, do not take more money from your constituency, but deliver it for repairing the damages of the temple."

[8]And the priests agreed that they would neither receive more money from the people, nor repair the damages of the temple.

[9]Then Jehoiada the priest took a chest, bored a hole in its lid, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one comes into the house of the LORD; and the priests who kept the door put there all the money brought into the house of the LORD.

[10]So it was, whenever they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the king's scribe and the high priest came up and put it in bags, and counted the money that was found in the house of the LORD.

[11]Then they gave the money, which had been apportioned, into the hands of those who did the work, who had the oversight of the house of the LORD; and they paid it out to the carpenters and builders who worked on the house of the LORD,

[12]and to masons and stonecutters, and for buying timber and hewn stone, to repair the damage of the house of the LORD, and for all that was paid out to repair the temple.

[13]However there were not made for the house of the LORD basins of silver, trimmers, sprinkling-bowls, trumpets, any articles of gold or articles of silver, from the money brought into the house of the LORD.

[14]But they gave that to the workmen, and they repaired the house of the LORD with it.

[15]Moreover they did not require an account from the men into whose hand they delivered the money to be paid to workmen, for they dealt faithfully.

[16]The money from the trespass offerings and the money from the sin offerings was not brought into the house of the LORD. It belonged to the priests.

Hazael Threatens Jerusalem

[17]Hazael king of Syria went up and fought against Gath, and took it; then Hazael set his face to go up to Jerusalem.

[18]And Jehoash king of Judah took all the sacred things that his fathers, Jehoshaphat and Jehoram and Ahaziah, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own sacred things, and all the gold found in the treasuries of the house of the LORD and in the king’s house, and sent them to Hazael king of Syria. Then he went away from Jerusalem.

Death of Joash

[19]Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

[20]And his servants arose and formed a conspiracy, and killed Joash in the house of the Millo, which goes down to Silla.

[21]For Jozachar the son of Shimeath and Jehozabad the son of Shomer, his servants, struck him. So he died, and they buried him with his fathers in the City of David. Then Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

2 Kings 13

Jehoahaz Reigns in Israel

[1]In the twenty-third year of Joash the son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned seventeen years.

[2]And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin. He did not depart from them.

[3]Then the anger of the LORD was aroused against Israel, and He delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of Ben-Hadad the son of Hazael, all their days.

[4]So Jehoahaz pleaded with the LORD, and the LORD listened to him; for He saw the oppression of Israel, because the king of Syria oppressed them.

[5]Then the LORD gave Israel a deliverer, so that they escaped from under the hand of the Syrians; and the children of Israel dwelt in their tents as before.

[6]Nevertheless they did not depart from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, who had made Israel sin, but walked in them; and the wooden image also remained in Samaria.

[7]For He left of the army of Jehoahaz only fifty horsemen, ten chariots, and ten thousand foot soldiers; for the king of Syria had destroyed them and made them like the dust at threshing.

[8]Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, all that he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

[9]So Jehoahaz rested with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria. Then Joash his son reigned in his place.

Jehoash Reigns in Israel

[10]In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned sixteen years.

[11]And he did evil in the sight of the LORD. He did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin, but walked in them.

[12]Now the rest of the acts of Joash, all that he did, and his might with which he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

[13]So Joash rested with his fathers. Then Jeroboam sat on his throne. And Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

Death of Elisha

[14]Elisha had become sick with the illness of which he would die. Then Joash the king of Israel came down to him, and wept over his face, and said, “O my father, my father, the chariots of Israel and their horsemen!”

[15]And Elisha said to him, “Take a bow and some arrows.” So he took himself a bow and some arrows.

[16]Then he said to the king of Israel, “Put your hand on the bow.” So he put his hand on it, and Elisha put his hands on the king’s hands.

[17]And he said, “Open the east window”; and he opened it. Then Elisha said, “Shoot”; and he shot. And he said, “The arrow of the LORD’s deliverance and the arrow of deliverance from Syria; for you must strike the Syrians at Aphek till you have destroyed them.”

[18]Then he said, “Take the arrows”; so he took them. And he said to the king of Israel, “Strike the ground”; so he struck three times, and stopped.

[19]And the man of God was angry with him, and said, “You should have struck five or six times; then you would have struck Syria till you had destroyed it! But now you will strike Syria only three times.”

[20]Then Elisha died, and they buried him. And the raiding bands from Moab invaded the land in the spring of the year.

[21]So it was, as they were burying a man, that suddenly they spied a band of raiders; and they put the man in the tomb of Elisha; and when the man was let down and touched the bones of Elisha, he revived and stood on his feet.

Israel Recaptures Cities from Syria

[22]And Hazael king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz.

[23]But the LORD was gracious to them, had compassion on them, and regarded them, because of His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not yet destroy them or cast them from His presence.

[24]Now Hazael king of Syria died. Then Ben-Hadad his son reigned in his place.

[25]And Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz recaptured from the hand of Ben-Hadad, the son of Hazael, the cities which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father by war. Three times Joash defeated him and recaptured the cities of Israel.

2 Kings 14

Amaziah Reigns in Judah

[1]In the second year of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel, Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, became king.

[2]He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

[3]And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, yet not like his father David; he did everything as his father Joash had done.

[4]However the high places were not taken away, and the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

[5]Now it happened, as soon as the kingdom was established in his hand, that he executed his servants who had murdered his father the king.

[6]But the children of the murderers he did not execute, according to what is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, in which the LORD commanded, saying, "Fathers shall not be put to death for their children, nor shall children be put to death for their fathers; but a person shall be put to death for his own sin."

[7]He killed ten thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt, and took Sela by war, and called its name Joktheel to this day.

[8]Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us face one another in battle."

[9]And Jehoash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, "The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son as wife'; and a wild beast that was in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thistle.

[10]"You have indeed defeated Edom, and your heart has lifted you up. Glory in that, and stay at home; for why should you meddle with trouble so that you fall—you and Judah with you?"

[11]But Amaziah would not heed. Therefore Jehoash king of Israel went out; so he and Amaziah king of Judah faced one another at Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah.

[12]And Judah was defeated by Israel, and every man fled to his tent.

[13]Then Jehoash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash, the son of Ahaziah, at Beth Shemesh; and he went to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate—four hundred cubits.

[14]And he took all the gold and silver, all the articles that were found in the house of the LORD and in the treasuries of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.

[15]Now the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did—his might, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah—are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

[16]So Jehoash rested with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel. Then Jeroboam his son reigned in his place.

[17]Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel.

[18]Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

[19]And they formed a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish and killed him there.

[20]Then they brought him on horses, and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the City of David.

[21]And all the people of Judah took Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Amaziah.

[22]He built Elath and restored it to Judah, after the king rested with his fathers.

Jeroboam II Reigns in Israel

[23]In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel, became king in Samaria, and reigned forty-one years.

[24]And he did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin.

[25]He restored the territory of Israel from the entrance of Hamath to the Sea of the Arabah, according to the word of the LORD God of Israel, which He had spoken through His servant Jonah the son of Amittai, the prophet who was from Gath Hepher.

[26]For the LORD saw that the affliction of Israel was very bitter; and whether bond or free, there was no helper for Israel.

[27]And the LORD did not say that He would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven; but He saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash.

[28]Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did—his might, how he made war, and how he recaptured for Israel, from Damascus and Hamath, what had belonged to Judah—are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

[29]So Jeroboam rested with his fathers, the kings of Israel. Then Zechariah his son reigned in his place.

2 Kings 15

Azariah Reigns in Judah

[1]In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Azariah the son of Amaziah, king of Judah, became king.

[2]He was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecholiah of Jerusalem.

[3]And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done,

[4]except that the high places were not removed; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

[5]Then the LORD struck the king, so that he was a leper until the day of his death; so he dwelt in an isolated house. And Jotham the king's son was over the royal house, judging the people of the land.

[6]Now the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

[7]So Azariah rested with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the City of David. Then Jotham his son reigned in his place.

Zechariah Reigns in Israel

[8]In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, Zechariah the son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel in Samaria six months.

[9]And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin.

[10]Then Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and struck and killed him in front of the people; and he reigned in his place.

[11]Now the rest of the acts of Zechariah, indeed they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

[12]This was the word of the LORD which He spoke to Jehu, saying, "Your sons shall sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation." And so it was.

Shallum Reigns in Israel

[13]Shallum the son of Jabesh became king in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah king of Judah; and he reigned a full month in Samaria.

[14]For Menahem the son of Gadi went up from Tirzah, came to Samaria, and struck Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria and killed him; and he reigned in his place.

[15]Now the rest of the acts of Shallum, and the conspiracy which he led, indeed they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

[16]Then from Tirzah, Menahem attacked Tiphsah, all who were there, and its territory. Because they did not surrender, therefore he attacked it. All the women there who were with child he ripped open.

Menahem Reigns in Israel

[17]In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah king of Judah, Menahem the son of Gadi became king over Israel, and reigned ten years in Samaria.

[18]And he did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart all his days from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin.

[19]Pul king of Assyria came against the land; and Menahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver, that his hand might be with him to strengthen the kingdom under his control.

[20]And Menahem exacted the money from Israel, from all the very wealthy, from each man fifty shekels of silver, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back, and did not stay there in the land.

[21]Now the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

[22]So Menahem rested with his fathers. Then Pekahiah his son reigned in his place.

Pekahiah Reigns in Israel

[23]In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekahiah the son of Menahem became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned two years.

[24]And he did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin.

[25]Then Pekah the son of Remaliah, an officer of his, conspired against him and killed him in Samaria, in the citadel of the king's house, along with Argob and Arieh; and with him were fifty men of Gilead. He killed him and reigned in his place.

[26]Now the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, indeed they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

Pekah Reigns in Israel

[27]In the fifty-second year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah the son of Remaliah became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned twenty years.

[28]And he did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin.

[29]In the days of Pekah king of Israel, Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria came and took Ijon, Abel Beth Maachah, Janoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali; and he carried them captive to Assyria.

[30]Then Hoshea the son of Elah led a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and struck and killed him; so he reigned in his place in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah.

[31]Now the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, indeed they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

Jotham Reigns in Judah

[32]In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, Jotham the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, began to reign.

[33]He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerusha the daughter of Zadok.

[34]And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD; he did according to all that his father Uzziah had done.

[35]However the high places were not removed; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places. He built the Upper Gate of the house of the LORD.

36Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

[37]In those days the LORD began to send Rezin king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah against Judah.

[38]So Jotham rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David his father. Then Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

2 Kings 16

Ahaz Reigns in Judah

[1]In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, Ahaz the son of Jotham, king of Judah, began to reign.

[2]Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and he did not do what was right in the sight of the LORD his God, as his father David had done.

[3]But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel; indeed he made his son pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had cast out from before the children of Israel.

[4]And he sacrificed and burned incense on the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.

[5]Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem to make war; and they besieged Ahaz but could not overcome him.

[6]At that time Rezin king of Syria captured Elath for Syria, and drove the men of Judah from Elath. Then the Edomites went to Elath, and dwell there to this day.

[7]So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria, saying, “I am your servant and your son. Come up and save me from the hand of the king of Syria and from the hand of the king of Israel, who rise up against me.”

[8]And Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasuries of the king’s house, and sent it as a present to the king of Assyria.

[9]So the king of Assyria heeded him; for the king of Assyria went up against Damascus and took it, carried its people captive to Kir, and killed Rezin.

[10]Now King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria, and saw an altar that was at Damascus; and King Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the design of the altar and its pattern, according to all its workmanship.

[11]Then Urijah the priest built an altar according to all that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus. So Urijah the priest made it before King Ahaz came back from Damascus.

[12]And when the king came back from Damascus, the king saw the altar; and the king approached the altar and made offerings on it.

[13]So he burned his burnt offering and his grain offering; and he poured his drink offering and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings on the altar.

[14]He also brought the bronze altar which was before the LORD, from the front of the temple—from between the new altar and the house of the LORD—and put it on the north side of the new altar.

[15]Then King Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, "On the great new altar burn the morning burnt offering, the evening grain offering, the king's burnt sacrifice, and his grain offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, their grain offering, and their drink offerings; and sprinkle on it all the blood of the burnt offering and all the blood of the sacrifice. And the bronze altar shall be for me to inquire by."

[16]Thus did Urijah the priest, according to all that King Ahaz commanded.

[17]And King Ahaz cut off the panels of the carts, and removed the lavers from them; and he took down the Sea from the bronze oxen that were under it, and put it on a pavement of stones.

[18]Also he removed the Sabbath pavilion which they had built in the temple, and he removed the king's outer entrance from the house of the LORD, on account of the king of Assyria.

[19]Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

[20]So Ahaz rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. Then Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

2 Kings 17

Hoshea Reigns in Israel

[1]In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, Hoshea the son of Elah became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned nine years.

[2]And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, but not as the kings of Israel who were before him.

[3]Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against him; and Hoshea became his vassal, and paid him tribute money.

[4]And the king of Assyria uncovered a conspiracy by Hoshea; for he had sent messengers to So, king of Egypt, and brought no tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year. Therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison.

Israel Carried Captive to Assyria

[5]Now the king of Assyria went throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria and besieged it for three years.

[6]In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria took Samaria and carried Israel away to Assyria, and placed them in Halah and by the Habor, the River of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

[7]For so it was that the children of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, who had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and they had feared other gods,

[8]and had walked in the statutes of the nations whom the LORD had cast out from before the children of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which they had made.

[9]Also the children of Israel secretly did against the LORD their God things that were not right, and they built for themselves high places in all their cities, from watchtower to fortified city.

[10]They set up for themselves sacred pillars and wooden images on every high hill and under every green tree.

[11]There they burned incense on all the high places, like the nations whom the LORD had carried away before them; and they did wicked things to provoke the LORD to anger,

[12]for they served idols, of which the LORD had said to them, “You shall not do this thing.”

[13]Yet the LORD testified against Israel and against Judah, by all of His prophets, every seer, saying, “Turn from your evil ways, and keep My commandments and My statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by My servants the prophets.”

[14]Nevertheless they would not hear, but stiffened their necks, like the necks of their fathers, who did not believe in the LORD their God.

[15]And they rejected His statutes and His covenant that He had made with their fathers, and His testimonies which He had testified against them; they followed idols, became idolaters, and went after the nations who were all around them, concerning whom the LORD had charged them that they should not do like them.

[16]So they left all the commandments of the LORD their God, made for themselves a molded image and two calves, made a wooden image and worshiped all the host of heaven, and served Baal.

[17]And they caused their sons and daughters to pass through the fire, practiced witchcraft and soothsaying, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger.

[18]Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them from His sight; there was none left but the tribe of Judah alone.

[19]Also Judah did not keep the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made.

[20]And the LORD rejected all the descendants of Israel, afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of plunderers, until He had cast them from His sight.

[21]For He tore Israel from the house of David, and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king. Then Jeroboam drove Israel from following the LORD, and made them commit a great sin.

[22]For the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they did not depart from them,

[23]until the LORD removed Israel out of His sight, as He had said by all His servants the prophets. So Israel was carried away from their own land to Assyria, as it is to this day.

Assyria Resettles Samaria

24Then the king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Cuthah, Ava, Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel; and they took possession of Samaria and dwelt in its cities.

25And it was so, at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they did not fear the LORD; therefore the LORD sent lions among them, which killed some of them.

26So they spoke to the king of Assyria, saying, "The nations whom you have removed and placed in the cities of Samaria do not know the rituals of the God of the land; therefore He has sent lions among them, and indeed, they are killing them because they do not know the rituals of the God of the land."

27Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, "Send there one of the priests whom you brought from there; let him go and dwell there, and let him teach them the rituals of the God of the land."

28Then one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and dwelt in Bethel, and taught them how they should fear the LORD.

29However every nation continued to make gods of its own, and put them in the shrines on the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in the cities where they dwelt.

30The men of Babylon made Succoth Benoth, the men of Cuth made Nergal, the men of Hamath made Ashima, 31and the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak; and the Sepharvites burned their children in fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.

32So they feared the LORD, and from every class they appointed for themselves priests of the high places, who sacrificed for them in the shrines of the high places.

33They feared the LORD, yet served their own gods—according to the rituals of the nations from among whom they were carried away.

34To this day they continue practicing the former rituals; they do not fear the LORD, nor do they follow their statutes or their ordinances, or the law and commandment which the LORD had commanded the children of Jacob, whom He named Israel,

[35]with whom the LORD had made a covenant and charged them, saying: “You shall not fear other gods, nor bow down to them nor serve them nor sacrifice to them;

[36]“but the LORD, who brought you up from the land of Egypt with great power and an outstretched arm, Him you shall fear, Him you shall worship, and to Him you shall offer sacrifice.

[37]“And the statutes, the ordinances, the law, and the commandment which He wrote for you, you shall be careful to observe forever; you shall not fear other gods.

[38]“And the covenant that I have made with you, you shall not forget, nor shall you fear other gods.

[39]“But the LORD your God you shall fear; and He will deliver you from the hand of all your enemies.”

[40]However they did not obey, but they followed their former rituals.

[41]So these nations feared the LORD, yet served their carved images; also their children and their children’s children have continued doing as their fathers did, even to this day.

2 Kings 18

Hezekiah Reigns in Judah

[1]Now it came to pass in the third year of Hoshea the son of Elah, king of Israel, that Hezekiah the son of Ahaz, king of Judah, began to reign.

[2]He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abi the daughter of Zechariah.

[3]And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father David had done.

[4]He removed the high places and broke the sacred pillars, cut down the wooden image and broke in pieces the bronze serpent that Moses had made; for until those days the children of Israel burned incense to it, and called it Nehushtan.

[5]He trusted in the LORD God of Israel, so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor who were before him.

[6]For he held fast to the LORD; he did not depart from following Him, but kept His commandments, which the LORD had commanded Moses.

[7]The LORD was with him; he prospered wherever he went. And he rebelled against the king of Assyria and did not serve him.

[8]He subdued the Philistines, as far as Gaza and its territory, from watchtower to fortified city.

[9]Now it came to pass in the fourth year of King Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea the son of Elah, king of Israel, that Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria and besieged it.

[10]And at the end of three years they took it. In the sixth year of Hezekiah, that is, the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was taken.

[11]Then the king of Assyria carried Israel away captive to Assyria, and put them in Halah and by the Habor, the River of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes,

[12]because they did not obey the voice of the LORD their God, but transgressed His covenant and all that Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded; and they would neither hear nor do them.

13And in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and took them.

14Then Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria at Lachish, saying, “I have done wrong; turn away from me; whatever you impose on me I will pay.” And the king of Assyria assessed Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.

15So Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD and in the treasuries of the king’s house.

16At that time Hezekiah stripped the gold from the doors of the temple of the LORD, and from the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Assyria.

Sennacherib Boasts Against the LORD

17Then the king of Assyria sent the Tartan, the Rabsaris, and the Rabshakeh from Lachish, with a great army against Jerusalem, to King Hezekiah. And they went up and came to Jerusalem. When they had come up, they went and stood by the aqueduct from the upper pool, which was on the highway to the Fuller’s Field.

18And when they had called to the king, Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came out to them.

19Then the Rabshakeh said to them, “Say now to Hezekiah, ‘Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: “What confidence is this in which you trust?

20“You speak of having plans and power for war; but they are mere words. And in whom do you trust, that you rebel against me?

21“Now look! You are trusting in the staff of this broken reed, Egypt, on which if a man leans, it will go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him.

22“But if you say to me, ‘We trust in the LORD our God,’ is it not He whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and said to Judah and Jerusalem, ‘You shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem’?” ’

23“Now therefore, I urge you, give a pledge to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses—if you are able on your part to put riders on them!

[24]"How then will you repel one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust in Egypt for chariots and horsemen?

[25]"Have I now come up without the LORD against this place to destroy it? The LORD said to me, 'Go up against this land, and destroy it.' "

[26]Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, Shebna, and Joah said to the Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it; and do not speak to us in Hebrew in the hearing of the people who are on the wall."

[27]But the Rabshakeh said to them, "Has my master sent me to your master and to you to speak these words, and not to the men who sit on the wall, who will eat and drink their own waste with you?"

[28]Then the Rabshakeh stood and called out with a loud voice in Hebrew, and spoke, saying, "Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria!

[29]"Thus says the king: 'Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he shall not be able to deliver you from his hand;

[30]'nor let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, "The LORD will surely deliver us; this city shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria." '

[31]"Do not listen to Hezekiah; for thus says the king of Assyria: 'Make peace with me by a present and come out to me; and every one of you eat from his own vine and every one from his own fig tree, and every one of you drink the waters of his own cistern;

[32]'until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive groves and honey, that you may live and not die. But do not listen to Hezekiah, lest he persuade you, saying, "The LORD will deliver us."

[33]'Has any of the gods of the nations at all delivered its land from the hand of the king of Assyria?

[34]'Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim and Hena and Ivah? Indeed, have they delivered Samaria from my hand?

[35]'Who among all the gods of the lands have delivered their countries from my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem from my hand?' "

[36]But the people held their peace and answered him not a word; for the king's commandment was, "Do not answer him."

[37]Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of the Rabshakeh.

2 Kings 19

Isaiah Assures Deliverance

[1]And so it was, when King Hezekiah heard it, that he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

[2]Then he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz.

[3]And they said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah: 'This day is a day of trouble, and rebuke, and blasphemy; for the children have come to birth, but there is no strength to bring them forth.

[4]'It may be that the LORD your God will hear all the words of the Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to reproach the living God, and will rebuke the words which the LORD your God has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left.' "

5So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

[6]And Isaiah said to them, "Thus you shall say to your master, 'Thus says the LORD: "Do not be afraid of the words which you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me.

[7]"Surely I will send a spirit upon him, and he shall hear a rumor and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land." ' "

Sennacherib's Threat and Hezekiah's Prayer

8Then the Rabshakeh returned and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah, for he heard that he had departed from Lachish.

[9]And the king heard concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, "Look, he has come out to make war with you." So he again sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

[10]"Thus you shall speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying: 'Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, "Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria."

[11]'Look! You have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by utterly destroying them; and shall you be delivered?

[12]‘Have the gods of the nations delivered those whom my fathers have destroyed, Gozan and Haran and Rezeph, and the people of Eden who were in Telassar?

[13]‘Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah?’ ”

14And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it; and Hezekiah went up to the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

[15]Then Hezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said: “O LORD God of Israel, the One who dwells between the cherubim, You are God, You alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth.

[16]“Incline Your ear, O LORD, and hear; open Your eyes, O LORD, and see; and hear the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to reproach the living God.

[17]“Truly, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste the nations and their lands,

[18]“and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were not gods, but the work of men’s hands—wood and stone. Therefore they destroyed them.

[19]“Now therefore, O LORD our God, I pray, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You are the LORD God, You alone.”

The Word of the LORD Concerning Sennacherib

20Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, “Thus says the LORD God of Israel: ‘Because you have prayed to Me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, I have heard.’

[21]“This is the word which the LORD has spoken concerning him:

‘The virgin, the daughter of Zion,
Has despised you, laughed you to scorn;
The daughter of Jerusalem
Has shaken her head behind your back!

22‘Whom have you reproached and blasphemed?

Against whom have you raised your voice,
And lifted up your eyes on high?
Against the Holy One of Israel.
[23]By your messengers you have reproached the Lord,
And said: “By the multitude of my chariots
I have come up to the height of the mountains,
To the limits of Lebanon;
I will cut down its tall cedars
And its choice cypress trees;
I will enter the extremity of its borders,
To its fruitful forest.
[24]I have dug and drunk strange water,
And with the soles of my feet I have dried up
All the brooks of defense.”

25‘Did you not hear long ago
How I made it,
From ancient times that I formed it?
Now I have brought it to pass,
That you should be
For crushing fortified cities into heaps of ruins.
[26]Therefore their inhabitants had little power;
They were dismayed and confounded;
They were as the grass of the field
And the green herb,
As the grass on the housetops
And grain blighted before it is grown.

27‘But I know your dwelling place,
Your going out and your coming in,
And your rage against Me.
[28]Because your rage against Me and your tumult
Have come up to My ears,
Therefore I will put My hook in your nose
And My bridle in your lips,
And I will turn you back
By the way which you came.

[29]‘This shall be a sign to you:

You shall eat this year such as grows of itself,
And in the second year what springs from the same;
Also in the third year sow and reap,
Plant vineyards and eat the fruit of them.
[30]And the remnant who have escaped of the house of Judah
Shall again take root downward,
And bear fruit upward.
[31]For out of Jerusalem shall go a remnant,
And those who escape from Mount Zion.
The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.’

[32]“Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria:

‘He shall not come into this city,
Nor shoot an arrow there,
Nor come before it with shield,
Nor build a siege mound against it.
[33]By the way that he came,
By the same shall he return;
And he shall not come into this city,’
Says the LORD.
[34]‘For I will defend this city, to save it
For My own sake and for My servant David’s sake.’ ”

Sennacherib’s Defeat and Death

[35]And it came to pass on a certain night that the angel of the LORD went out, and killed in the camp of the Assyrians one hundred and eighty-five thousand; and when people arose early in the morning, there were the corpses—all dead.

[36]So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed and went away, returned home, and remained at Nineveh.

[37]Now it came to pass, as he was worshiping in the temple of Nisroch his god, that his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him down with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. Then Esarhaddon his son reigned in his place.

2 Kings 20

Hezekiah's Life Extended

[1]In those days Hezekiah was sick and near death. And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, went to him and said to him, “Thus says the LORD: ‘Set your house in order, for you shall die, and not live.’ ”

[2]Then he turned his face toward the wall, and prayed to the LORD, saying,

[3]“Remember now, O LORD, I pray, how I have walked before You in truth and with a loyal heart, and have done what was good in Your sight.” And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

[4]And it happened, before Isaiah had gone out into the middle court, that the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

[5]“Return and tell Hezekiah the leader of My people, ‘Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father: “I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; surely I will heal you. On the third day you shall go up to the house of the LORD.

[6]“And I will add to your days fifteen years. I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will defend this city for My own sake, and for the sake of My servant David.” ’ ”

[7]Then Isaiah said, “Take a lump of figs.” So they took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered.

[8]And Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “What is the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up to the house of the LORD the third day?”

[9]Then Isaiah said, “This is the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing which He has spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten degrees or go backward ten degrees?”

[10]And Hezekiah answered, “It is an easy thing for the shadow to go down ten degrees; no, but let the shadow go backward ten degrees.”

[11]So Isaiah the prophet cried out to the LORD, and He brought the shadow ten degrees backward, by which it had gone down on the sundial of Ahaz.

The Babylonian Envoys

12At that time Berodach-Baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he heard that Hezekiah had been sick.

13And Hezekiah was attentive to them, and showed them all the house of his treasures—the silver and gold, the spices and precious ointment, and all his armory—all that was found among his treasures. There was nothing in his house or in all his dominion that Hezekiah did not show them.

14Then Isaiah the prophet went to King Hezekiah, and said to him, "What did these men say, and from where did they come to you?" So Hezekiah said, "They came from a far country, from Babylon."

15And he said, "What have they seen in your house?" So Hezekiah answered, "They have seen all that is in my house; there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them."

16Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD:

17'Behold, the days are coming when all that is in your house, and what your fathers have accumulated until this day, shall be carried to Babylon; nothing shall be left,' says the LORD.

18'And they shall take away some of your sons who will descend from you, whom you will beget; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.' "

19So Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The word of the LORD which you have spoken is good!" For he said, "Will there not be peace and truth at least in my days?"

Death of Hezekiah

20Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah—all his might, and how he made a pool and a tunnel and brought water into the city—are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

21So Hezekiah rested with his fathers. Then Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

2 Kings 21

Manasseh Reigns in Judah

[1]Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hephzibah.

[2]And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

[3]For he rebuilt the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; he raised up altars for Baal, and made a wooden image, as Ahab king of Israel had done; and he worshiped all the host of heaven and served them.

[4]He also built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, "In Jerusalem I will put My name."

[5]And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.

[6]Also he made his son pass through the fire, practiced soothsaying, used witchcraft, and consulted spiritists and mediums. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger.

[7]He even set a carved image of Asherah that he had made, in the house of which the LORD had said to David and to Solomon his son, "In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever;

[8]"and I will not make the feet of Israel wander anymore from the land which I gave their fathers—only if they are careful to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that My servant Moses commanded them."

[9]But they paid no attention, and Manasseh seduced them to do more evil than the nations whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

[10]And the LORD spoke by His servants the prophets, saying,

[11]"Because Manasseh king of Judah has done these abominations (he has acted more wickedly than all the Amorites who were before him, and has also made Judah sin with his idols),

[12]“therefore thus says the LORD God of Israel: ‘Behold, I am bringing such calamity upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whoever hears of it, both his ears will tingle.

[13]‘And I will stretch over Jerusalem the measuring line of Samaria and the plummet of the house of Ahab; I will wipe Jerusalem as one wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down.

[14]‘So I will forsake the remnant of My inheritance and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become victims of plunder to all their enemies,

[15]‘because they have done evil in My sight, and have provoked Me to anger since the day their fathers came out of Egypt, even to this day.’ ”

[16]Moreover Manasseh shed very much innocent blood, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another, besides his sin by which he made Judah sin, in doing evil in the sight of the LORD.

[17]Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh—all that he did, and the sin that he committed—are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

[18]So Manasseh rested with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza. Then his son Amon reigned in his place.

Amon’s Reign and Death

[19]Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Meshullemeth the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.

[20]And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, as his father Manasseh had done.

[21]So he walked in all the ways that his father had walked; and he served the idols that his father had served, and worshiped them.

[22]He forsook the LORD God of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of the LORD.

[23]Then the servants of Amon conspired against him, and killed the king in his own house.

[24]But the people of the land executed all those who had conspired against King Amon. Then the people of the land made his son Josiah king in his place.

[25]Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

[26]And he was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza. Then Josiah his son reigned in his place.

2 Kings 22

Josiah Reigns in Judah

[1]Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jedidah the daughter of Adaiah of Bozkath.

[2]And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in all the ways of his father David; he did not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

Hilkiah Finds the Book of the Law

[3]Now it came to pass, in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, that the king sent Shaphan the scribe, the son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam, to the house of the LORD, saying:

[4]"Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, that he may count the money which has been brought into the house of the LORD, which the doorkeepers have gathered from the people.

[5]"And let them deliver it into the hand of those doing the work, who are the overseers in the house of the LORD; let them give it to those who are in the house of the LORD doing the work, to repair the damages of the house—

[6]"to carpenters and builders and masons—and to buy timber and hewn stone to repair the house.

[7]"However there need be no accounting made with them of the money delivered into their hand, because they deal faithfully."

[8]Then Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the Book of the Law in the house of the LORD." And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it.

[9]So Shaphan the scribe went to the king, bringing the king word, saying, "Your servants have gathered the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of those who do the work, who oversee the house of the LORD."

[10]Then Shaphan the scribe showed the king, saying, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read it before the king.

[11]Now it happened, when the king heard the words of the Book of the Law, that he tore his clothes.

[12]Then the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam the son of Shaphan, Achbor the son of Michaiah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king, saying,

[13]"Go, inquire of the LORD for me, for the people and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that has been found; for great is the wrath of the LORD that is aroused against us, because our fathers have not obeyed the words of this book, to do according to all that is written concerning us."

[14]So Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe. (She dwelt in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter.) And they spoke with her.

[15]Then she said to them, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel, 'Tell the man who sent you to Me,

[16]"Thus says the LORD: 'Behold, I will bring calamity on this place and on its inhabitants—all the words of the book which the king of Judah has read—

[17]'because they have forsaken Me and burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands. Therefore My wrath shall be aroused against this place and shall not be quenched.' " '

[18]"But as for the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, in this manner you shall speak to him, 'Thus says the LORD God of Israel: "Concerning the words which you have heard—

[19]"because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before the LORD when you heard what I spoke against this place and against its inhabitants, that they would become a desolation and a curse, and you tore your clothes and wept before Me, I also have heard you," says the LORD.

[20]"Surely, therefore, I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace; and your eyes shall not see all the calamity which I will bring on this place." ' " So they brought back word to the king.

2 Kings 23

Josiah Restores True Worship

[1]Now the king sent them to gather all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem to him.

[2]The king went up to the house of the LORD with all the men of Judah, and with him all the inhabitants of Jerusalem—the priests and the prophets and all the people, both small and great. And he read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant which had been found in the house of the LORD.

[3]Then the king stood by a pillar and made a covenant before the LORD, to follow the LORD and to keep His commandments and His testimonies and His statutes, with all his heart and all his soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the people took a stand for the covenant.

[4]And the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, the priests of the second order, and the doorkeepers, to bring out of the temple of the LORD all the articles that were made for Baal, for Asherah, and for all the host of heaven; and he burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and carried their ashes to Bethel.

[5]Then he removed the idolatrous priests whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense on the high places in the cities of Judah and in the places all around Jerusalem, and those who burned incense to Baal, to the sun, to the moon, to the constellations, and to all the host of heaven.

[6]And he brought out the wooden image from the house of the LORD, to the Brook Kidron outside Jerusalem, burned it at the Brook Kidron and ground it to ashes, and threw its ashes on the graves of the common people.

[7]Then he tore down the ritual booths of the perverted persons that were in the house of the LORD, where the women wove hangings for the wooden image.

[8]And he brought all the priests from the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba to

Beersheba; also he broke down the high places at the gates which were at the entrance of the Gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were to the left of the city gate.

[9]Nevertheless the priests of the high places did not come up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they ate unleavened bread among their brethren.

[10]And he defiled Topheth, which is in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter pass through the fire to Molech.

[11]Then he removed the horses that the kings of Judah had dedicated to the sun, at the entrance to the house of the LORD, by the chamber of Nathan-Melech, the officer who was in the court; and he burned the chariots of the sun with fire.

[12]The altars that were on the roof, the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD, the king broke down and pulverized there, and threw their dust into the Brook Kidron.

[13]Then the king defiled the high places that were east of Jerusalem, which were on the south of the Mount of Corruption, which Solomon king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Sidonians, for Chemosh the abomination of the Moabites, and for Milcom the abomination of the people of Ammon.

[14]And he broke in pieces the sacred pillars and cut down the wooden images, and filled their places with the bones of men.

[15]Moreover the altar that was at Bethel, and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin, had made, both that altar and the high place he broke down; and he burned the high place and crushed it to powder, and burned the wooden image.

[16]As Josiah turned, he saw the tombs that were there on the mountain. And he sent and took the bones out of the tombs and burned them on the altar, and defiled it according to the word of the LORD which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these words.

[17]Then he said, “What gravestone is this that I see?” So the men of the city told him, “It is the tomb of the man of God who came from Judah and proclaimed these things which you have done against the altar of Bethel.”

[18]And he said, "Let him alone; let no one move his bones." So they let his bones alone, with the bones of the prophet who came from Samaria.

[19]Now Josiah also took away all the shrines of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke the LORD to anger; and he did to them according to all the deeds he had done in Bethel.

[20]He executed all the priests of the high places who were there, on the altars, and burned men's bones on them; and he returned to Jerusalem.

[21]Then the king commanded all the people, saying, "Keep the Passover to the LORD your God, as it is written in this Book of the Covenant."

[22]Such a Passover surely had never been held since the days of the judges who judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel and the kings of Judah.

[23]But in the eighteenth year of King Josiah this Passover was held before the LORD in Jerusalem.

[24]Moreover Josiah put away those who consulted mediums and spiritists, the household gods and idols, all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, that he might perform the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of the LORD.

[25]Now before him there was no king like him, who turned to the LORD with all his heart, with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the Law of Moses; nor after him did any arise like him.

Impending Judgment on Judah

[26]Nevertheless the LORD did not turn from the fierceness of His great wrath, with which His anger was aroused against Judah, because of all the provocations with which Manasseh had provoked Him.

[27]And the LORD said, "I will also remove Judah from My sight, as I have removed Israel, and will cast off this city Jerusalem which I have chosen, and the house of which I said, 'My name shall be there.' "

Josiah Dies in Battle

28Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

29In his days Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt went to the aid of the king of Assyria, to the River Euphrates; and King Josiah went against him. And Pharaoh Necho killed him at Megiddo when he confronted him.

30Then his servants moved his body in a chariot from Megiddo, brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own tomb. And the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, anointed him, and made him king in his father's place.

The Reign and Captivity of Jehoahaz

31Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

32And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

33Now Pharaoh Necho put him in prison at Riblah in the land of Hamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and he imposed on the land a tribute of one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

34Then Pharaoh Necho made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in place of his father Josiah, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. And Pharaoh took Jehoahaz and went to Egypt, and he died there.

Jehoiakim Reigns in Judah

35So Jehoiakim gave the silver and gold to Pharaoh; but he taxed the land to give money according to the command of Pharaoh; he exacted the silver and gold from the people of the land, from every one according to his assessment, to give it to Pharaoh Necho.

36Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zebudah the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah.

37And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

2 Kings 24

Judah Overrun by Enemies

[1]In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his vassal for three years. Then he turned and rebelled against him.

[2]And the LORD sent against him raiding bands of Chaldeans, bands of Syrians, bands of Moabites, and bands of the people of Ammon; He sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD which He had spoken by His servants the prophets.

[3]Surely at the commandment of the LORD this came upon Judah, to remove them from His sight because of the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he had done,

[4]and also because of the innocent blood that he had shed; for he had filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, which the LORD would not pardon.

[5]Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

[6]So Jehoiakim rested with his fathers. Then Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place.

[7]And the king of Egypt did not come out of his land anymore, for the king of Babylon had taken all that belonged to the king of Egypt from the Brook of Egypt to the River Euphrates.

The Reign and Captivity of Jehoiachin

[8]Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. His mother's name was Nehushta the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem.

[9]And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father had done.

[10]At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against Jerusalem, and the city was besieged.

[11]And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came against the city, as his servants were besieging it.

[12]Then Jehoiachin king of Judah, his mother, his servants, his princes, and his officers went out to the king of Babylon; and the king of Babylon, in the eighth year of his reign, took him prisoner.

The Captivity of Jerusalem

[13]And he carried out from there all the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house, and he cut in pieces all the articles of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the LORD, as the LORD had said.

[14]Also he carried into captivity all Jerusalem: all the captains and all the mighty men of valor, ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and smiths. None remained except the poorest people of the land.

[15]And he carried Jehoiachin captive to Babylon. The king's mother, the king's wives, his officers, and the mighty of the land he carried into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon.

[16]All the valiant men, seven thousand, and craftsmen and smiths, one thousand, all who were strong and fit for war, these the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon.

Zedekiah Reigns in Judah

[17]Then the king of Babylon made Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's uncle, king in his place, and changed his name to Zedekiah.

[18]Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

[19]He also did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

[20]For because of the anger of the LORD this happened in Jerusalem and Judah, that He finally cast them out from His presence. Then Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

2 Kings 25

The Fall and Captivity of Judah

[1]Now it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem and encamped against it; and they built a siege wall against it all around.

[2]So the city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

[3]By the ninth day of the fourth month the famine had become so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land.

[4]Then the city wall was broken through, and all the men of war fled at night by way of the gate between two walls, which was by the king's garden, even though the Chaldeans were still encamped all around against the city. And the king went by way of the plain.

[5]But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king, and they overtook him in the plains of Jericho. All his army was scattered from him.

[6]So they took the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah, and they pronounced judgment on him.

[7]Then they killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, put out the eyes of Zedekiah, bound him with bronze fetters, and took him to Babylon.

[8]And in the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month (which was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.

[9]He burned the house of the LORD and the king's house; all the houses of Jerusalem, that is, all the houses of the great, he burned with fire.

[10]And all the army of the Chaldeans who were with the captain of the guard broke down the walls of Jerusalem all around.

[11]Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive the rest of the people who remained in the city and the defectors who had deserted to the king of Babylon, with the rest of the multitude.

[12]But the captain of the guard left some of the poor of the land as vinedressers and farmers.

[13]The bronze pillars that were in the house of the LORD, and the carts and the bronze Sea that were in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke in pieces, and carried their bronze to Babylon.

[14]They also took away the pots, the shovels, the trimmers, the spoons, and all the bronze utensils with which the priests ministered.

[15]The firepans and the basins, the things of solid gold and solid silver, the captain of the guard took away.

[16]The two pillars, one Sea, and the carts, which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD, the bronze of all these articles was beyond measure.

[17]The height of one pillar was eighteen cubits, and the capital on it was of bronze. The height of the capital was three cubits, and the network and pomegranates all around the capital were all of bronze. The second pillar was the same, with a network.

[18]And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the second priest, and the three doorkeepers.

[19]He also took out of the city an officer who had charge of the men of war, five men of the king’s close associates who were found in the city, the chief recruiting officer of the army, who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the city.

[20]So Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard, took these and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

[21]Then the king of Babylon struck them and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was carried away captive from its own land.

Gedaliah Made Governor of Judah

[22]Then he made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, governor over the people who remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left.

[23]Now when all the captains of the armies, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah—Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, Johanan the son of Careah, Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men.

[24]And Gedaliah took an oath before them and their men, and said to them, “Do not be afraid of the servants of the Chaldeans. Dwell in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.”

[25]But it happened in the seventh month that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal family, came with ten men and struck and killed Gedaliah, the Jews, as well as the Chaldeans who were with him at Mizpah.

[26]And all the people, small and great, and the captains of the armies, arose and went to Egypt; for they were afraid of the Chaldeans.

Jehoiachin Released from Prison

[27]Now it came to pass in the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, that Evil-Merodach king of Babylon, in the year that he began to reign, released Jehoiachin king of Judah from prison.

[28]He spoke kindly to him, and gave him a more prominent seat than those of the kings who were with him in Babylon.

[29]So Jehoiachin changed from his prison garments, and he ate bread regularly before the king all the days of his life.

[30]And as for his provisions, there was a regular ration given him by the king, a portion for each day, all the days of his life.

1 Chronicles 4

The Family of Judah

[1]The sons of Judah were Perez, Hezron, Carmi, Hur, and Shobal.

[2]And Reaiah the son of Shobal begot Jahath, and Jahath begot Ahumai and Lahad. These were the families of the Zorathites.

[3]These were the sons of the father of Etam: Jezreel, Ishma, and Idbash; and the name of their sister was Hazelelponi;

[4]and Penuel was the father of Gedor, and Ezer was the father of Hushah. These were the sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah the father of Bethlehem.

[5]And Ashhur the father of Tekoa had two wives, Helah and Naarah.

[6]Naarah bore him Ahuzzam, Hepher, Temeni, and Haahashtari. These were the sons of Naarah.

[7]The sons of Helah were Zereth, Zohar, and Ethnan;

[8]and Koz begot Anub, Zobebah, and the families of Aharhel the son of Harum.

[9]Now Jabez was more honorable than his brothers, and his mother called his name Jabez, saying, “Because I bore him in pain.”

[10]And Jabez called on the God of Israel saying, “Oh, that You would bless me indeed, and enlarge my territory, that Your hand would be with me, and that You would keep me from evil, that I may not cause pain!” So God granted him what he requested.

[11]Chelub the brother of Shuhah begot Mehir, who was the father of Eshton.

[12]And Eshton begot Beth-Rapha, Paseah, and Tehinnah the father of Ir-Nahash. These were the men of Rechah.

[13]The sons of Kenaz were Othniel and Seraiah. The sons of Othniel were Hathath,

[14]and Meonothai who begot Ophrah. Seraiah begot Joab the father of Ge Harashim, for they were craftsmen.

[15]The sons of Caleb the son of Jephunneh were Iru, Elah, and Naam. The son of Elah was Kenaz.

[16]The sons of Jehallelel were Ziph, Ziphah, Tiria, and Asarel.

[17]The sons of Ezrah were Jether, Mered, Epher, and Jalon. And Mered's wife bore Miriam, Shammai, and Ishbah the father of Eshtemoa.

[18](His wife Jehudijah bore Jered the father of Gedor, Heber the father of Sochoh, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah.) And these were the sons of Bithiah the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Mered took.

[19]The sons of Hodiah's wife, the sister of Naham, were the fathers of Keilah the Garmite and of Eshtemoa the Maachathite.

[20]And the sons of Shimon were Amnon, Rinnah, Ben-Hanan, and Tilon. And the sons of Ishi were Zoheth and Ben-Zoheth.

[21]The sons of Shelah the son of Judah were Er the father of Lecah, Laadah the father of Mareshah, and the families of the house of the linen workers of the house of Ashbea;

[22]also Jokim, the men of Chozeba, and Joash; Saraph, who ruled in Moab, and Jashubi-Lehem. Now the records are ancient.

[23]These were the potters and those who dwell at Netaim and Gederah; there they dwelt with the king for his work.

The Family of Simeon

[24]The sons of Simeon were Nemuel, Jamin, Jarib, Zerah, and Shaul, [25]Shallum his son, Mibsam his son, and Mishma his son.

[26]And the sons of Mishma were Hamuel his son, Zacchur his son, and Shimei his son.

[27]Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters; but his brothers did not have many children, nor did any of their families multiply as much as the children of Judah.

[28]They dwelt at Beersheba, Moladah, Hazar Shual,

[29]Bilhah, Ezem, Tolad,

[30]Bethuel, Hormah, Ziklag,

[31]Beth Marcaboth, Hazar Susim, Beth Biri, and at Shaaraim. These were their cities until the reign of David.

[32]And their villages were Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Tochen, and Ashan—five cities—

[33]and all the villages that were around these cities as far as Baal. These were their dwelling places, and they maintained their genealogy:

[34]Meshobab, Jamlech, and Joshah the son of Amaziah;

[35]Joel, and Jehu the son of Joshibiah, the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel;

[36]Elioenai, Jaakobah, Jeshohaiah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, and Benaiah;

[37]Ziza the son of Shiphi, the son of Allon, the son of Jedaiah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah—

[38]these mentioned by name were leaders in their families, and their father’s house increased greatly.

[39]So they went to the entrance of Gedor, as far as the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks.

[40]And they found rich, good pasture, and the land was broad, quiet, and peaceful; for some Hamites formerly lived there.

[41]These recorded by name came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah; and they attacked their tents and the Meunites who were found there, and utterly destroyed them, as it is to this day. So they dwelt in their place, because there was pasture for their flocks there.

[42]Now some of them, five hundred men of the sons of Simeon, went to Mount Seir, having as their captains Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi.

[43]And they defeated the rest of the Amalekites who had escaped. They have dwelt there to this day.

1 Chronicles 5

The Family of Reuben

[1]Now the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel—he was indeed the firstborn, but because he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph, the son of Israel, so that the genealogy is not listed according to the birthright;

[2]yet Judah prevailed over his brothers, and from him came a ruler, although the birthright was Joseph's—

[3]the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

[4]The sons of Joel were Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son,

[5]Micah his son, Reaiah his son, Baal his son,

[6]and Beerah his son, whom Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria carried into captivity. He was leader of the Reubenites.

[7]And his brethren by their families, when the genealogy of their generations was registered: the chief, Jeiel, and Zechariah,

[8]and Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who dwelt in Aroer, as far as Nebo and Baal Meon.

[9]Eastward they settled as far as the entrance of the wilderness this side of the River Euphrates, because their cattle had multiplied in the land of Gilead.

[10]Now in the days of Saul they made war with the Hagrites, who fell by their hand; and they dwelt in their tents throughout the entire area east of Gilead.

The Family of Gad

[11]And the children of Gad dwelt next to them in the land of Bashan as far as Salcah:

[12]Joel was the chief, Shapham the next, then Jaanai and Shaphat in Bashan,

[13]and their brethren of their father's house: Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jachan, Zia, and Eber—seven in all.

[14]These were the children of Abihail the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz;

[15]Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, was chief of their father's house.

[16]And the Gadites dwelt in Gilead, in Bashan and in its villages, and in all the common-lands of Sharon within their borders.

[17]All these were registered by genealogies in the days of Jotham king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel.

[18]The sons of Reuben, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh had forty-four thousand seven hundred and sixty valiant men, men able to bear shield and sword, to shoot with the bow, and skillful in war, who went to war.

[19]They made war with the Hagrites, Jetur, Naphish, and Nodab.

[20]And they were helped against them, and the Hagrites were delivered into their hand, and all who were with them, for they cried out to God in the battle. He heeded their prayer, because they put their trust in Him.

[21]Then they took away their livestock—fifty thousand of their camels, two hundred and fifty thousand of their sheep, and two thousand of their donkeys—also one hundred thousand of their men;

[22]for many fell dead, because the war was God's. And they dwelt in their place until the captivity.

The Family of Manasseh (East)

[23]So the children of the half-tribe of Manasseh dwelt in the land. Their numbers increased from Bashan to Baal Hermon, that is, to Senir, or Mount Hermon.

[24]These were the heads of their fathers' houses: Epher, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah, and Jahdiel. They were mighty men of valor, famous men, and heads of their fathers' houses.

[25]And they were unfaithful to the God of their fathers, and played the harlot after the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God had destroyed before them.

[26]So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria, that is, Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria. He carried the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh into captivity. He took them to Halah, Habor, Hara, and the river of Gozan to this day.

1 Chronicles 6

[15]Jehozadak went into captivity when the LORD carried Judah and Jerusalem into captivity by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar.

[16]The sons of Levi were Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

[17]These are the names of the sons of Gershon: Libni and Shimei.

[18]The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

[19]The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. Now these are the families of the Levites according to their fathers:

Musicians in the House of the LORD

[31]Now these are the men whom David appointed over the service of song in the house of the LORD, after the ark came to rest.

[32]They were ministering with music before the dwelling place of the tabernacle of meeting, until Solomon had built the house of the LORD in Jerusalem, and they served in their office according to their order.

[33]And these are the ones who ministered with their sons: Of the sons of the Kohathites were Heman the singer, the son of Joel, the son of Samuel,

[34]the son of Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Eliel, the son of Toah, 47the son of Mahli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi.

48And their brethren, the Levites, were appointed to every kind of service of the tabernacle of the house of God.

The Family of Aaron

49But Aaron and his sons offered sacrifices on the altar of burnt offering and on the altar of incense, for all the work of the Most Holy Place, and to make atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded.

50Now these are the sons of Aaron: Eleazar his son, Phinehas his son, Abishua his son,

51Bukki his son, Uzzi his son, Zerahiah his son,

Dwelling Places of the Levites

54Now these are their dwelling places throughout their settlements in their territory, for they were given by lot to the sons of Aaron, of the family of the Kohathites:

55They gave them Hebron in the land of Judah, with its surrounding common-lands.

56But the fields of the city and its villages they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

[61]To the rest of the family of the tribe of the Kohathites they gave by lot ten cities from half the tribe of Manasseh.

[34]The son of Jonathan was Merib-Baal, and Merib-Baal begot Micah.

[35]The sons of Micah were Pithon, Melech, Tarea, and Ahaz.

[36]And Ahaz begot Jehoaddah; Jehoaddah begot Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begot Moza.

[37]Moza begot Binea, Raphah his son, Eleasah his son, and Azel his son.

[38]Azel had six sons whose names were these: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan. All these were the sons of Azel.

[39]And the sons of Eshek his brother were Ulam his firstborn, Jeush the second, and Eliphelet the third.

[40]The sons of Ulam were mighty men of valor—archers. They had many sons and grandsons, one hundred and fifty in all. These were all sons of Benjamin.

1 Chronicles 9

[1]So all Israel was recorded by genealogies, and indeed, they were inscribed in the book of the kings of Israel. But Judah was carried away captive to Babylon because of their unfaithfulness.

[2]And the first inhabitants who dwelt in their possessions in their cities were Israelites, priests, Levites, and the Nethinim.

Dwellers in Jerusalem

[3]Now in Jerusalem the children of Judah dwelt, and some of the children of Benjamin, and of the children of Ephraim and Manasseh:

[4]Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the descendants of Perez, the son of Judah.

[5]Of the Shilonites: Asaiah the firstborn and his sons.

[6]Of the sons of Zerah: Jeuel, and their brethren—six hundred and ninety.

[7]Of the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hassenuah;

[8]Ibneiah the son of Jeroham; Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Michri; Meshullam the son of Shephatiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah;

[9]and their brethren, according to their generations—nine hundred and fifty-six. All these men were heads of a father's house in their fathers' houses.

The Priests at Jerusalem

[10]Of the priests: Jedaiah, Jehoiarib, and Jachin;

[11]Azariah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the officer over the house of God;

[12]Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchijah; Maasai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer;

[13]and their brethren, heads of their fathers' houses—one thousand seven hundred and sixty. They were very able men for the work of the service of the house of God.

The Levites at Jerusalem

14Of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari;

15Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal, and Mattaniah the son of Micah, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph;

16Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun; and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites.

The Levite Gatekeepers

17And the gatekeepers were Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman, and their brethren. Shallum was the chief.

18Until then they had been gatekeepers for the camps of the children of Levi at the King's Gate on the east.

19Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brethren, from his father's house, the Korahites, were in charge of the work of the service, gatekeepers of the tabernacle. Their fathers had been keepers of the entrance to the camp of the LORD.

20And Phinehas the son of Eleazar had been the officer over them in time past; the LORD was with him.

21Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was keeper of the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

22All those chosen as gatekeepers were two hundred and twelve. They were recorded by their genealogy, in their villages. David and Samuel the seer had appointed them to their trusted office.

23So they and their children were in charge of the gates of the house of the LORD, the house of the tabernacle, by assignment.

24The gatekeepers were assigned to the four directions: the east, west, north, and south.

25And their brethren in their villages had to come with them from time to time for seven days.

26For in this trusted office were four chief gatekeepers; they were Levites. And they had charge over the chambers and treasuries of the house of God.

[27]And they lodged all around the house of God because they had the responsibility, and they were in charge of opening it every morning.

Other Levite Responsibilities

[28]Now some of them were in charge of the serving vessels, for they brought them in and took them out by count.

[29]Some of them were appointed over the furnishings and over all the implements of the sanctuary, and over the fine flour and the wine and the oil and the incense and the spices.

[30]And some of the sons of the priests made the ointment of the spices.

[31]Mattithiah of the Levites, the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, had the trusted office over the things that were baked in the pans.

[32]And some of their brethren of the sons of the Kohathites were in charge of preparing the showbread for every Sabbath.

[33]These are the singers, heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites, who lodged in the chambers, and were free from other duties; for they were employed in that work day and night.

[34]These heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites were heads throughout their generations. They dwelt at Jerusalem.

The Family of King Saul

[35]Jeiel the father of Gibeon, whose wife's name was Maacah, dwelt at Gibeon.

[36]His firstborn son was Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, [37]Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah, and Mikloth.

[38]And Mikloth begot Shimeam. They also dwelt alongside their relatives in Jerusalem, with their brethren.

[39]Ner begot Kish, Kish begot Saul, and Saul begot Jonathan, Malchishua, Abinadab, and Esh-Baal.

[40]The son of Jonathan was Merib-Baal, and Merib-Baal begot Micah.

[41]The sons of Micah were Pithon, Melech, Tahrea, and Ahaz.

[42]And Ahaz begot Jarah; Jarah begot Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begot Moza;

[43]Moza begot Binea, Rephaiah his son, Eleasah his son, and Azel his son.

[44]And Azel had six sons whose names were these: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan; these were the sons of Azel.

1 Chronicles 10

Tragic End of Saul and His Sons

[1]Now the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell slain on Mount Gilboa.

[2]Then the Philistines followed hard after Saul and his sons. And the Philistines killed Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua, Saul's sons.

[3]The battle became fierce against Saul. The archers hit him, and he was wounded by the archers.

[4]Then Saul said to his armorbearer, "Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised men come and abuse me." But his armorbearer would not, for he was greatly afraid. Therefore Saul took a sword and fell on it.

[5]And when his armorbearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword and died.

[6]So Saul and his three sons died, and all his house died together.

[7]And when all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that they had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook their cities and fled; then the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

[8]So it happened the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

[9]And they stripped him and took his head and his armor, and sent word throughout the land of the Philistines to proclaim the news in the temple of their idols and among the people.

[10]Then they put his armor in the temple of their gods, and fastened his head in the temple of Dagon.

[11]And when all Jabesh Gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul,

[12]all the valiant men arose and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons; and they brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the tamarisk tree at Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

[13]So Saul died for his unfaithfulness which he had committed against the LORD, because he did not keep the word of the LORD, and also because he consulted a medium for guidance.

[14]But he did not inquire of the LORD; therefore He killed him, and turned the kingdom over to David the son of Jesse.

1 Chronicles 11

David Made King over All Israel

[1]Then all Israel came together to David at Hebron, saying, “Indeed we are your bone and your flesh.

[2]“Also, in time past, even when Saul was king, you were the one who led Israel out and brought them in; and the LORD your God said to you, ‘You shall shepherd My people Israel, and be ruler over My people Israel.’ ”

[3]Therefore all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the LORD. And they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD by Samuel.

The City of David

[4]And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, which is Jebus, where the Jebusites were, the inhabitants of the land.

[5]But the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, “You shall not come in here!” Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion (that is, the City of David).

[6]Now David said, “Whoever attacks the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain.” And Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, and became chief.

[7]Then David dwelt in the stronghold; therefore they called it the City of David.

[8]And he built the city around it, from the Millo to the surrounding area. Joab repaired the rest of the city.

[9]So David went on and became great, and the LORD of hosts was with him.

The Mighty Men of David

[10]Now these were the heads of the mighty men whom David had, who strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

[11]And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had: Jashobeam the son of a Hachmonite, chief of the captains; he had lifted up his spear against three hundred, killed by him at one time.

[12]After him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty men.

[13]He was with David at Pasdammim. Now there the Philistines were gathered for battle, and there was a piece of ground full of barley. So the people fled from the Philistines.

[14]But they stationed themselves in the middle of that field, defended it, and killed the Philistines. So the LORD brought about a great victory.

[15]Now three of the thirty chief men went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the army of the Philistines encamped in the Valley of Rephaim.

[16]David was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem.

[17]And David said with longing, “Oh, that someone would give me a drink of water from the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!”

[18]So the three broke through the camp of the Philistines, drew water from the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate, and took it and brought it to David. Nevertheless David would not drink it, but poured it out to the LORD.

[19]And he said, “Far be it from me, O my God, that I should do this! Shall I drink the blood of these men who have put their lives in jeopardy? For at the risk of their lives they brought it.” Therefore he would not drink it. These things were done by the three mighty men.

[20]Abishai the brother of Joab was chief of another three. He had lifted up his spear against three hundred men, killed them, and won a name among these three.

[21]Of the three he was more honored than the other two men. Therefore he became their captain. However he did not attain to the first three.

[22]Benaiah was the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man from Kabzeel, who had done many deeds. He had killed two lion-like heroes of Moab. He also had gone down and killed a lion in the midst of a pit on a snowy day.

[23]And he killed an Egyptian, a man of great height, five cubits tall. In the Egyptian's hand there was a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff, wrested the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear.

[24]These things Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did, and won a name among three mighty men.

[25]Indeed he was more honored than the thirty, but he did not attain to the first three. And David appointed him over his guard.

[26]Also the mighty warriors were Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem,

[27]Shammoth the Harorite, Helez the Pelonite,

[28]Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, Abiezer the Anathothite,

[29]Sibbechai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite,

[30]Maharai the Netophathite, Heled the son of Baanah the Netophathite,

[31]Ithai the son of Ribai of Gibeah, of the sons of Benjamin, Benaiah the Pirathonite,

[32]Hurai of the brooks of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite,

[33]Azmaveth the Baharumite, Eliahba the Shaalbonite,

[34]the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan the son of Shageh the Hararite,

[35]Ahiam the son of Sacar the Hararite, Eliphal the son of Ur,

[36]Hepher the Mecherathite, Ahijah the Pelonite,

[37]Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai the son of Ezbai,

[38]Joel the brother of Nathan, Mibhar the son of Hagri,

[39]Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite (the armorbearer of Joab the son of Zeruiah),

[40]Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,

[41]Uriah the Hittite, Zabad the son of Ahlai,

[42]Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite (a chief of the Reubenites) and thirty with him,

[43]Hanan the son of Maachah, Joshaphat the Mithnite,

[44]Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jeiel the sons of Hotham the Aroerite,

[45]Jediael the son of Shimri, and Joha his brother, the Tizite,

[46]Eliel the Mahavite, Jeribai and Joshaviah the sons of Elnaam, Ithmah the Moabite, [47]Eliel, Obed, and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

1 Chronicles 12

The Growth of David's Army

[1]Now these were the men who came to David at Ziklag while he was still a fugitive from Saul the son of Kish; and they were among the mighty men, helpers in the war,

[2]armed with bows, using both the right hand and the left in hurling stones and shooting arrows with the bow. They were of Benjamin, Saul's brethren.

[3]The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; Jeziel and Pelet the sons of Azmaveth; Berachah, and Jehu the Anathothite;

[4]Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty; Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, and Jozabad the Gederathite;

[5]Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite;

[6]Elkanah, Jisshiah, Azarel, Joezer, and Jashobeam, the Korahites;

[7]and Joelah and Zebadiah the sons of Jeroham of Gedor.

[8]Some Gadites joined David at the stronghold in the wilderness, mighty men of valor, men trained for battle, who could handle shield and spear, whose faces were like the faces of lions, and were as swift as gazelles on the mountains:

[9]Ezer the first, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third,

[10]Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,

[11]Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,

[12]Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,

[13]Jeremiah the tenth, and Machbanai the eleventh.

[14]These were from the sons of Gad, captains of the army; the least was over a hundred, and the greatest was over a thousand.

[15]These are the ones who crossed the Jordan in the first month, when it had overflowed all its banks; and they put to flight all those in the valleys, to the east and to the west.

[16]Then some of the sons of Benjamin and Judah came to David at the stronghold.

[17]And David went out to meet them, and answered and said to them, “If you have come peaceably to me to help me, my heart will be united with you; but if to betray me to my enemies, since there is no wrong in my hands, may the God of our fathers look and bring judgment.”

[18]Then the Spirit came upon Amasai, chief of the captains, and he said:

“We are yours, O David;
We are on your side, O son of Jesse!
Peace, peace to you,
And peace to your helpers!
For your God helps you.”

So David received them, and made them captains of the troop.

[19]And some from Manasseh defected to David when he was going with the Philistines to battle against Saul; but they did not help them, for the lords of the Philistines sent him away by agreement, saying, “He may defect to his master Saul and endanger our heads.”

[20]When he went to Ziklag, those of Manasseh who defected to him were Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai, captains of the thousands who were from Manasseh.

[21]And they helped David against the bands of raiders, for they were all mighty men of valor, and they were captains in the army.

[22]For at that time they came to David day by day to help him, until it was a great army, like the army of God.

David’s Army at Hebron

[23]Now these were the numbers of the divisions that were equipped for war, and came to David at Hebron to turn over the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the LORD:

[24]of the sons of Judah bearing shield and spear, six thousand eight hundred armed for war;

[25]of the sons of Simeon, mighty men of valor fit for war, seven thousand one hundred;

[26]of the sons of Levi four thousand six hundred;

[27]Jehoiada, the leader of the Aaronites, and with him three thousand seven hundred;

[28]Zadok, a young man, a valiant warrior, and from his father's house twenty-two captains;

[29]of the sons of Benjamin, relatives of Saul, three thousand (until then the greatest part of them had remained loyal to the house of Saul);

[30]of the sons of Ephraim twenty thousand eight hundred, mighty men of valor, famous men throughout their father's house;

[31]of the half-tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, who were designated by name to come and make David king;

[32]of the sons of Issachar who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do, their chiefs were two hundred; and all their brethren were at their command;

[33]of Zebulun there were fifty thousand who went out to battle, expert in war with all weapons of war, stouthearted men who could keep ranks;

[34]of Naphtali one thousand captains, and with them thirty-seven thousand with shield and spear;

[35]of the Danites who could keep battle formation, twenty-eight thousand six hundred;

[36]of Asher, those who could go out to war, able to keep battle formation, forty thousand;

[37]of the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, from the other side of the Jordan, one hundred and twenty thousand armed for battle with every kind of weapon of war.

[38]All these men of war, who could keep ranks, came to Hebron with a loyal heart, to make David king over all Israel; and all the rest of Israel were of one mind to make David king.

[39]And they were there with David three days, eating and drinking, for their brethren had prepared for them.

[40]Moreover those who were near to them, from as far away as Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, were bringing food on donkeys and camels, on mules and oxen—provisions of flour and cakes of figs and cakes of raisins, wine and oil and oxen and sheep abundantly, for there was joy in Israel.

1 Chronicles 13

The Ark Brought from Kirjath Jearim

[1]Then David consulted with the captains of thousands and hundreds, and with every leader.

[2]And David said to all the assembly of Israel, “If it seems good to you, and if it is of the LORD our God, let us send out to our brethren everywhere who are left in all the land of Israel, and with them to the priests and Levites who are in their cities and their common-lands, that they may gather together to us;

[3]“and let us bring the ark of our God back to us, for we have not inquired at it since the days of Saul.”

[4]Then all the assembly said that they would do so, for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

[5]So David gathered all Israel together, from Shihor in Egypt to as far as the entrance of Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kirjath Jearim.

[6]And David and all Israel went up to Baalah, to Kirjath Jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God the LORD, who dwells between the cherubim, where His name is proclaimed.

[7]So they carried the ark of God on a new cart from the house of Abinadab, and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart.

[8]Then David and all Israel played music before God with all their might, with singing, on harps, on stringed instruments, on tambourines, on cymbals, and with trumpets.

[9]And when they came to Chidon’s threshing floor, Uzza put out his hand to hold the ark, for the oxen stumbled.

[10]Then the anger of the LORD was aroused against Uzza, and He struck him because he put his hand to the ark; and he died there before God.

[11]And David became angry because of the LORD’s outbreak against Uzza; therefore that place is called Perez Uzza to this day.

[12]David was afraid of God that day, saying, “How can I bring the ark of God to me?”

13So David would not move the ark with him into the City of David, but took it aside into the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite.

14The ark of God remained with the family of Obed-Edom in his house three months. And the LORD blessed the house of Obed-Edom and all that he had.

1 Chronicles 14

David Established at Jerusalem

[1]Now Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, with masons and carpenters, to build him a house.

[2]So David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel, for his kingdom was highly exalted for the sake of His people Israel.

[3]Then David took more wives in Jerusalem, and David begot more sons and daughters.

[4]And these are the names of his children whom he had in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,

[5]Ibhar, Elishua, Elpelet,

[6]Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia,

[7]Elishama, Beeliada, and Eliphelet.

The Philistines Defeated

[8]Now when the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to search for David. And David heard of it and went out against them.

[9]Then the Philistines went and made a raid on the Valley of Rephaim.

[10]And David inquired of God, saying, “Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will You deliver them into my hand?” The LORD said to him, “Go up, for I will deliver them into your hand.”

[11]So they went up to Baal Perazim, and David defeated them there. Then David said, “God has broken through my enemies by my hand like a breakthrough of water.” Therefore they called the name of that place Baal Perazim.

[12]And when they left their gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were burned with fire.

[13]Then the Philistines once again made a raid on the valley.

[14]Therefore David inquired again of God, and God said to him, “You shall not go up after them; circle around them, and come upon them in front of the mulberry trees.

[15]“And it shall be, when you hear a sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, then you shall go out to battle, for God has gone out before you to strike the camp of the Philistines.”

[16]So David did as God commanded him, and they drove back the army of the Philistines from Gibeon as far as Gezer.

[17]Then the fame of David went out into all lands, and the LORD brought the fear of him upon all nations.

1 Chronicles 15

The Ark Brought to Jerusalem

[1]David built houses for himself in the City of David; and he prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched a tent for it.

[2]Then David said, “No one may carry the ark of God but the Levites, for the LORD has chosen them to carry the ark of God and to minister before Him forever.”

[3]And David gathered all Israel together at Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD to its place, which he had prepared for it.

[4]Then David assembled the children of Aaron and the Levites:

[5]of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the chief, and one hundred and twenty of his brethren;

[6]of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the chief, and two hundred and twenty of his brethren;

[7]of the sons of Gershom, Joel the chief, and one hundred and thirty of his brethren;

[8]of the sons of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief, and two hundred of his brethren;

[9]of the sons of Hebron, Eliel the chief, and eighty of his brethren;

[10]of the sons of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief, and one hundred and twelve of his brethren.

[11]And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites: for Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab.

[12]He said to them, “You are the heads of the fathers’ houses of the Levites; sanctify yourselves, you and your brethren, that you may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel to the place I have prepared for it.

[13]“For because you did not do it the first time, the LORD our God broke out against us, because we did not consult Him about the proper order.”

[14]So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel.

[15]And the children of the Levites bore the ark of God on their shoulders, by its poles, as Moses had commanded according to the word of the LORD.

16Then David spoke to the leaders of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the singers accompanied by instruments of music, stringed instruments, harps, and cymbals, by raising the voice with resounding joy.

17So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel; and of his brethren, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of their brethren, the sons of Merari, Ethan the son of Kushaiah;

18and with them their brethren of the second rank: Zechariah, Ben, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Elipheleh, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, and Jeiel, the gatekeepers;

19the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were to sound the cymbals of bronze;

20Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with strings according to Alamoth;

21Mattithiah, Elipheleh, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, Jeiel, and Azaziah, to direct with harps on the Sheminith;

22Chenaniah, leader of the Levites, was instructor in charge of the music, because he was skillful;

23Berechiah and Elkanah were doorkeepers for the ark;

24Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, were to blow the trumpets before the ark of God; and Obed-Edom and Jehiah, doorkeepers for the ark.

25So David, the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the house of Obed-Edom with joy.

26And so it was, when God helped the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they offered seven bulls and seven rams.

27David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, as were all the Levites who bore the ark, the singers, and Chenaniah the music master with the singers. David also wore a linen ephod.

28Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting and with the sound of the horn, with trumpets and with cymbals, making music with stringed instruments and harps.

[29]And it happened, as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the City of David, that Michal, Saul’s daughter, looked through a window and saw King David whirling and playing music; and she despised him in her heart.

1 Chronicles 16

The Ark Placed in the Tabernacle

[1]So they brought the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tabernacle that David had erected for it. Then they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God.

[2]And when David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD.

[3]Then he distributed to everyone of Israel, both man and woman, to everyone a loaf of bread, a piece of meat, and a cake of raisins.

4And he appointed some of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, to commemorate, to thank, and to praise the LORD God of Israel:

[5]Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, then Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, and Obed-Edom: Jeiel with stringed instruments and harps, but Asaph made music with cymbals;

[6]Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests regularly blew the trumpets before the ark of the covenant of God.

David's Song of Thanksgiving

7On that day David first delivered this psalm into the hand of Asaph and his brethren, to thank the LORD:

[8]Oh, give thanks to the LORD!
Call upon His name;
Make known His deeds among the peoples!
[9]Sing to Him, sing psalms to Him;
Talk of all His wondrous works!
[10]Glory in His holy name;
Let the hearts of those rejoice who seek the LORD!
[11]Seek the LORD and His strength;
Seek His face evermore!
[12]Remember His marvelous works which He has done,
His wonders, and the judgments of His mouth,

[13]O seed of Israel His servant,
You children of Jacob, His chosen ones!
[14]He is the LORD our God;
His judgments are in all the earth.
[15]Remember His covenant forever,
The word which He commanded, for a thousand generations,
[16]The covenant which He made with Abraham,
And His oath to Isaac,
[17]And confirmed it to Jacob for a statute,
To Israel for an everlasting covenant,
[18]Saying, “To you I will give the land of Canaan
As the allotment of your inheritance,”
[19]When you were few in number,
Indeed very few, and strangers in it.
[20]When they went from one nation to another,
And from one kingdom to another people,
[21]He permitted no man to do them wrong;
Yes, He rebuked kings for their sakes,
[22]Saying, “Do not touch My anointed ones,
And do My prophets no harm.”
[23]Sing to the LORD, all the earth;
Proclaim the good news of His salvation from day to day.
[24]Declare His glory among the nations,
His wonders among all peoples.
[25]For the LORD is great and greatly to be praised;
He is also to be feared above all gods.
[26]For all the gods of the peoples are idols,
But the LORD made the heavens.
[27]Honor and majesty are before Him;
Strength and gladness are in His place.
[28]Give to the LORD, O families of the peoples,
Give to the LORD glory and strength.
[29]Give to the LORD the glory due His name;
Bring an offering, and come before Him.
Oh, worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness!

[30]Tremble before Him, all the earth.
The world also is firmly established,
It shall not be moved.
[31]Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad;
And let them say among the nations, “The LORD reigns.”
[32]Let the sea roar, and all its fullness;
Let the field rejoice, and all that is in it.
[33]Then the trees of the woods shall rejoice before the LORD,
For He is coming to judge the earth.
[34]Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good!
For His mercy endures forever.
[35]And say, “Save us, O God of our salvation;
Gather us together, and deliver us from the Gentiles,
To give thanks to Your holy name,
To triumph in Your praise.”
[36]Blessed be the LORD God of Israel
From everlasting to everlasting!

And all the people said, “Amen!” and praised the LORD.

Regular Worship Maintained

[37]So he left Asaph and his brothers there before the ark of the covenant of the LORD to minister before the ark regularly, as every day’s work required;

[38]and Obed-Edom with his sixty-eight brethren, including Obed-Edom the son of Jeduthun, and Hosah, to be gatekeepers;

[39]and Zadok the priest and his brethren the priests, before the tabernacle of the LORD at the high place that was at Gibeon,

[40]to offer burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of burnt offering regularly morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the Law of the LORD which He commanded Israel;

[41]and with them Heman and Jeduthun and the rest who were chosen, who were designated by name, to give thanks to the LORD, because His mercy endures forever;

[42]and with them Heman and Jeduthun, to sound aloud with trumpets and cymbals and the musical instruments of God. Now the sons of Jeduthun were gatekeepers.

[43]Then all the people departed, every man to his house; and David returned to bless his house.

1 Chronicles 17

God’s Covenant with David

[1]Now it came to pass, when David was dwelling in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, “See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under tent curtains.”

[2]Then Nathan said to David, “Do all that is in your heart, for God is with you.”

[3]But it happened that night that the word of God came to Nathan, saying,

[4]“Go and tell My servant David, ‘Thus says the LORD: “You shall not build Me a house to dwell in.

[5]“For I have not dwelt in a house since the time that I brought up Israel, even to this day, but have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another.

[6]“Wherever I have moved about with all Israel, have I ever spoken a word to any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people, saying, ‘Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?’��” ’

[7]“Now therefore, thus shall you say to My servant David, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts: “I took you from the sheepfold, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My people Israel.

[8]“And I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you, and have made you a name like the name of the great men who are on the earth.

[9]“Moreover I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own and move no more; nor shall the sons of wickedness oppress them anymore, as previously,

[10]“since the time that I commanded judges to be over My people Israel. Also I will subdue all your enemies. Furthermore I tell you that the LORD will build you a house.

[11]“And it shall be, when your days are fulfilled, when you must go to be with your fathers, that I will set up your seed after you, who will be of your sons; and I will establish his kingdom.

[12]“He shall build Me a house, and I will establish his throne forever.

[13]“I will be his Father, and he shall be My son; and I will not take My mercy away from him, as I took it from him who was before you.

[14]“And I will establish him in My house and in My kingdom forever; and his throne shall be established forever.” ’ ”

[15]According to all these words and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

16Then King David went in and sat before the LORD; and he said: “Who am I, O LORD God? And what is my house, that You have brought me this far?

[17]“And yet this was a small thing in Your sight, O God; and You have also spoken of Your servant’s house for a great while to come, and have regarded me according to the rank of a man of high degree, O LORD God.

[18]“What more can David say to You for the honor of Your servant? For You know Your servant.

[19]“O LORD, for Your servant’s sake, and according to Your own heart, You have done all this greatness, in making known all these great things.

[20]“O LORD, there is none like You, nor is there any God besides You, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

[21]“And who is like Your people Israel, the one nation on the earth whom God went to redeem for Himself as a people—to make for Yourself a name by great and awesome deeds, by driving out nations from before Your people whom You redeemed from Egypt?

[22]“For You have made Your people Israel Your very own people forever; and You, LORD, have become their God.

23“And now, O LORD, the word which You have spoken concerning Your servant and concerning his house, let it be established forever, and do as You have said.

[24]“So let it be established, that Your name may be magnified forever, saying, ‘The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, is Israel’s God.’ And let the house of Your servant David be established before You.

[25]“For You, O my God, have revealed to Your servant that You will build him a house. Therefore Your servant has found it in his heart to pray before You.

[26]“And now, LORD, You are God, and have promised this goodness to Your servant.

[27]“Now You have been pleased to bless the house of Your servant, that it may continue before You forever; for You have blessed it, O LORD, and it shall be blessed forever.”

1 Chronicles 18

David's Further Conquests

[1]After this it came to pass that David attacked the Philistines, subdued them, and took Gath and its towns from the hand of the Philistines.

[2]Then he defeated Moab, and the Moabites became David's servants, and brought tribute.

[3]And David defeated Hadadezer king of Zobah as far as Hamath, as he went to establish his power by the River Euphrates.

[4]David took from him one thousand chariots, seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand foot soldiers. Also David hamstrung all the chariot horses, except that he spared enough of them for one hundred chariots.

[5]When the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David killed twenty-two thousand of the Syrians.

[6]Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought tribute. So the LORD preserved David wherever he went.

[7]And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

[8]Also from Tibhath and from Chun, cities of Hadadezer, David brought a large amount of bronze, with which Solomon made the bronze Sea, the pillars, and the articles of bronze.

[9]Now when Tou king of Hamath heard that David had defeated all the army of Hadadezer king of Zobah,

[10]he sent Hadoram his son to King David, to greet him and bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him (for Hadadezer had been at war with Tou); and Hadoram brought with him all kinds of articles of gold, silver, and bronze.

[11]King David also dedicated these to the LORD, along with the silver and gold that he had brought from all these nations—from Edom, from Moab, from the people of Ammon, from the Philistines, and from Amalek.

12Moreover Abishai the son of Zeruiah killed eighteen thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

13He also put garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became David's servants. And the LORD preserved David wherever he went.

David's Administration

14So David reigned over all Israel, and administered judgment and justice to all his people.

15Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder;

16Zadok the son of Ahitub and Abimelech the son of Abiathar were the priests; Shavsha was the scribe;

17Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were chief ministers at the king's side.

1 Chronicles 19

The Ammonites and Syrians Defeated

[1]It happened after this that Nahash the king of the people of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his place.

[2]Then David said, “I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me.” So David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. And David’s servants came to Hanun in the land of the people of Ammon to comfort him.

[3]And the princes of the people of Ammon said to Hanun, “Do you think that David really honors your father because he has sent comforters to you? Did his servants not come to you to search and to overthrow and to spy out the land?”

[4]Therefore Hanun took David’s servants, shaved them, and cut off their garments in the middle, at their buttocks, and sent them away.

[5]Then some went and told David about the men; and he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, “Wait at Jericho until your beards have grown, and then return.”

[6]When the people of Ammon saw that they had made themselves repulsive to David, Hanun and the people of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire for themselves chariots and horsemen from Mesopotamia, from Syrian Maacah, and from Zobah.

[7]So they hired for themselves thirty-two thousand chariots, with the king of Maacah and his people, who came and encamped before Medeba. Also the people of Ammon gathered together from their cities, and came to battle.

[8]Now when David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the army of the mighty men.

[9]Then the people of Ammon came out and put themselves in battle array before the gate of the city, and the kings who had come were by themselves in the field.

[10]When Joab saw that the battle line was against him before and behind, he chose some of Israel’s best and put them in battle array against the Syrians.

[11]And the rest of the people he put under the command of Abishai his brother, and they set themselves in battle array against the people of Ammon.

[12]Then he said, “If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the people of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will help you.

[13]“Be of good courage, and let us be strong for our people and for the cities of our God. And may the LORD do what is good in His sight.”

[14]So Joab and the people who were with him drew near for the battle against the Syrians, and they fled before him.

[15]When the people of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fleeing, they also fled before Abishai his brother, and entered the city. So Joab went to Jerusalem.

[16]Now when the Syrians saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they sent messengers and brought the Syrians who were beyond the River, and Shophach the commander of Hadadezer’s army went before them.

[17]When it was told David, he gathered all Israel, crossed over the Jordan and came upon them, and set up in battle array against them. So when David had set up in battle array against the Syrians, they fought with him.

[18]Then the Syrians fled before Israel; and David killed seven thousand charioteers and forty thousand foot soldiers of the Syrians, and killed Shophach the commander of the army.

[19]And when the servants of Hadadezer saw that they were defeated by Israel, they made peace with David and became his servants. So the Syrians were not willing to help the people of Ammon anymore.

1 Chronicles 20

Rabbah Is Conquered

[1]It happened in the spring of the year, at the time kings go out to battle, that Joab led out the armed forces and ravaged the country of the people of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed at Jerusalem. And Joab defeated Rabbah and overthrew it.

[2]Then David took their king's crown from his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it. And it was set on David's head. Also he brought out the spoil of the city in great abundance.

[3]And he brought out the people who were in it, and put them to work with saws, with iron picks, and with axes. So David did to all the cities of the people of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

Philistine Giants Destroyed

[4]Now it happened afterward that war broke out at Gezer with the Philistines, at which time Sibbechai the Hushathite killed Sippai, who was one of the sons of the giant. And they were subdued.

[5]Again there was war with the Philistines, and Elhanan the son of Jair killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

[6]Yet again there was war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature, with twenty-four fingers and toes, six on each hand and six on each foot; and he also was born to the giant.

[7]So when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea, David's brother, killed him.

[8]These were born to the giant in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

1 Chronicles 21

The Census of Israel and Judah

[1]Now Satan stood up against Israel, and moved David to number Israel.

[2]So David said to Joab and to the leaders of the people, “Go, number Israel from Beersheba to Dan, and bring the number of them to me that I may know it.”

[3]And Joab answered, “May the LORD make His people a hundred times more than they are. But, my lord the king, are they not all my lord’s servants? Why then does my lord require this thing? Why should he be a cause of guilt in Israel?”

[4]Nevertheless the king’s word prevailed against Joab. Therefore Joab departed and went throughout all Israel and came to Jerusalem.

[5]Then Joab gave the sum of the number of the people to David. All Israel had one million one hundred thousand men who drew the sword, and Judah had four hundred and seventy thousand men who drew the sword.

[6]But he did not count Levi and Benjamin among them, for the king’s word was abominable to Joab.

[7]And God was displeased with this thing; therefore He struck Israel.

[8]So David said to God, “I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing; but now, I pray, take away the iniquity of Your servant, for I have done very foolishly.”

[9]Then the LORD spoke to Gad, David’s seer, saying,

[10]“Go and tell David, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD: “I offer you three things; choose one of them for yourself, that I may do it to you.” ’ ”

[11]So Gad came to David and said to him, “Thus says the LORD: ‘Choose for yourself,

[12]‘either three years of famine, or three months to be defeated by your foes with the sword of your enemies overtaking you, or else for three days the sword of the LORD—the plague in the land, with the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the territory of Israel.’ Now consider what answer I should take back to Him who sent me.”

[13]And David said to Gad, “I am in great distress. Please let me fall into the hand of the LORD, for His mercies are very great; but do not let me fall into the hand of man.”

[14]So the LORD sent a plague upon Israel, and seventy thousand men of Israel fell.

[15]And God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it. As he was destroying, the LORD looked and relented of the disaster, and said to the angel who was destroying, “It is enough; now restrain your hand.” And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

[16]Then David lifted his eyes and saw the angel of the LORD standing between earth and heaven, having in his hand a drawn sword stretched out over Jerusalem. So David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces.

[17]And David said to God, “Was it not I who commanded the people to be numbered? I am the one who has sinned and done evil indeed; but these sheep, what have they done? Let Your hand, I pray, O LORD my God, be against me and my father’s house, but not against Your people that they should be plagued.”

[18]Therefore, the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David that David should go and erect an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

[19]So David went up at the word of Gad, which he had spoken in the name of the LORD.

[20]Now Ornan turned and saw the angel; and his four sons who were with him hid themselves, but Ornan continued threshing wheat.

[21]So David came to Ornan, and Ornan looked and saw David. And he went out from the threshing floor, and bowed before David with his face to the ground.

[22]Then David said to Ornan, “Grant me the place of this threshing floor, that I may build an altar on it to the LORD. You shall grant it to me at the full price, that the plague may be withdrawn from the people.”

[23]But Ornan said to David, “Take it to yourself, and let my lord the king do what is good in his eyes. Look, I also give you the oxen for burnt offerings, the threshing implements for wood, and the wheat for the grain offering; I give it all.”

[24]Then King David said to Ornan, “No, but I will surely buy it for the full price, for I will not take what is yours for the LORD, nor offer burnt offerings with that which costs me nothing.”

[25]So David gave Ornan six hundred shekels of gold by weight for the place.

[26]And David built there an altar to the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called on the LORD; and He answered him from heaven by fire on the altar of burnt offering.

[27]So the LORD commanded the angel, and he returned his sword to its sheath.

[28]At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he sacrificed there.

[29]For the tabernacle of the LORD and the altar of the burnt offering, which Moses had made in the wilderness, were at that time at the high place in Gibeon.

[30]But David could not go before it to inquire of God, for he was afraid of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 22

David Prepares to Build the Temple

[1]Then David said, “This is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of burnt offering for Israel.”

[2]So David commanded to gather the aliens who were in the land of Israel; and he appointed masons to cut hewn stones to build the house of God.

[3]And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails of the doors of the gates and for the joints, and bronze in abundance beyond measure,

[4]and cedar trees in abundance; for the Sidonians and those from Tyre brought much cedar wood to David.

[5]Now David said, “Solomon my son is young and inexperienced, and the house to be built for the LORD must be exceedingly magnificent, famous and glorious throughout all countries. I will now make preparation for it.” So David made abundant preparations before his death.

[6]Then he called for his son Solomon, and charged him to build a house for the LORD God of Israel.

[7]And David said to Solomon: “My son, as for me, it was in my mind to build a house to the name of the LORD my God;

[8]“but the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ‘You have shed much blood and have made great wars; you shall not build a house for My name, because you have shed much blood on the earth in My sight.

[9]‘Behold, a son shall be born to you, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies all around. His name shall be Solomon, for I will give peace and quietness to Israel in his days.

[10]‘He shall build a house for My name, and he shall be My son, and I will be his Father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever.’

[11]“Now, my son, may the LORD be with you; and may you prosper, and build the house of the LORD your God, as He has said to you.

[12]“Only may the LORD give you wisdom and understanding, and give you charge concerning Israel, that you may keep the law of the LORD your God.

[13]"Then you will prosper, if you take care to fulfill the statutes and judgments with which the LORD charged Moses concerning Israel. Be strong and of good courage; do not fear nor be dismayed.

[14]"Indeed I have taken much trouble to prepare for the house of the LORD one hundred thousand talents of gold and one million talents of silver, and bronze and iron beyond measure, for it is so abundant. I have prepared timber and stone also, and you may add to them.

[15]"Moreover there are workmen with you in abundance: woodsmen and stonecutters, and all types of skillful men for every kind of work.

[16]"Of gold and silver and bronze and iron there is no limit. Arise and begin working, and the LORD be with you."

[17]David also commanded all the leaders of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying,

[18]"Is not the LORD your God with you? And has He not given you rest on every side? For He has given the inhabitants of the land into my hand, and the land is subdued before the LORD and before His people.

[19]"Now set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God. Therefore arise and build the sanctuary of the LORD God, to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD and the holy articles of God into the house that is to be built for the name of the LORD."

1 Chronicles 23

The Divisions of the Levites

[1]So when David was old and full of days, he made his son Solomon king over Israel.

[2]And he gathered together all the leaders of Israel, with the priests and the Levites.

[3]Now the Levites were numbered from the age of thirty years and above; and the number of individual males was thirty-eight thousand.

[4]Of these, twenty-four thousand were to look after the work of the house of the LORD, six thousand were officers and judges,

[5]four thousand were gatekeepers, and four thousand praised the LORD with musical instruments, “which I made,” said David, “for giving praise.”

[6]Also David separated them into divisions among the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

[7]Of the Gershonites: Laadan and Shimei.

[8]The sons of Laadan: the first Jehiel, then Zetham and Joel—three in all.

[9]The sons of Shimei: Shelomith, Haziel, and Haran—three in all. These were the heads of the fathers’ houses of Laadan.

[10]And the sons of Shimei: Jahath, Zina, Jeush, and Beriah. These were the four sons of Shimei.

[11]Jahath was the first and Zizah the second. But Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons; therefore they were assigned as one father’s house.

[12]The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel—four in all.

[13]The sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses; and Aaron was set apart, he and his sons forever, that he should sanctify the most holy things, to burn incense before the LORD, to minister to Him, and to give the blessing in His name forever.

[14]Now the sons of Moses the man of God were reckoned to the tribe of Levi.

[15]The sons of Moses were Gershon and Eliezer.

[16]Of the sons of Gershon, Shebuel was the first.

[17]Of the descendants of Eliezer, Rehabiah was the first. And Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were very many.

[18]Of the sons of Izhar, Shelomith was the first.

[19]Of the sons of Hebron, Jeriah was the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.

[20]Of the sons of Uzziel, Michah was the first and Jesshiah the second.

[21]The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli were Eleazar and Kish.

[22]And Eleazar died, and had no sons, but only daughters; and their brethren, the sons of Kish, took them as wives.

[23]The sons of Mushi were Mahli, Eder, and Jeremoth—three in all.

[24]These were the sons of Levi by their fathers' houses—the heads of the fathers' houses as they were counted individually by the number of their names, who did the work for the service of the house of the LORD, from the age of twenty years and above.

[25]For David said, "The LORD God of Israel has given rest to His people, that they may dwell in Jerusalem forever";

[26]and also to the Levites, "They shall no longer carry the tabernacle, or any of the articles for its service."

[27]For by the last words of David the Levites were numbered from twenty years old and above;

[28]because their duty was to help the sons of Aaron in the service of the house of the LORD, in the courts and in the chambers, in the purifying of all holy things and the work of the service of the house of God,

[29]both with the showbread and the fine flour for the grain offering, with the unleavened cakes and what is baked in the pan, with what is mixed and with all kinds of measures and sizes;

[30]to stand every morning to thank and praise the LORD, and likewise at evening;

[31]and at every presentation of a burnt offering to the LORD on the Sabbaths and on the New Moons and on the set feasts, by number according to the ordinance governing them, regularly before the LORD;

[32]and that they should attend to the needs of the tabernacle of meeting, the needs of the holy place, and the needs of the sons of Aaron their brethren in the work of the house of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 24

The Divisions of the Priests

[1]Now these are the divisions of the sons of Aaron. The sons of Aaron were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

[2]And Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children; therefore Eleazar and Ithamar ministered as priests.

[3]Then David with Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, divided them according to the schedule of their service.

[4]There were more leaders found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar, and thus they were divided. Among the sons of Eleazar were sixteen heads of their fathers' houses, and eight heads of their fathers' houses among the sons of Ithamar.

[5]Thus they were divided by lot, one group as another, for there were officials of the sanctuary and officials of the house of God, from the sons of Eleazar and from the sons of Ithamar.

[6]And the scribe, Shemaiah the son of Nethanel, one of the Levites, wrote them down before the king, the leaders, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the priests and Levites, one father's house taken for Eleazar and one for Ithamar.

[7]Now the first lot fell to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah,
[8]the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim,
[9]the fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin,
[10]the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah,
[11]the ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to Shecaniah,
[12]the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim,
[13]the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab,
[14]the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer,
[15]the seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Happizzez,
[16]the nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezekel,
[17]the twenty-first to Jachin, the twenty-second to Gamul,

[18]the twenty-third to Delaiah, the twenty-fourth to Maaziah.

[19]This was the schedule of their service for coming into the house of the LORD according to their ordinance by the hand of Aaron their father, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

Other Levites

[20]And the rest of the sons of Levi: of the sons of Amram, Shubael; of the sons of Shubael, Jehdeiah.

[21]Concerning Rehabiah, of the sons of Rehabiah, the first was Isshiah.

[22]Of the Izharites, Shelomoth; of the sons of Shelomoth, Jahath.

[23]Of the sons of Hebron, Jeriah was the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.

[24]Of the sons of Uzziel, Michah; of the sons of Michah, Shamir.

[25]The brother of Michah, Isshiah; of the sons of Isshiah, Zechariah.

[26]The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi; the son of Jaaziah, Beno.

[27]The sons of Merari by Jaaziah were Beno, Shoham, Zaccur, and Ibri.

[28]Of Mahli: Eleazar, who had no sons.

[29]Of Kish: the son of Kish, Jerahmeel.

[30]Also the sons of Mushi were Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites according to their fathers’ houses.

[31]These also cast lots just as their brothers the sons of Aaron did, in the presence of King David, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the heads of the fathers’ houses of the priests and Levites. The chief fathers did just as their younger brethren.

1 Chronicles 25

The Musicians

[1]Moreover David and the captains of the army separated for the service some of the sons of Asaph, of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who should prophesy with harps, stringed instruments, and cymbals. And the number of the skilled men performing their service was:

[2]Of the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Asharelah; the sons of Asaph were under the direction of Asaph, who prophesied according to the order of the king.

[3]Of Jeduthun, the sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiah, Shimei, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, six, under the direction of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied with a harp to give thanks and to praise the LORD.

[4]Of Heman, the sons of Heman: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, Romamti-Ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth.

[5]All these were the sons of Heman the king's seer in the words of God, to exalt his horn. For God gave Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

[6]All these were under the direction of their father for the music in the house of the LORD, with cymbals, stringed instruments, and harps, for the service of the house of God. Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman were under the authority of the king.

[7]So the number of them, with their brethren who were instructed in the songs of the LORD, all who were skillful, was two hundred and eighty-eight.

[8]And they cast lots for their duty, the small as well as the great, the teacher with the student.

[9]Now the first lot for Asaph came out for Joseph; the second for Gedaliah, him with his brethren and sons, twelve;

[10]the third for Zaccur, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

[11]the fourth for Jizri, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

[12]the fifth for Nethaniah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

[13]the sixth for Bukkiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;
[14]the seventh for Jesharelah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;
[15]the eighth for Jeshaiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;
[16]the ninth for Mattaniah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;
[17]the tenth for Shimei, his sons and his brethren, twelve;
[18]the eleventh for Azarel, his sons and his brethren, twelve;
[19]the twelfth for Hashabiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;
[20]the thirteenth for Shubael, his sons and his brethren, twelve;
[21]the fourteenth for Mattithiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;
[22]the fifteenth for Jeremoth, his sons and his brethren, twelve;
[23]the sixteenth for Hananiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;
[24]the seventeenth for Joshbekashah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;
[25]the eighteenth for Hanani, his sons and his brethren, twelve;
[26]the nineteenth for Mallothi, his sons and his brethren, twelve;
[27]the twentieth for Eliathah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;
[28]the twenty-first for Hothir, his sons and his brethren, twelve;
[29]the twenty-second for Giddalti, his sons and his brethren, twelve;
[30]the twenty-third for Mahazioth, his sons and his brethren, twelve;
[31]the twenty-fourth for Romamti-Ezer, his sons and his brethren, twelve.

1 Chronicles 26

The Gatekeepers

[1]Concerning the divisions of the gatekeepers: of the Korahites, Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph.

[2]And the sons of Meshelemiah were Zechariah the firstborn, Jediael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth,

[3]Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Eliehoenai the seventh.

[4]Moreover the sons of Obed-Edom were Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, Sacar the fourth, Nethanel the fifth,

[5]Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peulthai the eighth; for God blessed him.

[6]Also to Shemaiah his son were sons born who governed their fathers' houses, because they were men of great ability.

[7]The sons of Shemaiah were Othni, Rephael, Obed, and Elzabad, whose brothers Elihu and Semachiah were able men.

[8]All these were of the sons of Obed-Edom, they and their sons and their brethren, able men with strength for the work: sixty-two of Obed-Edom.

[9]And Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, eighteen able men.

[10]Also Hosah, of the children of Merari, had sons: Shimri the first (for though he was not the firstborn, his father made him the first),

[11]Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth; all the sons and brethren of Hosah were thirteen.

[12]Among these were the divisions of the gatekeepers, among the chief men, having duties just like their brethren, to serve in the house of the LORD.

[13]And they cast lots for each gate, the small as well as the great, according to their father's house.

[14]The lot for the East Gate fell to Shelemiah. Then they cast lots for his son Zechariah, a wise counselor, and his lot came out for the North Gate;

[15]to Obed-Edom the South Gate, and to his sons the storehouse.

[16]To Shuppim and Hosah the lot came out for the West Gate, with the Shallecheth Gate on the ascending highway—watchman opposite watchman.

[17]On the east were six Levites, on the north four each day, on the south four each day, and for the storehouse two by two.

[18]As for the Parbar on the west, there were four on the highway and two at the Parbar.

[19]These were the divisions of the gatekeepers among the sons of Korah and among the sons of Merari.

The Treasuries and Other Duties

20Of the Levites, Ahijah was over the treasuries of the house of God and over the treasuries of the dedicated things.

[21]The sons of Laadan, the descendants of the Gershonites of Laadan, heads of their fathers' houses, of Laadan the Gershonite: Jehieli.

[22]The sons of Jehieli, Zetham and Joel his brother, were over the treasuries of the house of the LORD.

[23]Of the Amramites, the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites:

[24]Shebuel the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, was overseer of the treasuries.

[25]And his brethren by Eliezer were Rehabiah his son, Jeshaiah his son, Joram his son, Zichri his son, and Shelomith his son.

[26]This Shelomith and his brethren were over all the treasuries of the dedicated things which King David and the heads of fathers' houses, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the army, had dedicated.

[27]Some of the spoils won in battles they dedicated to maintain the house of the LORD.

[28]And all that Samuel the seer, Saul the son of Kish, Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah had dedicated, every dedicated thing, was under the hand of Shelomith and his brethren.

29Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons performed duties as officials and judges over Israel outside Jerusalem.

[30]Of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brethren, one thousand seven hundred able men, had the oversight of Israel on the west side of the Jordan for all the business of the LORD, and in the service of the king.

[31]Among the Hebronites, Jerijah was head of the Hebronites according to his genealogy of the fathers. In the fortieth year of the reign of David they were sought, and there were found among them capable men at Jazer of Gilead.

[32]And his brethren were two thousand seven hundred able men, heads of fathers' houses, whom King David made officials over the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, for every matter pertaining to God and the affairs of the king.

1 Chronicles 27

The Military Divisions

[1]And the children of Israel, according to their number, the heads of fathers' houses, the captains of thousands and hundreds and their officers, served the king in every matter of the military divisions. These divisions came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year, each division having twenty-four thousand.

[2]Over the first division for the first month was Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel, and in his division were twenty-four thousand;

[3]he was of the children of Perez, and the chief of all the captains of the army for the first month.

[4]Over the division of the second month was Dodai an Ahohite, and of his division Mikloth also was the leader; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

[5]The third captain of the army for the third month was Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada the priest, who was chief; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

[6]This was the Benaiah who was mighty among the thirty, and was over the thirty; in his division was Ammizabad his son.

[7]The fourth captain for the fourth month was Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

[8]The fifth captain for the fifth month was Shamhuth the Izrahite; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

[9]The sixth captain for the sixth month was Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

[10]The seventh captain for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

[11]The eighth captain for the eighth month was Sibbechai the Hushathite, of the Zarhites; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

[12]The ninth captain for the ninth month was Abiezer the Anathothite, of the Benjamites; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

[13]The tenth captain for the tenth month was Maharai the Netophathite, of the Zarhites; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

[14]The eleventh captain for the eleventh month was Benaiah the Pirathonite, of the children of Ephraim; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

[15]The twelfth captain for the twelfth month was Heldai the Netophathite, of Othniel; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

Leaders of Tribes

16Furthermore, over the tribes of Israel: the officer over the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri; over the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maachah;

[17]over the Levites, Hashabiah the son of Kemuel; over the Aaronites, Zadok;

[18]over Judah, Elihu, one of David’s brothers; over Issachar, Omri the son of Michael;

[19]over Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah; over Naphtali, Jerimoth the son of Azriel;

[20]over the children of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azaziah; over the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiah;

[21]over the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah; over Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner;

[22]over Dan, Azarel the son of Jeroham. These were the leaders of the tribes of Israel.

23But David did not take the number of those twenty years old and under, because the LORD had said He would multiply Israel like the stars of the heavens.

[24]Joab the son of Zeruiah began a census, but he did not finish, for wrath came upon Israel because of this census; nor was the number recorded in the account of the chronicles of King David.

Other State Officials

25And Azmaveth the son of Adiel was over the king’s treasuries; and Jehonathan the son of Uzziah was over the storehouses in the field, in the cities, in the villages, and in the fortresses.

[26]Ezri the son of Chelub was over those who did the work of the field for tilling the ground.

[27]And Shimei the Ramathite was over the vineyards, and Zabdi the Shiphmite was over the produce of the vineyards for the supply of wine.

[28]Baal-Hanan the Gederite was over the olive trees and the sycamore trees that were in the lowlands, and Joash was over the store of oil.

[29]And Shitrai the Sharonite was over the herds that fed in Sharon, and Shaphat the son of Adlai was over the herds that were in the valleys.

[30]Obil the Ishmaelite was over the camels, Jehdeiah the Meronothite was over the donkeys,

[31]and Jaziz the Hagrite was over the flocks. All these were the officials over King David’s property.

[32]Also Jehonathan, David’s uncle, was a counselor, a wise man, and a scribe; and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni was with the king’s sons.

[33]Ahithophel was the king’s counselor, and Hushai the Archite was the king’s companion.

[34]After Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, then Abiathar. And the general of the king’s army was Joab.

1 Chronicles 28

Solomon Instructed to Build the Temple

[1]Now David assembled at Jerusalem all the leaders of Israel: the officers of the tribes and the captains of the divisions who served the king, the captains over thousands and captains over hundreds, and the stewards over all the substance and possessions of the king and of his sons, with the officials, the valiant men, and all the mighty men of valor.

[2]Then King David rose to his feet and said, “Hear me, my brethren and my people: I had it in my heart to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for the footstool of our God, and had made preparations to build it.

[3]“But God said to me, ‘You shall not build a house for My name, because you have been a man of war and have shed blood.’

[4]“However the LORD God of Israel chose me above all the house of my father to be king over Israel forever, for He has chosen Judah to be the ruler. And of the house of Judah, the house of my father, and among the sons of my father, He was pleased with me to make me king over all Israel.

[5]“And of all my sons (for the LORD has given me many sons) He has chosen my son Solomon to sit on the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.

[6]“Now He said to me, ‘It is your son Solomon who shall build My house and My courts; for I have chosen him to be My son, and I will be his Father.

[7]‘Moreover I will establish his kingdom forever, if he is steadfast to observe My commandments and My judgments, as it is this day.’

[8]“Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel, the assembly of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God, be careful to seek out all the commandments of the LORD your God, that you may possess this good land, and leave it as an inheritance for your children after you forever.

[9]“As for you, my son Solomon, know the God of your father, and serve Him with a loyal heart and with a willing mind; for the LORD searches all hearts and understands all the intent of the thoughts. If you seek Him, He will be found by you; but if you forsake Him, He will cast you off forever.

[10]"Consider now, for the LORD has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary; be strong, and do it."

11Then David gave his son Solomon the plans for the vestibule, its houses, its treasuries, its upper chambers, its inner chambers, and the place of the mercy seat;

[12]and the plans for all that he had by the Spirit, of the courts of the house of the LORD, of all the chambers all around, of the treasuries of the house of God, and of the treasuries for the dedicated things;

[13]also for the division of the priests and the Levites, for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the articles of service in the house of the LORD.

[14]He gave gold by weight for things of gold, for all articles used in every kind of service; also silver for all articles of silver by weight, for all articles used in every kind of service;

[15]the weight for the lampstands of gold, and their lamps of gold, by weight for each lampstand and its lamps; for the lampstands of silver by weight, for the lampstand and its lamps, according to the use of each lampstand.

[16]And by weight he gave gold for the tables of the showbread, for each table, and silver for the tables of silver;

[17]also pure gold for the forks, the basins, the pitchers of pure gold, and the golden bowls—he gave gold by weight for every bowl; and for the silver bowls, silver by weight for every bowl;

[18]and refined gold by weight for the altar of incense, and for the construction of the chariot, that is, the gold cherubim that spread their wings and overshadowed the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

[19]"All this," said David, "the LORD made me understand in writing, by His hand upon me, all the works of these plans."

20And David said to his son Solomon, "Be strong and of good courage, and do it; do not fear nor be dismayed, for the LORD God—my God—will be with you. He will not leave you nor forsake you, until you have finished all the work for the service of the house of the LORD.

[21]“Here are the divisions of the priests and the Levites for all the service of the house of God; and every willing craftsman will be with you for all manner of workmanship, for every kind of service; also the leaders and all the people will be completely at your command.”

1 Chronicles 29

Offerings for Building the Temple

[1]Furthermore King David said to all the assembly: “My son Solomon, whom alone God has chosen, is young and inexperienced; and the work is great, because the temple is not for man but for the LORD God.

[2]“Now for the house of my God I have prepared with all my might: gold for things to be made of gold, silver for things of silver, bronze for things of bronze, iron for things of iron, wood for things of wood, onyx stones, stones to be set, glistening stones of various colors, all kinds of precious stones, and marble slabs in abundance.

[3]“Moreover, because I have set my affection on the house of my God, I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house, my own special treasure of gold and silver:

[4]“three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses;

[5]“the gold for things of gold and the silver for things of silver, and for all kinds of work to be done by the hands of craftsmen. Who then is willing to consecrate himself this day to the LORD?”

[6]Then the leaders of the fathers’ houses, leaders of the tribes of Israel, the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the officers over the king’s work, offered willingly.

[7]They gave for the work of the house of God five thousand talents and ten thousand darics of gold, ten thousand talents of silver, eighteen thousand talents of bronze, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.

[8]And whoever had precious stones gave them to the treasury of the house of the LORD, into the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite.

[9]Then the people rejoiced, for they had offered willingly, because with a loyal heart they had offered willingly to the LORD; and King David also rejoiced greatly.

David’s Praise to God

[10]Therefore David blessed the LORD before all the assembly; and David said:

"Blessed are You, LORD God of Israel, our Father, forever and ever.
[11]Yours, O LORD, is the greatness,
The power and the glory,
The victory and the majesty;
For all that is in heaven and in earth is Yours;
Yours is the kingdom, O LORD,
And You are exalted as head over all.
[12]Both riches and honor come from You,
And You reign over all.
In Your hand is power and might;
In Your hand it is to make great
And to give strength to all.
[13]"Now therefore, our God,
We thank You
And praise Your glorious name.
[14]But who am I, and who are my people,
That we should be able to offer so willingly as this?
For all things come from You,
And of Your own we have given You.
[15]For we are aliens and pilgrims before You,
As were all our fathers;
Our days on earth are as a shadow,
And without hope.

[16]"O LORD our God, all this abundance that we have prepared to build You a house for Your holy name is from Your hand, and is all Your own.

[17]"I know also, my God, that You test the heart and have pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things; and now with joy I have seen Your people, who are present here to offer willingly to You.

[18]"O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, our fathers, keep this forever in the intent of the thoughts of the heart of Your people, and fix their heart toward You.

[19]“And give my son Solomon a loyal heart to keep Your commandments and Your testimonies and Your statutes, to do all these things, and to build the temple for which I have made provision.”

[20]Then David said to all the assembly, “Now bless the LORD your God.” So all the assembly blessed the LORD God of their fathers, and bowed their heads and prostrated themselves before the LORD and the king.

Solomon Anointed King

[21]And they made sacrifices to the LORD and offered burnt offerings to the LORD on the next day: a thousand bulls, a thousand rams, a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.

[22]So they ate and drank before the LORD with great gladness on that day. And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and anointed him before the LORD to be the leader, and Zadok to be priest.

[23]Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him.

[24]All the leaders and the mighty men, and also all the sons of King David, submitted themselves to King Solomon.

[25]So the LORD exalted Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed on him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

The Close of David’s Reign

[26]Thus David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel.

[27]And the period that he reigned over Israel was forty years; seven years he reigned in Hebron, and thirty-three years he reigned in Jerusalem.

[28]So he died in a good old age, full of days and riches and honor; and Solomon his son reigned in his place.

[29]Now the acts of King David, first and last, indeed they are written in the book of Samuel the seer, in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the seer,

[30]with all his reign and his might, and the events that happened to him, to Israel, and to all the kingdoms of the lands.

The Second Book of the

Chronicles

2 Chronicles 1

Solomon Requests Wisdom

[1]Now Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and the LORD his God was with him and exalted him exceedingly.

[2]And Solomon spoke to all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, to the judges, and to every leader in all Israel, the heads of the fathers' houses.

[3]Then Solomon, and all the assembly with him, went to the high place that was at Gibeon; for the tabernacle of meeting with God was there, which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness.

[4]But David had brought up the ark of God from Kirjath Jearim to the place David had prepared for it, for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.

[5]Now the bronze altar that Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, he put before the tabernacle of the LORD; Solomon and the assembly sought Him there.

[6]And Solomon went up there to the bronze altar before the LORD, which was at the tabernacle of meeting, and offered a thousand burnt offerings on it.

[7]On that night God appeared to Solomon, and said to him, "Ask! What shall I give you?"

[8]And Solomon said to God: "You have shown great mercy to David my father, and have made me king in his place.

[9]"Now, O LORD God, let Your promise to David my father be established, for You have made me king over a people like the dust of the earth in multitude.

[10]"Now give me wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people; for who can judge this great people of Yours?"

[11]Then God said to Solomon: "Because this was in your heart, and you have not asked riches or wealth or honor or the life of your enemies, nor have you asked long life—but have asked wisdom and knowledge for yourself, that you may judge My people over whom I have made you king—

[12]"wisdom and knowledge are granted to you; and I will give you riches and wealth and honor, such as none of the kings have had who were before you, nor shall any after you have the like."

Solomon's Military and Economic Power

[13]So Solomon came to Jerusalem from the high place that was at Gibeon, from before the tabernacle of meeting, and reigned over Israel.

[14]And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen; he had one thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.

[15]Also the king made silver and gold as common in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedars as abundant as the sycamores which are in the lowland.

[16]And Solomon had horses imported from Egypt and Keveh; the king's merchants bought them in Keveh at the current price.

[17]They also acquired and imported from Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for one hundred and fifty; thus, through their agents, they exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Syria.

2 Chronicles 2

Solomon Prepares to Build the Temple

[1]Then Solomon determined to build a temple for the name of the LORD, and a royal house for himself.

[2]Solomon selected seventy thousand men to bear burdens, eighty thousand to quarry stone in the mountains, and three thousand six hundred to oversee them.

[3]Then Solomon sent to Hiram king of Tyre, saying:

> As you have dealt with David my father, and sent him cedars to build himself a house to dwell in, so deal with me.
>
> [4]Behold, I am building a temple for the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to Him, to burn before Him sweet incense, for the continual showbread, for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the Sabbaths, on the New Moons, and on the set feasts of the LORD our God. This is an ordinance forever to Israel.
>
> [5]And the temple which I build will be great, for our God is greater than all gods.
>
> [6]But who is able to build Him a temple, since heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain Him? Who am I then, that I should build Him a temple, except to burn sacrifice before Him?
>
> [7]Therefore send me at once a man skillful to work in gold and silver, in bronze and iron, in purple and crimson and blue, who has skill to engrave with the skillful men who are with me in Judah and Jerusalem, whom David my father provided.
>
> [8]Also send me cedar and cypress and algum logs from Lebanon, for I know that your servants have skill to cut timber in Lebanon; and indeed my servants will be with your servants,
>
> [9]to prepare timber for me in abundance, for the temple which I am about to build shall be great and wonderful.
>
> [10]And indeed I will give to your servants, the woodsmen who cut timber, twenty thousand kors of ground wheat, twenty thousand kors of barley, twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.

11Then Hiram king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon:

> Because the LORD loves His people, He has made you king over them.

[12]Hiram also said:

> Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who made heaven and earth, for He has given King David a wise son, endowed with prudence and understanding, who will build a temple for the LORD and a royal house for himself!
> [13]And now I have sent a skillful man, endowed with understanding, Huram my master craftsman
> [14](the son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre), skilled to work in gold and silver, bronze and iron, stone and wood, purple and blue, fine linen and crimson, and to make any engraving and to accomplish any plan which may be given to him, with your skillful men and with the skillful men of my lord David your father.
> [15]Now therefore, the wheat, the barley, the oil, and the wine which my lord has spoken of, let him send to his servants.
> [16]And we will cut wood from Lebanon, as much as you need; we will bring it to you in rafts by sea to Joppa, and you will carry it up to Jerusalem.

17Then Solomon numbered all the aliens who were in the land of Israel, after the census in which David his father had numbered them; and there were found to be one hundred and fifty-three thousand six hundred.
[18]And he made seventy thousand of them bearers of burdens, eighty thousand stonecutters in the mountain, and three thousand six hundred overseers to make the people work.

2 Chronicles 3

Solomon Builds the Temple

[1]Now Solomon began to build the house of the LORD at Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where the LORD had appeared to his father David, at the place that David had prepared on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

[2]And he began to build on the second day of the second month in the fourth year of his reign.

[3]This is the foundation which Solomon laid for building the house of God: The length was sixty cubits (by cubits according to the former measure) and the width twenty cubits.

[4]And the vestibule that was in front of the sanctuary was twenty cubits long across the width of the house, and the height was one hundred and twenty. He overlaid the inside with pure gold.

[5]The larger room he paneled with cypress which he overlaid with fine gold, and he carved palm trees and chainwork on it.

[6]And he decorated the house with precious stones for beauty, and the gold was gold from Parvaim.

[7]He also overlaid the house—the beams and doorposts, its walls and doors—with gold; and he carved cherubim on the walls.

[8]And he made the Most Holy Place. Its length was according to the width of the house, twenty cubits, and its width twenty cubits. He overlaid it with six hundred talents of fine gold.

[9]The weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold; and he overlaid the upper area with gold.

[10]In the Most Holy Place he made two cherubim, fashioned by carving, and overlaid them with gold.

[11]The wings of the cherubim were twenty cubits in overall length: one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, touching the wall of the room, and the other wing was five cubits, touching the wing of the other cherub;

[12]one wing of the other cherub was five cubits, touching the wall of the room, and the other wing also was five cubits, touching the wing of the other cherub.

[13]The wings of these cherubim spanned twenty cubits overall. They stood on their feet, and they faced inward.

[14]And he made the veil of blue, purple, crimson, and fine linen, and wove cherubim into it.

[15]Also he made in front of the temple two pillars thirty-five cubits high, and the capital that was on the top of each of them was five cubits.

[16]He made wreaths of chainwork, as in the inner sanctuary, and put them on top of the pillars; and he made one hundred pomegranates, and put them on the wreaths of chainwork.

[17]Then he set up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand and the other on the left; he called the name of the one on the right hand Jachin, and the name of the one on the left Boaz.

2 Chronicles 4

Furnishings of the Temple

[1]Moreover he made a bronze altar: twenty cubits was its length, twenty cubits its width, and ten cubits its height.

[2]Then he made the Sea of cast bronze, ten cubits from one brim to the other; it was completely round. Its height was five cubits, and a line of thirty cubits measured its circumference.

[3]And under it was the likeness of oxen encircling it all around, ten to a cubit, all the way around the Sea. The oxen were cast in two rows, when it was cast.

[4]It stood on twelve oxen: three looking toward the north, three looking toward the west, three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east; the Sea was set upon them, and all their back parts pointed inward.

[5]It was a handbreadth thick; and its brim was shaped like the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It contained three thousand baths.

[6]He also made ten lavers, and put five on the right side and five on the left, to wash in them; such things as they offered for the burnt offering they would wash in them, but the Sea was for the priests to wash in.

[7]And he made ten lampstands of gold according to their design, and set them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left.

[8]He also made ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left. And he made one hundred bowls of gold.

[9]Furthermore he made the court of the priests, and the great court and doors for the court; and he overlaid these doors with bronze.

[10]He set the Sea on the right side, toward the southeast.

[11]Then Huram made the pots and the shovels and the bowls. So Huram finished doing the work that he was to do for King Solomon for the house of God:

[12]the two pillars and the bowl-shaped capitals that were on top of the two pillars; the two networks covering the two bowl-shaped capitals which were on top of the pillars;

[13]four hundred pomegranates for the two networks (two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on the pillars);

[14]he also made carts and the lavers on the carts;

[15]one Sea and twelve oxen under it;

[16]also the pots, the shovels, the forks—and all their articles Huram his master craftsman made of burnished bronze for King Solomon for the house of the LORD.

[17]In the plain of Jordan the king had them cast in clay molds, between Succoth and Zeredah.

[18]And Solomon had all these articles made in such great abundance that the weight of the bronze was not determined.

[19]Thus Solomon had all the furnishings made for the house of God: the altar of gold and the tables on which was the showbread;

[20]the lampstands with their lamps of pure gold, to burn in the prescribed manner in front of the inner sanctuary,

[21]with the flowers and the lamps and the wick-trimmers of gold, of purest gold;

[22]the trimmers, the bowls, the ladles, and the censers of pure gold. As for the entry of the sanctuary, its inner doors to the Most Holy Place, and the doors of the main hall of the temple, were gold.

2 Chronicles 5

[1]So all the work that Solomon had done for the house of the LORD was finished; and Solomon brought in the things which his father David had dedicated: the silver and the gold and all the furnishings. And he put them in the treasuries of the house of God.

The Ark Brought into the Temple

[2]Now Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the chief fathers of the children of Israel, in Jerusalem, that they might bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD up from the City of David, which is Zion.

[3]Therefore all the men of Israel assembled with the king at the feast, which was in the seventh month.

[4]So all the elders of Israel came, and the Levites took up the ark.

[5]Then they brought up the ark, the tabernacle of meeting, and all the holy furnishings that were in the tabernacle. The priests and the Levites brought them up.

[6]Also King Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel who were assembled with him before the ark, were sacrificing sheep and oxen that could not be counted or numbered for multitude.

[7]Then the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the temple, to the Most Holy Place, under the wings of the cherubim.

[8]For the cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim overshadowed the ark and its poles.

[9]The poles extended so that the ends of the poles of the ark could be seen from the holy place, in front of the inner sanctuary; but they could not be seen from outside. And they are there to this day.

[10]Nothing was in the ark except the two tablets which Moses put there at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they had come out of Egypt.

[11]And it came to pass when the priests came out of the Most Holy Place (for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves, without keeping to their divisions),

[12]and the Levites who were the singers, all those of Asaph and Heman and Jeduthun, with their sons and their brethren, stood at the east end of the altar, clothed in white linen, having cymbals, stringed instruments and harps, and with them one hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets—

[13]indeed it came to pass, when the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD, and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised the LORD, saying:

> “For He is good,
> For His mercy endures forever,”

that the house, the house of the LORD, was filled with a cloud,

[14]so that the priests could not continue ministering because of the cloud; for the glory of the LORD filled the house of God.

2 Chronicles 6

[1]Then Solomon spoke:

> “The LORD said He would dwell in the dark cloud.
> [2]I have surely built You an exalted house,
> And a place for You to dwell in forever.”

Solomon’s Speech upon Completion of the Work

[3]Then the king turned around and blessed the whole assembly of Israel, while all the assembly of Israel was standing.

[4]And he said: “Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who has fulfilled with His hands what He spoke with His mouth to my father David, saying,

[5]‘Since the day that I brought My people out of the land of Egypt, I have chosen no city from any tribe of Israel in which to build a house, that My name might be there, nor did I choose any man to be a ruler over My people Israel.

[6]‘Yet I have chosen Jerusalem, that My name may be there, and I have chosen David to be over My people Israel.’

[7]“Now it was in the heart of my father David to build a temple for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

[8]“But the LORD said to my father David, ‘Whereas it was in your heart to build a temple for My name, you did well in that it was in your heart.

[9]‘Nevertheless you shall not build the temple, but your son who will come from your body, he shall build the temple for My name.’

[10]“So the LORD has fulfilled His word which He spoke, and I have filled the position of my father David, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised; and I have built the temple for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

[11]“And there I have put the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD which He made with the children of Israel.”

Solomon’s Prayer of Dedication

12Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread out his hands

13(for Solomon had made a bronze platform five cubits long, five cubits wide, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court; and he stood on it, knelt down on his knees before all the assembly of Israel, and spread out his hands toward heaven);

14and he said: "LORD God of Israel, there is no God in heaven or on earth like You, who keep Your covenant and mercy with Your servants who walk before You with all their hearts.

15"You have kept what You promised Your servant David my father; You have both spoken with Your mouth and fulfilled it with Your hand, as it is this day.

16"Therefore, LORD God of Israel, now keep what You promised Your servant David my father, saying, 'You shall not fail to have a man sit before Me on the throne of Israel, only if your sons take heed to their way, that they walk in My law as you have walked before Me.'

17"And now, O LORD God of Israel, let Your word come true, which You have spoken to Your servant David.

18"But will God indeed dwell with men on the earth? Behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain You. How much less this temple which I have built!

19"Yet regard the prayer of Your servant and his supplication, O LORD my God, and listen to the cry and the prayer which Your servant is praying before You:

20"that Your eyes may be open toward this temple day and night, toward the place where You said You would put Your name, that You may hear the prayer which Your servant makes toward this place.

21"And may You hear the supplications of Your servant and of Your people Israel, when they pray toward this place. Hear from heaven Your dwelling place, and when You hear, forgive.

22"If anyone sins against his neighbor, and is forced to take an oath, and comes and takes an oath before Your altar in this temple,

23"then hear from heaven, and act, and judge Your servants, bringing retribution on the wicked by bringing his way on his own head, and justifying the righteous by giving him according to his righteousness.

[24]“Or if Your people Israel are defeated before an enemy because they have sinned against You, and return and confess Your name, and pray and make supplication before You in this temple, [25]“then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and bring them back to the land which You gave to them and their fathers.

[26]“When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against You, when they pray toward this place and confess Your name, and turn from their sin because You afflict them,

[27]“then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of Your servants, Your people Israel, that You may teach them the good way in which they should walk; and send rain on Your land which You have given to Your people as an inheritance.

[28]“When there is famine in the land, pestilence or blight or mildew, locusts or grasshoppers; when their enemies besiege them in the land of their cities; whatever plague or whatever sickness there is;

[29]“whatever prayer, whatever supplication is made by anyone, or by all Your people Israel, when each one knows his own burden and his own grief, and spreads out his hands to this temple:

[30]“then hear from heaven Your dwelling place, and forgive, and give to everyone according to all his ways, whose heart You know (for You alone know the hearts of the sons of men),

[31]“that they may fear You, to walk in Your ways as long as they live in the land which You gave to our fathers.

[32]“Moreover, concerning a foreigner, who is not of Your people Israel, but has come from a far country for the sake of Your great name and Your mighty hand and Your outstretched arm, when they come and pray in this temple;

[33]“then hear from heaven Your dwelling place, and do according to all for which the foreigner calls to You, that all peoples of the earth may know Your name and fear You, as do Your people Israel, and that they may know that this temple which I have built is called by Your name.

[34]“When Your people go out to battle against their enemies, wherever You send them, and when they pray to You toward this city which You have chosen and the temple which I have built for Your name, [35]“then hear from heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

[36]“When they sin against You (for there is no one who does not sin), and You become angry with them and deliver them to the enemy, and they take them captive to a land far or near;

[37]“yet when they come to themselves in the land where they were carried captive, and repent, and make supplication to You in the land of their captivity, saying, ‘We have sinned, we have done wrong, and have committed wickedness’;

[38]“and when they return to You with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, where they have been carried captive, and pray toward their land which You gave to their fathers, the city which You have chosen, and toward the temple which I have built for Your name:

[39]“then hear from heaven Your dwelling place their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their cause, and forgive Your people who have sinned against You.

[40]“Now, my God, I pray, let Your eyes be open and let Your ears be attentive to the prayer made in this place.

[41]“Now therefore,
Arise, O LORD God, to Your resting place,
You and the ark of Your strength.
Let Your priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation,
And let Your saints rejoice in goodness.
[42]“O LORD God, do not turn away the face of Your Anointed;
Remember the mercies of Your servant David.”

2 Chronicles 7

Solomon Dedicates the Temple

[1]When Solomon had finished praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the LORD filled the temple.

[2]And the priests could not enter the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD's house.

[3]When all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD on the temple, they bowed their faces to the ground on the pavement, and worshiped and praised the LORD, saying:

> "For He is good,
> For His mercy endures forever."

[4]Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD.

[5]King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand bulls and one hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

[6]And the priests attended to their services; the Levites also with instruments of the music of the LORD, which King David had made to praise the LORD, saying, "For His mercy endures forever," whenever David offered praise by their ministry. The priests sounded trumpets opposite them, while all Israel stood.

[7]Furthermore Solomon consecrated the middle of the court that was in front of the house of the LORD; for there he offered burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the fat.

[8]At that time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great assembly from the entrance of Hamath to the Brook of Egypt.

[9]And on the eighth day they held a sacred assembly, for they observed the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days.

[10]On the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their tents, joyful and glad of heart for the good that the LORD had done for David, for Solomon, and for His people Israel.

[11]Thus Solomon finished the house of the LORD and the king's house; and Solomon successfully accomplished all that came into his heart to make in the house of the LORD and in his own house.

God's Second Appearance to Solomon

[12]Then the LORD appeared to Solomon by night, and said to him: "I have heard your prayer, and have chosen this place for Myself as a house of sacrifice.

[13]"When I shut up heaven and there is no rain, or command the locusts to devour the land, or send pestilence among My people,

[14]"if My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land.

[15]"Now My eyes will be open and My ears attentive to prayer made in this place.

[16]"For now I have chosen and sanctified this house, that My name may be there forever; and My eyes and My heart will be there perpetually.

[17]"As for you, if you walk before Me as your father David walked, and do according to all that I have commanded you, and if you keep My statutes and My judgments,

[18]"then I will establish the throne of your kingdom, as I covenanted with David your father, saying, 'You shall not fail to have a man as ruler in Israel.'

[19]"But if you turn away and forsake My statutes and My commandments which I have set before you, and go and serve other gods, and worship them,

[20]"then I will uproot them from My land which I have given them; and this house which I have sanctified for My name I will cast out of My sight, and will make it a proverb and a byword among all peoples.

[21]"And as for this house, which is exalted, everyone who passes by it will be astonished and say, 'Why has the LORD done thus to this land and this house?’

[22]“Then they will answer, ‘Because they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and embraced other gods, and worshiped them and served them; therefore He has brought all this calamity on them.’ ”

2 Chronicles 8

Solomon's Additional Achievements

[1]It came to pass at the end of twenty years, when Solomon had built the house of the LORD and his own house,

[2]that the cities which Hiram had given to Solomon, Solomon built them; and he settled the children of Israel there.

[3]And Solomon went to Hamath Zobah and seized it.

[4]He also built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the storage cities which he built in Hamath.

[5]He built Upper Beth Horon and Lower Beth Horon, fortified cities with walls, gates, and bars,

[6]also Baalath and all the storage cities that Solomon had, and all the chariot cities and the cities of the cavalry, and all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

[7]All the people who were left of the Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, who were not of Israel—

[8]that is, their descendants who were left in the land after them, whom the children of Israel did not destroy—from these Solomon raised forced labor, as it is to this day.

[9]But Solomon did not make the children of Israel servants for his work. Some were men of war, captains of his officers, captains of his chariots, and his cavalry.

[10]And others were chiefs of the officials of King Solomon: two hundred and fifty, who ruled over the people.

[11]Now Solomon brought the daughter of Pharaoh up from the City of David to the house he had built for her, for he said, "My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places to which the ark of the LORD has come are holy."

[12]Then Solomon offered burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of the LORD which he had built before the vestibule,

[13]according to the daily rate, offering according to the commandment of Moses, for the Sabbaths, the New Moons, and the three appointed yearly feasts—the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks, and the Feast of Tabernacles.

[14]And, according to the order of David his father, he appointed the divisions of the priests for their service, the Levites for their duties (to praise and serve before the priests) as the duty of each day required, and the gatekeepers by their divisions at each gate; for so David the man of God had commanded.

[15]They did not depart from the command of the king to the priests and Levites concerning any matter or concerning the treasuries.

[16]Now all the work of Solomon was well-ordered from the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD until it was finished. So the house of the LORD was completed.

[17]Then Solomon went to Ezion Geber and Elath on the seacoast, in the land of Edom.

[18]And Hiram sent him ships by the hand of his servants, and servants who knew the sea. They went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and acquired four hundred and fifty talents of gold from there, and brought it to King Solomon.

2 Chronicles 9

The Queen of Sheba’s Praise of Solomon

[1]Now when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to Jerusalem to test Solomon with hard questions, having a very great retinue, camels that bore spices, gold in abundance, and precious stones; and when she came to Solomon, she spoke with him about all that was in her heart.

[2]So Solomon answered all her questions; there was nothing so difficult for Solomon that he could not explain it to her.

[3]And when the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built,

[4]the food on his table, the seating of his servants, the service of his waiters and their apparel, his cupbearers and their apparel, and his entryway by which he went up to the house of the LORD, there was no more spirit in her.

[5]Then she said to the king: “It was a true report which I heard in my own land about your words and your wisdom.

[6]“However I did not believe their words until I came and saw with my own eyes; and indeed the half of the greatness of your wisdom was not told me. You exceed the fame of which I heard.

[7]“Happy are your men and happy are these your servants, who stand continually before you and hear your wisdom!

[8]“Blessed be the LORD your God, who delighted in you, setting you on His throne to be king for the LORD your God! Because your God has loved Israel, to establish them forever, therefore He made you king over them, to do justice and righteousness.”

[9]And she gave the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold, spices in great abundance, and precious stones; there never were any spices such as those the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

[10]Also, the servants of Hiram and the servants of Solomon, who brought gold from Ophir, brought algum wood and precious stones.

[11]And the king made walkways of the algum wood for the house of the LORD and for the king’s house, also harps and stringed instruments for singers; and there were none such as these seen before in the land of Judah.

12Now King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all she desired, whatever she asked, much more than she had brought to the king. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.

Solomon's Great Wealth

13The weight of gold that came to Solomon yearly was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold,

14besides what the traveling merchants and traders brought. And all the kings of Arabia and governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

15And King Solomon made two hundred large shields of hammered gold; six hundred shekels of hammered gold went into each shield.

16*He* also made three hundred shields of hammered gold; three hundred shekels of gold went into each shield. The king put them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon.

17Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold.

18The throne had six steps, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne; there were armrests on either side of the place of the seat, and two lions stood beside the armrests.

19Twelve lions stood there, one on each side of the six steps; nothing like this had been made for any other kingdom.

20All King Solomon's drinking vessels were gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold. Not one was silver, for this was accounted as nothing in the days of Solomon.

21For the king's ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Hiram. Once every three years the merchant ships came, bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and monkeys.

22So King Solomon surpassed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.

23And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.

[24]Each man brought his present: articles of silver and gold, garments, armor, spices, horses, and mules, at a set rate year by year.

[25]Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen whom he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king at Jerusalem.

[26]So he reigned over all the kings from the River to the land of the Philistines, as far as the border of Egypt.

[27]The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedar trees as abundant as the sycamores which are in the lowland.

[28]And they brought horses to Solomon from Egypt and from all lands.

Death of Solomon

[29]Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, first and last, are they not written in the book of Nathan the prophet, in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat?

[30]Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years.

[31]Then Solomon rested with his fathers, and was buried in the City of David his father. And Rehoboam his son reigned in his place.

2 Chronicles 10

The Revolt Against Rehoboam

[1]And Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had gone to Shechem to make him king.

[2]So it happened, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard it (he was in Egypt, where he had fled from the presence of King Solomon), that Jeroboam returned from Egypt.

[3]Then they sent for him and called him. And Jeroboam and all Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying,

[4]"Your father made our yoke heavy; now therefore, lighten the burdensome service of your father and his heavy yoke which he put on us, and we will serve you."

[5]So he said to them, "Come back to me after three days." And the people departed.

[6]Then King Rehoboam consulted the elders who stood before his father Solomon while he still lived, saying, "How do you advise me to answer these people?"

[7]And they spoke to him, saying, "If you are kind to these people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be your servants forever."

[8]But he rejected the advice which the elders had given him, and consulted the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him.

[9]And he said to them, "What advice do you give? How should we answer this people who have spoken to me, saying, 'Lighten the yoke which your father put on us'?"

[10]Then the young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, "Thus you should speak to the people who have spoken to you, saying, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but you make it lighter on us'—thus you shall say to them: 'My little finger shall be thicker than my father's waist!

[11]'And now, whereas my father put a heavy yoke on you, I will add to your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you

with scourges!' "

12So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king had directed, saying, "Come back to me the third day."

13Then the king answered them roughly. King Rehoboam rejected the advice of the elders,

14and he spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scourges!"

15So the king did not listen to the people; for the turn of events was from God, that the LORD might fulfill His word, which He had spoken by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16Now when all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered the king, saying:

> "What share have we in David?
> We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse.
> Every man to your tents, O Israel!
> Now see to your own house, O David!"

So all Israel departed to their tents.

17But Rehoboam reigned over the children of Israel who dwelt in the cities of Judah.

18Then King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was in charge of revenue; but the children of Israel stoned him with stones, and he died. Therefore King Rehoboam mounted his chariot in haste to flee to Jerusalem.

19So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

2 Chronicles 11

[1]Now when Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he assembled from the house of Judah and Benjamin one hundred and eighty thousand chosen men who were warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might restore the kingdom to Rehoboam.

[2]But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

[3]"Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

[4]'Thus says the LORD: "You shall not go up or fight against your brethren! Let every man return to his house, for this thing is from Me." ' " Therefore they obeyed the words of the LORD, and turned back from attacking Jeroboam.

Rehoboam Fortifies the Cities

[5]So Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built cities for defense in Judah.

[6]And he built Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa,

[7]Beth Zur, Sochoh, Adullam,

[8]Gath, Mareshah, Ziph,

[9]Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah,

[10]Zorah, Aijalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah and Benjamin, fortified cities.

[11]And he fortified the strongholds, and put captains in them, and stores of food, oil, and wine.

[12]Also in every city he put shields and spears, and made them very strong, having Judah and Benjamin on his side.

Priests and Levites Move to Judah

[13]And from all their territories the priests and the Levites who were in all Israel took their stand with him.

[14]For the Levites left their common-lands and their possessions and came to Judah and Jerusalem, for Jeroboam and his sons had rejected them from serving as priests to the LORD.

[15]Then he appointed for himself priests for the high places, for the demons, and the calf idols which he had made.

[16]And after the Levites left, those from all the tribes of Israel, such as set their heart to seek the LORD God of Israel, came to Jerusalem to sacrifice to the LORD God of their fathers.

[17]So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong for three years, because they walked in the way of David and Solomon for three years.

The Family of Rehoboam

[18]Then Rehoboam took for himself as wife Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David, and of Abihail the daughter of Eliah the son of Jesse.

[19]And she bore him children: Jeush, Shamariah, and Zaham.

[20]After her he took Maachah the granddaughter of Absalom; and she bore him Abijah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith.

[21]Now Rehoboam loved Maachah the granddaughter of Absalom more than all his wives and his concubines; for he took eighteen wives and sixty concubines, and begot twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.

[22]And Rehoboam appointed Abijah the son of Maachah as chief, to be leader among his brothers; for he intended to make him king.

[23]He dealt wisely, and dispersed some of his sons throughout all the territories of Judah and Benjamin, to every fortified city; and he gave them provisions in abundance. He also sought many wives for them.

2 Chronicles 12

Egypt Attacks Judah

[1]Now it came to pass, when Rehoboam had established the kingdom and had strengthened himself, that he forsook the law of the LORD, and all Israel along with him.

[2]And it happened in the fifth year of King Rehoboam that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had transgressed against the LORD,

[3]with twelve hundred chariots, sixty thousand horsemen, and people without number who came with him out of Egypt—the Lubim and the Sukkiim and the Ethiopians.

[4]And he took the fortified cities of Judah and came to Jerusalem.

[5]Then Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and the leaders of Judah, who were gathered together in Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them, “Thus says the LORD: ‘You have forsaken Me, and therefore I also have left you in the hand of Shishak.’ ”

[6]So the leaders of Israel and the king humbled themselves; and they said, “The LORD is righteous.”

[7]Now when the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, “They have humbled themselves; therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them some deliverance. My wrath shall not be poured out on Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.

[8]“Nevertheless they will be his servants, that they may distinguish My service from the service of the kingdoms of the nations.”

[9]So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king’s house; he took everything. He also carried away the gold shields which Solomon had made.

[10]Then King Rehoboam made bronze shields in their place, and committed them to the hands of the captains of the guard, who guarded the doorway of the king’s house.

[11]And whenever the king entered the house of the LORD, the guard would go and bring them out; then they would take them back into the guardroom.

[12]When he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him, so as not to destroy him completely; and things also went well in Judah.

The End of Rehoboam's Reign

[13]Thus King Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem and reigned. Now Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king; and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put His name there. His mother's name was Naamah, an Ammonitess.

[14]And he did evil, because he did not prepare his heart to seek the LORD.

[15]The acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the book of Shemaiah the prophet, and of Iddo the seer concerning genealogies? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days.

[16]So Rehoboam rested with his fathers, and was buried in the City of David. Then Abijah his son reigned in his place.

2 Chronicles 13

Abijah Reigns in Judah

[1]In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, Abijah became king over Judah.

[2]He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Michaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

[3]Abijah set the battle in order with an army of valiant warriors, four hundred thousand choice men. Jeroboam also drew up in battle formation against him with eight hundred thousand choice men, mighty men of valor.

[4]Then Abijah stood on Mount Zemaraim, which is in the mountains of Ephraim, and said, "Hear me, Jeroboam and all Israel:

[5]"Should you not know that the LORD God of Israel gave the dominion over Israel to David forever, to him and his sons, by a covenant of salt?

[6]"Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, rose up and rebelled against his lord.

[7]"Then worthless rogues gathered to him, and strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and inexperienced and could not withstand them.

[8]"And now you think to withstand the kingdom of the LORD, which is in the hand of the sons of David; and you are a great multitude, and with you are the gold calves which Jeroboam made for you as gods.

[9]"Have you not cast out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and made for yourselves priests, like the peoples of other lands, so that whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams may be a priest of things that are not gods?

[10]"But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken Him; and the priests who minister to the LORD are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites attend to their duties.

[11]"And they burn to the LORD every morning and every evening burnt sacrifices and sweet incense; they also set the showbread in order

on the pure gold table, and the lampstand of gold with its lamps to burn every evening; for we keep the command of the LORD our God, but you have forsaken Him.

[12]“Now look, God Himself is with us as our head, and His priests with sounding trumpets to sound the alarm against you. O children of Israel, do not fight against the LORD God of your fathers, for you shall not prosper!”

[13]But Jeroboam caused an ambush to go around behind them; so they were in front of Judah, and the ambush was behind them.

[14]And when Judah looked around, to their surprise the battle line was at both front and rear; and they cried out to the LORD, and the priests sounded the trumpets.

[15]Then the men of Judah gave a shout; and as the men of Judah shouted, it happened that God struck Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

[16]And the children of Israel fled before Judah, and God delivered them into their hand.

[17]Then Abijah and his people struck them with a great slaughter; so five hundred thousand choice men of Israel fell slain.

[18]Thus the children of Israel were subdued at that time; and the children of Judah prevailed, because they relied on the LORD God of their fathers.

[19]And Abijah pursued Jeroboam and took cities from him: Bethel with its villages, Jeshanah with its villages, and Ephrain with its villages.

[20]So Jeroboam did not recover strength again in the days of Abijah; and the LORD struck him, and he died.

[21]But Abijah grew mighty, married fourteen wives, and begot twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

[22]Now the rest of the acts of Abijah, his ways, and his sayings are written in the annals of the prophet Iddo.

2 Chronicles 14

[1]So Abijah rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David. Then Asa his son reigned in his place. In his days the land was quiet for ten years.

Asa Reigns in Judah

[2]Asa did what was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God,

[3]for he removed the altars of the foreign gods and the high places, and broke down the sacred pillars and cut down the wooden images.

[4]He commanded Judah to seek the LORD God of their fathers, and to observe the law and the commandment.

[5]He also removed the high places and the incense altars from all the cities of Judah, and the kingdom was quiet under him.

[6]And he built fortified cities in Judah, for the land had rest; he had no war in those years, because the LORD had given him rest.

[7]Therefore he said to Judah, “Let us build these cities and make walls around them, and towers, gates, and bars, while the land is yet before us, because we have sought the LORD our God; we have sought Him, and He has given us rest on every side.” So they built and prospered.

[8]And Asa had an army of three hundred thousand from Judah who carried shields and spears, and from Benjamin two hundred and eighty thousand men who carried shields and drew bows; all these were mighty men of valor.

[9]Then Zerah the Ethiopian came out against them with an army of a million men and three hundred chariots, and he came to Mareshah.

[10]So Asa went out against him, and they set the troops in battle array in the Valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.

[11]And Asa cried out to the LORD his God, and said, “LORD, it is nothing for You to help, whether with many or with those who have no power; help us, O LORD our God, for we rest on You, and in Your name we go against this multitude. O LORD, You are our God; do not let man prevail against You!”

[12]So the LORD struck the Ethiopians before Asa and Judah, and the Ethiopians fled.

[13]And Asa and the people who were with him pursued them to Gerar. So the Ethiopians were overthrown, and they could not recover, for they were broken before the LORD and His army. And they carried away very much spoil.

[14]Then they defeated all the cities around Gerar, for the fear of the LORD came upon them; and they plundered all the cities, for there was exceedingly much spoil in them.

[15]They also attacked the livestock enclosures, and carried off sheep and camels in abundance, and returned to Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 15

The Reforms of Asa

[1]Now the Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded.

[2]And he went out to meet Asa, and said to him: “Hear me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin. The LORD is with you while you are with Him. If you seek Him, He will be found by you; but if you forsake Him, He will forsake you.

[3]“For a long time Israel has been without the true God, without a teaching priest, and without law;

[4]“but when in their trouble they turned to the LORD God of Israel, and sought Him, He was found by them.

[5]“And in those times there was no peace to the one who went out, nor to the one who came in, but great turmoil was on all the inhabitants of the lands.

[6]“So nation was destroyed by nation, and city by city, for God troubled them with every adversity.

[7]“But you, be strong and do not let your hands be weak, for your work shall be rewarded!”

[8]And when Asa heard these words and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and removed the abominable idols from all the land of Judah and Benjamin and from the cities which he had taken in the mountains of Ephraim; and he restored the altar of the LORD that was before the vestibule of the LORD.

[9]Then he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and those who dwelt with them from Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon, for they came over to him in great numbers from Israel when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.

[10]So they gathered together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa.

[11]And they offered to the LORD at that time seven hundred bulls and seven thousand sheep from the spoil they had brought.

[12]Then they entered into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul;

[13]and whoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel was to be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman.

[14]Then they took an oath before the LORD with a loud voice, with shouting and trumpets and rams' horns.

[15]And all Judah rejoiced at the oath, for they had sworn with all their heart and sought Him with all their soul; and He was found by them, and the LORD gave them rest all around.

[16]Also he removed Maachah, the mother of Asa the king, from being queen mother, because she had made an obscene image of Asherah; and Asa cut down her obscene image, then crushed and burned it by the Brook Kidron.

[17]But the high places were not removed from Israel. Nevertheless the heart of Asa was loyal all his days.

[18]He also brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated and that he himself had dedicated: silver and gold and utensils.

[19]And there was no war until the thirty-fifth year of the reign of Asa.

2 Chronicles 16

Asa's Treaty with Syria

[1]In the thirty-sixth year of the reign of Asa, Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah and built Ramah, that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

[2]Then Asa brought silver and gold from the treasuries of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent to Ben-Hadad king of Syria, who dwelt in Damascus, saying,

[3]"Let there be a treaty between you and me, as there was between my father and your father. See, I have sent you silver and gold; come, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, so that he will withdraw from me."

[4]So Ben-Hadad heeded King Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel. They attacked Ijon, Dan, Abel Maim, and all the storage cities of Naphtali.

[5]Now it happened, when Baasha heard it, that he stopped building Ramah and ceased his work.

[6]Then King Asa took all Judah, and they carried away the stones and timber of Ramah, which Baasha had used for building; and with them he built Geba and Mizpah.

Hanani's Message to Asa

[7]And at that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said to him: "Because you have relied on the king of Syria, and have not relied on the LORD your God, therefore the army of the king of Syria has escaped from your hand.

[8]"Were the Ethiopians and the Lubim not a huge army with very many chariots and horsemen? Yet, because you relied on the LORD, He delivered them into your hand.

[9]"For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to show Himself strong on behalf of those whose heart is loyal to Him. In this you have done foolishly; therefore from now on you shall have wars."

[10]Then Asa was angry with the seer, and put him in prison, for he was enraged at him because of this. And Asa oppressed some of the people at that time.

Illness and Death of Asa

[11]Note that the acts of Asa, first and last, are indeed written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

[12]And in the thirty-ninth year of his reign, Asa became diseased in his feet, and his malady was severe; yet in his disease he did not seek the LORD, but the physicians.

[13]So Asa rested with his fathers; he died in the forty-first year of his reign.

[14]They buried him in his own tomb, which he had made for himself in the City of David; and they laid him in the bed which was filled with spices and various ingredients prepared in a mixture of ointments. They made a very great burning for him.

2 Chronicles 17

Jehoshaphat Reigns in Judah

[1]Then Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place, and strengthened himself against Israel.

[2]And he placed troops in all the fortified cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah and in the cities of Ephraim which Asa his father had taken.

[3]Now the LORD was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the former ways of his father David; he did not seek the Baals,

[4]but sought the God of his father, and walked in His commandments and not according to the acts of Israel.

[5]Therefore the LORD established the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah gave presents to Jehoshaphat, and he had riches and honor in abundance.

[6]And his heart took delight in the ways of the LORD; moreover he removed the high places and wooden images from Judah.

[7]Also in the third year of his reign he sent his leaders, Ben-Hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel, and Michaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah.

[8]And with them he sent Levites: Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah, and Tobadonijah—the Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, the priests.

[9]So they taught in Judah, and had the Book of the Law of the LORD with them; they went throughout all the cities of Judah and taught the people.

[10]And the fear of the LORD fell on all the kingdoms of the lands that were around Judah, so that they did not make war against Jehoshaphat.

[11]Also some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents and silver as tribute; and the Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand seven hundred rams and seven thousand seven hundred male goats.

[12]So Jehoshaphat became increasingly powerful, and he built fortresses and storage cities in Judah.

[13]He had much property in the cities of Judah; and the men of war, mighty men of valor, were in Jerusalem.

[14]These are their numbers, according to their fathers' houses. Of Judah, the captains of thousands: Adnah the captain, and with him three hundred thousand mighty men of valor;

[15]and next to him was Jehohanan the captain, and with him two hundred and eighty thousand;

[16]and next to him was Amasiah the son of Zichri, who willingly offered himself to the LORD, and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valor.

[17]Of Benjamin: Eliada a mighty man of valor, and with him two hundred thousand men armed with bow and shield;

[18]and next to him was Jehozabad, and with him one hundred and eighty thousand prepared for war.

[19]These served the king, besides those the king put in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.

2 Chronicles 18

Micaiah Warns Ahab

[1]Jehoshaphat had riches and honor in abundance; and by marriage he allied himself with Ahab.

[2]After some years he went down to visit Ahab in Samaria; and Ahab killed sheep and oxen in abundance for him and the people who were with him, and persuaded him to go up with him to Ramoth Gilead.

[3]So Ahab king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, "Will you go with me against Ramoth Gilead?" And he answered him, "I am as you are, and my people as your people; we will be with you in the war."

[4]Also Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Please inquire for the word of the LORD today."

[5]Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, four hundred men, and said to them, "Shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?" So they said, "Go up, for God will deliver it into the king's hand."

[6]But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there not still a prophet of the LORD here, that we may inquire of Him?"

[7]So the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD; but I hate him, because he never prophesies good concerning me, but always evil. He is Micaiah the son of Imla." And Jehoshaphat said, "Let not the king say such things!"

[8]Then the king of Israel called one of his officers and said, "Bring Micaiah the son of Imla quickly!"

[9]The king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah, clothed in their robes, sat each on his throne; and they sat at a threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them.

[10]Now Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made horns of iron for himself; and he said, "Thus says the LORD: 'With these you shall gore the Syrians until they are destroyed.' "

[11]And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, "Go up to Ramoth Gilead and prosper, for the LORD will deliver it into the king's hand."

12Then the messenger who had gone to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, “Now listen, the words of the prophets with one accord encourage the king. Therefore please let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak encouragement.”

13And Micaiah said, “As the LORD lives, whatever my God says, that I will speak.”

14Then he came to the king; and the king said to him, “Micaiah, shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?” And he said, “Go and prosper, and they shall be delivered into your hand!”

15So the king said to him, “How many times shall I make you swear that you tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?”

16Then he said, “I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd. And the LORD said, ‘These have no master. Let each return to his house in peace.’ ”

17And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Did I not tell you he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?”

18Then Micaiah said, “Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, and all the host of heaven standing on His right hand and His left.

19“And the LORD said, ‘Who will persuade Ahab king of Israel to go up, that he may fall at Ramoth Gilead?’ So one spoke in this manner, and another spoke in that manner.

20“Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD, and said, ‘I will persuade him.’ The LORD said to him, ‘In what way?’

21“So he said, ‘I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.’ And the LORD said, ‘You shall persuade him and also prevail; go out and do so.’

22“Therefore look! The LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these prophets of yours, and the LORD has declared disaster against you.”

23Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, “Which way did the spirit from the LORD go from me to speak to you?”

24And Micaiah said, “Indeed you shall see on that day when you go into an inner chamber to hide!”

[25]Then the king of Israel said, “Take Micaiah, and return him to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king’s son;

[26]“and say, ‘Thus says the king: “Put this fellow in prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and water of affliction, until I return in peace.” ’ ”

[27]But Micaiah said, “If you ever return in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me.” And he said, “Take heed, all you people!”

Ahab Dies in Battle

[28]So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead.

[29]And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I will disguise myself and go into battle; but you put on your robes.” So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went into battle.

[30]Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots who were with him, saying, “Fight with no one small or great, but only with the king of Israel.”

[31]So it was, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, “It is the king of Israel!” Therefore they surrounded him to attack; but Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him, and God diverted them from him.

[32]For so it was, when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.

[33]Now a certain man drew a bow at random, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of his armor. So he said to the driver of his chariot, “Turn around and take me out of the battle, for I am wounded.”

[34]The battle increased that day, and the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot facing the Syrians until evening; and about the time of sunset he died.

2 Chronicles 19

[1]Then Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned safely to his house in Jerusalem.

[2]And Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to King Jehoshaphat, “Should you help the wicked and love those who hate the LORD? Therefore the wrath of the LORD is upon you.

[3]“Nevertheless good things are found in you, in that you have removed the wooden images from the land, and have prepared your heart to seek God.”

The Reforms of Jehoshaphat

4So Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem; and he went out again among the people from Beersheba to the mountains of Ephraim, and brought them back to the LORD God of their fathers.

[5]Then he set judges in the land throughout all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city,

[6]and said to the judges, “Take heed to what you are doing, for you do not judge for man but for the LORD, who is with you in the judgment.

[7]“Now therefore, let the fear of the LORD be upon you; take care and do it, for there is no iniquity with the LORD our God, no partiality, nor taking of bribes.”

8Moreover in Jerusalem, for the judgment of the LORD and for controversies, Jehoshaphat appointed some of the Levites and priests, and some of the chief fathers of Israel, when they returned to Jerusalem.

[9]And he commanded them, saying, “Thus you shall act in the fear of the LORD, faithfully and with a loyal heart:

[10]“Whatever case comes to you from your brethren who dwell in their cities, whether of bloodshed or offenses against law or commandment, against statutes or ordinances, you shall warn them, lest they trespass against the LORD and wrath come upon you and your brethren. Do this, and you will not be guilty.

[11]“And take notice: Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters of the LORD; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, for all the king’s matters; also the Levites will be officials before you. Behave courageously, and the LORD will be with the good.”

2 Chronicles 20

Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir Defeated

[1]It happened after this that the people of Moab with the people of Ammon, and others with them besides the Ammonites, came to battle against Jehoshaphat.

[2]Then some came and told Jehoshaphat, saying, “A great multitude is coming against you from beyond the sea, from Syria; and they are in Hazazon Tamar” (which is En Gedi).

[3]And Jehoshaphat feared, and set himself to seek the LORD, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.

[4]So Judah gathered together to ask help from the LORD; and from all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD.

[5]Then Jehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before the new court,

[6]and said: “O LORD God of our fathers, are You not God in heaven, and do You not rule over all the kingdoms of the nations, and in Your hand is there not power and might, so that no one is able to withstand You?

[7]“Are You not our God, who drove out the inhabitants of this land before Your people Israel, and gave it to the descendants of Abraham Your friend forever?

[8]“And they dwell in it, and have built You a sanctuary in it for Your name, saying,

[9]‘If disaster comes upon us—sword, judgment, pestilence, or famine—we will stand before this temple and in Your presence (for Your name is in this temple), and cry out to You in our affliction, and You will hear and save.’

[10]“And now, here are the people of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir—whom You would not let Israel invade when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned from them and did not destroy them—

[11]“here they are, rewarding us by coming to throw us out of Your possession which You have given us to inherit.

[12]"O our God, will You not judge them? For we have no power against this great multitude that is coming against us; nor do we know what to do, but our eyes are upon You."

[13]Now all Judah, with their little ones, their wives, and their children, stood before the LORD.

[14]Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, in the midst of the assembly.

[15]And he said, "Listen, all you of Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem, and you, King Jehoshaphat! Thus says the LORD to you: 'Do not be afraid nor dismayed because of this great multitude, for the battle is not yours, but God's.

[16]'Tomorrow go down against them. They will surely come up by the Ascent of Ziz, and you will find them at the end of the brook before the Wilderness of Jeruel.

[17]'You will not need to fight in this battle. Position yourselves, stand still and see the salvation of the LORD, who is with you, O Judah and Jerusalem!' Do not fear or be dismayed; tomorrow go out against them, for the LORD is with you."

[18]And Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem bowed before the LORD, worshiping the LORD.

[19]Then the Levites of the children of the Kohathites and of the children of the Korahites stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel with voices loud and high.

[20]So they rose early in the morning and went out into the Wilderness of Tekoa; and as they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Hear me, O Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem: Believe in the LORD your God, and you shall be established; believe His prophets, and you shall prosper."

[21]And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed those who should sing to the LORD, and who should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army and were saying:

"Praise the LORD,
For His mercy endures forever."

22Now when they began to sing and to praise, the LORD set ambushes against the people of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah; and they were defeated.

23For the people of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir to utterly kill and destroy them. And when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, they helped to destroy one another.

24So when Judah came to a place overlooking the wilderness, they looked toward the multitude; and there were their dead bodies, fallen on the earth. No one had escaped.

25When Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away their spoil, they found among them an abundance of valuables on the dead bodies, and precious jewelry, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away; and they were three days gathering the spoil because there was so much.

26And on the fourth day they assembled in the Valley of Berachah, for there they blessed the LORD; therefore the name of that place was called The Valley of Berachah until this day.

27Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, with Jehoshaphat in front of them, to go back to Jerusalem with joy, for the LORD had made them rejoice over their enemies.

28So they came to Jerusalem, with stringed instruments and harps and trumpets, to the house of the LORD.

29And the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries when they heard that the LORD had fought against the enemies of Israel.

30Then the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet, for his God gave him rest all around.

The End of Jehoshaphat's Reign

31So Jehoshaphat was king over Judah. He was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

32And he walked in the way of his father Asa, and did not turn aside from it, doing what was right in the sight of the LORD.

[33]Nevertheless the high places were not taken away, for as yet the people had not directed their hearts to the God of their fathers.

[34]Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, indeed they are written in the book of Jehu the son of Hanani, which is mentioned in the book of the kings of Israel.

[35]After this Jehoshaphat king of Judah allied himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, who acted very wickedly.

[36]And he allied himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish, and they made the ships in Ezion Geber.

[37]But Eliezer the son of Dodavah of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, “Because you have allied yourself with Ahaziah, the LORD has destroyed your works.” Then the ships were wrecked, so that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

2 Chronicles 21

Jehoram Reigns in Judah

[1]And Jehoshaphat rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. Then Jehoram his son reigned in his place.

[2]He had brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azaryahu, Michael, and Shephatiah; all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel.

[3]Their father gave them great gifts of silver and gold and precious things, with fortified cities in Judah; but he gave the kingdom to Jehoram, because he was the firstborn.

[4]Now when Jehoram was established over the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself and killed all his brothers with the sword, and also others of the princes of Israel.

[5]Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

[6]And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab had done, for he had the daughter of Ahab as a wife; and he did evil in the sight of the LORD.

[7]Yet the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that He had made with David, and since He had promised to give a lamp to him and to his sons forever.

[8]In his days Edom revolted against Judah’s authority, and made a king over themselves.

[9]So Jehoram went out with his officers, and all his chariots with him. And he rose by night and attacked the Edomites who had surrounded him and the captains of the chariots.

[10]Thus Edom has been in revolt against Judah’s authority to this day. At that time Libnah revolted against his rule, because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers.

[11]Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit harlotry, and led Judah astray.

[12]And a letter came to him from Elijah the prophet, saying,

> Thus says the LORD God of your father David:
> Because you have not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father,
> or in the ways of Asa king of Judah,
> [13]but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and have made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to play the harlot like the harlotry of the house of Ahab, and also have killed your brothers, those of your father's household, who were better than yourself,
> [14]behold, the LORD will strike your people with a serious affliction —your children, your wives, and all your possessions;
> [15]and you will become very sick with a disease of your intestines, until your intestines come out by reason of the sickness, day by day.

16Moreover the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines and the Arabians who were near the Ethiopians.

[17]And they came up into Judah and invaded it, and carried away all the possessions that were found in the king's house, and also his sons and his wives, so that there was not a son left to him except Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons.

18After all this the LORD struck him in his intestines with an incurable disease.

[19]Then it happened in the course of time, after the end of two years, that his intestines came out because of his sickness; so he died in severe pain. And his people made no burning for him, like the burning for his fathers.

[20]He was thirty-two years old when he became king. He reigned in Jerusalem eight years and, to no one's sorrow, departed. However they buried him in the City of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

2 Chronicles 22

Ahaziah Reigns in Judah

[1]Then the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son king in his place, for the raiders who came with the Arabians into the camp had killed all the older sons. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, reigned.

[2]Ahaziah was forty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah the granddaughter of Omri.

[3]He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother advised him to do wickedly.

[4]Therefore he did evil in the sight of the LORD, like the house of Ahab; for they were his counselors after the death of his father, to his destruction.

[5]He also followed their advice, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth Gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram.

[6]Then he returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds which he had received at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And Azariah the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

[7]His going to Joram was God's occasion for Ahaziah's downfall; for when he arrived, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.

[8]And it happened, when Jehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab, and found the princes of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's brothers who served Ahaziah, that he killed them.

[9]Then he searched for Ahaziah; and they caught him (he was hiding in Samaria), and brought him to Jehu. When they had killed him, they buried him, "because," they said, "he is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart." So the house of Ahaziah had no one to assume power over the kingdom.

Athaliah Reigns in Judah

10Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal heirs of the house of Judah.

11But Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king’s sons who were being murdered, and put him and his nurse in a bedroom. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of King Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest (for she was the sister of Ahaziah), hid him from Athaliah so that she did not kill him.

12And he was hidden with them in the house of God for six years, while Athaliah reigned over the land.

2 Chronicles 23

Joash Crowned King of Judah

[1]In the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and made a covenant with the captains of hundreds: Azariah the son of Jeroham, Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, Azariah the son of Obed, Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri.

[2]And they went throughout Judah and gathered the Levites from all the cities of Judah, and the chief fathers of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

[3]Then all the assembly made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said to them, “Behold, the king’s son shall reign, as the LORD has said of the sons of David.

[4]“This is what you shall do: One-third of you entering on the Sabbath, of the priests and the Levites, shall be keeping watch over the doors;

[5]“one-third shall be at the king’s house; and one-third at the Gate of the Foundation. All the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD.

[6]“But let no one come into the house of the LORD except the priests and those of the Levites who serve. They may go in, for they are holy; but all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD.

[7]“And the Levites shall surround the king on all sides, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whoever comes into the house, let him be put to death. You are to be with the king when he comes in and when he goes out.”

[8]So the Levites and all Judah did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. And each man took his men who were to be on duty on the Sabbath, with those who were going off duty on the Sabbath; for Jehoiada the priest had not dismissed the divisions.

[9]And Jehoiada the priest gave to the captains of hundreds the spears and the large and small shields which had belonged to King David, that were in the temple of God.

[10]Then he set all the people, every man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the temple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and by the temple, all around the king.

[11]And they brought out the king’s son, put the crown on him, gave him the Testimony, and made him king. Then Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, “Long live the king!”

Death of Athaliah

12Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people in the temple of the LORD.

[13]When she looked, there was the king standing by his pillar at the entrance; and the leaders and the trumpeters were by the king. All the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets, also the singers with musical instruments, and those who led in praise. So Athaliah tore her clothes and said, “Treason! Treason!”

14And Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds who were set over the army, and said to them, “Take her outside under guard, and slay with the sword whoever follows her.” For the priest had said, “Do not kill her in the house of the LORD.”

[15]So they seized her; and she went by way of the entrance of the Horse Gate into the king’s house, and they killed her there.

16Then Jehoiada made a covenant between himself, the people, and the king, that they should be the LORD’s people.

[17]And all the people went to the temple of Baal, and tore it down. They broke in pieces its altars and images, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.

[18]Also Jehoiada appointed the oversight of the house of the LORD to the hand of the priests, the Levites, whom David had assigned in the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the Law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, as it was established by David.

[19]And he set the gatekeepers at the gates of the house of the LORD, so that no one who was in any way unclean should enter.

[20]Then he took the captains of hundreds, the nobles, the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought the king down from the house of the LORD; and they went through the Upper Gate to the king’s house, and set the king on the throne of the kingdom.

[21]So all the people of the land rejoiced; and the city was quiet, for they had slain Athaliah with the sword.

2 Chronicles 24

Joash Repairs the Temple

[1]Joash was seven years old when he became king, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba.

[2]Joash did what was right in the sight of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the priest.

[3]And Jehoiada took two wives for him, and he had sons and daughters.

[4]Now it happened after this that Joash set his heart on repairing the house of the LORD.

[5]Then he gathered the priests and the Levites, and said to them, "Go out to the cities of Judah, and gather from all Israel money to repair the house of your God from year to year, and see that you do it quickly." However the Levites did not do it quickly.

[6]So the king called Jehoiada the chief priest, and said to him, "Why have you not required the Levites to bring in from Judah and from Jerusalem the collection, according to the commandment of Moses the servant of the LORD and of the assembly of Israel, for the tabernacle of witness?"

[7]For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken into the house of God, and had also presented all the dedicated things of the house of the LORD to the Baals.

[8]Then at the king's command they made a chest, and set it outside at the gate of the house of the LORD.

[9]And they made a proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to bring to the LORD the collection that Moses the servant of God had imposed on Israel in the wilderness.

[10]Then all the leaders and all the people rejoiced, brought their contributions, and put them into the chest until all had given.

[11]So it was, at that time, when the chest was brought to the king's official by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, that the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it and returned it to its place. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance.

[12]The king and Jehoiada gave it to those who did the work of the service of the house of the LORD; and they hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of the LORD, and also those who worked in iron and bronze to restore the house of the LORD.

[13]So the workmen labored, and the work was completed by them; they restored the house of God to its original condition and reinforced it.

[14]When they had finished, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada; they made from it articles for the house of the LORD, articles for serving and offering, spoons and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada.

Apostasy of Joash

[15]But Jehoiada grew old and was full of days, and he died; he was one hundred and thirty years old when he died.

[16]And they buried him in the City of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both toward God and His house.

[17]Now after the death of Jehoiada the leaders of Judah came and bowed down to the king. And the king listened to them.

[18]Therefore they left the house of the LORD God of their fathers, and served wooden images and idols; and wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem because of their trespass.

[19]Yet He sent prophets to them, to bring them back to the LORD; and they testified against them, but they would not listen.

[20]Then the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, who stood above the people, and said to them, “Thus says God: ‘Why do you transgress the commandments of the LORD, so that you cannot prosper? Because you have forsaken the LORD, He also has forsaken you.’ ”

[21]So they conspired against him, and at the command of the king they stoned him with stones in the court of the house of the LORD.

[22]Thus Joash the king did not remember the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but killed his son; and as he died, he said,

“The LORD look on it, and repay!”

Death of Joash

23So it happened in the spring of the year that the army of Syria came up against him; and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the leaders of the people from among the people, and sent all their spoil to the king of Damascus.

24For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men; but the LORD delivered a very great army into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. So they executed judgment against Joash.

25And when they had withdrawn from him (for they left him severely wounded), his own servants conspired against him because of the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest, and killed him on his bed. So he died. And they buried him in the City of David, but they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings.

26These are the ones who conspired against him: Zabad the son of Shimeath the Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith the Moabitess.

27Now concerning his sons, and the many oracles about him, and the repairing of the house of God, indeed they are written in the annals of the book of the kings. Then Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

2 Chronicles 25

Amaziah Reigns in Judah

[1]Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

[2]And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, but not with a loyal heart.

[3]Now it happened, as soon as the kingdom was established for him, that he executed his servants who had murdered his father the king.

[4]However he did not execute their children, but did as it is written in the Law in the Book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, "The fathers shall not be put to death for their children, nor shall the children be put to death for their fathers; but a person shall die for his own sin."

The War Against Edom

[5]Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together and set over them captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, according to their fathers' houses, throughout all Judah and Benjamin; and he numbered them from twenty years old and above, and found them to be three hundred thousand choice men, able to go to war, who could handle spear and shield.

[6]He also hired one hundred thousand mighty men of valor from Israel for one hundred talents of silver.

[7]But a man of God came to him, saying, "O king, do not let the army of Israel go with you, for the LORD is not with Israel—not with any of the children of Ephraim.

[8]"But if you go, be gone! Be strong in battle! Even so, God shall make you fall before the enemy; for God has power to help and to overthrow."

[9]Then Amaziah said to the man of God, "But what shall we do about the hundred talents which I have given to the troops of Israel?" And the man of God answered, "The LORD is able to give you much more than this."

[10]So Amaziah discharged the troops that had come to him from Ephraim, to go back home. Therefore their anger was greatly aroused against Judah, and they returned home in great anger.

[11]Then Amaziah strengthened himself, and leading his people, he went to the Valley of Salt and killed ten thousand of the people of Seir.

[12]Also the children of Judah took captive ten thousand alive, brought them to the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, so that they all were dashed in pieces.

[13]But as for the soldiers of the army which Amaziah had discharged, so that they would not go with him to battle, they raided the cities of Judah from Samaria to Beth Horon, killed three thousand in them, and took much spoil.

[14]Now it was so, after Amaziah came from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the people of Seir, set them up to be his gods, and bowed down before them and burned incense to them.

[15]Therefore the anger of the LORD was aroused against Amaziah, and He sent him a prophet who said to him, “Why have you sought the gods of the people, which could not rescue their own people from your hand?”

[16]So it was, as he talked with him, that the king said to him, “Have we made you the king’s counselor? Cease! Why should you be killed?” Then the prophet ceased, and said, “I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this and have not heeded my advice.”

Israel Defeats Judah

[17]Now Amaziah king of Judah asked advice and sent to Joash the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, “Come, let us face one another in battle.”

[18]And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, “The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, ‘Give your daughter to my son as wife’; and a wild beast that was in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thistle.

[19]“Indeed you say that you have defeated the Edomites, and your heart is lifted up to boast. Stay at home now; why should you meddle with trouble, that you should fall—you and Judah with you?”

[20]But Amaziah would not heed, for it came from God, that He might give them into the hand of their enemies, because they sought the gods of Edom.

[21]So Joash king of Israel went out; and he and Amaziah king of Judah faced one another at Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah.

[22]And Judah was defeated by Israel, and every man fled to his tent.

[23]Then Joash the king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, at Beth Shemesh; and he brought him to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate—four hundred cubits.

[24]And he took all the gold and silver, all the articles that were found in the house of God with Obed-Edom, the treasures of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.

Death of Amaziah

[25]Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel.

[26]Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, from first to last, indeed are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel?

[27]After the time that Amaziah turned away from following the LORD, they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish and killed him there.

[28]Then they brought him on horses and buried him with his fathers in the City of Judah.

2 Chronicles 26

Uzziah Reigns in Judah

[1]Now all the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Amaziah.

[2]He built Elath and restored it to Judah, after the king rested with his fathers.

[3]Uzziah was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecholiah of Jerusalem.

[4]And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done.

[5]He sought God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in the visions of God; and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him prosper.

[6]Now he went out and made war against the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Gath, the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod; and he built cities around Ashdod and among the Philistines.

[7]God helped him against the Philistines, against the Arabians who lived in Gur Baal, and against the Meunites.

[8]Also the Ammonites brought tribute to Uzziah. His fame spread as far as the entrance of Egypt, for he became exceedingly strong.

[9]And Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate, at the Valley Gate, and at the corner buttress of the wall; then he fortified them.

[10]Also he built towers in the desert. He dug many wells, for he had much livestock, both in the lowlands and in the plains; he also had farmers and vinedressers in the mountains and in Carmel, for he loved the soil.

[11]Moreover Uzziah had an army of fighting men who went out to war by companies, according to the number on their roll as prepared by Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the officer, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains.

[12]The total number of chief officers of the mighty men of valor was two thousand six hundred.

[13]And under their authority was an army of three hundred and seven thousand five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy.

[14]Then Uzziah prepared for them, for the entire army, shields, spears, helmets, body armor, bows, and slings to cast stones.

[15]And he made devices in Jerusalem, invented by skillful men, to be on the towers and the corners, to shoot arrows and large stones. So his fame spread far and wide, for he was marvelously helped till he became strong.

The Penalty for Uzziah's Pride

[16]But when he was strong his heart was lifted up, to his destruction, for he transgressed against the LORD his God by entering the temple of the LORD to burn incense on the altar of incense.

[17]So Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him were eighty priests of the LORD—valiant men.

[18]And they withstood King Uzziah, and said to him, "It is not for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the LORD, but for the priests, the sons of Aaron, who are consecrated to burn incense. Get out of the sanctuary, for you have trespassed! You shall have no honor from the LORD God."

[19]Then Uzziah became furious; and he had a censer in his hand to burn incense. And while he was angry with the priests, leprosy broke out on his forehead, before the priests in the house of the LORD, beside the incense altar.

[20]And Azariah the chief priest and all the priests looked at him, and there, on his forehead, he was leprous; so they thrust him out of that place. Indeed he also hurried to get out, because the LORD had struck him.

[21]King Uzziah was a leper until the day of his death. He dwelt in an isolated house, because he was a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD. Then Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.

[22]Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, from first to last, the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz wrote.

[23]So Uzziah rested with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of burial which belonged to the kings, for they said, “He is a leper.” Then Jotham his son reigned in his place.

2 Chronicles 27

Jotham Reigns in Judah

[1]Jotham was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerushah the daughter of Zadok.

[2]And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done (although he did not enter the temple of the LORD). But still the people acted corruptly.

[3]He built the Upper Gate of the house of the LORD, and he built extensively on the wall of Ophel.

[4]Moreover he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built fortresses and towers.

[5]He also fought with the king of the Ammonites and defeated them. And the people of Ammon gave him in that year one hundred talents of silver, ten thousand kors of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. The people of Ammon paid this to him in the second and third years also.

[6]So Jotham became mighty, because he prepared his ways before the LORD his God.

[7]Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars and his ways, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

[8]He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.

[9]So Jotham rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David. Then Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

2 Chronicles 28

Ahaz Reigns in Judah

[1]Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and he did not do what was right in the sight of the LORD, as his father David had done.

[2]For he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made molded images for the Baals.

[3]He burned incense in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, and burned his children in the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

[4]And he sacrificed and burned incense on the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.

Syria and Israel Defeat Judah

[5]Therefore the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria. They defeated him, and carried away a great multitude of them as captives, and brought them to Damascus. Then he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who defeated him with a great slaughter.

[6]For Pekah the son of Remaliah killed one hundred and twenty thousand in Judah in one day, all valiant men, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers.

[7]Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, killed Maaseiah the king's son, Azrikam the officer over the house, and Elkanah who was second to the king.

[8]And the children of Israel carried away captive of their brethren two hundred thousand women, sons, and daughters; and they also took away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

Israel Returns the Captives

[9]But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded; and he went out before the army that came to Samaria, and said to them: "Look, because the LORD God of your fathers was angry with Judah, He has delivered them into your hand; but you have killed them in a rage that reaches up to heaven.

[10]“And now you propose to force the children of Judah and Jerusalem to be your male and female slaves; but are you not also guilty before the LORD your God?

[11]“Now hear me, therefore, and return the captives, whom you have taken captive from your brethren, for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you.”

[12]Then some of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against those who came from the war,

[13]and said to them, “You shall not bring the captives here, for we already have offended the LORD. You intend to add to our sins and to our guilt; for our guilt is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel.”

[14]So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the leaders and all the assembly.

[15]Then the men who were designated by name rose up and took the captives, and from the spoil they clothed all who were naked among them, dressed them and gave them sandals, gave them food and drink, and anointed them; and they let all the feeble ones ride on donkeys. So they brought them to their brethren at Jericho, the city of palm trees. Then they returned to Samaria.

Assyria Refuses to Help Judah

[16]At the same time King Ahaz sent to the kings of Assyria to help him.

[17]For again the Edomites had come, attacked Judah, and carried away captives.

[18]The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the lowland and of the South of Judah, and had taken Beth Shemesh, Aijalon, Gederoth, Sochoh with its villages, Timnah with its villages, and Gimzo with its villages; and they dwelt there.

[19]For the LORD brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel, for he had encouraged moral decline in Judah and had been continually unfaithful to the LORD.

[20]Also Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria came to him and distressed him, and did not assist him.

[21]For Ahaz took part of the treasures from the house of the LORD, from the house of the king, and from the leaders, and he gave it to the king of Assyria; but he did not help him.

Apostasy and Death of Ahaz

22Now in the time of his distress King Ahaz became increasingly unfaithful to the LORD. This is that King Ahaz.

[23]For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus which had defeated him, saying, “Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, I will sacrifice to them that they may help me.” But they were the ruin of him and of all Israel.

[24]So Ahaz gathered the articles of the house of God, cut in pieces the articles of the house of God, shut up the doors of the house of the LORD, and made for himself altars in every corner of Jerusalem.

[25]And in every single city of Judah he made high places to burn incense to other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD God of his fathers.

26Now the rest of his acts and all his ways, from first to last, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

[27]So Ahaz rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem; but they did not bring him into the tombs of the kings of Israel. Then Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

2 Chronicles 29

Hezekiah Reigns in Judah

[1]Hezekiah became king when he was twenty-five years old, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah the daughter of Zechariah.

[2]And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father David had done.

Hezekiah Cleanses the Temple

[3]In the first year of his reign, in the first month, he opened the doors of the house of the LORD and repaired them.

[4]Then he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them in the East Square,

[5]and said to them: "Hear me, Levites! Now sanctify yourselves, sanctify the house of the LORD God of your fathers, and carry out the rubbish from the holy place.

[6]"For our fathers have trespassed and done evil in the eyes of the LORD our God; they have forsaken Him, have turned their faces away from the dwelling place of the LORD, and turned their backs on Him.

[7]"They have also shut up the doors of the vestibule, put out the lamps, and have not burned incense or offered burnt offerings in the holy place to the God of Israel.

[8]"Therefore the wrath of the LORD fell upon Judah and Jerusalem, and He has given them up to trouble, to desolation, and to jeering, as you see with your eyes.

[9]"For indeed, because of this our fathers have fallen by the sword; and our sons, our daughters, and our wives are in captivity.

[10]"Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that His fierce wrath may turn away from us.

[11]"My sons, do not be negligent now, for the LORD has chosen you to stand before Him, to serve Him, and that you should minister to Him and burn incense."

12Then these Levites arose: Mahath the son of Amasai and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites; of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi and Azariah the son of Jehallelel; of the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zimmah and Eden the son of Joah;

13of the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeiel; of the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah;

14of the sons of Heman, Jehiel and Shimei; and of the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.

15And they gathered their brethren, sanctified themselves, and went according to the commandment of the king, at the words of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD.

16Then the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD to cleanse it, and brought out all the debris that they found in the temple of the LORD to the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it out and carried it to the Brook Kidron.

17Now they began to sanctify on the first day of the first month, and on the eighth day of the month they came to the vestibule of the LORD. So they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days, and on the sixteenth day of the first month they finished.

18Then they went in to King Hezekiah and said, “We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, the altar of burnt offerings with all its articles, and the table of the showbread with all its articles.

19“Moreover all the articles which King Ahaz in his reign had cast aside in his transgression we have prepared and sanctified; and there they are, before the altar of the LORD.”

Hezekiah Restores Temple Worship

20Then King Hezekiah rose early, gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

21And they brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven male goats for a sin offering for the kingdom, for the sanctuary, and for Judah. Then he commanded the priests, the sons of Aaron, to offer them on the altar of the LORD.

22So they killed the bulls, and the priests received the blood and sprinkled it on the altar. Likewise they killed the rams and sprinkled the blood on the altar. They also killed the lambs and sprinkled the blood on the altar.

[23]Then they brought out the male goats for the sin offering before the king and the assembly, and they laid their hands on them.

[24]And the priests killed them; and they presented their blood on the altar as a sin offering to make an atonement for all Israel, for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering be made for all Israel.

[25]And he stationed the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with stringed instruments, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, of Gad the king’s seer, and of Nathan the prophet; for thus was the commandment of the LORD by His prophets.

[26]The Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.

[27]Then Hezekiah commanded them to offer the burnt offering on the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the song of the LORD also began, with the trumpets and with the instruments of David king of Israel.

[28]So all the assembly worshiped, the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded; all this continued until the burnt offering was finished.

[29]And when they had finished offering, the king and all who were present with him bowed and worshiped.

[30]Moreover King Hezekiah and the leaders commanded the Levites to sing praise to the LORD with the words of David and of Asaph the seer. So they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshiped.

[31]Then Hezekiah answered and said, “Now that you have consecrated yourselves to the LORD, come near, and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the LORD.” So the assembly brought in sacrifices and thank offerings, and as many as were of a willing heart brought burnt offerings.

[32]And the number of the burnt offerings which the assembly brought was seventy bulls, one hundred rams, and two hundred lambs; all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD.

[33]The consecrated things were six hundred bulls and three thousand sheep.

[34]But the priests were too few, so that they could not skin all the burnt offerings; therefore their brethren the Levites helped them until the work was ended and until the other priests had sanctified themselves, for the Levites were more diligent in sanctifying themselves than the priests.

[35]Also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace offerings and with the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order.

[36]Then Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced that God had prepared the people, since the events took place so suddenly.

2 Chronicles 30

Hezekiah Keeps the Passover

[1]And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the Passover to the LORD God of Israel.

[2]For the king and his leaders and all the assembly in Jerusalem had agreed to keep the Passover in the second month.

[3]For they could not keep it at the regular time, because a sufficient number of priests had not consecrated themselves, nor had the people gathered together at Jerusalem.

[4]And the matter pleased the king and all the assembly.

[5]So they resolved to make a proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beersheba to Dan, that they should come to keep the Passover to the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem, since they had not done it for a long time in the prescribed manner.

[6]Then the runners went throughout all Israel and Judah with the letters from the king and his leaders, and spoke according to the command of the king: "Children of Israel, return to the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel; then He will return to the remnant of you who have escaped from the hand of the kings of Assyria.

[7]"And do not be like your fathers and your brethren, who trespassed against the LORD God of their fathers, so that He gave them up to desolation, as you see.

[8]"Now do not be stiff-necked, as your fathers were, but yield yourselves to the LORD; and enter His sanctuary, which He has sanctified forever, and serve the LORD your God, that the fierceness of His wrath may turn away from you.

[9]"For if you return to the LORD, your brethren and your children will be treated with compassion by those who lead them captive, so that they may come back to this land; for the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn His face from you if you return to Him."

[10]So the runners passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, as far as Zebulun; but they laughed at them and mocked them.

[11]Nevertheless some from Asher, Manasseh, and Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem.

[12]Also the hand of God was on Judah to give them singleness of heart to obey the command of the king and the leaders, at the word of the LORD.

[13]Now many people, a very great assembly, gathered at Jerusalem to keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread in the second month.

[14]They arose and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and they took away all the incense altars and cast them into the Brook Kidron.

[15]Then they slaughtered the Passover lambs on the fourteenth day of the second month. The priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought the burnt offerings to the house of the LORD.

[16]They stood in their place according to their custom, according to the Law of Moses the man of God; the priests sprinkled the blood received from the hand of the Levites.

[17]For there were many in the assembly who had not sanctified themselves; therefore the Levites had charge of the slaughter of the Passover lambs for everyone who was not clean, to sanctify them to the LORD.

[18]For a multitude of the people, many from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet they ate the Passover contrary to what was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, “May the good LORD provide atonement for everyone

[19]“who prepares his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though he is not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary.”

[20]And the LORD listened to Hezekiah and healed the people.

[21]So the children of Israel who were present at Jerusalem kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with great gladness; and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing to the LORD, accompanied by loud instruments.

[22]And Hezekiah gave encouragement to all the Levites who taught the good knowledge of the LORD; and they ate throughout the feast seven days, offering peace offerings and making confession to the LORD God of their fathers.

[23]Then the whole assembly agreed to keep the feast another seven days, and they kept it another seven days with gladness.

[24]For Hezekiah king of Judah gave to the assembly a thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep, and the leaders gave to the assembly a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep; and a great number of priests sanctified themselves.

[25]The whole assembly of Judah rejoiced, also the priests and Levites, all the assembly that came from Israel, the sojourners who came from the land of Israel, and those who dwelt in Judah.

[26]So there was great joy in Jerusalem, for since the time of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel, there had been nothing like this in Jerusalem.

[27]Then the priests, the Levites, arose and blessed the people, and their voice was heard; and their prayer came up to His holy dwelling place, to heaven.

2 Chronicles 31

The Reforms of Hezekiah

[1]Now when all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah and broke the sacred pillars in pieces, cut down the wooden images, and threw down the high places and the altars—from all Judah, Benjamin, Ephraim, and Manasseh—until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned to their own cities, every man to his possession.

[2]And Hezekiah appointed the divisions of the priests and the Levites according to their divisions, each man according to his service, the priests and Levites for burnt offerings and peace offerings, to serve, to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the camp of the LORD.

[3]The king also appointed a portion of his possessions for the burnt offerings: for the morning and evening burnt offerings, the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths and the New Moons and the set feasts, as it is written in the Law of the LORD.

[4]Moreover he commanded the people who dwelt in Jerusalem to contribute support for the priests and the Levites, that they might devote themselves to the Law of the LORD.

[5]As soon as the commandment was circulated, the children of Israel brought in abundance the firstfruits of grain and wine, oil and honey, and of all the produce of the field; and they brought in abundantly the tithe of everything.

[6]And the children of Israel and Judah, who dwelt in the cities of Judah, brought the tithe of oxen and sheep; also the tithe of holy things which were consecrated to the LORD their God they laid in heaps.

[7]In the third month they began laying them in heaps, and they finished in the seventh month.

[8]And when Hezekiah and the leaders came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD and His people Israel.

[9]Then Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.

[10]And Azariah the chief priest, from the house of Zadok, answered him and said, “Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat and have plenty left, for the LORD has blessed His people; and what is left is this great abundance.”

[11]Now Hezekiah commanded them to prepare rooms in the house of the LORD, and they prepared them.

[12]Then they faithfully brought in the offerings, the tithes, and the dedicated things; Cononiah the Levite had charge of them, and Shimei his brother was the next.

[13]Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath, and Benaiah were overseers under the hand of Cononiah and Shimei his brother, at the commandment of Hezekiah the king and Azariah the ruler of the house of God.

[14]Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the keeper of the East Gate, was over the freewill offerings to God, to distribute the offerings of the LORD and the most holy things.

[15]And under him were Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, his faithful assistants in the cities of the priests, to distribute allotments to their brethren by divisions, to the great as well as the small.

[16]Besides those males from three years old and up who were written in the genealogy, they distributed to everyone who entered the house of the LORD his daily portion for the work of his service, by his division,

[17]and to the priests who were written in the genealogy according to their father’s house, and to the Levites from twenty years old and up according to their work, by their divisions,

[18]and to all who were written in the genealogy—their little ones and their wives, their sons and daughters, the whole company of them—for in their faithfulness they sanctified themselves in holiness.

[19]Also for the sons of Aaron the priests, who were in the fields of the common-lands of their cities, in every single city, there were men who were designated by name to distribute portions to all the males among the priests and to all who were listed by genealogies among the Levites.

[20]Thus Hezekiah did throughout all Judah, and he did what was good and right and true before the LORD his God.

[21]And in every work that he began in the service of the house of God, in the law and in the commandment, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart. So he prospered.

2 Chronicles 32

Sennacherib Boasts Against the LORD

[1]After these deeds of faithfulness, Sennacherib king of Assyria came and entered Judah; he encamped against the fortified cities, thinking to win them over to himself.

[2]And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come, and that his purpose was to make war against Jerusalem,

[3]he consulted with his leaders and commanders to stop the water from the springs which were outside the city; and they helped him.

[4]Thus many people gathered together who stopped all the springs and the brook that ran through the land, saying, “Why should the kings of Assyria come and find much water?”

[5]And he strengthened himself, built up all the wall that was broken, raised it up to the towers, and built another wall outside; also he repaired the Millo in the City of David, and made weapons and shields in abundance.

[6]Then he set military captains over the people, gathered them together to him in the open square of the city gate, and gave them encouragement, saying,

[7]“Be strong and courageous; do not be afraid nor dismayed before the king of Assyria, nor before all the multitude that is with him; for there are more with us than with him.

[8]“With him is an arm of flesh; but with us is the LORD our God, to help us and to fight our battles.” And the people were strengthened by the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

[9]After this Sennacherib king of Assyria sent his servants to Jerusalem (but he and all the forces with him laid siege against Lachish), to Hezekiah king of Judah, and to all Judah who were in Jerusalem, saying,

[10]“Thus says Sennacherib king of Assyria: ‘In what do you trust, that you remain under siege in Jerusalem?

[11]‘Does not Hezekiah persuade you to give yourselves over to die by famine and by thirst, saying, “The LORD our God will deliver us from the hand of the king of Assyria"?

[12]'Has not the same Hezekiah taken away His high places and His altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, "You shall worship before one altar and burn incense on it"?

[13]'Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of other lands? Were the gods of the nations of those lands in any way able to deliver their lands out of my hand?

[14]'Who was there among all the gods of those nations that my fathers utterly destroyed that could deliver his people from my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you from my hand?

[15]'Now therefore, do not let Hezekiah deceive you or persuade you like this, and do not believe him; for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people from my hand or the hand of my fathers. How much less will your God deliver you from my hand?' "

[16]Furthermore, his servants spoke against the LORD God and against His servant Hezekiah.

[17]He also wrote letters to revile the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against Him, saying, "As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people from my hand, so the God of Hezekiah will not deliver His people from my hand."

[18]Then they called out with a loud voice in Hebrew to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten them and trouble them, that they might take the city.

[19]And they spoke against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth—the work of men's hands.

Sennacherib's Defeat and Death

[20]Now because of this King Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah, the son of Amoz, prayed and cried out to heaven.

[21]Then the LORD sent an angel who cut down every mighty man of valor, leader, and captain in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned shamefaced to his own land. And when he had gone into the temple of his god, some of his own offspring struck him down with the sword there.

[22]Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all others, and guided them on every side.

[23]And many brought gifts to the LORD at Jerusalem, and presents to Hezekiah king of Judah, so that he was exalted in the sight of all nations thereafter.

Hezekiah Humbles Himself

[24]In those days Hezekiah was sick and near death, and he prayed to the LORD; and He spoke to him and gave him a sign.

[25]But Hezekiah did not repay according to the favor shown him, for his heart was lifted up; therefore wrath was looming over him and over Judah and Jerusalem.

[26]Then Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD did not come upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

Hezekiah's Wealth and Honor

[27]Hezekiah had very great riches and honor. And he made himself treasuries for silver, for gold, for precious stones, for spices, for shields, and for all kinds of desirable items;

[28]storehouses for the harvest of grain, wine, and oil; and stalls for all kinds of livestock, and folds for flocks.

[29]Moreover he provided cities for himself, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance; for God had given him very much property.

[30]This same Hezekiah also stopped the water outlet of Upper Gihon, and brought the water by tunnel to the west side of the City of David. Hezekiah prospered in all his works.

[31]However, regarding the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, whom they sent to him to inquire about the wonder that was done in the land, God withdrew from him, in order to test him, that He might know all that was in his heart.

Death of Hezekiah

[32]Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his goodness, indeed they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

[33]So Hezekiah rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the upper tombs of the sons of David; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem honored him at his death. Then Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

2 Chronicles 33

Manasseh Reigns in Judah

[1]Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem.

[2]But he did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

[3]For he rebuilt the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down; he raised up altars for the Baals, and made wooden images; and he worshiped all the host of heaven and served them.

[4]He also built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, "In Jerusalem shall My name be forever."

[5]And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.

[6]Also he caused his sons to pass through the fire in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom; he practiced soothsaying, used witchcraft and sorcery, and consulted mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger.

[7]He even set a carved image, the idol which he had made, in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, "In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever;

[8]"and I will not again remove the foot of Israel from the land which I have appointed for your fathers—only if they are careful to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses."

[9]So Manasseh seduced Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to do more evil than the nations whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

Manasseh Restored After Repentance

[10]And the LORD spoke to Manasseh and his people, but they would not listen.

[11]Therefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the army of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh with hooks, bound him with bronze fetters, and carried him off to Babylon.

[12]Now when he was in affliction, he implored the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers,

[13]and prayed to Him; and He received his entreaty, heard his supplication, and brought him back to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD was God.

[14]After this he built a wall outside the City of David on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, as far as the entrance of the Fish Gate; and it enclosed Ophel, and he raised it to a very great height. Then he put military captains in all the fortified cities of Judah.

[15]He took away the foreign gods and the idol from the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the LORD and in Jerusalem; and he cast them out of the city.

[16]He also repaired the altar of the LORD, sacrificed peace offerings and thank offerings on it, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel.

[17]Nevertheless the people still sacrificed on the high places, but only to the LORD their God.

Death of Manasseh

[18]Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Israel.

[19]Also his prayer and how God received his entreaty, and all his sin and trespass, and the sites where he built high places and set up wooden images and carved images, before he was humbled, indeed they are written among the sayings of Hozai.

[20]So Manasseh rested with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house. Then his son Amon reigned in his place.

Amon’s Reign and Death

[21]Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem.

[22]But he did evil in the sight of the LORD, as his father Manasseh had done; for Amon sacrificed to all the carved images which his father Manasseh had made, and served them.

[23]And he did not humble himself before the LORD, as his father Manasseh had humbled himself; but Amon trespassed more and more.

[24]Then his servants conspired against him, and killed him in his own house.

[25]But the people of the land executed all those who had conspired against King Amon. Then the people of the land made his son Josiah king in his place.

2 Chronicles 34

Josiah Reigns in Judah

[1]Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem.

[2]And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of his father David; he did not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

[3]For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was still young, he began to seek the God of his father David; and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem of the high places, the wooden images, the carved images, and the molded images.

[4]They broke down the altars of the Baals in his presence, and the incense altars which were above them he cut down; and the wooden images, the carved images, and the molded images he broke in pieces, and made dust of them and scattered it on the graves of those who had sacrificed to them.

[5]He also burned the bones of the priests on their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

[6]And so he did in the cities of Manasseh, Ephraim, and Simeon, as far as Naphtali and all around, with axes.

[7]When he had broken down the altars and the wooden images, had beaten the carved images into powder, and cut down all the incense altars throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

Hilkiah Finds the Book of the Law

[8]In the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and the temple, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God.

[9]When they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites who kept the doors had gathered from the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, from all the remnant of Israel, from all Judah and Benjamin, and which they had brought back to Jerusalem.

[10]Then they put it in the hand of the foremen who had the oversight of the house of the LORD; and they gave it to the workmen who worked in the house of the LORD, to repair and restore the house.

[11]They gave it to the craftsmen and builders to buy hewn stone and timber for beams, and to floor the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed.

[12]And the men did the work faithfully. Their overseers were Jahath and Obadiah the Levites, of the sons of Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to supervise. Others of the Levites, all of whom were skillful with instruments of music,

[13]were over the burden bearers and were overseers of all who did work in any kind of service. And some of the Levites were scribes, officers, and gatekeepers.

[14]Now when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found the Book of the Law of the LORD given by Moses.

[15]Then Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, “I have found the Book of the Law in the house of the LORD.” And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan.

[16]So Shaphan carried the book to the king, bringing the king word, saying, “All that was committed to your servants they are doing.

[17]“And they have gathered the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers and the workmen.”

[18]Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, “Hilkiah the priest has given me a book.” And Shaphan read it before the king.

[19]Thus it happened, when the king heard the words of the Law, that he tore his clothes.

[20]Then the king commanded Hilkiah, Ahikam the son of Shaphan, Abdon the son of Micah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king, saying,

[21]“Go, inquire of the LORD for me, and for those who are left in Israel and Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found; for great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out on us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do according to all that is written in this book.”

[22]So Hilkiah and those the king had appointed went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tokhath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe. (She dwelt in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter.) And they spoke to her to that effect.

[23]Then she answered them, “Thus says the LORD God of Israel, ‘Tell the man who sent you to Me,

[24]“Thus says the LORD: ‘Behold, I will bring calamity on this place and on its inhabitants, all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah,

[25]‘because they have forsaken Me and burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands. Therefore My wrath will be poured out on this place, and not be quenched.�� ” ’

[26]“But as for the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, in this manner you shall speak to him, ‘Thus says the LORD God of Israel: “Concerning the words which you have heard—

[27]“because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before God when you heard His words against this place and against its inhabitants, and you humbled yourself before Me, and you tore your clothes and wept before Me, I also have heard you,” says the LORD.

[28]“Surely I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace; and your eyes shall not see all the calamity which I will bring on this place and its inhabitants.” ’ ” So they brought back word to the king.

Josiah Restores True Worship

[29]Then the king sent and gathered all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

[30]The king went up to the house of the LORD, with all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem—the priests and the Levites, and all the people, great and small. And he read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant which had been found in the house of the LORD.

[31]Then the king stood in his place and made a covenant before the LORD, to follow the LORD, and to keep His commandments and His testimonies and His statutes with all his heart and all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this book.

[32]And he made all who were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin take a stand. So the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

[33]Thus Josiah removed all the abominations from all the country that belonged to the children of Israel, and made all who were present in Israel diligently serve the LORD their God. All his days they did not depart from following the LORD God of their fathers.

2 Chronicles 35

Josiah Keeps the Passover

[1]Now Josiah kept a Passover to the LORD in Jerusalem, and they slaughtered the Passover lambs on the fourteenth day of the first month.

[2]And he set the priests in their duties and encouraged them for the service of the house of the LORD.

[3]Then he said to the Levites who taught all Israel, who were holy to the LORD: "Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David, king of Israel, built. It shall no longer be a burden on your shoulders. Now serve the LORD your God and His people Israel.

[4]"Prepare yourselves according to your fathers' houses, according to your divisions, following the written instruction of David king of Israel and the written instruction of Solomon his son.

[5]"And stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of your brethren the lay people, and according to the division of the father's house of the Levites.

[6]"So slaughter the Passover offerings, consecrate yourselves, and prepare them for your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses."

[7]Then Josiah gave the lay people lambs and young goats from the flock, all for Passover offerings for all who were present, to the number of thirty thousand, as well as three thousand cattle; these were from the king's possessions.

[8]And his leaders gave willingly to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave to the priests for the Passover offerings two thousand six hundred from the flock, and three hundred cattle.

[9]Also Conaniah, his brothers Shemaiah and Nethanel, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, chief of the Levites, gave to the Levites for Passover offerings five thousand from the flock and five hundred cattle.

[10]So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their places, and the Levites in their divisions, according to the king's command.

[11]And they slaughtered the Passover offerings; and the priests sprinkled the blood with their hands, while the Levites skinned the animals.

[12]Then they removed the burnt offerings that they might give them to the divisions of the fathers' houses of the lay people, to offer to the LORD, as it is written in the Book of Moses. And so they did with the cattle.

[13]Also they roasted the Passover offerings with fire according to the ordinance; but the other holy offerings they boiled in pots, in caldrons, and in pans, and divided them quickly among all the lay people.

[14]Then afterward they prepared portions for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the sons of Aaron, were busy in offering burnt offerings and fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared portions for themselves and for the priests, the sons of Aaron.

[15]And the singers, the sons of Asaph, were in their places, according to the command of David, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer. Also the gatekeepers were at each gate; they did not have to leave their position, because their brethren the Levites prepared portions for them.

[16]So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the Passover and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD, according to the command of King Josiah.

[17]And the children of Israel who were present kept the Passover at that time, and the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days.

[18]There had been no Passover kept in Israel like that since the days of Samuel the prophet; and none of the kings of Israel had kept such a Passover as Josiah kept, with the priests and the Levites, all Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

[19]In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah this Passover was kept.

Josiah Dies in Battle

[20]After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Carchemish by the Euphrates; and Josiah went out against him.

[21]But he sent messengers to him, saying, "What have I to do with you, king of Judah? I have not come against you this day, but against the house with which I have war; for God commanded me to make haste. Refrain from meddling with God, who is with me, lest He destroy you."

[22]Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself so that he might fight with him, and did not heed the words of Necho from the mouth of God. So he came to fight in the Valley of Megiddo.

[23]And the archers shot King Josiah; and the king said to his servants, "Take me away, for I am severely wounded."

[24]His servants therefore took him out of that chariot and put him in the second chariot that he had, and they brought him to Jerusalem. So he died, and was buried in one of the tombs of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

[25]Jeremiah also lamented for Josiah. And to this day all the singing men and the singing women speak of Josiah in their lamentations. They made it a custom in Israel; and indeed they are written in the Laments.

[26]Now the rest of the acts of Josiah and his goodness, according to what was written in the Law of the LORD,

[27]and his deeds from first to last, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

2 Chronicles 36

The Reign and Captivity of Jehoahaz

[1]Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's place in Jerusalem.

[2]Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.

[3]Now the king of Egypt deposed him at Jerusalem; and he imposed on the land a tribute of one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

[4]Then the king of Egypt made Jehoahaz's brother Eliakim king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. And Necho took Jehoahaz his brother and carried him off to Egypt.

The Reign and Captivity of Jehoiakim

[5]Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And he did evil in the sight of the LORD his God.

[6]Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against him, and bound him in bronze fetters to carry him off to Babylon.

[7]Nebuchadnezzar also carried off some of the articles from the house of the LORD to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon.

[8]Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, the abominations which he did, and what was found against him, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. Then Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place.

The Reign and Captivity of Jehoiachin

[9]Jehoiachin was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months and ten days. And he did evil in the sight of the LORD.

[10]At the turn of the year King Nebuchadnezzar summoned him and took him to Babylon, with the costly articles from the house of the LORD, and made Zedekiah, Jehoiakim's brother, king over Judah and Jerusalem.

Zedekiah Reigns in Judah

11Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.

12He did evil in the sight of the LORD his God, and did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet, who spoke from the mouth of the LORD.

13And he also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear an oath by God; but he stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against turning to the LORD God of Israel.

14Moreover all the leaders of the priests and the people transgressed more and more, according to all the abominations of the nations, and defiled the house of the LORD which He had consecrated in Jerusalem.

The Fall of Jerusalem

15And the LORD God of their fathers sent warnings to them by His messengers, rising up early and sending them, because He had compassion on His people and on His dwelling place.

16But they mocked the messengers of God, despised His words, and scoffed at His prophets, until the wrath of the LORD arose against His people, till there was no remedy.

17Therefore He brought against them the king of the Chaldeans, who killed their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion on young man or virgin, on the aged or the weak; He gave them all into his hand.

18And all the articles from the house of God, great and small, the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king and of his leaders, all these he took to Babylon.

19Then they burned the house of God, broke down the wall of Jerusalem, burned all its palaces with fire, and destroyed all its precious possessions.

20And those who escaped from the sword he carried away to Babylon, where they became servants to him and his sons until the rule of the kingdom of Persia,

21to fulfill the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed her Sabbaths. As long as she lay desolate she kept

Sabbath, to fulfill seventy years.

The Proclamation of Cyrus

22Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and also put it in writing, saying,

> 23Thus says Cyrus king of Persia:
> All the kingdoms of the earth the LORD God of heaven has given me. And He has commanded me to build Him a house at Jerusalem which is in Judah. Who is among you of all His people? May the LORD his God be with him, and let him go up!

The Book of

Ezra

Ezra 1

End of the Babylonian Captivity

[1]Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and also put it in writing, saying,

> [2]Thus says Cyrus king of Persia: All the kingdoms of the earth the LORD God of heaven has given me. And He has commanded me to build Him a house at Jerusalem which is in Judah.
>
> [3]Who is among you of all His people? May his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Israel (He is God), which is in Jerusalem.
>
> [4]And whoever is left in any place where he dwells, let the men of his place help him with silver and gold, with goods and livestock, besides the freewill offerings for the house of God which is in Jerusalem.

[5]Then the heads of the fathers' houses of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests and the Levites, with all whose spirits God had moved, arose to go up and build the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem.

[6]And all those who were around them encouraged them with articles of silver and gold, with goods and livestock, and with precious things, besides all that was willingly offered.

[7]King Cyrus also brought out the articles of the house of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from Jerusalem and put in the temple of his gods;

[8]and Cyrus king of Persia brought them out by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and counted them out to Sheshbazzar the prince of Judah.

[9]This is the number of them: thirty gold platters, one thousand silver platters, twenty-nine knives,

[10]thirty gold basins, four hundred and ten silver basins of a similar kind, and one thousand other articles.

[11] All the articles of gold and silver were five thousand four hundred. All these Sheshbazzar took with the captives who were brought from Babylon to Jerusalem.

Ezra 2

[41]The singers: the sons of Asaph, one hundred and twenty-eight.

[42]The sons of the gatekeepers: the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, and the sons of Shobai, one hundred and thirty-nine in all.

[43]The Nethinim: the sons of Ziha, the sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabbaoth,

[58]All the Nethinim and the children of Solomon’s servants were three hundred and ninety-two.

[59]And these were the ones who came up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Cherub, Addan, and Immer; but they could not identify their father’s house or their genealogy, whether they were of Israel:

[60]the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, and the sons of Nekoda, six hundred and fifty-two;

[61]and of the sons of the priests: the sons of Habaiah, the sons of Koz, and the sons of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called by their name.

[62]These sought their listing among those who were registered by genealogy, but they were not found; therefore they were excluded from the priesthood as defiled.

[63]And the governor said to them that they should not eat of the most holy things till a priest could consult with the Urim and Thummim.

[64]The whole assembly together was forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty,

[65]besides their male and female servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven; and they had two hundred men and women singers.

[68]Some of the heads of the fathers’ houses, when they came to the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem, offered freely for the house of God, to erect it in its place:

[69]According to their ability, they gave to the treasury for the work sixty-one thousand gold drachmas, five thousand minas of silver, and one hundred priestly garments.

[70]So the priests and the Levites, some of the people, the singers, the gatekeepers, and the Nethinim, dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

Ezra 3

Worship Restored at Jerusalem

[1]And when the seventh month had come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered together as one man to Jerusalem.

[2]Then Jeshua the son of Jozadak and his brethren the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and his brethren, arose and built the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings on it, as it is written in the Law of Moses the man of God.

[3]Though fear had come upon them because of the people of those countries, they set the altar on its bases; and they offered burnt offerings on it to the LORD, both the morning and evening burnt offerings.

[4]They also kept the Feast of Tabernacles, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings in the number required by ordinance for each day.

[5]Afterwards they offered the regular burnt offering, and those for New Moons and for all the appointed feasts of the LORD that were consecrated, and those of everyone who willingly offered a freewill offering to the LORD.

[6]From the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to the LORD, although the foundation of the temple of the LORD had not been laid.

[7]They also gave money to the masons and the carpenters, and food, drink, and oil to the people of Sidon and Tyre to bring cedar logs from Lebanon to the sea, to Joppa, according to the permission which they had from Cyrus king of Persia.

Restoration of the Temple Begins

[8]Now in the second month of the second year of their coming to the house of God at Jerusalem, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the rest of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all those who had come out of the captivity to Jerusalem, began work and appointed the Levites from twenty years old and above to oversee the work of the house of the LORD.

[9]Then Jeshua with his sons and brothers, Kadmiel with his sons, and the sons of Judah, arose as one to oversee those working on the house of God: the sons of Henadad with their sons and their brethren the Levites.

[10]When the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, the priests stood in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with cymbals, to praise the LORD, according to the ordinance of David king of Israel.

[11]And they sang responsively, praising and giving thanks to the LORD:

> “For He is good,
> For His mercy endures forever toward Israel.”

Then all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

[12]But many of the priests and Levites and heads of the fathers’ houses, old men who had seen the first temple, wept with a loud voice when the foundation of this temple was laid before their eyes. Yet many shouted aloud for joy,

[13]so that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people, for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the sound was heard afar off.

Ezra 4

Resistance to Rebuilding the Temple

[1]Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the descendants of the captivity were building the temple of the LORD God of Israel,

[2]they came to Zerubbabel and the heads of the fathers' houses, and said to them, "Let us build with you, for we seek your God as you do; and we have sacrificed to Him since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assyria, who brought us here."

[3]But Zerubbabel and Jeshua and the rest of the heads of the fathers' houses of Israel said to them, "You may do nothing with us to build a house for our God; but we alone will build to the LORD God of Israel, as King Cyrus the king of Persia has commanded us."

[4]Then the people of the land tried to discourage the people of Judah. They troubled them in building,

[5]and hired counselors against them to frustrate their purpose all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Rebuilding of Jerusalem Opposed

[6]In the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

[7]In the days of Artaxerxes also, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabel, and the rest of their companions wrote to Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the letter was written in Aramaic script, and translated into the Aramaic language.

[8]Rehum the commander and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to King Artaxerxes in this fashion:

> [9]From Rehum the commander, Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions—representatives of the Dinaites, the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the people of Persia and Erech and Babylon and Shushan, the Dehavites, the Elamites,

[10]and the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Osnapper took captive and settled in the cities of Samaria and the remainder beyond the River—and so forth.

[11](This is a copy of the letter that they sent him)

To King Artaxerxes from your servants, the men of the region beyond the River, and so forth:

[12]Let it be known to the king that the Jews who came up from you have come to us at Jerusalem, and are building the rebellious and evil city, and are finishing its walls and repairing the foundations.
[13]Let it now be known to the king that, if this city is built and the walls completed, they will not pay tax, tribute, or custom, and the king's treasury will be diminished.
[14]Now because we receive support from the palace, it was not proper for us to see the king's dishonor; therefore we have sent and informed the king,
[15]that search may be made in the book of the records of your fathers. And you will find in the book of the records and know that this city is a rebellious city, harmful to kings and provinces, and that they have incited sedition within the city in former times, for which cause this city was destroyed.
[16]We inform the king that if this city is rebuilt and its walls are completed, the result will be that you will have no dominion beyond the River.

[17]The king sent an answer:

To Rehum the commander, to Shimshai the scribe, to the rest of their companions who dwell in Samaria, and to the remainder beyond the River:

Peace, and so forth.

[18]The letter which you sent to us has been clearly read before me.
[19]And I gave the command, and a search has been made, and it was found that this city in former times has revolted against kings, and rebellion and sedition have been fostered in it.

[20]There have also been mighty kings over Jerusalem, who have ruled over all the region beyond the River; and tax, tribute, and custom were paid to them.

[21]Now give the command to make these men cease, that this city may not be built until the command is given by me.

[22]Take heed now that you do not fail to do this. Why should damage increase to the hurt of the kings?

[23]Now when the copy of King Artaxerxes’ letter was read before Rehum, Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up in haste to Jerusalem against the Jews, and by force of arms made them cease.

[24]Thus the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem ceased, and it was discontinued until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Ezra 5

Restoration of the Temple Resumed

[1]Then the prophet Haggai and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophets, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem, in the name of the God of Israel, who was over them.

[2]So Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of Jozadak rose up and began to build the house of God which is in Jerusalem; and the prophets of God were with them, helping them.

[3]At the same time Tattenai the governor of the region beyond the River and Shethar-Boznai and their companions came to them and spoke thus to them: “Who has commanded you to build this temple and finish this wall?”

[4]Then, accordingly, we told them the names of the men who were constructing this building.

[5]But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, so that they could not make them cease till a report could go to Darius. Then a written answer was returned concerning this matter.

[6]This is a copy of the letter that Tattenai sent:

> The governor of the region beyond the River, and Shethar-Boznai, and his companions, the Persians who were in the region beyond the River, to Darius the king.

[7](They sent a letter to him, in which was written thus)

> To Darius the king:
> All peace.
> [8]Let it be known to the king that we went into the province of Judea, to the temple of the great God, which is being built with heavy stones, and timber is being laid in the walls; and this work goes on diligently and prospers in their hands.
> [9]Then we asked those elders, and spoke thus to them: “Who commanded you to build this temple and to finish these walls?”

[10]We also asked them their names to inform you, that we might write the names of the men who were chief among them.

[11]And thus they returned us an answer, saying: “We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and we are rebuilding the temple that was built many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and completed.

[12]“But because our fathers provoked the God of heaven to wrath, He gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this temple and carried the people away to Babylon.

[13]“However, in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, King Cyrus issued a decree to build this house of God.

[14]“Also, the gold and silver articles of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple that was in Jerusalem and carried into the temple of Babylon—those King Cyrus took from the temple of Babylon, and they were given to one named Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor.

[15]“And he said to him, ‘Take these articles; go, carry them to the temple site that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be rebuilt on its former site.’

[16]“Then the same Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundation of the house of God which is in Jerusalem; but from that time even until now it has been under construction, and it is not finished.”

[17]Now therefore, if it seems good to the king, let a search be made in the king’s treasure house, which is there in Babylon, whether it is so that a decree was issued by King Cyrus to build this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send us his pleasure concerning this matter.

Ezra 6

The Decree of Darius

[1]Then King Darius issued a decree, and a search was made in the archives, where the treasures were stored in Babylon.

[2]And at Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of Media, a scroll was found, and in it a record was written thus:

> [3]In the first year of King Cyrus, King Cyrus issued a decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem: "Let the house be rebuilt, the place where they offered sacrifices; and let the foundations of it be firmly laid, its height sixty cubits and its width sixty cubits,
>
> [4]with three rows of heavy stones and one row of new timber. Let the expenses be paid from the king's treasury.
>
> [5]Also let the gold and silver articles of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the temple which is in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, be restored and taken back to the temple which is in Jerusalem, each to its place; and deposit them in the house of God"—
>
> [6]Now therefore, Tattenai, governor of the region beyond the River, and Shethar-Boznai, and your companions the Persians who are beyond the River, keep yourselves far from there.
>
> [7]Let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God on its site.
>
> [8]Moreover I issue a decree as to what you shall do for the elders of these Jews, for the building of this house of God: Let the cost be paid at the king's expense from taxes on the region beyond the River; this is to be given immediately to these men, so that they are not hindered.
>
> [9]And whatever they need—young bulls, rams, and lambs for the burnt offerings of the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the request of the priests who are in Jerusalem—let it be given them day by day without fail,
>
> [10]that they may offer sacrifices of sweet aroma to the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king and his sons.

[11]Also I issue a decree that whoever alters this edict, let a timber be pulled from his house and erected, and let him be hanged on it; and let his house be made a refuse heap because of this.

[12]And may the God who causes His name to dwell there destroy any king or people who put their hand to alter it, or to destroy this house of God which is in Jerusalem. I Darius issue a decree; let it be done diligently.

The Temple Completed and Dedicated

13Then Tattenai, governor of the region beyond the River, Shethar-Boznai, and their companions diligently did according to what King Darius had sent.

[14]So the elders of the Jews built, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they built and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the command of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia.

[15]Now the temple was finished on the third day of the month of Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.

[16]Then the children of Israel, the priests and the Levites and the rest of the descendants of the captivity, celebrated the dedication of this house of God with joy.

[17]And they offered sacrifices at the dedication of this house of God, one hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, and as a sin offering for all Israel twelve male goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.

[18]They assigned the priests to their divisions and the Levites to their divisions, over the service of God in Jerusalem, as it is written in the Book of Moses.

The Passover Celebrated

19And the descendants of the captivity kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month.

[20]For the priests and the Levites had purified themselves; all of them were ritually clean. And they slaughtered the Passover lambs for all the descendants of the captivity, for their brethren the priests, and for themselves.

[21]Then the children of Israel who had returned from the captivity ate together with all who had separated themselves from the filth of the nations of the land in order to seek the LORD God of Israel.

[22]And they kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with joy; for the LORD made them joyful, and turned the heart of the king of Assyria toward them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

Ezra 7

The Arrival of Ezra

[1]Now after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah,

[2]the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub,

[3]the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth,

[4]the son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki,

[5]the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest—

[6]this Ezra came up from Babylon; and he was a skilled scribe in the Law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given. The king granted him all his request, according to the hand of the LORD his God upon him.

[7]Some of the children of Israel, the priests, the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers, and the Nethinim came up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes.

[8]And Ezra came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king.

[9]On the first day of the first month he began his journey from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him.

[10]For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the Law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach statutes and ordinances in Israel.

The Letter of Artaxerxes to Ezra

[11]This is a copy of the letter that King Artaxerxes gave Ezra the priest, the scribe, expert in the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of His statutes to Israel:

[12]Artaxerxes, king of kings,

To Ezra the priest, a scribe of the Law of the God of heaven:
Perfect peace, and so forth.

[13]I issue a decree that all those of the people of Israel and the priests and Levites in my realm, who volunteer to go up to Jerusalem, may go with you.

[14]And whereas you are being sent by the king and his seven counselors to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, with regard to the Law of your God which is in your hand;

[15]and whereas you are to carry the silver and gold which the king and his counselors have freely offered to the God of Israel, whose dwelling is in Jerusalem;

[16]and whereas all the silver and gold that you may find in all the province of Babylon, along with the freewill offering of the people and the priests, are to be freely offered for the house of their God in Jerusalem—

[17]now therefore, be careful to buy with this money bulls, rams, and lambs, with their grain offerings and their drink offerings, and offer them on the altar of the house of your God in Jerusalem.

[18]And whatever seems good to you and your brethren to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, do it according to the will of your God.

[19]Also the articles that are given to you for the service of the house of your God, deliver in full before the God of Jerusalem.

[20]And whatever more may be needed for the house of your God, which you may have occasion to provide, pay for it from the king's treasury.

[21]And I, even I, Artaxerxes the king, issue a decree to all the treasurers who are in the region beyond the River, that whatever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the Law of the God of heaven, may require of you, let it be done diligently,

[22]up to one hundred talents of silver, one hundred kors of wheat, one hundred baths of wine, one hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribed limit.

[23]Whatever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it diligently be done for the house of the God of heaven. For why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons?

[24]Also we inform you that it shall not be lawful to impose tax, tribute, or custom on any of the priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, Nethinim, or servants of this house of God.

> [25]And you, Ezra, according to your God-given wisdom, set magistrates and judges who may judge all the people who are in the region beyond the River, all such as know the laws of your God; and teach those who do not know them.
> [26]Whoever will not observe the law of your God and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily on him, whether it be death, or banishment, or confiscation of goods, or imprisonment.

[27]Blessed be the LORD God of our fathers, who has put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem,
[28]and has extended mercy to me before the king and his counselors, and before all the king's mighty princes.
So I was encouraged, as the hand of the LORD my God was upon me; and I gathered leading men of Israel to go up with me.

Ezra 8

Heads of Families Who Returned with Ezra

[1]These are the heads of their fathers' houses, and this is the genealogy of those who went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of King Artaxerxes:

[2]of the sons of Phinehas, Gershom; of the sons of Ithamar, Daniel; of the sons of David, Hattush;

[3]of the sons of Shecaniah, of the sons of Parosh, Zechariah; and registered with him were one hundred and fifty males;

[4]of the sons of Pahath-Moab, Eliehoenai the son of Zerahiah, and with him two hundred males;

[5]of the sons of Shechaniah, Ben-Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males;

[6]of the sons of Adin, Ebed the son of Jonathan, and with him fifty males;

[7]of the sons of Elam, Jeshaiah the son of Athaliah, and with him seventy males;

[8]of the sons of Shephatiah, Zebadiah the son of Michael, and with him eighty males;

[9]of the sons of Joab, Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen males;

[10]of the sons of Shelomith, Ben-Josiphiah, and with him one hundred and sixty males;

[11]of the sons of Bebai, Zechariah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty-eight males;

[12]of the sons of Azgad, Johanan the son of Hakkatan, and with him one hundred and ten males;

[13]of the last sons of Adonikam, whose names are these—Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah—and with them sixty males;

[14]also of the sons of Bigvai, Uthai and Zabbud, and with them seventy males.

Servants for the Temple

15Now I gathered them by the river that flows to Ahava, and we camped there three days. And I looked among the people and the priests, and found none of the sons of Levi there.

16Then I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, leaders; also for Joiarib and Elnathan, men of understanding.

17And I gave them a command for Iddo the chief man at the place Casiphia, and I told them what they should say to Iddo and his brethren the Nethinim at the place Casiphia—that they should bring us servants for the house of our God.

18Then, by the good hand of our God upon us, they brought us a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli the son of Levi, the son of Israel, namely Sherebiah, with his sons and brothers, eighteen men;

19and Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiah of the sons of Merari, his brothers and their sons, twenty men;

20also of the Nethinim, whom David and the leaders had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinim. All of them were designated by name.

Fasting and Prayer for Protection

21Then I proclaimed a fast there at the river of Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God, to seek from Him the right way for us and our little ones and all our possessions.

22For I was ashamed to request of the king an escort of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy on the road, because we had spoken to the king, saying, “The hand of our God is upon all those for good who seek Him, but His power and His wrath are against all those who forsake Him.”

23So we fasted and entreated our God for this, and He answered our prayer.

Gifts for the Temple

24And I separated twelve of the leaders of the priests—Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them—

[25]and weighed out to them the silver, the gold, and the articles, the offering for the house of our God which the king and his counselors and his princes, and all Israel who were present, had offered.

[26]I weighed into their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, silver articles weighing one hundred talents, one hundred talents of gold,

[27]twenty gold basins worth a thousand drachmas, and two vessels of fine polished bronze, precious as gold.

[28]And I said to them, "You are holy to the LORD; the articles are holy also; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering to the LORD God of your fathers.

[29]"Watch and keep them until you weigh them before the leaders of the priests and the Levites and heads of the fathers' houses of Israel in Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the LORD."

[30]So the priests and the Levites received the silver and the gold and the articles by weight, to bring them to Jerusalem to the house of our God.

The Return to Jerusalem

[31]Then we departed from the river of Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go to Jerusalem. And the hand of our God was upon us, and He delivered us from the hand of the enemy and from ambush along the road.

[32]So we came to Jerusalem, and stayed there three days.

[33]Now on the fourth day the silver and the gold and the articles were weighed in the house of our God by the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest, and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; with them were the Levites, Jozabad the son of Jeshua and Noadiah the son of Binnui,

[34]with the number and weight of everything. All the weight was written down at that time.

[35]The children of those who had been carried away captive, who had come from the captivity, offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel: twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, and twelve male goats as a sin offering. All this was a burnt offering to the LORD.

36And they delivered the king’s orders to the king’s satraps and the governors in the region beyond the River. So they gave support to the people and the house of God.

Ezra 9

Intermarriage with Pagans

[1]When these things were done, the leaders came to me, saying, “The people of Israel and the priests and the Levites have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands, with respect to the abominations of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

[2]“For they have taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and their sons, so that the holy seed is mixed with the peoples of those lands. Indeed, the hand of the leaders and rulers has been foremost in this trespass.”

[3]So when I heard this thing, I tore my garment and my robe, and plucked out some of the hair of my head and beard, and sat down astonished.

[4]Then everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel assembled to me, because of the transgression of those who had been carried away captive, and I sat astonished until the evening sacrifice.

[5]At the evening sacrifice I arose from my fasting; and having torn my garment and my robe, I fell on my knees and spread out my hands to the LORD my God.

[6]And I said: “O my God, I am too ashamed and humiliated to lift up my face to You, my God; for our iniquities have risen higher than our heads, and our guilt has grown up to the heavens.

[7]“Since the days of our fathers to this day we have been very guilty, and for our iniquities we, our kings, and our priests have been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, to plunder, and to humiliation, as it is this day.

[8]“And now for a little while grace has been shown from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a peg in His holy place, that our God may enlighten our eyes and give us a measure of revival in our bondage.

[9]“For we were slaves. Yet our God did not forsake us in our bondage; but He extended mercy to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to revive us, to repair the house of our God, to rebuild its ruins, and to give us a wall in Judah and Jerusalem.

[10]“And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken Your commandments, [11]“which You commanded by Your servants the prophets, saying, ‘The land which you are entering to possess is an unclean land, with the uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, with their abominations which have filled it from one end to another with their impurity.

[12]‘Now therefore, do not give your daughters as wives for their sons, nor take their daughters to your sons; and never seek their peace or prosperity, that you may be strong and eat the good of the land, and leave it as an inheritance to your children forever.’

[13]“And after all that has come upon us for our evil deeds and for our great guilt, since You our God have punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and have given us such deliverance as this,

[14]“should we again break Your commandments, and join in marriage with the people committing these abominations? Would You not be angry with us until You had consumed us, so that there would be no remnant or survivor?

[15]“O LORD God of Israel, You are righteous, for we are left as a remnant, as it is this day. Here we are before You, in our guilt, though no one can stand before You because of this!”

Ezra 10

Confession of Improper Marriages

[1]Now while Ezra was praying, and while he was confessing, weeping, and bowing down before the house of God, a very large assembly of men, women, and children gathered to him from Israel; for the people wept very bitterly.

[2]And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, spoke up and said to Ezra, "We have trespassed against our God, and have taken pagan wives from the peoples of the land; yet now there is hope in Israel in spite of this.

[3]"Now therefore, let us make a covenant with our God to put away all these wives and those who have been born to them, according to the advice of my master and of those who tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law.

[4]"Arise, for this matter is your responsibility. We also are with you. Be of good courage, and do it."

[5]Then Ezra arose, and made the leaders of the priests, the Levites, and all Israel swear an oath that they would do according to this word. So they swore an oath.

[6]Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib; and when he came there, he ate no bread and drank no water, for he mourned because of the guilt of those from the captivity.

[7]And they issued a proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to all the descendants of the captivity, that they must gather at Jerusalem,

[8]and that whoever would not come within three days, according to the instructions of the leaders and elders, all his property would be confiscated, and he himself would be separated from the assembly of those from the captivity.

[9]So all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered at Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth of the month; and all the people sat in the open square of the house of God, trembling because of this matter and because of heavy rain.

[10]Then Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, “You have transgressed and have taken pagan wives, adding to the guilt of Israel.

[11]“Now therefore, make confession to the LORD God of your fathers, and do His will; separate yourselves from the peoples of the land, and from the pagan wives.”

[12]Then all the assembly answered and said with a loud voice, “Yes! As you have said, so we must do.

[13]“But there are many people; it is the season for heavy rain, and we are not able to stand outside. Nor is this the work of one or two days, for there are many of us who have transgressed in this matter.

[14]“Please, let the leaders of our entire assembly stand; and let all those in our cities who have taken pagan wives come at appointed times, together with the elders and judges of their cities, until the fierce wrath of our God is turned away from us in this matter.”

[15]Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah opposed this, and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite gave them support.

[16]Then the descendants of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain heads of the fathers’ households, were set apart by the fathers’ households, each of them by name; and they sat down on the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter.

[17]By the first day of the first month they finished questioning all the men who had taken pagan wives.

Pagan Wives Put Away

[18]And among the sons of the priests who had taken pagan wives the following were found of the sons of Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brothers: Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah.

[19]And they gave their promise that they would put away their wives; and being guilty, they presented a ram of the flock as their trespass offering.

[20]Also of the sons of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah;

[21]of the sons of Harim: Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel, and Uzziah;

[22]of the sons of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad, and Elasah.

[23]Also of the Levites: Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah (the same is Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer.

[24]Also of the singers: Eliashib; and of the gatekeepers: Shallum, Telem, and Uri.

[25]And others of Israel: of the sons of Parosh: Ramiah, Jeziah, Malchiah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Malchijah, and Benaiah;

[26]of the sons of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremoth, and Eliah;

[27]of the sons of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, Jeremoth, Zabad, and Aziza;

[28]of the sons of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, and Athlai;

[29]of the sons of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch, Adaiah, Jashub, Sheal, and Ramoth;

[30]of the sons of Pahath-Moab: Adna, Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, Binnui, and Manasseh;

[31]of the sons of Harim: Eliezer, Ishijah, Malchijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon,

[32]Benjamin, Malluch, and Shemariah;

[33]of the sons of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, and Shimei;

[34]of the sons of Bani: Maadai, Amram, Uel,

[35]Benaiah, Bedeiah, Cheluh,

[36]Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib,

[37]Mattaniah, Mattenai, Jaasai,

[38]Bani, Binnui, Shimei,

[39]Shelemiah, Nathan, Adaiah,

[40]Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai,

[41]Azarel, Shelemiah, Shemariah,

[42]Shallum, Amariah, and Joseph;

[43]of the sons of Nebo: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddai, Joel, and Benaiah.

[44]All these had taken pagan wives, and some of them had wives by whom they had children.

The Book of
Nehemiah

Nehemiah 1

Nehemiah Prays for His People

[1]The words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah.

It came to pass in the month of Chislev, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the citadel,

[2]that Hanani one of my brethren came with men from Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews who had escaped, who had survived the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

[3]And they said to me, “The survivors who are left from the captivity in the province are there in great distress and reproach. The wall of Jerusalem is also broken down, and its gates are burned with fire.”

[4]So it was, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned for many days; I was fasting and praying before the God of heaven.

[5]And I said: “I pray, LORD God of heaven, O great and awesome God, You who keep Your covenant and mercy with those who love You and observe Your commandments,

[6]“please let Your ear be attentive and Your eyes open, that You may hear the prayer of Your servant which I pray before You now, day and night, for the children of Israel Your servants, and confess the sins of the children of Israel which we have sinned against You. Both my father’s house and I have sinned.

[7]“We have acted very corruptly against You, and have not kept the commandments, the statutes, nor the ordinances which You commanded Your servant Moses.

[8]“Remember, I pray, the word that You commanded Your servant Moses, saying, ‘If you are unfaithful, I will scatter you among the nations;

[9]‘but if you return to Me, and keep My commandments and do them, though some of you were cast out to the farthest part of the heavens, yet I will gather them from there, and bring them to the place which I have chosen as a dwelling for My name.’

[10]“Now these are Your servants and Your people, whom You have redeemed by Your great power, and by Your strong hand.

[11]“O Lord, I pray, please let Your ear be attentive to the prayer of Your servant, and to the prayer of Your servants who desire to fear Your name; and let Your servant prosper this day, I pray, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man.” For I was the king’s cupbearer.

Nehemiah 2

Nehemiah Sent to Judah

[1]And it came to pass in the month of Nisan, in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, when wine was before him, that I took the wine and gave it to the king. Now I had never been sad in his presence before.

[2]Therefore the king said to me, “Why is your face sad, since you are not sick? This is nothing but sorrow of heart.” So I became dreadfully afraid,

[3]and said to the king, “May the king live forever! Why should my face not be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers’ tombs, lies waste, and its gates are burned with fire?”

[4]Then the king said to me, “What do you request?” So I prayed to the God of heaven.

[5]And I said to the king, “If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favor in your sight, I ask that you send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers’ tombs, that I may rebuild it.”

[6]Then the king said to me (the queen also sitting beside him), “How long will your journey be? And when will you return?” So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time.

[7]Furthermore I said to the king, “If it pleases the king, let letters be given to me for the governors of the region beyond the River, that they must permit me to pass through till I come to Judah,

[8]“and a letter to Asaph the keeper of the king’s forest, that he must give me timber to make beams for the gates of the citadel which pertains to the temple, for the city wall, and for the house that I will occupy.” And the king granted them to me according to the good hand of my God upon me.

[9]Then I went to the governors in the region beyond the River, and gave them the king’s letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me.

[10]When Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official heard of it, they were deeply disturbed that a man had come to seek the well-being of the children of Israel.

Nehemiah Views the Wall of Jerusalem

11So I came to Jerusalem and was there three days.

12Then I arose in the night, I and a few men with me; I told no one what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem; nor was there any animal with me, except the one on which I rode.

13And I went out by night through the Valley Gate to the Serpent Well and the Refuse Gate, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem which were broken down and its gates which were burned with fire.

14Then I went on to the Fountain Gate and to the King's Pool, but there was no room for the animal under me to pass.

15So I went up in the night by the valley, and viewed the wall; then I turned back and entered by the Valley Gate, and so returned.

16And the officials did not know where I had gone or what I had done; I had not yet told the Jews, the priests, the nobles, the officials, or the others who did the work.

17Then I said to them, "You see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lies waste, and its gates are burned with fire. Come and let us build the wall of Jerusalem, that we may no longer be a reproach."

18And I told them of the hand of my God which had been good upon me, and also of the king's words that he had spoken to me. So they said, "Let us rise up and build." Then they set their hands to this good work.

19But when Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite official, and Geshem the Arab heard of it, they laughed at us and despised us, and said, "What is this thing that you are doing? Will you rebel against the king?"

20So I answered them, and said to them, "The God of heaven Himself will prosper us; therefore we His servants will arise and build, but you have no heritage or right or memorial in Jerusalem."

Nehemiah 3

Rebuilding the Wall

[1]Then Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests and built the Sheep Gate; they consecrated it and hung its doors. They built as far as the Tower of the Hundred, and consecrated it, then as far as the Tower of Hananel.

[2]Next to Eliashib the men of Jericho built. And next to them Zaccur the son of Imri built.

[3]Also the sons of Hassenaah built the Fish Gate; they laid its beams and hung its doors with its bolts and bars.

[4]And next to them Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of Koz, made repairs. Next to them Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabel, made repairs. Next to them Zadok the son of Baana made repairs.

[5]Next to them the Tekoites made repairs; but their nobles did not put their shoulders to the work of their Lord.

[6]Moreover Jehoiada the son of Paseah and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah repaired the Old Gate; they laid its beams and hung its doors, with its bolts and bars.

[7]And next to them Melatiah the Gibeonite, Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon and Mizpah, repaired the residence of the governor of the region beyond the River.

[8]Next to him Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs. Also next to him Hananiah, one of the perfumers, made repairs; and they fortified Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.

[9]And next to them Rephaiah the son of Hur, leader of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs.

[10]Next to them Jedaiah the son of Harumaph made repairs in front of his house. And next to him Hattush the son of Hashabniah made repairs.

[11]Malchijah the son of Harim and Hashub the son of Pahath-Moab repaired another section, as well as the Tower of the Ovens.

[12]And next to him was Shallum the son of Hallohesh, leader of half the district of Jerusalem; he and his daughters made repairs.

[13]Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate. They built it, hung its doors with its bolts and bars, and repaired a thousand cubits of the wall as far as the Refuse Gate.

[14]Malchijah the son of Rechab, leader of the district of Beth Haccerem, repaired the Refuse Gate; he built it and hung its doors with its bolts and bars.

[15]Shallun the son of Col-Hozeh, leader of the district of Mizpah, repaired the Fountain Gate; he built it, covered it, hung its doors with its bolts and bars, and repaired the wall of the Pool of Shelah by the King's Garden, as far as the stairs that go down from the City of David.

[16]After him Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, leader of half the district of Beth Zur, made repairs as far as the place in front of the tombs of David, to the man-made pool, and as far as the House of the Mighty.

[17]After him the Levites, under Rehum the son of Bani, made repairs. Next to him Hashabiah, leader of half the district of Keilah, made repairs for his district.

[18]After him their brethren, under Bavai the son of Henadad, leader of the other half of the district of Keilah, made repairs.

[19]And next to him Ezer the son of Jeshua, the leader of Mizpah, repaired another section in front of the Ascent to the Armory at the buttress.

[20]After him Baruch the son of Zabbai carefully repaired the other section, from the buttress to the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest.

[21]After him Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of Koz, repaired another section, from the door of the house of Eliashib to the end of the house of Eliashib.

[22]And after him the priests, the men of the plain, made repairs.

[23]After him Benjamin and Hasshub made repairs opposite their house. After them Azariah the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ananiah, made repairs by his house.

[24]After him Binnui the son of Henadad repaired another section, from the house of Azariah to the buttress, even as far as the corner.

[25]Palal the son of Uzai made repairs opposite the buttress, and on the tower which projects from the king's upper house that was by the court of the prison. After him Pedaiah the son of Parosh made repairs.

[26]Moreover the Nethinim who dwelt in Ophel made repairs as far as the place in front of the Water Gate toward the east, and on the projecting tower.

[27]After them the Tekoites repaired another section, next to the great projecting tower, and as far as the wall of Ophel.

[28]Beyond the Horse Gate the priests made repairs, each in front of his own house.

[29]After them Zadok the son of Immer made repairs in front of his own house. After him Shemaiah the son of Shechaniah, the keeper of the East Gate, made repairs.

[30]After him Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun, the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another section. After him Meshullam the son of Berechiah made repairs in front of his dwelling.

[31]After him Malchijah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs as far as the house of the Nethinim and of the merchants, in front of the Miphkad Gate, and as far as the upper room at the corner.

[32]And between the upper room at the corner, as far as the Sheep Gate, the goldsmiths and the merchants made repairs.

Nehemiah 4

The Wall Defended Against Enemies

[1]But it so happened, when Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, that he was furious and very indignant, and mocked the Jews.

[2]And he spoke before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, "What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they fortify themselves? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they complete it in a day? Will they revive the stones from the heaps of rubbish—stones that are burned?"

[3]Now Tobiah the Ammonite was beside him, and he said, "Whatever they build, if even a fox goes up on it, he will break down their stone wall."

4Hear, O our God, for we are despised; turn their reproach on their own heads, and give them as plunder to a land of captivity!

[5]Do not cover their iniquity, and do not let their sin be blotted out from before You; for they have provoked You to anger before the builders.

6So we built the wall, and the entire wall was joined together up to half its height, for the people had a mind to work.

7Now it happened, when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the walls of Jerusalem were being restored and the gaps were beginning to be closed, that they became very angry,

[8]and all of them conspired together to come and attack Jerusalem and create confusion.

[9]Nevertheless we made our prayer to our God, and because of them we set a watch against them day and night.

10Then Judah said, "The strength of the laborers is failing, and there is so much rubbish that we are not able to build the wall."

[11]And our adversaries said, "They will neither know nor see anything, till we come into their midst and kill them and cause the work to cease."

[12]So it was, when the Jews who dwelt near them came, that they told us ten times, "From whatever place you turn, they will be upon us."

[13]Therefore I positioned men behind the lower parts of the wall, at the openings; and I set the people according to their families, with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

[14]And I looked, and arose and said to the nobles, to the leaders, and to the rest of the people, “Do not be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, great and awesome, and fight for your brethren, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your houses.”

[15]And it happened, when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and that God had brought their plot to nothing, that all of us returned to the wall, everyone to his work.

[16]So it was, from that time on, that half of my servants worked at construction, while the other half held the spears, the shields, the bows, and wore armor; and the leaders were behind all the house of Judah.

[17]Those who built on the wall, and those who carried burdens, loaded themselves so that with one hand they worked at construction, and with the other held a weapon.

[18]Every one of the builders had his sword girded at his side as he built. And the one who sounded the trumpet was beside me.

[19]Then I said to the nobles, the rulers, and the rest of the people, “The work is great and extensive, and we are separated far from one another on the wall.

[20]“Wherever you hear the sound of the trumpet, rally to us there. Our God will fight for us.”

[21]So we labored in the work, and half of the men held the spears from daybreak until the stars appeared.

[22]At the same time I also said to the people, “Let each man and his servant stay at night in Jerusalem, that they may be our guard by night and a working party by day.”

[23]So neither I, my brethren, my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me took off our clothes, except that everyone took them off for washing.

Nehemiah 5

Nehemiah Deals with Oppression

[1]And there was a great outcry of the people and their wives against their Jewish brethren.

[2]For there were those who said, “We, our sons, and our daughters are many; therefore let us get grain, that we may eat and live.”

[3]There were also some who said, “We have mortgaged our lands and vineyards and houses, that we might buy grain because of the famine.”

[4]There were also those who said, “We have borrowed money for the king’s tax on our lands and vineyards.

[5]“Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children; and indeed we are forcing our sons and our daughters to be slaves, and some of our daughters have been brought into slavery. It is not in our power to redeem them, for other men have our lands and vineyards.”

6And I became very angry when I heard their outcry and these words.

[7]After serious thought, I rebuked the nobles and rulers, and said to them, “Each of you is exacting usury from his brother.” So I called a great assembly against them.

[8]And I said to them, “According to our ability we have redeemed our Jewish brethren who were sold to the nations. Now indeed, will you even sell your brethren? Or should they be sold to us?” Then they were silenced and found nothing to say.

[9]Then I said, “What you are doing is not good. Should you not walk in the fear of our God because of the reproach of the nations, our enemies?

[10]“I also, with my brethren and my servants, am lending them money and grain. Please, let us stop this usury!

[11]“Restore now to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their olive groves, and their houses, also a hundredth of the money and the grain, the new wine and the oil, that you have charged them.”

[12]So they said, “We will restore it, and will require nothing from them; we will do as you say.” Then I called the priests, and required an oath from them that they would do according to this promise.

[13]Then I shook out the fold of my garment and said, “So may God shake out each man from his house, and from his property, who does not perform this promise. Even thus may he be shaken out and emptied.” And all the assembly said, “Amen!” and praised the LORD. Then the people did according to this promise.

The Generosity of Nehemiah

[14]Moreover, from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year until the thirty-second year of King Artaxerxes, twelve years, neither I nor my brothers ate the governor’s provisions.

[15]But the former governors who were before me laid burdens on the people, and took from them bread and wine, besides forty shekels of silver. Yes, even their servants bore rule over the people, but I did not do so, because of the fear of God.

[16]Indeed, I also continued the work on this wall, and we did not buy any land. All my servants were gathered there for the work.

[17]And at my table were one hundred and fifty Jews and rulers, besides those who came to us from the nations around us.

[18]Now that which was prepared daily was one ox and six choice sheep. Also fowl were prepared for me, and once every ten days an abundance of all kinds of wine. Yet in spite of this I did not demand the governor’s provisions, because the bondage was heavy on this people.

[19]Remember me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

Nehemiah 6

Conspiracy Against Nehemiah

[1]Now it happened when Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab, and the rest of our enemies heard that I had rebuilt the wall, and that there were no breaks left in it (though at that time I had not hung the doors in the gates),

[2]that Sanballat and Geshem sent to me, saying, “Come, let us meet together among the villages in the plain of Ono.” But they thought to do me harm.

[3]So I sent messengers to them, saying, “I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down. Why should the work cease while I leave it and go down to you?”

[4]But they sent me this message four times, and I answered them in the same manner.

[5]Then Sanballat sent his servant to me as before, the fifth time, with an open letter in his hand.

[6]In it was written:

> It is reported among the nations, and Geshem says, that you and the Jews plan to rebel; therefore, according to these rumors, you are rebuilding the wall, that you may be their king.
>
> [7]And you have also appointed prophets to proclaim concerning you at Jerusalem, saying, “There is a king in Judah!” Now these matters will be reported to the king. So come, therefore, and let us consult together.

[8]Then I sent to him, saying, “No such things as you say are being done, but you invent them in your own heart.”

[9]For they all were trying to make us afraid, saying, “Their hands will be weakened in the work, and it will not be done.”

Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands.

[10]Afterward I came to the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabel, who was a secret informer; and he said, “Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us close the doors of the temple, for they are coming to kill you; indeed, at night they will come to kill you."

[11]And I said, "Should such a man as I flee? And who is there such as I who would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in!"

[12]Then I perceived that God had not sent him at all, but that he pronounced this prophecy against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

[13]For this reason he was hired, that I should be afraid and act that way and sin, so that they might have cause for an evil report, that they might reproach me.

[14]My God, remember Tobiah and Sanballat, according to these their works, and the prophetess Noadiah and the rest of the prophets who would have made me afraid.

The Wall Completed

[15]So the wall was finished on the twenty-fifth day of Elul, in fifty-two days.

[16]And it happened, when all our enemies heard of it, and all the nations around us saw these things, that they were very disheartened in their own eyes; for they perceived that this work was done by our God.

[17]Also in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came to them.

[18]For many in Judah were pledged to him, because he was the son-in-law of Shechaniah the son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah.

[19]Also they reported his good deeds before me, and reported my words to him. Tobiah sent letters to frighten me.

Nehemiah 7

[1]Then it was, when the wall was built and I had hung the doors, when the gatekeepers, the singers, and the Levites had been appointed,

[2]that I gave the charge of Jerusalem to my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the leader of the citadel, for he was a faithful man and feared God more than many.

[3]And I said to them, "Do not let the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun is hot; and while they stand guard, let them shut and bar the doors; and appoint guards from among the inhabitants of Jerusalem, one at his watch station and another in front of his own house."

The Captives Who Returned to Jerusalem

[4]Now the city was large and spacious, but the people in it were few, and the houses were not rebuilt.

[5]Then my God put it into my heart to gather the nobles, the rulers, and the people, that they might be registered by genealogy. And I found a register of the genealogy of those who had come up in the first return, and found written in it:

[6]These are the people of the province who came back from the captivity, of those who had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and who returned to Jerusalem and Judah, everyone to his city.

[7]Those who came with Zerubbabel were Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, and Baanah.

The number of the men of the people of Israel:

[30]the men of Ramah and Geba, six hundred and twenty-one;
[31]the men of Michmas, one hundred and twenty-two;
[32]the men of Bethel and Ai, one hundred and twenty-three;
[33]the men of the other Nebo, fifty-two;

[35]the sons of Harim, three hundred and twenty;
[36]the sons of Jericho, three hundred and forty-five;
[37]the sons of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred and twenty-one;

[39]The priests: the sons of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, nine hundred and seventy-three;
[40]the sons of Immer, one thousand and fifty-two;

[41]the sons of Pashhur, one thousand two hundred and forty-seven;
[42]the sons of Harim, one thousand and seventeen.

[43]The Levites: the sons of Jeshua, of Kadmiel, and of the sons of Hodevah, seventy-four.

[44]The singers: the sons of Asaph, one hundred and forty-eight.

[45]The gatekeepers: the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, the sons of Shobai, one hundred and thirty-eight.

[46]The Nethinim: the sons of Ziha, the sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabbaoth,
[47]the sons of Keros, the sons of Sia, the sons of Padon,
[48]the sons of Lebana, the sons of Hagaba, the sons of Salmai,
[49]the sons of Hanan, the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar,
[50]the sons of Reaiah, the sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda,
[51]the sons of Gazzam, the sons of Uzza, the sons of Paseah,
[52]the sons of Besai, the sons of Meunim, the sons of Nephishesim,
[53]the sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Harhur,
[54]the sons of Bazlith, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha,
[55]the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Tamah,
[56]the sons of Neziah, and the sons of Hatipha.

[57]The sons of Solomon’s servants: the sons of Sotai, the sons of Sophereth, the sons of Perida,
[58]the sons of Jaala, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel,
[59]the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth of Zebaim, and the sons of Amon.
[60]All the Nethinim, and the sons of Solomon’s servants, were three hundred and ninety-two.

[61]And these were the ones who came up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer, but they could not identify their father’s house nor their lineage, whether they were of Israel:

[62]the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, the sons of Nekoda, six hundred and forty-two;
[63]and of the priests: the sons of Habaiah, the sons of Koz, the sons of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called by their name.
[64]These sought their listing among those who were registered by genealogy, but it was not found; therefore they were excluded from the priesthood as defiled.
[65]And the governor said to them that they should not eat of the most holy things till a priest could consult with the Urim and Thummim.

[66]Altogether the whole assembly was forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty,
[67]besides their male and female servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven; and they had two hundred and forty-five men and women singers.
[68]Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six, their mules two hundred and forty-five,
[69]their camels four hundred and thirty-five, and donkeys six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

[70]And some of the heads of the fathers' houses gave to the work. The governor gave to the treasury one thousand gold drachmas, fifty basins, and five hundred and thirty priestly garments.
[71]Some of the heads of the fathers' houses gave to the treasury of the work twenty thousand gold drachmas, and two thousand two hundred silver minas.
[72]And that which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand gold drachmas, two thousand silver minas, and sixty-seven priestly garments.

[73]So the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, some of the people, the Nethinim, and all Israel dwelt in their cities.

Ezra Reads the Law

When the seventh month came, the children of Israel were in their cities.

Nehemiah 8

[1]Now all the people gathered together as one man in the open square that was in front of the Water Gate; and they told Ezra the scribe to bring the Book of the Law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded Israel.

[2]So Ezra the priest brought the Law before the assembly of men and women and all who could hear with understanding on the first day of the seventh month.

[3]Then he read from it in the open square that was in front of the Water Gate from morning until midday, before the men and women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the Book of the Law.

[4]So Ezra the scribe stood on a platform of wood which they had made for the purpose; and beside him, at his right hand, stood Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Urijah, Hilkiah, and Maaseiah; and at his left hand Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

[5]And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was standing above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people stood up.

[6]And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. Then all the people answered, “Amen, Amen!” while lifting up their hands. And they bowed their heads and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

[7]Also Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, helped the people to understand the Law; and the people stood in their place.

[8]So they read distinctly from the book, in the Law of God; and they gave the sense, and helped them to understand the reading.

[9]And Nehemiah, who was the governor, Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, “This day is holy to the LORD your God; do not mourn nor weep.” For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the Law.

[10]Then he said to them, “Go your way, eat the fat, drink the sweet, and send portions to those for whom nothing is prepared; for this day is holy to our Lord. Do not sorrow, for the joy of the LORD is your strength.”

[11]So the Levites quieted all the people, saying, “Be still, for the day is holy; do not be grieved.”

[12]And all the people went their way to eat and drink, to send portions and rejoice greatly, because they understood the words that were declared to them.

The Feast of Tabernacles

[13]Now on the second day the heads of the fathers’ houses of all the people, with the priests and Levites, were gathered to Ezra the scribe, in order to understand the words of the Law.

[14]And they found written in the Law, which the LORD had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths during the feast of the seventh month,

[15]and that they should announce and proclaim in all their cities and in Jerusalem, saying, “Go out to the mountain, and bring olive branches, branches of oil trees, myrtle branches, palm branches, and branches of leafy trees, to make booths, as it is written.”

[16]Then the people went out and brought them and made themselves booths, each one on the roof of his house, or in their courtyards or the courts of the house of God, and in the open square of the Water Gate and in the open square of the Gate of Ephraim.

[17]So the whole assembly of those who had returned from the captivity made booths and sat under the booths; for since the days of Joshua the son of Nun until that day the children of Israel had not done so. And there was very great gladness.

[18]Also day by day, from the first day until the last day, he read from the Book of the Law of God. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day there was a sacred assembly, according to the prescribed manner.

Nehemiah 9

The People Confess Their Sins

[1]Now on the twenty-fourth day of this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, in sackcloth, and with dust on their heads.

[2]Then those of Israelite lineage separated themselves from all foreigners; and they stood and confessed their sins and the iniquities of their fathers.

[3]And they stood up in their place and read from the Book of the Law of the LORD their God for one-fourth of the day; and for another fourth they confessed and worshiped the LORD their God.

[4]Then Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani stood on the stairs of the Levites and cried out with a loud voice to the LORD their God.

[5]And the Levites, Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said:

“Stand up and bless the LORD your God
Forever and ever!

“Blessed be Your glorious name,
Which is exalted above all blessing and praise!
[6]You alone are the LORD;
You have made heaven,
The heaven of heavens, with all their host,
The earth and everything on it,
The seas and all that is in them,
And You preserve them all.
The host of heaven worships You.

[7]“You are the LORD God,
Who chose Abram,
And brought him out of Ur of the Chaldeans,
And gave him the name Abraham;
[8]You found his heart faithful before You,
And made a covenant with him

To give the land of the Canaanites,
The Hittites, the Amorites,
The Perizzites, the Jebusites,
And the Girgashites��
To give it to his descendants.
You have performed Your words,
For You are righteous.

[9]“You saw the affliction of our fathers in Egypt,
And heard their cry by the Red Sea.
[10]You showed signs and wonders against Pharaoh,
Against all his servants,
And against all the people of his land.
For You knew that they acted proudly against them.
So You made a name for Yourself, as it is this day.
[11]And You divided the sea before them,
So that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land;
And their persecutors You threw into the deep,
As a stone into the mighty waters.
[12]Moreover You led them by day with a cloudy pillar,
And by night with a pillar of fire,
To give them light on the road
Which they should travel.
[13]“You came down also on Mount Sinai,
And spoke with them from heaven,
And gave them just ordinances and true laws,
Good statutes and commandments.
[14]You made known to them Your holy Sabbath,
And commanded them precepts, statutes and laws,
By the hand of Moses Your servant.
[15]You gave them bread from heaven for their hunger,
And brought them water out of the rock for their thirst,
And told them to go in to possess the land
Which You had sworn to give them.

[16]“But they and our fathers acted proudly,

Hardened their necks,
And did not heed Your commandments.
[17]They refused to obey,
And they were not mindful of Your wonders
That You did among them.
But they hardened their necks,
And in their rebellion
They appointed a leader
To return to their bondage.
But You are God,
Ready to pardon,
Gracious and merciful,
Slow to anger,
Abundant in kindness,
And did not forsake them.

[18]"Even when they made a molded calf for themselves,
And said, 'This is your god
That brought you up out of Egypt,'
And worked great provocations,
[19]Yet in Your manifold mercies
You did not forsake them in the wilderness.
The pillar of the cloud did not depart from them by day,
To lead them on the road;
Nor the pillar of fire by night,
To show them light,
And the way they should go.
[20]You also gave Your good Spirit to instruct them,
And did not withhold Your manna from their mouth,
And gave them water for their thirst.
[21]Forty years You sustained them in the wilderness;
They lacked nothing;
Their clothes did not wear out
And their feet did not swell.

[22]"Moreover You gave them kingdoms and nations,
And divided them into districts.

So they took possession of the land of Sihon,
The land of the king of Heshbon,
And the land of Og king of Bashan.
[23]You also multiplied their children as the stars of heaven,
And brought them into the land
Which You had told their fathers
To go in and possess.
[24]So the people went in
And possessed the land;
You subdued before them the inhabitants of the land,
The Canaanites,
And gave them into their hands,
With their kings
And the people of the land,
That they might do with them as they wished.
[25]And they took strong cities and a rich land,
And possessed houses full of all goods,
Cisterns already dug, vineyards, olive groves,
And fruit trees in abundance.
So they ate and were filled and grew fat,
And delighted themselves in Your great goodness.

26"Nevertheless they were disobedient
And rebelled against You,
Cast Your law behind their backs
And killed Your prophets, who testified against them
To turn them to Yourself;
And they worked great provocations.
[27]Therefore You delivered them into the hand of their enemies,
Who oppressed them;
And in the time of their trouble,
When they cried to You,
You heard from heaven;
And according to Your abundant mercies
You gave them deliverers who saved them
From the hand of their enemies.

[28]"But after they had rest,
They again did evil before You.
Therefore You left them in the hand of their enemies,
So that they had dominion over them;
Yet when they returned and cried out to You,
You heard from heaven;
And many times You delivered them according to Your mercies,
[29]And testified against them,
That You might bring them back to Your law.
Yet they acted proudly,
And did not heed Your commandments,
But sinned against Your judgments,
'Which if a man does, he shall live by them.'
And they shrugged their shoulders,
Stiffened their necks,
And would not hear.
[30]Yet for many years You had patience with them,
And testified against them by Your Spirit in Your prophets.
Yet they would not listen;
Therefore You gave them into the hand of the peoples of the lands.
[31]Nevertheless in Your great mercy
You did not utterly consume them nor forsake them;
For You are God, gracious and merciful.

[32]"Now therefore, our God,
The great, the mighty, and awesome God,
Who keeps covenant and mercy:
Do not let all the trouble seem small before You
That has come upon us,
Our kings and our princes,
Our priests and our prophets,
Our fathers and on all Your people,
From the days of the kings of Assyria until this day.
[33]However You are just in all that has befallen us;
For You have dealt faithfully,

But we have done wickedly.
[34]Neither our kings nor our princes,
Our priests nor our fathers,
Have kept Your law,
Nor heeded Your commandments and Your testimonies,
With which You testified against them.
[35]For they have not served You in their kingdom,
Or in the many good things that You gave them,
Or in the large and rich land which You set before them;
Nor did they turn from their wicked works.

[36]"Here we are, servants today!
And the land that You gave to our fathers,
To eat its fruit and its bounty,
Here we are, servants in it!
[37]And it yields much increase to the kings
You have set over us,
Because of our sins;
Also they have dominion over our bodies and our cattle
At their pleasure;
And we are in great distress.

[38]"And because of all this,
We make a sure covenant and write it;
Our leaders, our Levites, and our priests seal it."

Nehemiah 10

The People Who Sealed the Covenant

[1]Now those who placed their seal on the document were:
Nehemiah the governor, the son of Hacaliah, and Zedekiah,
[2]Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah,
[3]Pashhur, Amariah, Malchijah,
[4]Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch,
[5]Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah,
[6]Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch,
[7]Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin,
[8]Maaziah, Bilgai, and Shemaiah. These were the priests.

[9]The Levites: Jeshua the son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, and Kadmiel.

[10]Their brethren: Shebaniah, Hodijah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan,
[11]Micha, Rehob, Hashabiah,
[12]Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,
[13]Hodijah, Bani, and Beninu.

[14]The leaders of the people: Parosh, Pahath-Moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani,
[15]Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,
[16]Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin,
[17]Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur,
[18]Hodijah, Hashum, Bezai,
[19]Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai,
[20]Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir,
[21]Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua,
[22]Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah,
[23]Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub,
[24]Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek,
[25]Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah,
[26]Ahijah, Hanan, Anan,
[27]Malluch, Harim, and Baanah.

The Covenant That Was Sealed

[28]Now the rest of the people—the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the Nethinim, and all those who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to the Law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, everyone who had knowledge and understanding—

[29]these joined with their brethren, their nobles, and entered into a curse and an oath to walk in God’s Law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the LORD our Lord, and His ordinances and His statutes:

[30]We would not give our daughters as wives to the peoples of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons;

[31]if the peoples of the land brought wares or any grain to sell on the Sabbath day, we would not buy it from them on the Sabbath, or on a holy day; and we would forego the seventh year’s produce and the exacting of every debt.

[32]Also we made ordinances for ourselves, to exact from ourselves yearly one-third of a shekel for the service of the house of our God:

[33]for the showbread, for the regular grain offering, for the regular burnt offering of the Sabbaths, the New Moons, and the set feasts; for the holy things, for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and all the work of the house of our God.

[34]We cast lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people, for bringing the wood offering into the house of our God, according to our fathers’ houses, at the appointed times year by year, to burn on the altar of the LORD our God as it is written in the Law.

[35]And we made ordinances to bring the firstfruits of our ground and the firstfruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, to the house of the LORD;

[36]to bring the firstborn of our sons and our cattle, as it is written in the Law, and the firstborn of our herds and our flocks, to the house of our God, to the priests who minister in the house of our God;

[37]to bring the firstfruits of our dough, our offerings, the fruit from all kinds of trees, the new wine and oil, to the priests, to the storerooms of the house of our God; and to bring the tithes of our land to the Levites, for the Levites should receive the tithes in all our farming communities.

[38]And the priest, the descendant of Aaron, shall be with the Levites when the Levites receive tithes; and the Levites shall bring up a tenth of the tithes to the house of our God, to the rooms of the storehouse.

[39]For the children of Israel and the children of Levi shall bring the offering of the grain, of the new wine and the oil, to the storerooms where the articles of the sanctuary are, where the priests who minister and the gatekeepers and the singers are; and we will not neglect the house of our God.

Nehemiah 11

The People Dwelling in Jerusalem

[1]Now the leaders of the people dwelt at Jerusalem; the rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of ten to dwell in Jerusalem, the holy city, and nine-tenths were to dwell in other cities.

[2]And the people blessed all the men who willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem.

[3]These are the heads of the province who dwelt in Jerusalem. (But in the cities of Judah everyone dwelt in his own possession in their cities —Israelites, priests, Levites, Nethinim, and descendants of Solomon's servants.)

[4]Also in Jerusalem dwelt some of the children of Judah and of the children of Benjamin.

The children of Judah: Athaiah the son of Uzziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel, of the children of Perez;

[5]and Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Col-Hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of Shiloni.

[6]All the sons of Perez who dwelt at Jerusalem were four hundred and sixty-eight valiant men.

[7]And these are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiah;

[8]and after him Gabbai and Sallai, nine hundred and twenty-eight.

[9]Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer, and Judah the son of Senuah was second over the city.

[10]Of the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, and Jachin;

[11]Seraiah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, was the leader of the house of God.

[12]Their brethren who did the work of the house were eight hundred and twenty-two; and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah,

[13]and his brethren, heads of the fathers’ houses, were two hundred and forty-two; and Amashai the son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer,

[14]and their brethren, mighty men of valor, were one hundred and twenty-eight. Their overseer was Zabdiel the son of one of the great men.

15Also of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni;

[16]Shabbethai and Jozabad, of the heads of the Levites, had the oversight of the business outside of the house of God;

[17]Mattaniah the son of Micha, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, the leader who began the thanksgiving with prayer; Bakbukiah, the second among his brethren; and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun.

[18]All the Levites in the holy city were two hundred and eighty-four.

19Moreover the gatekeepers, Akkub, Talmon, and their brethren who kept the gates, were one hundred and seventy-two.

[20]And the rest of Israel, of the priests and Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, everyone in his inheritance.

[21]But the Nethinim dwelt in Ophel. And Ziha and Gishpa were over the Nethinim.

22Also the overseer of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micha, of the sons of Asaph, the singers in charge of the service of the house of God.

[23]For it was the king’s command concerning them that a certain portion should be for the singers, a quota day by day.

[24]Pethahiah the son of Meshezabel, of the children of Zerah the son of Judah, was the king’s deputy in all matters concerning the people.

The People Dwelling Outside Jerusalem

25And as for the villages with their fields, some of the children of Judah dwelt in Kirjath Arba and its villages, Dibon and its villages, Jekabzeel and its villages;

[26]in Jeshua, Moladah, Beth Pelet,

[27]Hazar Shual, and Beersheba and its villages;

[28]in Ziklag and Meconah and its villages;

[29]in En Rimmon, Zorah, Jarmuth,

[30]Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages; in Lachish and its fields; in Azekah and its villages. They dwelt from Beersheba to the Valley of Hinnom.

[31]Also the children of Benjamin from Geba dwelt in Michmash, Aija, and Bethel, and their villages;

[32]in Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah;

[33]in Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim;

[34]in Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat;

[35]in Lod, Ono, and the Valley of Craftsmen.

[36]Some of the Judean divisions of Levites were in Benjamin.

Nehemiah 12

The Priests and Levites

[1]Now these are the priests and the Levites who came up with Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,

[2]Amariah, Malluch, Hattush,

[3]Shechaniah, Rehum, Meremoth,

[4]Iddo, Ginnethoi, Abijah,

[5]Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah,

[6]Shemaiah, Joiarib, Jedaiah,

[7]Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, and Jedaiah.

These were the heads of the priests and their brethren in the days of Jeshua.

[8]Moreover the Levites were Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah who led the thanksgiving psalms, he and his brethren.

[9]Also Bakbukiah and Unni, their brethren, stood across from them in their duties.

[10]Jeshua begot Joiakim, Joiakim begot Eliashib, Eliashib begot Joiada,

[11]Joiada begot Jonathan, and Jonathan begot Jaddua.

[12]Now in the days of Joiakim, the priests, the heads of the fathers' houses were: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah;

[13]of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan;

[14]of Melichu, Jonathan; of Shebaniah, Joseph;

[15]of Harim, Adna; of Meraioth, Helkai;

[16]of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam;

[17]of Abijah, Zichri; the son of Minjamin; of Moadiah, Piltai;

[18]of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan;

[19]of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi;

[20]of Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber;

[21]of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; and of Jedaiah, Nethanel.

22During the reign of Darius the Persian, a record was also kept of the Levites and priests who had been heads of their fathers' houses in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jaddua.

23The sons of Levi, the heads of the fathers' houses until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib, were written in the book of the chronicles.

24And the heads of the Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brothers across from them, to praise and give thanks, group alternating with group, according to the command of David the man of God.

25Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub were gatekeepers keeping the watch at the storerooms of the gates.

26These lived in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the priest, the scribe.

Nehemiah Dedicates the Wall

27Now at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought out the Levites in all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem to celebrate the dedication with gladness, both with thanksgivings and singing, with cymbals and stringed instruments and harps.

28And the sons of the singers gathered together from the countryside around Jerusalem, from the villages of the Netophathites,

29from the house of Gilgal, and from the fields of Geba and Azmaveth; for the singers had built themselves villages all around Jerusalem.

30Then the priests and Levites purified themselves, and purified the people, the gates, and the wall.

31So I brought the leaders of Judah up on the wall, and appointed two large thanksgiving choirs. One went to the right hand on the wall toward the Refuse Gate.

32After them went Hoshaiah and half of the leaders of Judah,

33and Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam,

34Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah, Jeremiah,

35and some of the priests' sons with trumpets—Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of

Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph,

[36]and his brethren, Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah, and Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God. And Ezra the scribe went before them.

[37]By the Fountain Gate, in front of them, they went up the stairs of the City of David, on the stairway of the wall, beyond the house of David, as far as the Water Gate eastward.

38The other thanksgiving choir went the opposite way, and I was behind them with half of the people on the wall, going past the Tower of the Ovens as far as the Broad Wall,

[40]So the two thanksgiving choirs stood in the house of God, likewise I and the half of the rulers with me;

[41]and the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Minjamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets;

[42]also Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malchijah, Elam, and Ezer. The singers sang loudly with Jezrahiah the director.

[43]Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced, for God had made them rejoice with great joy; the women and the children also rejoiced, so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard afar off.

Temple Responsibilities

44And at the same time some were appointed over the rooms of the storehouse for the offerings, the firstfruits, and the tithes, to gather into them from the fields of the cities the portions specified by the Law for the priests and Levites; for Judah rejoiced over the priests and Levites who ministered.

[45]Both the singers and the gatekeepers kept the charge of their God and the charge of the purification, according to the command of David and Solomon his son.

[46]For in the days of David and Asaph of old there were chiefs of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.

[47]In the days of Zerubbabel and in the days of Nehemiah all Israel gave the portions for the singers and the gatekeepers, a portion for each day. They also consecrated holy things for the Levites, and the Levites consecrated them for the children of Aaron.

Nehemiah 13

Principles of Separation

[1]On that day they read from the Book of Moses in the hearing of the people, and in it was found written that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever come into the assembly of God,

[2]because they had not met the children of Israel with bread and water, but hired Balaam against them to curse them. However, our God turned the curse into a blessing.

[3]So it was, when they had heard the Law, that they separated all the mixed multitude from Israel.

The Reforms of Nehemiah

[4]Now before this, Eliashib the priest, having authority over the storerooms of the house of our God, was allied with Tobiah.

[5]And he had prepared for him a large room, where previously they had stored the grain offerings, the frankincense, the articles, the tithes of grain, the new wine and oil, which were commanded to be given to the Levites and singers and gatekeepers, and the offerings for the priests.

[6]But during all this I was not in Jerusalem, for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I had returned to the king. Then after certain days I obtained leave from the king,

[7]and I came to Jerusalem and discovered the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, in preparing a room for him in the courts of the house of God.

[8]And it grieved me bitterly; therefore I threw all the household goods of Tobiah out of the room.

[9]Then I commanded them to cleanse the rooms; and I brought back into them the articles of the house of God, with the grain offering and the frankincense.

[10]I also realized that the portions for the Levites had not been given them; for each of the Levites and the singers who did the work had gone back to his field.

[11]So I contended with the rulers, and said, “Why is the house of God forsaken?” And I gathered them together and set them in their place.

[12]Then all Judah brought the tithe of the grain and the new wine and the oil to the storehouse.

[13]And I appointed as treasurers over the storehouse Shelemiah the priest and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah; and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah; for they were considered faithful, and their task was to distribute to their brethren.

[14]Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and do not wipe out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for its services!

[15]In those days I saw people in Judah treading winepresses on the Sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and loading donkeys with wine, grapes, figs, and all kinds of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. And I warned them about the day on which they were selling provisions.

[16]Men of Tyre dwelt there also, who brought in fish and all kinds of goods, and sold them on the Sabbath to the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.

[17]Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said to them, “What evil thing is this that you do, by which you profane the Sabbath day?

[18]“Did not your fathers do thus, and did not our God bring all this disaster on us and on this city? Yet you bring added wrath on Israel by profaning the Sabbath.”

[19]So it was, at the gates of Jerusalem, as it began to be dark before the Sabbath, that I commanded the gates to be shut, and charged that they must not be opened till after the Sabbath. Then I posted some of my servants at the gates, so that no burdens would be brought in on the Sabbath day.

[20]Now the merchants and sellers of all kinds of wares lodged outside Jerusalem once or twice.

[21]Then I warned them, and said to them, “Why do you spend the night around the wall? If you do so again, I will lay hands on you!” From that time on they came no more on the Sabbath.

[22]And I commanded the Levites that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should go and guard the gates, to sanctify the Sabbath day.

Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of Your mercy!

[23]In those days I also saw Jews who had married women of Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab.

[24]And half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod, and could not speak the language of Judah, but spoke according to the language of one or the other people.

[25]So I contended with them and cursed them, struck some of them and pulled out their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, "You shall not give your daughters as wives to their sons, nor take their daughters for your sons or yourselves.

[26]"Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? Yet among many nations there was no king like him, who was beloved of his God; and God made him king over all Israel. Nevertheless pagan women caused even him to sin.

[27]"Should we then hear of your doing all this great evil, transgressing against our God by marrying pagan women?"

[28]And one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was a son-in-law of Sanballat the Horonite; therefore I drove him from me.

[29]Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood and the covenant of the priesthood and the Levites.

[30]Thus I cleansed them of everything pagan. I also assigned duties to the priests and the Levites, each to his service,

[31]and to bringing the wood offering and the firstfruits at appointed times.

Remember me, O my God, for good!

The Book of

Esther

Esther 1

The King Dethrones Queen Vashti

[1]Now it came to pass in the days of Ahasuerus (this was the Ahasuerus who reigned over one hundred and twenty-seven provinces, from India to Ethiopia),

[2]in those days when King Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan the citadel,

[3]that in the third year of his reign he made a feast for all his officials and servants—the powers of Persia and Media, the nobles, and the princes of the provinces being before him—

[4]when he showed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the splendor of his excellent majesty for many days, one hundred and eighty days in all.

[5]And when these days were completed, the king made a feast lasting seven days for all the people who were present in Shushan the citadel, from great to small, in the court of the garden of the king's palace.

[6]There were white and blue linen curtains fastened with cords of fine linen and purple on silver rods and marble pillars; and the couches were of gold and silver on a mosaic pavement of alabaster, turquoise, and white and black marble.

[7]And they served drinks in golden vessels, each vessel being different from the other, with royal wine in abundance, according to the generosity of the king.

[8]In accordance with the law, the drinking was not compulsory; for so the king had ordered all the officers of his household, that they should do according to each man's pleasure.

[9]Queen Vashti also made a feast for the women in the royal palace which belonged to King Ahasuerus.

[10]On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, seven eunuchs who served in the presence of King Ahasuerus,

[11]to bring Queen Vashti before the king, wearing her royal crown, in order to show her beauty to the people and the officials, for she was beautiful to behold.

[12]But Queen Vashti refused to come at the king's command brought by his eunuchs; therefore the king was furious, and his anger burned within him.

13Then the king said to the wise men who understood the times (for this was the king's manner toward all who knew law and justice,

[14]those closest to him being Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, who had access to the king's presence, and who ranked highest in the kingdom):

[15]"What shall we do to Queen Vashti, according to law, because she did not obey the command of King Ahasuerus brought to her by the eunuchs?"

[16]And Memucan answered before the king and the princes: "Queen Vashti has not only wronged the king, but also all the princes, and all the people who are in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus.

[17]"For the queen's behavior will become known to all women, so that they will despise their husbands in their eyes, when they report, 'King Ahasuerus commanded Queen Vashti to be brought in before him, but she did not come.'

[18]"This very day the noble ladies of Persia and Media will say to all the king's officials that they have heard of the behavior of the queen. Thus there will be excessive contempt and wrath.

[19]"If it pleases the king, let a royal decree go out from him, and let it be recorded in the laws of the Persians and the Medes, so that it will not be altered, that Vashti shall come no more before King Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal position to another who is better than she.

[20]"When the king's decree which he will make is proclaimed throughout all his empire (for it is great), all wives will honor their husbands, both great and small."

[21]And the reply pleased the king and the princes, and the king did according to the word of Memucan.

[22]Then he sent letters to all the king’s provinces, to each province in its own script, and to every people in their own language, that each man should be master in his own house, and speak in the language of his own people.

Esther 2

Esther Becomes Queen

[1]After these things, when the wrath of King Ahasuerus subsided, he remembered Vashti, what she had done, and what had been decreed against her.

[2]Then the king's servants who attended him said: "Let beautiful young virgins be sought for the king;

[3]"and let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather all the beautiful young virgins to Shushan the citadel, into the women's quarters, under the custody of Hegai the king's eunuch, custodian of the women. And let beauty preparations be given them.

[4]"Then let the young woman who pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti." This thing pleased the king, and he did so.

5In Shushan the citadel there was a certain Jew whose name was Mordecai the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite.

[6]Kish had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captives who had been captured with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away.

[7]And Mordecai had brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, his uncle's daughter, for she had neither father nor mother. The young woman was lovely and beautiful. When her father and mother died, Mordecai took her as his own daughter.

8So it was, when the king's command and decree were heard, and when many young women were gathered at Shushan the citadel, under the custody of Hegai, that Esther also was taken to the king's palace, into the care of Hegai the custodian of the women.

[9]Now the young woman pleased him, and she obtained his favor; so he readily gave beauty preparations to her, besides her allowance. Then seven choice maidservants were provided for her from the king's palace, and he moved her and her maidservants to the best place in the house of the women.

[10]Esther had not revealed her people or family, for Mordecai had charged her not to reveal it.

[11]And every day Mordecai paced in front of the court of the women's quarters, to learn of Esther's welfare and what was happening to her.

[12]Each young woman's turn came to go in to King Ahasuerus after she had completed twelve months' preparation, according to the regulations for the women, for thus were the days of their preparation apportioned: six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with perfumes and preparations for beautifying women.

[13]Thus prepared, each young woman went to the king, and she was given whatever she desired to take with her from the women's quarters to the king's palace.

[14]In the evening she went, and in the morning she returned to the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch who kept the concubines. She would not go in to the king again unless the king delighted in her and called for her by name.

[15]Now when the turn came for Esther the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her as his daughter, to go in to the king, she requested nothing but what Hegai the king's eunuch, the custodian of the women, advised. And Esther obtained favor in the sight of all who saw her.

[16]So Esther was taken to King Ahasuerus, into his royal palace, in the tenth month, which is the month of Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

[17]The king loved Esther more than all the other women, and she obtained grace and favor in his sight more than all the virgins; so he set the royal crown upon her head and made her queen instead of Vashti.

[18]Then the king made a great feast, the Feast of Esther, for all his officials and servants; and he proclaimed a holiday in the provinces and gave gifts according to the generosity of a king.

Mordecai Discovers a Plot

[19]When virgins were gathered together a second time, Mordecai sat within the king's gate.

[20]Now Esther had not revealed her family and her people, just as Mordecai had charged her, for Esther obeyed the command of Mordecai as when she was brought up by him.

[21]In those days, while Mordecai sat within the king's gate, two of the king's eunuchs, Bigthan and Teresh, doorkeepers, became furious and sought to lay hands on King Ahasuerus.

[22]So the matter became known to Mordecai, who told Queen Esther, and Esther informed the king in Mordecai's name.

[23]And when an inquiry was made into the matter, it was confirmed, and both were hanged on a gallows; and it was written in the book of the chronicles in the presence of the king.

Esther 3

Haman's Conspiracy Against the Jews

[1]After these things King Ahasuerus promoted Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him and set his seat above all the princes who were with him.

[2]And all the king's servants who were within the king's gate bowed and paid homage to Haman, for so the king had commanded concerning him. But Mordecai would not bow or pay homage.

[3]Then the king's servants who were within the king's gate said to Mordecai, "Why do you transgress the king's command?"

[4]Now it happened, when they spoke to him daily and he would not listen to them, that they told it to Haman, to see whether Mordecai's words would stand; for Mordecai had told them that he was a Jew.

[5]When Haman saw that Mordecai did not bow or pay him homage, Haman was filled with wrath.

[6]But he disdained to lay hands on Mordecai alone, for they had told him of the people of Mordecai. Instead, Haman sought to destroy all the Jews who were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus—the people of Mordecai.

[7]In the first month, which is the month of Nisan, in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, they cast Pur (that is, the lot), before Haman to determine the day and the month, until it fell on the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar.

[8]Then Haman said to King Ahasuerus, "There is a certain people scattered and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of your kingdom; their laws are different from all other people's, and they do not keep the king's laws. Therefore it is not fitting for the king to let them remain.

[9]"If it pleases the king, let a decree be written that they be destroyed, and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who do the work, to bring it into the king's treasuries."

[10]So the king took his signet ring from his hand and gave it to Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of the Jews.

[11]And the king said to Haman, “The money and the people are given to you, to do with them as seems good to you.”

[12]Then the king’s scribes were called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and a decree was written according to all that Haman commanded—to the king’s satraps, to the governors who were over each province, to the officials of all people, to every province according to its script, and to every people in their language. In the name of King Ahasuerus it was written, and sealed with the king’s signet ring.

[13]And the letters were sent by couriers into all the king’s provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to annihilate all the Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar, and to plunder their possessions.

[14]A copy of the document was to be issued as law in every province, being published for all people, that they should be ready for that day.

[15]The couriers went out, hastened by the king’s command; and the decree was proclaimed in Shushan the citadel. So the king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city of Shushan was perplexed.

Esther 4

Esther Agrees to Help the Jews

[1]When Mordecai learned all that had happened, he tore his clothes and put on sackcloth and ashes, and went out into the midst of the city. He cried out with a loud and bitter cry.

[2]He went as far as the front of the king's gate, for no one might enter the king's gate clothed with sackcloth.

[3]And in every province where the king's command and decree arrived, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

[4]So Esther's maids and eunuchs came and told her, and the queen was deeply distressed. Then she sent garments to clothe Mordecai and take his sackcloth away from him, but he would not accept them.

[5]Then Esther called Hathach, one of the king's eunuchs whom he had appointed to attend her, and she gave him a command concerning Mordecai, to learn what and why this was.

[6]So Hathach went out to Mordecai in the city square that was in front of the king's gate.

[7]And Mordecai told him all that had happened to him, and the sum of money that Haman had promised to pay into the king's treasuries to destroy the Jews.

[8]He also gave him a copy of the written decree for their destruction, which was given at Shushan, that he might show it to Esther and explain it to her, and that he might command her to go in to the king to make supplication to him and plead before him for her people.

[9]So Hathach returned and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

[10]Then Esther spoke to Hathach, and gave him a command for Mordecai:

[11]"All the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces know that any man or woman who goes into the inner court to the king, who has not been called, he has but one law: put all to death, except the one to whom the king holds out the golden scepter, that he may live. Yet I myself have not been called to go in to the king these thirty days."

[12]So they told Mordecai Esther's words.

[13]And Mordecai told them to answer Esther: "Do not think in your heart that you will escape in the king's palace any more than all the other Jews.

[14]"For if you remain completely silent at this time, relief and deliverance will arise for the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house will perish. Yet who knows whether you have come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"

[15]Then Esther told them to reply to Mordecai:

[16]"Go, gather all the Jews who are present in Shushan, and fast for me; neither eat nor drink for three days, night or day. My maids and I will fast likewise. And so I will go to the king, which is against the law; and if I perish, I perish!"

[17]So Mordecai went his way and did according to all that Esther commanded him.

Esther 5

Esther's Banquet

[1]Now it happened on the third day that Esther put on her royal robes and stood in the inner court of the king's palace, across from the king's house, while the king sat on his royal throne in the royal house, facing the entrance of the house.

[2]So it was, when the king saw Queen Esther standing in the court, that she found favor in his sight, and the king held out to Esther the golden scepter that was in his hand. Then Esther went near and touched the top of the scepter.

[3]And the king said to her, "What do you wish, Queen Esther? What is your request? It shall be given to you—up to half the kingdom!"

[4]So Esther answered, "If it pleases the king, let the king and Haman come today to the banquet that I have prepared for him."

[5]Then the king said, "Bring Haman quickly, that he may do as Esther has said." So the king and Haman went to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

[6]At the banquet of wine the king said to Esther, "What is your petition? It shall be granted you. What is your request, up to half the kingdom? It shall be done!"

[7]Then Esther answered and said, "My petition and request is this:

[8]"If I have found favor in the sight of the king, and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and fulfill my request, then let the king and Haman come to the banquet which I will prepare for them, and tomorrow I will do as the king has said."

Haman's Plot Against Mordecai

[9]So Haman went out that day joyful and with a glad heart; but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, and that he did not stand or tremble before him, he was filled with indignation against Mordecai.

[10]Nevertheless Haman restrained himself and went home, and he sent and called for his friends and his wife Zeresh.

[11]Then Haman told them of his great riches, the multitude of his children, everything in which the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the officials and servants of the king.

[12]Moreover Haman said, “Besides, Queen Esther invited no one but me to come in with the king to the banquet that she prepared; and tomorrow I am again invited by her, along with the king.

[13]“Yet all this avails me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king’s gate.”

[14]Then his wife Zeresh and all his friends said to him, “Let a gallows be made, fifty cubits high, and in the morning suggest to the king that Mordecai be hanged on it; then go merrily with the king to the banquet.” And the thing pleased Haman; so he had the gallows made.

Esther 6

The King Honors Mordecai

[1]That night the king could not sleep. So one was commanded to bring the book of the records of the chronicles; and they were read before the king.

[2]And it was found written that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs, the doorkeepers who had sought to lay hands on King Ahasuerus.

[3]Then the king said, "What honor or dignity has been bestowed on Mordecai for this?" And the king's servants who attended him said, "Nothing has been done for him."

4So the king said, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had just entered the outer court of the king's palace to suggest that the king hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.

[5]The king's servants said to him, "Haman is there, standing in the court." And the king said, "Let him come in."

[6]So Haman came in, and the king asked him, "What shall be done for the man whom the king delights to honor?" Now Haman thought in his heart, "Whom would the king delight to honor more than me?"

[7]And Haman answered the king, "For the man whom the king delights to honor,

[8]"let a royal robe be brought which the king has worn, and a horse on which the king has ridden, which has a royal crest placed on its head.

[9]"Then let this robe and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that he may array the man whom the king delights to honor. Then parade him on horseback through the city square, and proclaim before him: 'Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honor!' "

[10]Then the king said to Haman, "Hurry, take the robe and the horse, as you have suggested, and do so for Mordecai the Jew who sits within the king's gate! Leave nothing undone of all that you have spoken."

[11]So Haman took the robe and the horse, arrayed Mordecai and led him on horseback through the city square, and proclaimed before him,

“Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honor!”

12Afterward Mordecai went back to the king’s gate. But Haman hurried to his house, mourning and with his head covered.

13When Haman told his wife Zeresh and all his friends everything that had happened to him, his wise men and his wife Zeresh said to him, “If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall, is of Jewish descent, you will not prevail against him but will surely fall before him.”

14While they were still talking with him, the king’s eunuchs came, and hastened to bring Haman to the banquet which Esther had prepared.

Esther 7

Haman Hanged Instead of Mordecai

[1]So the king and Haman went to dine with Queen Esther.

[2]And on the second day, at the banquet of wine, the king again said to Esther, “What is your petition, Queen Esther? It shall be granted you. And what is your request, up to half the kingdom? It shall be done!”

[3]Then Queen Esther answered and said, “If I have found favor in your sight, O king, and if it pleases the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request.

[4]“For we have been sold, my people and I, to be destroyed, to be killed, and to be annihilated. Had we been sold as male and female slaves, I would have held my tongue, although the enemy could never compensate for the king’s loss.”

[5]So King Ahasuerus answered and said to Queen Esther, “Who is he, and where is he, who would dare presume in his heart to do such a thing?”

[6]And Esther said, “The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman!” So Haman was terrified before the king and queen.

[7]Then the king arose in his wrath from the banquet of wine and went into the palace garden; but Haman stood before Queen Esther, pleading for his life, for he saw that evil was determined against him by the king.

[8]When the king returned from the palace garden to the place of the banquet of wine, Haman had fallen across the couch where Esther was. Then the king said, “Will he also assault the queen while I am in the house?” As the word left the king’s mouth, they covered Haman’s face.

[9]Now Harbonah, one of the eunuchs, said to the king, “Look! The gallows, fifty cubits high, which Haman made for Mordecai, who spoke good on the king’s behalf, is standing at the house of Haman.” Then the king said, “Hang him on it!”

[10]So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the king’s wrath subsided.

Esther 8

Esther Saves the Jews

[1]On that day King Ahasuerus gave Queen Esther the house of Haman, the enemy of the Jews. And Mordecai came before the king, for Esther had told how he was related to her.

[2]So the king took off his signet ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai; and Esther appointed Mordecai over the house of Haman.

[3]Now Esther spoke again to the king, fell down at his feet, and implored him with tears to counteract the evil of Haman the Agagite, and the scheme which he had devised against the Jews.

[4]And the king held out the golden scepter toward Esther. So Esther arose and stood before the king,

[5]and said, “If it pleases the king, and if I have found favor in his sight and the thing seems right to the king and I am pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to revoke the letters devised by Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to annihilate the Jews who are in all the king’s provinces.

[6]“For how can I endure to see the evil that will come to my people? Or how can I endure to see the destruction of my countrymen?”

[7]Then King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther and Mordecai the Jew, “Indeed, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and they have hanged him on the gallows because he tried to lay his hand on the Jews.

[8]“You yourselves write a decree concerning the Jews, as you please, in the king’s name, and seal it with the king’s signet ring; for whatever is written in the king’s name and sealed with the king’s signet ring no one can revoke.”

[9]So the king’s scribes were called at that time, in the third month, which is the month of Sivan, on the twenty-third day; and it was written, according to all that Mordecai commanded, to the Jews, the satraps, the governors, and the princes of the provinces from India to Ethiopia, one hundred and twenty-seven provinces in all, to every province in its own script, to every people in their own language, and to the Jews in their own script and language.

[10]And he wrote in the name of King Ahasuerus, sealed it with the king’s signet ring, and sent letters by couriers on horseback, riding on royal horses bred from swift steeds.

[11]By these letters the king permitted the Jews who were in every city to gather together and protect their lives—to destroy, kill, and annihilate all the forces of any people or province that would assault them, both little children and women, and to plunder their possessions,

[12]on one day in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar.

[13]A copy of the document was to be issued as a decree in every province and published for all people, so that the Jews would be ready on that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

[14]The couriers who rode on royal horses went out, hastened and pressed on by the king’s command. And the decree was issued in Shushan the citadel.

[15]So Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, with a great crown of gold and a garment of fine linen and purple; and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad.

[16]The Jews had light and gladness, joy and honor.

[17]And in every province and city, wherever the king’s command and decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a holiday. Then many of the people of the land became Jews, because fear of the Jews fell upon them.

Esther 9

The Jews Destroy Their Tormentors

[1]Now in the twelfth month, that is, the month of Adar, on the thirteenth day, the time came for the king’s command and his decree to be executed. On the day that the enemies of the Jews had hoped to overpower them, the opposite occurred, in that the Jews themselves overpowered those who hated them.

[2]The Jews gathered together in their cities throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus to lay hands on those who sought their harm. And no one could withstand them, because fear of them fell upon all people.

[3]And all the officials of the provinces, the satraps, the governors, and all those doing the king’s work, helped the Jews, because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them.

[4]For Mordecai was great in the king’s palace, and his fame spread throughout all the provinces; for this man Mordecai became increasingly prominent.

[5]Thus the Jews defeated all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, with slaughter and destruction, and did what they pleased with those who hated them.

[6]And in Shushan the citadel the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men.

[7]Also Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha,

[8]Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha,

[9]Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vajezatha—

[10]the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews—they killed; but they did not lay a hand on the plunder.

[11]On that day the number of those who were killed in Shushan the citadel was brought to the king.

[12]And the king said to Queen Esther, “The Jews have killed and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the citadel, and the ten sons of Haman. What have they done in the rest of the king’s provinces? Now what is your petition? It shall be granted to you. Or what is your further request? It shall be done."

[13]Then Esther said, "If it pleases the king, let it be granted to the Jews who are in Shushan to do again tomorrow according to today's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged on the gallows."

[14]So the king commanded this to be done; the decree was issued in Shushan, and they hanged Haman's ten sons.

[15]And the Jews who were in Shushan gathered together again on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar and killed three hundred men at Shushan; but they did not lay a hand on the plunder.

[16]The remainder of the Jews in the king's provinces gathered together and protected their lives, had rest from their enemies, and killed seventy-five thousand of their enemies; but they did not lay a hand on the plunder.

[17]This was on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar. And on the fourteenth of the month they rested and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

The Feast of Purim

[18]But the Jews who were at Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth day, as well as on the fourteenth; and on the fifteenth of the month they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

[19]Therefore the Jews of the villages who dwelt in the unwalled towns celebrated the fourteenth day of the month of Adar with gladness and feasting, as a holiday, and for sending presents to one another.

[20]And Mordecai wrote these things and sent letters to all the Jews, near and far, who were in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus,

[21]to establish among them that they should celebrate yearly the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month of Adar,

[22]as the days on which the Jews had rest from their enemies, as the month which was turned from sorrow to joy for them, and from mourning to a holiday; that they should make them days of feasting and joy, of sending presents to one another and gifts to the poor.

[23]So the Jews accepted the custom which they had begun, as Mordecai had written to them,

[24]because Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to annihilate them, and had cast Pur (that is, the lot), to consume them and destroy them;

[25]but when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letter that this wicked plot which Haman had devised against the Jews should return on his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

[26]So they called these days Purim, after the name Pur. Therefore, because of all the words of this letter, what they had seen concerning this matter, and what had happened to them,

[27]the Jews established and imposed it upon themselves and their descendants and all who would join them, that without fail they should celebrate these two days every year, according to the written instructions and according to the prescribed time,

[28]that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city, that these days of Purim should not fail to be observed among the Jews, and that the memory of them should not perish among their descendants.

[29]Then Queen Esther, the daughter of Abihail, with Mordecai the Jew, wrote with full authority to confirm this second letter about Purim.

[30]And Mordecai sent letters to all the Jews, to the one hundred and twenty-seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth,

[31]to confirm these days of Purim at their appointed time, as Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther had prescribed for them, and as they had decreed for themselves and their descendants concerning matters of their fasting and lamenting.

[32]So the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim, and it was written in the book.

Esther 10

Mordecai's Advancement

[1]And King Ahasuerus imposed tribute on the land and on the islands of the sea.

[2]Now all the acts of his power and his might, and the account of the greatness of Mordecai, to which the king advanced him, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia?

[3]For Mordecai the Jew was second to King Ahasuerus, and was great among the Jews and well received by the multitude of his brethren, seeking the good of his people and speaking peace to all his countrymen.

The Book of

Job

Job 1

Job and His Family in Uz

[1]There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was blameless and upright, and one who feared God and shunned evil.

[2]And seven sons and three daughters were born to him.

[3]Also, his possessions were seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen, five hundred female donkeys, and a very large household, so that this man was the greatest of all the people of the East.

[4]And his sons would go and feast in their houses, each on his appointed day, and would send and invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them.

[5]So it was, when the days of feasting had run their course, that Job would send and sanctify them, and he would rise early in the morning and offer burnt offerings according to the number of them all. For Job said, "It may be that my sons have sinned and cursed God in their hearts." Thus Job did regularly.

Satan Attacks Job's Character

[6]Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came among them.

[7]And the LORD said to Satan, "From where do you come?" So Satan answered the LORD and said, "From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking back and forth on it."

[8]Then the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered My servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, one who fears God and shuns evil?"

[9]So Satan answered the LORD and said, "Does Job fear God for nothing?

[10]"Have You not made a hedge around him, around his household, and around all that he has on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his possessions have increased in the land.

[11]"But now, stretch out Your hand and touch all that he has, and he will surely curse You to Your face!"

[12]And the LORD said to Satan, "Behold, all that he has is in your power; only do not lay a hand on his person." So Satan went out from the presence of the LORD.

Job Loses His Property and Children

[13]Now there was a day when his sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house;

[14]and a messenger came to Job and said, "The oxen were plowing and the donkeys feeding beside them,

[15]"when the Sabeans raided them and took them away—indeed they have killed the servants with the edge of the sword; and I alone have escaped to tell you!"

[16]While he was still speaking, another also came and said, "The fire of God fell from heaven and burned up the sheep and the servants, and consumed them; and I alone have escaped to tell you!"

[17]While he was still speaking, another also came and said, "The Chaldeans formed three bands, raided the camels and took them away, yes, and killed the servants with the edge of the sword; and I alone have escaped to tell you!"

[18]While he was still speaking, another also came and said, "Your sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house,

[19]"and suddenly a great wind came from across the wilderness and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young people, and they are dead; and I alone have escaped to tell you!"

[20]Then Job arose, tore his robe, and shaved his head; and he fell to the ground and worshiped.

[21]And he said:

"Naked I came from my mother's womb,
And naked shall I return there.
The LORD gave, and the LORD has taken away;
Blessed be the name of the LORD."

[22]In all this Job did not sin nor charge God with wrong.

Job 2

Satan Attacks Job's Health

[1]Again there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them to present himself before the LORD.

[2]And the LORD said to Satan, "From where do you come?" So Satan answered the LORD and said, "From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking back and forth on it."

[3]Then the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered My servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, one who fears God and shuns evil? And still he holds fast to his integrity, although you incited Me against him, to destroy him without cause."

[4]So Satan answered the LORD and said, "Skin for skin! Yes, all that a man has he will give for his life.

[5]"But stretch out Your hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will surely curse You to Your face!"

[6]And the LORD said to Satan, "Behold, he is in your hand, but spare his life."

[7]So Satan went out from the presence of the LORD, and struck Job with painful boils from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head.

[8]And he took for himself a potsherd with which to scrape himself while he sat in the midst of the ashes.

[9]Then his wife said to him, "Do you still hold fast to your integrity? Curse God and die!"

[10]But he said to her, "You speak as one of the foolish women speaks. Shall we indeed accept good from God, and shall we not accept adversity?" In all this Job did not sin with his lips.

Job's Three Friends

[11]Now when Job's three friends heard of all this adversity that had come upon him, each one came from his own place—Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite. For they had made an appointment together to come and mourn with him, and to comfort him.

[12]And when they raised their eyes from afar, and did not recognize him, they lifted their voices and wept; and each one tore his robe and sprinkled dust on his head toward heaven.

[13]So they sat down with him on the ground seven days and seven nights, and no one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his grief was very great.

Job 3

Job Deplores His Birth

[1]After this Job opened his mouth and cursed the day of his birth.
[2]And Job spoke, and said:

[3]"May the day perish on which I was born,
And the night in which it was said,
'A male child is conceived.'
[4]May that day be darkness;
May God above not seek it,
Nor the light shine upon it.
[5]May darkness and the shadow of death claim it;
May a cloud settle on it;
May the blackness of the day terrify it.
[6]As for that night, may darkness seize it;
May it not rejoice among the days of the year,
May it not come into the number of the months.
[7]Oh, may that night be barren!
May no joyful shout come into it!
[8]May those curse it who curse the day,
Those who are ready to arouse Leviathan.
[9]May the stars of its morning be dark;
May it look for light, but have none,
And not see the dawning of the day;
[10]Because it did not shut up the doors of my mother's womb,
Nor hide sorrow from my eyes.

[11]"Why did I not die at birth?
Why did I not perish when I came from the womb?
[12]Why did the knees receive me?
Or why the breasts, that I should nurse?
[13]For now I would have lain still and been quiet,
I would have been asleep;
Then I would have been at rest

[14]With kings and counselors of the earth,
Who built ruins for themselves,
[15]Or with princes who had gold,
Who filled their houses with silver;
[16]Or why was I not hidden like a stillborn child,
Like infants who never saw light?
[17]There the wicked cease from troubling,
And there the weary are at rest.
[18]There the prisoners rest together;
They do not hear the voice of the oppressor.
[19]The small and great are there,
And the servant is free from his master.

[20]"Why is light given to him who is in misery,
And life to the bitter of soul,
[21]Who long for death, but it does not come,
And search for it more than hidden treasures;
[22]Who rejoice exceedingly,
And are glad when they can find the grave?
[23]Why is light given to a man whose way is hidden,
And whom God has hedged in?
[24]For my sighing comes before I eat,
And my groanings pour out like water.
[25]For the thing I greatly feared has come upon me,
And what I dreaded has happened to me.
[26]I am not at ease, nor am I quiet;
I have no rest, for trouble comes."

Job 4

Eliphaz: Job Has Sinned

[1]Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said:

[2]"If one attempts a word with you, will you become weary?
But who can withhold himself from speaking?
[3]Surely you have instructed many,
And you have strengthened weak hands.
[4]Your words have upheld him who was stumbling,
And you have strengthened the feeble knees;
[5]But now it comes upon you, and you are weary;
It touches you, and you are troubled.
[6]Is not your reverence your confidence?
And the integrity of your ways your hope?

[7]"Remember now, who ever perished being innocent?
Or where were the upright ever cut off?
[8]Even as I have seen,
Those who plow iniquity
And sow trouble reap the same.
[9]By the blast of God they perish,
And by the breath of His anger they are consumed.
[10]The roaring of the lion,
The voice of the fierce lion,
And the teeth of the young lions are broken.
[11]The old lion perishes for lack of prey,
And the cubs of the lioness are scattered.

[12]"Now a word was secretly brought to me,
And my ear received a whisper of it.
[13]In disquieting thoughts from the visions of the night,
When deep sleep falls on men,
[14]Fear came upon me, and trembling,
Which made all my bones shake.

[15]Then a spirit passed before my face;
The hair on my body stood up.
[16]It stood still,
But I could not discern its appearance.
A form was before my eyes;
There was silence;
Then I heard a voice saying:
[17]'Can a mortal be more righteous than God?
Can a man be more pure than his Maker?
[18]If He puts no trust in His servants,
If He charges His angels with error,
[19]How much more those who dwell in houses of clay,
Whose foundation is in the dust,
Who are crushed before a moth?
[20]They are broken in pieces from morning till evening;
They perish forever, with no one regarding.
[21]Does not their own excellence go away?
They die, even without wisdom.'

Job 5

Eliphaz: Job Is Chastened by God

[1]“Call out now;
Is there anyone who will answer you?
And to which of the holy ones will you turn?
[2]For wrath kills a foolish man,
And envy slays a simple one.
[3]I have seen the foolish taking root,
But suddenly I cursed his dwelling place.
[4]His sons are far from safety,
They are crushed in the gate,
And there is no deliverer.
[5]Because the hungry eat up his harvest,
Taking it even from the thorns,
And a snare snatches their substance.
[6]For affliction does not come from the dust,
Nor does trouble spring from the ground;
[7]Yet man is born to trouble,
As the sparks fly upward.

[8]“But as for me, I would seek God,
And to God I would commit my cause—
[9]Who does great things, and unsearchable,
Marvelous things without number.
[10]He gives rain on the earth,
And sends waters on the fields.
[11]He sets on high those who are lowly,
And those who mourn are lifted to safety.
[12]He frustrates the devices of the crafty,
So that their hands cannot carry out their plans.
[13]He catches the wise in their own craftiness,
And the counsel of the cunning comes quickly upon them.
[14]They meet with darkness in the daytime,

And grope at noontime as in the night.
[15]But He saves the needy from the sword,
From the mouth of the mighty,
And from their hand.
[16]So the poor have hope,
And injustice shuts her mouth.

17"Behold, happy is the man whom God corrects;
Therefore do not despise the chastening of the Almighty.
[18]For He bruises, but He binds up;
He wounds, but His hands make whole.
[19]He shall deliver you in six troubles,
Yes, in seven no evil shall touch you.
[20]In famine He shall redeem you from death,
And in war from the power of the sword.
[21]You shall be hidden from the scourge of the tongue,
And you shall not be afraid of destruction when it comes.
[22]You shall laugh at destruction and famine,
And you shall not be afraid of the beasts of the earth.
[23]For you shall have a covenant with the stones of the field,
And the beasts of the field shall be at peace with you.
[24]You shall know that your tent is in peace;
You shall visit your dwelling and find nothing amiss.
[25]You shall also know that your descendants shall be many,
And your offspring like the grass of the earth.
[26]You shall come to the grave at a full age,
As a sheaf of grain ripens in its season.
[27]Behold, this we have searched out;
It is true.
Hear it, and know for yourself."

Job 6

Job: My Complaint Is Just

[1]Then Job answered and said:

[2]“Oh, that my grief were fully weighed,
And my calamity laid with it on the scales!
[3]For then it would be heavier than the sand of the sea—
Therefore my words have been rash.
[4]For the arrows of the Almighty are within me;
My spirit drinks in their poison;
The terrors of God are arrayed against me.
[5]Does the wild donkey bray when it has grass,
Or does the ox low over its fodder?
[6]Can flavorless food be eaten without salt?
Or is there any taste in the white of an egg?
[7]My soul refuses to touch them;
They are as loathsome food to me.

[8]“Oh, that I might have my request,
That God would grant me the thing that I long for!
[9]That it would please God to crush me,
That He would loose His hand and cut me off!
[10]Then I would still have comfort;
Though in anguish I would exult,
He will not spare;
For I have not concealed the words of the Holy One.

[11]“What strength do I have, that I should hope?
And what is my end, that I should prolong my life?
[12]Is my strength the strength of stones?
Or is my flesh bronze?
[13]Is my help not within me?
And is success driven from me?

14“To him who is afflicted, kindness should be shown by his friend,
Even though he forsakes the fear of the Almighty.
[15]My brothers have dealt deceitfully like a brook,
Like the streams of the brooks that pass away,
[16]Which are dark because of the ice,
And into which the snow vanishes.
[17]When it is warm, they cease to flow;
When it is hot, they vanish from their place.
[18]The paths of their way turn aside,
They go nowhere and perish.
[19]The caravans of Tema look,
The travelers of Sheba hope for them.
[20]They are disappointed because they were confident;
They come there and are confused.
[21]For now you are nothing,
You see terror and are afraid.
[22]Did I ever say, ‘Bring something to me’?
Or, ‘Offer a bribe for me from your wealth’?
[23]Or, ‘Deliver me from the enemy’s hand’?
Or, ‘Redeem me from the hand of oppressors’?

24“Teach me, and I will hold my tongue;
Cause me to understand wherein I have erred.
[25]How forceful are right words!
But what does your arguing prove?
[26]Do you intend to rebuke my words,
And the speeches of a desperate one, which are as wind?
[27]Yes, you overwhelm the fatherless,
And you undermine your friend.
[28]Now therefore, be pleased to look at me;
For I would never lie to your face.
[29]Yield now, let there be no injustice!
Yes, concede, my righteousness still stands!
[30]Is there injustice on my tongue?

Cannot my taste discern the unsavory?

Job 7

Job: My Suffering Is Comfortless

[1]“Is there not a time of hard service for man on earth?
Are not his days also like the days of a hired man?
[2]Like a servant who earnestly desires the shade,
And like a hired man who eagerly looks for his wages,
[3]So I have been allotted months of futility,
And wearisome nights have been appointed to me.
[4]When I lie down, I say, ‘When shall I arise,
And the night be ended?’
For I have had my fill of tossing till dawn.
[5]My flesh is caked with worms and dust,
My skin is cracked and breaks out afresh.

[6]“My days are swifter than a weaver’s shuttle,
And are spent without hope.
[7]Oh, remember that my life is a breath!
My eye will never again see good.
[8]The eye of him who sees me will see me no more;
While your eyes are upon me, I shall no longer be.
[9]As the cloud disappears and vanishes away,
So he who goes down to the grave does not come up.
[10]He shall never return to his house,
Nor shall his place know him anymore.

[11]“Therefore I will not restrain my mouth;
I will speak in the anguish of my spirit;
I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.
[12]Am I a sea, or a sea serpent,
That You set a guard over me?
[13]When I say, ‘My bed will comfort me,
My couch will ease my complaint,’
[14]Then You scare me with dreams

And terrify me with visions,
[15]So that my soul chooses strangling
And death rather than my body.
[16]I loathe my life;
I would not live forever.
Let me alone,
For my days are but a breath.

[17]“What is man, that You should exalt him,
That You should set Your heart on him,
[18]That You should visit him every morning,
And test him every moment?
[19]How long?
Will You not look away from me,
And let me alone till I swallow my saliva?
[20]Have I sinned?
What have I done to You, O watcher of men?
Why have You set me as Your target,
So that I am a burden to myself?
[21]Why then do You not pardon my transgression,
And take away my iniquity?
For now I will lie down in the dust,
And You will seek me diligently,
But I will no longer be.”

Job 8

Bildad: Job Should Repent

[1]Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said:

[2]"How long will you speak these things,
And the words of your mouth be like a strong wind?
[3]Does God subvert judgment?
Or does the Almighty pervert justice?
[4]If your sons have sinned against Him,
He has cast them away for their transgression.
[5]If you would earnestly seek God
And make your supplication to the Almighty,
[6]If you were pure and upright,
Surely now He would awake for you,
And prosper your rightful dwelling place.
[7]Though your beginning was small,
Yet your latter end would increase abundantly.

[8]"For inquire, please, of the former age,
And consider the things discovered by their fathers;
[9]For we were born yesterday, and know nothing,
Because our days on earth are a shadow.
[10]Will they not teach you and tell you,
And utter words from their heart?

[11]"Can the papyrus grow up without a marsh?
Can the reeds flourish without water?
[12]While it is yet green and not cut down,
It withers before any other plant.
[13]So are the paths of all who forget God;
And the hope of the hypocrite shall perish,
[14]Whose confidence shall be cut off,
And whose trust is a spider's web.
[15]He leans on his house, but it does not stand.

He holds it fast, but it does not endure.
[16]He grows green in the sun,
And his branches spread out in his garden.
[17]His roots wrap around the rock heap,
And look for a place in the stones.
[18]If he is destroyed from his place,
Then it will deny him, saying, ‘I have not seen you.’

19“Behold, this is the joy of His way,
And out of the earth others will grow.
[20]Behold, God will not cast away the blameless,
Nor will He uphold the evildoers.
[21]He will yet fill your mouth with laughing,
And your lips with rejoicing.
[22]Those who hate you will be clothed with shame,
And the dwelling place of the wicked will come to nothing.”

Job 9

Job: There Is No Mediator

[1]Then Job answered and said:

[2]"Truly I know it is so,
But how can a man be righteous before God?
[3]If one wished to contend with Him,
He could not answer Him one time out of a thousand.
[4]God is wise in heart and mighty in strength.
Who has hardened himself against Him and prospered?
[5]He removes the mountains, and they do not know
When He overturns them in His anger;
[6]He shakes the earth out of its place,
And its pillars tremble;
[7]He commands the sun, and it does not rise;
He seals off the stars;
[8]He alone spreads out the heavens,
And treads on the waves of the sea;
[9]He made the Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades,
And the chambers of the south;
[10]He does great things past finding out,
Yes, wonders without number.
[11]If He goes by me, I do not see Him;
If He moves past, I do not perceive Him;
[12]If He takes away, who can hinder Him?
Who can say to Him, 'What are You doing?'
[13]God will not withdraw His anger,
The allies of the proud lie prostrate beneath Him.

[14]"How then can I answer Him,
And choose my words to reason with Him?
[15]For though I were righteous, I could not answer Him;
I would beg mercy of my Judge.

[16]If I called and He answered me,
I would not believe that He was listening to my voice.
[17]For He crushes me with a tempest,
And multiplies my wounds without cause.
[18]He will not allow me to catch my breath,
But fills me with bitterness.
[19]If it is a matter of strength, indeed He is strong;
And if of justice, who will appoint my day in court?
[20]Though I were righteous, my own mouth would condemn me;
Though I were blameless, it would prove me perverse.

[21]"I am blameless, yet I do not know myself;
I despise my life.
[22]It is all one thing;
Therefore I say, 'He destroys the blameless and the wicked.'
[23]If the scourge slays suddenly,
He laughs at the plight of the innocent.
[24]The earth is given into the hand of the wicked.
He covers the faces of its judges.
If it is not He, who else could it be?

[25]"Now my days are swifter than a runner;
They flee away, they see no good.
[26]They pass by like swift ships,
Like an eagle swooping on its prey.
[27]If I say, 'I will forget my complaint,
I will put off my sad face and wear a smile,'
[28]I am afraid of all my sufferings;
I know that You will not hold me innocent.
[29]If I am condemned,
Why then do I labor in vain?
[30]If I wash myself with snow water,
And cleanse my hands with soap,
[31]Yet You will plunge me into the pit,
And my own clothes will abhor me.

[32]“For He is not a man, as I am,
That I may answer Him,
And that we should go to court together.
[33]Nor is there any mediator between us,
Who may lay his hand on us both.
[34]Let Him take His rod away from me,
And do not let dread of Him terrify me.
[35]Then I would speak and not fear Him,
But it is not so with me.

Job 10

Job: I Would Plead with God

[1]“My soul loathes my life;
I will give free course to my complaint,
I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.
[2]I will say to God, ‘Do not condemn me;
Show me why You contend with me.
[3]Does it seem good to You that You should oppress,
That You should despise the work of Your hands,
And smile on the counsel of the wicked?
[4]Do You have eyes of flesh?
Or do You see as man sees?
[5]Are Your days like the days of a mortal man?
Are Your years like the days of a mighty man,
[6]That You should seek for my iniquity
And search out my sin,
[7]Although You know that I am not wicked,
And there is no one who can deliver from Your hand?

[8]‘Your hands have made me and fashioned me,
An intricate unity;
Yet You would destroy me.
[9]Remember, I pray, that You have made me like clay.
And will You turn me into dust again?
[10]Did You not pour me out like milk,
And curdle me like cheese,
[11]Clothe me with skin and flesh,
And knit me together with bones and sinews?
[12]You have granted me life and favor,
And Your care has preserved my spirit.

[13]‘And these things You have hidden in Your heart;
I know that this was with You:

[14]If I sin, then You mark me,
And will not acquit me of my iniquity.
[15]If I am wicked, woe to me;
Even if I am righteous, I cannot lift up my head.
I am full of disgrace;
See my misery!
[16]If my head is exalted,
You hunt me like a fierce lion,
And again You show Yourself awesome against me.
[17]You renew Your witnesses against me,
And increase Your indignation toward me;
Changes and war are ever with me.

[18]'Why then have You brought me out of the womb?
Oh, that I had perished and no eye had seen me!
[19]I would have been as though I had not been.
I would have been carried from the womb to the grave.
[20]Are not my days few?
Cease! Leave me alone, that I may take a little comfort,
[21]Before I go to the place from which I shall not return,
To the land of darkness and the shadow of death,
[22]A land as dark as darkness itself,
As the shadow of death, without any order,
Where even the light is like darkness.' "

Job 11

Zophar Urges Job to Repent

[1]Then Zophar the Naamathite answered and said:

[2]“Should not the multitude of words be answered?
And should a man full of talk be vindicated?
[3]Should your empty talk make men hold their peace?
And when you mock, should no one rebuke you?
[4]For you have said,
‘My doctrine is pure,
And I am clean in your eyes.’
[5]But oh, that God would speak,
And open His lips against you,
[6]That He would show you the secrets of wisdom!
For they would double your prudence.
Know therefore that God exacts from you
Less than your iniquity deserves.

[7]“Can you search out the deep things of God?
Can you find out the limits of the Almighty?
[8]They are higher than heaven—what can you do?
Deeper than Sheol—what can you know?
[9]Their measure is longer than the earth
And broader than the sea.

[10]“If He passes by, imprisons, and gathers to judgment,
Then who can hinder Him?
[11]For He knows deceitful men;
He sees wickedness also.
Will He not then consider it?
[12]For an empty-headed man will be wise,
When a wild donkey’s colt is born a man.

[13]“If you would prepare your heart,

And stretch out your hands toward Him;
[14]If iniquity were in your hand, and you put it far away,
And would not let wickedness dwell in your tents;
[15]Then surely you could lift up your face without spot;
Yes, you could be steadfast, and not fear;
[16]Because you would forget your misery,
And remember it as waters that have passed away,
[17]And your life would be brighter than noonday.
Though you were dark, you would be like the morning.
[18]And you would be secure, because there is hope;
Yes, you would dig around you, and take your rest in safety.
[19]You would also lie down, and no one would make you afraid;
Yes, many would court your favor.
[20]But the eyes of the wicked will fail,
And they shall not escape,
And their hope—loss of life!”

Job 12

Job Answers His Critics

[1]Then Job answered and said:

[2]“No doubt you are the people,
And wisdom will die with you!
[3]But I have understanding as well as you;
I am not inferior to you.
Indeed, who does not know such things as these?

[4]“I am one mocked by his friends,
Who called on God, and He answered him,
The just and blameless who is ridiculed.
[5]A lamp is despised in the thought of one who is at ease;
It is made ready for those whose feet slip.
[6]The tents of robbers prosper,
And those who provoke God are secure—
In what God provides by His hand.

[7]“But now ask the beasts, and they will teach you;
And the birds of the air, and they will tell you;
[8]Or speak to the earth, and it will teach you;
And the fish of the sea will explain to you.
[9]Who among all these does not know
That the hand of the LORD has done this,
[10]In whose hand is the life of every living thing,
And the breath of all mankind?
[11]Does not the ear test words
And the mouth taste its food?
[12]Wisdom is with aged men,
And with length of days, understanding.

[13]“With Him are wisdom and strength,
He has counsel and understanding.

[14]If He breaks a thing down, it cannot be rebuilt;
If He imprisons a man, there can be no release.
[15]If He withholds the waters, they dry up;
If He sends them out, they overwhelm the earth.
[16]With Him are strength and prudence.
The deceived and the deceiver are His.
[17]He leads counselors away plundered,
And makes fools of the judges.
[18]He loosens the bonds of kings,
And binds their waist with a belt.
[19]He leads princes away plundered,
And overthrows the mighty.
[20]He deprives the trusted ones of speech,
And takes away the discernment of the elders.
[21]He pours contempt on princes,
And disarms the mighty.
[22]He uncovers deep things out of darkness,
And brings the shadow of death to light.
[23]He makes nations great, and destroys them;
He enlarges nations, and guides them.
[24]He takes away the understanding of the chiefs of the people of the earth,
And makes them wander in a pathless wilderness.
[25]They grope in the dark without light,
And He makes them stagger like a drunken man.

Job 13

[1]“Behold, my eye has seen all this,
My ear has heard and understood it.
[2]What you know, I also know;
I am not inferior to you.
[3]But I would speak to the Almighty,
And I desire to reason with God.
[4]But you forgers of lies,
You are all worthless physicians.
[5]Oh, that you would be silent,
And it would be your wisdom!
[6]Now hear my reasoning,
And heed the pleadings of my lips.
[7]Will you speak wickedly for God,
And talk deceitfully for Him?
[8]Will you show partiality for Him?
Will you contend for God?
[9]Will it be well when He searches you out?
Or can you mock Him as one mocks a man?
[10]He will surely rebuke you
If you secretly show partiality.
[11]Will not His excellence make you afraid,
And the dread of Him fall upon you?
[12]Your platitudes are proverbs of ashes,
Your defenses are defenses of clay.

[13]“Hold your peace with me, and let me speak,
Then let come on me what may!
[14]Why do I take my flesh in my teeth,
And put my life in my hands?
[15]Though He slay me, yet will I trust Him.
Even so, I will defend my own ways before Him.
[16]He also shall be my salvation,

For a hypocrite could not come before Him.
[17]Listen carefully to my speech,
And to my declaration with your ears.
[18]See now, I have prepared my case,
I know that I shall be vindicated.
[19]Who is he who will contend with me?
If now I hold my tongue, I perish.

Job's Despondent Prayer

20"Only two things do not do to me,
Then I will not hide myself from You:
[21]Withdraw Your hand far from me,
And let not the dread of You make me afraid.
[22]Then call, and I will answer;
Or let me speak, then You respond to me.
[23]How many are my iniquities and sins?
Make me know my transgression and my sin.
[24]Why do You hide Your face,
And regard me as Your enemy?
[25]Will You frighten a leaf driven to and fro?
And will You pursue dry stubble?
[26]For You write bitter things against me,
And make me inherit the iniquities of my youth.
[27]You put my feet in the stocks,
And watch closely all my paths.
You set a limit for the soles of my feet.

28"Man decays like a rotten thing,
Like a garment that is moth-eaten.

Job 14

[1]"Man who is born of woman
Is of few days and full of trouble.
[2]He comes forth like a flower and fades away;
He flees like a shadow and does not continue.
[3]And do You open Your eyes on such a one,
And bring me to judgment with Yourself?
[4]Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean?
No one!
[5]Since his days are determined,
The number of his months is with You;
You have appointed his limits, so that he cannot pass.
[6]Look away from him that he may rest,
Till like a hired man he finishes his day.

[7]"For there is hope for a tree,
If it is cut down, that it will sprout again,
And that its tender shoots will not cease.
[8]Though its root may grow old in the earth,
And its stump may die in the ground,
[9]Yet at the scent of water it will bud
And bring forth branches like a plant.
[10]But man dies and is laid away;
Indeed he breathes his last
And where is he?
[11]As water disappears from the sea,
And a river becomes parched and dries up,
[12]So man lies down and does not rise.
Till the heavens are no more,
They will not awake
Nor be roused from their sleep.

[13]"Oh, that You would hide me in the grave,
That You would conceal me until Your wrath is past,

That You would appoint me a set time, and remember me!
[14]If a man dies, shall he live again?
All the days of my hard service I will wait,
Till my change comes.
[15]You shall call, and I will answer You;
You shall desire the work of Your hands.
[16]For now You number my steps,
But do not watch over my sin.
[17]My transgression is sealed up in a bag,
And You cover my iniquity.

[18]"But as a mountain falls and crumbles away,
And as a rock is moved from its place;
[19]As water wears away stones,
And as torrents wash away the soil of the earth;
So You destroy the hope of man.
[20]You prevail forever against him, and he passes on;
You change his countenance and send him away.
[21]His sons come to honor, and he does not know it;
They are brought low, and he does not perceive it.
[22]But his flesh will be in pain over it,
And his soul will mourn over it."

Job 15

Eliphaz Accuses Job of Folly

[1]Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said:

[2]“Should a wise man answer with empty knowledge,
And fill himself with the east wind?
[3]Should he reason with unprofitable talk,
Or by speeches with which he can do no good?
[4]Yes, you cast off fear,
And restrain prayer before God.
[5]For your iniquity teaches your mouth,
And you choose the tongue of the crafty.
[6]Your own mouth condemns you, and not I;
Yes, your own lips testify against you.

[7]“Are you the first man who was born?
Or were you made before the hills?
[8]Have you heard the counsel of God?
Do you limit wisdom to yourself?
[9]What do you know that we do not know?
What do you understand that is not in us?
[10]Both the gray-haired and the aged are among us,
Much older than your father.
[11]Are the consolations of God too small for you,
And the word spoken gently with you?
[12]Why does your heart carry you away,
And what do your eyes wink at,
[13]That you turn your spirit against God,
And let such words go out of your mouth?

[14]“What is man, that he could be pure?
And he who is born of a woman, that he could be righteous?
[15]If God puts no trust in His saints,
And the heavens are not pure in His sight,

[16]How much less man, who is abominable and filthy,
Who drinks iniquity like water!

[17]“I will tell you, hear me;
What I have seen I will declare,
[18]What wise men have told,
Not hiding anything received from their fathers,
[19]To whom alone the land was given,
And no alien passed among them:
[20]The wicked man writhes with pain all his days,
And the number of years is hidden from the oppressor.
[21]Dreadful sounds are in his ears;
In prosperity the destroyer comes upon him.
[22]He does not believe that he will return from darkness,
For a sword is waiting for him.
[23]He wanders about for bread, saying, ‘Where is it?’
He knows that a day of darkness is ready at his hand.
[24]Trouble and anguish make him afraid;
They overpower him, like a king ready for battle.
[25]For he stretches out his hand against God,
And acts defiantly against the Almighty,
[26]Running stubbornly against Him
With his strong, embossed shield.

[27]“Though he has covered his face with his fatness,
And made his waist heavy with fat,
[28]He dwells in desolate cities,
In houses which no one inhabits,
Which are destined to become ruins.
[29]He will not be rich,
Nor will his wealth continue,
Nor will his possessions overspread the earth.
[30]He will not depart from darkness;
The flame will dry out his branches,
And by the breath of His mouth he will go away.
[31]Let him not trust in futile things, deceiving himself,

For futility will be his reward.
[32]It will be accomplished before his time,
And his branch will not be green.
[33]He will shake off his unripe grape like a vine,
And cast off his blossom like an olive tree.
[34]For the company of hypocrites will be barren,
And fire will consume the tents of bribery.
[35]They conceive trouble and bring forth futility;
Their womb prepares deceit.”

Job 16

Job Reproaches His Pitiless Friends

[1]Then Job answered and said:

[2]"I have heard many such things;
Miserable comforters are you all!
[3]Shall words of wind have an end?
Or what provokes you that you answer?
[4]I also could speak as you do,
If your soul were in my soul's place.
I could heap up words against you,
And shake my head at you;
[5]But I would strengthen you with my mouth,
And the comfort of my lips would relieve your grief.

[6]"Though I speak, my grief is not relieved;
And if I remain silent, how am I eased?
[7]But now He has worn me out;
You have made desolate all my company.
[8]You have shriveled me up,
And it is a witness against me;
My leanness rises up against me
And bears witness to my face.
[9]He tears me in His wrath, and hates me;
He gnashes at me with His teeth;
My adversary sharpens His gaze on me.
[10]They gape at me with their mouth,
They strike me reproachfully on the cheek,
They gather together against me.
[11]God has delivered me to the ungodly,
And turned me over to the hands of the wicked.
[12]I was at ease, but He has shattered me;
He also has taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces;
He has set me up for His target,

[13]His archers surround me.
He pierces my heart and does not pity;
He pours out my gall on the ground.
[14]He breaks me with wound upon wound;
He runs at me like a warrior.

[15]"I have sewn sackcloth over my skin,
And laid my head in the dust.
[16]My face is flushed from weeping,
And on my eyelids is the shadow of death;
[17]Although no violence is in my hands,
And my prayer is pure.

[18]"O earth, do not cover my blood,
And let my cry have no resting place!
[19]Surely even now my witness is in heaven,
And my evidence is on high.
[20]My friends scorn me;
My eyes pour out tears to God.
[21]Oh, that one might plead for a man with God,
As a man pleads for his neighbor!
[22]For when a few years are finished,
I shall go the way of no return.

Job 17

Job Prays for Relief

[1]"My spirit is broken,
My days are extinguished,
The grave is ready for me.
[2]Are not mockers with me?
And does not my eye dwell on their provocation?

[3]"Now put down a pledge for me with Yourself.
Who is he who will shake hands with me?
[4]For You have hidden their heart from understanding;
Therefore You will not exalt them.
[5]He who speaks flattery to his friends,
Even the eyes of his children will fail.

[6]"But He has made me a byword of the people,
And I have become one in whose face men spit.
[7]My eye has also grown dim because of sorrow,
And all my members are like shadows.
[8]Upright men are astonished at this,
And the innocent stirs himself up against the hypocrite.
[9]Yet the righteous will hold to his way,
And he who has clean hands will be stronger and stronger.

[10]"But please, come back again, all of you,
For I shall not find one wise man among you.
[11]My days are past,
My purposes are broken off,
Even the thoughts of my heart.
[12]They change the night into day;
'The light is near,' they say, in the face of darkness.
[13]If I wait for the grave as my house,
If I make my bed in the darkness,
[14]If I say to corruption, 'You are my father,'

And to the worm, ‘You are my mother and my sister,’
[15]Where then is my hope?
As for my hope, who can see it?
[16]Will they go down to the gates of Sheol?
Shall we have rest together in the dust?”

Job 18

Bildad: The Wicked Are Punished

[1]Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said:

[2]“How long till you put an end to words?
Gain understanding, and afterward we will speak.
[3]Why are we counted as beasts,
And regarded as stupid in your sight?
[4]You who tear yourself in anger,
Shall the earth be forsaken for you?
Or shall the rock be removed from its place?

[5]“The light of the wicked indeed goes out,
And the flame of his fire does not shine.
[6]The light is dark in his tent,
And his lamp beside him is put out.
[7]The steps of his strength are shortened,
And his own counsel casts him down.
[8]For he is cast into a net by his own feet,
And he walks into a snare.
[9]The net takes him by the heel,
And a snare lays hold of him.
[10]A noose is hidden for him on the ground,
And a trap for him in the road.
[11]Terrors frighten him on every side,
And drive him to his feet.
[12]His strength is starved,
And destruction is ready at his side.
[13]It devours patches of his skin;
The firstborn of death devours his limbs.
[14]He is uprooted from the shelter of his tent,
And they parade him before the king of terrors.
[15]They dwell in his tent who are none of his;

Brimstone is scattered on his dwelling.
[16]His roots are dried out below,
And his branch withers above.
[17]The memory of him perishes from the earth,
And he has no name among the renowned.
[18]He is driven from light into darkness,
And chased out of the world.
[19]He has neither son nor posterity among his people,
Nor any remaining in his dwellings.
[20]Those in the west are astonished at his day,
As those in the east are frightened.
[21]Surely such are the dwellings of the wicked,
And this is the place of him who does not know God."

Job 19

Job Trusts in His Redeemer

[1]Then Job answered and said:

[2]"How long will you torment my soul,
And break me in pieces with words?
[3]These ten times you have reproached me;
You are not ashamed that you have wronged me.
[4]And if indeed I have erred,
My error remains with me.
[5]If indeed you exalt yourselves against me,
And plead my disgrace against me,
[6]Know then that God has wronged me,
And has surrounded me with His net.

[7]"If I cry out concerning wrong, I am not heard.
If I cry aloud, there is no justice.
[8]He has fenced up my way, so that I cannot pass;
And He has set darkness in my paths.
[9]He has stripped me of my glory,
And taken the crown from my head.
[10]He breaks me down on every side,
And I am gone;
My hope He has uprooted like a tree.
[11]He has also kindled His wrath against me,
And He counts me as one of His enemies.
[12]His troops come together
And build up their road against me;
They encamp all around my tent.

[13]"He has removed my brothers far from me,
And my acquaintances are completely estranged from me.
[14]My relatives have failed,
And my close friends have forgotten me.

[15]Those who dwell in my house, and my maidservants,
Count me as a stranger;
I am an alien in their sight.
[16]I call my servant, but he gives no answer;
I beg him with my mouth.
[17]My breath is offensive to my wife,
And I am repulsive to the children of my own body.
[18]Even young children despise me;
I arise, and they speak against me.
[19]All my close friends abhor me,
And those whom I love have turned against me.
[20]My bone clings to my skin and to my flesh,
And I have escaped by the skin of my teeth.

[21]“Have pity on me, have pity on me, O you my friends,
For the hand of God has struck me!
[22]Why do you persecute me as God does,
And are not satisfied with my flesh?

[23]“Oh, that my words were written!
Oh, that they were inscribed in a book!
[24]That they were engraved on a rock
With an iron pen and lead, forever!
[25]For I know that my Redeemer lives,
And He shall stand at last on the earth;
[26]And after my skin is destroyed, this I know,
That in my flesh I shall see God,
[27]Whom I shall see for myself,
And my eyes shall behold, and not another.
How my heart yearns within me!
[28]If you should say, ‘How shall we persecute him?’—
Since the root of the matter is found in me,
[29]Be afraid of the sword for yourselves;
For wrath brings the punishment of the sword,
That you may know there is a judgment.”

Job 20

Zophar's Sermon on the Wicked Man

[1]Then Zophar the Naamathite answered and said:

[2]"Therefore my anxious thoughts make me answer,
Because of the turmoil within me.
[3]I have heard the rebuke that reproaches me,
And the spirit of my understanding causes me to answer.

[4]"Do you not know this of old,
Since man was placed on earth,
[5]That the triumphing of the wicked is short,
And the joy of the hypocrite is but for a moment?
[6]Though his haughtiness mounts up to the heavens,
And his head reaches to the clouds,
[7]Yet he will perish forever like his own refuse;
Those who have seen him will say, 'Where is he?'
[8]He will fly away like a dream, and not be found;
Yes, he will be chased away like a vision of the night.
[9]The eye that saw him will see him no more,
Nor will his place behold him anymore.
[10]His children will seek the favor of the poor,
And his hands will restore his wealth.
[11]His bones are full of his youthful vigor,
But it will lie down with him in the dust.

[12]"Though evil is sweet in his mouth,
And he hides it under his tongue,
[13]Though he spares it and does not forsake it,
But still keeps it in his mouth,
[14]Yet his food in his stomach turns sour;
It becomes cobra venom within him.
[15]He swallows down riches
And vomits them up again;

God casts them out of his belly.
[16]He will suck the poison of cobras;
The viper’s tongue will slay him.
[17]He will not see the streams,
The rivers flowing with honey and cream.
[18]He will restore that for which he labored,
And will not swallow it down;
From the proceeds of business
He will get no enjoyment.
[19]For he has oppressed and forsaken the poor,
He has violently seized a house which he did not build.

[20]“Because he knows no quietness in his heart,
He will not save anything he desires.
[21]Nothing is left for him to eat;
Therefore his well-being will not last.
[22]In his self-sufficiency he will be in distress;
Every hand of misery will come against him.
[23]When he is about to fill his stomach,
God will cast on him the fury of His wrath,
And will rain it on him while he is eating.
[24]He will flee from the iron weapon;
A bronze bow will pierce him through.
[25]It is drawn, and comes out of the body;
Yes, the glittering point comes out of his gall.
Terrors come upon him;
[26]Total darkness is reserved for his treasures.
An unfanned fire will consume him;
It shall go ill with him who is left in his tent.
[27]The heavens will reveal his iniquity,
And the earth will rise up against him.
[28]The increase of his house will depart,
And his goods will flow away in the day of His wrath.
[29]This is the portion from God for a wicked man,
The heritage appointed to him by God.”

Job 21

Job’s Discourse on the Wicked

[1]Then Job answered and said:

[2]“Listen carefully to my speech,
And let this be your consolation.
[3]Bear with me that I may speak,
And after I have spoken, keep mocking.

[4]“As for me, is my complaint against man?
And if it were, why should I not be impatient?
[5]Look at me and be astonished;
Put your hand over your mouth.
[6]Even when I remember I am terrified,
And trembling takes hold of my flesh.
[7]Why do the wicked live and become old,
Yes, become mighty in power?
[8]Their descendants are established with them in their sight,
And their offspring before their eyes.
[9]Their houses are safe from fear,
Neither is the rod of God upon them.
[10]Their bull breeds without failure;
Their cow calves without miscarriage.
[11]They send forth their little ones like a flock,
And their children dance.
[12]They sing to the tambourine and harp,
And rejoice to the sound of the flute.
[13]They spend their days in wealth,
And in a moment go down to the grave.
[14]Yet they say to God, ‘Depart from us,
For we do not desire the knowledge of Your ways.
[15]Who is the Almighty, that we should serve Him?
And what profit do we have if we pray to Him?’

[16]Indeed their prosperity is not in their hand;
The counsel of the wicked is far from me.

[17]“How often is the lamp of the wicked put out?
How often does their destruction come upon them,
The sorrows God distributes in His anger?
[18]They are like straw before the wind,
And like chaff that a storm carries away.
[19]They say, ‘God lays up one’s iniquity for his children’;
Let Him recompense him, that he may know it.
[20]Let his eyes see his destruction,
And let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty.
[21]For what does he care about his household after him,
When the number of his months is cut in half?

[22]“Can anyone teach God knowledge,
Since He judges those on high?
[23]One dies in his full strength,
Being wholly at ease and secure;
[24]His pails are full of milk,
And the marrow of his bones is moist.
[25]Another man dies in the bitterness of his soul,
Never having eaten with pleasure.
[26]They lie down alike in the dust,
And worms cover them.

[27]“Look, I know your thoughts,
And the schemes with which you would wrong me.
[28]For you say,
‘Where is the house of the prince?
And where is the tent,
The dwelling place of the wicked?’
[29]Have you not asked those who travel the road?
And do you not know their signs?
[30]For the wicked are reserved for the day of doom;
They shall be brought out on the day of wrath.

[31]Who condemns his way to his face?
And who repays him for what he has done?
[32]Yet he shall be brought to the grave,
And a vigil kept over the tomb.
[33]The clods of the valley shall be sweet to him;
Everyone shall follow him,
As countless have gone before him.
[34]How then can you comfort me with empty words,
Since falsehood remains in your answers?”

Job 22

Eliphaz Accuses Job of Wickedness

[1]Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said:

[2]“Can a man be profitable to God,
Though he who is wise may be profitable to himself?
[3]Is it any pleasure to the Almighty that you are righteous?
Or is it gain to Him that you make your ways blameless?

[4]“Is it because of your fear of Him that He corrects you,
And enters into judgment with you?
[5]Is not your wickedness great,
And your iniquity without end?
[6]For you have taken pledges from your brother for no reason,
And stripped the naked of their clothing.
[7]You have not given the weary water to drink,
And you have withheld bread from the hungry.
[8]But the mighty man possessed the land,
And the honorable man dwelt in it.
[9]You have sent widows away empty,
And the strength of the fatherless was crushed.
[10]Therefore snares are all around you,
And sudden fear troubles you,
[11]Or darkness so that you cannot see;
And an abundance of water covers you.

[12]“Is not God in the height of heaven?
And see the highest stars, how lofty they are!
[13]And you say, ‘What does God know?
Can He judge through the deep darkness?
[14]Thick clouds cover Him, so that He cannot see,
And He walks above the circle of heaven.’
[15]Will you keep to the old way

Which wicked men have trod,
[16]Who were cut down before their time,
Whose foundations were swept away by a flood?
[17]They said to God, ‘Depart from us!
What can the Almighty do to them?’
[18]Yet He filled their houses with good things;
But the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

[19]“The righteous see it and are glad,
And the innocent laugh at them:
[20]‘Surely our adversaries are cut down,
And the fire consumes their remnant.’

21“Now acquaint yourself with Him, and be at peace;
Thereby good will come to you.
[22]Receive, please, instruction from His mouth,
And lay up His words in your heart.
[23]If you return to the Almighty, you will be built up;
You will remove iniquity far from your tents.
[24]Then you will lay your gold in the dust,
And the gold of Ophir among the stones of the brooks.
[25]Yes, the Almighty will be your gold
And your precious silver;
[26]For then you will have your delight in the Almighty,
And lift up your face to God.
[27]You will make your prayer to Him,
He will hear you,
And you will pay your vows.
[28]You will also declare a thing,
And it will be established for you;
So light will shine on your ways.
[29]When they cast you down, and you say, ‘Exaltation will come!’
Then He will save the humble person.
[30]He will even deliver one who is not innocent;
Yes, he will be delivered by the purity of your hands.”

Job 23

Job Proclaims God's Righteous Judgments

[1]Then Job answered and said:

[2]"Even today my complaint is bitter;
My hand is listless because of my groaning.
[3]Oh, that I knew where I might find Him,
That I might come to His seat!
[4]I would present my case before Him,
And fill my mouth with arguments.
[5]I would know the words which He would answer me,
And understand what He would say to me.
[6]Would He contend with me in His great power?
No! But He would take note of me.
[7]There the upright could reason with Him,
And I would be delivered forever from my Judge.

[8]"Look, I go forward, but He is not there,
And backward, but I cannot perceive Him;
[9]When He works on the left hand, I cannot behold Him;
When He turns to the right hand, I cannot see Him.
[10]But He knows the way that I take;
When He has tested me, I shall come forth as gold.
[11]My foot has held fast to His steps;
I have kept His way and not turned aside.
[12]I have not departed from the commandment of His lips;
I have treasured the words of His mouth
More than my necessary food.

[13]"But He is unique, and who can make Him change?
And whatever His soul desires, that He does.
[14]For He performs what is appointed for me,
And many such things are with Him.
[15]Therefore I am terrified at His presence;

When I consider this, I am afraid of Him.
[16]For God made my heart weak,
And the Almighty terrifies me;
[17]Because I was not cut off from the presence of darkness,
And He did not hide deep darkness from my face.

Job 24

Job Complains of Violence on the Earth

[1]“Since times are not hidden from the Almighty,
Why do those who know Him see not His days?

[2]“Some remove landmarks;
They seize flocks violently and feed on them;
[3]They drive away the donkey of the fatherless;
They take the widow’s ox as a pledge.
[4]They push the needy off the road;
All the poor of the land are forced to hide.
[5]Indeed, like wild donkeys in the desert,
They go out to their work, searching for food.
The wilderness yields food for them and for their children.
[6]They gather their fodder in the field
And glean in the vineyard of the wicked.
[7]They spend the night naked, without clothing,
And have no covering in the cold.
[8]They are wet with the showers of the mountains,
And huddle around the rock for want of shelter.

[9]“Some snatch the fatherless from the breast,
And take a pledge from the poor.
[10]They cause the poor to go naked, without clothing;
And they take away the sheaves from the hungry.
[11]They press out oil within their walls,
And tread winepresses, yet suffer thirst.
[12]The dying groan in the city,
And the souls of the wounded cry out;
Yet God does not charge them with wrong.

[13]“There are those who rebel against the light;
They do not know its ways
Nor abide in its paths.

[14]The murderer rises with the light;
He kills the poor and needy;
And in the night he is like a thief.
[15]The eye of the adulterer waits for the twilight,
Saying, ‘No eye will see me’;
And he disguises his face.
[16]In the dark they break into houses
Which they marked for themselves in the daytime;
They do not know the light.
[17]For the morning is the same to them as the shadow of death;
If someone recognizes them,
They are in the terrors of the shadow of death.

[18]“They should be swift on the face of the waters,
Their portion should be cursed in the earth,
So that no one would turn into the way of their vineyards.
[19]As drought and heat consume the snow waters,
So the grave consumes those who have sinned.
[20]The womb should forget him,
The worm should feed sweetly on him;
He should be remembered no more,
And wickedness should be broken like a tree.
[21]For he preys on the barren who do not bear,
And does no good for the widow.

[22]“But God draws the mighty away with His power;
He rises up, but no man is sure of life.
[23]He gives them security, and they rely on it;
Yet His eyes are on their ways.
[24]They are exalted for a little while,
Then they are gone.
They are brought low;
They are taken out of the way like all others;
They dry out like the heads of grain.

25“Now if it is not so, who will prove me a liar,
And make my speech worth nothing?”

Job 25

Bildad: How Can Man Be Righteous?

[1]Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said:

[2]“Dominion and fear belong to Him;
He makes peace in His high places.
[3]Is there any number to His armies?
Upon whom does His light not rise?
[4]How then can man be righteous before God?
Or how can he be pure who is born of a woman?
[5]If even the moon does not shine,
And the stars are not pure in His sight,
[6]How much less man, who is a maggot,
And a son of man, who is a worm?”

Job 26

Job: Man's Frailty and God's Majesty

[1]But Job answered and said:

[2]"How have you helped him who is without power?
How have you saved the arm that has no strength?
[3]How have you counseled one who has no wisdom?
And how have you declared sound advice to many?
[4]To whom have you uttered words?
And whose spirit came from you?

[5]"The dead tremble,
Those under the waters and those inhabiting them.
[6]Sheol is naked before Him,
And Destruction has no covering.
[7]He stretches out the north over empty space;
He hangs the earth on nothing.
[8]He binds up the water in His thick clouds,
Yet the clouds are not broken under it.
[9]He covers the face of His throne,
And spreads His cloud over it.
[10]He drew a circular horizon on the face of the waters,
At the boundary of light and darkness.
[11]The pillars of heaven tremble,
And are astonished at His rebuke.
[12]He stirs up the sea with His power,
And by His understanding He breaks up the storm.
[13]By His Spirit He adorned the heavens;
His hand pierced the fleeing serpent.
[14]Indeed these are the mere edges of His ways,
And how small a whisper we hear of Him!
But the thunder of His power who can understand?"

Job 27

Job Maintains His Integrity

[1]Moreover Job continued his discourse, and said:

[2]“As God lives, who has taken away my justice,
And the Almighty, who has made my soul bitter,
[3]As long as my breath is in me,
And the breath of God in my nostrils,
[4]My lips will not speak wickedness,
Nor my tongue utter deceit.
[5]Far be it from me
That I should say you are right;
Till I die I will not put away my integrity from me.
[6]My righteousness I hold fast, and will not let it go;
My heart shall not reproach me as long as I live.

[7]“May my enemy be like the wicked,
And he who rises up against me like the unrighteous.
[8]For what is the hope of the hypocrite,
Though he may gain much,
If God takes away his life?
[9]Will God hear his cry
When trouble comes upon him?
[10]Will he delight himself in the Almighty?
Will he always call on God?

[11]“I will teach you about the hand of God;
What is with the Almighty I will not conceal.
[12]Surely all of you have seen it;
Why then do you behave with complete nonsense?

[13]“This is the portion of a wicked man with God,
And the heritage of oppressors, received from the Almighty:
[14]If his children are multiplied, it is for the sword;

And his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.
[15]Those who survive him shall be buried in death,
And their widows shall not weep,
[16]Though he heaps up silver like dust,
And piles up clothing like clay—
[17]He may pile it up, but the just will wear it,
And the innocent will divide the silver.
[18]He builds his house like a moth,
Like a booth which a watchman makes.
[19]The rich man will lie down,
But not be gathered up;
He opens his eyes,
And he is no more.
[20]Terrors overtake him like a flood;
A tempest steals him away in the night.
[21]The east wind carries him away, and he is gone;
It sweeps him out of his place.
[22]It hurls against him and does not spare;
He flees desperately from its power.
[23]Men shall clap their hands at him,
And shall hiss him out of his place.

Job 28

Job's Discourse on Wisdom

[1]"Surely there is a mine for silver,
And a place where gold is refined.
[2]Iron is taken from the earth,
And copper is smelted from ore.
[3]Man puts an end to darkness,
And searches every recess
For ore in the darkness and the shadow of death.
[4]He breaks open a shaft away from people;
In places forgotten by feet
They hang far away from men;
They swing to and fro.
[5]As for the earth, from it comes bread,
But underneath it is turned up as by fire;
[6]Its stones are the source of sapphires,
And it contains gold dust.
[7]That path no bird knows,
Nor has the falcon's eye seen it.
[8]The proud lions have not trodden it,
Nor has the fierce lion passed over it.
[9]He puts his hand on the flint;
He overturns the mountains at the roots.
[10]He cuts out channels in the rocks,
And his eye sees every precious thing.
[11]He dams up the streams from trickling;
What is hidden he brings forth to light.

[12]"But where can wisdom be found?
And where is the place of understanding?
[13]Man does not know its value,
Nor is it found in the land of the living.
[14]The deep says, 'It is not in me';

And the sea says, 'It is not with me.'
[15]It cannot be purchased for gold,
Nor can silver be weighed for its price.
[16]It cannot be valued in the gold of Ophir,
In precious onyx or sapphire.
[17]Neither gold nor crystal can equal it,
Nor can it be exchanged for jewelry of fine gold.
[18]No mention shall be made of coral or quartz,
For the price of wisdom is above rubies.
[19]The topaz of Ethiopia cannot equal it,
Nor can it be valued in pure gold.

[20]"From where then does wisdom come?
And where is the place of understanding?
[21]It is hidden from the eyes of all living,
And concealed from the birds of the air.
[22]Destruction and Death say,
'We have heard a report about it with our ears.'
[23]God understands its way,
And He knows its place.
[24]For He looks to the ends of the earth,
And sees under the whole heavens,
[25]To establish a weight for the wind,
And apportion the waters by measure.
[26]When He made a law for the rain,
And a path for the thunderbolt,
[27]Then He saw wisdom and declared it;
He prepared it, indeed, He searched it out.
[28]And to man He said,
'Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom,
And to depart from evil is understanding.' "

Job 29

Job's Summary Defense

[1]Job further continued his discourse, and said:

[2]"Oh, that I were as in months past,
As in the days when God watched over me;
[3]When His lamp shone upon my head,
And when by His light I walked through darkness;
[4]Just as I was in the days of my prime,
When the friendly counsel of God was over my tent;
[5]When the Almighty was yet with me,
When my children were around me;
[6]When my steps were bathed with cream,
And the rock poured out rivers of oil for me!

[7]"When I went out to the gate by the city,
When I took my seat in the open square,
[8]The young men saw me and hid,
And the aged arose and stood;
[9]The princes refrained from talking,
And put their hand on their mouth;
[10]The voice of nobles was hushed,
And their tongue stuck to the roof of their mouth.
[11]When the ear heard, then it blessed me,
And when the eye saw, then it approved me;
[12]Because I delivered the poor who cried out,
The fatherless and the one who had no helper.
[13]The blessing of a perishing man came upon me,
And I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.
[14]I put on righteousness, and it clothed me;
My justice was like a robe and a turban.
[15]I was eyes to the blind,
And I was feet to the lame.

[16]I was a father to the poor,
And I searched out the case that I did not know.
[17]I broke the fangs of the wicked,
And plucked the victim from his teeth.

[18]"Then I said, 'I shall die in my nest,
And multiply my days as the sand.
[19]My root is spread out to the waters,
And the dew lies all night on my branch.
[20]My glory is fresh within me,
And my bow is renewed in my hand.'

[21]"Men listened to me and waited,
And kept silence for my counsel.
[22]After my words they did not speak again,
And my speech settled on them as dew.
[23]They waited for me as for the rain,
And they opened their mouth wide as for the spring rain.
[24]If I mocked at them, they did not believe it,
And the light of my countenance they did not cast down.
[25]I chose the way for them, and sat as chief;
So I dwelt as a king in the army,
As one who comforts mourners.

Job 30

[1]“But now they mock at me, men younger than I,
Whose fathers I disdained to put with the dogs of my flock.
[2]Indeed, what profit is the strength of their hands to me?
Their vigor has perished.
[3]They are gaunt from want and famine,
Fleeing late to the wilderness, desolate and waste,
[4]Who pluck mallow by the bushes,
And broom tree roots for their food.
[5]They were driven out from among men,
They shouted at them as at a thief.
[6]They had to live in the clefts of the valleys,
In caves of the earth and the rocks.
[7]Among the bushes they brayed,
Under the nettles they nestled.
[8]They were sons of fools,
Yes, sons of vile men;
They were scourged from the land.

[9]“And now I am their taunting song;
Yes, I am their byword.
[10]They abhor me, they keep far from me;
They do not hesitate to spit in my face.
[11]Because He has loosed my bowstring and afflicted me,
They have cast off restraint before me.
[12]At my right hand the rabble arises;
They push away my feet,
And they raise against me their ways of destruction.
[13]They break up my path,
They promote my calamity;
They have no helper.
[14]They come as broad breakers;
Under the ruinous storm they roll along.

[15]Terrors are turned upon me;
They pursue my honor as the wind,
And my prosperity has passed like a cloud.

[16]"And now my soul is poured out because of my plight;
The days of affliction take hold of me.
[17]My bones are pierced in me at night,
And my gnawing pains take no rest.
[18]By great force my garment is disfigured;
It binds me about as the collar of my coat.
[19]He has cast me into the mire,
And I have become like dust and ashes.

[20]"I cry out to You, but You do not answer me;
I stand up, and You regard me.
[21]But You have become cruel to me;
With the strength of Your hand You oppose me.
[22]You lift me up to the wind and cause me to ride on it;
You spoil my success.
[23]For I know that You will bring me to death,
And to the house appointed for all living.

[24]"Surely He would not stretch out His hand against a heap of ruins,
If they cry out when He destroys it.
[25]Have I not wept for him who was in trouble?
Has not my soul grieved for the poor?
[26]But when I looked for good, evil came to me;
And when I waited for light, then came darkness.
[27]My heart is in turmoil and cannot rest;
Days of affliction confront me.
[28]I go about mourning, but not in the sun;
I stand up in the assembly and cry out for help.
[29]I am a brother of jackals,
And a companion of ostriches.
[30]My skin grows black and falls from me;

My bones burn with fever.
[31]My harp is turned to mourning,
And my flute to the voice of those who weep.

Job 31

[1]"I have made a covenant with my eyes;
Why then should I look upon a young woman?
[2]For what is the allotment of God from above,
And the inheritance of the Almighty from on high?
[3]Is it not destruction for the wicked,
And disaster for the workers of iniquity?
[4]Does He not see my ways,
And count all my steps?

[5]"If I have walked with falsehood,
Or if my foot has hastened to deceit,
[6]Let me be weighed on honest scales,
That God may know my integrity.
[7]If my step has turned from the way,
Or my heart walked after my eyes,
Or if any spot adheres to my hands,
[8]Then let me sow, and another eat;
Yes, let my harvest be rooted out.

[9]"If my heart has been enticed by a woman,
Or if I have lurked at my neighbor's door,
[10]Then let my wife grind for another,
And let others bow down over her.
[11]For that would be wickedness;
Yes, it would be iniquity deserving of judgment.
[12]For that would be a fire that consumes to destruction,
And would root out all my increase.

[13]"If I have despised the cause of my male or female servant
When they complained against me,
[14]What then shall I do when God rises up?
When He punishes, how shall I answer Him?
[15]Did not He who made me in the womb make them?

Did not the same One fashion us in the womb?

[16]“If I have kept the poor from their desire,
Or caused the eyes of the widow to fail,
[17]Or eaten my morsel by myself,
So that the fatherless could not eat of it
[18](But from my youth I reared him as a father,
And from my mother’s womb I guided the widow);
[19]If I have seen anyone perish for lack of clothing,
Or any poor man without covering;
[20]If his heart has not blessed me,
And if he was not warmed with the fleece of my sheep;
[21]If I have raised my hand against the fatherless,
When I saw I had help in the gate;
[22]Then let my arm fall from my shoulder,
Let my arm be torn from the socket.
[23]For destruction from God is a terror to me,
And because of His magnificence I cannot endure.

[24]“If I have made gold my hope,
Or said to fine gold, ‘You are my confidence’;
[25]If I have rejoiced because my wealth was great,
And because my hand had gained much;
[26]If I have observed the sun when it shines,
Or the moon moving in brightness,
[27]So that my heart has been secretly enticed,
And my mouth has kissed my hand;
[28]This also would be an iniquity deserving of judgment,
For I would have denied God who is above.

[29]“If I have rejoiced at the destruction of him who hated me,
Or lifted myself up when evil found him
[30](Indeed I have not allowed my mouth to sin
By asking for a curse on his soul);
[31]If the men of my tent have not said,
‘Who is there that has not been satisfied with his meat?’

[32](But no sojourner had to lodge in the street,
For I have opened my doors to the traveler);
[33]If I have covered my transgressions as Adam,
By hiding my iniquity in my bosom,
[34]Because I feared the great multitude,
And dreaded the contempt of families,
So that I kept silence
And did not go out of the door—
[35]Oh, that I had one to hear me!
Here is my mark.
Oh, that the Almighty would answer me,
That my Prosecutor had written a book!
[36]Surely I would carry it on my shoulder,
And bind it on me like a crown;
[37]I would declare to Him the number of my steps;
Like a prince I would approach Him.

[38]"If my land cries out against me,
And its furrows weep together;
[39]If I have eaten its fruit without money,
Or caused its owners to lose their lives;
[40]Then let thistles grow instead of wheat,
And weeds instead of barley."

The words of Job are ended.

Job 32

Elihu Contradicts Job's Friends

[1]So these three men ceased answering Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.

[2]Then the wrath of Elihu, the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the family of Ram, was aroused against Job; his wrath was aroused because he justified himself rather than God.

[3]Also against his three friends his wrath was aroused, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.

[4]Now because they were years older than he, Elihu had waited to speak to Job.

[5]When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his wrath was aroused.

[6]So Elihu, the son of Barachel the Buzite, answered and said:

"I am young in years, and you are very old;
Therefore I was afraid,
And dared not declare my opinion to you.
[7]I said, 'Age should speak,
And multitude of years should teach wisdom.'
[8]But there is a spirit in man,
And the breath of the Almighty gives him understanding.
[9]Great men are not always wise,
Nor do the aged always understand justice.

[10]"Therefore I say, 'Listen to me,
I also will declare my opinion.'
[11]Indeed I waited for your words,
I listened to your reasonings, while you searched out what to say.
[12]I paid close attention to you;
And surely not one of you convinced Job,
Or answered his words—
[13]Lest you say,

‘We have found wisdom’;
God will vanquish him, not man.
[14]Now he has not directed his words against me;
So I will not answer him with your words.

[15]“They are dismayed and answer no more;
Words escape them.
[16]And I have waited, because they did not speak,
Because they stood still and answered no more.
[17]I also will answer my part,
I too will declare my opinion.
[18]For I am full of words;
The spirit within me compels me.
[19]Indeed my belly is like wine that has no vent;
It is ready to burst like new wineskins.
[20]I will speak, that I may find relief;
I must open my lips and answer.
[21]Let me not, I pray, show partiality to anyone;
Nor let me flatter any man.
[22]For I do not know how to flatter,
Else my Maker would soon take me away.

Job 33

Elihu Contradicts Job

[1]"But please, Job, hear my speech,
And listen to all my words.
[2]Now, I open my mouth;
My tongue speaks in my mouth.
[3]My words come from my upright heart;
My lips utter pure knowledge.
[4]The Spirit of God has made me,
And the breath of the Almighty gives me life.
[5]If you can answer me,
Set your words in order before me;
Take your stand.
[6]Truly I am as your spokesman before God;
I also have been formed out of clay.
[7]Surely no fear of me will terrify you,
Nor will my hand be heavy on you.

[8]"Surely you have spoken in my hearing,
And I have heard the sound of your words, saying,
[9]'I am pure, without transgression;
I am innocent, and there is no iniquity in me.
[10]Yet He finds occasions against me,
He counts me as His enemy;
[11]He puts my feet in the stocks,
He watches all my paths.'

[12]"Look, in this you are not righteous.
I will answer you,
For God is greater than man.
[13]Why do you contend with Him?
For He does not give an accounting of any of His words.
[14]For God may speak in one way, or in another,

Yet man does not perceive it.
[15]In a dream, in a vision of the night,
When deep sleep falls upon men,
While slumbering on their beds,
[16]Then He opens the ears of men,
And seals their instruction.
[17]In order to turn man from his deed,
And conceal pride from man,
[18]He keeps back his soul from the Pit,
And his life from perishing by the sword.

[19]"Man is also chastened with pain on his bed,
And with strong pain in many of his bones,
[20]So that his life abhors bread,
And his soul succulent food.
[21]His flesh wastes away from sight,
And his bones stick out which once were not seen.
[22]Yes, his soul draws near the Pit,
And his life to the executioners.

[23]"If there is a messenger for him,
A mediator, one among a thousand,
To show man His uprightness,
[24]Then He is gracious to him, and says,
'Deliver him from going down to the Pit;
I have found a ransom';
[25]His flesh shall be young like a child's,
He shall return to the days of his youth.
[26]He shall pray to God, and He will delight in him,
He shall see His face with joy,
For He restores to man His righteousness.
[27]Then he looks at men and says,
'I have sinned, and perverted what was right,
And it did not profit me.'
[28]He will redeem his soul from going down to the Pit,
And his life shall see the light.

[29]“Behold, God works all these things,
Twice, in fact, three times with a man,
[30]To bring back his soul from the Pit,
That he may be enlightened with the light of life.

[31]“Give ear, Job, listen to me;
Hold your peace, and I will speak.
[32]If you have anything to say, answer me;
Speak, for I desire to justify you.
[33]If not, listen to me;
Hold your peace, and I will teach you wisdom.”

Job 34

Elihu Proclaims God's Justice

[1]Elihu further answered and said:

[2]"Hear my words, you wise men;
Give ear to me, you who have knowledge.
[3]For the ear tests words
As the palate tastes food.
[4]Let us choose justice for ourselves;
Let us know among ourselves what is good.

[5]"For Job has said, 'I am righteous,
But God has taken away my justice;
[6]Should I lie concerning my right?
My wound is incurable, though I am without transgression.'
[7]What man is like Job,
Who drinks scorn like water,
[8]Who goes in company with the workers of iniquity,
And walks with wicked men?
[9]For he has said, 'It profits a man nothing
That he should delight in God.'

[10]"Therefore listen to me, you men of understanding:
Far be it from God to do wickedness,
And from the Almighty to commit iniquity.
[11]For He repays man according to his work,
And makes man to find a reward according to his way.
[12]Surely God will never do wickedly,
Nor will the Almighty pervert justice.
[13]Who gave Him charge over the earth?
Or who appointed Him over the whole world?
[14]If He should set His heart on it,
If He should gather to Himself His Spirit and His breath,
[15]All flesh would perish together,

And man would return to dust.

[16]“If you have understanding, hear this;
Listen to the sound of my words:
[17]Should one who hates justice govern?
Will you condemn Him who is most just?
[18]Is it fitting to say to a king, ‘You are worthless,’
And to nobles, ‘You are wicked’?
[19]Yet He is not partial to princes,
Nor does He regard the rich more than the poor;
For they are all the work of His hands.
[20]In a moment they die, in the middle of the night;
The people are shaken and pass away;
The mighty are taken away without a hand.

[21]“For His eyes are on the ways of man,
And He sees all his steps.
[22]There is no darkness nor shadow of death
Where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.
[23]For He need not further consider a man,
That he should go before God in judgment.
[24]He breaks in pieces mighty men without inquiry,
And sets others in their place.
[25]Therefore He knows their works;
He overthrows them in the night,
And they are crushed.
[26]He strikes them as wicked men
In the open sight of others,
[27]Because they turned back from Him,
And would not consider any of His ways,
[28]So that they caused the cry of the poor to come to Him;
For He hears the cry of the afflicted.
[29]When He gives quietness, who then can make trouble?
And when He hides His face, who then can see Him,
Whether it is against a nation or a man alone?—
[30]That the hypocrite should not reign,

Lest the people be ensnared.

[31]“For has anyone said to God,
‘I have borne chastening;
I will offend no more;
[32]Teach me what I do not see;
If I have done iniquity, I will do no more’?
[33]Should He repay it according to your terms,
Just because you disavow it?
You must choose, and not I;
Therefore speak what you know.

[34]“Men of understanding say to me,
Wise men who listen to me:
[35]‘Job speaks without knowledge,
His words are without wisdom.’
[36]Oh, that Job were tried to the utmost,
Because his answers are like those of wicked men!
[37]For he adds rebellion to his sin;
He claps his hands among us,
And multiplies his words against God.”

Job 35

Elihu Condemns Self-Righteousness

[1]Moreover Elihu answered and said:

[2]"Do you think this is right?
Do you say,
'My righteousness is more than God's'?
[3]For you say,
'What advantage will it be to You?
What profit shall I have, more than if I had sinned?'

[4]"I will answer you,
And your companions with you.
[5]Look to the heavens and see;
And behold the clouds—
They are higher than you.
[6]If you sin, what do you accomplish against Him?
Or, if your transgressions are multiplied, what do you do to Him?
[7]If you are righteous, what do you give Him?
Or what does He receive from your hand?
[8]Your wickedness affects a man such as you,
And your righteousness a son of man.

[9]"Because of the multitude of oppressions they cry out;
They cry out for help because of the arm of the mighty.
[10]But no one says, 'Where is God my Maker,
Who gives songs in the night,
[11]Who teaches us more than the beasts of the earth,
And makes us wiser than the birds of heaven?'
[12]There they cry out, but He does not answer,
Because of the pride of evil men.
[13]Surely God will not listen to empty talk,
Nor will the Almighty regard it.

[14]Although you say you do not see Him,
Yet justice is before Him, and you must wait for Him.
[15]And now, because He has not punished in His anger,
Nor taken much notice of folly,
[16]Therefore Job opens his mouth in vain;
He multiplies words without knowledge.”

Job 36

Elihu Proclaims God’s Goodness

[1]Elihu also proceeded and said:

[2]“Bear with me a little, and I will show you
That there are yet words to speak on God’s behalf.
[3]I will fetch my knowledge from afar;
I will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.
[4]For truly my words are not false;
One who is perfect in knowledge is with you.

[5]“Behold, God is mighty, but despises no one;
He is mighty in strength of understanding.
[6]He does not preserve the life of the wicked,
But gives justice to the oppressed.
[7]He does not withdraw His eyes from the righteous;
But they are on the throne with kings,
For He has seated them forever,
And they are exalted.
[8]And if they are bound in fetters,
Held in the cords of affliction,
[9]Then He tells them their work and their transgressions—
That they have acted defiantly.
[10]He also opens their ear to instruction,
And commands that they turn from iniquity.
[11]If they obey and serve Him,
They shall spend their days in prosperity,
And their years in pleasures.
[12]But if they do not obey,
They shall perish by the sword,
And they shall die without knowledge.

[13]“But the hypocrites in heart store up wrath;
They do not cry for help when He binds them.

[14]They die in youth,
And their life ends among the perverted persons.
[15]He delivers the poor in their affliction,
And opens their ears in oppression.

[16]“Indeed He would have brought you out of dire distress,
Into a broad place where there is no restraint;
And what is set on your table would be full of richness.
[17]But you are filled with the judgment due the wicked;
Judgment and justice take hold of you.
[18]Because there is wrath, beware lest He take you away with one blow;
For a large ransom would not help you avoid it.
[19]Will your riches,
Or all the mighty forces,
Keep you from distress?
[20]Do not desire the night,
When people are cut off in their place.
[21]Take heed, do not turn to iniquity,
For you have chosen this rather than affliction.

[22]“Behold, God is exalted by His power;
Who teaches like Him?
[23]Who has assigned Him His way,
Or who has said, ‘You have done wrong’?

Elihu Proclaims God’s Majesty

[24]“Remember to magnify His work,
Of which men have sung.
[25]Everyone has seen it;
Man looks on it from afar.

[26]“Behold, God is great, and we do not know Him;
Nor can the number of His years be discovered.
[27]For He draws up drops of water,
Which distill as rain from the mist,

[28]Which the clouds drop down
And pour abundantly on man.
[29]Indeed, can anyone understand the spreading of clouds,
The thunder from His canopy?
[30]Look, He scatters His light upon it,
And covers the depths of the sea.
[31]For by these He judges the peoples;
He gives food in abundance.
[32]He covers His hands with lightning,
And commands it to strike.
[33]His thunder declares it,
The cattle also, concerning the rising storm.

Job 37

[1]"At this also my heart trembles,
And leaps from its place.
[2]Hear attentively the thunder of His voice,
And the rumbling that comes from His mouth.
[3]He sends it forth under the whole heaven,
His lightning to the ends of the earth.
[4]After it a voice roars;
He thunders with His majestic voice,
And He does not restrain them when His voice is heard.
[5]God thunders marvelously with His voice;
He does great things which we cannot comprehend.
[6]For He says to the snow, 'Fall on the earth';
Likewise to the gentle rain and the heavy rain of His strength.
[7]He seals the hand of every man,
That all men may know His work.
[8]The beasts go into dens,
And remain in their lairs.
[9]From the chamber of the south comes the whirlwind,
And cold from the scattering winds of the north.
[10]By the breath of God ice is given,
And the broad waters are frozen.
[11]Also with moisture He saturates the thick clouds;
He scatters His bright clouds.
[12]And they swirl about, being turned by His guidance,
That they may do whatever He commands them
On the face of the whole earth.
[13]He causes it to come,
Whether for correction,
Or for His land,
Or for mercy.

[14]"Listen to this, O Job;

Stand still and consider the wondrous works of God.
[15]Do you know when God dispatches them,
And causes the light of His cloud to shine?
[16]Do you know how the clouds are balanced,
Those wondrous works of Him who is perfect in knowledge?
[17]Why are your garments hot,
When He quiets the earth by the south wind?
[18]With Him, have you spread out the skies,
Strong as a cast metal mirror?

[19]"Teach us what we should say to Him,
For we can prepare nothing because of the darkness.
[20]Should He be told that I wish to speak?
If a man were to speak, surely he would be swallowed up.
[21]Even now men cannot look at the light when it is bright in the skies,
When the wind has passed and cleared them.
[22]He comes from the north as golden splendor;
With God is awesome majesty.
[23]As for the Almighty, we cannot find Him;
He is excellent in power,
In judgment and abundant justice;
He does not oppress.
[24]Therefore men fear Him;
He shows no partiality to any who are wise of heart."

Job 38

The LORD Reveals His Omnipotence to Job

[1]Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said:

[2]"Who is this who darkens counsel
By words without knowledge?
[3]Now prepare yourself like a man;
I will question you, and you shall answer Me.

4"Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth?
Tell Me, if you have understanding.
[5]Who determined its measurements?
Surely you know!
Or who stretched the line upon it?
[6]To what were its foundations fastened?
Or who laid its cornerstone,
[7]When the morning stars sang together,
And all the sons of God shouted for joy?

[8]"Or who shut in the sea with doors,
When it burst forth and issued from the womb;
[9]When I made the clouds its garment,
And thick darkness its swaddling band;
[10]When I fixed My limit for it,
And set bars and doors;
[11]When I said,
'This far you may come, but no farther,
And here your proud waves must stop!'

12"Have you commanded the morning since your days began,
And caused the dawn to know its place,
[13]That it might take hold of the ends of the earth,
And the wicked be shaken out of it?

[14]It takes on form like clay under a seal,
And stands out like a garment.
[15]From the wicked their light is withheld,
And the upraised arm is broken.

[16]"Have you entered the springs of the sea?
Or have you walked in search of the depths?
[17]Have the gates of death been revealed to you?
Or have you seen the doors of the shadow of death?
[18]Have you comprehended the breadth of the earth?
Tell Me, if you know all this.

[19]"Where is the way to the dwelling of light?
And darkness, where is its place,
[20]That you may take it to its territory,
That you may know the paths to its home?
[21]Do you know it, because you were born then,
Or because the number of your days is great?

[22]"Have you entered the treasury of snow,
Or have you seen the treasury of hail,
[23]Which I have reserved for the time of trouble,
For the day of battle and war?
[24]By what way is light diffused,
Or the east wind scattered over the earth?

[25]"Who has divided a channel for the overflowing water,
Or a path for the thunderbolt,
[26]To cause it to rain on a land where there is no one,
A wilderness in which there is no man;
[27]To satisfy the desolate waste,
And cause to spring forth the growth of tender grass?
[28]Has the rain a father?
Or who has begotten the drops of dew?
[29]From whose womb comes the ice?
And the frost of heaven, who gives it birth?

[30]The waters harden like stone,
And the surface of the deep is frozen.

[31]“Can you bind the cluster of the Pleiades,
Or loose the belt of Orion?
[32]Can you bring out Mazzaroth in its season?
Or can you guide the Great Bear with its cubs?
[33]Do you know the ordinances of the heavens?
Can you set their dominion over the earth?

[34]“Can you lift up your voice to the clouds,
That an abundance of water may cover you?
[35]Can you send out lightnings, that they may go,
And say to you, ‘Here we are!’?
[36]Who has put wisdom in the mind?
Or who has given understanding to the heart?
[37]Who can number the clouds by wisdom?
Or who can pour out the bottles of heaven,
[38]When the dust hardens in clumps,
And the clods cling together?

[39]“Can you hunt the prey for the lion,
Or satisfy the appetite of the young lions,
[40]When they crouch in their dens,
Or lurk in their lairs to lie in wait?
[41]Who provides food for the raven,
When its young ones cry to God,
And wander about for lack of food?

Job 39

[1]“Do you know the time when the wild mountain goats bear young?
Or can you mark when the deer gives birth?
[2]Can you number the months that they fulfill?
Or do you know the time when they bear young?
[3]They bow down,
They bring forth their young,
They deliver their offspring.
[4]Their young ones are healthy,
They grow strong with grain;
They depart and do not return to them.

[5]“Who set the wild donkey free?
Who loosed the bonds of the onager,
[6]Whose home I have made the wilderness,
And the barren land his dwelling?
[7]He scorns the tumult of the city;
He does not heed the shouts of the driver.
[8]The range of the mountains is his pasture,
And he searches after every green thing.

[9]“Will the wild ox be willing to serve you?
Will he bed by your manger?
[10]Can you bind the wild ox in the furrow with ropes?
Or will he plow the valleys behind you?
[11]Will you trust him because his strength is great?
Or will you leave your labor to him?
[12]Will you trust him to bring home your grain,
And gather it to your threshing floor?

[13]“The wings of the ostrich wave proudly,
But are her wings and pinions like the kindly stork’s?
[14]For she leaves her eggs on the ground,

And warms them in the dust;
[15]She forgets that a foot may crush them,
Or that a wild beast may break them.
[16]She treats her young harshly, as though they were not hers;
Her labor is in vain, without concern,
[17]Because God deprived her of wisdom,
And did not endow her with understanding.
[18]When she lifts herself on high,
She scorns the horse and its rider.

[19]"Have you given the horse strength?
Have you clothed his neck with thunder?
[20]Can you frighten him like a locust?
His majestic snorting strikes terror.
[21]He paws in the valley, and rejoices in his strength;
He gallops into the clash of arms.
[22]He mocks at fear, and is not frightened;
Nor does he turn back from the sword.
[23]The quiver rattles against him,
The glittering spear and javelin.
[24]He devours the distance with fierceness and rage;
Nor does he come to a halt because the trumpet has sounded.
[25]At the blast of the trumpet he says, 'Aha!'
He smells the battle from afar,
The thunder of captains and shouting.

[26]"Does the hawk fly by your wisdom,
And spread its wings toward the south?
[27]Does the eagle mount up at your command,
And make its nest on high?
[28]On the rock it dwells and resides,
On the crag of the rock and the stronghold.
[29]From there it spies out the prey;
Its eyes observe from afar.
[30]Its young ones suck up blood;

And where the slain are, there it is.”

Job 40

[1]Moreover the LORD answered Job, and said:

[2]"Shall the one who contends with the Almighty correct Him?
He who rebukes God, let him answer it."

Job's Response to God

[3]Then Job answered the LORD and said:

[4]"Behold, I am vile;
What shall I answer You?
I lay my hand over my mouth.
[5]Once I have spoken, but I will not answer;
Yes, twice, but I will proceed no further."

God's Challenge to Job

[6]Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said:

[7]"Now prepare yourself like a man;
I will question you, and you shall answer Me:

[8]"Would you indeed annul My judgment?
Would you condemn Me that you may be justified?
[9]Have you an arm like God?
Or can you thunder with a voice like His?
[10]Then adorn yourself with majesty and splendor,
And array yourself with glory and beauty.
[11]Disperse the rage of your wrath;
Look on everyone who is proud, and humble him.
[12]Look on everyone who is proud, and bring him low;
Tread down the wicked in their place.
[13]Hide them in the dust together,
Bind their faces in hidden darkness.

[14]Then I will also confess to you
That your own right hand can save you.

[15]“Look now at the behemoth, which I made along with you;
He eats grass like an ox.
[16]See now, his strength is in his hips,
And his power is in his stomach muscles.
[17]He moves his tail like a cedar;
The sinews of his thighs are tightly knit.
[18]His bones are like beams of bronze,
His ribs like bars of iron.
[19]He is the first of the ways of God;
Only He who made him can bring near His sword.
[20]Surely the mountains yield food for him,
And all the beasts of the field play there.
[21]He lies under the lotus trees,
In a covert of reeds and marsh.
[22]The lotus trees cover him with their shade;
The willows by the brook surround him.
[23]Indeed the river may rage,
Yet he is not disturbed;
He is confident, though the Jordan gushes into his mouth,
[24]Though he takes it in his eyes,
Or one pierces his nose with a snare.

Job 41

[1]“Can you draw out Leviathan with a hook,
Or snare his tongue with a line which you lower?
[2]Can you put a reed through his nose,
Or pierce his jaw with a hook?
[3]Will he make many supplications to you?
Will he speak softly to you?
[4]Will he make a covenant with you?
Will you take him as a servant forever?
[5]Will you play with him as with a bird,
Or will you leash him for your maidens?
[6]Will your companions make a banquet of him?
Will they apportion him among the merchants?
[7]Can you fill his skin with harpoons,
Or his head with fishing spears?
[8]Lay your hand on him;
Remember the battle—
Never do it again!
[9]Indeed, any hope of overcoming him is false;
Shall one not be overwhelmed at the sight of him?
[10]No one is so fierce that he would dare stir him up.
Who then is able to stand against Me?
[11]Who has preceded Me, that I should pay him?
Everything under heaven is Mine.

[12]“I will not conceal his limbs,
His mighty power, or his graceful proportions.
[13]Who can remove his outer coat?
Who can approach him with a double bridle?
[14]Who can open the doors of his face,
With his terrible teeth all around?
[15]His rows of scales are his pride,
Shut up tightly as with a seal;

[16]One is so near another
That no air can come between them;
[17]They are joined one to another,
They stick together and cannot be parted.
[18]His sneezings flash forth light,
And his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.
[19]Out of his mouth go burning lights;
Sparks of fire shoot out.
[20]Smoke goes out of his nostrils,
As from a boiling pot and burning rushes.
[21]His breath kindles coals,
And a flame goes out of his mouth.
[22]Strength dwells in his neck,
And sorrow dances before him.
[23]The folds of his flesh are joined together;
They are firm on him and cannot be moved.
[24]His heart is as hard as stone,
Even as hard as the lower millstone.
[25]When he raises himself up, the mighty are afraid;
Because of his crashings they are beside themselves.
[26]Though the sword reaches him, it cannot avail;
Nor does spear, dart, or javelin.
[27]He regards iron as straw,
And bronze as rotten wood.
[28]The arrow cannot make him flee;
Slingstones become like stubble to him.
[29]Darts are regarded as straw;
He laughs at the threat of javelins.
[30]His undersides are like sharp potsherds;
He spreads pointed marks in the mire.
[31]He makes the deep boil like a pot;
He makes the sea like a pot of ointment.
[32]He leaves a shining wake behind him;
One would think the deep had white hair.
[33]On earth there is nothing like him,

Which is made without fear.
[34]He beholds every high thing;
He is king over all the children of pride.”

Job 42

Job's Repentance and Restoration

[1]Then Job answered the LORD and said:

> [2]"I know that You can do everything,
> And that no purpose of Yours can be withheld from You.
> [3]You asked, 'Who is this who hides counsel without knowledge?'
> Therefore I have uttered what I did not understand,
> Things too wonderful for me, which I did not know.
> [4]Listen, please, and let me speak;
> You said, 'I will question you, and you shall answer Me.'
> [5]"I have heard of You by the hearing of the ear,
> But now my eye sees You.
> [6]Therefore I abhor myself,
> And repent in dust and ashes."

[7]And so it was, after the LORD had spoken these words to Job, that the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, "My wrath is aroused against you and your two friends, for you have not spoken of Me what is right, as My servant Job has.

[8]"Now therefore, take for yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, go to My servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and My servant Job shall pray for you. For I will accept him, lest I deal with you according to your folly; because you have not spoken of Me what is right, as My servant Job has."

[9]So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went and did as the LORD commanded them; for the LORD had accepted Job.

[10]And the LORD restored Job's losses when he prayed for his friends. Indeed the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before.

[11]Then all his brothers, all his sisters, and all those who had been his acquaintances before, came to him and ate food with him in his house; and they consoled him and comforted him for all the adversity that the LORD had brought upon him. Each one gave him a piece of silver and each a ring of gold.

[12]Now the LORD blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning; for he had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, one thousand yoke of oxen, and one thousand female donkeys.

[13]He also had seven sons and three daughters.

[14]And he called the name of the first Jemimah, the name of the second Keziah, and the name of the third Keren-Happuch.

[15]In all the land were found no women so beautiful as the daughters of Job; and their father gave them an inheritance among their brothers.

[16]After this Job lived one hundred and forty years, and saw his children and grandchildren for four generations.

[17]So Job died, old and full of days.

BOOK ONE

Psalms 1—41

Psalm 1

The Way of the Righteous and the End of the Ungodly

[1]Blessed is the man
Who walks not in the counsel of the ungodly,
Nor stands in the path of sinners,
Nor sits in the seat of the scornful;
[2]But his delight is in the law of the LORD,
And in His law he meditates day and night.
[3]He shall be like a tree
Planted by the rivers of water,
That brings forth its fruit in its season,
Whose leaf also shall not wither;
And whatever he does shall prosper.

[4]The ungodly are not so,
But are like the chaff which the wind drives away.
[5]Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment,
Nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

[6]For the LORD knows the way of the righteous,
But the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Psalm 2

The Messiah's Triumph and Kingdom

[1]Why do the nations rage,
And the people plot a vain thing?
[2]The kings of the earth set themselves,
And the rulers take counsel together,
Against the LORD and against His Anointed, saying,
[3]"Let us break Their bonds in pieces
And cast away Their cords from us."

[4]He who sits in the heavens shall laugh;
The LORD shall hold them in derision.
[5]Then He shall speak to them in His wrath,
And distress them in His deep displeasure:
[6]"Yet I have set My King
On My holy hill of Zion."

[7]"I will declare the decree:
The LORD has said to Me,
'You are My Son,
Today I have begotten You.
[8]Ask of Me, and I will give You
The nations for Your inheritance,
And the ends of the earth for Your possession.
[9]You shall break them with a rod of iron;
You shall dash them to pieces like a potter's vessel.' "

[10]Now therefore, be wise, O kings;
Be instructed, you judges of the earth.
[11]Serve the LORD with fear,
And rejoice with trembling.
[12]Kiss the Son, lest He be angry,
And you perish in the way,
When His wrath is kindled but a little.

Blessed are all those who put their trust in Him.

Psalm 3

The LORD Helps His Troubled People

A Psalm of David when he fled from Absalom his son.

[1]LORD, how they have increased who trouble me!
Many are they who rise up against me.
[2]Many are they who say of me,
"There is no help for him in God." Selah

[3]But You, O LORD, are a shield for me,
My glory and the One who lifts up my head.
[4]I cried to the LORD with my voice,
And He heard me from His holy hill. Selah

[5]I lay down and slept;
I awoke, for the LORD sustained me.
[6]I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people
Who have set themselves against me all around.

[7]Arise, O LORD;
Save me, O my God!
For You have struck all my enemies on the cheekbone;
You have broken the teeth of the ungodly.
[8]Salvation belongs to the LORD.
Your blessing is upon Your people. Selah

Psalm 4

The Safety of the Faithful

To the Chief Musician. With stringed instruments. A Psalm of David.

[1]Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness!
You have relieved me in my distress;
Have mercy on me, and hear my prayer.

[2]How long, O you sons of men,
Will you turn my glory to shame?
How long will you love worthlessness
And seek falsehood? Selah
[3]But know that the LORD has set apart for Himself him who is godly;
The LORD will hear when I call to Him.

[4]Be angry, and do not sin.
Meditate within your heart on your bed, and be still. Selah
[5]Offer the sacrifices of righteousness,
And put your trust in the LORD.

[6]There are many who say,
"Who will show us any good?"
LORD, lift up the light of Your countenance upon us.
[7]You have put gladness in my heart,
More than in the season that their grain and wine increased.
[8]I will both lie down in peace, and sleep;
For You alone, O LORD, make me dwell in safety.

Psalm 5

A Prayer for Guidance

To the Chief Musician. With flutes. A Psalm of David.

[1]Give ear to my words, O LORD,
Consider my meditation.
[2]Give heed to the voice of my cry,
My King and my God,
For to You I will pray.
[3]My voice You shall hear in the morning, O LORD;
In the morning I will direct it to You,
And I will look up.

[4]For You are not a God who takes pleasure in wickedness,
Nor shall evil dwell with You.
[5]The boastful shall not stand in Your sight;
You hate all workers of iniquity.
[6]You shall destroy those who speak falsehood;
The LORD abhors the bloodthirsty and deceitful man.

[7]But as for me, I will come into Your house in the multitude of Your mercy;
In fear of You I will worship toward Your holy temple.
[8]Lead me, O LORD, in Your righteousness because of my enemies;
Make Your way straight before my face.

[9]For there is no faithfulness in their mouth;
Their inward part is destruction;
Their throat is an open tomb;
They flatter with their tongue.
[10]Pronounce them guilty, O God!
Let them fall by their own counsels;
Cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions,
For they have rebelled against You.

[11]But let all those rejoice who put their trust in You;
Let them ever shout for joy, because You defend them;
Let those also who love Your name
Be joyful in You.
[12]For You, O LORD, will bless the righteous;
With favor You will surround him as with a shield.

Psalm 6

A Prayer of Faith in Time of Distress

To the Chief Musician. With stringed instruments. On an eight-stringed harp. A Psalm of David.

[1]O LORD, do not rebuke me in Your anger,
Nor chasten me in Your hot displeasure.
[2]Have mercy on me, O LORD, for I am weak;
O LORD, heal me, for my bones are troubled.
[3]My soul also is greatly troubled;
But You, O LORD—how long?

[4]Return, O LORD, deliver me!
Oh, save me for Your mercies' sake!
[5]For in death there is no remembrance of You;
In the grave who will give You thanks?

[6]I am weary with my groaning;
All night I make my bed swim;
I drench my couch with my tears.
[7]My eye wastes away because of grief;
It grows old because of all my enemies.

[8]Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity;
For the LORD has heard the voice of my weeping.
[9]The LORD has heard my supplication;
The LORD will receive my prayer.
[10]Let all my enemies be ashamed and greatly troubled;
Let them turn back and be ashamed suddenly.

Psalm 7

Prayer and Praise for Deliverance from Enemies

A Meditation of David, which he sang to the LORD concerning the words of Cush, a Benjamite.

[1]O LORD my God, in You I put my trust;
Save me from all those who persecute me;
And deliver me,
[2]Lest they tear me like a lion,
Rending me in pieces, while there is none to deliver.

[3]O LORD my God, if I have done this:
If there is iniquity in my hands,
[4]If I have repaid evil to him who was at peace with me,
Or have plundered my enemy without cause,
[5]Let the enemy pursue me and overtake me;
Yes, let him trample my life to the earth,
And lay my honor in the dust. Selah

[6]Arise, O LORD, in Your anger;
Lift Yourself up because of the rage of my enemies;
Rise up for me to the judgment You have commanded!
[7]So the congregation of the peoples shall surround You;
For their sakes, therefore, return on high.
[8]The LORD shall judge the peoples;
Judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness,
And according to my integrity within me.

[9]Oh, let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end,
But establish the just;
For the righteous God tests the hearts and minds.
[10]My defense is of God,
Who saves the upright in heart.

[11]God is a just judge,

And God is angry with the wicked every day.
[12]If he does not turn back,
He will sharpen His sword;
He bends His bow and makes it ready.
[13]He also prepares for Himself instruments of death;
He makes His arrows into fiery shafts.

[14]Behold, the wicked brings forth iniquity;
Yes, he conceives trouble and brings forth falsehood.
[15]He made a pit and dug it out,
And has fallen into the ditch which he made.
[16]His trouble shall return upon his own head,
And his violent dealing shall come down on his own crown.

[17]I will praise the LORD according to His righteousness,
And will sing praise to the name of the LORD Most High.

Psalm 8

The Glory of the LORD in Creation

To the Chief Musician. On the instrument of Gath. A Psalm of David.

[1]O LORD, our Lord,
How excellent is Your name in all the earth,
Who have set Your glory above the heavens!

[2]Out of the mouth of babes and nursing infants
You have ordained strength,
Because of Your enemies,
That You may silence the enemy and the avenger.

[3]When I consider Your heavens, the work of Your fingers,
The moon and the stars, which You have ordained,
[4]What is man that You are mindful of him,
And the son of man that You visit him?
[5]For You have made him a little lower than the angels,
And You have crowned him with glory and honor.

[6]You have made him to have dominion over the works of Your hands;
You have put all things under his feet,
[7]All sheep and oxen—
Even the beasts of the field,
[8]The birds of the air,
And the fish of the sea
That pass through the paths of the seas.

[9]O LORD, our Lord,
How excellent is Your name in all the earth!

Psalm 9

Prayer and Thanksgiving for the LORD’s Righteous Judgments

To the Chief Musician. To the tune of ���Death of the Son.” A Psalm of David.

[1]I will praise You, O LORD, with my whole heart;
I will tell of all Your marvelous works.
[2]I will be glad and rejoice in You;
I will sing praise to Your name, O Most High.

[3]When my enemies turn back,
They shall fall and perish at Your presence.
[4]For You have maintained my right and my cause;
You sat on the throne judging in righteousness.
[5]You have rebuked the nations,
You have destroyed the wicked;
You have blotted out their name forever and ever.

[6]O enemy, destructions are finished forever!
And you have destroyed cities;
Even their memory has perished.
[7]But the LORD shall endure forever;
He has prepared His throne for judgment.
[8]He shall judge the world in righteousness,
And He shall administer judgment for the peoples in uprightness.

[9]The LORD also will be a refuge for the oppressed,
A refuge in times of trouble.
[10]And those who know Your name will put their trust in You;
For You, LORD, have not forsaken those who seek You.

[11]Sing praises to the LORD, who dwells in Zion!
Declare His deeds among the people.

[12]When He avenges blood, He remembers them;
He does not forget the cry of the humble.

[13]Have mercy on me, O LORD!
Consider my trouble from those who hate me,
You who lift me up from the gates of death,
[14]That I may tell of all Your praise
In the gates of the daughter of Zion.
I will rejoice in Your salvation.

[15]The nations have sunk down in the pit which they made;
In the net which they hid, their own foot is caught.
[16]The LORD is known by the judgment He executes;
The wicked is snared in the work of his own hands.
Meditation. Selah

[17]The wicked shall be turned into hell,
And all the nations that forget God.
[18]For the needy shall not always be forgotten;
The expectation of the poor shall not perish forever.

[19]Arise, O LORD,
Do not let man prevail;
Let the nations be judged in Your sight.
[20]Put them in fear, O LORD,
That the nations may know themselves to be but men. Selah

Psalm 10

A Song of Confidence in God's Triumph over Evil

[1]Why do You stand afar off, O LORD?
Why do You hide in times of trouble?
[2]The wicked in his pride persecutes the poor;
Let them be caught in the plots which they have devised.

[3]For the wicked boasts of his heart's desire;
He blesses the greedy and renounces the LORD.
[4]The wicked in his proud countenance does not seek God;
God is in none of his thoughts.

[5]His ways are always prospering;
Your judgments are far above, out of his sight;
As for all his enemies, he sneers at them.
[6]He has said in his heart, "I shall not be moved;
I shall never be in adversity."
[7]His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and oppression;
Under his tongue is trouble and iniquity.

[8]He sits in the lurking places of the villages;
In the secret places he murders the innocent;
His eyes are secretly fixed on the helpless.
[9]He lies in wait secretly, as a lion in his den;
He lies in wait to catch the poor;
He catches the poor when he draws him into his net.
[10]So he crouches, he lies low,
That the helpless may fall by his strength.
[11]He has said in his heart,
"God has forgotten;
He hides His face;
He will never see."

[12]Arise, O LORD!

O God, lift up Your hand!
Do not forget the humble.
[13]Why do the wicked renounce God?
He has said in his heart,
“You will not require an account.”

[14]But You have seen, for You observe trouble and grief,
To repay it by Your hand.
The helpless commits himself to You;
You are the helper of the fatherless.
[15]Break the arm of the wicked and the evil man;
Seek out his wickedness until You find none.

[16]The LORD is King forever and ever;
The nations have perished out of His land.
[17]LORD, You have heard the desire of the humble;
You will prepare their heart;
You will cause Your ear to hear,
[18]To do justice to the fatherless and the oppressed,
That the man of the earth may oppress no more.

Psalm 11

Faith in the LORD's Righteousness

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

[1]In the LORD I put my trust;
How can you say to my soul,
"Flee as a bird to your mountain"?
[2]For look! The wicked bend their bow,
They make ready their arrow on the string,
That they may shoot secretly at the upright in heart.
[3]If the foundations are destroyed,
What can the righteous do?

[4]The LORD is in His holy temple,
The LORD's throne is in heaven;
His eyes behold,
His eyelids test the sons of men.
[5]The LORD tests the righteous,
But the wicked and the one who loves violence His soul hates.
[6]Upon the wicked He will rain coals;
Fire and brimstone and a burning wind
Shall be the portion of their cup.

[7]For the LORD is righteous,
He loves righteousness;
His countenance beholds the upright.

Psalm 12

Man's Treachery and God's Constancy

To the Chief Musician. On an eight-stringed harp. A Psalm of David.

[1]Help, LORD, for the godly man ceases!
For the faithful disappear from among the sons of men.
[2]They speak idly everyone with his neighbor;
With flattering lips and a double heart they speak.

[3]May the LORD cut off all flattering lips,
And the tongue that speaks proud things,
[4]Who have said,
"With our tongue we will prevail;
Our lips are our own;
Who is lord over us?"

[5]"For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy,
Now I will arise," says the LORD;
"I will set him in the safety for which he yearns."

[6]The words of the LORD are pure words,
Like silver tried in a furnace of earth,
Purified seven times.
[7]You shall keep them, O LORD,
You shall preserve them from this generation forever.

[8]The wicked prowl on every side,
When vileness is exalted among the sons of men.

Psalm 13

Trust in the Salvation of the LORD

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

[1]How long, O LORD? Will You forget me forever?
How long will You hide Your face from me?
[2]How long shall I take counsel in my soul,
Having sorrow in my heart daily?
How long will my enemy be exalted over me?

[3]Consider and hear me, O LORD my God;
Enlighten my eyes,
Lest I sleep the sleep of death;
[4]Lest my enemy say,
"I have prevailed against him";
Lest those who trouble me rejoice when I am moved.

[5]But I have trusted in Your mercy;
My heart shall rejoice in Your salvation.
[6]I will sing to the LORD,
Because He has dealt bountifully with me.

Psalm 14

Folly of the Godless, and God's Final Triumph

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

[1]The fool has said in his heart,
"There is no God."
They are corrupt,
They have done abominable works,
There is none who does good.

[2]The LORD looks down from heaven upon the children of men,
To see if there are any who understand, who seek God.
[3]They have all turned aside,
They have together become corrupt;
There is none who does good,
No, not one.

[4]Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge,
Who eat up my people as they eat bread,
And do not call on the LORD?
[5]There they are in great fear,
For God is with the generation of the righteous.
[6]You shame the counsel of the poor,
But the LORD is his refuge.

[7]Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion!
When the LORD brings back the captivity of His people,
Let Jacob rejoice and Israel be glad.

Psalm 15

The Character of Those Who May Dwell with the LORD

A Psalm of David.

[1]LORD, who may abide in Your tabernacle?
Who may dwell in Your holy hill?

[2]He who walks uprightly,
And works righteousness,
And speaks the truth in his heart;
[3]He who does not backbite with his tongue,
Nor does evil to his neighbor,
Nor does he take up a reproach against his friend;
[4]In whose eyes a vile person is despised,
But he honors those who fear the LORD;
He who swears to his own hurt and does not change;
[5]He who does not put out his money at usury,
Nor does he take a bribe against the innocent.
He who does these things shall never be moved.

Psalm 16

The Hope of the Faithful, and the Messiah’s Victory

A Michtam of David.

[1]Preserve me, O God, for in You I put my trust.

[2]O my soul, you have said to the LORD,
“You are my Lord,
My goodness is nothing apart from You.”
[3]As for the saints who are on the earth,
“They are the excellent ones, in whom is all my delight.”

[4]Their sorrows shall be multiplied who hasten after another god;
Their drink offerings of blood I will not offer,
Nor take up their names on my lips.

[5]O LORD, You are the portion of my inheritance and my cup;
You maintain my lot.
[6]The lines have fallen to me in pleasant places;
Yes, I have a good inheritance.

[7]I will bless the LORD who has given me counsel;
My heart also instructs me in the night seasons.
[8]I have set the LORD always before me;
Because He is at my right hand I shall not be moved.

[9]Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoices;
My flesh also will rest in hope.
[10]For You will not leave my soul in Sheol,
Nor will You allow Your Holy One to see corruption.
[11]You will show me the path of life;
In Your presence is fullness of joy;
At Your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

Psalm 17

Prayer with Confidence in Final Salvation

A Prayer of David.

[1]Hear a just cause, O LORD,
Attend to my cry;
Give ear to my prayer which is not from deceitful lips.
[2]Let my vindication come from Your presence;
Let Your eyes look on the things that are upright.

[3]You have tested my heart;
You have visited me in the night;
You have tried me and have found nothing;
I have purposed that my mouth shall not transgress.
[4]Concerning the works of men,
By the word of Your lips,
I have kept away from the paths of the destroyer.
[5]Uphold my steps in Your paths,
That my footsteps may not slip.

[6]I have called upon You, for You will hear me, O God;
Incline Your ear to me, and hear my speech.
[7]Show Your marvelous lovingkindness by Your right hand,
O You who save those who trust in You
From those who rise up against them.
[8]Keep me as the apple of Your eye;
Hide me under the shadow of Your wings,
[9]From the wicked who oppress me,
From my deadly enemies who surround me.

[10]They have closed up their fat hearts;
With their mouths they speak proudly.
[11]They have now surrounded us in our steps;
They have set their eyes, crouching down to the earth,

[12]As a lion is eager to tear his prey,
And like a young lion lurking in secret places.

[13]Arise, O LORD,
Confront him, cast him down;
Deliver my life from the wicked with Your sword,
[14]With Your hand from men, O LORD,
From men of the world who have their portion in this life,
And whose belly You fill with Your hidden treasure.
They are satisfied with children,
And leave the rest of their possession for their babes.

[15]As for me, I will see Your face in righteousness;
I shall be satisfied when I awake in Your likeness.

Psalm 18

God the Sovereign Savior

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD, who spoke to the LORD the words of this song on the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. And he said:

[1]I WILL love You, O LORD, my strength.
[2]The LORD is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer;
My God, my strength, in whom I will trust;
My shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold.
[3]I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised;
So shall I be saved from my enemies.

[4]The pangs of death surrounded me,
And the floods of ungodliness made me afraid.
[5]The sorrows of Sheol surrounded me;
The snares of death confronted me.
[6]In my distress I called upon the LORD,
And cried out to my God;
He heard my voice from His temple,
And my cry came before Him, even to His ears.

[7]Then the earth shook and trembled;
The foundations of the hills also quaked and were shaken,
Because He was angry.
[8]Smoke went up from His nostrils,
And devouring fire from His mouth;
Coals were kindled by it.
[9]He bowed the heavens also, and came down
With darkness under His feet.
[10]And He rode upon a cherub, and flew;
He flew upon the wings of the wind.
[11]He made darkness His secret place;

His canopy around Him was dark waters
And thick clouds of the skies.
[12]From the brightness before Him,
His thick clouds passed with hailstones and coals of fire.

[13]The LORD thundered from heaven,
And the Most High uttered His voice,
Hailstones and coals of fire.
[14]He sent out His arrows and scattered the foe,
Lightnings in abundance, and He vanquished them.
[15]Then the channels of the sea were seen,
The foundations of the world were uncovered
At Your rebuke, O LORD,
At the blast of the breath of Your nostrils.

[16]He sent from above, He took me;
He drew me out of many waters.
[17]He delivered me from my strong enemy,
From those who hated me,
For they were too strong for me.
[18]They confronted me in the day of my calamity,
But the LORD was my support.
[19]He also brought me out into a broad place;
He delivered me because He delighted in me.

[20]The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness;
According to the cleanness of my hands
He has recompensed me.
[21]For I have kept the ways of the LORD,
And have not wickedly departed from my God.
[22]For all His judgments were before me,
And I did not put away His statutes from me.
[23]I was also blameless before Him,
And I kept myself from my iniquity.
[24]Therefore the LORD has recompensed me according to my righteousness,

According to the cleanness of my hands in His sight.

[25]With the merciful You will show Yourself merciful;
With a blameless man You will show Yourself blameless;
[26]With the pure You will show Yourself pure;
And with the devious You will show Yourself shrewd.
[27]For You will save the humble people,
But will bring down haughty looks.

[28]For You will light my lamp;
The LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.
[29]For by You I can run against a troop,
By my God I can leap over a wall.
[30]As for God, His way is perfect;
The word of the LORD is proven;
He is a shield to all who trust in Him.

[31]For who is God, except the LORD?
And who is a rock, except our God?
[32]It is God who arms me with strength,
And makes my way perfect.
[33]He makes my feet like the feet of deer,
And sets me on my high places.
[34]He teaches my hands to make war,
So that my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

[35]You have also given me the shield of Your salvation;
Your right hand has held me up,
Your gentleness has made me great.
[36]You enlarged my path under me,
So my feet did not slip.

[37]I have pursued my enemies and overtaken them;
Neither did I turn back again till they were destroyed.
[38]I have wounded them,
So that they could not rise;
They have fallen under my feet.

[39]For You have armed me with strength for the battle;
You have subdued under me those who rose up against me.
[40]You have also given me the necks of my enemies,
So that I destroyed those who hated me.
[41]They cried out, but there was none to save;
Even to the LORD, but He did not answer them.
[42]Then I beat them as fine as the dust before the wind;
I cast them out like dirt in the streets.

[43]You have delivered me from the strivings of the people;
You have made me the head of the nations;
A people I have not known shall serve me.
[44]As soon as they hear of me they obey me;
The foreigners submit to me.
[45]The foreigners fade away,
And come frightened from their hideouts.

[46]The LORD lives!
Blessed be my Rock!
Let the God of my salvation be exalted.
[47]It is God who avenges me,
And subdues the peoples under me;
[48]He delivers me from my enemies.
You also lift me up above those who rise against me;
You have delivered me from the violent man.
[49]Therefore I will give thanks to You, O LORD, among the Gentiles,
And sing praises to Your name.

[50]Great deliverance He gives to His king,
And shows mercy to His anointed,
To David and his descendants forevermore.

Psalm 19

The Perfect Revelation of the LORD

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

[1]The heavens declare the glory of God;
And the firmament shows His handiwork.
[2]Day unto day utters speech,
And night unto night reveals knowledge.
[3]There is no speech nor language
Where their voice is not heard.
[4]Their line has gone out through all the earth,
And their words to the end of the world.
In them He has set a tabernacle for the sun,
[5]Which is like a bridegroom coming out of his chamber,
And rejoices like a strong man to run its race.
[6]Its rising is from one end of heaven,
And its circuit to the other end;
And there is nothing hidden from its heat.

[7]The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul;
The testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple;
[8]The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart;
The commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes;
[9]The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring forever;
The judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.
[10]More to be desired are they than gold,
Yea, than much fine gold;
Sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.
[11]Moreover by them Your servant is warned,
And in keeping them there is great reward.

[12]Who can understand his errors?

Cleanse me from secret faults.
[13]Keep back Your servant also from presumptuous sins;
Let them not have dominion over me.
Then I shall be blameless,
And I shall be innocent of great transgression.

[14]Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart
Be acceptable in Your sight,
O LORD, my strength and my Redeemer.

Psalm 20

The Assurance of God's Saving Work

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

[1]May the LORD answer you in the day of trouble;
May the name of the God of Jacob defend you;
[2]May He send you help from the sanctuary,
And strengthen you out of Zion;
[3]May He remember all your offerings,
And accept your burnt sacrifice. Selah

[4]May He grant you according to your heart's desire,
And fulfill all your purpose.
[5]We will rejoice in your salvation,
And in the name of our God we will set up our banners!
May the LORD fulfill all your petitions.

[6]Now I know that the LORD saves His anointed;
He will answer him from His holy heaven
With the saving strength of His right hand.

[7]Some trust in chariots, and some in horses;
But we will remember the name of the LORD our God.
[8]They have bowed down and fallen;
But we have risen and stand upright.

[9]Save, LORD!
May the King answer us when we call.

Psalm 21

Joy in the Salvation of the LORD

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

[1]The king shall have joy in Your strength, O LORD;
And in Your salvation how greatly shall he rejoice!
[2]You have given him his heart's desire,
And have not withheld the request of his lips. Selah

[3]For You meet him with the blessings of goodness;
You set a crown of pure gold upon his head.
[4]He asked life from You, and You gave it to him—
Length of days forever and ever.
[5]His glory is great in Your salvation;
Honor and majesty You have placed upon him.
[6]For You have made him most blessed forever;
You have made him exceedingly glad with Your presence.
[7]For the king trusts in the LORD,
And through the mercy of the Most High he shall not be moved.

[8]Your hand will find all Your enemies;
Your right hand will find those who hate You.
[9]You shall make them as a fiery oven in the time of Your anger;
The LORD shall swallow them up in His wrath,
And the fire shall devour them.
[10]Their offspring You shall destroy from the earth,
And their descendants from among the sons of men.
[11]For they intended evil against You;
They devised a plot which they are not able to perform.
[12]Therefore You will make them turn their back;
You will make ready Your arrows on Your string toward their faces.

[13]Be exalted, O LORD, in Your own strength!
We will sing and praise Your power.

Psalm 22

The Suffering, Praise, and Posterity of the Messiah

To the Chief Musician. Set to “The Deer of the Dawn.” A Psalm of David.

[1]My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?
Why are You so far from helping Me,
And from the words of My groaning?
[2]O My God, I cry in the daytime, but You do not hear;
And in the night season, and am not silent.

[3]But You are holy,
Enthroned in the praises of Israel.
[4]Our fathers trusted in You;
They trusted, and You delivered them.
[5]They cried to You, and were delivered;
They trusted in You, and were not ashamed.

[6]But I am a worm, and no man;
A reproach of men, and despised by the people.
[7]All those who see Me ridicule Me;
They shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying,
[8]“He trusted in the LORD, let Him rescue Him;
Let Him deliver Him, since He delights in Him!”

[9]But You are He who took Me out of the womb;
You made Me trust while on My mother’s breasts.
[10]I was cast upon You from birth.
From My mother’s womb
You have been My God.
[11]Be not far from Me,
For trouble is near;
For there is none to help.

[12]Many bulls have surrounded Me;

Strong bulls of Bashan have encircled Me.
[13]They gape at Me with their mouths,
Like a raging and roaring lion.

[14]I am poured out like water,
And all My bones are out of joint;
My heart is like wax;
It has melted within Me.
[15]My strength is dried up like a potsherd,
And My tongue clings to My jaws;
You have brought Me to the dust of death.

[16]For dogs have surrounded Me;
The congregation of the wicked has enclosed Me.
They pierced My hands and My feet;
[17]I can count all My bones.
They look and stare at Me.
[18]They divide My garments among them,
And for My clothing they cast lots.

[19]But You, O LORD, do not be far from Me;
O My Strength, hasten to help Me!
[20]Deliver Me from the sword,
My precious life from the power of the dog.
[21]Save Me from the lion’s mouth
And from the horns of the wild oxen!
You have answered Me.

[22]I will declare Your name to My brethren;
In the midst of the assembly I will praise You.
[23]You who fear the LORD, praise Him!
All you descendants of Jacob, glorify Him,
And fear Him, all you offspring of Israel!
[24]For He has not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted;
Nor has He hidden His face from Him;
But when He cried to Him, He heard.

[25]My praise shall be of You in the great assembly;
I will pay My vows before those who fear Him.
[26]The poor shall eat and be satisfied;
Those who seek Him will praise the LORD.
Let your heart live forever!

[27]All the ends of the world
Shall remember and turn to the LORD,
And all the families of the nations
Shall worship before You.
[28]For the kingdom is the LORD's,
And He rules over the nations.

[29]All the prosperous of the earth
Shall eat and worship;
All those who go down to the dust
Shall bow before Him,
Even he who cannot keep himself alive.

[30]A posterity shall serve Him.
It will be recounted of the Lord to the next generation,
[31]They will come and declare His righteousness to a people who will be born,
That He has done this.

Psalm 23

The LORD the Shepherd of His People

A Psalm of David.

[1]The LORD is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
[2]He makes me to lie down in green pastures;
He leads me beside the still waters.
[3]He restores my soul;
He leads me in the paths of righteousness
For His name's sake.

[4]Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil;
For You are with me;
Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.

[5]You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
You anoint my head with oil;
My cup runs over.
[6]Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
All the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD
Forever.

Psalm 24

The King of Glory and His Kingdom

A Psalm of David.

[1]The earth is the LORD's, and all its fullness,
The world and those who dwell therein.
[2]For He has founded it upon the seas,
And established it upon the waters.

[3]Who may ascend into the hill of the LORD?
Or who may stand in His holy place?
[4]He who has clean hands and a pure heart,
Who has not lifted up his soul to an idol,
Nor sworn deceitfully.
[5]He shall receive blessing from the LORD,
And righteousness from the God of his salvation.
[6]This is Jacob, the generation of those who seek Him,
Who seek Your face. Selah

[7]Lift up your heads, O you gates!
And be lifted up, you everlasting doors!
And the King of glory shall come in.
[8]Who is this King of glory?
The LORD strong and mighty,
The LORD mighty in battle.
[9]Lift up your heads, O you gates!
Lift up, you everlasting doors!
And the King of glory shall come in.
[10]Who is this King of glory?
The LORD of hosts,
He is the King of glory. Selah

Psalm 25

A Plea for Deliverance and Forgiveness

A Psalm of David.

[1]To You, O LORD, I lift up my soul.
[2]O my God, I trust in You;
Let me not be ashamed;
Let not my enemies triumph over me.
[3]Indeed, let no one who waits on You be ashamed;
Let those be ashamed who deal treacherously without cause.

[4]Show me Your ways, O LORD;
Teach me Your paths.
[5]Lead me in Your truth and teach me,
For You are the God of my salvation;
On You I wait all the day.

[6]Remember, O LORD, Your tender mercies and Your lovingkindnesses,
For they are from of old.
[7]Do not remember the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions;
According to Your mercy remember me,
For Your goodness' sake, O LORD.

[8]Good and upright is the LORD;
Therefore He teaches sinners in the way.
[9]The humble He guides in justice,
And the humble He teaches His way.
[10]All the paths of the LORD are mercy and truth,
To such as keep His covenant and His testimonies.
[11]For Your name's sake, O LORD,
Pardon my iniquity, for it is great.

[12]Who is the man that fears the LORD?

Him shall He teach in the way He chooses.
[13]He himself shall dwell in prosperity,
And his descendants shall inherit the earth.
[14]The secret of the LORD is with those who fear Him,
And He will show them His covenant.
[15]My eyes are ever toward the LORD,
For He shall pluck my feet out of the net.

[16]Turn Yourself to me, and have mercy on me,
For I am desolate and afflicted.
[17]The troubles of my heart have enlarged;
Bring me out of my distresses!
[18]Look on my affliction and my pain,
And forgive all my sins.
[19]Consider my enemies, for they are many;
And they hate me with cruel hatred.
[20]Keep my soul, and deliver me;
Let me not be ashamed, for I put my trust in You.
[21]Let integrity and uprightness preserve me,
For I wait for You.

[22]Redeem Israel, O God,
Out of all their troubles!

Psalm 26

A Prayer for Divine Scrutiny and Redemption

A Psalm of David.

[1]Vindicate me, O LORD,
For I have walked in my integrity.
I have also trusted in the LORD;
I shall not slip.
[2]Examine me, O LORD, and prove me;
Try my mind and my heart.
[3]For Your lovingkindness is before my eyes,
And I have walked in Your truth.
[4]I have not sat with idolatrous mortals,
Nor will I go in with hypocrites.
[5]I have hated the assembly of evildoers,
And will not sit with the wicked.

[6]I will wash my hands in innocence;
So I will go about Your altar, O LORD,
[7]That I may proclaim with the voice of thanksgiving,
And tell of all Your wondrous works.
[8]LORD, I have loved the habitation of Your house,
And the place where Your glory dwells.

[9]Do not gather my soul with sinners,
Nor my life with bloodthirsty men,
[10]In whose hands is a sinister scheme,
And whose right hand is full of bribes.

[11]But as for me, I will walk in my integrity;
Redeem me and be merciful to me.
[12]My foot stands in an even place;
In the congregations I will bless the LORD.

Psalm 27

An Exuberant Declaration of Faith

A Psalm of David.

[1]The LORD is my light and my salvation;
Whom shall I fear?
The LORD is the strength of my life;
Of whom shall I be afraid?
[2]When the wicked came against me
To eat up my flesh,
My enemies and foes,
They stumbled and fell.
[3]Though an army may encamp against me,
My heart shall not fear;
Though war may rise against me,
In this I will be confident.

[4]One thing I have desired of the LORD,
That will I seek:
That I may dwell in the house of the LORD
All the days of my life,
To behold the beauty of the LORD,
And to inquire in His temple.
[5]For in the time of trouble
He shall hide me in His pavilion;
In the secret place of His tabernacle
He shall hide me;
He shall set me high upon a rock.

[6]And now my head shall be lifted up above my enemies all around me;
Therefore I will offer sacrifices of joy in His tabernacle;
I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to the LORD.

[7]Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice!

Have mercy also upon me, and answer me.
[8]When You said, “Seek My face,”
My heart said to You, “Your face, LORD, I will seek.”
[9]Do not hide Your face from me;
Do not turn Your servant away in anger;
You have been my help;
Do not leave me nor forsake me,
O God of my salvation.
[10]When my father and my mother forsake me,
Then the LORD will take care of me.

[11]Teach me Your way, O LORD,
And lead me in a smooth path, because of my enemies.
[12]Do not deliver me to the will of my adversaries;
For false witnesses have risen against me,
And such as breathe out violence.
[13]I would have lost heart, unless I had believed
That I would see the goodness of the LORD
In the land of the living.

[14]Wait on the LORD;
Be of good courage,
And He shall strengthen your heart;
Wait, I say, on the LORD!

Psalm 28

Rejoicing in Answered Prayer

A Psalm of David.

[1]To You I will cry, O LORD my Rock:
Do not be silent to me,
Lest, if You are silent to me,
I become like those who go down to the pit.
[2]Hear the voice of my supplications
When I cry to You,
When I lift up my hands toward Your holy sanctuary.

[3]Do not take me away with the wicked
And with the workers of iniquity,
Who speak peace to their neighbors,
But evil is in their hearts.
[4]Give them according to their deeds,
And according to the wickedness of their endeavors;
Give them according to the work of their hands;
Render to them what they deserve.
[5]Because they do not regard the works of the LORD,
Nor the operation of His hands,
He shall destroy them
And not build them up.

[6]Blessed be the LORD,
Because He has heard the voice of my supplications!
[7]The LORD is my strength and my shield;
My heart trusted in Him, and I am helped;
Therefore my heart greatly rejoices,
And with my song I will praise Him.

[8]The LORD is their strength,
And He is the saving refuge of His anointed.
[9]Save Your people,

And bless Your inheritance;
Shepherd them also,
And bear them up forever.

Psalm 29

Praise to God in His Holiness and Majesty

A Psalm of David.

[1]Give unto the LORD, O you mighty ones,
Give unto the LORD glory and strength.
[2]Give unto the LORD the glory due to His name;
Worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

[3]The voice of the LORD is over the waters;
The God of glory thunders;
The LORD is over many waters.
[4]The voice of the LORD is powerful;
The voice of the LORD is full of majesty.

[5]The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars,
Yes, the LORD splinters the cedars of Lebanon.
[6]He makes them also skip like a calf,
Lebanon and Sirion like a young wild ox.
[7]The voice of the LORD divides the flames of fire.

[8]The voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness;
The LORD shakes the Wilderness of Kadesh.
[9]The voice of the LORD makes the deer give birth,
And strips the forests bare;
And in His temple everyone says, "Glory!"

[10]The LORD sat enthroned at the Flood,
And the LORD sits as King forever.
[11]The LORD will give strength to His people;
The LORD will bless His people with peace.

Psalm 30

The Blessedness of Answered Prayer

A Psalm. A Song at the dedication of the house of David.

[1]I WILL extol You, O LORD, for You have lifted me up,
And have not let my foes rejoice over me.
[2]O LORD my God, I cried out to You,
And You healed me.
[3]O LORD, You brought my soul up from the grave;
You have kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.

[4]Sing praise to the LORD, you saints of His,
And give thanks at the remembrance of His holy name.
[5]For His anger is but for a moment,
His favor is for life;
Weeping may endure for a night,
But joy comes in the morning.

[6]Now in my prosperity I said,
"I shall never be moved."
[7]LORD, by Your favor You have made my mountain stand strong;
You hid Your face, and I was troubled.

[8]I cried out to You, O LORD;
And to the LORD I made supplication:
[9]"What profit is there in my blood,
When I go down to the pit?
Will the dust praise You?
Will it declare Your truth?
[10]Hear, O LORD, and have mercy on me;
LORD, be my helper!"

[11]You have turned for me my mourning into dancing;

You have put off my sackcloth and clothed me with gladness,
[12]To the end that my glory may sing praise to You and not be silent.
O LORD my God, I will give thanks to You forever.

Psalm 31

The LORD a Fortress in Adversity

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

[1]In You, O LORD, I put my trust;
Let me never be ashamed;
Deliver me in Your righteousness.
[2]Bow down Your ear to me,
Deliver me speedily;
Be my rock of refuge,
A fortress of defense to save me.

[3]For You are my rock and my fortress;
Therefore, for Your name's sake,
Lead me and guide me.
[4]Pull me out of the net which they have secretly laid for me,
For You are my strength.
[5]Into Your hand I commit my spirit;
You have redeemed me, O LORD God of truth.

[6]I have hated those who regard useless idols;
But I trust in the LORD.
[7]I will be glad and rejoice in Your mercy,
For You have considered my trouble;
You have known my soul in adversities,
[8]And have not shut me up into the hand of the enemy;
You have set my feet in a wide place.

[9]Have mercy on me, O LORD, for I am in trouble;
My eye wastes away with grief,
Yes, my soul and my body!
[10]For my life is spent with grief,
And my years with sighing;
My strength fails because of my iniquity,
And my bones waste away.

[11]I am a reproach among all my enemies,
But especially among my neighbors,
And am repulsive to my acquaintances;
Those who see me outside flee from me.
[12]I am forgotten like a dead man, out of mind;
I am like a broken vessel.
[13]For I hear the slander of many;
Fear is on every side;
While they take counsel together against me,
They scheme to take away my life.

[14]But as for me, I trust in You, O LORD;
I say, "You are my God."
[15]My times are in Your hand;
Deliver me from the hand of my enemies,
And from those who persecute me.
[16]Make Your face shine upon Your servant;
Save me for Your mercies' sake.
[17]Do not let me be ashamed, O LORD, for I have called upon You;
Let the wicked be ashamed;
Let them be silent in the grave.
[18]Let the lying lips be put to silence,
Which speak insolent things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous.

[19]Oh, how great is Your goodness,
Which You have laid up for those who fear You,
Which You have prepared for those who trust in You
In the presence of the sons of men!
[20]You shall hide them in the secret place of Your presence
From the plots of man;
You shall keep them secretly in a pavilion
From the strife of tongues.

[21]Blessed be the LORD,

For He has shown me His marvelous kindness in a strong city!
[22]For I said in my haste,
"I am cut off from before Your eyes";
Nevertheless You heard the voice of my supplications
When I cried out to You.

[23]Oh, love the LORD, all you His saints!
For the LORD preserves the faithful,
And fully repays the proud person.
[24]Be of good courage,
And He shall strengthen your heart,
All you who hope in the LORD.

Psalm 32

The Joy of Forgiveness

A Psalm of David. A Contemplation.

[1]Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven,
Whose sin is covered.
[2]Blessed is the man to whom the LORD does not impute iniquity,
And in whose spirit there is no deceit.

[3]When I kept silent, my bones grew old
Through my groaning all the day long.
[4]For day and night Your hand was heavy upon me;
My vitality was turned into the drought of summer. Selah
[5]I acknowledged my sin to You,
And my iniquity I have not hidden.
I said, “I will confess my transgressions to the LORD,”
And You forgave the iniquity of my sin. Selah

[6]For this cause everyone who is godly shall pray to You
In a time when You may be found;
Surely in a flood of great waters
They shall not come near him.
[7]You are my hiding place;
You shall preserve me from trouble;
You shall surround me with songs of deliverance. Selah

[8]I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go;
I will guide you with My eye.
[9]Do not be like the horse or like the mule,
Which have no understanding,
Which must be harnessed with bit and bridle,
Else they will not come near you.

[10]Many sorrows shall be to the wicked;

But he who trusts in the LORD, mercy shall surround him.
[11]Be glad in the LORD and rejoice, you righteous;
And shout for joy, all you upright in heart!

Psalm 33

The Sovereignty of the LORD in Creation and History

[1]Rejoice in the LORD, O you righteous!
For praise from the upright is beautiful.
[2]Praise the LORD with the harp;
Make melody to Him with an instrument of ten strings.
[3]Sing to Him a new song;
Play skillfully with a shout of joy.

[4]For the word of the LORD is right,
And all His work is done in truth.
[5]He loves righteousness and justice;
The earth is full of the goodness of the LORD.

[6]By the word of the LORD the heavens were made,
And all the host of them by the breath of His mouth.
[7]He gathers the waters of the sea together as a heap;
He lays up the deep in storehouses.

[8]Let all the earth fear the LORD;
Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of Him.
[9]For He spoke, and it was done;
He commanded, and it stood fast.

[10]The LORD brings the counsel of the nations to nothing;
He makes the plans of the peoples of no effect.
[11]The counsel of the LORD stands forever,
The plans of His heart to all generations.
[12]Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD,
The people He has chosen as His own inheritance.

[13]The LORD looks from heaven;
He sees all the sons of men.
[14]From the place of His dwelling He looks

On all the inhabitants of the earth;
[15]He fashions their hearts individually;
He considers all their works.

[16]No king is saved by the multitude of an army;
A mighty man is not delivered by great strength.
[17]A horse is a vain hope for safety;
Neither shall it deliver any by its great strength.

[18]Behold, the eye of the LORD is on those who fear Him,
On those who hope in His mercy,
[19]To deliver their soul from death,
And to keep them alive in famine.

[20]Our soul waits for the LORD;
He is our help and our shield.
[21]For our heart shall rejoice in Him,
Because we have trusted in His holy name.
[22]Let Your mercy, O LORD, be upon us,
Just as we hope in You.

Psalm 34

The Happiness of Those Who Trust in God

A Psalm of David when he pretended madness before Abimelech, who drove him away, and he departed.

[1]I WILL bless the LORD at all times;
His praise shall continually be in my mouth.
[2]My soul shall make its boast in the LORD;
The humble shall hear of it and be glad.
[3]Oh, magnify the LORD with me,
And let us exalt His name together.

[4]I sought the LORD, and He heard me,
And delivered me from all my fears.
[5]They looked to Him and were radiant,
And their faces were not ashamed.
[6]This poor man cried out, and the LORD heard him,
And saved him out of all his troubles.
[7]The angel of the LORD encamps all around those who fear Him,
And delivers them.

[8]Oh, taste and see that the LORD is good;
Blessed is the man who trusts in Him!
[9]Oh, fear the LORD, you His saints!
There is no want to those who fear Him.
[10]The young lions lack and suffer hunger;
But those who seek the LORD shall not lack any good thing.

[11]Come, you children, listen to me;
I will teach you the fear of the LORD.
[12]Who is the man who desires life,
And loves many days, that he may see good?
[13]Keep your tongue from evil,

And your lips from speaking deceit.
[14]Depart from evil and do good;
Seek peace and pursue it.

[15]The eyes of the LORD are on the righteous,
And His ears are open to their cry.
[16]The face of the LORD is against those who do evil,
To cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

[17]The righteous cry out, and the LORD hears,
And delivers them out of all their troubles.
[18]The LORD is near to those who have a broken heart,
And saves such as have a contrite spirit.

[19]Many are the afflictions of the righteous,
But the LORD delivers him out of them all.
[20]He guards all his bones;
Not one of them is broken.
[21]Evil shall slay the wicked,
And those who hate the righteous shall be condemned.
[22]The LORD redeems the soul of His servants,
And none of those who trust in Him shall be condemned.

Psalm 35

The LORD the Avenger of His People

A Psalm of David.

[1]Plead my cause, O LORD, with those who strive with me;
Fight against those who fight against me.
[2]Take hold of shield and buckler,
And stand up for my help.
[3]Also draw out the spear,
And stop those who pursue me.
Say to my soul,
"I am your salvation."

[4]Let those be put to shame and brought to dishonor
Who seek after my life;
Let those be turned back and brought to confusion
Who plot my hurt.
[5]Let them be like chaff before the wind,
And let the angel of the LORD chase them.
[6]Let their way be dark and slippery,
And let the angel of the LORD pursue them.
[7]For without cause they have hidden their net for me in a pit,
Which they have dug without cause for my life.
[8]Let destruction come upon him unexpectedly,
And let his net that he has hidden catch himself;
Into that very destruction let him fall.

[9]And my soul shall be joyful in the LORD;
It shall rejoice in His salvation.
[10]All my bones shall say,
"LORD, who is like You,
Delivering the poor from him who is too strong for him,
Yes, the poor and the needy from him who plunders him?"

[11]Fierce witnesses rise up;
They ask me things that I do not know.
[12]They reward me evil for good,
To the sorrow of my soul.
[13]But as for me, when they were sick,
My clothing was sackcloth;
I humbled myself with fasting;
And my prayer would return to my own heart.
[14]I paced about as though he were my friend or brother;
I bowed down heavily, as one who mourns for his mother.

[15]But in my adversity they rejoiced
And gathered together;
Attackers gathered against me,
And I did not know it;
They tore at me and did not cease;
[16]With ungodly mockers at feasts
They gnashed at me with their teeth.

[17]Lord, how long will You look on?
Rescue me from their destructions,
My precious life from the lions.
[18]I will give You thanks in the great assembly;
I will praise You among many people.

[19]Let them not rejoice over me who are wrongfully my enemies;
Nor let them wink with the eye who hate me without a cause.
[20]For they do not speak peace,
But they devise deceitful matters
Against the quiet ones in the land.
[21]They also opened their mouth wide against me,
And said, “Aha, aha!
Our eyes have seen it.”

[22]This You have seen, O LORD;

Do not keep silence.
O Lord, do not be far from me.
[23]Stir up Yourself, and awake to my vindication,
To my cause, my God and my Lord.
[24]Vindicate me, O LORD my God, according to Your righteousness;
And let them not rejoice over me.
[25]Let them not say in their hearts, “Ah, so we would have it!”
Let them not say, “We have swallowed him up.”

[26]Let them be ashamed and brought to mutual confusion
Who rejoice at my hurt;
Let them be clothed with shame and dishonor
Who exalt themselves against me.

[27]Let them shout for joy and be glad,
Who favor my righteous cause;
And let them say continually,
“Let the LORD be magnified,
Who has pleasure in the prosperity of His servant.”
[28]And my tongue shall speak of Your righteousness
And of Your praise all the day long.

Psalm 36

Man's Wickedness and God's Perfections

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD.

[1]An oracle within my heart concerning the transgression of the wicked:
There is no fear of God before his eyes.
[2]For he flatters himself in his own eyes,
When he finds out his iniquity and when he hates.
[3]The words of his mouth are wickedness and deceit;
He has ceased to be wise and to do good.
[4]He devises wickedness on his bed;
He sets himself in a way that is not good;
He does not abhor evil.

[5]Your mercy, O LORD, is in the heavens;
Your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.
[6]Your righteousness is like the great mountains;
Your judgments are a great deep;
O LORD, You preserve man and beast.

[7]How precious is Your lovingkindness, O God!
Therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of Your wings.
[8]They are abundantly satisfied with the fullness of Your house,
And You give them drink from the river of Your pleasures.
[9]For with You is the fountain of life;
In Your light we see light.

[10]Oh, continue Your lovingkindness to those who know You,
And Your righteousness to the upright in heart.
[11]Let not the foot of pride come against me,
And let not the hand of the wicked drive me away.

[12]There the workers of iniquity have fallen;
They have been cast down and are not able to rise.

Psalm 37

The Heritage of the Righteous and the Calamity of the Wicked

A Psalm of David.

[1]Do not fret because of evildoers,
Nor be envious of the workers of iniquity.
[2]For they shall soon be cut down like the grass,
And wither as the green herb.

[3]Trust in the LORD, and do good;
Dwell in the land, and feed on His faithfulness.
[4]Delight yourself also in the LORD,
And He shall give you the desires of your heart.

[5]Commit your way to the LORD,
Trust also in Him,
And He shall bring it to pass.
[6]He shall bring forth your righteousness as the light,
And your justice as the noonday.

[7]Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for Him;
Do not fret because of him who prospers in his way,
Because of the man who brings wicked schemes to pass.
[8]Cease from anger, and forsake wrath;
Do not fret—it only causes harm.

[9]For evildoers shall be cut off;
But those who wait on the LORD,
They shall inherit the earth.
[10]For yet a little while and the wicked shall be no more;
Indeed, you will look carefully for his place,
But it shall be no more.
[11]But the meek shall inherit the earth,
And shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

[12]The wicked plots against the just,
And gnashes at him with his teeth.
[13]The Lord laughs at him,
For He sees that his day is coming.
[14]The wicked have drawn the sword
And have bent their bow,
To cast down the poor and needy,
To slay those who are of upright conduct.
[15]Their sword shall enter their own heart,
And their bows shall be broken.

[16]A little that a righteous man has
Is better than the riches of many wicked.
[17]For the arms of the wicked shall be broken,
But the LORD upholds the righteous.

[18]The LORD knows the days of the upright,
And their inheritance shall be forever.
[19]They shall not be ashamed in the evil time,
And in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.
[20]But the wicked shall perish;
And the enemies of the LORD,
Like the splendor of the meadows, shall vanish.
Into smoke they shall vanish away.

[21]The wicked borrows and does not repay,
But the righteous shows mercy and gives.
[22]For those blessed by Him shall inherit the earth,
But those cursed by Him shall be cut off.

[23]The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD,
And He delights in his way.
[24]Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down;
For the LORD upholds him with His hand.

[25]I have been young, and now am old;
Yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken,

Nor his descendants begging bread.
[26]He is ever merciful, and lends;
And his descendants are blessed.

[27]Depart from evil, and do good;
And dwell forevermore.
[28]For the LORD loves justice,
And does not forsake His saints;
They are preserved forever,
But the descendants of the wicked shall be cut off.
[29]The righteous shall inherit the land,
And dwell in it forever.

[30]The mouth of the righteous speaks wisdom,
And his tongue talks of justice.
[31]The law of his God is in his heart;
None of his steps shall slide.

[32]The wicked watches the righteous,
And seeks to slay him.
[33]The LORD will not leave him in his hand,
Nor condemn him when he is judged.

[34]Wait on the LORD,
And keep His way,
And He shall exalt you to inherit the land;
When the wicked are cut off, you shall see it.
[35]I have seen the wicked in great power,
And spreading himself like a native green tree.
[36]Yet he passed away, and behold, he was no more;
Indeed I sought him, but he could not be found.

[37]Mark the blameless man, and observe the upright;
For the future of that man is peace.
[38]But the transgressors shall be destroyed together;
The future of the wicked shall be cut off.

[39]But the salvation of the righteous is from the LORD;
He is their strength in the time of trouble.
[40]And the LORD shall help them and deliver them;
He shall deliver them from the wicked,
And save them,
Because they trust in Him.

Psalm 38

Prayer in Time of Chastening

A Psalm of David. To bring to remembrance.

[1]O LORD, do not rebuke me in Your wrath,
Nor chasten me in Your hot displeasure!
[2]For Your arrows pierce me deeply,
And Your hand presses me down.

[3]There is no soundness in my flesh
Because of Your anger,
Nor any health in my bones
Because of my sin.
[4]For my iniquities have gone over my head;
Like a heavy burden they are too heavy for me.
[5]My wounds are foul and festering
Because of my foolishness.

[6]I am troubled, I am bowed down greatly;
I go mourning all the day long.
[7]For my loins are full of inflammation,
And there is no soundness in my flesh.
[8]I am feeble and severely broken;
I groan because of the turmoil of my heart.

[9]Lord, all my desire is before You;
And my sighing is not hidden from You.
[10]My heart pants, my strength fails me;
As for the light of my eyes, it also has gone from me.

[11]My loved ones and my friends stand aloof from my plague,
And my relatives stand afar off.
[12]Those also who seek my life lay snares for me;
Those who seek my hurt speak of destruction,

And plan deception all the day long.

[13]But I, like a deaf man, do not hear;
And I am like a mute who does not open his mouth.
[14]Thus I am like a man who does not hear,
And in whose mouth is no response.

[15]For in You, O LORD, I hope;
You will hear, O Lord my God.
[16]For I said, "Hear me, lest they rejoice over me,
Lest, when my foot slips, they exalt themselves against me."

[17]For I am ready to fall,
And my sorrow is continually before me.
[18]For I will declare my iniquity;
I will be in anguish over my sin.
[19]But my enemies are vigorous, and they are strong;
And those who hate me wrongfully have multiplied.
[20]Those also who render evil for good,
They are my adversaries, because I follow what is good.

[21]Do not forsake me, O LORD;
O my God, be not far from me!
[22]Make haste to help me,
O Lord, my salvation!

Psalm 39

Prayer for Wisdom and Forgiveness

To the Chief Musician. To Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

[1]I SAID, "I will guard my ways,
Lest I sin with my tongue;
I will restrain my mouth with a muzzle,
While the wicked are before me."
[2]I was mute with silence,
I held my peace even from good;
And my sorrow was stirred up.
[3]My heart was hot within me;
While I was musing, the fire burned.
Then I spoke with my tongue:

[4]"LORD, make me to know my end,
And what is the measure of my days,
That I may know how frail I am.
[5]Indeed, You have made my days as handbreadths,
And my age is as nothing before You;
Certainly every man at his best state is but vapor. Selah
[6]Surely every man walks about like a shadow;
Surely they busy themselves in vain;
He heaps up riches,
And does not know who will gather them.

[7]"And now, Lord, what do I wait for?
My hope is in You.
[8]Deliver me from all my transgressions;
Do not make me the reproach of the foolish.
[9]I was mute, I did not open my mouth,
Because it was You who did it.
[10]Remove Your plague from me;
I am consumed by the blow of Your hand.

[11]When with rebukes You correct man for iniquity,
You make his beauty melt away like a moth;
Surely every man is vapor. Selah

[12]“Hear my prayer, O LORD,
And give ear to my cry;
Do not be silent at my tears;
For I am a stranger with You,
A sojourner, as all my fathers were.
[13]Remove Your gaze from me, that I may regain strength,
Before I go away and am no more.”

Psalm 40

Faith Persevering in Trial

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

[1]I WAITED patiently for the LORD;
And He inclined to me,
And heard my cry.
[2]He also brought me up out of a horrible pit,
Out of the miry clay,
And set my feet upon a rock,
And established my steps.
[3]He has put a new song in my mouth—
Praise to our God;
Many will see it and fear,
And will trust in the LORD.

[4]Blessed is that man who makes the LORD his trust,
And does not respect the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.
[5]Many, O LORD my God, are Your wonderful works
Which You have done;
And Your thoughts toward us
Cannot be recounted to You in order;
If I would declare and speak of them,
They are more than can be numbered.

[6]Sacrifice and offering You did not desire;
My ears You have opened.
Burnt offering and sin offering You did not require.
[7]Then I said, “Behold, I come;
In the scroll of the book it is written of me.
[8]I delight to do Your will, O my God,
And Your law is within my heart.”

[9]I have proclaimed the good news of righteousness

In the great assembly;
Indeed, I do not restrain my lips,
O LORD, You Yourself know.
[10]I have not hidden Your righteousness within my heart;
I have declared Your faithfulness and Your salvation;
I have not concealed Your lovingkindness and Your truth
From the great assembly.

[11]Do not withhold Your tender mercies from me, O LORD;
Let Your lovingkindness and Your truth continually preserve me.
[12]For innumerable evils have surrounded me;
My iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to look up;
They are more than the hairs of my head;
Therefore my heart fails me.

[13]Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me;
O LORD, make haste to help me!
[14]Let them be ashamed and brought to mutual confusion
Who seek to destroy my life;
Let them be driven backward and brought to dishonor
Who wish me evil.
[15]Let them be confounded because of their shame,
Who say to me, “Aha, aha!”

[16]Let all those who seek You rejoice and be glad in You;
Let such as love Your salvation say continually,
“The LORD be magnified!”
[17]But I am poor and needy;
Yet the LORD thinks upon me.
You are my help and my deliverer;
Do not delay, O my God.

Psalm 41

The Blessing and Suffering of the Godly

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

[1]Blessed is he who considers the poor;
The LORD will deliver him in time of trouble.
[2]The LORD will preserve him and keep him alive,
And he will be blessed on the earth;
You will not deliver him to the will of his enemies.
[3]The LORD will strengthen him on his bed of illness;
You will sustain him on his sickbed.

[4]I said, "LORD, be merciful to me;
Heal my soul, for I have sinned against You."
[5]My enemies speak evil of me:
"When will he die, and his name perish?"
[6]And if he comes to see me, he speaks lies;
His heart gathers iniquity to itself;
When he goes out, he tells it.

[7]All who hate me whisper together against me;
Against me they devise my hurt.
[8]"An evil disease," they say, "clings to him.
And now that he lies down, he will rise up no more."
[9]Even my own familiar friend in whom I trusted,
Who ate my bread,
Has lifted up his heel against me.

[10]But You, O LORD, be merciful to me, and raise me up,
That I may repay them.
[11]By this I know that You are well pleased with me,
Because my enemy does not triumph over me.
[12]As for me, You uphold me in my integrity,
And set me before Your face forever.

[13]Blessed be the LORD God of Israel
From everlasting to everlasting!
Amen and Amen.

BOOK TWO

Psalms 42—72

Psalm 42

Yearning for God in the Midst of Distresses

To the Chief Musician. A Contemplation of the sons of Korah.

[1]As the deer pants for the water brooks,
So pants my soul for You, O God.
[2]My soul thirsts for God, for the living God.
When shall I come and appear before God?
[3]My tears have been my food day and night,
While they continually say to me,
“Where is your God?”

[4]When I remember these things,
I pour out my soul within me.
For I used to go with the multitude;
I went with them to the house of God,
With the voice of joy and praise,
With a multitude that kept a pilgrim feast.

[5]Why are you cast down, O my soul?
And why are you disquieted within me?
Hope in God, for I shall yet praise Him
For the help of His countenance.

[6]O my God, my soul is cast down within me;
Therefore I will remember You from the land of the Jordan,
And from the heights of Hermon,
From the Hill Mizar.
[7]Deep calls unto deep at the noise of Your waterfalls;
All Your waves and billows have gone over me.

[8]The LORD will command His lovingkindness in the daytime,
And in the night His song shall be with me—
A prayer to the God of my life.

[9]I will say to God my Rock,
“Why have You forgotten me?
Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?”
[10]As with a breaking of my bones,
My enemies reproach me,
While they say to me all day long,
“Where is your God?”

[11]Why are you cast down, O my soul?
And why are you disquieted within me?
Hope in God;
For I shall yet praise Him,
The help of my countenance and my God.

Psalm 43

Prayer to God in Time of Trouble

[1]Vindicate me, O God,
And plead my cause against an ungodly nation;
Oh, deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man!
[2]For You are the God of my strength;
Why do You cast me off?
Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

[3]Oh, send out Your light and Your truth!
Let them lead me;
Let them bring me to Your holy hill
And to Your tabernacle.
[4]Then I will go to the altar of God,
To God my exceeding joy;
And on the harp I will praise You,
O God, my God.

[5]Why are you cast down, O my soul?
And why are you disquieted within me?
Hope in God;
For I shall yet praise Him,
The help of my countenance and my God.

Psalm 44

Redemption Remembered in Present Dishonor

To the Chief Musician. A Contemplation of the sons of Korah.

[1]We have heard with our ears, O God,
Our fathers have told us,
The deeds You did in their days,
In days of old:
[2]You drove out the nations with Your hand,
But them You planted;
You afflicted the peoples, and cast them out.
[3]For they did not gain possession of the land by their own sword,
Nor did their own arm save them;
But it was Your right hand, Your arm, and the light of Your countenance,
Because You favored them.

[4]You are my King, O God;
Command victories for Jacob.
[5]Through You we will push down our enemies;
Through Your name we will trample those who rise up against us.
[6]For I will not trust in my bow,
Nor shall my sword save me.
[7]But You have saved us from our enemies,
And have put to shame those who hated us.
[8]In God we boast all day long,
And praise Your name forever. Selah

[9]But You have cast us off and put us to shame,
And You do not go out with our armies.
[10]You make us turn back from the enemy,
And those who hate us have taken spoil for themselves.

[11]You have given us up like sheep intended for food,
And have scattered us among the nations.
[12]You sell Your people for next to nothing,
And are not enriched by selling them.

[13]You make us a reproach to our neighbors,
A scorn and a derision to those all around us.
[14]You make us a byword among the nations,
A shaking of the head among the peoples.
[15]My dishonor is continually before me,
And the shame of my face has covered me,
[16]Because of the voice of him who reproaches and reviles,
Because of the enemy and the avenger.

[17]All this has come upon us;
But we have not forgotten You,
Nor have we dealt falsely with Your covenant.
[18]Our heart has not turned back,
Nor have our steps departed from Your way;
[19]But You have severely broken us in the place of jackals,
And covered us with the shadow of death.

[20]If we had forgotten the name of our God,
Or stretched out our hands to a foreign god,
[21]Would not God search this out?
For He knows the secrets of the heart.
[22]Yet for Your sake we are killed all day long;
We are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

[23]Awake! Why do You sleep, O Lord?
Arise! Do not cast us off forever.
[24]Why do You hide Your face,
And forget our affliction and our oppression?
[25]For our soul is bowed down to the dust;
Our body clings to the ground.
[26]Arise for our help,

And redeem us for Your mercies’ sake.

Psalm 45

The Glories of the Messiah and His Bride

To the Chief Musician. Set to "The Lilies." A Contemplation of the sons of Korah. A Song of Love.

[1]My heart is overflowing with a good theme;
I recite my composition concerning the King;
My tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

[2]You are fairer than the sons of men;
Grace is poured upon Your lips;
Therefore God has blessed You forever.
[3]Gird Your sword upon Your thigh, O Mighty One,
With Your glory and Your majesty.
[4]And in Your majesty ride prosperously because of truth, humility, and righteousness;
And Your right hand shall teach You awesome things.
[5]Your arrows are sharp in the heart of the King's enemies;
The peoples fall under You.

[6]Your throne, O God, is forever and ever;
A scepter of righteousness is the scepter of Your kingdom.
[7]You love righteousness and hate wickedness;
Therefore God, Your God, has anointed You
With the oil of gladness more than Your companions.
[8]All Your garments are scented with myrrh and aloes and cassia,
Out of the ivory palaces, by which they have made You glad.
[9]Kings' daughters are among Your honorable women;
At Your right hand stands the queen in gold from Ophir.

[10]Listen, O daughter,
Consider and incline your ear;
Forget your own people also, and your father's house;
[11]So the King will greatly desire your beauty;

Because He is your Lord, worship Him.
[12]And the daughter of Tyre will come with a gift;
The rich among the people will seek your favor.

[13]The royal daughter is all glorious within the palace;
Her clothing is woven with gold.
[14]She shall be brought to the King in robes of many colors;
The virgins, her companions who follow her, shall be brought to You.
[15]With gladness and rejoicing they shall be brought;
They shall enter the King's palace.

[16]Instead of Your fathers shall be Your sons,
Whom You shall make princes in all the earth.
[17]I will make Your name to be remembered in all generations;
Therefore the people shall praise You forever and ever.

Psalm 46

God the Refuge of His People and Conqueror of the Nations

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah. A Song for Alamoth.

[1]God is our refuge and strength,
A very present help in trouble.
[2]Therefore we will not fear,
Even though the earth be removed,
And though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;
[3]Though its waters roar and be troubled,
Though the mountains shake with its swelling. Selah

[4]There is a river whose streams shall make glad the city of God,
The holy place of the tabernacle of the Most High.
[5]God is in the midst of her, she shall not be moved;
God shall help her, just at the break of dawn.
[6]The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved;
He uttered His voice, the earth melted.

[7]The LORD of hosts is with us;
The God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah

[8]Come, behold the works of the LORD,
Who has made desolations in the earth.
[9]He makes wars cease to the end of the earth;
He breaks the bow and cuts the spear in two;
He burns the chariot in the fire.

[10]Be still, and know that I am God;
I will be exalted among the nations,
I will be exalted in the earth!

[11]The LORD of hosts is with us;
The God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah

Psalm 47

Praise to God, the Ruler of the Earth

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

[1]Oh, clap your hands, all you peoples!
Shout to God with the voice of triumph!
[2]For the LORD Most High is awesome;
He is a great King over all the earth.
[3]He will subdue the peoples under us,
And the nations under our feet.
[4]He will choose our inheritance for us,
The excellence of Jacob whom He loves. Selah

[5]God has gone up with a shout,
The LORD with the sound of a trumpet.
[6]Sing praises to God, sing praises!
Sing praises to our King, sing praises!
[7]For God is the King of all the earth;
Sing praises with understanding.

[8]God reigns over the nations;
God sits on His holy throne.
[9]The princes of the people have gathered together,
The people of the God of Abraham.
For the shields of the earth belong to God;
He is greatly exalted.

Psalm 48

The Glory of God in Zion

A Song. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

[1]Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised
In the city of our God,
In His holy mountain.
[2]Beautiful in elevation,
The joy of the whole earth,
Is Mount Zion on the sides of the north,
The city of the great King.
[3]God is in her palaces;
He is known as her refuge.

[4]For behold, the kings assembled,
They passed by together.
[5]They saw it, and so they marveled;
They were troubled, they hastened away.
[6]Fear took hold of them there,
And pain, as of a woman in birth pangs,
[7]As when You break the ships of Tarshish
With an east wind.

[8]As we have heard,
So we have seen
In the city of the LORD of hosts,
In the city of our God:
God will establish it forever. Selah

[9]We have thought, O God, on Your lovingkindness,
In the midst of Your temple.
[10]According to Your name, O God,
So is Your praise to the ends of the earth;
Your right hand is full of righteousness.
[11]Let Mount Zion rejoice,

Let the daughters of Judah be glad,
Because of Your judgments.

[12]Walk about Zion,
And go all around her.
Count her towers;
[13]Mark well her bulwarks;
Consider her palaces;
That you may tell it to the generation following.
[14]For this is God,
Our God forever and ever;
He will be our guide
Even to death.

Psalm 49

The Confidence of the Foolish

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

[1]Hear this, all peoples;
Give ear, all inhabitants of the world,
[2]Both low and high,
Rich and poor together.
[3]My mouth shall speak wisdom,
And the meditation of my heart shall give understanding.
[4]I will incline my ear to a proverb;
I will disclose my dark saying on the harp.

[5]Why should I fear in the days of evil,
When the iniquity at my heels surrounds me?
[6]Those who trust in their wealth
And boast in the multitude of their riches,
[7]None of them can by any means redeem his brother,
Nor give to God a ransom for him—
[8]For the redemption of their souls is costly,
And it shall cease forever—
[9]That he should continue to live eternally,
And not see the Pit.

[10]For he sees wise men die;
Likewise the fool and the senseless person perish,
And leave their wealth to others.
[11]Their inner thought is that their houses will last forever,
Their dwelling places to all generations;
They call their lands after their own names.
[12]Nevertheless man, though in honor, does not remain;
He is like the beasts that perish.

[13]This is the way of those who are foolish,

And of their posterity who approve their sayings. Selah
[14]Like sheep they are laid in the grave;
Death shall feed on them;
The upright shall have dominion over them in the morning;
And their beauty shall be consumed in the grave, far from their dwelling.
[15]But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave,
For He shall receive me. Selah

[16]Do not be afraid when one becomes rich,
When the glory of his house is increased;
[17]For when he dies he shall carry nothing away;
His glory shall not descend after him.
[18]Though while he lives he blesses himself
(For men will praise you when you do well for yourself),
[19]He shall go to the generation of his fathers;
They shall never see light.
[20]A man who is in honor, yet does not understand,
Is like the beasts that perish.

Psalm 50

God the Righteous Judge

A Psalm of Asaph.

[1]The Mighty One, God the LORD,
Has spoken and called the earth
From the rising of the sun to its going down.
[2]Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty,
God will shine forth.
[3]Our God shall come, and shall not keep silent;
A fire shall devour before Him,
And it shall be very tempestuous all around Him.

[4]He shall call to the heavens from above,
And to the earth, that He may judge His people:
[5]"Gather My saints together to Me,
Those who have made a covenant with Me by sacrifice."
[6]Let the heavens declare His righteousness,
For God Himself is Judge. Selah

[7]"Hear, O My people, and I will speak,
O Israel, and I will testify against you;
I am God, your God!
[8]I will not rebuke you for your sacrifices
Or your burnt offerings,
Which are continually before Me.
[9]I will not take a bull from your house,
Nor goats out of your folds.
[10]For every beast of the forest is Mine,
And the cattle on a thousand hills.
[11]I know all the birds of the mountains,
And the wild beasts of the field are Mine.

[12]"If I were hungry, I would not tell you;

For the world is Mine, and all its fullness.
[13]Will I eat the flesh of bulls,
Or drink the blood of goats?
[14]Offer to God thanksgiving,
And pay your vows to the Most High.
[15]Call upon Me in the day of trouble;
I will deliver you, and you shall glorify Me."

[16]But to the wicked God says:
"What right have you to declare My statutes,
Or take My covenant in your mouth,
[17]Seeing you hate instruction
And cast My words behind you?
[18]When you saw a thief, you consented with him,
And have been a partaker with adulterers.
[19]You give your mouth to evil,
And your tongue frames deceit.
[20]You sit and speak against your brother;
You slander your own mother's son.
[21]These things you have done, and I kept silent;
You thought that I was altogether like you;
But I will rebuke you,
And set them in order before your eyes.

[22]"Now consider this, you who forget God,
Lest I tear you in pieces,
And there be none to deliver:
[23]Whoever offers praise glorifies Me;
And to him who orders his conduct aright
I will show the salvation of God."

Psalm 51

A Prayer of Repentance

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David when Nathan the prophet went to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

[1]Have mercy upon me, O God,
According to Your lovingkindness;
According to the multitude of Your tender mercies,
Blot out my transgressions.
[2]Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity,
And cleanse me from my sin.

[3]For I acknowledge my transgressions,
And my sin is always before me.
[4]Against You, You only, have I sinned,
And done this evil in Your sight—
That You may be found just when You speak,
And blameless when You judge.

[5]Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity,
And in sin my mother conceived me.
[6]Behold, You desire truth in the inward parts,
And in the hidden part You will make me to know wisdom.

[7]Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean;
Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.
[8]Make me hear joy and gladness,
That the bones You have broken may rejoice.
[9]Hide Your face from my sins,
And blot out all my iniquities.

[10]Create in me a clean heart, O God,
And renew a steadfast spirit within me.
[11]Do not cast me away from Your presence,
And do not take Your Holy Spirit from me.

[12]Restore to me the joy of Your salvation,
And uphold me by Your generous Spirit.
[13]Then I will teach transgressors Your ways,
And sinners shall be converted to You.

[14]Deliver me from the guilt of bloodshed, O God,
The God of my salvation,
And my tongue shall sing aloud of Your righteousness.
[15]O Lord, open my lips,
And my mouth shall show forth Your praise.
[16]For You do not desire sacrifice, or else I would give it;
You do not delight in burnt offering.
[17]The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit,
A broken and a contrite heart—
These, O God, You will not despise.

[18]Do good in Your good pleasure to Zion;
Build the walls of Jerusalem.
[19]Then You shall be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness,
With burnt offering and whole burnt offering;
Then they shall offer bulls on Your altar.

Psalm 52

The End of the Wicked and the Peace of the Godly

To the Chief Musician. A Contemplation of David when Doeg the Edomite went and told Saul, and said to him, “David has gone to the house of Ahimelech.”

[1]Why do you boast in evil, O mighty man?
The goodness of God endures continually.
[2]Your tongue devises destruction,
Like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.
[3]You love evil more than good,
Lying rather than speaking righteousness. Selah
[4]You love all devouring words,
You deceitful tongue.

[5]God shall likewise destroy you forever;
He shall take you away, and pluck you out of your dwelling place,
And uproot you from the land of the living. Selah
[6]The righteous also shall see and fear,
And shall laugh at him, saying,
[7]“Here is the man who did not make God his strength,
But trusted in the abundance of his riches,
And strengthened himself in his wickedness.”

[8]But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God;
I trust in the mercy of God forever and ever.
[9]I will praise You forever,
Because You have done it;
And in the presence of Your saints
I will wait on Your name, for it is good.

Psalm 53

Folly of the Godless, and the Restoration of Israel

To the Chief Musician. Set to “Mahalath.” A Contemplation of David.

[1]The fool has said in his heart,
“There is no God.”
They are corrupt, and have done abominable iniquity;
There is none who does good.

[2]God looks down from heaven upon the children of men,
To see if there are any who understand, who seek God.
[3]Every one of them has turned aside;
They have together become corrupt;
There is none who does good,
No, not one.

[4]Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge,
Who eat up my people as they eat bread,
And do not call upon God?
[5]There they are in great fear
Where no fear was,
For God has scattered the bones of him who encamps against you;
You have put them to shame,
Because God has despised them.

[6]Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion!
When God brings back the captivity of His people,
Let Jacob rejoice and Israel be glad.

Psalm 54

Answered Prayer for Deliverance from Adversaries

To the Chief Musician. With stringed instruments. A Contemplation of David when the Ziphites went and said to Saul, "Is David not hiding with us?"

[1]Save me, O God, by Your name,
And vindicate me by Your strength.
[2]Hear my prayer, O God;
Give ear to the words of my mouth.
[3]For strangers have risen up against me,
And oppressors have sought after my life;
They have not set God before them. Selah

[4]Behold, God is my helper;
The Lord is with those who uphold my life.
[5]He will repay my enemies for their evil.
Cut them off in Your truth.

[6]I will freely sacrifice to You;
I will praise Your name, O LORD, for it is good.
[7]For He has delivered me out of all trouble;
And my eye has seen its desire upon my enemies.

Psalm 55

Trust in God Concerning the Treachery of Friends

To the Chief Musician. With stringed instruments. A Contemplation of David.

[1]Give ear to my prayer, O God,
And do not hide Yourself from my supplication.
[2]Attend to me, and hear me;
I am restless in my complaint, and moan noisily,
[3]Because of the voice of the enemy,
Because of the oppression of the wicked;
For they bring down trouble upon me,
And in wrath they hate me.

[4]My heart is severely pained within me,
And the terrors of death have fallen upon me.
[5]Fearfulness and trembling have come upon me,
And horror has overwhelmed me.
[6]So I said, "Oh, that I had wings like a dove!
I would fly away and be at rest.
[7]Indeed, I would wander far off,
And remain in the wilderness. Selah
[8]I would hasten my escape
From the windy storm and tempest."

[9]Destroy, O Lord, and divide their tongues,
For I have seen violence and strife in the city.
[10]Day and night they go around it on its walls;
Iniquity and trouble are also in the midst of it.
[11]Destruction is in its midst;
Oppression and deceit do not depart from its streets.

[12]For it is not an enemy who reproaches me;
Then I could bear it.

Nor is it one who hates me who has exalted himself against me;
Then I could hide from him.
[13]But it was you, a man my equal,
My companion and my acquaintance.
[14]We took sweet counsel together,
And walked to the house of God in the throng.

[15]Let death seize them;
Let them go down alive into hell,
For wickedness is in their dwellings and among them.

[16]As for me, I will call upon God,
And the LORD shall save me.
[17]Evening and morning and at noon
I will pray, and cry aloud,
And He shall hear my voice.
[18]He has redeemed my soul in peace from the battle that was against me,
For there were many against me.
[19]God will hear, and afflict them,
Even He who abides from of old. Selah
Because they do not change,
Therefore they do not fear God.

[20]He has put forth his hands against those who were at peace with him;
He has broken his covenant.
[21]The words of his mouth were smoother than butter,
But war was in his heart;
His words were softer than oil,
Yet they were drawn swords.

[22]Cast your burden on the LORD,
And He shall sustain you;
He shall never permit the righteous to be moved.

[23]But You, O God, shall bring them down to the pit of destruction;
Bloodthirsty and deceitful men shall not live out half their days;
But I will trust in You.

Psalm 56

Prayer for Relief from Tormentors

To the Chief Musician. Set to "The Silent Dove in Distant Lands." A Michtam of David when the Philistines captured him in Gath.

[1]Be merciful to me, O God, for man would swallow me up;
Fighting all day he oppresses me.
[2]My enemies would hound me all day,
For there are many who fight against me, O Most High.

[3]Whenever I am afraid,
I will trust in You.
[4]In God (I will praise His word),
In God I have put my trust;
I will not fear.
What can flesh do to me?

[5]All day they twist my words;
All their thoughts are against me for evil.
[6]They gather together,
They hide, they mark my steps,
When they lie in wait for my life.
[7]Shall they escape by iniquity?
In anger cast down the peoples, O God!

[8]You number my wanderings;
Put my tears into Your bottle;
Are they not in Your book?
[9]When I cry out to You,
Then my enemies will turn back;
This I know, because God is for me.
[10]In God (I will praise His word),
In the LORD (I will praise His word),
[11]In God I have put my trust;
I will not be afraid.

What can man do to me?

[12]Vows made to You are binding upon me, O God;
I will render praises to You,
[13]For You have delivered my soul from death.
Have You not kept my feet from falling,
That I may walk before God
In the light of the living?

Psalm 57

Prayer for Safety from Enemies

To the Chief Musician. Set to “Do Not Destroy.” A Michtam of David when he fled from Saul into the cave.

[1]Be merciful to me, O God, be merciful to me!
For my soul trusts in You;
And in the shadow of Your wings I will make my refuge,
Until these calamities have passed by.

[2]I will cry out to God Most High,
To God who performs all things for me.
[3]He shall send from heaven and save me;
He reproaches the one who would swallow me up. Selah
God shall send forth His mercy and His truth.

[4]My soul is among lions;
I lie among the sons of men
Who are set on fire,
Whose teeth are spears and arrows,
And their tongue a sharp sword.
[5]Be exalted, O God, above the heavens;
Let Your glory be above all the earth.

[6]They have prepared a net for my steps;
My soul is bowed down;
They have dug a pit before me;
Into the midst of it they themselves have fallen. Selah

[7]My heart is steadfast, O God, my heart is steadfast;
I will sing and give praise.
[8]Awake, my glory!
Awake, lute and harp!
I will awaken the dawn.

[9]I will praise You, O Lord, among the peoples;
I will sing to You among the nations.
[10]For Your mercy reaches unto the heavens,
And Your truth unto the clouds.

[11]Be exalted, O God, above the heavens;
Let Your glory be above all the earth.

Psalm 58

The Just Judgment of the Wicked

To the Chief Musician. Set to “Do Not Destroy.” A Michtam of David.

[1]Do you indeed speak righteousness, you silent ones?
Do you judge uprightly, you sons of men?
[2]No, in heart you work wickedness;
You weigh out the violence of your hands in the earth.

[3]The wicked are estranged from the womb;
They go astray as soon as they are born, speaking lies.
[4]Their poison is like the poison of a serpent;
They are like the deaf cobra that stops its ear,
[5]Which will not heed the voice of charmers,
Charming ever so skillfully.

[6]Break their teeth in their mouth, O God!
Break out the fangs of the young lions, O LORD!
[7]Let them flow away as waters which run continually;
When he bends his bow,
Let his arrows be as if cut in pieces.
[8]Let them be like a snail which melts away as it goes,
Like a stillborn child of a woman, that they may not see the sun.

[9]Before your pots can feel the burning thorns,
He shall take them away as with a whirlwind,
As in His living and burning wrath.
[10]The righteous shall rejoice when he sees the vengeance;
He shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked,
[11]So that men will say,
“Surely there is a reward for the righteous;
Surely He is God who judges in the earth.”

Psalm 59

The Assured Judgment of the Wicked

To the Chief Musician. Set to "Do Not Destroy." A Michtam of David when Saul sent men, and they watched the house in order to kill him.

[1]Deliver me from my enemies, O my God;
Defend me from those who rise up against me.
[2]Deliver me from the workers of iniquity,
And save me from bloodthirsty men.

[3]For look, they lie in wait for my life;
The mighty gather against me,
Not for my transgression nor for my sin, O LORD.
[4]They run and prepare themselves through no fault of mine.
Awake to help me, and behold!
[5]You therefore, O LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel,
Awake to punish all the nations;
Do not be merciful to any wicked transgressors. Selah

[6]At evening they return,
They growl like a dog,
And go all around the city.
[7]Indeed, they belch with their mouth;
Swords are in their lips;
For they say, "Who hears?"

[8]But You, O LORD, shall laugh at them;
You shall have all the nations in derision.
[9]I will wait for You, O You his Strength;
For God is my defense.
[10]My God of mercy shall come to meet me;
God shall let me see my desire on my enemies.

[11]Do not slay them, lest my people forget;
Scatter them by Your power,

And bring them down,
O Lord our shield.
[12]For the sin of their mouth and the words of their lips,
Let them even be taken in their pride,
And for the cursing and lying which they speak.
[13]Consume them in wrath, consume them,
That they may not be;
And let them know that God rules in Jacob
To the ends of the earth. Selah

[14]And at evening they return,
They growl like a dog,
And go all around the city.
[15]They wander up and down for food,
And howl if they are not satisfied.

[16]But I will sing of Your power;
Yes, I will sing aloud of Your mercy in the morning;
For You have been my defense
And refuge in the day of my trouble.
[17]To You, O my Strength, I will sing praises;
For God is my defense,
My God of mercy.

Psalm 60

Urgent Prayer for the Restored Favor of God

To the Chief Musician. Set to “Lily of the Testimony.” A Michtam of David. For teaching. When he fought against Mesopotamia and Syria of Zobah, and Joab returned and killed twelve thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

[1]O GOD, You have cast us off;
You have broken us down;
You have been displeased;
Oh, restore us again!
[2]You have made the earth tremble;
You have broken it;
Heal its breaches, for it is shaking.
[3]You have shown Your people hard things;
You have made us drink the wine of confusion.

[4]You have given a banner to those who fear You,
That it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah
[5]That Your beloved may be delivered,
Save with Your right hand, and hear me.

[6]God has spoken in His holiness:
“I will rejoice;
I will divide Shechem
And measure out the Valley of Succoth.
[7]Gilead is Mine, and Manasseh is Mine;
Ephraim also is the helmet for My head;
Judah is My lawgiver.
[8]Moab is My washpot;
Over Edom I will cast My shoe;
Philistia, shout in triumph because of Me.”

[9]Who will bring me to the strong city?
Who will lead me to Edom?

[10]Is it not You, O God, who cast us off?
And You, O God, who did not go out with our armies?
[11]Give us help from trouble,
For the help of man is useless.
[12]Through God we will do valiantly,
For it is He who shall tread down our enemies.

Psalm 61

Assurance of God's Eternal Protection

To the Chief Musician. On a stringed instrument. A Psalm of David.

[1]Hear my cry, O God;
Attend to my prayer.
[2]From the end of the earth I will cry to You,
When my heart is overwhelmed;
Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

[3]For You have been a shelter for me,
A strong tower from the enemy.
[4]I will abide in Your tabernacle forever;
I will trust in the shelter of Your wings. Selah

[5]For You, O God, have heard my vows;
You have given me the heritage of those who fear Your name.
[6]You will prolong the king's life,
His years as many generations.
[7]He shall abide before God forever.
Oh, prepare mercy and truth, which may preserve him!

[8]So I will sing praise to Your name forever,
That I may daily perform my vows.

Psalm 62

A Calm Resolve to Wait for the Salvation of God

To the Chief Musician. To Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

[1]Truly my soul silently waits for God;
From Him comes my salvation.
[2]He only is my rock and my salvation;
He is my defense;
I shall not be greatly moved.

[3]How long will you attack a man?
You shall be slain, all of you,
Like a leaning wall and a tottering fence.
[4]They only consult to cast him down from his high position;
They delight in lies;
They bless with their mouth,
But they curse inwardly. Selah

[5]My soul, wait silently for God alone,
For my expectation is from Him.
[6]He only is my rock and my salvation;
He is my defense;
I shall not be moved.
[7]In God is my salvation and my glory;
The rock of my strength,
And my refuge, is in God.

[8]Trust in Him at all times, you people;
Pour out your heart before Him;
God is a refuge for us. Selah

[9]Surely men of low degree are a vapor,
Men of high degree are a lie;
If they are weighed on the scales,
They are altogether lighter than vapor.

[10]Do not trust in oppression,
Nor vainly hope in robbery;
If riches increase,
Do not set your heart on them.

[11]God has spoken once,
Twice I have heard this:
That power belongs to God.
[12]Also to You, O Lord, belongs mercy;
For You render to each one according to his work.

Psalm 63

Joy in the Fellowship of God

A Psalm of David when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

[1]O GOD, You are my God;
Early will I seek You;
My soul thirsts for You;
My flesh longs for You
In a dry and thirsty land
Where there is no water.
[2]So I have looked for You in the sanctuary,
To see Your power and Your glory.

[3]Because Your lovingkindness is better than life,
My lips shall praise You.
[4]Thus I will bless You while I live;
I will lift up my hands in Your name.
[5]My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness,
And my mouth shall praise You with joyful lips.

[6]When I remember You on my bed,
I meditate on You in the night watches.
[7]Because You have been my help,
Therefore in the shadow of Your wings I will rejoice.
[8]My soul follows close behind You;
Your right hand upholds me.

[9]But those who seek my life, to destroy it,
Shall go into the lower parts of the earth.
[10]They shall fall by the sword;
They shall be a portion for jackals.

[11]But the king shall rejoice in God;
Everyone who swears by Him shall glory;
But the mouth of those who speak lies shall be stopped.

Psalm 64

Oppressed by the Wicked but Rejoicing in the LORD

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

[1]Hear my voice, O God, in my meditation;
Preserve my life from fear of the enemy.
[2]Hide me from the secret plots of the wicked,
From the rebellion of the workers of iniquity,
[3]Who sharpen their tongue like a sword,
And bend their bows to shoot their arrows—bitter words,
[4]That they may shoot in secret at the blameless;
Suddenly they shoot at him and do not fear.

[5]They encourage themselves in an evil matter;
They talk of laying snares secretly;
They say, “Who will see them?”
[6]They devise iniquities:
“We have perfected a shrewd scheme.”
Both the inward thought and the heart of man are deep.

[7]But God shall shoot at them with an arrow;
Suddenly they shall be wounded.
[8]So He will make them stumble over their own tongue;
All who see them shall flee away.
[9]All men shall fear,
And shall declare the work of God;
For they shall wisely consider His doing.

[10]The righteous shall be glad in the LORD, and trust in Him.
And all the upright in heart shall glory.

Psalm 65

Praise to God for His Salvation and Providence

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. A Song.

[1]Praise is awaiting You, O God, in Zion;
And to You the vow shall be performed.
[2]O You who hear prayer,
To You all flesh will come.
[3]Iniquities prevail against me;
As for our transgressions,
You will provide atonement for them.

[4]Blessed is the man You choose,
And cause to approach You,
That he may dwell in Your courts.
We shall be satisfied with the goodness of Your house,
Of Your holy temple.

[5]By awesome deeds in righteousness You will answer us,
O God of our salvation,
You who are the confidence of all the ends of the earth,
And of the far-off seas;
[6]Who established the mountains by His strength,
Being clothed with power;
[7]You who still the noise of the seas,
The noise of their waves,
And the tumult of the peoples.
[8]They also who dwell in the farthest parts are afraid of Your signs;
You make the outgoings of the morning and evening rejoice.

[9]You visit the earth and water it,
You greatly enrich it;
The river of God is full of water;
You provide their grain,

For so You have prepared it.
[10]You water its ridges abundantly,
You settle its furrows;
You make it soft with showers,
You bless its growth.

[11]You crown the year with Your goodness,
And Your paths drip with abundance.
[12]They drop on the pastures of the wilderness,
And the little hills rejoice on every side.
[13]The pastures are clothed with flocks;
The valleys also are covered with grain;
They shout for joy, they also sing.

Psalm 66

Praise to God for His Awesome Works

To the Chief Musician. A Song. A Psalm.

[1]Make a joyful shout to God, all the earth!
[2]Sing out the honor of His name;
Make His praise glorious.
[3]Say to God,
“How awesome are Your works!
Through the greatness of Your power
Your enemies shall submit themselves to You.
[4]All the earth shall worship You
And sing praises to You;
They shall sing praises to Your name.” Selah

[5]Come and see the works of God;
He is awesome in His doing toward the sons of men.
[6]He turned the sea into dry land;
They went through the river on foot.
There we will rejoice in Him.
[7]He rules by His power forever;
His eyes observe the nations;
Do not let the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah

[8]Oh, bless our God, you peoples!
And make the voice of His praise to be heard,
[9]Who keeps our soul among the living,
And does not allow our feet to be moved.
[10]For You, O God, have tested us;
You have refined us as silver is refined.
[11]You brought us into the net;
You laid affliction on our backs.
[12]You have caused men to ride over our heads;
We went through fire and through water;

But You brought us out to rich fulfillment.

[13]I will go into Your house with burnt offerings;
I will pay You my vows,
[14]Which my lips have uttered
And my mouth has spoken when I was in trouble.
[15]I will offer You burnt sacrifices of fat animals,
With the sweet aroma of rams;
I will offer bulls with goats. Selah

[16]Come and hear, all you who fear God,
And I will declare what He has done for my soul.
[17]I cried to Him with my mouth,
And He was extolled with my tongue.
[18]If I regard iniquity in my heart,
The Lord will not hear.
[19]But certainly God has heard me;
He has attended to the voice of my prayer.

[20]Blessed be God,
Who has not turned away my prayer,
Nor His mercy from me!

Psalm 67

An Invocation and a Doxology

To the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A Psalm. A Song.

[1]God be merciful to us and bless us,
And cause His face to shine upon us, Selah
[2]That Your way may be known on earth,
Your salvation among all nations.

[3]Let the peoples praise You, O God;
Let all the peoples praise You.
[4]Oh, let the nations be glad and sing for joy!
For You shall judge the people righteously,
And govern the nations on earth. Selah

[5]Let the peoples praise You, O God;
Let all the peoples praise You.
[6]Then the earth shall yield her increase;
God, our own God, shall bless us.
[7]God shall bless us,
And all the ends of the earth shall fear Him.

Psalm 68

The Glory of God in His Goodness to Israel

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. A Song.

[1]Let God arise,
Let His enemies be scattered;
Let those also who hate Him flee before Him.
[2]As smoke is driven away,
So drive them away;
As wax melts before the fire,
So let the wicked perish at the presence of God.
[3]But let the righteous be glad;
Let them rejoice before God;
Yes, let them rejoice exceedingly.

[4]Sing to God, sing praises to His name;
Extol Him who rides on the clouds,
By His name YAH,
And rejoice before Him.

[5]A father of the fatherless, a defender of widows,
Is God in His holy habitation.
[6]God sets the solitary in families;
He brings out those who are bound into prosperity;
But the rebellious dwell in a dry land.

[7]O God, when You went out before Your people,
When You marched through the wilderness, Selah
[8]The earth shook;
The heavens also dropped rain at the presence of God;
Sinai itself was moved at the presence of God, the God of Israel.
[9]You, O God, sent a plentiful rain,
Whereby You confirmed Your inheritance,
When it was weary.

[10]Your congregation dwelt in it;
You, O God, provided from Your goodness for the poor.

[11]The Lord gave the word;
Great was the company of those who proclaimed it:
[12]"Kings of armies flee, they flee,
And she who remains at home divides the spoil.
[13]Though you lie down among the sheepfolds,
You will be like the wings of a dove covered with silver,
And her feathers with yellow gold."
[14]When the Almighty scattered kings in it,
It was white as snow in Zalmon.

[15]A mountain of God is the mountain of Bashan;
A mountain of many peaks is the mountain of Bashan.
[16]Why do you fume with envy, you mountains of many peaks?
This is the mountain which God desires to dwell in;
Yes, the LORD will dwell in it forever.

[17]The chariots of God are twenty thousand,
Even thousands of thousands;
The Lord is among them as in Sinai, in the Holy Place.
[18]You have ascended on high,
You have led captivity captive;
You have received gifts among men,
Even from the rebellious,
That the LORD God might dwell there.

[19]Blessed be the Lord,
Who daily loads us with benefits,
The God of our salvation! Selah
[20]Our God is the God of salvation;
And to GOD the Lord belong escapes from death.

[21]But God will wound the head of His enemies,

The hairy scalp of the one who still goes on in his trespasses.
[22]The Lord said, "I will bring back from Bashan,
I will bring them back from the depths of the sea,
[23]That your foot may crush them in blood,
And the tongues of your dogs may have their portion from your enemies."

[24]They have seen Your procession, O God,
The procession of my God, my King, into the sanctuary.
[25]The singers went before, the players on instruments followed after;
Among them were the maidens playing timbrels.
[26]Bless God in the congregations,
The Lord, from the fountain of Israel.
[27]There is little Benjamin, their leader,
The princes of Judah and their company,
The princes of Zebulun and the princes of Naphtali.

[28]Your God has commanded your strength;
Strengthen, O God, what You have done for us.
[29]Because of Your temple at Jerusalem,
Kings will bring presents to You.
[30]Rebuke the beasts of the reeds,
The herd of bulls with the calves of the peoples,
Till everyone submits himself with pieces of silver.
Scatter the peoples who delight in war.
[31]Envoys will come out of Egypt;
Ethiopia will quickly stretch out her hands to God.

[32]Sing to God, you kingdoms of the earth;
Oh, sing praises to the Lord, Selah
[33]To Him who rides on the heaven of heavens, which were of old!
Indeed, He sends out His voice, a mighty voice.
[34]Ascribe strength to God;

His excellence is over Israel,
And His strength is in the clouds.
[35]O God, You are more awesome than Your holy places.
The God of Israel is He who gives strength and power to His people.
Blessed be God!

Psalm 69

An Urgent Plea for Help in Trouble

To the Chief Musician. Set to “The Lilies.” A Psalm of David.

[1]Save me, O God!
For the waters have come up to my neck.
[2]I sink in deep mire,
Where there is no standing;
I have come into deep waters,
Where the floods overflow me.
[3]I am weary with my crying;
My throat is dry;
My eyes fail while I wait for my God.

[4]Those who hate me without a cause
Are more than the hairs of my head;
They are mighty who would destroy me,
Being my enemies wrongfully;
Though I have stolen nothing,
I still must restore it.

[5]O God, You know my foolishness;
And my sins are not hidden from You.
[6]Let not those who wait for You, O Lord GOD of hosts, be ashamed because of me;
Let not those who seek You be confounded because of me, O God of Israel.
[7]Because for Your sake I have borne reproach;
Shame has covered my face.
[8]I have become a stranger to my brothers,
And an alien to my mother’s children;
[9]Because zeal for Your house has eaten me up,
And the reproaches of those who reproach You have fallen on me.

[10]When I wept and chastened my soul with fasting,
That became my reproach.
[11]I also made sackcloth my garment;
I became a byword to them.
[12]Those who sit in the gate speak against me,
And I am the song of the drunkards.

[13]But as for me, my prayer is to You,
O LORD, in the acceptable time;
O God, in the multitude of Your mercy,
Hear me in the truth of Your salvation.
[14]Deliver me out of the mire,
And let me not sink;
Let me be delivered from those who hate me,
And out of the deep waters.
[15]Let not the floodwater overflow me,
Nor let the deep swallow me up;
And let not the pit shut its mouth on me.

[16]Hear me, O LORD, for Your lovingkindness is good;
Turn to me according to the multitude of Your tender mercies.
[17]And do not hide Your face from Your servant,
For I am in trouble;
Hear me speedily.
[18]Draw near to my soul, and redeem it;
Deliver me because of my enemies.

[19]You know my reproach, my shame, and my dishonor;
My adversaries are all before You.
[20]Reproach has broken my heart,
And I am full of heaviness;
I looked for someone to take pity, but there was none;
And for comforters, but I found none.
[21]They also gave me gall for my food,
And for my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

[22]Let their table become a snare before them,
And their well-being a trap.
[23]Let their eyes be darkened, so that they do not see;
And make their loins shake continually.
[24]Pour out Your indignation upon them,
And let Your wrathful anger take hold of them.
[25]Let their dwelling place be desolate;
Let no one live in their tents.
[26]For they persecute the ones You have struck,
And talk of the grief of those You have wounded.
[27]Add iniquity to their iniquity,
And let them not come into Your righteousness.
[28]Let them be blotted out of the book of the living,
And not be written with the righteous.

[29]But I am poor and sorrowful;
Let Your salvation, O God, set me up on high.
[30]I will praise the name of God with a song,
And will magnify Him with thanksgiving.
[31]This also shall please the LORD better than an ox or bull,
Which has horns and hooves.
[32]The humble shall see this and be glad;
And you who seek God, your hearts shall live.
[33]For the LORD hears the poor,
And does not despise His prisoners.

[34]Let heaven and earth praise Him,
The seas and everything that moves in them.
[35]For God will save Zion
And build the cities of Judah,
That they may dwell there and possess it.
[36]Also, the descendants of His servants shall inherit it,
And those who love His name shall dwell in it.

Psalm 70

Prayer for Relief from Adversaries

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. To bring to remembrance.

[1]MAKE haste, O God, to deliver me!
Make haste to help me, O LORD!

[2]Let them be ashamed and confounded
Who seek my life;
Let them be turned back and confused
Who desire my hurt.
[3]Let them be turned back because of their shame,
Who say, “Aha, aha!”

[4]Let all those who seek You rejoice and be glad in You;
And let those who love Your salvation say continually,
“Let God be magnified!”

[5]But I am poor and needy;
Make haste to me, O God!
You are my help and my deliverer;
O LORD, do not delay.

Psalm 71

God the Rock of Salvation

[1]In You, O LORD, I put my trust;
Let me never be put to shame.
[2]Deliver me in Your righteousness, and cause me to escape;
Incline Your ear to me, and save me.
[3]Be my strong refuge,
To which I may resort continually;
You have given the commandment to save me,
For You are my rock and my fortress.

[4]Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked,
Out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.
[5]For You are my hope, O Lord GOD;
You are my trust from my youth.
[6]By You I have been upheld from birth;
You are He who took me out of my mother's womb.
My praise shall be continually of You.

[7]I have become as a wonder to many,
But You are my strong refuge.
[8]Let my mouth be filled with Your praise
And with Your glory all the day.

[9]Do not cast me off in the time of old age;
Do not forsake me when my strength fails.
[10]For my enemies speak against me;
And those who lie in wait for my life take counsel together,
[11]Saying, "God has forsaken him;
Pursue and take him, for there is none to deliver him."

[12]O God, do not be far from me;
O my God, make haste to help me!
[13]Let them be confounded and consumed

Who are adversaries of my life;
Let them be covered with reproach and dishonor
Who seek my hurt.

[14]But I will hope continually,
And will praise You yet more and more.
[15]My mouth shall tell of Your righteousness
And Your salvation all the day,
For I do not know their limits.
[16]I will go in the strength of the Lord GOD;
I will make mention of Your righteousness, of Yours only.

[17]O God, You have taught me from my youth;
And to this day I declare Your wondrous works.
[18]Now also when I am old and grayheaded,
O God, do not forsake me,
Until I declare Your strength to this generation,
Your power to everyone who is to come.

[19]Also Your righteousness, O God, is very high,
You who have done great things;
O God, who is like You?
[20]You, who have shown me great and severe troubles,
Shall revive me again,
And bring me up again from the depths of the earth.
[21]You shall increase my greatness,
And comfort me on every side.

[22]Also with the lute I will praise You—
And Your faithfulness, O my God!
To You I will sing with the harp,
O Holy One of Israel.
[23]My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing to You,
And my soul, which You have redeemed.
[24]My tongue also shall talk of Your righteousness all the day long;
For they are confounded,

For they are brought to shame
Who seek my hurt.

Psalm 72

Glory and Universality of the Messiah's Reign

A Psalm of Solomon.

[1]Give the king Your judgments, O God,
And Your righteousness to the king's Son.
[2]He will judge Your people with righteousness,
And Your poor with justice.
[3]The mountains will bring peace to the people,
And the little hills, by righteousness.
[4]He will bring justice to the poor of the people;
He will save the children of the needy,
And will break in pieces the oppressor.

[5]They shall fear You
As long as the sun and moon endure,
Throughout all generations.
[6]He shall come down like rain upon the grass before mowing,
Like showers that water the earth.
[7]In His days the righteous shall flourish,
And abundance of peace,
Until the moon is no more.

[8]He shall have dominion also from sea to sea,
And from the River to the ends of the earth.
[9]Those who dwell in the wilderness will bow before Him,
And His enemies will lick the dust.
[10]The kings of Tarshish and of the isles
Will bring presents;
The kings of Sheba and Seba
Will offer gifts.
[11]Yes, all kings shall fall down before Him;
All nations shall serve Him.

[12]For He will deliver the needy when he cries,
The poor also, and him who has no helper.
[13]He will spare the poor and needy,
And will save the souls of the needy.
[14]He will redeem their life from oppression and violence;
And precious shall be their blood in His sight.

[15]And He shall live;
And the gold of Sheba will be given to Him;
Prayer also will be made for Him continually,
And daily He shall be praised.

[16]There will be an abundance of grain in the earth,
On the top of the mountains;
Its fruit shall wave like Lebanon;
And those of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.

[17]His name shall endure forever;
His name shall continue as long as the sun.
And men shall be blessed in Him;
All nations shall call Him blessed.

[18]Blessed be the LORD God, the God of Israel,
Who only does wondrous things!
[19]And blessed be His glorious name forever!
And let the whole earth be filled with His glory.
Amen and Amen.

[20]The prayers of David the son of Jesse are ended.

BOOK THREE

Psalms 73—89

Psalm 73

The Tragedy of the Wicked, and the Blessedness of Trust in God

A Psalm of Asaph.

[1]Truly God is good to Israel,
To such as are pure in heart.
[2]But as for me, my feet had almost stumbled;
My steps had nearly slipped.
[3]For I was envious of the boastful,
When I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

[4]For there are no pangs in their death,
But their strength is firm.
[5]They are not in trouble as other men,
Nor are they plagued like other men.
[6]Therefore pride serves as their necklace;
Violence covers them like a garment.
[7]Their eyes bulge with abundance;
They have more than heart could wish.
[8]They scoff and speak wickedly concerning oppression;
They speak loftily.
[9]They set their mouth against the heavens,
And their tongue walks through the earth.

[10]Therefore his people return here,
And waters of a full cup are drained by them.
[11]And they say, “How does God know?
And is there knowledge in the Most High?”
[12]Behold, these are the ungodly,
Who are always at ease;

They increase in riches.
[13]Surely I have cleansed my heart in vain,
And washed my hands in innocence.
[14]For all day long I have been plagued,
And chastened every morning.

[15]If I had said, “I will speak thus,”
Behold, I would have been untrue to the generation of Your children.
[16]When I thought how to understand this,
It was too painful for me—
[17]Until I went into the sanctuary of God;
Then I understood their end.

[18]Surely You set them in slippery places;
You cast them down to destruction.
[19]Oh, how they are brought to desolation, as in a moment!
They are utterly consumed with terrors.
[20]As a dream when one awakes,
So, Lord, when You awake,
You shall despise their image.

[21]Thus my heart was grieved,
And I was vexed in my mind.
[22]I was so foolish and ignorant;
I was like a beast before You.
[23]Nevertheless I am continually with You;
You hold me by my right hand.
[24]You will guide me with Your counsel,
And afterward receive me to glory.

[25]Whom have I in heaven but You?
And there is none upon earth that I desire besides You.
[26]My flesh and my heart fail;
But God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.

[27]For indeed, those who are far from You shall perish;

You have destroyed all those who desert You for harlotry.
[28]But it is good for me to draw near to God;
I have put my trust in the Lord GOD,
That I may declare all Your works.

Psalm 74

A Plea for Relief from Oppressors

A Contemplation of Asaph.

[1]O GOD, why have You cast us off forever?
Why does Your anger smoke against the sheep of Your pasture?
[2]Remember Your congregation, which You have purchased of old,
The tribe of Your inheritance, which You have redeemed—
This Mount Zion where You have dwelt.
[3]Lift up Your feet to the perpetual desolations.
The enemy has damaged everything in the sanctuary.
[4]Your enemies roar in the midst of Your meeting place;
They set up their banners for signs.
[5]They seem like men who lift up
Axes among the thick trees.
[6]And now they break down its carved work, all at once,
With axes and hammers.
[7]They have set fire to Your sanctuary;
They have defiled the dwelling place of Your name to the ground.
[8]They said in their hearts,
“Let us destroy them altogether.”
They have burned up all the meeting places of God in the land.

[9]We do not see our signs;
There is no longer any prophet;
Nor is there any among us who knows how long.
[10]O God, how long will the adversary reproach?
Will the enemy blaspheme Your name forever?
[11]Why do You withdraw Your hand, even Your right hand?
Take it out of Your bosom and destroy them.

[12]For God is my King from of old,
Working salvation in the midst of the earth.
[13]You divided the sea by Your strength;
You broke the heads of the sea serpents in the waters.
[14]You broke the heads of Leviathan in pieces,
And gave him as food to the people inhabiting the wilderness.
[15]You broke open the fountain and the flood;
You dried up mighty rivers.
[16]The day is Yours, the night also is Yours;
You have prepared the light and the sun.
[17]You have set all the borders of the earth;
You have made summer and winter.

[18]Remember this, that the enemy has reproached, O LORD,
And that a foolish people has blasphemed Your name.
[19]Oh, do not deliver the life of Your turtledove to the wild beast!
Do not forget the life of Your poor forever.
[20]Have respect to the covenant;
For the dark places of the earth are full of the haunts of cruelty.
[21]Oh, do not let the oppressed return ashamed!
Let the poor and needy praise Your name.

[22]Arise, O God, plead Your own cause;
Remember how the foolish man reproaches You daily.
[23]Do not forget the voice of Your enemies;
The tumult of those who rise up against You increases continually.

Psalm 75

Thanksgiving for God's Righteous Judgment

To the Chief Musician. Set to "Do Not Destroy." A Psalm of Asaph. A Song.

[1]We give thanks to You, O God, we give thanks!
For Your wondrous works declare that Your name is near.

[2]"When I choose the proper time,
I will judge uprightly.
[3]The earth and all its inhabitants are dissolved;
I set up its pillars firmly. Selah

[4]"I said to the boastful, 'Do not deal boastfully,'
And to the wicked, 'Do not lift up the horn.
[5]Do not lift up your horn on high;
Do not speak with a stiff neck.' "

[6]For exaltation comes neither from the east
Nor from the west nor from the south.
[7]But God is the Judge:
He puts down one,
And exalts another.
[8]For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup,
And the wine is red;
It is fully mixed, and He pours it out;
Surely its dregs shall all the wicked of the earth
Drain and drink down.

[9]But I will declare forever,
I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

[10]"All the horns of the wicked I will also cut off,
But the horns of the righteous shall be exalted."

Psalm 76

The Majesty of God in Judgment

To the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A Psalm of Asaph. A Song.

[1]In Judah God is known;
His name is great in Israel.
[2]In Salem also is His tabernacle,
And His dwelling place in Zion.
[3]There He broke the arrows of the bow,
The shield and sword of battle. Selah

[4]You are more glorious and excellent
Than the mountains of prey.
[5]The stouthearted were plundered;
They have sunk into their sleep;
And none of the mighty men have found the use of their hands.
[6]At Your rebuke, O God of Jacob,
Both the chariot and horse were cast into a dead sleep.

[7]You, Yourself, are to be feared;
And who may stand in Your presence
When once You are angry?
[8]You caused judgment to be heard from heaven;
The earth feared and was still,
[9]When God arose to judgment,
To deliver all the oppressed of the earth. Selah

[10]Surely the wrath of man shall praise You;
With the remainder of wrath You shall gird Yourself.

[11]Make vows to the LORD your God, and pay them;
Let all who are around Him bring presents to Him who ought to be feared.

[12]He shall cut off the spirit of princes;
He is awesome to the kings of the earth.

Psalm 77

The Consoling Memory of God's Redemptive Works

To the Chief Musician. To Jeduthun. A Psalm of Asaph.

[1]I CRIED out to God with my voice—
To God with my voice;
And He gave ear to me.
[2]In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord;
My hand was stretched out in the night without ceasing;
My soul refused to be comforted.
[3]I remembered God, and was troubled;
I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed. Selah

[4]You hold my eyelids open;
I am so troubled that I cannot speak.
[5]I have considered the days of old,
The years of ancient times.
[6]I call to remembrance my song in the night;
I meditate within my heart,
And my spirit makes diligent search.

[7]Will the Lord cast off forever?
And will He be favorable no more?
[8]Has His mercy ceased forever?
Has His promise failed forevermore?
[9]Has God forgotten to be gracious?
Has He in anger shut up His tender mercies? Selah

[10]And I said, "This is my anguish;
But I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most High."
[11]I will remember the works of the LORD;
Surely I will remember Your wonders of old.
[12]I will also meditate on all Your work,

And talk of Your deeds.
[13]Your way, O God, is in the sanctuary;
Who is so great a God as our God?
[14]You are the God who does wonders;
You have declared Your strength among the peoples.
[15]You have with Your arm redeemed Your people,
The sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah

[16]The waters saw You, O God;
The waters saw You, they were afraid;
The depths also trembled.
[17]The clouds poured out water;
The skies sent out a sound;
Your arrows also flashed about.
[18]The voice of Your thunder was in the whirlwind;
The lightnings lit up the world;
The earth trembled and shook.
[19]Your way was in the sea,
Your path in the great waters,
And Your footsteps were not known.
[20]You led Your people like a flock
By the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Psalm 78

God’s Kindness to Rebellious Israel

A Contemplation of Asaph.

[1]Give ear, O my people, to my law;
Incline your ears to the words of my mouth.
[2]I will open my mouth in a parable;
I will utter dark sayings of old,
[3]Which we have heard and known,
And our fathers have told us.
[4]We will not hide them from their children,
Telling to the generation to come the praises of the LORD,
And His strength and His wonderful works that He has done.

[5]For He established a testimony in Jacob,
And appointed a law in Israel,
Which He commanded our fathers,
That they should make them known to their children;
[6]That the generation to come might know them,
The children who would be born,
That they may arise and declare them to their children,
[7]That they may set their hope in God,
And not forget the works of God,
But keep His commandments;
[8]And may not be like their fathers,
A stubborn and rebellious generation,
A generation that did not set its heart aright,
And whose spirit was not faithful to God.

[9]The children of Ephraim, being armed and carrying bows,
Turned back in the day of battle.
[10]They did not keep the covenant of God;
They refused to walk in His law,
[11]And forgot His works

And His wonders that He had shown them.

[12]Marvelous things He did in the sight of their fathers,
In the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.
[13]He divided the sea and caused them to pass through;
And He made the waters stand up like a heap.
[14]In the daytime also He led them with the cloud,
And all the night with a light of fire.
[15]He split the rocks in the wilderness,
And gave them drink in abundance like the depths.
[16]He also brought streams out of the rock,
And caused waters to run down like rivers.

[17]But they sinned even more against Him
By rebelling against the Most High in the wilderness.
[18]And they tested God in their heart
By asking for the food of their fancy.
[19]Yes, they spoke against God:
They said, “Can God prepare a table in the wilderness?
[20]Behold, He struck the rock,
So that the waters gushed out,
And the streams overflowed.
Can He give bread also?
Can He provide meat for His people?”

[21]Therefore the LORD heard this and was furious;
So a fire was kindled against Jacob,
And anger also came up against Israel,
[22]Because they did not believe in God,
And did not trust in His salvation.
[23]Yet He had commanded the clouds above,
And opened the doors of heaven,
[24]Had rained down manna on them to eat,
And given them of the bread of heaven.
[25]Men ate angels’ food;
He sent them food to the full.

[26]He caused an east wind to blow in the heavens;
And by His power He brought in the south wind.
[27]He also rained meat on them like the dust,
Feathered fowl like the sand of the seas;
[28]And He let them fall in the midst of their camp,
All around their dwellings.
[29]So they ate and were well filled,
For He gave them their own desire.
[30]They were not deprived of their craving;
But while their food was still in their mouths,
[31]The wrath of God came against them,
And slew the stoutest of them,
And struck down the choice men of Israel.

[32]In spite of this they still sinned,
And did not believe in His wondrous works.
[33]Therefore their days He consumed in futility,
And their years in fear.

[34]When He slew them, then they sought Him;
And they returned and sought earnestly for God.
[35]Then they remembered that God was their rock,
And the Most High God their Redeemer.
[36]Nevertheless they flattered Him with their mouth,
And they lied to Him with their tongue;
[37]For their heart was not steadfast with Him,
Nor were they faithful in His covenant.
[38]But He, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity,
And did not destroy them.
Yes, many a time He turned His anger away,
And did not stir up all His wrath;
[39]For He remembered that they were but flesh,
A breath that passes away and does not come again.

[40]How often they provoked Him in the wilderness,
And grieved Him in the desert!

[41]Yes, again and again they tempted God,
And limited the Holy One of Israel.
[42]They did not remember His power:
The day when He redeemed them from the enemy,
[43]When He worked His signs in Egypt,
And His wonders in the field of Zoan;
[44]Turned their rivers into blood,
And their streams, that they could not drink.
[45]He sent swarms of flies among them, which devoured them,
And frogs, which destroyed them.
[46]He also gave their crops to the caterpillar,
And their labor to the locust.
[47]He destroyed their vines with hail,
And their sycamore trees with frost.
[48]He also gave up their cattle to the hail,
And their flocks to fiery lightning.
[49]He cast on them the fierceness of His anger,
Wrath, indignation, and trouble,
By sending angels of destruction among them.
[50]He made a path for His anger;
He did not spare their soul from death,
But gave their life over to the plague,
[51]And destroyed all the firstborn in Egypt,
The first of their strength in the tents of Ham.
[52]But He made His own people go forth like sheep,
And guided them in the wilderness like a flock;
[53]And He led them on safely, so that they did not fear;
But the sea overwhelmed their enemies.
[54]And He brought them to His holy border,
This mountain which His right hand had acquired.
[55]He also drove out the nations before them,
Allotted them an inheritance by survey,
And made the tribes of Israel dwell in their tents.

[56]Yet they tested and provoked the Most High God,
And did not keep His testimonies,
[57]But turned back and acted unfaithfully like their fathers;
They were turned aside like a deceitful bow.
[58]For they provoked Him to anger with their high places,
And moved Him to jealousy with their carved images.
[59]When God heard this, He was furious,
And greatly abhorred Israel,
[60]So that He forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh,
The tent He had placed among men,
[61]And delivered His strength into captivity,
And His glory into the enemy's hand.
[62]He also gave His people over to the sword,
And was furious with His inheritance.
[63]The fire consumed their young men,
And their maidens were not given in marriage.
[64]Their priests fell by the sword,
And their widows made no lamentation.

[65]Then the Lord awoke as from sleep,
Like a mighty man who shouts because of wine.
[66]And He beat back His enemies;
He put them to a perpetual reproach.

[67]Moreover He rejected the tent of Joseph,
And did not choose the tribe of Ephraim,
[68]But chose the tribe of Judah,
Mount Zion which He loved.
[69]And He built His sanctuary like the heights,
Like the earth which He has established forever.
[70]He also chose David His servant,
And took him from the sheepfolds;
[71]From following the ewes that had young He brought him,
To shepherd Jacob His people,
And Israel His inheritance.

[72]So he shepherded them according to the integrity of his heart,
And guided them by the skillfulness of his hands.

Psalm 79

A Dirge and a Prayer for Israel, Destroyed by Enemies

A Psalm of Asaph.

[1]O GOD, the nations have come into Your inheritance;
Your holy temple they have defiled;
They have laid Jerusalem in heaps.
[2]The dead bodies of Your servants
They have given as food for the birds of the heavens,
The flesh of Your saints to the beasts of the earth.
[3]Their blood they have shed like water all around Jerusalem,
And there was no one to bury them.
[4]We have become a reproach to our neighbors,
A scorn and derision to those who are around us.

[5]How long, LORD?
Will You be angry forever?
Will Your jealousy burn like fire?
[6]Pour out Your wrath on the nations that do not know You,
And on the kingdoms that do not call on Your name.
[7]For they have devoured Jacob,
And laid waste his dwelling place.

[8]Oh, do not remember former iniquities against us!
Let Your tender mercies come speedily to meet us,
For we have been brought very low.
[9]Help us, O God of our salvation,
For the glory of Your name;
And deliver us, and provide atonement for our sins,
For Your name's sake!
[10]Why should the nations say,
"Where is their God?"
Let there be known among the nations in our sight

The avenging of the blood of Your servants which has been shed.

[11]Let the groaning of the prisoner come before You;
According to the greatness of Your power
Preserve those who are appointed to die;
[12]And return to our neighbors sevenfold into their bosom
Their reproach with which they have reproached You, O Lord.

[13]So we, Your people and sheep of Your pasture,
Will give You thanks forever;
We will show forth Your praise to all generations.

Psalm 80

Prayer for Israel’s Restoration

To the Chief Musician. Set to “The Lilies.” A Testimony of Asaph. A Psalm.

[1]Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel,
You who lead Joseph like a flock;
You who dwell between the cherubim, shine forth!
[2]Before Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh,
Stir up Your strength,
And come and save us!

[3]Restore us, O God;
Cause Your face to shine,
And we shall be saved!

[4]O LORD God of hosts,
How long will You be angry
Against the prayer of Your people?
[5]You have fed them with the bread of tears,
And given them tears to drink in great measure.
[6]You have made us a strife to our neighbors,
And our enemies laugh among themselves.

[7]Restore us, O God of hosts;
Cause Your face to shine,
And we shall be saved!

[8]You have brought a vine out of Egypt;
You have cast out the nations, and planted it.
[9]You prepared room for it,
And caused it to take deep root,
And it filled the land.
[10]The hills were covered with its shadow,
And the mighty cedars with its boughs.

[11]She sent out her boughs to the Sea,
And her branches to the River.

[12]Why have You broken down her hedges,
So that all who pass by the way pluck her fruit?
[13]The boar out of the woods uproots it,
And the wild beast of the field devours it.

[14]Return, we beseech You, O God of hosts;
Look down from heaven and see,
And visit this vine
[15]And the vineyard which Your right hand has planted,
And the branch that You made strong for Yourself.
[16]It is burned with fire, it is cut down;
They perish at the rebuke of Your countenance.
[17]Let Your hand be upon the man of Your right hand,
Upon the son of man whom You made strong for Yourself.
[18]Then we will not turn back from You;
Revive us, and we will call upon Your name.

[19]Restore us, O LORD God of hosts;
Cause Your face to shine,
And we shall be saved!

Psalm 81

An Appeal for Israel's Repentance

To the Chief Musician. On an instrument of Gath. A Psalm of Asaph.

[1]Sing aloud to God our strength;
Make a joyful shout to the God of Jacob.
[2]Raise a song and strike the timbrel,
The pleasant harp with the lute.

[3]Blow the trumpet at the time of the New Moon,
At the full moon, on our solemn feast day.
[4]For this is a statute for Israel,
A law of the God of Jacob.
[5]This He established in Joseph as a testimony,
When He went throughout the land of Egypt,
Where I heard a language I did not understand.

[6]"I removed his shoulder from the burden;
His hands were freed from the baskets.
[7]You called in trouble, and I delivered you;
I answered you in the secret place of thunder;
I tested you at the waters of Meribah. Selah

[8]"Hear, O My people, and I will admonish you!
O Israel, if you will listen to Me!
[9]There shall be no foreign god among you;
Nor shall you worship any foreign god.
[10]I am the LORD your God,
Who brought you out of the land of Egypt;
Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.

[11]"But My people would not heed My voice,
And Israel would have none of Me.
[12]So I gave them over to their own stubborn heart,
To walk in their own counsels.

[13]“Oh, that My people would listen to Me,
That Israel would walk in My ways!
[14]I would soon subdue their enemies,
And turn My hand against their adversaries.
[15]The haters of the LORD would pretend submission to Him,
But their fate would endure forever.
[16]He would have fed them also with the finest of wheat;
And with honey from the rock I would have satisfied you.”

Psalm 82

A Plea for Justice

A Psalm of Asaph.

[1]God stands in the congregation of the mighty;
He judges among the gods.
[2]How long will you judge unjustly,
And show partiality to the wicked? Selah
[3]Defend the poor and fatherless;
Do justice to the afflicted and needy.
[4]Deliver the poor and needy;
Free them from the hand of the wicked.

[5]They do not know, nor do they understand;
They walk about in darkness;
All the foundations of the earth are unstable.

[6]I said, "You are gods,
And all of you are children of the Most High.
[7]But you shall die like men,
And fall like one of the princes."

[8]Arise, O God, judge the earth;
For You shall inherit all nations.

Psalm 83

Prayer to Frustrate Conspiracy Against Israel

A Song. A Psalm of Asaph.

[1]Do not keep silent, O God!
Do not hold Your peace,
And do not be still, O God!
[2]For behold, Your enemies make a tumult;
And those who hate You have lifted up their head.
[3]They have taken crafty counsel against Your people,
And consulted together against Your sheltered ones.
[4]They have said, “Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation,
That the name of Israel may be remembered no more.”

[5]For they have consulted together with one consent;
They form a confederacy against You:
[6]The tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites;
Moab and the Hagrites;
[7]Gebal, Ammon, and Amalek;
Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre;
[8]Assyria also has joined with them;
They have helped the children of Lot. Selah

[9]Deal with them as with Midian,
As with Sisera,
As with Jabin at the Brook Kishon,
[10]Who perished at En Dor,
Who became as refuse on the earth.
[11]Make their nobles like Oreb and like Zeeb,
Yes, all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna,
[12]Who said, “Let us take for ourselves
The pastures of God for a possession.”

[13]O my God, make them like the whirling dust,
Like the chaff before the wind!
[14]As the fire burns the woods,
And as the flame sets the mountains on fire,
[15]So pursue them with Your tempest,
And frighten them with Your storm.
[16]Fill their faces with shame,
That they may seek Your name, O LORD.
[17]Let them be confounded and dismayed forever;
Yes, let them be put to shame and perish,
[18]That they may know that You, whose name alone is the LORD,
Are the Most High over all the earth.

Psalm 84

The Blessedness of Dwelling in the House of God

To the Chief Musician. On an instrument of Gath. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

[1]How lovely is Your tabernacle,
O LORD of hosts!
[2]My soul longs, yes, even faints
For the courts of the LORD;
My heart and my flesh cry out for the living God.

[3]Even the sparrow has found a home,
And the swallow a nest for herself,
Where she may lay her young—
Even Your altars, O LORD of hosts,
My King and my God.
[4]Blessed are those who dwell in Your house;
They will still be praising You. Selah

[5]Blessed is the man whose strength is in You,
Whose heart is set on pilgrimage.
[6]As they pass through the Valley of Baca,
They make it a spring;
The rain also covers it with pools.
[7]They go from strength to strength;
Each one appears before God in Zion.

[8]O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer;
Give ear, O God of Jacob! Selah
[9]O God, behold our shield,
And look upon the face of Your anointed.

[10]For a day in Your courts is better than a thousand.
I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God
Than dwell in the tents of wickedness.

[11]For the LORD God is a sun and shield;
The LORD will give grace and glory;
No good thing will He withhold
From those who walk uprightly.

[12]O LORD of hosts,
Blessed is the man who trusts in You!

Psalm 85

Prayer that the LORD Will Restore Favor to the Land

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

[1]LORD, You have been favorable to Your land;
You have brought back the captivity of Jacob.
[2]You have forgiven the iniquity of Your people;
You have covered all their sin. Selah
[3]You have taken away all Your wrath;
You have turned from the fierceness of Your anger.

[4]Restore us, O God of our salvation,
And cause Your anger toward us to cease.
[5]Will You be angry with us forever?
Will You prolong Your anger to all generations?
[6]Will You not revive us again,
That Your people may rejoice in You?
[7]Show us Your mercy, LORD,
And grant us Your salvation.

[8]I will hear what God the LORD will speak,
For He will speak peace
To His people and to His saints;
But let them not turn back to folly.
[9]Surely His salvation is near to those who fear Him,
That glory may dwell in our land.

[10]Mercy and truth have met together;
Righteousness and peace have kissed.
[11]Truth shall spring out of the earth,
And righteousness shall look down from heaven.
[12]Yes, the LORD will give what is good;
And our land will yield its increase.
[13]Righteousness will go before Him,

And shall make His footsteps our pathway.

Psalm 86

Prayer for Mercy, with Meditation on the Excellencies of the LORD

A Prayer of David.

[1]Bow down Your ear, O LORD, hear me;
For I am poor and needy.
[2]Preserve my life, for I am holy;
You are my God;
Save Your servant who trusts in You!
[3]Be merciful to me, O Lord,
For I cry to You all day long.
[4]Rejoice the soul of Your servant,
For to You, O Lord, I lift up my soul.
[5]For You, Lord, are good, and ready to forgive,
And abundant in mercy to all those who call upon You.

[6]Give ear, O LORD, to my prayer;
And attend to the voice of my supplications.
[7]In the day of my trouble I will call upon You,
For You will answer me.

[8]Among the gods there is none like You, O Lord;
Nor are there any works like Your works.
[9]All nations whom You have made
Shall come and worship before You, O Lord,
And shall glorify Your name.
[10]For You are great, and do wondrous things;
You alone are God.

[11]Teach me Your way, O LORD;
I will walk in Your truth;
Unite my heart to fear Your name.
[12]I will praise You, O Lord my God, with all my heart,
And I will glorify Your name forevermore.

[13]For great is Your mercy toward me,
And You have delivered my soul from the depths of Sheol.

[14]O God, the proud have risen against me,
And a mob of violent men have sought my life,
And have not set You before them.
[15]But You, O Lord, are a God full of compassion, and gracious,
Longsuffering and abundant in mercy and truth.

[16]Oh, turn to me, and have mercy on me!
Give Your strength to Your servant,
And save the son of Your maidservant.
[17]Show me a sign for good,
That those who hate me may see it and be ashamed,
Because You, LORD, have helped me and comforted me.

Psalm 87

The Glories of the City of God

A Psalm of the sons of Korah. A Song.

[1]His foundation is in the holy mountains.
[2]The LORD loves the gates of Zion
More than all the dwellings of Jacob.
[3]Glorious things are spoken of you,
O city of God! Selah

[4]"I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon to those who know Me;
Behold, O Philistia and Tyre, with Ethiopia:
'This one was born there.' "

[5]And of Zion it will be said,
"This one and that one were born in her;
And the Most High Himself shall establish her."
[6]The LORD will record,
When He registers the peoples:
"This one was born there." Selah

[7]Both the singers and the players on instruments say,
"All my springs are in you."

Psalm 88

A Prayer for Help in Despondency

A Song. A Psalm of the sons of Korah. To the Chief Musician. Set to "Mahalath Leannoth." A Contemplation of Heman the Ezrahite.

[1]O LORD, God of my salvation,
I have cried out day and night before You.
[2]Let my prayer come before You;
Incline Your ear to my cry.

[3]For my soul is full of troubles,
And my life draws near to the grave.
[4]I am counted with those who go down to the pit;
I am like a man who has no strength,
[5]Adrift among the dead,
Like the slain who lie in the grave,
Whom You remember no more,
And who are cut off from Your hand.

[6]You have laid me in the lowest pit,
In darkness, in the depths.
[7]Your wrath lies heavy upon me,
And You have afflicted me with all Your waves. Selah
[8]You have put away my acquaintances far from me;
You have made me an abomination to them;
I am shut up, and I cannot get out;
[9]My eye wastes away because of affliction.
LORD, I have called daily upon You;
I have stretched out my hands to You.
[10]Will You work wonders for the dead?
Shall the dead arise and praise You? Selah
[11]Shall Your lovingkindness be declared in the grave?
Or Your faithfulness in the place of destruction?
[12]Shall Your wonders be known in the dark?

And Your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?

[13]But to You I have cried out, O LORD,
And in the morning my prayer comes before You.
[14]LORD, why do You cast off my soul?
Why do You hide Your face from me?
[15]I have been afflicted and ready to die from my youth;
I suffer Your terrors;
I am distraught.
[16]Your fierce wrath has gone over me;
Your terrors have cut me off.
[17]They came around me all day long like water;
They engulfed me altogether.
[18]Loved one and friend You have put far from me,
And my acquaintances into darkness.

Psalm 89

Remembering the Covenant with David, and Sorrow for Lost Blessings

A Contemplation of Ethan the Ezrahite.

[1]I WILL sing of the mercies of the LORD forever;
With my mouth will I make known Your faithfulness to all generations.
[2]For I have said, "Mercy shall be built up forever;
Your faithfulness You shall establish in the very heavens."

[3]"I have made a covenant with My chosen,
I have sworn to My servant David:
[4]'Your seed I will establish forever,
And build up your throne to all generations.' " Selah

[5]And the heavens will praise Your wonders, O LORD;
Your faithfulness also in the assembly of the saints.
[6]For who in the heavens can be compared to the LORD?
Who among the sons of the mighty can be likened to the LORD?
[7]God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints,
And to be held in reverence by all those around Him.
[8]O LORD God of hosts,
Who is mighty like You, O LORD?
Your faithfulness also surrounds You.
[9]You rule the raging of the sea;
When its waves rise, You still them.
[10]You have broken Rahab in pieces, as one who is slain;
You have scattered Your enemies with Your mighty arm.

[11]The heavens are Yours, the earth also is Yours;
The world and all its fullness, You have founded them.
[12]The north and the south, You have created them;

Tabor and Hermon rejoice in Your name.
[13]You have a mighty arm;
Strong is Your hand, and high is Your right hand.
[14]Righteousness and justice are the foundation of Your throne;
Mercy and truth go before Your face.
[15]Blessed are the people who know the joyful sound!
They walk, O LORD, in the light of Your countenance.
[16]In Your name they rejoice all day long,
And in Your righteousness they are exalted.
[17]For You are the glory of their strength,
And in Your favor our horn is exalted.
[18]For our shield belongs to the LORD,
And our king to the Holy One of Israel.

[19]Then You spoke in a vision to Your holy one,
And said: "I have given help to one who is mighty;
I have exalted one chosen from the people.
[20]I have found My servant David;
With My holy oil I have anointed him,
[21]With whom My hand shall be established;
Also My arm shall strengthen him.
[22]The enemy shall not outwit him,
Nor the son of wickedness afflict him.
[23]I will beat down his foes before his face,
And plague those who hate him.

[24]"But My faithfulness and My mercy shall be with him,
And in My name his horn shall be exalted.
[25]Also I will set his hand over the sea,
And his right hand over the rivers.
[26]He shall cry to Me, 'You are my Father,
My God, and the rock of my salvation.'
[27]Also I will make him My firstborn,
The highest of the kings of the earth.
[28]My mercy I will keep for him forever,

And My covenant shall stand firm with him.
[29]His seed also I will make to endure forever,
And his throne as the days of heaven.

[30]“If his sons forsake My law
And do not walk in My judgments,
[31]If they break My statutes
And do not keep My commandments,
[32]Then I will punish their transgression with the rod,
And their iniquity with stripes.
[33]Nevertheless My lovingkindness I will not utterly take from him,
Nor allow My faithfulness to fail.
[34]My covenant I will not break,
Nor alter the word that has gone out of My lips.
[35]Once I have sworn by My holiness;
I will not lie to David:
[36]His seed shall endure forever,
And his throne as the sun before Me;
[37]It shall be established forever like the moon,
Even like the faithful witness in the sky.” Selah

[38]But You have cast off and abhorred,
You have been furious with Your anointed.
[39]You have renounced the covenant of Your servant;
You have profaned his crown by casting it to the ground.
[40]You have broken down all his hedges;
You have brought his strongholds to ruin.
[41]All who pass by the way plunder him;
He is a reproach to his neighbors.
[42]You have exalted the right hand of his adversaries;
You have made all his enemies rejoice.
[43]You have also turned back the edge of his sword,
And have not sustained him in the battle.
[44]You have made his glory cease,
And cast his throne down to the ground.

[45]The days of his youth You have shortened;
You have covered him with shame. Selah

[46]How long, LORD?
Will You hide Yourself forever?
Will Your wrath burn like fire?
[47]Remember how short my time is;
For what futility have You created all the children of men?
[48]What man can live and not see death?
Can he deliver his life from the power of the grave? Selah

[49]Lord, where are Your former lovingkindnesses,
Which You swore to David in Your truth?
[50]Remember, Lord, the reproach of Your servants—
How I bear in my bosom the reproach of all the many peoples,
[51]With which Your enemies have reproached, O LORD,
With which they have reproached the footsteps of Your anointed.

[52]Blessed be the LORD forevermore!
Amen and Amen.

BOOK FOUR

Psalms 90—106

Psalm 90

The Eternity of God, and Man's Frailty

A Prayer of Moses the man of God.

[1]Lord, You have been our dwelling place in all generations.
[2]Before the mountains were brought forth,
Or ever You had formed the earth and the world,
Even from everlasting to everlasting, You are God.

[3]You turn man to destruction,
And say, “Return, O children of men.”
[4]For a thousand years in Your sight
Are like yesterday when it is past,
And like a watch in the night.
[5]You carry them away like a flood;
They are like a sleep.
In the morning they are like grass which grows up:
[6]In the morning it flourishes and grows up;
In the evening it is cut down and withers.

[7]For we have been consumed by Your anger,
And by Your wrath we are terrified.
[8]You have set our iniquities before You,
Our secret sins in the light of Your countenance.
[9]For all our days have passed away in Your wrath;
We finish our years like a sigh.
[10]The days of our lives are seventy years;
And if by reason of strength they are eighty years,
Yet their boast is only labor and sorrow;
For it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

[11]Who knows the power of Your anger?
For as the fear of You, so is Your wrath.
[12]So teach us to number our days,
That we may gain a heart of wisdom.

[13]Return, O LORD!
How long?
And have compassion on Your servants.
[14]Oh, satisfy us early with Your mercy,
That we may rejoice and be glad all our days!
[15]Make us glad according to the days in which You have afflicted us,
The years in which we have seen evil.
[16]Let Your work appear to Your servants,
And Your glory to their children.
[17]And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us,
And establish the work of our hands for us;
Yes, establish the work of our hands.

Psalm 91

Safety of Abiding in the Presence of God

[1]He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High
Shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.
[2]I will say of the LORD, "He is my refuge and my fortress;
My God, in Him I will trust."

[3]Surely He shall deliver you from the snare of the fowler
And from the perilous pestilence.
[4]He shall cover you with His feathers,
And under His wings you shall take refuge;
His truth shall be your shield and buckler.
[5]You shall not be afraid of the terror by night,
Nor of the arrow that flies by day,
[6]Nor of the pestilence that walks in darkness,
Nor of the destruction that lays waste at noonday.

[7]A thousand may fall at your side,
And ten thousand at your right hand;
But it shall not come near you.
[8]Only with your eyes shall you look,
And see the reward of the wicked.

[9]Because you have made the LORD, who is my refuge,
Even the Most High, your dwelling place,
[10]No evil shall befall you,
Nor shall any plague come near your dwelling;
[11]For He shall give His angels charge over you,
To keep you in all your ways.
[12]In their hands they shall bear you up,
Lest you dash your foot against a stone.
[13]You shall tread upon the lion and the cobra,
The young lion and the serpent you shall trample underfoot.

[14]“Because he has set his love upon Me, therefore I will deliver him;
I will set him on high, because he has known My name.
[15]He shall call upon Me, and I will answer him;
I will be with him in trouble;
I will deliver him and honor him.
[16]With long life I will satisfy him,
And show him My salvation.”

Psalm 92

Praise to the LORD for His Love and Faithfulness

A Psalm. A Song for the Sabbath day.

[1]IT is good to give thanks to the LORD,
And to sing praises to Your name, O Most High;
[2]To declare Your lovingkindness in the morning,
And Your faithfulness every night,
[3]On an instrument of ten strings,
On the lute,
And on the harp,
With harmonious sound.
[4]For You, LORD, have made me glad through Your work;
I will triumph in the works of Your hands.

[5]O LORD, how great are Your works!
Your thoughts are very deep.
[6]A senseless man does not know,
Nor does a fool understand this.
[7]When the wicked spring up like grass,
And when all the workers of iniquity flourish,
It is that they may be destroyed forever.

[8]But You, LORD, are on high forevermore.
[9]For behold, Your enemies, O LORD,
For behold, Your enemies shall perish;
All the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.

[10]But my horn You have exalted like a wild ox;
I have been anointed with fresh oil.
[11]My eye also has seen my desire on my enemies;
My ears hear my desire on the wicked
Who rise up against me.

[12]The righteous shall flourish like a palm tree,

He shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
[13]Those who are planted in the house of the LORD
Shall flourish in the courts of our God.
[14]They shall still bear fruit in old age;
They shall be fresh and flourishing,
[15]To declare that the LORD is upright;
He is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in Him.

Psalm 93

The Eternal Reign of the LORD

[1]The LORD reigns, He is clothed with majesty;
The LORD is clothed,
He has girded Himself with strength.
Surely the world is established, so that it cannot be moved.
[2]Your throne is established from of old;
You are from everlasting.

[3]The floods have lifted up, O LORD,
The floods have lifted up their voice;
The floods lift up their waves.
[4]The LORD on high is mightier
Than the noise of many waters,
Than the mighty waves of the sea.

[5]Your testimonies are very sure;
Holiness adorns Your house,
O LORD, forever.

Psalm 94

God the Refuge of the Righteous

[1]O LORD God, to whom vengeance belongs—
O God, to whom vengeance belongs, shine forth!
[2]Rise up, O Judge of the earth;
Render punishment to the proud.
[3]LORD, how long will the wicked,
How long will the wicked triumph?

[4]They utter speech, and speak insolent things;
All the workers of iniquity boast in themselves.
[5]They break in pieces Your people, O LORD,
And afflict Your heritage.
[6]They slay the widow and the stranger,
And murder the fatherless.
[7]Yet they say, “The LORD does not see,
Nor does the God of Jacob understand.”

[8]Understand, you senseless among the people;
And you fools, when will you be wise?
[9]He who planted the ear, shall He not hear?
He who formed the eye, shall He not see?
[10]He who instructs the nations, shall He not correct,
He who teaches man knowledge?
[11]The LORD knows the thoughts of man,
That they are futile.

[12]Blessed is the man whom You instruct, O LORD,
And teach out of Your law,
[13]That You may give him rest from the days of adversity,
Until the pit is dug for the wicked.
[14]For the LORD will not cast off His people,
Nor will He forsake His inheritance.
[15]But judgment will return to righteousness,

And all the upright in heart will follow it.

[16]Who will rise up for me against the evildoers?
Who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?
[17]Unless the LORD had been my help,
My soul would soon have settled in silence.
[18]If I say, “My foot slips,”
Your mercy, O LORD, will hold me up.
[19]In the multitude of my anxieties within me,
Your comforts delight my soul.

[20]Shall the throne of iniquity, which devises evil by law,
Have fellowship with You?
[21]They gather together against the life of the righteous,
And condemn innocent blood.
[22]But the LORD has been my defense,
And my God the rock of my refuge.
[23]He has brought on them their own iniquity,
And shall cut them off in their own wickedness;
The LORD our God shall cut them off.

Psalm 95

A Call to Worship and Obedience

[1]Oh come, let us sing to the LORD!
Let us shout joyfully to the Rock of our salvation.
[2]Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving;
Let us shout joyfully to Him with psalms.
[3]For the LORD is the great God,
And the great King above all gods.
[4]In His hand are the deep places of the earth;
The heights of the hills are His also.
[5]The sea is His, for He made it;
And His hands formed the dry land.

[6]Oh come, let us worship and bow down;
Let us kneel before the LORD our Maker.
[7]For He is our God,
And we are the people of His pasture,
And the sheep of His hand.
Today, if you will hear His voice:
[8]"Do not harden your hearts, as in the rebellion,
As in the day of trial in the wilderness,
[9]When your fathers tested Me;
They tried Me, though they saw My work.
[10]For forty years I was grieved with that generation,
And said, 'It is a people who go astray in their hearts,
And they do not know My ways.'
[11]So I swore in My wrath,
'They shall not enter My rest.' "

Psalm 96

A Song of Praise to God Coming in Judgment

[1]Oh, sing to the LORD a new song!
Sing to the LORD, all the earth.
[2]Sing to the LORD, bless His name;
Proclaim the good news of His salvation from day to day.
[3]Declare His glory among the nations,
His wonders among all peoples.

[4]For the LORD is great and greatly to be praised;
He is to be feared above all gods.
[5]For all the gods of the peoples are idols,
But the LORD made the heavens.
[6]Honor and majesty are before Him;
Strength and beauty are in His sanctuary.

[7]Give to the LORD, O families of the peoples,
Give to the LORD glory and strength.
[8]Give to the LORD the glory due His name;
Bring an offering, and come into His courts.
[9]Oh, worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness!
Tremble before Him, all the earth.

[10]Say among the nations, "The LORD reigns;
The world also is firmly established,
It shall not be moved;
He shall judge the peoples righteously."

[11]Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad;
Let the sea roar, and all its fullness;
[12]Let the field be joyful, and all that is in it.
Then all the trees of the woods will rejoice
  [13]before the LORD.
For He is coming, for He is coming to judge the earth.

He shall judge the world with righteousness,
And the peoples with His truth.

Psalm 97

A Song of Praise to the Sovereign LORD

[1]The LORD reigns;
Let the earth rejoice;
Let the multitude of isles be glad!

[2]Clouds and darkness surround Him;
Righteousness and justice are the foundation of His throne.
[3]A fire goes before Him,
And burns up His enemies round about.
[4]His lightnings light the world;
The earth sees and trembles.
[5]The mountains melt like wax at the presence of the LORD,
At the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.
[6]The heavens declare His righteousness,
And all the peoples see His glory.

[7]Let all be put to shame who serve carved images,
Who boast of idols.
Worship Him, all you gods.
[8]Zion hears and is glad,
And the daughters of Judah rejoice
Because of Your judgments, O LORD.
[9]For You, LORD, are most high above all the earth;
You are exalted far above all gods.

[10]You who love the LORD, hate evil!
He preserves the souls of His saints;
He delivers them out of the hand of the wicked.
[11]Light is sown for the righteous,
And gladness for the upright in heart.
[12]Rejoice in the LORD, you righteous,
And give thanks at the remembrance of His holy name.

Psalm 98

A Song of Praise to the LORD for His Salvation and Judgment

A Psalm.

[1]Oh, sing to the LORD a new song!
For He has done marvelous things;
His right hand and His holy arm have gained Him the victory.
[2]The LORD has made known His salvation;
His righteousness He has revealed in the sight of the nations.
[3]He has remembered His mercy and His faithfulness to the house of Israel;
All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

[4]Shout joyfully to the LORD, all the earth;
Break forth in song, rejoice, and sing praises.
[5]Sing to the LORD with the harp,
With the harp and the sound of a psalm,
[6]With trumpets and the sound of a horn;
Shout joyfully before the LORD, the King.

[7]Let the sea roar, and all its fullness,
The world and those who dwell in it;
[8]Let the rivers clap their hands;
Let the hills be joyful together
[9]before the LORD,
For He is coming to judge the earth.
With righteousness He shall judge the world,
And the peoples with equity.

Psalm 99

Praise to the LORD for His Holiness

[1]The LORD reigns;
Let the peoples tremble!
He dwells between the cherubim;
Let the earth be moved!
[2]The LORD is great in Zion,
And He is high above all the peoples.
[3]Let them praise Your great and awesome name—
He is holy.

[4]The King's strength also loves justice;
You have established equity;
You have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob.
[5]Exalt the LORD our God,
And worship at His footstool—
He is holy.

[6]Moses and Aaron were among His priests,
And Samuel was among those who called upon His name;
They called upon the LORD, and He answered them.
[7]He spoke to them in the cloudy pillar;
They kept His testimonies and the ordinance He gave them.

[8]You answered them, O LORD our God;
You were to them God-Who-Forgives,
Though You took vengeance on their deeds.
[9]Exalt the LORD our God,
And worship at His holy hill;
For the LORD our God is holy.

Psalm 100

A Song of Praise for the LORD’s Faithfulness to His People

A Psalm of Thanksgiving.

[1]Make a joyful shout to the LORD, all you lands!
[2]Serve the LORD with gladness;
Come before His presence with singing.
[3]Know that the LORD, He is God;
It is He who has made us, and not we ourselves;
We are His people and the sheep of His pasture.

[4]Enter into His gates with thanksgiving,
And into His courts with praise.
Be thankful to Him, and bless His name.
[5]For the LORD is good;
His mercy is everlasting,
And His truth endures to all generations.

Psalm 101

Promised Faithfulness to the LORD

A Psalm of David.

[1]I WILL sing of mercy and justice;
To You, O LORD, I will sing praises.

[2]I will behave wisely in a perfect way.
Oh, when will You come to me?
I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.

[3]I will set nothing wicked before my eyes;
I hate the work of those who fall away;
It shall not cling to me.
[4]A perverse heart shall depart from me;
I will not know wickedness.

[5]Whoever secretly slanders his neighbor,
Him I will destroy;
The one who has a haughty look and a proud heart,
Him I will not endure.

[6]My eyes shall be on the faithful of the land,
That they may dwell with me;
He who walks in a perfect way,
He shall serve me.
[7]He who works deceit shall not dwell within my house;
He who tells lies shall not continue in my presence.
[8]Early I will destroy all the wicked of the land,
That I may cut off all the evildoers from the city of the LORD.

Psalm 102

The LORD's Eternal Love

A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed and pours out his complaint before the LORD.

[1]Hear my prayer, O LORD,
And let my cry come to You.
[2]Do not hide Your face from me in the day of my trouble;
Incline Your ear to me;
In the day that I call, answer me speedily.

[3]For my days are consumed like smoke,
And my bones are burned like a hearth.
[4]My heart is stricken and withered like grass,
So that I forget to eat my bread.
[5]Because of the sound of my groaning
My bones cling to my skin.
[6]I am like a pelican of the wilderness;
I am like an owl of the desert.
[7]I lie awake,
And am like a sparrow alone on the housetop.

[8]My enemies reproach me all day long;
Those who deride me swear an oath against me.
[9]For I have eaten ashes like bread,
And mingled my drink with weeping,
[10]Because of Your indignation and Your wrath;
For You have lifted me up and cast me away.
[11]My days are like a shadow that lengthens,
And I wither away like grass.

[12]But You, O LORD, shall endure forever,
And the remembrance of Your name to all generations.
[13]You will arise and have mercy on Zion;

For the time to favor her,
Yes, the set time, has come.
[14]For Your servants take pleasure in her stones,
And show favor to her dust.
[15]So the nations shall fear the name of the LORD,
And all the kings of the earth Your glory.
[16]For the LORD shall build up Zion;
He shall appear in His glory.
[17]He shall regard the prayer of the destitute,
And shall not despise their prayer.

[18]This will be written for the generation to come,
That a people yet to be created may praise the LORD.
[19]For He looked down from the height of His sanctuary;
From heaven the LORD viewed the earth,
[20]To hear the groaning of the prisoner,
To release those appointed to death,
[21]To declare the name of the LORD in Zion,
And His praise in Jerusalem,
[22]When the peoples are gathered together,
And the kingdoms, to serve the LORD.

[23]He weakened my strength in the way;
He shortened my days.
[24]I said, “O my God,
Do not take me away in the midst of my days;
Your years are throughout all generations.
[25]Of old You laid the foundation of the earth,
And the heavens are the work of Your hands.
[26]They will perish, but You will endure;
Yes, they will all grow old like a garment;
Like a cloak You will change them,
And they will be changed.
[27]But You are the same,
And Your years will have no end.
[28]The children of Your servants will continue,

And their descendants will be established before You.”

Psalm 103

Praise for the LORD's Mercies

A Psalm of David.

[1]Bless the LORD, O my soul;
And all that is within me, bless His holy name!
[2]Bless the LORD, O my soul,
And forget not all His benefits:
[3]Who forgives all your iniquities,
Who heals all your diseases,
[4]Who redeems your life from destruction,
Who crowns you with lovingkindness and tender mercies,
[5]Who satisfies your mouth with good things,
So that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

[6]The LORD executes righteousness
And justice for all who are oppressed.
[7]He made known His ways to Moses,
His acts to the children of Israel.
[8]The LORD is merciful and gracious,
Slow to anger, and abounding in mercy.
[9]He will not always strive with us,
Nor will He keep His anger forever.
[10]He has not dealt with us according to our sins,
Nor punished us according to our iniquities.

[11]For as the heavens are high above the earth,
So great is His mercy toward those who fear Him;
[12]As far as the east is from the west,
So far has He removed our transgressions from us.
[13]As a father pities his children,
So the LORD pities those who fear Him.
[14]For He knows our frame;
He remembers that we are dust.

[15]As for man, his days are like grass;
As a flower of the field, so he flourishes.
[16]For the wind passes over it, and it is gone,
And its place remembers it no more.
[17]But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting
On those who fear Him,
And His righteousness to children's children,
[18]To such as keep His covenant,
And to those who remember His commandments to do them.

[19]The LORD has established His throne in heaven,
And His kingdom rules over all.

[20]Bless the LORD, you His angels,
Who excel in strength, who do His word,
Heeding the voice of His word.
[21]Bless the LORD, all you His hosts,
You ministers of His, who do His pleasure.
[22]Bless the LORD, all His works,
In all places of His dominion.
Bless the LORD, O my soul!

Psalm 104

Praise to the Sovereign LORD for His Creation and Providence

[1]Bless the LORD, O my soul!
O LORD my God, You are very great:
You are clothed with honor and majesty,
[2]Who cover Yourself with light as with a garment,
Who stretch out the heavens like a curtain.

[3]He lays the beams of His upper chambers in the waters,
Who makes the clouds His chariot,
Who walks on the wings of the wind,
[4]Who makes His angels spirits,
His ministers a flame of fire.

[5]You who laid the foundations of the earth,
So that it should not be moved forever,
[6]You covered it with the deep as with a garment;
The waters stood above the mountains.
[7]At Your rebuke they fled;
At the voice of Your thunder they hastened away.
[8]They went up over the mountains;
They went down into the valleys,
To the place which You founded for them.
[9]You have set a boundary that they may not pass over,
That they may not return to cover the earth.

[10]He sends the springs into the valleys;
They flow among the hills.
[11]They give drink to every beast of the field;
The wild donkeys quench their thirst.
[12]By them the birds of the heavens have their home;
They sing among the branches.
[13]He waters the hills from His upper chambers;
The earth is satisfied with the fruit of Your works.

[14]He causes the grass to grow for the cattle,
And vegetation for the service of man,
That he may bring forth food from the earth,
[15]And wine that makes glad the heart of man,
Oil to make his face shine,
And bread which strengthens man’s heart.
[16]The trees of the LORD are full of sap,
The cedars of Lebanon which He planted,
[17]Where the birds make their nests;
The stork has her home in the fir trees.
[18]The high hills are for the wild goats;
The cliffs are a refuge for the rock badgers.

[19]He appointed the moon for seasons;
The sun knows its going down.
[20]You make darkness, and it is night,
In which all the beasts of the forest creep about.
[21]The young lions roar after their prey,
And seek their food from God.
[22]When the sun rises, they gather together
And lie down in their dens.
[23]Man goes out to his work
And to his labor until the evening.

[24]O LORD, how manifold are Your works!
In wisdom You have made them all.
The earth is full of Your possessions—
[25]This great and wide sea,
In which are innumerable teeming things,
Living things both small and great.
[26]There the ships sail about;
There is that Leviathan
Which You have made to play there.

[27]These all wait for You,
That You may give them their food in due season.

[28]What You give them they gather in;
You open Your hand, they are filled with good.
[29]You hide Your face, they are troubled;
You take away their breath, they die and return to their dust.
[30]You send forth Your Spirit, they are created;
And You renew the face of the earth.

[31]May the glory of the LORD endure forever;
May the LORD rejoice in His works.
[32]He looks on the earth, and it trembles;
He touches the hills, and they smoke.

[33]I will sing to the LORD as long as I live;
I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.
[34]May my meditation be sweet to Him;
I will be glad in the LORD.
[35]May sinners be consumed from the earth,
And the wicked be no more.
Bless the LORD, O my soul!
Praise the LORD!

Psalm 105

The Eternal Faithfulness of the LORD

[1]Oh, give thanks to the LORD!
Call upon His name;
Make known His deeds among the peoples!
[2]Sing to Him, sing psalms to Him;
Talk of all His wondrous works!
[3]Glory in His holy name;
Let the hearts of those rejoice who seek the LORD!
[4]Seek the LORD and His strength;
Seek His face evermore!
[5]Remember His marvelous works which He has done,
His wonders, and the judgments of His mouth,
[6]O seed of Abraham His servant,
You children of Jacob, His chosen ones!

[7]He is the LORD our God;
His judgments are in all the earth.
[8]He remembers His covenant forever,
The word which He commanded, for a thousand generations,
[9]The covenant which He made with Abraham,
And His oath to Isaac,
[10]And confirmed it to Jacob for a statute,
To Israel as an everlasting covenant,
[11]Saying, “To you I will give the land of Canaan
As the allotment of your inheritance,”
[12]When they were few in number,
Indeed very few, and strangers in it.

[13]When they went from one nation to another,
From one kingdom to another people,
[14]He permitted no one to do them wrong;
Yes, He rebuked kings for their sakes,

[15]Saying, "Do not touch My anointed ones,
And do My prophets no harm."

[16]Moreover He called for a famine in the land;
He destroyed all the provision of bread.
[17]He sent a man before them—
Joseph—who was sold as a slave.
[18]They hurt his feet with fetters,
He was laid in irons.
[19]Until the time that his word came to pass,
The word of the LORD tested him.
[20]The king sent and released him,
The ruler of the people let him go free.
[21]He made him lord of his house,
And ruler of all his possessions,
[22]To bind his princes at his pleasure,
And teach his elders wisdom.

[23]Israel also came into Egypt,
And Jacob dwelt in the land of Ham.
[24]He increased His people greatly,
And made them stronger than their enemies.
[25]He turned their heart to hate His people,
To deal craftily with His servants.

[26]He sent Moses His servant,
And Aaron whom He had chosen.
[27]They performed His signs among them,
And wonders in the land of Ham.
[28]He sent darkness, and made it dark;
And they did not rebel against His word.
[29]He turned their waters into blood,
And killed their fish.
[30]Their land abounded with frogs,
Even in the chambers of their kings.
[31]He spoke, and there came swarms of flies,

And lice in all their territory.
[32]He gave them hail for rain,
And flaming fire in their land.
[33]He struck their vines also, and their fig trees,
And splintered the trees of their territory.
[34]He spoke, and locusts came,
Young locusts without number,
[35]And ate up all the vegetation in their land,
And devoured the fruit of their ground.
[36]He also destroyed all the firstborn in their land,
The first of all their strength.

[37]He also brought them out with silver and gold,
And there was none feeble among His tribes.
[38]Egypt was glad when they departed,
For the fear of them had fallen upon them.
[39]He spread a cloud for a covering,
And fire to give light in the night.
[40]The people asked, and He brought quail,
And satisfied them with the bread of heaven.
[41]He opened the rock, and water gushed out;
It ran in the dry places like a river.

[42]For He remembered His holy promise,
And Abraham His servant.
[43]He brought out His people with joy,
His chosen ones with gladness.
[44]He gave them the lands of the Gentiles,
And they inherited the labor of the nations,
[45]That they might observe His statutes
And keep His laws.
Praise the LORD!

Psalm 106

Joy in Forgiveness of Israel's Sins

[1]Praise the LORD!
Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good!
For His mercy endures forever.

[2]Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD?
Who can declare all His praise?
[3]Blessed are those who keep justice,
And he who does righteousness at all times!

[4]Remember me, O LORD, with the favor You have toward Your people.
Oh, visit me with Your salvation,
[5]That I may see the benefit of Your chosen ones,
That I may rejoice in the gladness of Your nation,
That I may glory with Your inheritance.

[6]We have sinned with our fathers,
We have committed iniquity,
We have done wickedly.
[7]Our fathers in Egypt did not understand Your wonders;
They did not remember the multitude of Your mercies,
But rebelled by the sea—the Red Sea.

[8]Nevertheless He saved them for His name's sake,
That He might make His mighty power known.
[9]He rebuked the Red Sea also, and it dried up;
So He led them through the depths,
As through the wilderness.
[10]He saved them from the hand of him who hated them,
And redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.
[11]The waters covered their enemies;
There was not one of them left.

[12]Then they believed His words;
They sang His praise.

[13]They soon forgot His works;
They did not wait for His counsel,
[14]But lusted exceedingly in the wilderness,
And tested God in the desert.
[15]And He gave them their request,
But sent leanness into their soul.

[16]When they envied Moses in the camp,
And Aaron the saint of the LORD,
[17]The earth opened up and swallowed Dathan,
And covered the faction of Abiram.
[18]A fire was kindled in their company;
The flame burned up the wicked.

[19]They made a calf in Horeb,
And worshiped the molded image.
[20]Thus they changed their glory
Into the image of an ox that eats grass.
[21]They forgot God their Savior,
Who had done great things in Egypt,
[22]Wondrous works in the land of Ham,
Awesome things by the Red Sea.
[23]Therefore He said that He would destroy them,
Had not Moses His chosen one stood before Him in the breach,
To turn away His wrath, lest He destroy them.

[24]Then they despised the pleasant land;
They did not believe His word,
[25]But complained in their tents,
And did not heed the voice of the LORD.
[26]Therefore He raised up His hand in an oath against them,
To overthrow them in the wilderness,

[27]To overthrow their descendants among the nations,
And to scatter them in the lands.

[28]They joined themselves also to Baal of Peor,
And ate sacrifices made to the dead.
[29]Thus they provoked Him to anger with their deeds,
And the plague broke out among them.
[30]Then Phinehas stood up and intervened,
And the plague was stopped.
[31]And that was accounted to him for righteousness
To all generations forevermore.

[32]They angered Him also at the waters of strife,
So that it went ill with Moses on account of them;
[33]Because they rebelled against His Spirit,
So that he spoke rashly with his lips.

[34]They did not destroy the peoples,
Concerning whom the LORD had commanded them,
[35]But they mingled with the Gentiles
And learned their works;
[36]They served their idols,
Which became a snare to them.
[37]They even sacrificed their sons
And their daughters to demons,
[38]And shed innocent blood,
The blood of their sons and daughters,
Whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan;
And the land was polluted with blood.
[39]Thus they were defiled by their own works,
And played the harlot by their own deeds.

[40]Therefore the wrath of the LORD was kindled against His people,
So that He abhorred His own inheritance.
[41]And He gave them into the hand of the Gentiles,
And those who hated them ruled over them.

[42]Their enemies also oppressed them,
And they were brought into subjection under their hand.
[43]Many times He delivered them;
But they rebelled in their counsel,
And were brought low for their iniquity.

[44]Nevertheless He regarded their affliction,
When He heard their cry;
[45]And for their sake He remembered His covenant,
And relented according to the multitude of His mercies.
[46]He also made them to be pitied
By all those who carried them away captive.

[47]Save us, O LORD our God,
And gather us from among the Gentiles,
To give thanks to Your holy name,
To triumph in Your praise.

[48]Blessed be the LORD God of Israel
From everlasting to everlasting!
And let all the people say, “Amen!”
Praise the LORD!

BOOK FIVE

Psalms 107—150

Psalm 107

Thanksgiving to the LORD for His Great Works of Deliverance

[1]Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good!
For His mercy endures forever.
[2]Let the redeemed of the LORD say so,
Whom He has redeemed from the hand of the enemy,
[3]And gathered out of the lands,
From the east and from the west,
From the north and from the south.

[4]They wandered in the wilderness in a desolate way;
They found no city to dwell in.
[5]Hungry and thirsty,
Their soul fainted in them.
[6]Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble,
And He delivered them out of their distresses.
[7]And He led them forth by the right way,
That they might go to a city for a dwelling place.
[8]Oh, that men would give thanks to the LORD for His goodness,
And for His wonderful works to the children of men!
[9]For He satisfies the longing soul,
And fills the hungry soul with goodness.

[10]Those who sat in darkness and in the shadow of death,
Bound in affliction and irons—
[11]Because they rebelled against the words of God,
And despised the counsel of the Most High,
[12]Therefore He brought down their heart with labor;

They fell down, and there was none to help.
[13]Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble,
And He saved them out of their distresses.
[14]He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death,
And broke their chains in pieces.
[15]Oh, that men would give thanks to the LORD for His goodness,
And for His wonderful works to the children of men!
[16]For He has broken the gates of bronze,
And cut the bars of iron in two.

[17]Fools, because of their transgression,
And because of their iniquities, were afflicted.
[18]Their soul abhorred all manner of food,
And they drew near to the gates of death.
[19]Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble,
And He saved them out of their distresses.
[20]He sent His word and healed them,
And delivered them from their destructions.
[21]Oh, that men would give thanks to the LORD for His goodness,
And for His wonderful works to the children of men!
[22]Let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving,
And declare His works with rejoicing.

[23]Those who go down to the sea in ships,
Who do business on great waters,
[24]They see the works of the LORD,
And His wonders in the deep.
[25]For He commands and raises the stormy wind,
Which lifts up the waves of the sea.
[26]They mount up to the heavens,
They go down again to the depths;
Their soul melts because of trouble.
[27]They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man,
And are at their wits' end.

[28]Then they cry out to the LORD in their trouble,
And He brings them out of their distresses.
[29]He calms the storm,
So that its waves are still.
[30]Then they are glad because they are quiet;
So He guides them to their desired haven.
[31]Oh, that men would give thanks to the LORD for His goodness,
And for His wonderful works to the children of men!
[32]Let them exalt Him also in the assembly of the people,
And praise Him in the company of the elders.

[33]He turns rivers into a wilderness,
And the watersprings into dry ground;
[34]A fruitful land into barrenness,
For the wickedness of those who dwell in it.
[35]He turns a wilderness into pools of water,
And dry land into watersprings.
[36]There He makes the hungry dwell,
That they may establish a city for a dwelling place,
[37]And sow fields and plant vineyards,
That they may yield a fruitful harvest.
[38]He also blesses them, and they multiply greatly;
And He does not let their cattle decrease.

[39]When they are diminished and brought low
Through oppression, affliction, and sorrow,
[40]He pours contempt on princes,
And causes them to wander in the wilderness where there is no way;
[41]Yet He sets the poor on high, far from affliction,
And makes their families like a flock.
[42]The righteous see it and rejoice,
And all iniquity stops its mouth.

[43]Whoever is wise will observe these things,

And they will understand the lovingkindness of the LORD.

Psalm 108

Assurance of God's Victory over Enemies

A Song. A Psalm of David.

[1]O GOD, my heart is steadfast;
I will sing and give praise, even with my glory.
[2]Awake, lute and harp!
I will awaken the dawn.
[3]I will praise You, O LORD, among the peoples,
And I will sing praises to You among the nations.
[4]For Your mercy is great above the heavens,
And Your truth reaches to the clouds.

[5]Be exalted, O God, above the heavens,
And Your glory above all the earth;
[6]That Your beloved may be delivered,
Save with Your right hand, and hear me.

[7]God has spoken in His holiness:
“I will rejoice;
I will divide Shechem
And measure out the Valley of Succoth.
[8]Gilead is Mine; Manasseh is Mine;
Ephraim also is the helmet for My head;
Judah is My lawgiver.
[9]Moab is My washpot;
Over Edom I will cast My shoe;
Over Philistia I will triumph.”

[10]Who will bring me into the strong city?
Who will lead me to Edom?
[11]Is it not You, O God, who cast us off?
And You, O God, who did not go out with our armies?
[12]Give us help from trouble,

For the help of man is useless.
[13]Through God we will do valiantly,
For it is He who shall tread down our enemies.

Psalm 109

Plea for Judgment of False Accusers

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

[1]Do not keep silent,
O God of my praise!
[2]For the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of the deceitful
Have opened against me;
They have spoken against me with a lying tongue.
[3]They have also surrounded me with words of hatred,
And fought against me without a cause.
[4]In return for my love they are my accusers,
But I give myself to prayer.
[5]Thus they have rewarded me evil for good,
And hatred for my love.

[6]Set a wicked man over him,
And let an accuser stand at his right hand.
[7]When he is judged, let him be found guilty,
And let his prayer become sin.
[8]Let his days be few,
And let another take his office.
[9]Let his children be fatherless,
And his wife a widow.
[10]Let his children continually be vagabonds, and beg;
Let them seek their bread also from their desolate places.
[11]Let the creditor seize all that he has,
And let strangers plunder his labor.
[12]Let there be none to extend mercy to him,
Nor let there be any to favor his fatherless children.
[13]Let his posterity be cut off,
And in the generation following let their name be blotted out.

[14]Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered before the LORD,
And let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.
[15]Let them be continually before the LORD,
That He may cut off the memory of them from the earth;
[16]Because he did not remember to show mercy,
But persecuted the poor and needy man,
That he might even slay the broken in heart.
[17]As he loved cursing, so let it come to him;
As he did not delight in blessing, so let it be far from him.
[18]As he clothed himself with cursing as with his garment,
So let it enter his body like water,
And like oil into his bones.
[19]Let it be to him like the garment which covers him,
And for a belt with which he girds himself continually.
[20]Let this be the LORD's reward to my accusers,
And to those who speak evil against my person.

[21]But You, O GOD the Lord,
Deal with me for Your name's sake;
Because Your mercy is good, deliver me.
[22]For I am poor and needy,
And my heart is wounded within me.
[23]I am gone like a shadow when it lengthens;
I am shaken off like a locust.
[24]My knees are weak through fasting,
And my flesh is feeble from lack of fatness.
[25]I also have become a reproach to them;
When they look at me, they shake their heads.

[26]Help me, O LORD my God!
Oh, save me according to Your mercy,
[27]That they may know that this is Your hand—
That You, LORD, have done it!
[28]Let them curse, but You bless;
When they arise, let them be ashamed,

But let Your servant rejoice.
[29]Let my accusers be clothed with shame,
And let them cover themselves with their own disgrace as
with a mantle.

[30]I will greatly praise the LORD with my mouth;
Yes, I will praise Him among the multitude.
[31]For He shall stand at the right hand of the poor,
To save him from those who condemn him.

Psalm 110

Announcement of the Messiah's Reign

A Psalm of David.

[1]The LORD said to my Lord,
"Sit at My right hand,
Till I make Your enemies Your footstool."
[2]The LORD shall send the rod of Your strength out of Zion.
Rule in the midst of Your enemies!

[3]Your people shall be volunteers
In the day of Your power;
In the beauties of holiness, from the womb of the morning,
You have the dew of Your youth.
[4]The LORD has sworn
And will not relent,
"You are a priest forever
According to the order of Melchizedek."

[5]The Lord is at Your right hand;
He shall execute kings in the day of His wrath.
[6]He shall judge among the nations,
He shall fill the places with dead bodies,
He shall execute the heads of many countries.
[7]He shall drink of the brook by the wayside;
Therefore He shall lift up the head.

Psalm 111

Praise to God for His Faithfulness and Justice

[1]Praise the LORD!
I will praise the LORD with my whole heart,
In the assembly of the upright and in the congregation.

[2]The works of the LORD are great,
Studied by all who have pleasure in them.
[3]His work is honorable and glorious,
And His righteousness endures forever.
[4]He has made His wonderful works to be remembered;
The LORD is gracious and full of compassion.
[5]He has given food to those who fear Him;
He will ever be mindful of His covenant.
[6]He has declared to His people the power of His works,
In giving them the heritage of the nations.

[7]The works of His hands are verity and justice;
All His precepts are sure.
[8]They stand fast forever and ever,
And are done in truth and uprightness.
[9]He has sent redemption to His people;
He has commanded His covenant forever:
Holy and awesome is His name.

[10]The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom;
A good understanding have all those who do His commandments.
His praise endures forever.

Psalm 112

The Blessed State of the Righteous

[1]Praise the LORD!
Blessed is the man who fears the LORD,
Who delights greatly in His commandments.

[2]His descendants will be mighty on earth;
The generation of the upright will be blessed.
[3]Wealth and riches will be in his house,
And his righteousness endures forever.
[4]Unto the upright there arises light in the darkness;
He is gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous.
[5]A good man deals graciously and lends;
He will guide his affairs with discretion.
[6]Surely he will never be shaken;
The righteous will be in everlasting remembrance.
[7]He will not be afraid of evil tidings;
His heart is steadfast, trusting in the LORD.
[8]His heart is established;
He will not be afraid,
Until he sees his desire upon his enemies.

[9]He has dispersed abroad,
He has given to the poor;
His righteousness endures forever;
His horn will be exalted with honor.
[10]The wicked will see it and be grieved;
He will gnash his teeth and melt away;
The desire of the wicked shall perish.

Psalm 113

The Majesty and Condescension of God

[1]Praise the LORD!
Praise, O servants of the LORD,
Praise the name of the LORD!
[2]Blessed be the name of the LORD
From this time forth and forevermore!
[3]From the rising of the sun to its going down
The LORD's name is to be praised.

[4]The LORD is high above all nations,
His glory above the heavens.
[5]Who is like the LORD our God,
Who dwells on high,
[6]Who humbles Himself to behold
The things that are in the heavens and in the earth?

[7]He raises the poor out of the dust,
And lifts the needy out of the ash heap,
[8]That He may seat him with princes—
With the princes of His people.
[9]He grants the barren woman a home,
Like a joyful mother of children.
Praise the LORD!

Psalm 114

The Power of God in His Deliverance of Israel

[1]When Israel went out of Egypt,
The house of Jacob from a people of strange language,
[2]Judah became His sanctuary,
And Israel His dominion.

[3]The sea saw it and fled;
Jordan turned back.
[4]The mountains skipped like rams,
The little hills like lambs.
[5]What ails you, O sea, that you fled?
O Jordan, that you turned back?
[6]O mountains, that you skipped like rams?
O little hills, like lambs?

[7]Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the Lord,
At the presence of the God of Jacob,
[8]Who turned the rock into a pool of water,
The flint into a fountain of waters.

Psalm 115

The Futility of Idols and the Trustworthiness of God

[1]Not unto us, O LORD, not unto us,
But to Your name give glory,
Because of Your mercy,
Because of Your truth.
[2]Why should the Gentiles say,
“So where is their God?”

[3]But our God is in heaven;
He does whatever He pleases.
[4]Their idols are silver and gold,
The work of men’s hands.
[5]They have mouths, but they do not speak;
Eyes they have, but they do not see;
[6]They have ears, but they do not hear;
Noses they have, but they do not smell;
[7]They have hands, but they do not handle;
Feet they have, but they do not walk;
Nor do they mutter through their throat.
[8]Those who make them are like them;
So is everyone who trusts in them.

[9]O Israel, trust in the LORD;
He is their help and their shield.
[10]O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD;
He is their help and their shield.
[11]You who fear the LORD, trust in the LORD;
He is their help and their shield.

[12]The LORD has been mindful of us;
He will bless us;
He will bless the house of Israel;
He will bless the house of Aaron.

[13]He will bless those who fear the LORD,
Both small and great.

[14]May the LORD give you increase more and more,
You and your children.
[15]May you be blessed by the LORD,
Who made heaven and earth.

[16]The heaven, even the heavens, are the LORD's;
But the earth He has given to the children of men.
[17]The dead do not praise the LORD,
Nor any who go down into silence.
[18]But we will bless the LORD
From this time forth and forevermore.
Praise the LORD!

Psalm 116

Thanksgiving for Deliverance from Death

[1]I LOVE the LORD, because He has heard
My voice and my supplications.
[2]Because He has inclined His ear to me,
Therefore I will call upon Him as long as I live.

[3]The pains of death surrounded me,
And the pangs of Sheol laid hold of me;
I found trouble and sorrow.
[4]Then I called upon the name of the LORD:
"O LORD, I implore You, deliver my soul!"

[5]Gracious is the LORD, and righteous;
Yes, our God is merciful.
[6]The LORD preserves the simple;
I was brought low, and He saved me.
[7]Return to your rest, O my soul,
For the LORD has dealt bountifully with you.

[8]For You have delivered my soul from death,
My eyes from tears,
And my feet from falling.
[9]I will walk before the LORD
In the land of the living.
[10]I believed, therefore I spoke,
"I am greatly afflicted."
[11]I said in my haste,
"All men are liars."

[12]What shall I render to the LORD
For all His benefits toward me?
[13]I will take up the cup of salvation,
And call upon the name of the LORD.

[14]I will pay my vows to the LORD
Now in the presence of all His people.

[15]Precious in the sight of the LORD
Is the death of His saints.

[16]O LORD, truly I am Your servant;
I am Your servant, the son of Your maidservant;
You have loosed my bonds.
[17]I will offer to You the sacrifice of thanksgiving,
And will call upon the name of the LORD.

[18]I will pay my vows to the LORD
Now in the presence of all His people,
[19]In the courts of the LORD's house,
In the midst of you, O Jerusalem.
Praise the LORD!

Psalm 117

Let All Peoples Praise the LORD

[1]Praise the LORD, all you Gentiles!
Laud Him, all you peoples!
[2]For His merciful kindness is great toward us,
And the truth of the LORD endures forever.
Praise the LORD!

Psalm 118

Praise to God for His Everlasting Mercy

[1]Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good!
For His mercy endures forever.

[2]Let Israel now say,
“His mercy endures forever.”
[3]Let the house of Aaron now say,
“His mercy endures forever.”
[4]Let those who fear the LORD now say,
“His mercy endures forever.”

[5]I called on the LORD in distress;
The LORD answered me and set me in a broad place.
[6]The LORD is on my side;
I will not fear.
What can man do to me?
[7]The LORD is for me among those who help me;
Therefore I shall see my desire on those who hate me.
[8]It is better to trust in the LORD
Than to put confidence in man.
[9]It is better to trust in the LORD
Than to put confidence in princes.

[10]All nations surrounded me,
But in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.
[11]They surrounded me,
Yes, they surrounded me;
But in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.
[12]They surrounded me like bees;
They were quenched like a fire of thorns;
For in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.
[13]You pushed me violently, that I might fall,
But the LORD helped me.

[14]The LORD is my strength and song,
And He has become my salvation.

[15]The voice of rejoicing and salvation
Is in the tents of the righteous;
The right hand of the LORD does valiantly.
[16]The right hand of the LORD is exalted;
The right hand of the LORD does valiantly.
[17]I shall not die, but live,
And declare the works of the LORD.
[18]The LORD has chastened me severely,
But He has not given me over to death.

[19]Open to me the gates of righteousness;
I will go through them,
And I will praise the LORD.
[20]This is the gate of the LORD,
Through which the righteous shall enter.

[21]I will praise You,
For You have answered me,
And have become my salvation.

[22]The stone which the builders rejected
Has become the chief cornerstone.
[23]This was the LORD's doing;
It is marvelous in our eyes.
[24]This is the day the LORD has made;
We will rejoice and be glad in it.

[25]Save now, I pray, O LORD;
O LORD, I pray, send now prosperity.
[26]Blessed is he who comes in the name of the LORD!
We have blessed you from the house of the LORD.
[27]God is the LORD,
And He has given us light;
Bind the sacrifice with cords to the horns of the altar.

[28]You are my God, and I will praise You;
You are my God, I will exalt You.

[29]Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good!
For His mercy endures forever.

Psalm 119

Meditations on the Excellencies of the Word of God

א ALEPH

[1]Blessed are the undefiled in the way,
Who walk in the law of the LORD!
[2]Blessed are those who keep His testimonies,
Who seek Him with the whole heart!
[3]They also do no iniquity;
They walk in His ways.
[4]You have commanded us
To keep Your precepts diligently.
[5]Oh, that my ways were directed
To keep Your statutes!
[6]Then I would not be ashamed,
When I look into all Your commandments.
[7]I will praise You with uprightness of heart,
When I learn Your righteous judgments.
[8]I will keep Your statutes;
Oh, do not forsake me utterly!

ב BETH

[9]How can a young man cleanse his way?
By taking heed according to Your word.
[10]With my whole heart I have sought You;
Oh, let me not wander from Your commandments!
[11]Your word I have hidden in my heart,
That I might not sin against You.
[12]Blessed are You, O LORD!
Teach me Your statutes.
[13]With my lips I have declared
All the judgments of Your mouth.
[14]I have rejoiced in the way of Your testimonies,
As much as in all riches.

[15]I will meditate on Your precepts,
And contemplate Your ways.
[16]I will delight myself in Your statutes;
I will not forget Your word.

ג GIMEL

Wondrous things from Your law.

Do not hide Your commandments from me.
[20]My soul breaks with longing
For Your judgments at all times.
[21]You rebuke the proud—the cursed,
Who stray from Your commandments.
[22]Remove from me reproach and contempt,
For I have kept Your testimonies.
[23]Princes also sit and speak against me,
But Your servant meditates on Your statutes.
[24]Your testimonies also are my delight
And my counselors.

[28]My soul melts from heaviness;
Strengthen me according to Your word.
[29]Remove from me the way of lying,
And grant me Your law graciously.
[30]I have chosen the way of truth;
Your judgments I have laid before me.

[31]I cling to Your testimonies;
O LORD, do not put me to shame!
[32]I will run the course of Your commandments,
For You shall enlarge my heart.

ה HE

Indeed, I shall observe it with my whole heart.
[35]Make me walk in the path of Your commandments,
For I delight in it.
[36]Incline my heart to Your testimonies,
And not to covetousness.
[37]Turn away my eyes from looking at worthless things,
And revive me in Your way.
[38]Establish Your word to Your servant,
Who is devoted to fearing You.
[39]Turn away my reproach which I dread,
For Your judgments are good.
[40]Behold, I long for Your precepts;
Revive me in Your righteousness.

ו WAW

[41]Let Your mercies come also to me, O LORD—
Your salvation according to Your word.
[42]So shall I have an answer for him who reproaches me,
For I trust in Your word.
[43]And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth,
For I have hoped in Your ordinances.
[44]So shall I keep Your law continually,
Forever and ever.
[45]And I will walk at liberty,
For I seek Your precepts.
[46]I will speak of Your testimonies also before kings,
And will not be ashamed.

[47]And I will delight myself in Your commandments,
Which I love.
[48]My hands also I will lift up to Your commandments,
Which I love,
And I will meditate on Your statutes.

For Your word has given me life.
[51]The proud have me in great derision,
Yet I do not turn aside from Your law.
[52]I remembered Your judgments of old, O LORD,
And have comforted myself.
[53]Indignation has taken hold of me
Because of the wicked, who forsake Your law.
[54]Your statutes have been my songs
In the house of my pilgrimage.
[55]I remember Your name in the night, O LORD,
And I keep Your law.
[56]This has become mine,
Because I kept Your precepts.

And turned my feet to Your testimonies.
[60]I made haste, and did not delay
To keep Your commandments.
[61]The cords of the wicked have bound me,
But I have not forgotten Your law.
[62]At midnight I will rise to give thanks to You,

Because of Your righteous judgments.

But I will keep Your precepts with my whole heart.
[70]Their heart is as fat as grease,
But I delight in Your law.
[71]It is good for me that I have been afflicted,
That I may learn Your statutes.
[72]The law of Your mouth is better to me
Than thousands of coins of gold and silver.

Give me understanding, that I may learn Your commandments.
[74]Those who fear You will be glad when they see me,
Because I have hoped in Your word.

According to Your word to Your servant.
[77]Let Your tender mercies come to me, that I may live;
For Your law is my delight.

[78]Let the proud be ashamed,
For they treated me wrongfully with falsehood;
But I will meditate on Your precepts.

Those who know Your testimonies.
[80]Let my heart be blameless regarding Your statutes,
That I may not be ashamed.

כ KAPH

[81]My soul faints for Your salvation,

Saying, “When will You comfort me?”
[83]For I have become like a wineskin in smoke,
Yet I do not forget Your statutes.
[84]How many are the days of Your servant?
When will You execute judgment on those who persecute me?
[85]The proud have dug pits for me,
Which is not according to Your law.
[86]All Your commandments are faithful;
They persecute me wrongfully;
Help me!
[87]They almost made an end of me on earth,
But I did not forsake Your precepts.
[88]Revive me according to Your lovingkindness,
So that I may keep the testimony of Your mouth.

ל LAMED

[89]Forever, O LORD,
Your word is settled in heaven.
[90]Your faithfulness endures to all generations;
You established the earth, and it abides.
[91]They continue this day according to Your ordinances,
For all are Your servants.
[92]Unless Your law had been my delight,

I would then have perished in my affliction.
[93]I will never forget Your precepts,
For by them You have given me life.
[94]I am Yours, save me;
For I have sought Your precepts.

That I may keep Your word.
[102]I have not departed from Your judgments,

Psalm 120

Plea for Relief from Bitter Foes

A Song of Ascents.

[1]In my distress I cried to the LORD,
And He heard me.
[2]Deliver my soul, O LORD, from lying lips
And from a deceitful tongue.

[3]What shall be given to you,
Or what shall be done to you,
You false tongue?
[4]Sharp arrows of the warrior,
With coals of the broom tree!

[5]Woe is me, that I dwell in Meshech,
That I dwell among the tents of Kedar!
[6]My soul has dwelt too long
With one who hates peace.
[7]I am for peace;
But when I speak, they are for war.

Psalm 121

God the Help of Those Who Seek Him

A Song of Ascents.

[1]I WILL lift up my eyes to the hills—
From whence comes my help?
[2]My help comes from the LORD,
Who made heaven and earth.

[3]He will not allow your foot to be moved;
He who keeps you will not slumber.
[4]Behold, He who keeps Israel
Shall neither slumber nor sleep.

[5]The LORD is your keeper;
The LORD is your shade at your right hand.
[6]The sun shall not strike you by day,
Nor the moon by night.

[7]The LORD shall preserve you from all evil;
He shall preserve your soul.
[8]The LORD shall preserve your going out and your coming in
From this time forth, and even forevermore.

Psalm 122

The Joy of Going to the House of the LORD

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

[1]I WAS glad when they said to me,
"Let us go into the house of the LORD."
[2]Our feet have been standing
Within your gates, O Jerusalem!

[3]Jerusalem is built
As a city that is compact together,
[4]Where the tribes go up,
The tribes of the LORD,
To the Testimony of Israel,
To give thanks to the name of the LORD.
[5]For thrones are set there for judgment,
The thrones of the house of David.

[6]Pray for the peace of Jerusalem:
"May they prosper who love you.
[7]Peace be within your walls,
Prosperity within your palaces."
[8]For the sake of my brethren and companions,
I will now say, "Peace be within you."
[9]Because of the house of the LORD our God
I will seek your good.

Psalm 123

Prayer for Relief from Contempt

A Song of Ascents.

[1]Unto You I lift up my eyes,
O You who dwell in the heavens.
[2]Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their masters,
As the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress,
So our eyes look to the LORD our God,
Until He has mercy on us.
[3]Have mercy on us, O LORD, have mercy on us!
For we are exceedingly filled with contempt.
[4]Our soul is exceedingly filled
With the scorn of those who are at ease,
With the contempt of the proud.

Psalm 124

The LORD the Defense of His People

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

[1]“IF it had not been the LORD who was on our side,”
Let Israel now say—
[2]“If it had not been the LORD who was on our side,
When men rose up against us,
[3]Then they would have swallowed us alive,
When their wrath was kindled against us;
[4]Then the waters would have overwhelmed us,
The stream would have gone over our soul;
[5]Then the swollen waters
Would have gone over our soul.”

[6]Blessed be the LORD,
Who has not given us as prey to their teeth.
[7]Our soul has escaped as a bird from the snare of the fowlers;
The snare is broken, and we have escaped.
[8]Our help is in the name of the LORD,
Who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 125

The LORD the Strength of His People

A Song of Ascents.

[1]Those who trust in the LORD
Are like Mount Zion,
Which cannot be moved, but abides forever.
[2]As the mountains surround Jerusalem,
So the LORD surrounds His people
From this time forth and forever.

[3]For the scepter of wickedness shall not rest
On the land allotted to the righteous,
Lest the righteous reach out their hands to iniquity.

[4]Do good, O LORD, to those who are good,
And to those who are upright in their hearts.

[5]As for such as turn aside to their crooked ways,
The LORD shall lead them away
With the workers of iniquity.
Peace be upon Israel!

Psalm 126

A Joyful Return to Zion

A Song of Ascents.

[1]When the LORD brought back the captivity of Zion,
We were like those who dream.
[2]Then our mouth was filled with laughter,
And our tongue with singing.
Then they said among the nations,
“The LORD has done great things for them.”
[3]The LORD has done great things for us,
And we are glad.

[4]Bring back our captivity, O LORD,
As the streams in the South.

[5]Those who sow in tears
Shall reap in joy.
[6]He who continually goes forth weeping,
Bearing seed for sowing,
Shall doubtless come again with rejoicing,
Bringing his sheaves with him.

Psalm 127

Laboring and Prospering with the LORD

A Song of Ascents. Of Solomon.

[1]Unless the LORD builds the house,
They labor in vain who build it;
Unless the LORD guards the city,
The watchman stays awake in vain.
[2]It is vain for you to rise up early,
To sit up late,
To eat the bread of sorrows;
For so He gives His beloved sleep.

[3]Behold, children are a heritage from the LORD,
The fruit of the womb is a reward.
[4]Like arrows in the hand of a warrior,
So are the children of one's youth.
[5]Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them;
They shall not be ashamed,
But shall speak with their enemies in the gate.

Psalm 128

Blessings of Those Who Fear the LORD

A Song of Ascents.

[1]Blessed is every one who fears the LORD,
Who walks in His ways.

[2]When you eat the labor of your hands,
You shall be happy, and it shall be well with you.
[3]Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine
In the very heart of your house,
Your children like olive plants
All around your table.
[4]Behold, thus shall the man be blessed
Who fears the LORD.

[5]The LORD bless you out of Zion,
And may you see the good of Jerusalem
All the days of your life.
[6]Yes, may you see your children's children.
Peace be upon Israel!

Psalm 129

Song of Victory over Zion's Enemies

A Song of Ascents.

[1]"MANY a time they have afflicted me from my youth,"
Let Israel now say—
[2]"Many a time they have afflicted me from my youth;
Yet they have not prevailed against me.
[3]The plowers plowed on my back;
They made their furrows long."
[4]The LORD is righteous;
He has cut in pieces the cords of the wicked.

[5]Let all those who hate Zion
Be put to shame and turned back.
[6]Let them be as the grass on the housetops,
Which withers before it grows up,
[7]With which the reaper does not fill his hand,
Nor he who binds sheaves, his arms.
[8]Neither let those who pass by them say,
"The blessing of the LORD be upon you;
We bless you in the name of the LORD!"

Psalm 130

Waiting for the Redemption of the LORD

A Song of Ascents.

[1]Out of the depths I have cried to You, O LORD;
[2]Lord, hear my voice!
Let Your ears be attentive
To the voice of my supplications.

[3]If You, LORD, should mark iniquities,
O Lord, who could stand?
[4]But there is forgiveness with You,
That You may be feared.

[5]I wait for the LORD, my soul waits,
And in His word I do hope.
[6]My soul waits for the Lord
More than those who watch for the morning—
Yes, more than those who watch for the morning.

[7]O Israel, hope in the LORD;
For with the LORD there is mercy,
And with Him is abundant redemption.
[8]And He shall redeem Israel
From all his iniquities.

Psalm 131

Simple Trust in the LORD

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

[1]LORD, my heart is not haughty,
Nor my eyes lofty.
Neither do I concern myself with great matters,
Nor with things too profound for me.

[2]Surely I have calmed and quieted my soul,
Like a weaned child with his mother;
Like a weaned child is my soul within me.

[3]O Israel, hope in the LORD
From this time forth and forever.

Psalm 132

The Eternal Dwelling of God in Zion

A Song of Ascents.

[1]LORD, remember David
And all his afflictions;
[2]How he swore to the LORD,
And vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob:
[3]“Surely I will not go into the chamber of my house,
Or go up to the comfort of my bed;
[4]I will not give sleep to my eyes
Or slumber to my eyelids,
[5]Until I find a place for the LORD,
A dwelling place for the Mighty One of Jacob.”

[6]Behold, we heard of it in Ephrathah;
We found it in the fields of the woods.
[7]Let us go into His tabernacle;
Let us worship at His footstool.
[8]Arise, O LORD, to Your resting place,
You and the ark of Your strength.
[9]Let Your priests be clothed with righteousness,
And let Your saints shout for joy.

[10]For Your servant David’s sake,
Do not turn away the face of Your Anointed.

[11]The LORD has sworn in truth to David;
He will not turn from it:
“I will set upon your throne the fruit of your body.
[12]If your sons will keep My covenant
And My testimony which I shall teach them,
Their sons also shall sit upon your throne forevermore.”

[13]For the LORD has chosen Zion;

He has desired it for His dwelling place:
[14]“This is My resting place forever;
Here I will dwell, for I have desired it.
[15]I will abundantly bless her provision;
I will satisfy her poor with bread.
[16]I will also clothe her priests with salvation,
And her saints shall shout aloud for joy.
[17]There I will make the horn of David grow;
I will prepare a lamp for My Anointed.
[18]His enemies I will clothe with shame,
But upon Himself His crown shall flourish.”

Psalm 133

Blessed Unity of the People of God

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

[1]Behold, how good and how pleasant it is
For brethren to dwell together in unity!

[2]It is like the precious oil upon the head,
Running down on the beard,
The beard of Aaron,
Running down on the edge of his garments.
[3]It is like the dew of Hermon,
Descending upon the mountains of Zion;
For there the LORD commanded the blessing—
Life forevermore.

Psalm 134

Praising the LORD in His House at Night

A Song of Ascents.

[1]Behold, bless the LORD,
All you servants of the LORD,
Who by night stand in the house of the LORD!
[2]Lift up your hands in the sanctuary,
And bless the LORD.

[3]The LORD who made heaven and earth
Bless you from Zion!

Psalm 135

Praise to God in Creation and Redemption

[1]Praise the LORD!
Praise the name of the LORD;
Praise Him, O you servants of the LORD!
[2]You who stand in the house of the LORD,
In the courts of the house of our God,
[3]Praise the LORD, for the LORD is good;
Sing praises to His name, for it is pleasant.
[4]For the LORD has chosen Jacob for Himself,
Israel for His special treasure.

[5]For I know that the LORD is great,
And our Lord is above all gods.
[6]Whatever the LORD pleases He does,
In heaven and in earth,
In the seas and in all deep places.
[7]He causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth;
He makes lightning for the rain;
He brings the wind out of His treasuries.

[8]He destroyed the firstborn of Egypt,
Both of man and beast.
[9]He sent signs and wonders into the midst of you, O Egypt,
Upon Pharaoh and all his servants.
[10]He defeated many nations
And slew mighty kings—
[11]Sihon king of the Amorites,
Og king of Bashan,
And all the kingdoms of Canaan—
[12]And gave their land as a heritage,
A heritage to Israel His people.

[13]Your name, O LORD, endures forever,

Your fame, O LORD, throughout all generations.
[14]For the LORD will judge His people,
And He will have compassion on His servants.

[15]The idols of the nations are silver and gold,
The work of men’s hands.
[16]They have mouths, but they do not speak;
Eyes they have, but they do not see;
[17]They have ears, but they do not hear;
Nor is there any breath in their mouths.
[18]Those who make them are like them;
So is everyone who trusts in them.

[19]Bless the LORD, O house of Israel!
Bless the LORD, O house of Aaron!
[20]Bless the LORD, O house of Levi!
You who fear the LORD, bless the LORD!
[21]Blessed be the LORD out of Zion,
Who dwells in Jerusalem!
Praise the LORD!

Psalm 136

Thanksgiving to God for His Enduring Mercy

[1]Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good!
For His mercy endures forever.
[2]Oh, give thanks to the God of gods!
For His mercy endures forever.
[3]Oh, give thanks to the Lord of lords!
For His mercy endures forever:

[4]To Him who alone does great wonders,
For His mercy endures forever;
[5]To Him who by wisdom made the heavens,
For His mercy endures forever;
[6]To Him who laid out the earth above the waters,
For His mercy endures forever;
[7]To Him who made great lights,
For His mercy endures forever—
[8]The sun to rule by day,
For His mercy endures forever;
[9]The moon and stars to rule by night,
For His mercy endures forever.

[10]To Him who struck Egypt in their firstborn,
For His mercy endures forever;
[11]And brought out Israel from among them,
For His mercy endures forever;
[12]With a strong hand, and with an outstretched arm,
For His mercy endures forever;
[13]To Him who divided the Red Sea in two,
For His mercy endures forever;
[14]And made Israel pass through the midst of it,
For His mercy endures forever;
[15]But overthrew Pharaoh and his army in the Red Sea,

For His mercy endures forever;
[16]To Him who led His people through the wilderness,
For His mercy endures forever;
[17]To Him who struck down great kings,
For His mercy endures forever;
[18]And slew famous kings,
For His mercy endures forever—
[19]Sihon king of the Amorites,
For His mercy endures forever;
[20]And Og king of Bashan,
For His mercy endures forever—
[21]And gave their land as a heritage,
For His mercy endures forever;
[22]A heritage to Israel His servant,
For His mercy endures forever.

[23]Who remembered us in our lowly state,
For His mercy endures forever;
[24]And rescued us from our enemies,
For His mercy endures forever;
[25]Who gives food to all flesh,
For His mercy endures forever.

[26]Oh, give thanks to the God of heaven!
For His mercy endures forever.

Psalm 137

Longing for Zion in a Foreign Land

[1]By the rivers of Babylon,
There we sat down, yea, we wept
When we remembered Zion.
[2]We hung our harps
Upon the willows in the midst of it.
[3]For there those who carried us away captive asked of us a song,
And those who plundered us requested mirth,
Saying, "Sing us one of the songs of Zion!"

[4]How shall we sing the LORD's song
In a foreign land?
[5]If I forget you, O Jerusalem,
Let my right hand forget its skill!
[6]If I do not remember you,
Let my tongue cling to the roof of my mouth—
If I do not exalt Jerusalem
Above my chief joy.

[7]Remember, O LORD, against the sons of Edom
The day of Jerusalem,
Who said, "Raze it, raze it,
To its very foundation!"

[8]O daughter of Babylon, who are to be destroyed,
Happy the one who repays you as you have served us!
[9]Happy the one who takes and dashes
Your little ones against the rock!

Psalm 138

The LORD’s Goodness to the Faithful

A Psalm of David.

[1]I WILL praise You with my whole heart;
Before the gods I will sing praises to You.
[2]I will worship toward Your holy temple,
And praise Your name
For Your lovingkindness and Your truth;
For You have magnified Your word above all Your name.
[3]In the day when I cried out, You answered me,
And made me bold with strength in my soul.

[4]All the kings of the earth shall praise You, O LORD,
When they hear the words of Your mouth.
[5]Yes, they shall sing of the ways of the LORD,
For great is the glory of the LORD.
[6]Though the LORD is on high,
Yet He regards the lowly;
But the proud He knows from afar.

[7]Though I walk in the midst of trouble, You will revive me;
You will stretch out Your hand
Against the wrath of my enemies,
And Your right hand will save me.
[8]The LORD will perfect that which concerns me;
Your mercy, O LORD, endures forever;
Do not forsake the works of Your hands.

Psalm 139

God’s Perfect Knowledge of Man

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

[1]O LORD, You have searched me and known me.
[2]You know my sitting down and my rising up;
You understand my thought afar off.
[3]You comprehend my path and my lying down,
And are acquainted with all my ways.
[4]For there is not a word on my tongue,
But behold, O LORD, You know it altogether.
[5]You have hedged me behind and before,
And laid Your hand upon me.
[6]Such knowledge is too wonderful for me;
It is high, I cannot attain it.

[7]Where can I go from Your Spirit?
Or where can I flee from Your presence?
[8]If I ascend into heaven, You are there;
If I make my bed in hell, behold, You are there.
[9]If I take the wings of the morning,
And dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea,
[10]Even there Your hand shall lead me,
And Your right hand shall hold me.
[11]If I say, “Surely the darkness shall fall on me,”
Even the night shall be light about me;
[12]Indeed, the darkness shall not hide from You,
But the night shines as the day;
The darkness and the light are both alike to You.

[13]For You formed my inward parts;
You covered me in my mother’s womb.
[14]I will praise You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made;

Marvelous are Your works,
And that my soul knows very well.
[15]My frame was not hidden from You,
When I was made in secret,
And skillfully wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.
[16]Your eyes saw my substance, being yet unformed.
And in Your book they all were written,
The days fashioned for me,
When as yet there were none of them.

[17]How precious also are Your thoughts to me, O God!
How great is the sum of them!
[18]If I should count them, they would be more in number than the sand;
When I awake, I am still with You.

[19]Oh, that You would slay the wicked, O God!
Depart from me, therefore, you bloodthirsty men.
[20]For they speak against You wickedly;
Your enemies take Your name in vain.
[21]Do I not hate them, O LORD, who hate You?
And do I not loathe those who rise up against You?
[22]I hate them with perfect hatred;
I count them my enemies.

[23]Search me, O God, and know my heart;
Try me, and know my anxieties;
[24]And see if there is any wicked way in me,
And lead me in the way everlasting.

Psalm 140

Prayer for Deliverance from Evil Men

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

[1]Deliver me, O LORD, from evil men;
Preserve me from violent men,
[2]Who plan evil things in their hearts;
They continually gather together for war.
[3]They sharpen their tongues like a serpent;
The poison of asps is under their lips. Selah

[4]Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked;
Preserve me from violent men,
Who have purposed to make my steps stumble.
[5]The proud have hidden a snare for me, and cords;
They have spread a net by the wayside;
They have set traps for me. Selah

[6]I said to the LORD: "You are my God;
Hear the voice of my supplications, O LORD.
[7]O GOD the Lord, the strength of my salvation,
You have covered my head in the day of battle.
[8]Do not grant, O LORD, the desires of the wicked;
Do not further his wicked scheme,
Lest they be exalted. Selah

[9]"As for the head of those who surround me,
Let the evil of their lips cover them;
[10]Let burning coals fall upon them;
Let them be cast into the fire,
Into deep pits, that they rise not up again.
[11]Let not a slanderer be established in the earth;
Let evil hunt the violent man to overthrow him."

[12]I know that the LORD will maintain

The cause of the afflicted,
And justice for the poor.
[13]Surely the righteous shall give thanks to Your name;
The upright shall dwell in Your presence.

Psalm 141

Prayer for Safekeeping from Wickedness

A Psalm of David.

[1]LORD, I cry out to You;
Make haste to me!
Give ear to my voice when I cry out to You.
[2]Let my prayer be set before You as incense,
The lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

[3]Set a guard, O LORD, over my mouth;
Keep watch over the door of my lips.
[4]Do not incline my heart to any evil thing,
To practice wicked works
With men who work iniquity;
And do not let me eat of their delicacies.

[5]Let the righteous strike me;
It shall be a kindness.
And let him rebuke me;
It shall be as excellent oil;
Let my head not refuse it.
For still my prayer is against the deeds of the wicked.
[6]Their judges are overthrown by the sides of the cliff,
And they hear my words, for they are sweet.
[7]Our bones are scattered at the mouth of the grave,
As when one plows and breaks up the earth.

[8]But my eyes are upon You, O GOD the Lord;
In You I take refuge;
Do not leave my soul destitute.
[9]Keep me from the snares they have laid for me,
And from the traps of the workers of iniquity.
[10]Let the wicked fall into their own nets,
While I escape safely.

Psalm 142

A Plea for Relief from Persecutors

A Contemplation of David. A Prayer when he was in the cave.

[1]I CRY out to the LORD with my voice;
With my voice to the LORD I make my supplication.
[2]I pour out my complaint before Him;
I declare before Him my trouble.

[3]When my spirit was overwhelmed within me,
Then You knew my path.
In the way in which I walk
They have secretly set a snare for me.
[4]Look on my right hand and see,
For there is no one who acknowledges me;
Refuge has failed me;
No one cares for my soul.

[5]I cried out to You, O LORD:
I said, "You are my refuge,
My portion in the land of the living.
[6]Attend to my cry,
For I am brought very low;
Deliver me from my persecutors,
For they are stronger than I.
[7]Bring my soul out of prison,
That I may praise Your name;
The righteous shall surround me,
For You shall deal bountifully with me."

Psalm 143

An Earnest Appeal for Guidance and Deliverance

A Psalm of David.

[1]Hear my prayer, O LORD,
Give ear to my supplications!
In Your faithfulness answer me,
And in Your righteousness.
[2]Do not enter into judgment with Your servant,
For in Your sight no one living is righteous.

[3]For the enemy has persecuted my soul;
He has crushed my life to the ground;
He has made me dwell in darkness,
Like those who have long been dead.
[4]Therefore my spirit is overwhelmed within me;
My heart within me is distressed.

[5]I remember the days of old;
I meditate on all Your works;
I muse on the work of Your hands.
[6]I spread out my hands to You;
My soul longs for You like a thirsty land. Selah

[7]Answer me speedily, O LORD;
My spirit fails!
Do not hide Your face from me,
Lest I be like those who go down into the pit.
[8]Cause me to hear Your lovingkindness in the morning,
For in You do I trust;
Cause me to know the way in which I should walk,
For I lift up my soul to You.

[9]Deliver me, O LORD, from my enemies;
In You I take shelter.

[10]Teach me to do Your will,
For You are my God;
Your Spirit is good.
Lead me in the land of uprightness.

[11]Revive me, O LORD, for Your name's sake!
For Your righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble.
[12]In Your mercy cut off my enemies,
And destroy all those who afflict my soul;
For I am Your servant.

Psalm 144

A Song to the LORD Who Preserves and Prospers His People

A Psalm of David.

[1]Blessed be the LORD my Rock,
Who trains my hands for war,
And my fingers for battle—
[2]My lovingkindness and my fortress,
My high tower and my deliverer,
My shield and the One in whom I take refuge,
Who subdues my people under me.

[3]LORD, what is man, that You take knowledge of him?
Or the son of man, that You are mindful of him?
[4]Man is like a breath;
His days are like a passing shadow.

[5]Bow down Your heavens, O LORD, and come down;
Touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.
[6]Flash forth lightning and scatter them;
Shoot out Your arrows and destroy them.
[7]Stretch out Your hand from above;
Rescue me and deliver me out of great waters,
From the hand of foreigners,
[8]Whose mouth speaks lying words,
And whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

[9]I will sing a new song to You, O God;
On a harp of ten strings I will sing praises to You,
[10]The One who gives salvation to kings,
Who delivers David His servant
From the deadly sword.

[11]Rescue me and deliver me from the hand of foreigners,
Whose mouth speaks lying words,

And whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood—
[12]That our sons may be as plants grown up in their youth;
That our daughters may be as pillars,
Sculptured in palace style;
[13]That our barns may be full,
Supplying all kinds of produce;
That our sheep may bring forth thousands
And ten thousands in our fields;
[14]That our oxen may be well laden;
That there be no breaking in or going out;
That there be no outcry in our streets.
[15]Happy are the people who are in such a state;
Happy are the people whose God is the LORD!

Psalm 145

A Song of God's Majesty and Love

A Praise of David.

[1]I WILL extol You, my God, O King;
And I will bless Your name forever and ever.
[2]Every day I will bless You,
And I will praise Your name forever and ever.
[3]Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised;
And His greatness is unsearchable.

[4]One generation shall praise Your works to another,
And shall declare Your mighty acts.
[5]I will meditate on the glorious splendor of Your majesty,
And on Your wondrous works.
[6]Men shall speak of the might of Your awesome acts,
And I will declare Your greatness.
[7]They shall utter the memory of Your great goodness,
And shall sing of Your righteousness.

[8]The LORD is gracious and full of compassion,
Slow to anger and great in mercy.
[9]The LORD is good to all,
And His tender mercies are over all His works.

[10]All Your works shall praise You, O LORD,
And Your saints shall bless You.
[11]They shall speak of the glory of Your kingdom,
And talk of Your power,
[12]To make known to the sons of men His mighty acts,
And the glorious majesty of His kingdom.
[13]Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
And Your dominion endures throughout all generations.

[14]The LORD upholds all who fall,
And raises up all who are bowed down.
[15]The eyes of all look expectantly to You,
And You give them their food in due season.
[16]You open Your hand
And satisfy the desire of every living thing.

[17]The LORD is righteous in all His ways,
Gracious in all His works.
[18]The LORD is near to all who call upon Him,
To all who call upon Him in truth.
[19]He will fulfill the desire of those who fear Him;
He also will hear their cry and save them.
[20]The LORD preserves all who love Him,
But all the wicked He will destroy.
[21]My mouth shall speak the praise of the LORD,
And all flesh shall bless His holy name
Forever and ever.

Psalm 146

The Happiness of Those Whose Help Is the LORD

[1]Praise the LORD!
Praise the LORD, O my soul!
[2]While I live I will praise the LORD;
I will sing praises to my God while I have my being.

[3]Do not put your trust in princes,
Nor in a son of man, in whom there is no help.
[4]His spirit departs, he returns to his earth;
In that very day his plans perish.

[5]Happy is he who has the God of Jacob for his help,
Whose hope is in the LORD his God,
[6]Who made heaven and earth,
The sea, and all that is in them;
Who keeps truth forever,
[7]Who executes justice for the oppressed,
Who gives food to the hungry.
The LORD gives freedom to the prisoners.

[8]The LORD opens the eyes of the blind;
The LORD raises those who are bowed down;
The LORD loves the righteous.
[9]The LORD watches over the strangers;
He relieves the fatherless and widow;
But the way of the wicked He turns upside down.

[10]The LORD shall reign forever—
Your God, O Zion, to all generations.
Praise the LORD!

Psalm 147

Praise to God for His Word and Providence

[1]Praise the LORD!
For it is good to sing praises to our God;
For it is pleasant, and praise is beautiful.

[2]The LORD builds up Jerusalem;
He gathers together the outcasts of Israel.
[3]He heals the brokenhearted
And binds up their wounds.
[4]He counts the number of the stars;
He calls them all by name.
[5]Great is our Lord, and mighty in power;
His understanding is infinite.
[6]The LORD lifts up the humble;
He casts the wicked down to the ground.

[7]Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving;
Sing praises on the harp to our God,
[8]Who covers the heavens with clouds,
Who prepares rain for the earth,
Who makes grass to grow on the mountains.
[9]He gives to the beast its food,
And to the young ravens that cry.

[10]He does not delight in the strength of the horse;
He takes no pleasure in the legs of a man.
[11]The LORD takes pleasure in those who fear Him,
In those who hope in His mercy.

[12]Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem!
Praise your God, O Zion!
[13]For He has strengthened the bars of your gates;
He has blessed your children within you.

[14]He makes peace in your borders,
And fills you with the finest wheat.

[15]He sends out His command to the earth;
His word runs very swiftly.
[16]He gives snow like wool;
He scatters the frost like ashes;
[17]He casts out His hail like morsels;
Who can stand before His cold?
[18]He sends out His word and melts them;
He causes His wind to blow, and the waters flow.

[19]He declares His word to Jacob,
His statutes and His judgments to Israel.
[20]He has not dealt thus with any nation;
And as for His judgments, they have not known them.
Praise the LORD!

Psalm 148

Praise to the LORD from Creation

[1]Praise the LORD!
Praise the LORD from the heavens;
Praise Him in the heights!
[2]Praise Him, all His angels;
Praise Him, all His hosts!
[3]Praise Him, sun and moon;
Praise Him, all you stars of light!
[4]Praise Him, you heavens of heavens,
And you waters above the heavens!

[5]Let them praise the name of the LORD,
For He commanded and they were created.
[6]He also established them forever and ever;
He made a decree which shall not pass away.

[7]Praise the LORD from the earth,
You great sea creatures and all the depths;
[8]Fire and hail, snow and clouds;
Stormy wind, fulfilling His word;
[9]Mountains and all hills;
Fruitful trees and all cedars;
[10]Beasts and all cattle;
Creeping things and flying fowl;
[11]Kings of the earth and all peoples;
Princes and all judges of the earth;
[12]Both young men and maidens;
Old men and children.

[13]Let them praise the name of the LORD,
For His name alone is exalted;
His glory is above the earth and heaven.
[14]And He has exalted the horn of His people,

The praise of all His saints—
Of the children of Israel,
A people near to Him.
Praise the LORD!

Psalm 149

Praise to God for His Salvation and Judgment

[1]Praise the LORD!
Sing to the LORD a new song,
And His praise in the assembly of saints.

[2]Let Israel rejoice in their Maker;
Let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.
[3]Let them praise His name with the dance;
Let them sing praises to Him with the timbrel and harp.
[4]For the LORD takes pleasure in His people;
He will beautify the humble with salvation.

[5]Let the saints be joyful in glory;
Let them sing aloud on their beds.
[6]Let the high praises of God be in their mouth,
And a two-edged sword in their hand,
[7]To execute vengeance on the nations,
And punishments on the peoples;
[8]To bind their kings with chains,
And their nobles with fetters of iron;
[9]To execute on them the written judgment—
This honor have all His saints.
Praise the LORD!

Psalm 150

Let All Things Praise the LORD

[1]Praise the LORD!
Praise God in His sanctuary;
Praise Him in His mighty firmament!

[2]Praise Him for His mighty acts;
Praise Him according to His excellent greatness!

[3]Praise Him with the sound of the trumpet;
Praise Him with the lute and harp!
[4]Praise Him with the timbrel and dance;
Praise Him with stringed instruments and flutes!
[5]Praise Him with loud cymbals;
Praise Him with clashing cymbals!

[6]Let everything that has breath praise the LORD.
Praise the LORD!

The Book of
Proverbs

Proverbs 1

The Beginning of Knowledge

[1]The proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel:

[2]To know wisdom and instruction,
To perceive the words of understanding,
[3]To receive the instruction of wisdom,
Justice, judgment, and equity;
[4]To give prudence to the simple,
To the young man knowledge and discretion—
[5]A wise man will hear and increase learning,
And a man of understanding will attain wise counsel,
[6]To understand a proverb and an enigma,
The words of the wise and their riddles.

[7]The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge,
But fools despise wisdom and instruction.

Shun Evil Counsel

[8]My son, hear the instruction of your father,
And do not forsake the law of your mother;
[9]For they will be a graceful ornament on your head,
And chains about your neck.

[10]My son, if sinners entice you,
Do not consent.
[11]If they say, “Come with us,
Let us lie in wait to shed blood;
Let us lurk secretly for the innocent without cause;
[12]Let us swallow them alive like Sheol,
And whole, like those who go down to the Pit;
[13]We shall find all kinds of precious possessions,
We shall fill our houses with spoil;
[14]Cast in your lot among us,

Let us all have one purse”—
[15]My son, do not walk in the way with them,
Keep your foot from their path;
[16]For their feet run to evil,
And they make haste to shed blood.
[17]Surely, in vain the net is spread
In the sight of any bird;
[18]But they lie in wait for their own blood,
They lurk secretly for their own lives.
[19]So are the ways of everyone who is greedy for gain;
It takes away the life of its owners.

The Call of Wisdom

20Wisdom calls aloud outside;
She raises her voice in the open squares.
[21]She cries out in the chief concourses,
At the openings of the gates in the city
She speaks her words:
[22]“How long, you simple ones, will you love simplicity?
For scorners delight in their scorning,
And fools hate knowledge.
[23]Turn at my rebuke;
Surely I will pour out my spirit on you;
I will make my words known to you.
[24]Because I have called and you refused,
I have stretched out my hand and no one regarded,
[25]Because you disdained all my counsel,
And would have none of my rebuke,
[26]I also will laugh at your calamity;
I will mock when your terror comes,
[27]When your terror comes like a storm,
And your destruction comes like a whirlwind,
When distress and anguish come upon you.

[28]“Then they will call on me, but I will not answer;
They will seek me diligently, but they will not find me.

[29]Because they hated knowledge
And did not choose the fear of the LORD,
[30]They would have none of my counsel
And despised my every rebuke.
[31]Therefore they shall eat the fruit of their own way,
And be filled to the full with their own fancies.
[32]For the turning away of the simple will slay them,
And the complacency of fools will destroy them;
[33]But whoever listens to me will dwell safely,
And will be secure, without fear of evil.”

Proverbs 2

The Value of Wisdom

[1]My son, if you receive my words,
And treasure my commands within you,
[2]So that you incline your ear to wisdom,
And apply your heart to understanding;
[3]Yes, if you cry out for discernment,
And lift up your voice for understanding,
[4]If you seek her as silver,
And search for her as for hidden treasures;
[5]Then you will understand the fear of the LORD,
And find the knowledge of God.
[6]For the LORD gives wisdom;
From His mouth come knowledge and understanding;
[7]He stores up sound wisdom for the upright;
He is a shield to those who walk uprightly;
[8]He guards the paths of justice,
And preserves the way of His saints.
[9]Then you will understand righteousness and justice,
Equity and every good path.

[10]When wisdom enters your heart,
And knowledge is pleasant to your soul,
[11]Discretion will preserve you;
Understanding will keep you,
[12]To deliver you from the way of evil,
From the man who speaks perverse things,
[13]From those who leave the paths of uprightness
To walk in the ways of darkness;
[14]Who rejoice in doing evil,
And delight in the perversity of the wicked;
[15]Whose ways are crooked,
And who are devious in their paths;

[16]To deliver you from the immoral woman,
From the seductress who flatters with her words,
[17]Who forsakes the companion of her youth,
And forgets the covenant of her God.
[18]For her house leads down to death,
And her paths to the dead;
[19]None who go to her return,
Nor do they regain the paths of life—
[20]So you may walk in the way of goodness,
And keep to the paths of righteousness.
[21]For the upright will dwell in the land,
And the blameless will remain in it;
[22]But the wicked will be cut off from the earth,
And the unfaithful will be uprooted from it.

Proverbs 3

Guidance for the Young

[1]My son, do not forget my law,
But let your heart keep my commands;
[2]For length of days and long life
And peace they will add to you.

[3]Let not mercy and truth forsake you;
Bind them around your neck,
Write them on the tablet of your heart,
[4]And so find favor and high esteem
In the sight of God and man.

[5]Trust in the LORD with all your heart,
And lean not on your own understanding;
[6]In all your ways acknowledge Him,
And He shall direct your paths.

[7]Do not be wise in your own eyes;
Fear the LORD and depart from evil.
[8]It will be health to your flesh,
And strength to your bones.

[9]Honor the LORD with your possessions,
And with the firstfruits of all your increase;
[10]So your barns will be filled with plenty,
And your vats will overflow with new wine.

[11]My son, do not despise the chastening of the LORD,
Nor detest His correction;
[12]For whom the LORD loves He corrects,
Just as a father the son in whom he delights.

[13]Happy is the man who finds wisdom,
And the man who gains understanding;

[14]For her proceeds are better than the profits of silver,
And her gain than fine gold.
[15]She is more precious than rubies,
And all the things you may desire cannot compare with her.
[16]Length of days is in her right hand,
In her left hand riches and honor.
[17]Her ways are ways of pleasantness,
And all her paths are peace.
[18]She is a tree of life to those who take hold of her,
And happy are all who retain her.

[19]The LORD by wisdom founded the earth;
By understanding He established the heavens;
[20]By His knowledge the depths were broken up,
And clouds drop down the dew.

[21]My son, let them not depart from your eyes—
Keep sound wisdom and discretion;
[22]So they will be life to your soul
And grace to your neck.
[23]Then you will walk safely in your way,
And your foot will not stumble.
[24]When you lie down, you will not be afraid;
Yes, you will lie down and your sleep will be sweet.
[25]Do not be afraid of sudden terror,
Nor of trouble from the wicked when it comes;
[26]For the LORD will be your confidence,
And will keep your foot from being caught.

[27]Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due,
When it is in the power of your hand to do so.
[28]Do not say to your neighbor,
“Go, and come back,
And tomorrow I will give it,”
When you have it with you.
[29]Do not devise evil against your neighbor,

For he dwells by you for safety’s sake.
[30]Do not strive with a man without cause,
If he has done you no harm.

[31]Do not envy the oppressor,
And choose none of his ways;
[32]For the perverse person is an abomination to the LORD,
But His secret counsel is with the upright.
[33]The curse of the LORD is on the house of the wicked,
But He blesses the home of the just.
[34]Surely He scorns the scornful,
But gives grace to the humble.
[35]The wise shall inherit glory,
But shame shall be the legacy of fools.

Proverbs 4

Security in Wisdom

[1]Hear, my children, the instruction of a father,
And give attention to know understanding;
[2]For I give you good doctrine:
Do not forsake my law.
[3]When I was my father's son,
Tender and the only one in the sight of my mother,
[4]He also taught me, and said to me:
"Let your heart retain my words;
Keep my commands, and live.
[5]Get wisdom! Get understanding!
Do not forget, nor turn away from the words of my mouth.
[6]Do not forsake her, and she will preserve you;
Love her, and she will keep you.
[7]Wisdom is the principal thing;
Therefore get wisdom.
And in all your getting, get understanding.
[8]Exalt her, and she will promote you;
She will bring you honor, when you embrace her.
[9]She will place on your head an ornament of grace;
A crown of glory she will deliver to you."

[10]Hear, my son, and receive my sayings,
And the years of your life will be many.
[11]I have taught you in the way of wisdom;
I have led you in right paths.
[12]When you walk, your steps will not be hindered,
And when you run, you will not stumble.
[13]Take firm hold of instruction, do not let go;
Keep her, for she is your life.

[14]Do not enter the path of the wicked,

And do not walk in the way of evil.
[15]Avoid it, do not travel on it;
Turn away from it and pass on.
[16]For they do not sleep unless they have done evil;
And their sleep is taken away unless they make someone fall.
[17]For they eat the bread of wickedness,
And drink the wine of violence.

[18]But the path of the just is like the shining sun,
That shines ever brighter unto the perfect day.
[19]The way of the wicked is like darkness;
They do not know what makes them stumble.

[20]My son, give attention to my words;
Incline your ear to my sayings.
[21]Do not let them depart from your eyes;
Keep them in the midst of your heart;
[22]For they are life to those who find them,
And health to all their flesh.
[23]Keep your heart with all diligence,
For out of it spring the issues of life.
[24]Put away from you a deceitful mouth,
And put perverse lips far from you.
[25]Let your eyes look straight ahead,
And your eyelids look right before you.
[26]Ponder the path of your feet,
And let all your ways be established.
[27]Do not turn to the right or the left;
Remove your foot from evil.

Proverbs 5

The Peril of Adultery

[1]My son, pay attention to my wisdom;
Lend your ear to my understanding,
[2]That you may preserve discretion,
And your lips may keep knowledge.
[3]For the lips of an immoral woman drip honey,
And her mouth is smoother than oil;
[4]But in the end she is bitter as wormwood,
Sharp as a two-edged sword.
[5]Her feet go down to death,
Her steps lay hold of hell.
[6]Lest you ponder her path of life—
Her ways are unstable;
You do not know them.

[7]Therefore hear me now, my children,
And do not depart from the words of my mouth.
[8]Remove your way far from her,
And do not go near the door of her house,
[9]Lest you give your honor to others,
And your years to the cruel one;
[10]Lest aliens be filled with your wealth,
And your labors go to the house of a foreigner;
[11]And you mourn at last,
When your flesh and your body are consumed,
[12]And say:
“How I have hated instruction,
And my heart despised correction!
[13]I have not obeyed the voice of my teachers,
Nor inclined my ear to those who instructed me!
[14]I was on the verge of total ruin,
In the midst of the assembly and congregation.”

[15]Drink water from your own cistern,
And running water from your own well.
[16]Should your fountains be dispersed abroad,
Streams of water in the streets?
[17]Let them be only your own,
And not for strangers with you.
[18]Let your fountain be blessed,
And rejoice with the wife of your youth.
[19]As a loving deer and a graceful doe,
Let her breasts satisfy you at all times;
And always be enraptured with her love.
[20]For why should you, my son, be enraptured by an immoral woman,
And be embraced in the arms of a seductress?

[21]For the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD,
And He ponders all his paths.
[22]His own iniquities entrap the wicked man,
And he is caught in the cords of his sin.
[23]He shall die for lack of instruction,
And in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.

Proverbs 6

Dangerous Promises

[1]My son, if you become surety for your friend,
If you have shaken hands in pledge for a stranger,
[2]You are snared by the words of your mouth;
You are taken by the words of your mouth.
[3]So do this, my son, and deliver yourself;
For you have come into the hand of your friend:
Go and humble yourself;
Plead with your friend.
[4]Give no sleep to your eyes,
Nor slumber to your eyelids.
[5]Deliver yourself like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter,
And like a bird from the hand of the fowler.

The Folly of Indolence

[6]Go to the ant, you sluggard!
Consider her ways and be wise,
[7]Which, having no captain,
Overseer or ruler,
[8]Provides her supplies in the summer,
And gathers her food in the harvest.
[9]How long will you slumber, O sluggard?
When will you rise from your sleep?
[10]A little sleep, a little slumber,
A little folding of the hands to sleep—
[11]So shall your poverty come on you like a prowler,
And your need like an armed man.

The Wicked Man

[12]A worthless person, a wicked man,
Walks with a perverse mouth;
[13]He winks with his eyes,

He shuffles his feet,
He points with his fingers;
[14]Perversity is in his heart,
He devises evil continually,
He sows discord.
[15]Therefore his calamity shall come suddenly;
Suddenly he shall be broken without remedy.

[16]These six things the LORD hates,
Yes, seven are an abomination to Him:
[17]A proud look,
A lying tongue,
Hands that shed innocent blood,
[18]A heart that devises wicked plans,
Feet that are swift in running to evil,
[19]A false witness who speaks lies,
And one who sows discord among brethren.

Beware of Adultery

[20]My son, keep your father’s command,
And do not forsake the law of your mother.
[21]Bind them continually upon your heart;
Tie them around your neck.
[22]When you roam, they will lead you;
When you sleep, they will keep you;
And when you awake, they will speak with you.
[23]For the commandment is a lamp,
And the law a light;
Reproofs of instruction are the way of life,
[24]To keep you from the evil woman,
From the flattering tongue of a seductress.
[25]Do not lust after her beauty in your heart,
Nor let her allure you with her eyelids.
[26]For by means of a harlot
A man is reduced to a crust of bread;
And an adulteress will prey upon his precious life.

[27]Can a man take fire to his bosom,
And his clothes not be burned?
[28]Can one walk on hot coals,
And his feet not be seared?
[29]So is he who goes in to his neighbor’s wife;
Whoever touches her shall not be innocent.

[30]People do not despise a thief
If he steals to satisfy himself when he is starving.
[31]Yet when he is found, he must restore sevenfold;
He may have to give up all the substance of his house.
[32]Whoever commits adultery with a woman lacks understanding;
He who does so destroys his own soul.
[33]Wounds and dishonor he will get,
And his reproach will not be wiped away.
[34]For jealousy is a husband’s fury;
Therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance.
[35]He will accept no recompense,
Nor will he be appeased though you give many gifts.

Proverbs 7

[1]My son, keep my words,
And treasure my commands within you.
[2]Keep my commands and live,
And my law as the apple of your eye.
[3]Bind them on your fingers;
Write them on the tablet of your heart.
[4]Say to wisdom, “You are my sister,”
And call understanding your nearest kin,
[5]That they may keep you from the immoral woman,
From the seductress who flatters with her words.

The Crafty Harlot

[6]For at the window of my house
I looked through my lattice,
[7]And saw among the simple,
I perceived among the youths,
A young man devoid of understanding,
[8]Passing along the street near her corner;
And he took the path to her house
[9]In the twilight, in the evening,
In the black and dark night.

[10]And there a woman met him,
With the attire of a harlot, and a crafty heart.
[11]She was loud and rebellious,
Her feet would not stay at home.
[12]At times she was outside, at times in the open square,
Lurking at every corner.
[13]So she caught him and kissed him;
With an impudent face she said to him:
[14]“I have peace offerings with me;
Today I have paid my vows.

[15]So I came out to meet you,
Diligently to seek your face,
And I have found you.
[16]I have spread my bed with tapestry,
Colored coverings of Egyptian linen.
[17]I have perfumed my bed
With myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
[18]Come, let us take our fill of love until morning;
Let us delight ourselves with love.
[19]For my husband is not at home;
He has gone on a long journey;
[20]He has taken a bag of money with him,
And will come home on the appointed day."

[21]With her enticing speech she caused him to yield,
With her flattering lips she seduced him.
[22]Immediately he went after her, as an ox goes to the slaughter,
Or as a fool to the correction of the stocks,
[23]Till an arrow struck his liver.
As a bird hastens to the snare,
He did not know it would cost his life.

[24]Now therefore, listen to me, my children;
Pay attention to the words of my mouth:
[25]Do not let your heart turn aside to her ways,
Do not stray into her paths;
[26]For she has cast down many wounded,
And all who were slain by her were strong men.
[27]Her house is the way to hell,
Descending to the chambers of death.

Proverbs 8

The Excellence of Wisdom

[1]Does not wisdom cry out,
And understanding lift up her voice?
[2]She takes her stand on the top of the high hill,
Beside the way, where the paths meet.
[3]She cries out by the gates, at the entry of the city,
At the entrance of the doors:
[4]"To you, O men, I call,
And my voice is to the sons of men.
[5]O you simple ones, understand prudence,
And you fools, be of an understanding heart.
[6]Listen, for I will speak of excellent things,
And from the opening of my lips will come right things;
[7]For my mouth will speak truth;
Wickedness is an abomination to my lips.
[8]All the words of my mouth are with righteousness;
Nothing crooked or perverse is in them.
[9]They are all plain to him who understands,
And right to those who find knowledge.
[10]Receive my instruction, and not silver,
And knowledge rather than choice gold;
[11]For wisdom is better than rubies,
And all the things one may desire cannot be compared with her.

[12]"I, wisdom, dwell with prudence,
And find out knowledge and discretion.
[13]The fear of the LORD is to hate evil;
Pride and arrogance and the evil way
And the perverse mouth I hate.
[14]Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom;
I am understanding, I have strength.

[15]By me kings reign,
And rulers decree justice.
[16]By me princes rule, and nobles,
All the judges of the earth.
[17]I love those who love me,
And those who seek me diligently will find me.
[18]Riches and honor are with me,
Enduring riches and righteousness.
[19]My fruit is better than gold, yes, than fine gold,
And my revenue than choice silver.
[20]I traverse the way of righteousness,
In the midst of the paths of justice,
[21]That I may cause those who love me to inherit wealth,
That I may fill their treasuries.

22“The LORD possessed me at the beginning of His way,
Before His works of old.
[23]I have been established from everlasting,
From the beginning, before there was ever an earth.
[24]When there were no depths I was brought forth,
When there were no fountains abounding with water.
[25]Before the mountains were settled,
Before the hills, I was brought forth;
[26]While as yet He had not made the earth or the fields,
Or the primal dust of the world.
[27]When He prepared the heavens, I was there,
When He drew a circle on the face of the deep,
[28]When He established the clouds above,
When He strengthened the fountains of the deep,
[29]When He assigned to the sea its limit,
So that the waters would not transgress His command,
When He marked out the foundations of the earth,
[30]Then I was beside Him as a master craftsman;
And I was daily His delight,
Rejoicing always before Him,

[31]Rejoicing in His inhabited world,
And my delight was with the sons of men.

[32]“Now therefore, listen to me, my children,
For blessed are those who keep my ways.
[33]Hear instruction and be wise,
And do not disdain it.
[34]Blessed is the man who listens to me,
Watching daily at my gates,
Waiting at the posts of my doors.
[35]For whoever finds me finds life,
And obtains favor from the LORD;
[36]But he who sins against me wrongs his own soul;
All those who hate me love death.”

Proverbs 9

The Way of Wisdom

[1]Wisdom has built her house,
She has hewn out her seven pillars;
[2]She has slaughtered her meat,
She has mixed her wine,
She has also furnished her table.
[3]She has sent out her maidens,
She cries out from the highest places of the city,
[4]"Whoever is simple, let him turn in here!"
As for him who lacks understanding, she says to him,
[5]"Come, eat of my bread
And drink of the wine I have mixed.
[6]Forsake foolishness and live,
And go in the way of understanding.

[7]"He who corrects a scoffer gets shame for himself,
And he who rebukes a wicked man only harms himself.
[8]Do not correct a scoffer, lest he hate you;
Rebuke a wise man, and he will love you.
[9]Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be still wiser;
Teach a just man, and he will increase in learning.

[10]"The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom,
And the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.
[11]For by me your days will be multiplied,
And years of life will be added to you.
[12]If you are wise, you are wise for yourself,
And if you scoff, you will bear it alone."

The Way of Folly

[13]A foolish woman is clamorous;
She is simple, and knows nothing.

[14]For she sits at the door of her house,
On a seat by the highest places of the city,
[15]To call to those who pass by,
Who go straight on their way:
[16]"Whoever is simple, let him turn in here";
And as for him who lacks understanding, she says to him,
[17]"Stolen water is sweet,
And bread eaten in secret is pleasant."
[18]But he does not know that the dead are there,
That her guests are in the depths of hell.

Proverbs 10

Wise Sayings of Solomon

[1]The proverbs of Solomon:

A wise son makes a glad father,
But a foolish son is the grief of his mother.

[2]Treasures of wickedness profit nothing,
But righteousness delivers from death.

But he who hastens to be rich will not go unpunished.

[21]To show partiality is not good,
Because for a piece of bread a man will transgress.

[22]A man with an evil eye hastens after riches,
And does not consider that poverty will come upon him.

[23]He who rebukes a man will find more favor afterward
Than he who flatters with the tongue.

[24]Whoever robs his father or his mother,
And says, "It is no transgression,"
The same is companion to a destroyer.

[25]He who is of a proud heart stirs up strife,
But he who trusts in the LORD will be prospered.

[26]He who trusts in his own heart is a fool,
But whoever walks wisely will be delivered.

[27]He who gives to the poor will not lack,
But he who hides his eyes will have many curses.

[28]When the wicked arise, men hide themselves;
But when they perish, the righteous increase.

Proverbs 29

[1]He who is often rebuked, and hardens his neck,
Will suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

[2]When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice;
But when a wicked man rules, the people groan.

[3]Whoever loves wisdom makes his father rejoice,
But a companion of harlots wastes his wealth.

[4]The king establishes the land by justice,
But he who receives bribes overthrows it.

[5]A man who flatters his neighbor
Spreads a net for his feet.

[6]By transgression an evil man is snared,
But the righteous sings and rejoices.

[7]The righteous considers the cause of the poor,
But the wicked does not understand such knowledge.

[8]Scoffers set a city aflame,
But wise men turn away wrath.

[9]If a wise man contends with a foolish man,
Whether the fool rages or laughs, there is no peace.

[10]The bloodthirsty hate the blameless,
But the upright seek his well-being.

[11]A fool vents all his feelings,
But a wise man holds them back.

[12]If a ruler pays attention to lies,
All his servants become wicked.

[13]The poor man and the oppressor have this in common:

The LORD gives light to the eyes of both.

[14]The king who judges the poor with truth,
His throne will be established forever.

[15]The rod and rebuke give wisdom,
But a child left to himself brings shame to his mother.

[16]When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increases;
But the righteous will see their fall.

[17]Correct your son, and he will give you rest;
Yes, he will give delight to your soul.

[18]Where there is no revelation, the people cast off restraint;
But happy is he who keeps the law.

[19]A servant will not be corrected by mere words;
For though he understands, he will not respond.

[20]Do you see a man hasty in his words?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.

[21]He who pampers his servant from childhood
Will have him as a son in the end.

[22]An angry man stirs up strife,
And a furious man abounds in transgression.

[23]A man's pride will bring him low,
But the humble in spirit will retain honor.

[24]Whoever is a partner with a thief hates his own life;
He swears to tell the truth, but reveals nothing.

[25]The fear of man brings a snare,
But whoever trusts in the LORD shall be safe.

[26]Many seek the ruler's favor,
But justice for man comes from the LORD.

[27]An unjust man is an abomination to the righteous,
And he who is upright in the way is an abomination to the wicked.

Proverbs 30

The Wisdom of Agur

[1]The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, his utterance. This man declared to Ithiel—to Ithiel and Ucal:

[2]Surely I am more stupid than any man,
And do not have the understanding of a man.
[3]I neither learned wisdom
Nor have knowledge of the Holy One.

[4]Who has ascended into heaven, or descended?
Who has gathered the wind in His fists?
Who has bound the waters in a garment?
Who has established all the ends of the earth?
What is His name, and what is His Son's name,
If you know?

[5]Every word of God is pure;
He is a shield to those who put their trust in Him.
[6]Do not add to His words,
Lest He rebuke you, and you be found a liar.

[7]Two things I request of You
(Deprive me not before I die):
[8]Remove falsehood and lies far from me;
Give me neither poverty nor riches—
Feed me with the food allotted to me;
[9]Lest I be full and deny You,
And say, "Who is the LORD?"
Or lest I be poor and steal,
And profane the name of my God.

[10]Do not malign a servant to his master,
Lest he curse you, and you be found guilty.

[11]There is a generation that curses its father,
And does not bless its mother.
[12]There is a generation that is pure in its own eyes,
Yet is not washed from its filthiness.
[13]There is a generation—oh, how lofty are their eyes!
And their eyelids are lifted up.
[14]There is a generation whose teeth are like swords,
And whose fangs are like knives,
To devour the poor from off the earth,
And the needy from among men.

[15]The leech has two daughters—
Give and Give!

There are three things that are never satisfied,
Four never say, “Enough!”:
[16]The grave,
The barren womb,
The earth that is not satisfied with water—
And the fire never says, “Enough!”

[17]The eye that mocks his father,
And scorns obedience to his mother,
The ravens of the valley will pick it out,
And the young eagles will eat it.

[18]There are three things which are too wonderful for me,
Yes, four which I do not understand:
[19]The way of an eagle in the air,
The way of a serpent on a rock,
The way of a ship in the midst of the sea,
And the way of a man with a virgin.

[20]This is the way of an adulterous woman:
She eats and wipes her mouth,
And says, “I have done no wickedness.”

[21]For three things the earth is perturbed,

Yes, for four it cannot bear up:
[22]For a servant when he reigns,
A fool when he is filled with food,
[23]A hateful woman when she is married,
And a maidservant who succeeds her mistress.

[24]There are four things which are little on the earth,
But they are exceedingly wise:
[25]The ants are a people not strong,
Yet they prepare their food in the summer;
[26]The rock badgers are a feeble folk,
Yet they make their homes in the crags;
[27]The locusts have no king,
Yet they all advance in ranks;
[28]The spider skillfully grasps with its hands,
And it is in kings' palaces.

[29]There are three things which are majestic in pace,
Yes, four which are stately in walk:
[30]A lion, which is mighty among beasts
And does not turn away from any;
[31]A greyhound,
A male goat also,
And a king whose troops are with him.

[32]If you have been foolish in exalting yourself,
Or if you have devised evil, put your hand on your mouth.
[33]For as the churning of milk produces butter,
And wringing the nose produces blood,
So the forcing of wrath produces strife.

Proverbs 31

The Words of King Lemuel's Mother

[1]The words of King Lemuel, the utterance which his mother taught him:

[2]What, my son?
And what, son of my womb?
And what, son of my vows?
[3]Do not give your strength to women,
Nor your ways to that which destroys kings.

[4]It is not for kings, O Lemuel,
It is not for kings to drink wine,
Nor for princes intoxicating drink;
[5]Lest they drink and forget the law,
And pervert the justice of all the afflicted.
[6]Give strong drink to him who is perishing,
And wine to those who are bitter of heart.
[7]Let him drink and forget his poverty,
And remember his misery no more.

[8]Open your mouth for the speechless,
In the cause of all who are appointed to die.
[9]Open your mouth, judge righteously,
And plead the cause of the poor and needy.

The Virtuous Wife

[10]Who can find a virtuous wife?
For her worth is far above rubies.
[11]The heart of her husband safely trusts her;
So he will have no lack of gain.
[12]She does him good and not evil
All the days of her life.
[13]She seeks wool and flax,

And willingly works with her hands.
[14]She is like the merchant ships,
She brings her food from afar.
[15]She also rises while it is yet night,
And provides food for her household,
And a portion for her maidservants.
[16]She considers a field and buys it;
From her profits she plants a vineyard.
[17]She girds herself with strength,
And strengthens her arms.
[18]She perceives that her merchandise is good,
And her lamp does not go out by night.
[19]She stretches out her hands to the distaff,
And her hand holds the spindle.
[20]She extends her hand to the poor,
Yes, she reaches out her hands to the needy.
[21]She is not afraid of snow for her household,
For all her household is clothed with scarlet.
[22]She makes tapestry for herself;
Her clothing is fine linen and purple.
[23]Her husband is known in the gates,
When he sits among the elders of the land.
[24]She makes linen garments and sells them,
And supplies sashes for the merchants.
[25]Strength and honor are her clothing;
She shall rejoice in time to come.
[26]She opens her mouth with wisdom,
And on her tongue is the law of kindness.
[27]She watches over the ways of her household,
And does not eat the bread of idleness.
[28]Her children rise up and call her blessed;
Her husband also, and he praises her:
[29]“Many daughters have done well,
But you excel them all.”
[30]Charm is deceitful and beauty is passing,

But a woman who fears the LORD, she shall be praised.
[31]Give her of the fruit of her hands,
And let her own works praise her in the gates.

The Book of
Ecclesiastes

Ecclesiastes 1

The Vanity of Life

[1]The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

[2]"Vanity of vanities," says the Preacher;
"Vanity of vanities, all is vanity."

[3]What profit has a man from all his labor
In which he toils under the sun?
[4]One generation passes away, and another generation comes;
But the earth abides forever.
[5]The sun also rises, and the sun goes down,
And hastens to the place where it arose.
[6]The wind goes toward the south,
And turns around to the north;
The wind whirls about continually,
And comes again on its circuit.
[7]All the rivers run into the sea,
Yet the sea is not full;
To the place from which the rivers come,
There they return again.
[8]All things are full of labor;
Man cannot express it.
The eye is not satisfied with seeing,
Nor the ear filled with hearing.

[9]That which has been is what will be,
That which is done is what will be done,
And there is nothing new under the sun.
[10]Is there anything of which it may be said,
"See, this is new"?
It has already been in ancient times before us.
[11]There is no remembrance of former things,

Nor will there be any remembrance of things that are to come
By those who will come after.

The Grief of Wisdom

[12]I, the Preacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem.

[13]And I set my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all that is done under heaven; this burdensome task God has given to the sons of man, by which they may be exercised.

[14]I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and indeed, all is vanity and grasping for the wind.

[15]What is crooked cannot be made straight,
And what is lacking cannot be numbered.

[16]I communed with my heart, saying, "Look, I have attained greatness, and have gained more wisdom than all who were before me in Jerusalem. My heart has understood great wisdom and knowledge."

[17]And I set my heart to know wisdom and to know madness and folly. I perceived that this also is grasping for the wind.

[18]For in much wisdom is much grief,
And he who increases knowledge increases sorrow.

Ecclesiastes 2

The Vanity of Pleasure

[1]I said in my heart, “Come now, I will test you with mirth; therefore enjoy pleasure”; but surely, this also was vanity.

[2]I said of laughter—“Madness!”; and of mirth, “What does it accomplish?”

[3]I searched in my heart how to gratify my flesh with wine, while guiding my heart with wisdom, and how to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was good for the sons of men to do under heaven all the days of their lives.

[4]I made my works great, I built myself houses, and planted myself vineyards.

[5]I made myself gardens and orchards, and I planted all kinds of fruit trees in them.

[6]I made myself water pools from which to water the growing trees of the grove.

[7]I acquired male and female servants, and had servants born in my house. Yes, I had greater possessions of herds and flocks than all who were in Jerusalem before me.

[8]I also gathered for myself silver and gold and the special treasures of kings and of the provinces. I acquired male and female singers, the delights of the sons of men, and musical instruments of all kinds.

[9]So I became great and excelled more than all who were before me in Jerusalem. Also my wisdom remained with me.

[10]Whatever my eyes desired I did not keep from them.
I did not withhold my heart from any pleasure,
For my heart rejoiced in all my labor;
And this was my reward from all my labor.
[11]Then I looked on all the works that my hands had done
And on the labor in which I had toiled;
And indeed all was vanity and grasping for the wind.
There was no profit under the sun.

The End of the Wise and the Fool

12Then I turned myself to consider wisdom and madness and folly;
For what can the man do who succeeds the king?—
Only what he has already done.
13Then I saw that wisdom excels folly
As light excels darkness.
14The wise man's eyes are in his head,
But the fool walks in darkness.
Yet I myself perceived
That the same event happens to them all.

15So I said in my heart,
"As it happens to the fool,
It also happens to me,
And why was I then more wise?"
Then I said in my heart,
"This also is vanity."
16For there is no more remembrance of the wise than of the fool forever,
Since all that now is will be forgotten in the days to come.
And how does a wise man die?
As the fool!

17Therefore I hated life because the work that was done under the sun was distressing to me, for all is vanity and grasping for the wind.

18Then I hated all my labor in which I had toiled under the sun, because I must leave it to the man who will come after me.

19And who knows whether he will be wise or a fool? Yet he will rule over all my labor in which I toiled and in which I have shown myself wise under the sun. This also is vanity.

20Therefore I turned my heart and despaired of all the labor in which I had toiled under the sun.

21For there is a man whose labor is with wisdom, knowledge, and skill; yet he must leave his heritage to a man who has not labored for it. This also is vanity and a great evil.

[22]For what has man for all his labor, and for the striving of his heart with which he has toiled under the sun?

[23]For all his days are sorrowful, and his work burdensome; even in the night his heart takes no rest. This also is vanity.

[24]Nothing is better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and that his soul should enjoy good in his labor. This also, I saw, was from the hand of God.

[25]For who can eat, or who can have enjoyment, more than I?

[26]For God gives wisdom and knowledge and joy to a man who is good in His sight; but to the sinner He gives the work of gathering and collecting, that he may give to him who is good before God. This also is vanity and grasping for the wind.

Ecclesiastes 3

Everything Has Its Time

[1]To everything there is a season,
A time for every purpose under heaven:

[2]A time to be born,
And a time to die;
A time to plant,
And a time to pluck what is planted;
[3]A time to kill,
And a time to heal;
A time to break down,
And a time to build up;
[4]A time to weep,
And a time to laugh;
A time to mourn,
And a time to dance;
[5]A time to cast away stones,
And a time to gather stones;
A time to embrace,
And a time to refrain from embracing;
[6]A time to gain,
And a time to lose;
A time to keep,
And a time to throw away;
[7]A time to tear,
And a time to sew;
A time to keep silence,
And a time to speak;
[8]A time to love,
And a time to hate;
A time of war,
And a time of peace.

The God-Given Task

9What profit has the worker from that in which he labors?

10I have seen the God-given task with which the sons of men are to be occupied.

11He has made everything beautiful in its time. Also He has put eternity in their hearts, except that no one can find out the work that God does from beginning to end.

12I know that nothing is better for them than to rejoice, and to do good in their lives,

13and also that every man should eat and drink and enjoy the good of all his labor—it is the gift of God.

14I know that whatever God does,
It shall be forever.
Nothing can be added to it,
And nothing taken from it.
God does it, that men should fear before Him.
15That which is has already been,
And what is to be has already been;
And God requires an account of what is past.

Injustice Seems to Prevail

16Moreover I saw under the sun:

In the place of judgment,
Wickedness was there;
And in the place of righteousness,
Iniquity was there.

17I said in my heart,

“God shall judge the righteous and the wicked,
For there is a time there for every purpose and for every work.”

18I said in my heart, “Concerning the condition of the sons of men, God tests them, that they may see that they themselves are like animals.”

[19]For what happens to the sons of men also happens to animals; one thing befalls them: as one dies, so dies the other. Surely, they all have one breath; man has no advantage over animals, for all is vanity.

[20]All go to one place: all are from the dust, and all return to dust.

[21]Who knows the spirit of the sons of men, which goes upward, and the spirit of the animal, which goes down to the earth?

[22]So I perceived that nothing is better than that a man should rejoice in his own works, for that is his heritage. For who can bring him to see what will happen after him?

Ecclesiastes 4

[1]Then I returned and considered all the oppression that is done under the sun:

And look! The tears of the oppressed,
But they have no comforter—
On the side of their oppressors there is power,
But they have no comforter.
[2]Therefore I praised the dead who were already dead,
More than the living who are still alive.
[3]Yet, better than both is he who has never existed,
Who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

The Vanity of Selfish Toil

[4]Again, I saw that for all toil and every skillful work a man is envied by his neighbor. This also is vanity and grasping for the wind.

[5]The fool folds his hands
And consumes his own flesh.
[6]Better a handful with quietness
Than both hands full, together with toil and grasping for the wind.

[7]Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the sun:

[8]There is one alone, without companion:
He has neither son nor brother.
Yet there is no end to all his labors,
Nor is his eye satisfied with riches.
But he never asks,
“For whom do I toil and deprive myself of good?”
This also is vanity and a grave misfortune.

The Value of a Friend

[9]Two are better than one,

Because they have a good reward for their labor.
[10]For if they fall, one will lift up his companion.
But woe to him who is alone when he falls,
For he has no one to help him up.
[11]Again, if two lie down together, they will keep warm;
But how can one be warm alone?
[12]Though one may be overpowered by another, two can withstand him.
And a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

Popularity Passes Away

13Better a poor and wise youth
Than an old and foolish king who will be admonished no more.
[14]For he comes out of prison to be king,
Although he was born poor in his kingdom.
[15]I saw all the living who walk under the sun;
They were with the second youth who stands in his place.
[16]There was no end of all the people over whom he was made king;
Yet those who come afterward will not rejoice in him.
Surely this also is vanity and grasping for the wind.

Ecclesiastes 5

Fear God, Keep Your Vows

[1]Walk prudently when you go to the house of God; and draw near to hear rather than to give the sacrifice of fools, for they do not know that they do evil.

[2]Do not be rash with your mouth,
And let not your heart utter anything hastily before God.
For God is in heaven, and you on earth;
Therefore let your words be few.
[3]For a dream comes through much activity,
And a fool's voice is known by his many words.

[4]When you make a vow to God, do not delay to pay it;
For He has no pleasure in fools.
Pay what you have vowed—
[5]Better not to vow than to vow and not pay.

[6]Do not let your mouth cause your flesh to sin, nor say before the messenger of God that it was an error. Why should God be angry at your excuse and destroy the work of your hands?

[7]For in the multitude of dreams and many words there is also vanity. But fear God.

The Vanity of Gain and Honor

[8]If you see the oppression of the poor, and the violent perversion of justice and righteousness in a province, do not marvel at the matter; for high official watches over high official, and higher officials are over them.

[9]Moreover the profit of the land is for all; even the king is served from the field.

[10]He who loves silver will not be satisfied with silver;
Nor he who loves abundance, with increase.
This also is vanity.

[11]When goods increase,
They increase who eat them;
So what profit have the owners
Except to see them with their eyes?

[12]The sleep of a laboring man is sweet,
Whether he eats little or much;
But the abundance of the rich will not permit him to sleep.

[13]There is a severe evil which I have seen under the sun:
Riches kept for their owner to his hurt.
[14]But those riches perish through misfortune;
When he begets a son, there is nothing in his hand.
[15]As he came from his mother's womb, naked shall he return,
To go as he came;
And he shall take nothing from his labor
Which he may carry away in his hand.

[16]And this also is a severe evil—
Just exactly as he came, so shall he go.
And what profit has he who has labored for the wind?
[17]All his days he also eats in darkness,
And he has much sorrow and sickness and anger.

[18]Here is what I have seen: It is good and fitting for one to eat and drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labor in which he toils under the sun all the days of his life which God gives him; for it is his heritage.

[19]As for every man to whom God has given riches and wealth, and given him power to eat of it, to receive his heritage and rejoice in his labor—this is the gift of God.

[20]For he will not dwell unduly on the days of his life, because God keeps him busy with the joy of his heart.

Ecclesiastes 6

[1]There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men:

[2]A man to whom God has given riches and wealth and honor, so that he lacks nothing for himself of all he desires; yet God does not give him power to eat of it, but a foreigner consumes it. This is vanity, and it is an evil affliction.

[3]If a man begets a hundred children and lives many years, so that the days of his years are many, but his soul is not satisfied with goodness, or indeed he has no burial, I say that a stillborn child is better than he—

[4]for it comes in vanity and departs in darkness, and its name is covered with darkness.

[5]Though it has not seen the sun or known anything, this has more rest than that man,

[6]even if he lives a thousand years twice—but has not seen goodness. Do not all go to one place?

[7]All the labor of man is for his mouth,
And yet the soul is not satisfied.
[8]For what more has the wise man than the fool?
What does the poor man have,
Who knows how to walk before the living?
[9]Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of desire.
This also is vanity and grasping for the wind.

[10]Whatever one is, he has been named already,
For it is known that he is man;
And he cannot contend with Him who is mightier than he.
[11]Since there are many things that increase vanity,
How is man the better?

[12]For who knows what is good for man in life, all the days of his vain life which he passes like a shadow? Who can tell a man what will happen after him under the sun?

Ecclesiastes 7

The Value of Practical Wisdom

[1]A good name is better than precious ointment,
And the day of death than the day of one's birth;
[2]Better to go to the house of mourning
Than to go to the house of feasting,
For that is the end of all men;
And the living will take it to heart.
[3]Sorrow is better than laughter,
For by a sad countenance the heart is made better.
[4]The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning,
But the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

[5]It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise
Than for a man to hear the song of fools.
[6]For like the crackling of thorns under a pot,
So is the laughter of the fool.
This also is vanity.
[7]Surely oppression destroys a wise man's reason,
And a bribe debases the heart.

[8]The end of a thing is better than its beginning;
The patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.
[9]Do not hasten in your spirit to be angry,
For anger rests in the bosom of fools.
[10]Do not say,
"Why were the former days better than these?"
For you do not inquire wisely concerning this.

[11]Wisdom is good with an inheritance,
And profitable to those who see the sun.
[12]For wisdom is a defense as money is a defense,
But the excellence of knowledge is that wisdom gives life to those who have it.

13Consider the work of God;
For who can make straight what He has made crooked?
14In the day of prosperity be joyful,
But in the day of adversity consider:
Surely God has appointed the one as well as the other,
So that man can find out nothing that will come after him.

15I have seen everything in my days of vanity:

There is a just man who perishes in his righteousness,
And there is a wicked man who prolongs life in his wickedness.

16Do not be overly righteous,
Nor be overly wise:
Why should you destroy yourself?
17Do not be overly wicked,
Nor be foolish:
Why should you die before your time?
18*It is* good that you grasp this,
And also not remove your hand from the other;
For he who fears God will escape them all.

19Wisdom strengthens the wise
More than ten rulers of the city.

20For there is not a just man on earth who does good
And does not sin.

21Also do not take to heart everything people say,
Lest you hear your servant cursing you.
22For many times, also, your own heart has known
That even you have cursed others.

23All this I have proved by wisdom.
I said, “I will be wise”;
But it was far from me.
24As for that which is far off and exceedingly deep,

Who can find it out?
[25]I applied my heart to know,
To search and seek out wisdom and the reason of things,
To know the wickedness of folly,
Even of foolishness and madness.
[26]And I find more bitter than death
The woman whose heart is snares and nets,
Whose hands are fetters.
He who pleases God shall escape from her,
But the sinner shall be trapped by her.

[27]"Here is what I have found," says the Preacher,
"Adding one thing to the other to find out the reason,
[28]Which my soul still seeks but I cannot find:
One man among a thousand I have found,
But a woman among all these I have not found.
[29]Truly, this only I have found:
That God made man upright,
But they have sought out many schemes."

Ecclesiastes 8

[1]Who is like a wise man?
And who knows the interpretation of a thing?
A man’s wisdom makes his face shine,
And the sternness of his face is changed.

Obey Authorities for God’s Sake

[2]I say, “Keep the king’s commandment for the sake of your oath to God.

[3]“Do not be hasty to go from his presence. Do not take your stand for an evil thing, for he does whatever pleases him.”

[4]Where the word of a king is, there is power;
And who may say to him, “What are you doing?��
[5]He who keeps his command will experience nothing harmful;
And a wise man’s heart discerns both time and judgment,
[6]Because for every matter there is a time and judgment,
Though the misery of man increases greatly.
[7]For he does not know what will happen;
So who can tell him when it will occur?
[8]No one has power over the spirit to retain the spirit,
And no one has power in the day of death.
There is no release from that war,
And wickedness will not deliver those who are given to it.

[9]All this I have seen, and applied my heart to every work that is done under the sun: There is a time in which one man rules over another to his own hurt.

Death Comes to All

[10]Then I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of holiness, and they were forgotten in the city where they had so done. This also is vanity.

[11]Because the sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

[12]Though a sinner does evil a hundred times, and his days are prolonged, yet I surely know that it will be well with those who fear God, who fear before Him.

[13]But it will not be well with the wicked; nor will he prolong his days, which are as a shadow, because he does not fear before God.

[14]There is a vanity which occurs on earth, that there are just men to whom it happens according to the work of the wicked; again, there are wicked men to whom it happens according to the work of the righteous. I said that this also is vanity.

[15]So I commended enjoyment, because a man has nothing better under the sun than to eat, drink, and be merry; for this will remain with him in his labor all the days of his life which God gives him under the sun.

[16]When I applied my heart to know wisdom and to see the business that is done on earth, even though one sees no sleep day or night,

[17]then I saw all the work of God, that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun. For though a man labors to discover it, yet he will not find it; moreover, though a wise man attempts to know it, he will not be able to find it.

Ecclesiastes 9

[1]For I considered all this in my heart, so that I could declare it all: that the righteous and the wise and their works are in the hand of God. People know neither love nor hatred by anything they see before them.

[2]All things come alike to all:

One event happens to the righteous and the wicked;
To the good, the clean, and the unclean;
To him who sacrifices and him who does not sacrifice.
As is the good, so is the sinner;
He who takes an oath as he who fears an oath.

[3]This is an evil in all that is done under the sun: that one thing happens to all. Truly the hearts of the sons of men are full of evil; madness is in their hearts while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

[4]But for him who is joined to all the living there is hope, for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

[5]For the living know that they will die;
But the dead know nothing,
And they have no more reward,
For the memory of them is forgotten.
[6]Also their love, their hatred, and their envy have now perished;
Nevermore will they have a share
In anything done under the sun.

[7]Go, eat your bread with joy,
And drink your wine with a merry heart;
For God has already accepted your works.
[8]Let your garments always be white,
And let your head lack no oil.

[9]Live joyfully with the wife whom you love all the days of your vain life which He has given you under the sun, all your days of vanity; for that is your portion in life, and in the labor which you perform under the sun.

[10]Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your might; for there is no work or device or knowledge or wisdom in the grave where you are going.

[11]I returned and saw under the sun that—

The race is not to the swift,
Nor the battle to the strong,
Nor bread to the wise,
Nor riches to men of understanding,
Nor favor to men of skill;
But time and chance happen to them all.
[12]For man also does not know his time:
Like fish taken in a cruel net,
Like birds caught in a snare,
So the sons of men are snared in an evil time,
When it falls suddenly upon them.

Wisdom Superior to Folly

[13]This wisdom I have also seen under the sun, and it seemed great to me:

[14]There was a little city with few men in it; and a great king came against it, besieged it, and built great snares around it.

[15]Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city. Yet no one remembered that same poor man.

[16]Then I said:

“Wisdom is better than strength.
Nevertheless the poor man’s wisdom is despised,
And his words are not heard.
[17]Words of the wise, spoken quietly, should be heard
Rather than the shout of a ruler of fools.
[18]Wisdom is better than weapons of war;

But one sinner destroys much good.”

Ecclesiastes 10

[1]Dead flies putrefy the perfumer's ointment,
And cause it to give off a foul odor;
So does a little folly to one respected for wisdom and honor.
[2]A wise man's heart is at his right hand,
But a fool's heart at his left.
[3]Even when a fool walks along the way,
He lacks wisdom,
And he shows everyone that he is a fool.
[4]If the spirit of the ruler rises against you,
Do not leave your post;
For conciliation pacifies great offenses.

[5]There is an evil I have seen under the sun,
As an error proceeding from the ruler:
[6]Folly is set in great dignity,
While the rich sit in a lowly place.
[7]I have seen servants on horses,
While princes walk on the ground like servants.

[8]He who digs a pit will fall into it,
And whoever breaks through a wall will be bitten by a serpent.
[9]He who quarries stones may be hurt by them,
And he who splits wood may be endangered by it.
[10]If the ax is dull,
And one does not sharpen the edge,
Then he must use more strength;
But wisdom brings success.

[11]A serpent may bite when it is not charmed;
The babbler is no different.
[12]The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious,
But the lips of a fool shall swallow him up;

[13]The words of his mouth begin with foolishness,
And the end of his talk is raving madness.
[14]A fool also multiplies words.
No man knows what is to be;
Who can tell him what will be after him?
[15]The labor of fools wearies them,
For they do not even know how to go to the city!

[16]Woe to you, O land, when your king is a child,
And your princes feast in the morning!
[17]Blessed are you, O land, when your king is the son of nobles,
And your princes feast at the proper time—
For strength and not for drunkenness!
[18]Because of laziness the building decays,
And through idleness of hands the house leaks.
[19]A feast is made for laughter,
And wine makes merry;
But money answers everything.

[20]Do not curse the king, even in your thought;
Do not curse the rich, even in your bedroom;
For a bird of the air may carry your voice,
And a bird in flight may tell the matter.

Ecclesiastes 11

The Value of Diligence

[1]Cast your bread upon the waters,
For you will find it after many days.
[2]Give a serving to seven, and also to eight,
For you do not know what evil will be on the earth.

[3]If the clouds are full of rain,
They empty themselves upon the earth;
And if a tree falls to the south or the north,
In the place where the tree falls, there it shall lie.
[4]He who observes the wind will not sow,
And he who regards the clouds will not reap.

[5]As you do not know what is the way of the wind,
Or how the bones grow in the womb of her who is with child,
So you do not know the works of God who makes everything.
[6]In the morning sow your seed,
And in the evening do not withhold your hand;
For you do not know which will prosper,
Either this or that,
Or whether both alike will be good.

[7]Truly the light is sweet,
And it is pleasant for the eyes to behold the sun;
[8]But if a man lives many years
And rejoices in them all,
Yet let him remember the days of darkness,
For they will be many.
All that is coming is vanity.

Seek God in Early Life

[9]Rejoice, O young man, in your youth,
And let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth;
Walk in the ways of your heart,
And in the sight of your eyes;
But know that for all these
God will bring you into judgment.
[10]Therefore remove sorrow from your heart,
And put away evil from your flesh,
For childhood and youth are vanity.

Ecclesiastes 12

[1]Remember now your Creator in the days of your youth,
Before the difficult days come,
And the years draw near when you say,
“I have no pleasure in them”:
[2]While the sun and the light,
The moon and the stars,
Are not darkened,
And the clouds do not return after the rain;
[3]In the day when the keepers of the house tremble,
And the strong men bow down;
When the grinders cease because they are few,
And those that look through the windows grow dim;
[4]When the doors are shut in the streets,
And the sound of grinding is low;
When one rises up at the sound of a bird,
And all the daughters of music are brought low.
[5]Also they are afraid of height,
And of terrors in the way;
When the almond tree blossoms,
The grasshopper is a burden,
And desire fails.
For man goes to his eternal home,
And the mourners go about the streets.

[6]Remember your Creator before the silver cord is loosed,
Or the golden bowl is broken,
Or the pitcher shattered at the fountain,
Or the wheel broken at the well.
[7]Then the dust will return to the earth as it was,
And the spirit will return to God who gave it.

[8]“Vanity of vanities,” says the Preacher,
“All is vanity.”

The Whole Duty of Man

9And moreover, because the Preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yes, he pondered and sought out and set in order many proverbs.

10The Preacher sought to find acceptable words; and what was written was upright—words of truth.

11The words of the wise are like goads, and the words of scholars are like well-driven nails, given by one Shepherd.

12And further, my son, be admonished by these. Of making many books there is no end, and much study is wearisome to the flesh.

13Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter:

Fear God and keep His commandments,
For this is man’s all.
14For God will bring every work into judgment,
Including every secret thing,
Whether good or evil.

The
Song of Solomon

Song of Solomon 1

[1]The song of songs, which is Solomon's.

The Banquet

The Shulamite

[2]Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth—
For your love is better than wine.
[3]Because of the fragrance of your good ointments,
Your name is ointment poured forth;
Therefore the virgins love you.
[4]Draw me away!

The Daughters of Jerusalem

We will run after you.

The Shulamite

The king has brought me into his chambers.

The Daughters of Jerusalem

We will be glad and rejoice in you.

We will remember your love more than wine.

The Shulamite

Rightly do they love you.

[5]I am dark, but lovely,
O daughters of Jerusalem,
Like the tents of Kedar,
Like the curtains of Solomon.
[6]Do not look upon me, because I am dark,
Because the sun has tanned me.
My mother's sons were angry with me;
They made me the keeper of the vineyards,
But my own vineyard I have not kept.

(To Her Beloved)

[7]Tell me, O you whom I love,
Where you feed your flock,
Where you make it rest at noon.
For why should I be as one who veils herself
By the flocks of your companions?

The Beloved

[8]If you do not know, O fairest among women,
Follow in the footsteps of the flock,
And feed your little goats
Beside the shepherds' tents.
[9]I have compared you, my love,
To my filly among Pharaoh's chariots.
[10]Your cheeks are lovely with ornaments,
Your neck with chains of gold.

The Daughters of Jerusalem

[11]We will make you ornaments of gold
With studs of silver.

The Shulamite

[12]While the king is at his table,
My spikenard sends forth its fragrance.
[13]A bundle of myrrh is my beloved to me,
That lies all night between my breasts.
[14]My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blooms
In the vineyards of En Gedi.

The Beloved

[15]Behold, you are fair, my love!
Behold, you are fair!
You have dove's eyes.

The Shulamite

[16]Behold, you are handsome, my beloved!
Yes, pleasant!

Also our bed is green.
[17]The beams of our houses are cedar,
And our rafters of fir.

Song of Solomon 2

[1]I am the rose of Sharon,
And the lily of the valleys.

The Beloved

[2]Like a lily among thorns,
So is my love among the daughters.

The Shulamite

[3]Like an apple tree among the trees of the woods,
So is my beloved among the sons.
I sat down in his shade with great delight,
And his fruit was sweet to my taste.

The Shulamite to the Daughters of Jerusalem

4He brought me to the banqueting house,
And his banner over me was love.
[5]Sustain me with cakes of raisins,
Refresh me with apples,
For I am lovesick.

[6]His left hand is under my head,
And his right hand embraces me.
[7]I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
By the gazelles or by the does of the field,
Do not stir up nor awaken love
Until it pleases.

The Beloved's Request

The Shulamite

8The voice of my beloved!
Behold, he comes
Leaping upon the mountains,
Skipping upon the hills.
[9]My beloved is like a gazelle or a young stag.

Behold, he stands behind our wall;
He is looking through the windows,
Gazing through the lattice.

[10]My beloved spoke, and said to me:
“Rise up, my love, my fair one,
And come away.
[11]For lo, the winter is past,
The rain is over and gone.
[12]The flowers appear on the earth;
The time of singing has come,
And the voice of the turtledove
Is heard in our land.
[13]The fig tree puts forth her green figs,
And the vines with the tender grapes
Give a good smell.
Rise up, my love, my fair one,
And come away!

[14]“O my dove, in the clefts of the rock,
In the secret places of the cliff,
Let me see your face,
Let me hear your voice;
For your voice is sweet,
And your face is lovely.”

Her Brothers

[15]Catch us the foxes,
The little foxes that spoil the vines,
For our vines have tender grapes.

The Shulamite

[16]My beloved is mine, and I am his.
He feeds his flock among the lilies.

(To Her Beloved)

[17]Until the day breaks
And the shadows flee away,

Turn, my beloved,
And be like a gazelle
Or a young stag
Upon the mountains of Bether.

Song of Solomon 3

A Troubled Night

The Shulamite

[1]By night on my bed I sought the one I love;
I sought him, but I did not find him.
[2]"I will rise now," I said,
"And go about the city;
In the streets and in the squares
I will seek the one I love."
I sought him, but I did not find him.
[3]The watchmen who go about the city found me;
I said,
"Have you seen the one I love?"

[4]Scarcely had I passed by them,
When I found the one I love.
I held him and would not let him go,
Until I had brought him to the house of my mother,
And into the chamber of her who conceived me.

[5]I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
By the gazelles or by the does of the field,
Do not stir up nor awaken love
Until it pleases.

The Coming of Solomon

The Shulamite

[6]Who is this coming out of the wilderness
Like pillars of smoke,
Perfumed with myrrh and frankincense,
With all the merchant's fragrant powders?
[7]Behold, it is Solomon's couch,
With sixty valiant men around it,
Of the valiant of Israel.

[8]They all hold swords,
Being expert in war.
Every man has his sword on his thigh
Because of fear in the night.

[9]Of the wood of Lebanon
Solomon the King
Made himself a palanquin:
[10]He made its pillars of silver,
Its support of gold,
Its seat of purple,
Its interior paved with love
By the daughters of Jerusalem.
[11]Go forth, O daughters of Zion,
And see King Solomon with the crown
With which his mother crowned him
On the day of his wedding,
The day of the gladness of his heart.

Song of Solomon 4

The Bridegroom Praises the Bride

The Beloved

[1]Behold, you are fair, my love!
Behold, you are fair!
You have dove's eyes behind your veil.
Your hair is like a flock of goats,
Going down from Mount Gilead.
[2]Your teeth are like a flock of shorn sheep
Which have come up from the washing,
Every one of which bears twins,
And none is barren among them.
[3]Your lips are like a strand of scarlet,
And your mouth is lovely.
Your temples behind your veil
Are like a piece of pomegranate.
[4]Your neck is like the tower of David,
Built for an armory,
On which hang a thousand bucklers,
All shields of mighty men.
[5]Your two breasts are like two fawns,
Twins of a gazelle,
Which feed among the lilies.

[6]Until the day breaks
And the shadows flee away,
I will go my way to the mountain of myrrh
And to the hill of frankincense.

[7]You are all fair, my love,
And there is no spot in you.
[8]Come with me from Lebanon, my spouse,
With me from Lebanon.
Look from the top of Amana,

From the top of Senir and Hermon,
From the lions’ dens,
From the mountains of the leopards.

[9]You have ravished my heart,
My sister, my spouse;
You have ravished my heart
With one look of your eyes,
With one link of your necklace.
[10]How fair is your love,
My sister, my spouse!
How much better than wine is your love,
And the scent of your perfumes
Than all spices!
[11]Your lips, O my spouse,
Drip as the honeycomb;
Honey and milk are under your tongue;
And the fragrance of your garments
Is like the fragrance of Lebanon.

[12]A garden enclosed
Is my sister, my spouse,
A spring shut up,
A fountain sealed.
[13]Your plants are an orchard of pomegranates
With pleasant fruits,
Fragrant henna with spikenard,
[14]Spikenard and saffron,
Calamus and cinnamon,
With all trees of frankincense,
Myrrh and aloes,
With all the chief spices—
[15]A fountain of gardens,
A well of living waters,
And streams from Lebanon.

The Shulamite

[16]Awake, O north wind,
And come, O south!
Blow upon my garden,
That its spices may flow out.
Let my beloved come to his garden
And eat its pleasant fruits.

Song of Solomon 5

The Beloved

[1]I have come to my garden, my sister, my spouse;
I have gathered my myrrh with my spice;
I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey;
I have drunk my wine with my milk.

(To His Friends)

Eat, O friends!
Drink, yes, drink deeply,
O beloved ones!

The Shulamite's Troubled Evening

The Shulamite

[2]I sleep, but my heart is awake;
It is the voice of my beloved!
He knocks, saying,
"Open for me, my sister, my love,
My dove, my perfect one;
For my head is covered with dew,
My locks with the drops of the night."

[3]I have taken off my robe;
How can I put it on again?
I have washed my feet;
How can I defile them?
[4]My beloved put his hand
By the latch of the door,
And my heart yearned for him.
[5]I arose to open for my beloved,
And my hands dripped with myrrh,
My fingers with liquid myrrh,
On the handles of the lock.

[6]I opened for my beloved,

But my beloved had turned away and was gone.
My heart leaped up when he spoke.
I sought him, but I could not find him;
I called him, but he gave me no answer.
[7]The watchmen who went about the city found me.
They struck me, they wounded me;
The keepers of the walls
Took my veil away from me.
[8]I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
If you find my beloved,
That you tell him I am lovesick!

The Daughters of Jerusalem

[9]What is your beloved
More than another beloved,
O fairest among women?
What is your beloved
More than another beloved,
That you so charge us?

The Shulamite

[10]My beloved is white and ruddy,
Chief among ten thousand.
[11]His head is like the finest gold;
His locks are wavy,
And black as a raven.
[12]His eyes are like doves
By the rivers of waters,
Washed with milk,
And fitly set.
[13]His cheeks are like a bed of spices,
Banks of scented herbs.
His lips are lilies,
Dripping liquid myrrh.

[14]His hands are rods of gold
Set with beryl.

His body is carved ivory
Inlaid with sapphires.
[15]His legs are pillars of marble
Set on bases of fine gold.
His countenance is like Lebanon,
Excellent as the cedars.
[16]His mouth is most sweet,
Yes, he is altogether lovely.
This is my beloved,
And this is my friend,
O daughters of Jerusalem!

Song of Solomon 6

The Daughters of Jerusalem

[1]Where has your beloved gone,
O fairest among women?
Where has your beloved turned aside,
That we may seek him with you?

The Shulamite

[2]My beloved has gone to his garden,
To the beds of spices,
To feed his flock in the gardens,
And to gather lilies.
[3]I am my beloved's,
And my beloved is mine.
He feeds his flock among the lilies.

Praise of the Shulamite's Beauty

The Beloved

[4]O my love, you are as beautiful as Tirzah,
Lovely as Jerusalem,
Awesome as an army with banners!
[5]Turn your eyes away from me,
For they have overcome me.
Your hair is like a flock of goats
Going down from Gilead.
[6]Your teeth are like a flock of sheep
Which have come up from the washing;
Every one bears twins,
And none is barren among them.
[7]Like a piece of pomegranate
Are your temples behind your veil.

[8]There are sixty queens
And eighty concubines,

And virgins without number.
[9]My dove, my perfect one,
Is the only one,
The only one of her mother,
The favorite of the one who bore her.
The daughters saw her
And called her blessed,
The queens and the concubines,
And they praised her.

[10]Who is she who looks forth as the morning,
Fair as the moon,
Clear as the sun,
Awesome as an army with banners?

The Shulamite

[11]I went down to the garden of nuts
To see the verdure of the valley,
To see whether the vine had budded
And the pomegranates had bloomed.
[12]Before I was even aware,
My soul had made me
As the chariots of my noble people.

The Beloved and His Friends

[13]Return, return, O Shulamite;
Return, return, that we may look upon you!

The Shulamite

What would you see in the Shulamite—
As it were, the dance of the two camps?

Song of Solomon 7

Expressions of Praise

The Beloved

[1]How beautiful are your feet in sandals,
O prince’s daughter!
The curves of your thighs are like jewels,
The work of the hands of a skillful workman.
[2]Your navel is a rounded goblet;
It lacks no blended beverage.
Your waist is a heap of wheat
Set about with lilies.
[3]Your two breasts are like two fawns,
Twins of a gazelle.
[4]Your neck is like an ivory tower,
Your eyes like the pools in Heshbon
By the gate of Bath Rabbim.
Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon
Which looks toward Damascus.
[5]Your head crowns you like Mount Carmel,
And the hair of your head is like purple;
A king is held captive by your tresses.

[6]How fair and how pleasant you are,
O love, with your delights!
[7]This stature of yours is like a palm tree,
And your breasts like its clusters.
[8]I said, “I will go up to the palm tree,
I will take hold of its branches.”
Let now your breasts be like clusters of the vine,
The fragrance of your breath like apples,
[9]And the roof of your mouth like the best wine.

The Shulamite

The wine goes down smoothly for my beloved,

Moving gently the lips of sleepers.
[10]I am my beloved’s,
And his desire is toward me.

[11]Come, my beloved,
Let us go forth to the field;
Let us lodge in the villages.
[12]Let us get up early to the vineyards;
Let us see if the vine has budded,
Whether the grape blossoms are open,
And the pomegranates are in bloom.
There I will give you my love.
[13]The mandrakes give off a fragrance,
And at our gates are pleasant fruits,
All manner, new and old,
Which I have laid up for you, my beloved.

Song of Solomon 8

[1]Oh, that you were like my brother,
Who nursed at my mother's breasts!
If I should find you outside,
I would kiss you;
I would not be despised.
[2]I would lead you and bring you
Into the house of my mother,
She who used to instruct me.
I would cause you to drink of spiced wine,
Of the juice of my pomegranate.

(To the Daughters of Jerusalem)

[3]His left hand is under my head,
And his right hand embraces me.
[4]I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
Do not stir up nor awaken love
Until it pleases.

Love Renewed in Lebanon

A Relative

[5]Who is this coming up from the wilderness,
Leaning upon her beloved?

I awakened you under the apple tree.
There your mother brought you forth;
There she who bore you brought you forth.

The Shulamite to Her Beloved

[6]Set me as a seal upon your heart,
As a seal upon your arm;
For love is as strong as death,
Jealousy as cruel as the grave;
Its flames are flames of fire,
A most vehement flame.

[7]Many waters cannot quench love,
Nor can the floods drown it.
If a man would give for love
All the wealth of his house,
It would be utterly despised.

The Shulamite's Brothers

[8]We have a little sister,
And she has no breasts.
What shall we do for our sister
In the day when she is spoken for?
[9]If she is a wall,
We will build upon her
A battlement of silver;
And if she is a door,
We will enclose her
With boards of cedar.

The Shulamite

[10]I am a wall,
And my breasts like towers;
Then I became in his eyes
As one who found peace.
[11]Solomon had a vineyard at Baal Hamon;
He leased the vineyard to keepers;
Everyone was to bring for its fruit
A thousand silver coins.

(To Solomon)

[12]My own vineyard is before me.
You, O Solomon, may have a thousand,
And those who tend its fruit two hundred.

The Beloved

[13]You who dwell in the gardens,
The companions listen for your voice—
Let me hear it!

The Shulamite

[14]Make haste, my beloved,
And be like a gazelle
Or a young stag
On the mountains of spices.

The Book of
Isaiah

Isaiah 1

[1]The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

The Wickedness of Judah

[2]Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth!
For the LORD has spoken:
"I have nourished and brought up children,
And they have rebelled against Me;
[3]The ox knows its owner
And the donkey its master's crib;
But Israel does not know,
My people do not consider."

[4]Alas, sinful nation,
A people laden with iniquity,
A brood of evildoers,
Children who are corrupters!
They have forsaken the LORD,
They have provoked to anger
The Holy One of Israel,
They have turned away backward.

[5]Why should you be stricken again?
You will revolt more and more.
The whole head is sick,
And the whole heart faints.
[6]From the sole of the foot even to the head,
There is no soundness in it,
But wounds and bruises and putrefying sores;
They have not been closed or bound up,
Or soothed with ointment.

[7]Your country is desolate,

Your cities are burned with fire;
Strangers devour your land in your presence;
And it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers.
[8]So the daughter of Zion is left as a booth in a vineyard,
As a hut in a garden of cucumbers,
As a besieged city.
[9]Unless the LORD of hosts
Had left to us a very small remnant,
We would have become like Sodom,
We would have been made like Gomorrah.

10Hear the word of the LORD,
You rulers of Sodom;
Give ear to the law of our God,
You people of Gomorrah:
[11]"To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices to Me?"
Says the LORD.
"I have had enough of burnt offerings of rams
And the fat of fed cattle.
I do not delight in the blood of bulls,
Or of lambs or goats.

[12]"When you come to appear before Me,
Who has required this from your hand,
To trample My courts?
[13]Bring no more futile sacrifices;
Incense is an abomination to Me.
The New Moons, the Sabbaths, and the calling of assemblies—
I cannot endure iniquity and the sacred meeting.
[14]Your New Moons and your appointed feasts
My soul hates;
They are a trouble to Me,
I am weary of bearing them.
[15]When you spread out your hands,
I will hide My eyes from you;

Even though you make many prayers,
I will not hear.
Your hands are full of blood.

[16]“Wash yourselves, make yourselves clean;
Put away the evil of your doings from before My eyes.
Cease to do evil,
[17]Learn to do good;
Seek justice,
Rebuke the oppressor;
Defend the fatherless,
Plead for the widow.

18“Come now, and let us reason together,”
Says the LORD,
“Though your sins are like scarlet,
They shall be as white as snow;
Though they are red like crimson,
They shall be as wool.
[19]If you are willing and obedient,
You shall eat the good of the land;
[20]But if you refuse and rebel,
You shall be devoured by the sword”;
For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

The Degenerate City

21How the faithful city has become a harlot!
It was full of justice;
Righteousness lodged in it,
But now murderers.
[22]Your silver has become dross,
Your wine mixed with water.
[23]Your princes are rebellious,
And companions of thieves;
Everyone loves bribes,
And follows after rewards.
They do not defend the fatherless,

Nor does the cause of the widow come before them.

[24]Therefore the Lord says,
The LORD of hosts, the Mighty One of Israel,
“Ah, I will rid Myself of My adversaries,
And take vengeance on My enemies.
[25]I will turn My hand against you,
And thoroughly purge away your dross,
And take away all your alloy.
[26]I will restore your judges as at the first,
And your counselors as at the beginning.
Afterward you shall be called the city of righteousness, the faithful city.”

[27]Zion shall be redeemed with justice,
And her penitents with righteousness.
[28]The destruction of transgressors and of sinners shall be together,
And those who forsake the LORD shall be consumed.
[29]For they shall be ashamed of the terebinth trees
Which you have desired;
And you shall be embarrassed because of the gardens
Which you have chosen.
[30]For you shall be as a terebinth whose leaf fades,
And as a garden that has no water.
[31]The strong shall be as tinder,
And the work of it as a spark;
Both will burn together,
And no one shall quench them.

Isaiah 2

The Future House of God

[1]The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

[2]Now it shall come to pass in the latter days
That the mountain of the LORD's house
Shall be established on the top of the mountains,
And shall be exalted above the hills;
And all nations shall flow to it.
[3]Many people shall come and say,
"Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,
To the house of the God of Jacob;
He will teach us His ways,
And we shall walk in His paths."
For out of Zion shall go forth the law,
And the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.
[4]He shall judge between the nations,
And rebuke many people;
They shall beat their swords into plowshares,
And their spears into pruning hooks;
Nation shall not lift up sword against nation,
Neither shall they learn war anymore.

The Day of the LORD

[5]O house of Jacob, come and let us walk
In the light of the LORD.

[6]For You have forsaken Your people, the house of Jacob,
Because they are filled with eastern ways;
They are soothsayers like the Philistines,
And they are pleased with the children of foreigners.
[7]Their land is also full of silver and gold,
And there is no end to their treasures;

Their land is also full of horses,
And there is no end to their chariots.
[8]Their land is also full of idols;
They worship the work of their own hands,
That which their own fingers have made.
[9]People bow down,
And each man humbles himself;
Therefore do not forgive them.

[10]Enter into the rock, and hide in the dust,
From the terror of the LORD
And the glory of His majesty.
[11]The lofty looks of man shall be humbled,
The haughtiness of men shall be bowed down,
And the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

[12]For the day of the LORD of hosts
Shall come upon everything proud and lofty,
Upon everything lifted up—
And it shall be brought low—
[13]Upon all the cedars of Lebanon that are high and lifted up,
And upon all the oaks of Bashan;
[14]Upon all the high mountains,
And upon all the hills that are lifted up;
[15]Upon every high tower,
And upon every fortified wall;
[16]Upon all the ships of Tarshish,
And upon all the beautiful sloops.
[17]The loftiness of man shall be bowed down,
And the haughtiness of men shall be brought low;
The LORD alone will be exalted in that day,
[18]But the idols He shall utterly abolish.

[19]They shall go into the holes of the rocks,
And into the caves of the earth,
From the terror of the LORD

And the glory of His majesty,
When He arises to shake the earth mightily.

[20]In that day a man will cast away his idols of silver
And his idols of gold,
Which they made, each for himself to worship,
To the moles and bats,
[21]To go into the clefts of the rocks,
And into the crags of the rugged rocks,
From the terror of the LORD
And the glory of His majesty,
When He arises to shake the earth mightily.

[22]Sever yourselves from such a man,
Whose breath is in his nostrils;
For of what account is he?

Isaiah 3

Judgment on Judah and Jerusalem

[1]For behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts,
Takes away from Jerusalem and from Judah
The stock and the store,
The whole supply of bread and the whole supply of water;
[2]The mighty man and the man of war,
The judge and the prophet,
And the diviner and the elder;
[3]The captain of fifty and the honorable man,
The counselor and the skillful artisan,
And the expert enchanter.

[4]"I will give children to be their princes,
And babes shall rule over them.
[5]The people will be oppressed,
Every one by another and every one by his neighbor;
The child will be insolent toward the elder,
And the base toward the honorable."

[6]When a man takes hold of his brother
In the house of his father, saying,
"You have clothing;
You be our ruler,
And let these ruins be under your power,"
[7]In that day he will protest, saying,
"I cannot cure your ills,
For in my house is neither food nor clothing;
Do not make me a ruler of the people."

[8]For Jerusalem stumbled,
And Judah is fallen,
Because their tongue and their doings
Are against the LORD,
To provoke the eyes of His glory.

[9]The look on their countenance witnesses against them,
And they declare their sin as Sodom;
They do not hide it.
Woe to their soul!
For they have brought evil upon themselves.

[10]"Say to the righteous that it shall be well with them,
For they shall eat the fruit of their doings.
[11]Woe to the wicked! It shall be ill with him,
For the reward of his hands shall be given him.
[12]As for My people, children are their oppressors,
And women rule over them.
O My people! Those who lead you cause you to err,
And destroy the way of your paths."

Oppression and Luxury Condemned

[13]The LORD stands up to plead,
And stands to judge the people.
[14]The LORD will enter into judgment
With the elders of His people
And His princes:
"For you have eaten up the vineyard;
The plunder of the poor is in your houses.
[15]What do you mean by crushing My people
And grinding the faces of the poor?"
Says the Lord GOD of hosts.

[16]Moreover the LORD says:

"Because the daughters of Zion are haughty,
And walk with outstretched necks
And wanton eyes,
Walking and mincing as they go,
Making a jingling with their feet,
[17]Therefore the Lord will strike with a scab
The crown of the head of the daughters of Zion,
And the LORD will uncover their secret parts."

[18]In that day the Lord will take away the finery:
The jingling anklets, the scarves, and the crescents;
[19]The pendants, the bracelets, and the veils;
[20]The headdresses, the leg ornaments, and the headbands;
The perfume boxes, the charms,
  [21]and the rings;
The nose jewels,
  [22]the festal apparel, and the mantles;
The outer garments, the purses,
  [23]and the mirrors;
The fine linen, the turbans, and the robes.

[24]And so it shall be:

Instead of a sweet smell there will be a stench;
Instead of a sash, a rope;
Instead of well-set hair, baldness;
Instead of a rich robe, a girding of sackcloth;
And branding instead of beauty.
[25]Your men shall fall by the sword,
And your mighty in the war.

[26]Her gates shall lament and mourn,
And she being desolate shall sit on the ground.

Isaiah 4

[1]And in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying,
"We will eat our own food and wear our own apparel;
Only let us be called by your name,
To take away our reproach."

The Renewal of Zion

[2]In that day the Branch of the LORD shall be beautiful and glorious;
And the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and appealing
For those of Israel who have escaped.

[3]And it shall come to pass that he who is left in Zion and remains in Jerusalem will be called holy—everyone who is recorded among the living in Jerusalem.

[4]When the Lord has washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and purged the blood of Jerusalem from her midst, by the spirit of judgment and by the spirit of burning,

[5]then the LORD will create above every dwelling place of Mount Zion, and above her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day and the shining of a flaming fire by night. For over all the glory there will be a covering.

[6]And there will be a tabernacle for shade in the daytime from the heat, for a place of refuge, and for a shelter from storm and rain.

Isaiah 5

God's Disappointing Vineyard

[1]Now let me sing to my Well-beloved
A song of my Beloved regarding His vineyard:

My Well-beloved has a vineyard
On a very fruitful hill.
[2]He dug it up and cleared out its stones,
And planted it with the choicest vine.
He built a tower in its midst,
And also made a winepress in it;
So He expected it to bring forth good grapes,
But it brought forth wild grapes.

[3]"And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah,
Judge, please, between Me and My vineyard.
[4]What more could have been done to My vineyard
That I have not done in it?
Why then, when I expected it to bring forth good grapes,
Did it bring forth wild grapes?
[5]And now, please let Me tell you what I will do to My vineyard:
I will take away its hedge, and it shall be burned;
And break down its wall, and it shall be trampled down.
[6]I will lay it waste;
It shall not be pruned or dug,
But there shall come up briers and thorns.
I will also command the clouds
That they rain no rain on it."

[7]For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel,
And the men of Judah are His pleasant plant.
He looked for justice, but behold, oppression;
For righteousness, but behold, a cry for help.

Impending Judgment on Excesses

[8]Woe to those who join house to house;
They add field to field,
Till there is no place
Where they may dwell alone in the midst of the land!
[9]In my hearing the LORD of hosts said,
"Truly, many houses shall be desolate,
Great and beautiful ones, without inhabitant.
[10]For ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath,
And a homer of seed shall yield one ephah."

[11]Woe to those who rise early in the morning,
That they may follow intoxicating drink;
Who continue until night, till wine inflames them!
[12]The harp and the strings,
The tambourine and flute,
And wine are in their feasts;
But they do not regard the work of the LORD,
Nor consider the operation of His hands.

[13]Therefore my people have gone into captivity,
Because they have no knowledge;
Their honorable men are famished,
And their multitude dried up with thirst.
[14]Therefore Sheol has enlarged itself
And opened its mouth beyond measure;
Their glory and their multitude and their pomp,
And he who is jubilant, shall descend into it.
[15]People shall be brought down,
Each man shall be humbled,
And the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled.
[16]But the LORD of hosts shall be exalted in judgment,
And God who is holy shall be hallowed in righteousness.
[17]Then the lambs shall feed in their pasture,
And in the waste places of the fat ones strangers shall eat.

18Woe to those who draw iniquity with cords of vanity,
And sin as if with a cart rope;
19That say, “Let Him make speed and hasten His work,
That we may see it;
And let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come,
That we may know it.”

20Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil;
Who put darkness for light, and light for darkness;
Who put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

21Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes,
And prudent in their own sight!

22Woe to men mighty at drinking wine,
Woe to men valiant for mixing intoxicating drink,
23Who justify the wicked for a bribe,
And take away justice from the righteous man!

24Therefore, as the fire devours the stubble,
And the flame consumes the chaff,
So their root will be as rottenness,
And their blossom will ascend like dust;
Because they have rejected the law of the LORD of hosts,
And despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.
25Therefore the anger of the LORD is aroused against His people;
He has stretched out His hand against them
And stricken them,
And the hills trembled.
Their carcasses were as refuse in the midst of the streets.

For all this His anger is not turned away,
But His hand is stretched out still.

26He will lift up a banner to the nations from afar,
And will whistle to them from the end of the earth;

Surely they shall come with speed, swiftly.
[27]No one will be weary or stumble among them,
No one will slumber or sleep;
Nor will the belt on their loins be loosed,
Nor the strap of their sandals be broken;
[28]Whose arrows are sharp,
And all their bows bent;
Their horses' hooves will seem like flint,
And their wheels like a whirlwind.
[29]Their roaring will be like a lion,
They will roar like young lions;
Yes, they will roar
And lay hold of the prey;
They will carry it away safely,
And no one will deliver.
[30]In that day they will roar against them
Like the roaring of the sea.
And if one looks to the land,
Behold, darkness and sorrow;
And the light is darkened by the clouds.

Isaiah 6

Isaiah Called to Be a Prophet

[1]In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lifted up, and the train of His robe filled the temple.

[2]Above it stood seraphim; each one had six wings: with two he covered his face, with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew.

[3]And one cried to another and said:

“Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts;
The whole earth is full of His glory!”

[4]And the posts of the door were shaken by the voice of him who cried out, and the house was filled with smoke.

[5]So I said:

“Woe is me, for I am undone!
Because I am a man of unclean lips,
And I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips;
For my eyes have seen the King,
The LORD of hosts.”

[6]Then one of the seraphim flew to me, having in his hand a live coal which he had taken with the tongs from the altar.

[7]And he touched my mouth with it, and said:

“Behold, this has touched your lips;
Your iniquity is taken away,
And your sin purged.”

[8]Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying:

“Whom shall I send,
And who will go for Us?”

Then I said, “Here am I! Send me.”

[9]And He said, “Go, and tell this people:

‘Keep on hearing, but do not understand;
Keep on seeing, but do not perceive.’

[10]“Make the heart of this people dull,
And their ears heavy,
And shut their eyes;
Lest they see with their eyes,
And hear with their ears,
And understand with their heart,
And return and be healed.”

[11]Then I said, “Lord, how long?” And He answered:

“Until the cities are laid waste and without inhabitant,
The houses are without a man,
The land is utterly desolate,
[12]The LORD has removed men far away,
And the forsaken places are many in the midst of the land.
[13]But yet a tenth will be in it,
And will return and be for consuming,
As a terebinth tree or as an oak,
Whose stump remains when it is cut down.
So the holy seed shall be its stump.”

Isaiah 7

Isaiah Sent to King Ahaz

[1]Now it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to make war against it, but could not prevail against it.

[2]And it was told to the house of David, saying, "Syria's forces are deployed in Ephraim." So his heart and the heart of his people were moved as the trees of the woods are moved with the wind.

[3]Then the LORD said to Isaiah, "Go out now to meet Ahaz, you and Shear-Jashub your son, at the end of the aqueduct from the upper pool, on the highway to the Fuller's Field,

[4]"and say to him: 'Take heed, and be quiet; do not fear or be fainthearted for these two stubs of smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin and Syria, and the son of Remaliah.

[5]'Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah have plotted evil against you, saying,

[6]"Let us go up against Judah and trouble it, and let us make a gap in its wall for ourselves, and set a king over them, the son of Tabel"—

[7]'thus says the Lord GOD:

"It shall not stand,
Nor shall it come to pass.
[8]For the head of Syria is Damascus,
And the head of Damascus is Rezin.
Within sixty-five years Ephraim will be broken,
So that it will not be a people.
[9]The head of Ephraim is Samaria,
And the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son.
If you will not believe,
Surely you shall not be established." ' "

The Immanuel Prophecy

10Moreover the LORD spoke again to Ahaz, saying,

[11]"Ask a sign for yourself from the LORD your God; ask it either in the depth or in the height above."

[12]But Ahaz said, "I will not ask, nor will I test the LORD!"

[13]Then he said, "Hear now, O house of David! Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will you weary my God also?

[14]"Therefore the Lord Himself will give you a sign: Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a Son, and shall call His name Immanuel.

[15]"Curds and honey He shall eat, that He may know to refuse the evil and choose the good.

[16]"For before the Child shall know to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land that you dread will be forsaken by both her kings.

[17]"The LORD will bring the king of Assyria upon you and your people and your father's house—days that have not come since the day that Ephraim departed from Judah."

18And it shall come to pass in that day
That the LORD will whistle for the fly
That is in the farthest part of the rivers of Egypt,
And for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.
[19]They will come, and all of them will rest
In the desolate valleys and in the clefts of the rocks,
And on all thorns and in all pastures.

[20]In the same day the Lord will shave with a hired razor,
With those from beyond the River, with the king of Assyria,
The head and the hair of the legs,
And will also remove the beard.

[21]It shall be in that day
That a man will keep alive a young cow and two sheep;
[22]So it shall be, from the abundance of milk they give,
That he will eat curds;
For curds and honey everyone will eat who is left in the land.

[23]It shall happen in that day,
That wherever there could be a thousand vines
Worth a thousand shekels of silver,
It will be for briers and thorns.
[24]With arrows and bows men will come there,
Because all the land will become briers and thorns.

[25]And to any hill which could be dug with the hoe,
You will not go there for fear of briers and thorns;
But it will become a range for oxen
And a place for sheep to roam.

Isaiah 8

Assyria Will Invade the Land

[1]Moreover the LORD said to me, "Take a large scroll, and write on it with a man's pen concerning Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz.

[2]"And I will take for Myself faithful witnesses to record, Uriah the priest and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah."

[3]Then I went to the prophetess, and she conceived and bore a son. Then the LORD said to me, "Call his name Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz;

[4]"for before the child shall have knowledge to cry 'My father' and 'My mother,' the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria will be taken away before the king of Assyria."

[5]The LORD also spoke to me again, saying:

[6]"Inasmuch as these people refused
The waters of Shiloah that flow softly,
And rejoice in Rezin and in Remaliah's son;
[7]Now therefore, behold, the Lord brings up over them
The waters of the River, strong and mighty—
The king of Assyria and all his glory;
He will go up over all his channels
And go over all his banks.
[8]He will pass through Judah,
He will overflow and pass over,
He will reach up to the neck;
And the stretching out of his wings
Will fill the breadth of Your land, O Immanuel.

[9]"Be shattered, O you peoples, and be broken in pieces!
Give ear, all you from far countries.
Gird yourselves, but be broken in pieces;
Gird yourselves, but be broken in pieces.
[10]Take counsel together, but it will come to nothing;
Speak the word, but it will not stand,
For God is with us."

Fear God, Heed His Word

11For the LORD spoke thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying:

[12]"Do not say, 'A conspiracy,'
Concerning all that this people call a conspiracy,
Nor be afraid of their threats, nor be troubled.
[13]The LORD of hosts, Him you shall hallow;
Let Him be your fear,
And let Him be your dread.
[14]He will be as a sanctuary,
But a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense
To both the houses of Israel,
As a trap and a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
[15]And many among them shall stumble;
They shall fall and be broken,
Be snared and taken."

16Bind up the testimony,
Seal the law among my disciples.
[17]And I will wait on the LORD,
Who hides His face from the house of Jacob;
And I will hope in Him.
[18]Here am I and the children whom the LORD has given me!
We are for signs and wonders in Israel
From the LORD of hosts,
Who dwells in Mount Zion.

19And when they say to you, "Seek those who are mediums and wizards, who whisper and mutter," should not a people seek their God? Should they seek the dead on behalf of the living?

[20]To the law and to the testimony! If they do not speak according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.

[21]They will pass through it hard-pressed and hungry; and it shall happen, when they are hungry, that they will be enraged and curse their king and their God, and look upward.

[22]Then they will look to the earth, and see trouble and darkness, gloom of anguish; and they will be driven into darkness.

Isaiah 9

The Government of the Promised Son

[1]Nevertheless the gloom will not be upon her who is distressed,
As when at first He lightly esteemed
The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali,
And afterward more heavily oppressed her,
By the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan,
In Galilee of the Gentiles.
[2]The people who walked in darkness
Have seen a great light;
Those who dwelt in the land of the shadow of death,
Upon them a light has shined.

[3]You have multiplied the nation
And increased its joy;
They rejoice before You
According to the joy of harvest,
As men rejoice when they divide the spoil.
[4]For You have broken the yoke of his burden
And the staff of his shoulder,
The rod of his oppressor,
As in the day of Midian.
[5]For every warrior's sandal from the noisy battle,
And garments rolled in blood,
Will be used for burning and fuel of fire.

[6]For unto us a Child is born,
Unto us a Son is given;
And the government will be upon His shoulder.
And His name will be called
Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God,
Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
[7]Of the increase of His government and peace

There will be no end,
Upon the throne of David and over His kingdom,
To order it and establish it with judgment and justice
From that time forward, even forever.
The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.

The Punishment of Samaria

8The Lord sent a word against Jacob,
And it has fallen on Israel.
9All the people will know—
Ephraim and the inhabitant of Samaria—
Who say in pride and arrogance of heart:
10"The bricks have fallen down,
But we will rebuild with hewn stones;
The sycamores are cut down,
But we will replace them with cedars."
11Therefore the LORD shall set up
The adversaries of Rezin against him,
And spur his enemies on,
12The Syrians before and the Philistines behind;
And they shall devour Israel with an open mouth.

For all this His anger is not turned away,
But His hand is stretched out still.

13For the people do not turn to Him who strikes them,
Nor do they seek the LORD of hosts.
14Therefore the LORD will cut off head and tail from Israel,
Palm branch and bulrush in one day.
15The elder and honorable, he is the head;
The prophet who teaches lies, he is the tail.
16For the leaders of this people cause them to err,
And those who are led by them are destroyed.
17Therefore the Lord will have no joy in their young men,
Nor have mercy on their fatherless and widows;
For everyone is a hypocrite and an evildoer,

And every mouth speaks folly.

For all this His anger is not turned away,
But His hand is stretched out still.

18For wickedness burns as the fire;
It shall devour the briers and thorns,
And kindle in the thickets of the forest;
They shall mount up like rising smoke.
19Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts
The land is burned up,
And the people shall be as fuel for the fire;
No man shall spare his brother.
20And he shall snatch on the right hand
And be hungry;
He shall devour on the left hand
And not be satisfied;
Every man shall eat the flesh of his own arm.
21Manasseh shall devour Ephraim, and Ephraim Manasseh;
Together they shall be against Judah.

For all this His anger is not turned away,
But His hand is stretched out still.

Isaiah 10

[1]“Woe to those who decree unrighteous decrees,
Who write misfortune,
Which they have prescribed
[2]To rob the needy of justice,
And to take what is right from the poor of My people,
That widows may be their prey,
And that they may rob the fatherless.
[3]What will you do in the day of punishment,
And in the desolation which will come from afar?
To whom will you flee for help?
And where will you leave your glory?
[4]Without Me they shall bow down among the prisoners,
And they shall fall among the slain.”

For all this His anger is not turned away,
But His hand is stretched out still.

Arrogant Assyria Also Judged

5“Woe to Assyria, the rod of My anger
And the staff in whose hand is My indignation.
[6]I will send him against an ungodly nation,
And against the people of My wrath
I will give him charge,
To seize the spoil, to take the prey,
And to tread them down like the mire of the streets.
[7]Yet he does not mean so,
Nor does his heart think so;
But it is in his heart to destroy,
And cut off not a few nations.
[8]For he says,
‘Are not my princes altogether kings?
[9]Is not Calno like Carchemish?
Is not Hamath like Arpad?

Is not Samaria like Damascus?
[10]As my hand has found the kingdoms of the idols,
Whose carved images excelled those of Jerusalem and Samaria,
[11]As I have done to Samaria and her idols,
Shall I not do also to Jerusalem and her idols?' "

12Therefore it shall come to pass, when the Lord has performed all His work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, that He will say, "I will punish the fruit of the arrogant heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his haughty looks."

[13]For he says:

"By the strength of my hand I have done it,
And by my wisdom, for I am prudent;
Also I have removed the boundaries of the people,
And have robbed their treasuries;
So I have put down the inhabitants like a valiant man.
[14]My hand has found like a nest the riches of the people,
And as one gathers eggs that are left,
I have gathered all the earth;
And there was no one who moved his wing,
Nor opened his mouth with even a peep."

15Shall the ax boast itself against him who chops with it?
Or shall the saw exalt itself against him who saws with it?
As if a rod could wield itself against those who lift it up,
Or as if a staff could lift up, as if it were not wood!
[16]Therefore the Lord, the Lord of hosts,
Will send leanness among his fat ones;
And under his glory
He will kindle a burning
Like the burning of a fire.
[17]So the Light of Israel will be for a fire,
And his Holy One for a flame;
It will burn and devour
His thorns and his briers in one day.

[18]And it will consume the glory of his forest and of his fruitful field,
Both soul and body;
And they will be as when a sick man wastes away.
[19]Then the rest of the trees of his forest
Will be so few in number
That a child may write them.

The Returning Remnant of Israel

[20]And it shall come to pass in that day
That the remnant of Israel,
And such as have escaped of the house of Jacob,
Will never again depend on him who defeated them,
But will depend on the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.
[21]The remnant will return, the remnant of Jacob,
To the Mighty God.
[22]For though your people, O Israel, be as the sand of the sea,
A remnant of them will return;
The destruction decreed shall overflow with righteousness.
[23]For the Lord GOD of hosts
Will make a determined end
In the midst of all the land.

[24]Therefore thus says the Lord GOD of hosts: “O My people, who dwell in Zion, do not be afraid of the Assyrian. He shall strike you with a rod and lift up his staff against you, in the manner of Egypt.

[25]“For yet a very little while and the indignation will cease, as will My anger in their destruction.”

[26]And the LORD of hosts will stir up a scourge for him like the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb; as His rod was on the sea, so will He lift it up in the manner of Egypt.

[27]It shall come to pass in that day
That his burden will be taken away from your shoulder,
And his yoke from your neck,

And the yoke will be destroyed because of the anointing oil.

[28]He has come to Aiath,
He has passed Migron;
At Michmash he has attended to his equipment.
[29]They have gone along the ridge,
They have taken up lodging at Geba.
Ramah is afraid,
Gibeah of Saul has fled.
[30]Lift up your voice,
O daughter of Gallim!
Cause it to be heard as far as Laish—
O poor Anathoth!
[31]Madmenah has fled,
The inhabitants of Gebim seek refuge.
[32]As yet he will remain at Nob that day;
He will shake his fist at the mount of the daughter of Zion,
The hill of Jerusalem.

[33]Behold, the Lord,
The LORD of hosts,
Will lop off the bough with terror;
Those of high stature will be hewn down,
And the haughty will be humbled.
[34]He will cut down the thickets of the forest with iron,
And Lebanon will fall by the Mighty One.

Isaiah 11

The Reign of Jesse's Offspring

[1]There shall come forth a Rod from the stem of Jesse,
And a Branch shall grow out of his roots.
[2]The Spirit of the LORD shall rest upon Him,
The Spirit of wisdom and understanding,
The Spirit of counsel and might,
The Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD.

[3]His delight is in the fear of the LORD,
And He shall not judge by the sight of His eyes,
Nor decide by the hearing of His ears;
[4]But with righteousness He shall judge the poor,
And decide with equity for the meek of the earth;
He shall strike the earth with the rod of His mouth,
And with the breath of His lips He shall slay the wicked.
[5]Righteousness shall be the belt of His loins,
And faithfulness the belt of His waist.

[6]"The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb,
The leopard shall lie down with the young goat,
The calf and the young lion and the fatling together;
And a little child shall lead them.
[7]The cow and the bear shall graze;
Their young ones shall lie down together;
And the lion shall eat straw like the ox.
[8]The nursing child shall play by the cobra's hole,
And the weaned child shall put his hand in the viper's den.
[9]They shall not hurt nor destroy in all My holy mountain,
For the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD
As the waters cover the sea.

[10]"And in that day there shall be a Root of Jesse,
Who shall stand as a banner to the people;

For the Gentiles shall seek Him,
And His resting place shall be glorious.”

11It shall come to pass in that day
That the Lord shall set His hand again the second time
To recover the remnant of His people who are left,
From Assyria and Egypt,
From Pathros and Cush,
From Elam and Shinar,
From Hamath and the islands of the sea.

12He will set up a banner for the nations,
And will assemble the outcasts of Israel,
And gather together the dispersed of Judah
From the four corners of the earth.
13Also the envy of Ephraim shall depart,
And the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off;
Ephraim shall not envy Judah,
And Judah shall not harass Ephraim.
14But they shall fly down upon the shoulder of the Philistines toward the west;
Together they shall plunder the people of the East;
They shall lay their hand on Edom and Moab;
And the people of Ammon shall obey them.
15The LORD will utterly destroy the tongue of the Sea of Egypt;
With His mighty wind He will shake His fist over the River,
And strike it in the seven streams,
And make men cross over dry-shod.
16There will be a highway for the remnant of His people
Who will be left from Assyria,
As it was for Israel
In the day that he came up from the land of Egypt.

Isaiah 12

A Hymn of Praise

[1]And in that day you will say:

“O LORD, I will praise You;
Though You were angry with me,
Your anger is turned away, and You comfort me.
[2]Behold, God is my salvation,
I will trust and not be afraid;
‘For YAH, the LORD, is my strength and song;
He also has become my salvation.’ ”

[3]Therefore with joy you will draw water
From the wells of salvation.

[4]And in that day you will say:

“Praise the LORD, call upon His name;
Declare His deeds among the peoples,
Make mention that His name is exalted.
[5]Sing to the LORD,
For He has done excellent things;
This is known in all the earth.
[6]Cry out and shout, O inhabitant of Zion,
For great is the Holy One of Israel in your midst!”

Isaiah 13

Proclamation Against Babylon

[1]The burden against Babylon which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw.

[2]"Lift up a banner on the high mountain,
Raise your voice to them;
Wave your hand, that they may enter the gates of the nobles.
[3]I have commanded My sanctified ones;
I have also called My mighty ones for My anger—
Those who rejoice in My exaltation."

[4]The noise of a multitude in the mountains,
Like that of many people!
A tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together!
The LORD of hosts musters
The army for battle.
[5]They come from a far country,
From the end of heaven—
The LORD and His weapons of indignation,
To destroy the whole land.

[6]Wail, for the day of the LORD is at hand!
It will come as destruction from the Almighty.
[7]Therefore all hands will be limp,
Every man's heart will melt,
[8]And they will be afraid.
Pangs and sorrows will take hold of them;
They will be in pain as a woman in childbirth;
They will be amazed at one another;
Their faces will be like flames.

[9]Behold, the day of the LORD comes,
Cruel, with both wrath and fierce anger,
To lay the land desolate;

And He will destroy its sinners from it.
[10]For the stars of heaven and their constellations
Will not give their light;
The sun will be darkened in its going forth,
And the moon will not cause its light to shine.

[11]"I will punish the world for its evil,
And the wicked for their iniquity;
I will halt the arrogance of the proud,
And will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible.
[12]I will make a mortal more rare than fine gold,
A man more than the golden wedge of Ophir.
[13]Therefore I will shake the heavens,
And the earth will move out of her place,
In the wrath of the LORD of hosts
And in the day of His fierce anger.
[14]It shall be as the hunted gazelle,
And as a sheep that no man takes up;
Every man will turn to his own people,
And everyone will flee to his own land.
[15]Everyone who is found will be thrust through,
And everyone who is captured will fall by the sword.
[16]Their children also will be dashed to pieces before their eyes;
Their houses will be plundered
And their wives ravished.

[17]"Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them,
Who will not regard silver;
And as for gold, they will not delight in it.
[18]Also their bows will dash the young men to pieces,
And they will have no pity on the fruit of the womb;
Their eye will not spare children.
[19]And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms,
The beauty of the Chaldeans' pride,
Will be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.

[20]It will never be inhabited,
Nor will it be settled from generation to generation;
Nor will the Arabian pitch tents there,
Nor will the shepherds make their sheepfolds there.
[21]But wild beasts of the desert will lie there,
And their houses will be full of owls;
Ostriches will dwell there,
And wild goats will caper there.
[22]The hyenas will howl in their citadels,
And jackals in their pleasant palaces.
Her time is near to come,
And her days will not be prolonged.”

Isaiah 14

Mercy on Jacob

[1]For the LORD will have mercy on Jacob, and will still choose Israel, and settle them in their own land. The strangers will be joined with them, and they will cling to the house of Jacob.

[2]Then people will take them and bring them to their place, and the house of Israel will possess them for servants and maids in the land of the LORD; they will take them captive whose captives they were, and rule over their oppressors.

Fall of the King of Babylon

[3]It shall come to pass in the day the LORD gives you rest from your sorrow, and from your fear and the hard bondage in which you were made to serve,

[4]that you will take up this proverb against the king of Babylon, and say:

“How the oppressor has ceased,
The golden city ceased!
[5]The LORD has broken the staff of the wicked,
The scepter of the rulers;
[6]He who struck the people in wrath with a continual stroke,
He who ruled the nations in anger,
Is persecuted and no one hinders.
[7]The whole earth is at rest and quiet;
They break forth into singing.
[8]Indeed the cypress trees rejoice over you,
And the cedars of Lebanon,
Saying, ‘Since you were cut down,
No woodsman has come up against us.’

[9]“Hell from beneath is excited about you,
To meet you at your coming;
It stirs up the dead for you,

All the chief ones of the earth;
It has raised up from their thrones
All the kings of the nations.
[10]They all shall speak and say to you:
‘Have you also become as weak as we?
Have you become like us?
[11]Your pomp is brought down to Sheol,
And the sound of your stringed instruments;
The maggot is spread under you,
And worms cover you.’

The Fall of Lucifer

[12]“How you are fallen from heaven,
O Lucifer, son of the morning!
How you are cut down to the ground,
You who weakened the nations!
[13]For you have said in your heart:
‘I will ascend into heaven,
I will exalt my throne above the stars of God;
I will also sit on the mount of the congregation
On the farthest sides of the north;
[14]I will ascend above the heights of the clouds,
I will be like the Most High.’
[15]Yet you shall be brought down to Sheol,
To the lowest depths of the Pit.

[16]“Those who see you will gaze at you,
And consider you, saying:
‘Is this the man who made the earth tremble,
Who shook kingdoms,
[17]Who made the world as a wilderness
And destroyed its cities,
Who did not open the house of his prisoners?’

[18]“All the kings of the nations,
All of them, sleep in glory,
Everyone in his own house;

[19]But you are cast out of your grave
Like an abominable branch,
Like the garment of those who are slain,
Thrust through with a sword,
Who go down to the stones of the pit,
Like a corpse trodden underfoot.
[20]You will not be joined with them in burial,
Because you have destroyed your land
And slain your people.
The brood of evildoers shall never be named.
[21]Prepare slaughter for his children
Because of the iniquity of their fathers,
Lest they rise up and possess the land,
And fill the face of the world with cities."

Babylon Destroyed

[22]"For I will rise up against them," says the LORD of hosts,
"And cut off from Babylon the name and remnant,
And offspring and posterity," says the LORD.
[23]"I will also make it a possession for the porcupine,
And marshes of muddy water;
I will sweep it with the broom of destruction," says the LORD of hosts.

Assyria Destroyed

[24]The LORD of hosts has sworn, saying,
"Surely, as I have thought, so it shall come to pass,
And as I have purposed, so it shall stand:
[25]That I will break the Assyrian in My land,
And on My mountains tread him underfoot.
Then his yoke shall be removed from them,
And his burden removed from their shoulders.
[26]This is the purpose that is purposed against the whole earth,
And this is the hand that is stretched out over all the nations.
[27]For the LORD of hosts has purposed,

And who will annul it?
His hand is stretched out,
And who will turn it back?"

Philistia Destroyed

28This is the burden which came in the year that King Ahaz died.

29"Do not rejoice, all you of Philistia,
Because the rod that struck you is broken;
For out of the serpent's roots will come forth a viper,
And its offspring will be a fiery flying serpent.
30The firstborn of the poor will feed,
And the needy will lie down in safety;
I will kill your roots with famine,
And it will slay your remnant.
31Wail, O gate! Cry, O city!
All you of Philistia are dissolved;
For smoke will come from the north,
And no one will be alone in his appointed times."

32What will they answer the messengers of the nation?
That the LORD has founded Zion,
And the poor of His people shall take refuge in it.

Isaiah 15

Proclamation Against Moab

[1]The burden against Moab.

Because in the night Ar of Moab is laid waste
And destroyed,
Because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste
And destroyed,
[2]He has gone up to the temple and Dibon,
To the high places to weep.
Moab will wail over Nebo and over Medeba;
On all their heads will be baldness,
And every beard cut off.
[3]In their streets they will clothe themselves with sackcloth;
On the tops of their houses
And in their streets
Everyone will wail, weeping bitterly.
[4]Heshbon and Elealeh will cry out,
Their voice shall be heard as far as Jahaz;
Therefore the armed soldiers of Moab will cry out;
His life will be burdensome to him.

[5]"My heart will cry out for Moab;
His fugitives shall flee to Zoar,
Like a three-year-old heifer.
For by the Ascent of Luhith
They will go up with weeping;
For in the way of Horonaim
They will raise up a cry of destruction,
[6]For the waters of Nimrim will be desolate,
For the green grass has withered away;
The grass fails, there is nothing green.
[7]Therefore the abundance they have gained,
And what they have laid up,

They will carry away to the Brook of the Willows.
[8]For the cry has gone all around the borders of Moab,
Its wailing to Eglaim
And its wailing to Beer Elim.
[9]For the waters of Dimon will be full of blood;
Because I will bring more upon Dimon,
Lions upon him who escapes from Moab,
And on the remnant of the land.”

Isaiah 16

Moab Destroyed

[1]Send the lamb to the ruler of the land,
From Sela to the wilderness,
To the mount of the daughter of Zion.
[2]For it shall be as a wandering bird thrown out of the nest;
So shall be the daughters of Moab at the fords of the Arnon.

[3]"Take counsel, execute judgment;
Make your shadow like the night in the middle of the day;
Hide the outcasts,
Do not betray him who escapes.
[4]Let My outcasts dwell with you, O Moab;
Be a shelter to them from the face of the spoiler.
For the extortioner is at an end,
Devastation ceases,
The oppressors are consumed out of the land.
[5]In mercy the throne will be established;
And One will sit on it in truth, in the tabernacle of David,
Judging and seeking justice and hastening righteousness."

[6]We have heard of the pride of Moab—
He is very proud—
Of his haughtiness and his pride and his wrath;
But his lies shall not be so.
[7]Therefore Moab shall wail for Moab;
Everyone shall wail.
For the foundations of Kir Hareseth you shall mourn;
Surely they are stricken.

[8]For the fields of Heshbon languish,
And the vine of Sibmah;
The lords of the nations have broken down its choice plants,
Which have reached to Jazer
And wandered through the wilderness.

Her branches are stretched out,
They are gone over the sea.
[9]Therefore I will bewail the vine of Sibmah,
With the weeping of Jazer;
I will drench you with my tears,
O Heshbon and Elealeh;
For battle cries have fallen
Over your summer fruits and your harvest.

[10]Gladness is taken away,
And joy from the plentiful field;
In the vineyards there will be no singing,
Nor will there be shouting;
No treaders will tread out wine in the presses;
I have made their shouting cease.
[11]Therefore my heart shall resound like a harp for Moab,
And my inner being for Kir Heres.

[12]And it shall come to pass,
When it is seen that Moab is weary on the high place,
That he will come to his sanctuary to pray;
But he will not prevail.

[13]This is the word which the LORD has spoken concerning Moab since that time.

[14]But now the LORD has spoken, saying, “Within three years, as the years of a hired man, the glory of Moab will be despised with all that great multitude, and the remnant will be very small and feeble.”

Isaiah 17

Proclamation Against Syria and Israel

[1]The burden against Damascus.

“Behold, Damascus will cease from being a city,
And it will be a ruinous heap.
[2]The cities of Aroer are forsaken;
They will be for flocks
Which lie down, and no one will make them afraid.
[3]The fortress also will cease from Ephraim,
The kingdom from Damascus,
And the remnant of Syria;
They will be as the glory of the children of Israel,”
Says the LORD of hosts.

[4]“In that day it shall come to pass
That the glory of Jacob will wane,
And the fatness of his flesh grow lean.
[5]It shall be as when the harvester gathers the grain,
And reaps the heads with his arm;
It shall be as he who gathers heads of grain
In the Valley of Rephaim.
[6]Yet gleaning grapes will be left in it,
Like the shaking of an olive tree,
Two or three olives at the top of the uppermost bough,
Four or five in its most fruitful branches,”
Says the LORD God of Israel.

[7]In that day a man will look to his Maker,
And his eyes will have respect for the Holy One of Israel.
[8]He will not look to the altars,
The work of his hands;
He will not respect what his fingers have made,
Nor the wooden images nor the incense altars.

[9]In that day his strong cities will be as a forsaken bough
And an uppermost branch,
Which they left because of the children of Israel;
And there will be desolation.

[10]Because you have forgotten the God of your salvation,
And have not been mindful of the Rock of your stronghold,
Therefore you will plant pleasant plants
And set out foreign seedlings;
[11]In the day you will make your plant to grow,
And in the morning you will make your seed to flourish;
But the harvest will be a heap of ruins
In the day of grief and desperate sorrow.

[12]Woe to the multitude of many people
Who make a noise like the roar of the seas,
And to the rushing of nations
That make a rushing like the rushing of mighty waters!
[13]The nations will rush like the rushing of many waters;
But God will rebuke them and they will flee far away,
And be chased like the chaff of the mountains before the wind,
Like a rolling thing before the whirlwind.
[14]Then behold, at eventide, trouble!
And before the morning, he is no more.
This is the portion of those who plunder us,
And the lot of those who rob us.

Isaiah 18

Proclamation Against Ethiopia

[1]Woe to the land shadowed with buzzing wings,
Which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia,
[2]Which sends ambassadors by sea,
Even in vessels of reed on the waters, saying,
“Go, swift messengers, to a nation tall and smooth of skin,
To a people terrible from their beginning onward,
A nation powerful and treading down,
Whose land the rivers divide.”

[3]All inhabitants of the world and dwellers on the earth:
When he lifts up a banner on the mountains, you see it;
And when he blows a trumpet, you hear it.
[4]For so the LORD said to me,
“I will take My rest,
And I will look from My dwelling place
Like clear heat in sunshine,
Like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.”
[5]For before the harvest, when the bud is perfect
And the sour grape is ripening in the flower,
He will both cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks
And take away and cut down the branches.
[6]They will be left together for the mountain birds of prey
And for the beasts of the earth;
The birds of prey will summer on them,
And all the beasts of the earth will winter on them.

[7]In that time a present will be brought to the LORD of hosts
From a people tall and smooth of skin,
And from a people terrible from their beginning onward,
A nation powerful and treading down,
Whose land the rivers divide—
To the place of the name of the LORD of hosts,

To Mount Zion.

Isaiah 19

Proclamation Against Egypt

[1]The burden against Egypt.

Behold, the LORD rides on a swift cloud,
And will come into Egypt;
The idols of Egypt will totter at His presence,
And the heart of Egypt will melt in its midst.

[2]"I will set Egyptians against Egyptians;
Everyone will fight against his brother,
And everyone against his neighbor,
City against city, kingdom against kingdom.
[3]The spirit of Egypt will fail in its midst;
I will destroy their counsel,
And they will consult the idols and the charmers,
The mediums and the sorcerers.
[4]And the Egyptians I will give
Into the hand of a cruel master,
And a fierce king will rule over them,"
Says the Lord, the LORD of hosts.

[5]The waters will fail from the sea,
And the river will be wasted and dried up.
[6]The rivers will turn foul;
The brooks of defense will be emptied and dried up;
The reeds and rushes will wither.
[7]The papyrus reeds by the River, by the mouth of the River,
And everything sown by the River,
Will wither, be driven away, and be no more.
[8]The fishermen also will mourn;
All those will lament who cast hooks into the River,
And they will languish who spread nets on the waters.
[9]Moreover those who work in fine flax

And those who weave fine fabric will be ashamed;
[10]And its foundations will be broken.
All who make wages will be troubled of soul.

11Surely the princes of Zoan are fools;
Pharaoh's wise counselors give foolish counsel.
How do you say to Pharaoh, "I am the son of the wise,
The son of ancient kings?"
[12]Where are they?
Where are your wise men?
Let them tell you now,
And let them know what the LORD of hosts has purposed against Egypt.
[13]The princes of Zoan have become fools;
The princes of Noph are deceived;
They have also deluded Egypt,
Those who are the mainstay of its tribes.
[14]The LORD has mingled a perverse spirit in her midst;
And they have caused Egypt to err in all her work,
As a drunken man staggers in his vomit.
[15]Neither will there be any work for Egypt,
Which the head or tail,
Palm branch or bulrush, may do.

16In that day Egypt will be like women, and will be afraid and fear because of the waving of the hand of the LORD of hosts, which He waves over it.

[17]And the land of Judah will be a terror to Egypt; everyone who makes mention of it will be afraid in himself, because of the counsel of the LORD of hosts which He has determined against it.

Egypt, Assyria, and Israel Blessed

18In that day five cities in the land of Egypt will speak the language of Canaan and swear by the LORD of hosts; one will be called the City of Destruction.

19In that day there will be an altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to the LORD at its border.

20And it will be for a sign and for a witness to the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt; for they will cry to the LORD because of the oppressors, and He will send them a Savior and a Mighty One, and He will deliver them.

21Then the LORD will be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will know the LORD in that day, and will make sacrifice and offering; yes, they will make a vow to the LORD and perform it.

22And the LORD will strike Egypt, He will strike and heal it; they will return to the LORD, and He will be entreated by them and heal them.

23In that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian will come into Egypt and the Egyptian into Assyria, and the Egyptians will serve with the Assyrians.

24In that day Israel will be one of three with Egypt and Assyria—a blessing in the midst of the land,

25whom the LORD of hosts shall bless, saying, “Blessed is Egypt My people, and Assyria the work of My hands, and Israel My inheritance.”

Isaiah 20

The Sign Against Egypt and Ethiopia

[1]In the year that Tartan came to Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him, and he fought against Ashdod and took it,

[2]at the same time the LORD spoke by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, “Go, and remove the sackcloth from your body, and take your sandals off your feet.” And he did so, walking naked and barefoot.

[3]Then the LORD said, “Just as My servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and a wonder against Egypt and Ethiopia,

[4]“so shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians as prisoners and the Ethiopians as captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, with their buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.

[5]“Then they shall be afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia their expectation and Egypt their glory.

[6]“And the inhabitant of this territory will say in that day, ‘Surely such is our expectation, wherever we flee for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria; and how shall we escape?’ ”

Isaiah 21

The Fall of Babylon Proclaimed

[1]The burden against the Wilderness of the Sea.

As whirlwinds in the South pass through,
So it comes from the desert, from a terrible land.
[2]A distressing vision is declared to me;
The treacherous dealer deals treacherously,
And the plunderer plunders.
Go up, O Elam!
Besiege, O Media!
All its sighing I have made to cease.

[3]Therefore my loins are filled with pain;
Pangs have taken hold of me, like the pangs of a woman in labor.
I was distressed when I heard it;
I was dismayed when I saw it.
[4]My heart wavered, fearfulness frightened me;
The night for which I longed He turned into fear for me.
[5]Prepare the table,
Set a watchman in the tower,
Eat and drink.
Arise, you princes,
Anoint the shield!

[6]For thus has the Lord said to me:
"Go, set a watchman,
Let him declare what he sees."
[7]And he saw a chariot with a pair of horsemen,
A chariot of donkeys, and a chariot of camels,
And he listened earnestly with great care.
[8]Then he cried, "A lion, my Lord!
I stand continually on the watchtower in the daytime;
I have sat at my post every night.

[9]And look, here comes a chariot of men with a pair of horsemen!"
Then he answered and said,
"Babylon is fallen, is fallen!
And all the carved images of her gods
He has broken to the ground."

[10]Oh, my threshing and the grain of my floor!
That which I have heard from the LORD of hosts,
The God of Israel,
I have declared to you.

Proclamation Against Edom

11The burden against Dumah.

He calls to me out of Seir,
"Watchman, what of the night?
Watchman, what of the night?"
[12]The watchman said,
"The morning comes, and also the night.
If you will inquire, inquire;
Return! Come back!"

Proclamation Against Arabia

13The burden against Arabia.

In the forest in Arabia you will lodge,
O you traveling companies of Dedanites.
[14]O inhabitants of the land of Tema,
Bring water to him who is thirsty;
With their bread they met him who fled.
[15]For they fled from the swords, from the drawn sword,
From the bent bow, and from the distress of war.

16For thus the LORD has said to me: "Within a year, according to the year of a hired man, all the glory of Kedar will fail;

[17]“and the remainder of the number of archers, the mighty men of the people of Kedar, will be diminished; for the LORD God of Israel has spoken it.”

Isaiah 22

Proclamation Against Jerusalem

[1]The burden against the Valley of Vision.

What ails you now, that you have all gone up to the housetops,
[2]You who are full of noise,
A tumultuous city, a joyous city?
Your slain men are not slain with the sword,
Nor dead in battle.
[3]All your rulers have fled together;
They are captured by the archers.
All who are found in you are bound together;
They have fled from afar.
[4]Therefore I said, “Look away from me,
I will weep bitterly;
Do not labor to comfort me
Because of the plundering of the daughter of my people.”

[5]For it is a day of trouble and treading down and perplexity
By the Lord GOD of hosts
In the Valley of Vision—
Breaking down the walls
And of crying to the mountain.
[6]Elam bore the quiver
With chariots of men and horsemen,
And Kir uncovered the shield.
[7]It shall come to pass that your choicest valleys
Shall be full of chariots,
And the horsemen shall set themselves in array at the gate.

[8]He removed the protection of Judah.
You looked in that day to the armor of the House of the Forest;

[9]You also saw the damage to the city of David,
That it was great;
And you gathered together the waters of the lower pool.
[10]You numbered the houses of Jerusalem,
And the houses you broke down
To fortify the wall.
[11]You also made a reservoir between the two walls
For the water of the old pool.
But you did not look to its Maker,
Nor did you have respect for Him who fashioned it long ago.

12And in that day the Lord GOD of hosts
Called for weeping and for mourning,
For baldness and for girding with sackcloth.
[13]But instead, joy and gladness,
Slaying oxen and killing sheep,
Eating meat and drinking wine:
"Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die!"

[14]Then it was revealed in my hearing by the LORD of hosts,
"Surely for this iniquity there will be no atonement for you,
Even to your death," says the Lord GOD of hosts.

The Judgment on Shebna

15Thus says the Lord GOD of hosts:

"Go, proceed to this steward,
To Shebna, who is over the house, and say:
[16]'What have you here, and whom have you here,
That you have hewn a sepulcher here,
As he who hews himself a sepulcher on high,
Who carves a tomb for himself in a rock?
[17]Indeed, the LORD will throw you away violently,
O mighty man,
And will surely seize you.
[18]He will surely turn violently and toss you like a ball
Into a large country;

There you shall die, and there your glorious chariots
Shall be the shame of your master's house.
[19]So I will drive you out of your office,
And from your position he will pull you down.

20'Then it shall be in that day,
That I will call My servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah;
[21]I will clothe him with your robe
And strengthen him with your belt;
I will commit your responsibility into his hand.
He shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem
And to the house of Judah.
[22]The key of the house of David
I will lay on his shoulder;
So he shall open, and no one shall shut;
And he shall shut, and no one shall open.
[23]I will fasten him as a peg in a secure place,
And he will become a glorious throne to his father's house.

[24]'They will hang on him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the posterity, all vessels of small quantity, from the cups to all the pitchers.

[25]'In that day,' says the LORD of hosts, 'the peg that is fastened in the secure place will be removed and be cut down and fall, and the burden that was on it will be cut off; for the LORD has spoken.' "

Isaiah 23

Proclamation Against Tyre

[1]The burden against Tyre.

Wail, you ships of Tarshish!
For it is laid waste,
So that there is no house, no harbor;
From the land of Cyprus it is revealed to them.

[2]Be still, you inhabitants of the coastland,
You merchants of Sidon,
Whom those who cross the sea have filled.
[3]And on great waters the grain of Shihor,
The harvest of the River, is her revenue;
And she is a marketplace for the nations.

[4]Be ashamed, O Sidon;
For the sea has spoken,
The strength of the sea, saying,
“I do not labor, nor bring forth children;
Neither do I rear young men,
Nor bring up virgins.”
[5]When the report reaches Egypt,
They also will be in agony at the report of Tyre.

[6]Cross over to Tarshish;
Wail, you inhabitants of the coastland!
[7]Is this your joyous city,
Whose antiquity is from ancient days,
Whose feet carried her far off to dwell?
[8]Who has taken this counsel against Tyre, the crowning city,
Whose merchants are princes,
Whose traders are the honorable of the earth?
[9]The LORD of hosts has purposed it,
To bring to dishonor the pride of all glory,

To bring into contempt all the honorable of the earth.

[10]Overflow through your land like the River,
O daughter of Tarshish;
There is no more strength.
[11]He stretched out His hand over the sea,
He shook the kingdoms;
The LORD has given a commandment against Canaan
To destroy its strongholds.
[12]And He said, “You will rejoice no more,
O you oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon.
Arise, cross over to Cyprus;
There also you will have no rest.”

[13]Behold, the land of the Chaldeans,
This people which was not;
Assyria founded it for wild beasts of the desert.
They set up its towers,
They raised up its palaces,
And brought it to ruin.

[14]Wail, you ships of Tarshish!
For your strength is laid waste.

[15]Now it shall come to pass in that day that Tyre will be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king. At the end of seventy years it will happen to Tyre as in the song of the harlot:

[16]“Take a harp, go about the city,
You forgotten harlot;
Make sweet melody, sing many songs,
That you may be remembered.”

[17]And it shall be, at the end of seventy years, that the LORD will deal with Tyre. She will return to her hire, and commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world on the face of the earth.

[18]Her gain and her pay will be set apart for the LORD; it will not be treasured nor laid up, for her gain will be for those who dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for fine clothing.

Isaiah 24

Impending Judgment on the Earth

[1]Behold, the LORD makes the earth empty and makes it waste,
Distorts its surface
And scatters abroad its inhabitants.
[2]And it shall be:
As with the people, so with the priest;
As with the servant, so with his master;
As with the maid, so with her mistress;
As with the buyer, so with the seller;
As with the lender, so with the borrower;
As with the creditor, so with the debtor.
[3]The land shall be entirely emptied and utterly plundered,
For the LORD has spoken this word.

[4]The earth mourns and fades away,
The world languishes and fades away;
The haughty people of the earth languish.
[5]The earth is also defiled under its inhabitants,
Because they have transgressed the laws,
Changed the ordinance,
Broken the everlasting covenant.
[6]Therefore the curse has devoured the earth,
And those who dwell in it are desolate.
Therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned,
And few men are left.

[7]The new wine fails, the vine languishes,
All the merry-hearted sigh.
[8]The mirth of the tambourine ceases,
The noise of the jubilant ends,
The joy of the harp ceases.
[9]They shall not drink wine with a song;

Strong drink is bitter to those who drink it.
[10]The city of confusion is broken down;
Every house is shut up, so that none may go in.
[11]There is a cry for wine in the streets,
All joy is darkened,
The mirth of the land is gone.
[12]In the city desolation is left,
And the gate is stricken with destruction.
[13]When it shall be thus in the midst of the land among the people,
It shall be like the shaking of an olive tree,
Like the gleaning of grapes when the vintage is done.

[14]They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing;
For the majesty of the LORD
They shall cry aloud from the sea.
[15]Therefore glorify the LORD in the dawning light,
The name of the LORD God of Israel in the coastlands of the sea.
[16]From the ends of the earth we have heard songs:
“Glory to the righteous!”
But I said, “I am ruined, ruined!
Woe to me!
The treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously,
Indeed, the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously.”

[17]Fear and the pit and the snare
Are upon you, O inhabitant of the earth.
[18]And it shall be
That he who flees from the noise of the fear
Shall fall into the pit,
And he who comes up from the midst of the pit
Shall be caught in the snare;
For the windows from on high are open,
And the foundations of the earth are shaken.

[19]The earth is violently broken,
The earth is split open,
The earth is shaken exceedingly.
[20]The earth shall reel to and fro like a drunkard,
And shall totter like a hut;
Its transgression shall be heavy upon it,
And it will fall, and not rise again.

[21]It shall come to pass in that day
That the LORD will punish on high the host of exalted ones,
And on the earth the kings of the earth.
[22]They will be gathered together,
As prisoners are gathered in the pit,
And will be shut up in the prison;
After many days they will be punished.
[23]Then the moon will be disgraced
And the sun ashamed;
For the LORD of hosts will reign
On Mount Zion and in Jerusalem
And before His elders, gloriously.

Isaiah 25

Praise to God

[1]O LORD, You are my God.
I will exalt You,
I will praise Your name,
For You have done wonderful things;
Your counsels of old are faithfulness and truth.
[2]For You have made a city a ruin,
A fortified city a ruin,
A palace of foreigners to be a city no more;
It will never be rebuilt.
[3]Therefore the strong people will glorify You;
The city of the terrible nations will fear You.
[4]For You have been a strength to the poor,
A strength to the needy in his distress,
A refuge from the storm,
A shade from the heat;
For the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.
[5]You will reduce the noise of aliens,
As heat in a dry place;
As heat in the shadow of a cloud,
The song of the terrible ones will be diminished.

[6]And in this mountain
The LORD of hosts will make for all people
A feast of choice pieces,
A feast of wines on the lees,
Of fat things full of marrow,
Of well-refined wines on the lees.
[7]And He will destroy on this mountain
The surface of the covering cast over all people,
And the veil that is spread over all nations.
[8]He will swallow up death forever,

And the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from all faces;
The rebuke of His people
He will take away from all the earth;
For the LORD has spoken.

9And it will be said in that day:
"Behold, this is our God;
We have waited for Him, and He will save us.
This is the LORD;
We have waited for Him;
We will be glad and rejoice in His salvation."

10For on this mountain the hand of the LORD will rest,
And Moab shall be trampled down under Him,
As straw is trampled down for the refuse heap.
11And He will spread out His hands in their midst
As a swimmer reaches out to swim,
And He will bring down their pride
Together with the trickery of their hands.
12The fortress of the high fort of your walls
He will bring down, lay low,
And bring to the ground, down to the dust.

Isaiah 26

A Song of Salvation

[1]In that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah:

"We have a strong city;
God will appoint salvation for walls and bulwarks.
[2]Open the gates,
That the righteous nation which keeps the truth may enter in.
[3]You will keep him in perfect peace,
Whose mind is stayed on You,
Because he trusts in You.
[4]Trust in the LORD forever,
For in YAH, the LORD, is everlasting strength.
[5]For He brings down those who dwell on high,
The lofty city;
He lays it low,
He lays it low to the ground,
He brings it down to the dust.
[6]The foot shall tread it down—
The feet of the poor
And the steps of the needy."

[7]The way of the just is uprightness;
O Most Upright,
You weigh the path of the just.
[8]Yes, in the way of Your judgments,
O LORD, we have waited for You;
The desire of our soul is for Your name
And for the remembrance of You.
[9]With my soul I have desired You in the night,
Yes, by my spirit within me I will seek You early;
For when Your judgments are in the earth,
The inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

[10]Let grace be shown to the wicked,
Yet he will not learn righteousness;
In the land of uprightness he will deal unjustly,
And will not behold the majesty of the LORD.
[11]LORD, when Your hand is lifted up, they will not see.
But they will see and be ashamed
For their envy of people;
Yes, the fire of Your enemies shall devour them.

[12]LORD, You will establish peace for us,
For You have also done all our works in us.
[13]O LORD our God, masters besides You
Have had dominion over us;
But by You only we make mention of Your name.
[14]They are dead, they will not live;
They are deceased, they will not rise.
Therefore You have punished and destroyed them,
And made all their memory to perish.
[15]You have increased the nation, O LORD,
You have increased the nation;
You are glorified;
You have expanded all the borders of the land.

[16]LORD, in trouble they have visited You,
They poured out a prayer when Your chastening was upon them.
[17]As a woman with child
Is in pain and cries out in her pangs,
When she draws near the time of her delivery,
So have we been in Your sight, O LORD.
[18]We have been with child, we have been in pain;
We have, as it were, brought forth wind;
We have not accomplished any deliverance in the earth,
Nor have the inhabitants of the world fallen.

[19]Your dead shall live;
Together with my dead body they shall arise.

Awake and sing, you who dwell in dust;
For your dew is like the dew of herbs,
And the earth shall cast out the dead.

Take Refuge from the Coming Judgment

20Come, my people, enter your chambers,
And shut your doors behind you;
Hide yourself, as it were, for a little moment,
Until the indignation is past.
21For behold, the LORD comes out of His place
To punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity;
The earth will also disclose her blood,
And will no more cover her slain.

Isaiah 27

[1]In that day the LORD with His severe sword, great and strong,
Will punish Leviathan the fleeing serpent,
Leviathan that twisted serpent;
And He will slay the reptile that is in the sea.

The Restoration of Israel

[2]In that day sing to her,
“A vineyard of red wine!
[3]I, the LORD, keep it,
I water it every moment;
Lest any hurt it,
I keep it night and day.
[4]Fury is not in Me.
Who would set briers and thorns
Against Me in battle?
I would go through them,
I would burn them together.
[5]Or let him take hold of My strength,
That he may make peace with Me;
And he shall make peace with Me.”

[6]Those who come He shall cause to take root in Jacob;
Israel shall blossom and bud,
And fill the face of the world with fruit.

[7]Has He struck Israel as He struck those who struck him?
Or has He been slain according to the slaughter of those who were slain by Him?
[8]In measure, by sending it away,
You contended with it.
He removes it by His rough wind
In the day of the east wind.

[9]Therefore by this the iniquity of Jacob will be covered;
And this is all the fruit of taking away his sin:
When he makes all the stones of the altar
Like chalkstones that are beaten to dust,
Wooden images and incense altars shall not stand.

[10]Yet the fortified city will be desolate,
The habitation forsaken and left like a wilderness;
There the calf will feed, and there it will lie down
And consume its branches.
[11]When its boughs are withered, they will be broken off;
The women come and set them on fire.
For it is a people of no understanding;
Therefore He who made them will not have mercy on them,
And He who formed them will show them no favor.

[12]And it shall come to pass in that day
That the LORD will thresh,
From the channel of the River to the Brook of Egypt;
And you will be gathered one by one,
O you children of Israel.

[13]So it shall be in that day:
The great trumpet will be blown;
They will come, who are about to perish in the land of Assyria,
And they who are outcasts in the land of Egypt,
And shall worship the LORD in the holy mount at Jerusalem.

Isaiah 28

Woe to Ephraim and Jerusalem

[1]Woe to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim,
Whose glorious beauty is a fading flower
Which is at the head of the verdant valleys,
To those who are overcome with wine!
[2]Behold, the Lord has a mighty and strong one,
Like a tempest of hail and a destroying storm,
Like a flood of mighty waters overflowing,
Who will bring them down to the earth with His hand.
[3]The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim,
Will be trampled underfoot;
[4]And the glorious beauty is a fading flower
Which is at the head of the verdant valley,
Like the first fruit before the summer,
Which an observer sees;
He eats it up while it is still in his hand.

[5]In that day the LORD of hosts will be
For a crown of glory and a diadem of beauty
To the remnant of His people,
[6]For a spirit of justice to him who sits in judgment,
And for strength to those who turn back the battle at the gate.

[7]But they also have erred through wine,
And through intoxicating drink are out of the way;
The priest and the prophet have erred through intoxicating drink,
They are swallowed up by wine,
They are out of the way through intoxicating drink;
They err in vision, they stumble in judgment.
[8]For all tables are full of vomit and filth;
No place is clean.

9“Whom will he teach knowledge?
And whom will he make to understand the message?
Those just weaned from milk?
Those just drawn from the breasts?
10For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept,
Line upon line, line upon line,
Here a little, there a little.”

11For with stammering lips and another tongue
He will speak to this people,
12To whom He said, “This is the rest with which
You may cause the weary to rest,”
And, “This is the refreshing”;
Yet they would not hear.
13But the word of the LORD was to them,
“Precept upon precept, precept upon precept,
Line upon line, line upon line,
Here a little, there a little,”
That they might go and fall backward, and be broken
And snared and caught.

14Therefore hear the word of the LORD, you scornful men,
Who rule this people who are in Jerusalem,
15Because you have said, “We have made a covenant with death,
And with Sheol we are in agreement.
When the overflowing scourge passes through,
It will not come to us,
For we have made lies our refuge,
And under falsehood we have hidden ourselves.”

A Cornerstone in Zion

16Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

“Behold, I lay in Zion a stone for a foundation,
A tried stone, a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation;
Whoever believes will not act hastily.

[17]Also I will make justice the measuring line,
And righteousness the plummet;
The hail will sweep away the refuge of lies,
And the waters will overflow the hiding place.
[18]Your covenant with death will be annulled,
And your agreement with Sheol will not stand;
When the overflowing scourge passes through,
Then you will be trampled down by it.
[19]As often as it goes out it will take you;
For morning by morning it will pass over,
And by day and by night;
It will be a terror just to understand the report."

[20]For the bed is too short to stretch out on,
And the covering so narrow that one cannot wrap himself in it.
[21]For the LORD will rise up as at Mount Perazim,
He will be angry as in the Valley of Gibeon—
That He may do His work, His awesome work,
And bring to pass His act, His unusual act.
[22]Now therefore, do not be mockers,
Lest your bonds be made strong;
For I have heard from the Lord GOD of hosts,
A destruction determined even upon the whole earth.

Listen to the Teaching of God

[23]Give ear and hear my voice,
Listen and hear my speech.
[24]Does the plowman keep plowing all day to sow?
Does he keep turning his soil and breaking the clods?
[25]When he has leveled its surface,
Does he not sow the black cummin
And scatter the cummin,
Plant the wheat in rows,
The barley in the appointed place,
And the spelt in its place?

[26]For He instructs him in right judgment,
His God teaches him.

[27]For the black cummin is not threshed with a threshing sledge,
Nor is a cartwheel rolled over the cummin;
But the black cummin is beaten out with a stick,
And the cummin with a rod.
[28]Bread flour must be ground;
Therefore he does not thresh it forever,
Break it with his cartwheel,
Or crush it with his horsemen.
[29]This also comes from the LORD of hosts,
Who is wonderful in counsel and excellent in guidance.

Isaiah 29

Woe to Jerusalem

[1]"Woe to Ariel, to Ariel, the city where David dwelt!
Add year to year;
Let feasts come around.
[2]Yet I will distress Ariel;
There shall be heaviness and sorrow,
And it shall be to Me as Ariel.
[3]I will encamp against you all around,
I will lay siege against you with a mound,
And I will raise siegeworks against you.
[4]You shall be brought down,
You shall speak out of the ground;
Your speech shall be low, out of the dust;
Your voice shall be like a medium's, out of the ground;
And your speech shall whisper out of the dust.

[5]"Moreover the multitude of your foes
Shall be like fine dust,
And the multitude of the terrible ones
Like chaff that passes away;
Yes, it shall be in an instant, suddenly.
[6]You will be punished by the LORD of hosts
With thunder and earthquake and great noise,
With storm and tempest
And the flame of devouring fire.
[7]The multitude of all the nations who fight against Ariel,
Even all who fight against her and her fortress,
And distress her,
Shall be as a dream of a night vision.
[8]It shall even be as when a hungry man dreams,
And look—he eats;
But he awakes, and his soul is still empty;
Or as when a thirsty man dreams,

And look—he drinks;
But he awakes, and indeed he is faint,
And his soul still craves:
So the multitude of all the nations shall be,
Who fight against Mount Zion.”

The Blindness of Disobedience

[9]Pause and wonder!
Blind yourselves and be blind!
They are drunk, but not with wine;
They stagger, but not with intoxicating drink.
[10]For the LORD has poured out on you
The spirit of deep sleep,
And has closed your eyes, namely, the prophets;
And He has covered your heads, namely, the seers.

[11]The whole vision has become to you like the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one who is literate, saying, “Read this, please.” And he says, “I cannot, for it is sealed.”

[12]Then the book is delivered to one who is illiterate, saying, “Read this, please.” And he says, “I am not literate.”

[13]Therefore the Lord said:

“Inasmuch as these people draw near with their mouths
And honor Me with their lips,
But have removed their hearts far from Me,
And their fear toward Me is taught by the commandment of men,
[14]Therefore, behold, I will again do a marvelous work
Among this people,
A marvelous work and a wonder;
For the wisdom of their wise men shall perish,
And the understanding of their prudent men shall be hidden.”

[15]Woe to those who seek deep to hide their counsel far from the LORD,

And their works are in the dark;
They say, “Who sees us?” and, “Who knows us?”
[16]Surely you have things turned around!
Shall the potter be esteemed as the clay;
For shall the thing made say of him who made it,
“He did not make me”?
Or shall the thing formed say of him who formed it,
“He has no understanding”?

Future Recovery of Wisdom

[17]Is it not yet a very little while
Till Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field,
And the fruitful field be esteemed as a forest?
[18]In that day the deaf shall hear the words of the book,
And the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity and out of darkness.
[19]The humble also shall increase their joy in the LORD,
And the poor among men shall rejoice
In the Holy One of Israel.
[20]For the terrible one is brought to nothing,
The scornful one is consumed,
And all who watch for iniquity are cut off—
[21]Who make a man an offender by a word,
And lay a snare for him who reproves in the gate,
And turn aside the just by empty words.

[22]Therefore thus says the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob:

“Jacob shall not now be ashamed,
Nor shall his face now grow pale;
[23]But when he sees his children,
The work of My hands, in his midst,
They will hallow My name,
And hallow the Holy One of Jacob,
And fear the God of Israel.

[24]These also who erred in spirit will come to understanding,
And those who complained will learn doctrine.”

Isaiah 30

Futile Confidence in Egypt

[1]"Woe to the rebellious children," says the LORD,
"Who take counsel, but not of Me,
And who devise plans, but not of My Spirit,
That they may add sin to sin;
[2]Who walk to go down to Egypt,
And have not asked My advice,
To strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh,
And to trust in the shadow of Egypt!
[3]Therefore the strength of Pharaoh
Shall be your shame,
And trust in the shadow of Egypt
Shall be your humiliation.
[4]For his princes were at Zoan,
And his ambassadors came to Hanes.
[5]They were all ashamed of a people who could not benefit them,
Or be help or benefit,
But a shame and also a reproach."

[6]The burden against the beasts of the South.

Through a land of trouble and anguish,
From which came the lioness and lion,
The viper and fiery flying serpent,
They will carry their riches on the backs of young donkeys,
And their treasures on the humps of camels,
To a people who shall not profit;
[7]For the Egyptians shall help in vain and to no purpose.
Therefore I have called her
Rahab-Hem-Shebeth.

A Rebellious People

[8]Now go, write it before them on a tablet,
And note it on a scroll,
That it may be for time to come,
Forever and ever:
[9]That this is a rebellious people,
Lying children,
Children who will not hear the law of the LORD;
[10]Who say to the seers, "Do not see,"
And to the prophets, "Do not prophesy to us right things;
Speak to us smooth things, prophesy deceits.
[11]Get out of the way,
Turn aside from the path,
Cause the Holy One of Israel
To cease from before us."

[12]Therefore thus says the Holy One of Israel:

"Because you despise this word,
And trust in oppression and perversity,
And rely on them,
[13]Therefore this iniquity shall be to you
Like a breach ready to fall,
A bulge in a high wall,
Whose breaking comes suddenly, in an instant.
[14]And He shall break it like the breaking of the potter's vessel,
Which is broken in pieces;
He shall not spare.
So there shall not be found among its fragments
A shard to take fire from the hearth,
Or to take water from the cistern."

[15]For thus says the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel:

"In returning and rest you shall be saved;
In quietness and confidence shall be your strength."
But you would not,

[16]And you said, "No, for we will flee on horses"—
Therefore you shall flee!
And, "We will ride on swift horses"—
Therefore those who pursue you shall be swift!

[17]One thousand shall flee at the threat of one,
At the threat of five you shall flee,
Till you are left as a pole on top of a mountain
And as a banner on a hill.

God Will Be Gracious

[18]Therefore the LORD will wait, that He may be gracious to you;
And therefore He will be exalted, that He may have mercy on you.
For the LORD is a God of justice;
Blessed are all those who wait for Him.

[19]For the people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem;
You shall weep no more.
He will be very gracious to you at the sound of your cry;
When He hears it, He will answer you.
[20]And though the Lord gives you
The bread of adversity and the water of affliction,
Yet your teachers will not be moved into a corner anymore,
But your eyes shall see your teachers.
[21]Your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying,
"This is the way, walk in it,"
Whenever you turn to the right hand
Or whenever you turn to the left.
[22]You will also defile the covering of your images of silver,
And the ornament of your molded images of gold.
You will throw them away as an unclean thing;
You will say to them, "Get away!"

[23]Then He will give the rain for your seed
With which you sow the ground,

And bread of the increase of the earth;
It will be fat and plentiful.
In that day your cattle will feed
In large pastures.
[24]Likewise the oxen and the young donkeys that work the ground
Will eat cured fodder,
Which has been winnowed with the shovel and fan.
[25]There will be on every high mountain
And on every high hill
Rivers and streams of waters,
In the day of the great slaughter,
When the towers fall.
[26]Moreover the light of the moon will be as the light of the sun,
And the light of the sun will be sevenfold,
As the light of seven days,
In the day that the LORD binds up the bruise of His people
And heals the stroke of their wound.

Judgment on Assyria

[27]Behold, the name of the LORD comes from afar,
Burning with His anger,
And His burden is heavy;
His lips are full of indignation,
And His tongue like a devouring fire.
[28]His breath is like an overflowing stream,
Which reaches up to the neck,
To sift the nations with the sieve of futility;
And there shall be a bridle in the jaws of the people,
Causing them to err.

[29]You shall have a song
As in the night when a holy festival is kept,
And gladness of heart as when one goes with a flute,
To come into the mountain of the LORD,
To the Mighty One of Israel.

[30]The LORD will cause His glorious voice to be heard,
And show the descent of His arm,
With the indignation of His anger
And the flame of a devouring fire,
With scattering, tempest, and hailstones.
[31]For through the voice of the LORD
Assyria will be beaten down,
As He strikes with the rod.
[32]And in every place where the staff of punishment passes,
Which the LORD lays on him,
It will be with tambourines and harps;
And in battles of brandishing He will fight with it.
[33]For Tophet was established of old,
Yes, for the king it is prepared.
He has made it deep and large;
Its pyre is fire with much wood;
The breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone,
Kindles it.

Isaiah 31

The Folly of Not Trusting God

[1]Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help,
And rely on horses,
Who trust in chariots because they are many,
And in horsemen because they are very strong,
But who do not look to the Holy One of Israel,
Nor seek the LORD!
[2]Yet He also is wise and will bring disaster,
And will not call back His words,
But will arise against the house of evildoers,
And against the help of those who work iniquity.
[3]Now the Egyptians are men, and not God;
And their horses are flesh, and not spirit.
When the LORD stretches out His hand,
Both he who helps will fall,
And he who is helped will fall down;
They all will perish together.

God Will Deliver Jerusalem

[4]For thus the LORD has spoken to me:

"As a lion roars,
And a young lion over his prey
(When a multitude of shepherds is summoned against him,
He will not be afraid of their voice
Nor be disturbed by their noise),
So the LORD of hosts will come down
To fight for Mount Zion and for its hill.
[5]Like birds flying about,
So will the LORD of hosts defend Jerusalem.
Defending, He will also deliver it;
Passing over, He will preserve it."

[6]Return to Him against whom the children of Israel have deeply revolted.

[7]For in that day every man shall throw away his idols of silver and his idols of gold—sin, which your own hands have made for yourselves.

> [8]"Then Assyria shall fall by a sword not of man,
> And a sword not of mankind shall devour him.
> But he shall flee from the sword,
> And his young men shall become forced labor.
> [9]He shall cross over to his stronghold for fear,
> And his princes shall be afraid of the banner,"
> Says the LORD,
> Whose fire is in Zion
> And whose furnace is in Jerusalem.

Isaiah 32

A Reign of Righteousness

[1]Behold, a king will reign in righteousness,
And princes will rule with justice.
[2]A man will be as a hiding place from the wind,
And a cover from the tempest,
As rivers of water in a dry place,
As the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.
[3]The eyes of those who see will not be dim,
And the ears of those who hear will listen.
[4]Also the heart of the rash will understand knowledge,
And the tongue of the stammerers will be ready to speak plainly.

[5]The foolish person will no longer be called generous,
Nor the miser said to be bountiful;
[6]For the foolish person will speak foolishness,
And his heart will work iniquity:
To practice ungodliness,
To utter error against the LORD,
To keep the hungry unsatisfied,
And he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.
[7]Also the schemes of the schemer are evil;
He devises wicked plans
To destroy the poor with lying words,
Even when the needy speaks justice.
[8]But a generous man devises generous things,
And by generosity he shall stand.

Consequences of Complacency

[9]Rise up, you women who are at ease,
Hear my voice;
You complacent daughters,
Give ear to my speech.

[10]In a year and some days
You will be troubled, you complacent women;
For the vintage will fail,
The gathering will not come.
[11]Tremble, you women who are at ease;
Be troubled, you complacent ones;
Strip yourselves, make yourselves bare,
And gird sackcloth on your waists.

[12]People shall mourn upon their breasts
For the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine.
[13]On the land of my people will come up thorns and briers,
Yes, on all the happy homes in the joyous city;
[14]Because the palaces will be forsaken,
The bustling city will be deserted.
The forts and towers will become lairs forever,
A joy of wild donkeys, a pasture of flocks—
[15]Until the Spirit is poured upon us from on high,
And the wilderness becomes a fruitful field,
And the fruitful field is counted as a forest.

The Peace of God's Reign

[16]Then justice will dwell in the wilderness,
And righteousness remain in the fruitful field.
[17]The work of righteousness will be peace,
And the effect of righteousness, quietness and assurance forever.
[18]My people will dwell in a peaceful habitation,
In secure dwellings, and in quiet resting places,
[19]Though hail comes down on the forest,
And the city is brought low in humiliation.

[20]Blessed are you who sow beside all waters,
Who send out freely the feet of the ox and the donkey.

Isaiah 33

A Prayer in Deep Distress

[1]Woe to you who plunder, though you have not been plundered;
And you who deal treacherously, though they have not dealt treacherously with you!
When you cease plundering,
You will be plundered;
When you make an end of dealing treacherously,
They will deal treacherously with you.

[2]O LORD, be gracious to us;
We have waited for You.
Be their arm every morning,
Our salvation also in the time of trouble.
[3]At the noise of the tumult the people shall flee;
When You lift Yourself up, the nations shall be scattered;
[4]And Your plunder shall be gathered
Like the gathering of the caterpillar;
As the running to and fro of locusts,
He shall run upon them.

[5]The LORD is exalted, for He dwells on high;
He has filled Zion with justice and righteousness.
[6]Wisdom and knowledge will be the stability of your times,
And the strength of salvation;
The fear of the LORD is His treasure.

[7]Surely their valiant ones shall cry outside,
The ambassadors of peace shall weep bitterly.
[8]The highways lie waste,
The traveling man ceases.
He has broken the covenant,
He has despised the cities,

He regards no man.
[9]The earth mourns and languishes,
Lebanon is shamed and shriveled;
Sharon is like a wilderness,
And Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruits.

Impending Judgment on Zion

10“Now I will rise,” says the LORD;
“Now I will be exalted,
Now I will lift Myself up.
[11]You shall conceive chaff,
You shall bring forth stubble;
Your breath, as fire, shall devour you.
[12]And the people shall be like the burnings of lime;
Like thorns cut up they shall be burned in the fire.
[13]Hear, you who are afar off, what I have done;
And you who are near, acknowledge My might.”

14The sinners in Zion are afraid;
Fearfulness has seized the hypocrites:
“Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire?
Who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings?”
[15]He who walks righteously and speaks uprightly,
He who despises the gain of oppressions,
Who gestures with his hands, refusing bribes,
Who stops his ears from hearing of bloodshed,
And shuts his eyes from seeing evil:
[16]He will dwell on high;
His place of defense will be the fortress of rocks;
Bread will be given him,
His water will be sure.

The Land of the Majestic King

17Your eyes will see the King in His beauty;
They will see the land that is very far off.
[18]Your heart will meditate on terror:

“Where is the scribe?
Where is he who weighs?
Where is he who counts the towers?”
[19]You will not see a fierce people,
A people of obscure speech, beyond perception,
Of a stammering tongue that you cannot understand.

[20]Look upon Zion, the city of our appointed feasts;
Your eyes will see Jerusalem, a quiet home,
A tabernacle that will not be taken down;
Not one of its stakes will ever be removed,
Nor will any of its cords be broken.
[21]But there the majestic LORD will be for us
A place of broad rivers and streams,
In which no galley with oars will sail,
Nor majestic ships pass by [22](For the LORD is our Judge,
The LORD is our Lawgiver,
The LORD is our King;
He will save us);
[23]Your tackle is loosed,
They could not strengthen their mast,
They could not spread the sail.

Then the prey of great plunder is divided;
The lame take the prey.
[24]And the inhabitant will not say, “I am sick”;
The people who dwell in it will be forgiven their iniquity.

Isaiah 34

Judgment on the Nations

[1]Come near, you nations, to hear;
And heed, you people!
Let the earth hear, and all that is in it,
The world and all things that come forth from it.
[2]For the indignation of the LORD is against all nations,
And His fury against all their armies;
He has utterly destroyed them,
He has given them over to the slaughter.
[3]Also their slain shall be thrown out;
Their stench shall rise from their corpses,
And the mountains shall be melted with their blood.
[4]All the host of heaven shall be dissolved,
And the heavens shall be rolled up like a scroll;
All their host shall fall down
As the leaf falls from the vine,
And as fruit falling from a fig tree.

[5]"For My sword shall be bathed in heaven;
Indeed it shall come down on Edom,
And on the people of My curse, for judgment.
[6]The sword of the LORD is filled with blood,
It is made overflowing with fatness,
With the blood of lambs and goats,
With the fat of the kidneys of rams.
For the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah,
And a great slaughter in the land of Edom.
[7]The wild oxen shall come down with them,
And the young bulls with the mighty bulls;
Their land shall be soaked with blood,
And their dust saturated with fatness."

[8]For it is the day of the LORD's vengeance,

The year of recompense for the cause of Zion.
[9]Its streams shall be turned into pitch,
And its dust into brimstone;
Its land shall become burning pitch.
[10]It shall not be quenched night or day;
Its smoke shall ascend forever.
From generation to generation it shall lie waste;
No one shall pass through it forever and ever.
[11]But the pelican and the porcupine shall possess it,
Also the owl and the raven shall dwell in it.
And He shall stretch out over it
The line of confusion and the stones of emptiness.
[12]They shall call its nobles to the kingdom,
But none shall be there, and all its princes shall be nothing.

[13]And thorns shall come up in its palaces,
Nettles and brambles in its fortresses;
It shall be a habitation of jackals,
A courtyard for ostriches.
[14]The wild beasts of the desert shall also meet with the jackals,
And the wild goat shall bleat to its companion;
Also the night creature shall rest there,
And find for herself a place of rest.
[15]There the arrow snake shall make her nest and lay eggs
And hatch, and gather them under her shadow;
There also shall the hawks be gathered,
Every one with her mate.

[16]"Search from the book of the LORD, and read:
Not one of these shall fail;
Not one shall lack her mate.
For My mouth has commanded it, and His Spirit has gathered them.
[17]He has cast the lot for them,
And His hand has divided it among them with a measuring line.

They shall possess it forever;
From generation to generation they shall dwell in it.”

Isaiah 35

The Future Glory of Zion

[1]The wilderness and the wasteland shall be glad for them,
And the desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose;
[2]It shall blossom abundantly and rejoice,
Even with joy and singing.
The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it,
The excellence of Carmel and Sharon.
They shall see the glory of the LORD,
The excellency of our God.

[3]Strengthen the weak hands,
And make firm the feeble knees.
[4]Say to those who are fearful-hearted,
“Be strong, do not fear!
Behold, your God will come with vengeance,
With the recompense of God;
He will come and save you.”

[5]Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened,
And the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped.
[6]Then the lame shall leap like a deer,
And the tongue of the dumb sing.
For waters shall burst forth in the wilderness,
And streams in the desert.
[7]The parched ground shall become a pool,
And the thirsty land springs of water;
In the habitation of jackals, where each lay,
There shall be grass with reeds and rushes.

[8]A highway shall be there, and a road,
And it shall be called the Highway of Holiness.
The unclean shall not pass over it,
But it shall be for others.

Whoever walks the road, although a fool,
Shall not go astray.
[9]No lion shall be there,
Nor shall any ravenous beast go up on it;
It shall not be found there.
But the redeemed shall walk there,
[10]And the ransomed of the LORD shall return,
And come to Zion with singing,
With everlasting joy on their heads.
They shall obtain joy and gladness,
And sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Isaiah 36

Sennacherib Boasts Against the LORD

[1]Now it came to pass in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and took them.

[2]Then the king of Assyria sent the Rabshakeh with a great army from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. And he stood by the aqueduct from the upper pool, on the highway to the Fuller's Field.

[3]And Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came out to him.

[4]Then the Rabshakeh said to them, "Say now to Hezekiah, 'Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: "What confidence is this in which you trust?

[5]"I say you speak of having plans and power for war; but they are mere words. Now in whom do you trust, that you rebel against me?

[6]"Look! You are trusting in the staff of this broken reed, Egypt, on which if a man leans, it will go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him.

[7]"But if you say to me, 'We trust in the LORD our God,' is it not He whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and said to Judah and Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar'?" '

[8]"Now therefore, I urge you, give a pledge to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses—if you are able on your part to put riders on them!

[9]"How then will you repel one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust in Egypt for chariots and horsemen?

[10]"Have I now come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? The LORD said to me, 'Go up against this land, and destroy it.' "

[11]Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to the Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it; and do not speak to us in Hebrew in the hearing of the people who are on the wall."

[12]But the Rabshakeh said, “Has my master sent me to your master and to you to speak these words, and not to the men who sit on the wall, who will eat and drink their own waste with you?”

[13]Then the Rabshakeh stood and called out with a loud voice in Hebrew, and said, “Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria!

[14]“Thus says the king: ‘Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to deliver you;

[15]‘nor let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, “The LORD will surely deliver us; this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.” ’

[16]“Do not listen to Hezekiah; for thus says the king of Assyria: ‘Make peace with me by a present and come out to me; and every one of you eat from his own vine and every one from his own fig tree, and every one of you drink the waters of his own cistern;

[17]‘until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

[18]‘Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, “The LORD will deliver us.” Has any one of the gods of the nations delivered its land from the hand of the king of Assyria?

[19]‘Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Indeed, have they delivered Samaria from my hand?

[20]‘Who among all the gods of these lands have delivered their countries from my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem from my hand?’ ”

[21]But they held their peace and answered him not a word; for the king’s commandment was, “Do not answer him.”

[22]Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of the Rabshakeh.

Isaiah 37

Isaiah Assures Deliverance

[1]And so it was, when King Hezekiah heard it, that he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

[2]Then he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz.

[3]And they said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah: 'This day is a day of trouble and rebuke and blasphemy; for the children have come to birth, but there is no strength to bring them forth.

[4]'It may be that the LORD your God will hear the words of the Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to reproach the living God, and will rebuke the words which the LORD your God has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left.' "

5So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

[6]And Isaiah said to them, "Thus you shall say to your master, 'Thus says the LORD: "Do not be afraid of the words which you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me.

[7]"Surely I will send a spirit upon him, and he shall hear a rumor and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land." ' "

Sennacherib's Threat and Hezekiah's Prayer

8Then the Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah, for he heard that he had departed from Lachish.

[9]And the king heard concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, "He has come out to make war with you." So when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

[10]"Thus you shall speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying: 'Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, "Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria."

[11]'Look! You have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by utterly destroying them; and shall you be delivered?

[12]‘Have the gods of the nations delivered those whom my fathers have destroyed, Gozan and Haran and Rezeph, and the people of Eden who were in Telassar?

[13]‘Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah?’ ”

14And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it; and Hezekiah went up to the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

[15]Then Hezekiah prayed to the LORD, saying:

[16]“O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, the One who dwells between the cherubim, You are God, You alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth.

[17]“Incline Your ear, O LORD, and hear; open Your eyes, O LORD, and see; and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to reproach the living God.

[18]“Truly, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations and their lands, [19]“and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were not gods, but the work of men’s hands—wood and stone. Therefore they destroyed them.

[20]“Now therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You are the LORD, You alone.”

The Word of the LORD Concerning Sennacherib

21Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, “Thus says the LORD God of Israel, ‘Because you have prayed to Me against Sennacherib king of Assyria,

[22]‘this is the word which the LORD has spoken concerning him:

“The virgin, the daughter of Zion,
Has despised you, laughed you to scorn;
The daughter of Jerusalem
Has shaken her head behind your back!

[23]“Whom have you reproached and blasphemed?

Against whom have you raised your voice,
And lifted up your eyes on high?
Against the Holy One of Israel.
[24]By your servants you have reproached the Lord,
And said, ‘By the multitude of my chariots
I have come up to the height of the mountains,
To the limits of Lebanon;
I will cut down its tall cedars
And its choice cypress trees;
I will enter its farthest height,
To its fruitful forest.
[25]I have dug and drunk water,
And with the soles of my feet I have dried up
All the brooks of defense.’

[26]“Did you not hear long ago
How I made it,
From ancient times that I formed it?
Now I have brought it to pass,
That you should be
For crushing fortified cities into heaps of ruins.
[27]Therefore their inhabitants had little power;
They were dismayed and confounded;
They were as the grass of the field
And the green herb,
As the grass on the housetops
And grain blighted before it is grown.

[28]“But I know your dwelling place,
Your going out and your coming in,
And your rage against Me.
[29]Because your rage against Me and your tumult
Have come up to My ears,
Therefore I will put My hook in your nose
And My bridle in your lips,
And I will turn you back
By the way which you came.” ’

30“This shall be a sign to you:

You shall eat this year such as grows of itself,
And the second year what springs from the same;
Also in the third year sow and reap,
Plant vineyards and eat the fruit of them.
[31]And the remnant who have escaped of the house of Judah
Shall again take root downward,
And bear fruit upward.
[32]For out of Jerusalem shall go a remnant,
And those who escape from Mount Zion.
The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

33“Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria:

‘He shall not come into this city,
Nor shoot an arrow there,
Nor come before it with shield,
Nor build a siege mound against it.
[34]By the way that he came,
By the same shall he return;
And he shall not come into this city,’
Says the LORD.
[35]‘For I will defend this city, to save it
For My own sake and for My servant David’s sake.’ ”

Sennacherib’s Defeat and Death

36Then the angel of the LORD went out, and killed in the camp of the Assyrians one hundred and eighty-five thousand; and when people arose early in the morning, there were the corpses—all dead.

[37]So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed and went away, returned home, and remained at Nineveh.

[38]Now it came to pass, as he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his god, that his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him down with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. Then Esarhaddon his son reigned in his place.

Isaiah 38

Hezekiah's Life Extended

[1]In those days Hezekiah was sick and near death. And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, went to him and said to him, "Thus says the LORD: 'Set your house in order, for you shall die and not live.' "

[2]Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed to the LORD,

[3]and said, "Remember now, O LORD, I pray, how I have walked before You in truth and with a loyal heart, and have done what is good in Your sight." And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

[4]And the word of the LORD came to Isaiah, saying,

[5]"Go and tell Hezekiah, 'Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father: "I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; surely I will add to your days fifteen years.

[6]"I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city." '

[7]"And this is the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing which He has spoken:

[8]"Behold, I will bring the shadow on the sundial, which has gone down with the sun on the sundial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward." So the sun returned ten degrees on the dial by which it had gone down.

[9]This is the writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick and had recovered from his sickness:

[10]I said,
"In the prime of my life
I shall go to the gates of Sheol;
I am deprived of the remainder of my years."
[11]I said,
"I shall not see YAH,
The LORD in the land of the living;
I shall observe man no more among the inhabitants of the world.

[12]My life span is gone,
Taken from me like a shepherd’s tent;
I have cut off my life like a weaver.
He cuts me off from the loom;
From day until night You make an end of me.
[13]I have considered until morning—
Like a lion,
So He breaks all my bones;
From day until night You make an end of me.
[14]Like a crane or a swallow, so I chattered;
I mourned like a dove;
My eyes fail from looking upward.
O LORD, I am oppressed;
Undertake for me!

[15]“What shall I say?
He has both spoken to me,
And He Himself has done it.
I shall walk carefully all my years
In the bitterness of my soul.
[16]O Lord, by these things men live;
And in all these things is the life of my spirit;
So You will restore me and make me live.
[17]Indeed it was for my own peace
That I had great bitterness;
But You have lovingly delivered my soul from the pit of corruption,
For You have cast all my sins behind Your back.
[18]For Sheol cannot thank You,
Death cannot praise You;
Those who go down to the pit cannot hope for Your truth.
[19]The living, the living man, he shall praise You,
As I do this day;
The father shall make known Your truth to the children.

[20]“The LORD was ready to save me;
Therefore we will sing my songs with stringed instruments

All the days of our life, in the house of the LORD."

21Now Isaiah had said, "Let them take a lump of figs, and apply it as a poultice on the boil, and he shall recover."
22And Hezekiah had said, "What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?"

Isaiah 39

The Babylonian Envoys

[1]At that time Merodach-Baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he heard that he had been sick and had recovered.

[2]And Hezekiah was pleased with them, and showed them the house of his treasures—the silver and gold, the spices and precious ointment, and all his armory—all that was found among his treasures. There was nothing in his house or in all his dominion that Hezekiah did not show them.

[3]Then Isaiah the prophet went to King Hezekiah, and said to him, "What did these men say, and from where did they come to you?" So Hezekiah said, "They came to me from a far country, from Babylon."

[4]And he said, "What have they seen in your house?" So Hezekiah answered, "They have seen all that is in my house; there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them."

[5]Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD of hosts:

[6]'Behold, the days are coming when all that is in your house, and what your fathers have accumulated until this day, shall be carried to Babylon; nothing shall be left,' says the LORD.

[7]'And they shall take away some of your sons who will descend from you, whom you will beget; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.' "

[8]So Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The word of the LORD which you have spoken is good!" For he said, "At least there will be peace and truth in my days."

Isaiah 40

God's People Are Comforted

[1]"Comfort, yes, comfort My people!"
Says your God.
[2]"Speak comfort to Jerusalem, and cry out to her,
That her warfare is ended,
That her iniquity is pardoned;
For she has received from the LORD's hand
Double for all her sins."

[3]The voice of one crying in the wilderness:
"Prepare the way of the LORD;
Make straight in the desert
A highway for our God.
[4]Every valley shall be exalted
And every mountain and hill brought low;
The crooked places shall be made straight
And the rough places smooth;
[5]The glory of the LORD shall be revealed,
And all flesh shall see it together;
For the mouth of the LORD has spoken."

[6]The voice said, "Cry out!"
And he said, "What shall I cry?"

"All flesh is grass,
And all its loveliness is like the flower of the field.
[7]The grass withers, the flower fades,
Because the breath of the LORD blows upon it;
Surely the people are grass.
[8]The grass withers, the flower fades,
But the word of our God stands forever."

[9]O Zion,
You who bring good tidings,

Get up into the high mountain;
O Jerusalem,
You who bring good tidings,
Lift up your voice with strength,
Lift it up, be not afraid;
Say to the cities of Judah, “Behold your God!”

[10]Behold, the Lord GOD shall come with a strong hand,
And His arm shall rule for Him;
Behold, His reward is with Him,
And His work before Him.
[11]He will feed His flock like a shepherd;
He will gather the lambs with His arm,
And carry them in His bosom,
And gently lead those who are with young.

[12]Who has measured the waters in the hollow of His hand,
Measured heaven with a span
And calculated the dust of the earth in a measure?
Weighed the mountains in scales
And the hills in a balance?
[13]Who has directed the Spirit of the LORD,
Or as His counselor has taught Him?
[14]With whom did He take counsel, and who instructed Him,
And taught Him in the path of justice?
Who taught Him knowledge,
And showed Him the way of understanding?

[15]Behold, the nations are as a drop in a bucket,
And are counted as the small dust on the scales;
Look, He lifts up the isles as a very little thing.
[16]And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn,
Nor its beasts sufficient for a burnt offering.
[17]All nations before Him are as nothing,
And they are counted by Him less than nothing and worthless.

[18]To whom then will you liken God?
Or what likeness will you compare to Him?
[19]The workman molds an image,
The goldsmith overspreads it with gold,
And the silversmith casts silver chains.
[20]Whoever is too impoverished for such a contribution
Chooses a tree that will not rot;
He seeks for himself a skillful workman
To prepare a carved image that will not totter.

[21]Have you not known?
Have you not heard?
Has it not been told you from the beginning?
Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth?
[22]It is He who sits above the circle of the earth,
And its inhabitants are like grasshoppers,
Who stretches out the heavens like a curtain,
And spreads them out like a tent to dwell in.
[23]He brings the princes to nothing;
He makes the judges of the earth useless.

[24]Scarcely shall they be planted,
Scarcely shall they be sown,
Scarcely shall their stock take root in the earth,
When He will also blow on them,
And they will wither,
And the whirlwind will take them away like stubble.

[25]"To whom then will you liken Me,
Or to whom shall I be equal?" says the Holy One.
[26]Lift up your eyes on high,
And see who has created these things,
Who brings out their host by number;
He calls them all by name,
By the greatness of His might
And the strength of His power;
Not one is missing.

[27]Why do you say, O Jacob,
And speak, O Israel:
“My way is hidden from the LORD,
And my just claim is passed over by my God”?
[28]Have you not known?
Have you not heard?
The everlasting God, the LORD,
The Creator of the ends of the earth,
Neither faints nor is weary.
His understanding is unsearchable.
[29]He gives power to the weak,
And to those who have no might He increases strength.
[30]Even the youths shall faint and be weary,
And the young men shall utterly fall,
[31]But those who wait on the LORD
Shall renew their strength;
They shall mount up with wings like eagles,
They shall run and not be weary,
They shall walk and not faint.

Isaiah 41

Israel Assured of God's Help

[1]"Keep silence before Me, O coastlands,
And let the people renew their strength!
Let them come near, then let them speak;
Let us come near together for judgment.

[2]"Who raised up one from the east?
Who in righteousness called him to His feet?
Who gave the nations before him,
And made him rule over kings?
Who gave them as the dust to his sword,
As driven stubble to his bow?
[3]Who pursued them, and passed safely
By the way that he had not gone with his feet?
[4]Who has performed and done it,
Calling the generations from the beginning?
'I, the LORD, am the first;
And with the last I am He.' "

[5]The coastlands saw it and feared,
The ends of the earth were afraid;
They drew near and came.
[6]Everyone helped his neighbor,
And said to his brother,
"Be of good courage!"
[7]So the craftsman encouraged the goldsmith;
He who smooths with the hammer inspired him who strikes the anvil,
Saying, "It is ready for the soldering";
Then he fastened it with pegs,
That it might not totter.

[8]"But you, Israel, are My servant,

Jacob whom I have chosen,
The descendants of Abraham My friend.
[9]You whom I have taken from the ends of the earth,
And called from its farthest regions,
And said to you,
‘You are My servant,
I have chosen you and have not cast you away:
[10]Fear not, for I am with you;
Be not dismayed, for I am your God.
I will strengthen you,
Yes, I will help you,
I will uphold you with My righteous right hand.’

[11]“Behold, all those who were incensed against you
Shall be ashamed and disgraced;
They shall be as nothing,
And those who strive with you shall perish.
[12]You shall seek them and not find them—
Those who contended with you.
Those who war against you
Shall be as nothing,
As a nonexistent thing.
[13]For I, the LORD your God, will hold your right hand,
Saying to you, ‘Fear not, I will help you.’

[14]“Fear not, you worm Jacob,
You men of Israel!
I will help you,” says the LORD
And your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.
[15]“Behold, I will make you into a new threshing sledge with sharp teeth;
You shall thresh the mountains and beat them small,
And make the hills like chaff.
[16]You shall winnow them, the wind shall carry them away,
And the whirlwind shall scatter them;
You shall rejoice in the LORD,
And glory in the Holy One of Israel.

17“The poor and needy seek water, but there is none,
Their tongues fail for thirst.
I, the LORD, will hear them;
I, the God of Israel, will not forsake them.
18I will open rivers in desolate heights,
And fountains in the midst of the valleys;
I will make the wilderness a pool of water,
And the dry land springs of water.
19I will plant in the wilderness the cedar and the acacia tree,
The myrtle and the oil tree;
I will set in the desert the cypress tree and the pine
And the box tree together,
20That they may see and know,
And consider and understand together,
That the hand of the LORD has done this,
And the Holy One of Israel has created it.

The Futility of Idols

21“Present your case,” says the LORD.
“Bring forth your strong reasons,” says the King of Jacob.
22“Let them bring forth and show us what will happen;
Let them show the former things, what they were,
That we may consider them,
And know the latter end of them;
Or declare to us things to come.
23Show the things that are to come hereafter,
That we may know that you are gods;
Yes, do good or do evil,
That we may be dismayed and see it together.
24Indeed you are nothing,
And your work is nothing;
He who chooses you is an abomination.

25“I have raised up one from the north,
And he shall come;
From the rising of the sun he shall call on My name;

And he shall come against princes as though mortar,
As the potter treads clay.
[26]Who has declared from the beginning, that we may know?
And former times, that we may say, ‘He is righteous’?
Surely there is no one who shows,
Surely there is no one who declares,
Surely there is no one who hears your words.
[27]The first time I said to Zion,
‘Look, there they are!’
And I will give to Jerusalem one who brings good tidings.
[28]For I looked, and there was no man;
I looked among them, but there was no counselor,
Who, when I asked of them, could answer a word.
[29]Indeed they are all worthless;
Their works are nothing;
Their molded images are wind and confusion.

Isaiah 42

The Servant of the LORD

[1]“Behold! My Servant whom I uphold,
My Elect One in whom My soul delights!
I have put My Spirit upon Him;
He will bring forth justice to the Gentiles.
[2]He will not cry out, nor raise His voice,
Nor cause His voice to be heard in the street.
[3]A bruised reed He will not break,
And smoking flax He will not quench;
He will bring forth justice for truth.
[4]He will not fail nor be discouraged,
Till He has established justice in the earth;
And the coastlands shall wait for His law.”

[5]Thus says God the LORD,
Who created the heavens and stretched them out,
Who spread forth the earth and that which comes from it,
Who gives breath to the people on it,
And spirit to those who walk on it:
[6]“I, the LORD, have called You in righteousness,
And will hold Your hand;
I will keep You and give You as a covenant to the people,
As a light to the Gentiles,
[7]To open blind eyes,
To bring out prisoners from the prison,
Those who sit in darkness from the prison house.
[8]I am the LORD, that is My name;
And My glory I will not give to another,
Nor My praise to carved images.
[9]Behold, the former things have come to pass,
And new things I declare;
Before they spring forth I tell you of them.”

Praise to the LORD

[10]Sing to the LORD a new song,
And His praise from the ends of the earth,
You who go down to the sea, and all that is in it,
You coastlands and you inhabitants of them!
[11]Let the wilderness and its cities lift up their voice,
The villages that Kedar inhabits.
Let the inhabitants of Sela sing,
Let them shout from the top of the mountains.
[12]Let them give glory to the LORD,
And declare His praise in the coastlands.
[13]The LORD shall go forth like a mighty man;
He shall stir up His zeal like a man of war.
He shall cry out, yes, shout aloud;
He shall prevail against His enemies.

Promise of the LORD's Help

[14]"I have held My peace a long time,
I have been still and restrained Myself.
Now I will cry like a woman in labor,
I will pant and gasp at once.
[15]I will lay waste the mountains and hills,
And dry up all their vegetation;
I will make the rivers coastlands,
And I will dry up the pools.
[16]I will bring the blind by a way they did not know;
I will lead them in paths they have not known.
I will make darkness light before them,
And crooked places straight.
These things I will do for them,
And not forsake them.
[17]They shall be turned back,
They shall be greatly ashamed,
Who trust in carved images,
Who say to the molded images,
'You are our gods.'

18“Hear, you deaf;
And look, you blind, that you may see.
19Who is blind but My servant,
Or deaf as My messenger whom I send?
Who is blind as he who is perfect,
And blind as the LORD’s servant?
20Seeing many things, but you do not observe;
Opening the ears, but he does not hear.”

Israel’s Obstinate Disobedience

21The LORD is well pleased for His righteousness’ sake;
He will exalt the law and make it honorable.
22But this is a people robbed and plundered;
All of them are snared in holes,
And they are hidden in prison houses;
They are for prey, and no one delivers;
For plunder, and no one says, “Restore!”

23Who among you will give ear to this?
Who will listen and hear for the time to come?
24Who gave Jacob for plunder, and Israel to the robbers?
Was it not the LORD,
He against whom we have sinned?
For they would not walk in His ways,
Nor were they obedient to His law.
25Therefore He has poured on him the fury of His anger
And the strength of battle;
It has set him on fire all around,
Yet he did not know;
And it burned him,
Yet he did not take it to heart.

Isaiah 43

The Redeemer of Israel

[1]But now, thus says the LORD, who created you, O Jacob,
And He who formed you, O Israel:
“Fear not, for I have redeemed you;
I have called you by your name;
You are Mine.
[2]When you pass through the waters, I will be with you;
And through the rivers, they shall not overflow you.
When you walk through the fire, you shall not be burned,
Nor shall the flame scorch you.
[3]For I am the LORD your God,
The Holy One of Israel, your Savior;
I gave Egypt for your ransom,
Ethiopia and Seba in your place.
[4]Since you were precious in My sight,
You have been honored,
And I have loved you;
Therefore I will give men for you,
And people for your life.
[5]Fear not, for I am with you;
I will bring your descendants from the east,
And gather you from the west;
[6]I will say to the north, ‘Give them up!’
And to the south, ‘Do not keep them back!’
Bring My sons from afar,
And My daughters from the ends of the earth—
[7]Everyone who is called by My name,
Whom I have created for My glory;
I have formed him, yes, I have made him.”

[8]Bring out the blind people who have eyes,
And the deaf who have ears.
[9]Let all the nations be gathered together,

And let the people be assembled.
Who among them can declare this,
And show us former things?
Let them bring out their witnesses, that they may be justified;
Or let them hear and say, "It is truth."
[10]"You are My witnesses," says the LORD,
"And My servant whom I have chosen,
That you may know and believe Me,
And understand that I am He.
Before Me there was no God formed,
Nor shall there be after Me.
[11]I, even I, am the LORD,
And besides Me there is no savior.
[12]I have declared and saved,
I have proclaimed,
And there was no foreign god among you;
Therefore you are My witnesses,"
Says the LORD, "that I am God.
[13]Indeed before the day was, I am He;
And there is no one who can deliver out of My hand;
I work, and who will reverse it?"

[14]Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer,
The Holy One of Israel:
"For your sake I will send to Babylon,
And bring them all down as fugitives—
The Chaldeans, who rejoice in their ships.
[15]I am the LORD, your Holy One,
The Creator of Israel, your King."

[16]Thus says the LORD, who makes a way in the sea
And a path through the mighty waters,
[17]Who brings forth the chariot and horse,
The army and the power
(They shall lie down together, they shall not rise;
They are extinguished, they are quenched like a wick):

[18]“Do not remember the former things,
Nor consider the things of old.
[19]Behold, I will do a new thing,
Now it shall spring forth;
Shall you not know it?
I will even make a road in the wilderness
And rivers in the desert.
[20]The beast of the field will honor Me,
The jackals and the ostriches,
Because I give waters in the wilderness
And rivers in the desert,
To give drink to My people, My chosen.
[21]This people I have formed for Myself;
They shall declare My praise.

Pleading with Unfaithful Israel

22“But you have not called upon Me, O Jacob;
And you have been weary of Me, O Israel.
[23]You have not brought Me the sheep for your burnt offerings,
Nor have you honored Me with your sacrifices.
I have not caused you to serve with grain offerings,
Nor wearied you with incense.
[24]You have bought Me no sweet cane with money,
Nor have you satisfied Me with the fat of your sacrifices;
But you have burdened Me with your sins,
You have wearied Me with your iniquities.

25“I, even I, am He who blots out your transgressions for My own sake;
And I will not remember your sins.
[26]Put Me in remembrance;
Let us contend together;
State your case, that you may be acquitted.
[27]Your first father sinned,
And your mediators have transgressed against Me.

[28]Therefore I will profane the princes of the sanctuary;
I will give Jacob to the curse,
And Israel to reproaches.

Isaiah 44

God’s Blessing on Israel

[1]“Yet hear now, O Jacob My servant,
And Israel whom I have chosen.
[2]Thus says the LORD who made you
And formed you from the womb, who will help you:
‘Fear not, O Jacob My servant;
And you, Jeshurun, whom I have chosen.
[3]For I will pour water on him who is thirsty,
And floods on the dry ground;
I will pour My Spirit on your descendants,
And My blessing on your offspring;
[4]They will spring up among the grass
Like willows by the watercourses.’
[5]One will say, ‘I am the LORD’s’;
Another will call himself by the name of Jacob;
Another will write with his hand, ‘The LORD’s,’
And name himself by the name of Israel.

There Is No Other God

[6]“Thus says the LORD, the King of Israel,
And his Redeemer, the LORD of hosts:
‘I am the First and I am the Last;
Besides Me there is no God.
[7]And who can proclaim as I do?
Then let him declare it and set it in order for Me,
Since I appointed the ancient people.
And the things that are coming and shall come,
Let them show these to them.
[8]Do not fear, nor be afraid;
Have I not told you from that time, and declared it?
You are My witnesses.
Is there a God besides Me?

Indeed there is no other Rock;
I know not one.' "

Idolatry Is Foolishness

[9]Those who make an image, all of them are useless,
And their precious things shall not profit;
They are their own witnesses;
They neither see nor know, that they may be ashamed.
[10]Who would form a god or mold an image
That profits him nothing?
[11]Surely all his companions would be ashamed;
And the workmen, they are mere men.
Let them all be gathered together,
Let them stand up;
Yet they shall fear,
They shall be ashamed together.

[12]The blacksmith with the tongs works one in the coals,
Fashions it with hammers,
And works it with the strength of his arms.
Even so, he is hungry, and his strength fails;
He drinks no water and is faint.

[13]The craftsman stretches out his rule,
He marks one out with chalk;
He fashions it with a plane,
He marks it out with the compass,
And makes it like the figure of a man,
According to the beauty of a man, that it may remain in the house.
[14]He cuts down cedars for himself,
And takes the cypress and the oak;
He secures it for himself among the trees of the forest.
He plants a pine, and the rain nourishes it.

[15]Then it shall be for a man to burn,
For he will take some of it and warm himself;

Yes, he kindles it and bakes bread;
Indeed he makes a god and worships it;
He makes it a carved image, and falls down to it.
[16]He burns half of it in the fire;
With this half he eats meat;
He roasts a roast, and is satisfied.
He even warms himself and says,
“Ah! I am warm,
I have seen the fire.”
[17]And the rest of it he makes into a god,
His carved image.
He falls down before it and worships it,
Prays to it and says,
“Deliver me, for you are my god!”

[18]They do not know nor understand;
For He has shut their eyes, so that they cannot see,
And their hearts, so that they cannot understand.
[19]And no one considers in his heart,
Nor is there knowledge nor understanding to say,
“I have burned half of it in the fire,
Yes, I have also baked bread on its coals;
I have roasted meat and eaten it;
And shall I make the rest of it an abomination?
Shall I fall down before a block of wood?”
[20]He feeds on ashes;
A deceived heart has turned him aside;
And he cannot deliver his soul,
Nor say, “Is there not a lie in my right hand?”

Israel Is Not Forgotten

[21]“Remember these, O Jacob,
And Israel, for you are My servant;
I have formed you, you are My servant;
O Israel, you will not be forgotten by Me!
[22]I have blotted out, like a thick cloud, your transgressions,

And like a cloud, your sins.
Return to Me, for I have redeemed you.”

[23]Sing, O heavens, for the LORD has done it!
Shout, you lower parts of the earth;
Break forth into singing, you mountains,
O forest, and every tree in it!
For the LORD has redeemed Jacob,
And glorified Himself in Israel.

Judah Will Be Restored

[24]Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer,
And He who formed you from the womb:
“I am the LORD, who makes all things,
Who stretches out the heavens all alone,
Who spreads abroad the earth by Myself;
[25]Who frustrates the signs of the babblers,
And drives diviners mad;
Who turns wise men backward,
And makes their knowledge foolishness;
[26]Who confirms the word of His servant,
And performs the counsel of His messengers;
Who says to Jerusalem, ‘You shall be inhabited,’
To the cities of Judah, ‘You shall be built,’
And I will raise up her waste places;
[27]Who says to the deep, ‘Be dry!
And I will dry up your rivers’;
[28]Who says of Cyrus, ‘He is My shepherd,
And he shall perform all My pleasure,
Saying to Jerusalem, “You shall be built,”
And to the temple, “Your foundation shall be laid.” ’

Isaiah 45

Cyrus, God's Instrument

[1]"Thus says the LORD to His anointed,
To Cyrus, whose right hand I have held—
To subdue nations before him
And loose the armor of kings,
To open before him the double doors,
So that the gates will not be shut:
[2]'I will go before you
And make the crooked places straight;
I will break in pieces the gates of bronze
And cut the bars of iron.
[3]I will give you the treasures of darkness
And hidden riches of secret places,
That you may know that I, the LORD,
Who call you by your name,
Am the God of Israel.
[4]For Jacob My servant's sake,
And Israel My elect,
I have even called you by your name;
I have named you, though you have not known Me.
[5]I am the LORD, and there is no other;
There is no God besides Me.
I will gird you, though you have not known Me,
[6]That they may know from the rising of the sun to its setting
That there is none besides Me.
I am the LORD, and there is no other;
[7]I form the light and create darkness,
I make peace and create calamity;
I, the LORD, do all these things.'

[8]"Rain down, you heavens, from above,
And let the skies pour down righteousness;
Let the earth open, let them bring forth salvation,

And let righteousness spring up together.
I, the LORD, have created it.

[9]"Woe to him who strives with his Maker!
Let the potsherd strive with the potsherds of the earth!
Shall the clay say to him who forms it, 'What are you making?'
Or shall your handiwork say, 'He has no hands'?
[10]Woe to him who says to his father, 'What are you begetting?'
Or to the woman, 'What have you brought forth?' "

[11]Thus says the LORD,
The Holy One of Israel, and his Maker:
"Ask Me of things to come concerning My sons;
And concerning the work of My hands, you command Me.
[12]I have made the earth,
And created man on it.
I—My hands—stretched out the heavens,
And all their host I have commanded.
[13]I have raised him up in righteousness,
And I will direct all his ways;
He shall build My city
And let My exiles go free,
Not for price nor reward,"
Says the LORD of hosts.

The LORD, the Only Savior

[14]Thus says the LORD:

"The labor of Egypt and merchandise of Cush
And of the Sabeans, men of stature,
Shall come over to you, and they shall be yours;
They shall walk behind you,
They shall come over in chains;
And they shall bow down to you.

They will make supplication to you, saying, ‘Surely God is in you,
And there is no other;
There is no other God.’ ”

[15]Truly You are God, who hide Yourself,
O God of Israel, the Savior!
[16]They shall be ashamed
And also disgraced, all of them;
They shall go in confusion together,
Who are makers of idols.
[17]But Israel shall be saved by the LORD
With an everlasting salvation;
You shall not be ashamed or disgraced
Forever and ever.

[18]For thus says the LORD,
Who created the heavens,
Who is God,
Who formed the earth and made it,
Who has established it,
Who did not create it in vain,
Who formed it to be inhabited:
“I am the LORD, and there is no other.
[19]I have not spoken in secret,
In a dark place of the earth;
I did not say to the seed of Jacob,
‘Seek Me in vain’;
I, the LORD, speak righteousness,
I declare things that are right.

[20]“Assemble yourselves and come;
Draw near together,
You who have escaped from the nations.
They have no knowledge,
Who carry the wood of their carved image,
And pray to a god that cannot save.

[21]Tell and bring forth your case;
Yes, let them take counsel together.
Who has declared this from ancient time?
Who has told it from that time?
Have not I, the LORD?
And there is no other God besides Me,
A just God and a Savior;
There is none besides Me.

[22]"Look to Me, and be saved,
All you ends of the earth!
For I am God, and there is no other.
[23]I have sworn by Myself;
The word has gone out of My mouth in righteousness,
And shall not return,
That to Me every knee shall bow,
Every tongue shall take an oath.
[24]He shall say,
'Surely in the LORD I have righteousness and strength.
To Him men shall come,
And all shall be ashamed
Who are incensed against Him.
[25]In the LORD all the descendants of Israel
Shall be justified, and shall glory.' "

Isaiah 46

Dead Idols and the Living God

[1]Bel bows down, Nebo stoops;
Their idols were on the beasts and on the cattle.
Your carriages were heavily loaded,
A burden to the weary beast.
[2]They stoop, they bow down together;
They could not deliver the burden,
But have themselves gone into captivity.

[3]"Listen to Me, O house of Jacob,
And all the remnant of the house of Israel,
Who have been upheld by Me from birth,
Who have been carried from the womb:
[4]Even to your old age, I am He,
And even to gray hairs I will carry you!
I have made, and I will bear;
Even I will carry, and will deliver you.

[5]"To whom will you liken Me, and make Me equal
And compare Me, that we should be alike?
[6]They lavish gold out of the bag,
And weigh silver on the scales;
They hire a goldsmith, and he makes it a god;
They prostrate themselves, yes, they worship.
[7]They bear it on the shoulder, they carry it
And set it in its place, and it stands;
From its place it shall not move.
Though one cries out to it, yet it cannot answer
Nor save him out of his trouble.

[8]"Remember this, and show yourselves men;
Recall to mind, O you transgressors.
[9]Remember the former things of old,

For I am God, and there is no other;
I am God, and there is none like Me,
[10]Declaring the end from the beginning,
And from ancient times things that are not yet done,
Saying, 'My counsel shall stand,
And I will do all My pleasure,'
[11]Calling a bird of prey from the east,
The man who executes My counsel, from a far country.
Indeed I have spoken it;
I will also bring it to pass.
I have purposed it;
I will also do it.

12"Listen to Me, you stubborn-hearted,
Who are far from righteousness:
[13]I bring My righteousness near, it shall not be far off;
My salvation shall not linger.
And I will place salvation in Zion,
For Israel My glory.

Isaiah 47

The Humiliation of Babylon

[1]“Come down and sit in the dust,
O virgin daughter of Babylon;
Sit on the ground without a throne,
O daughter of the Chaldeans!
For you shall no more be called
Tender and delicate.
[2]Take the millstones and grind meal.
Remove your veil,
Take off the skirt,
Uncover the thigh,
Pass through the rivers.
[3]Your nakedness shall be uncovered,
Yes, your shame will be seen;
I will take vengeance,
And I will not arbitrate with a man.”

[4]As for our Redeemer, the LORD of hosts is His name,
The Holy One of Israel.

[5]“Sit in silence, and go into darkness,
O daughter of the Chaldeans;
For you shall no longer be called
The Lady of Kingdoms.
[6]I was angry with My people;
I have profaned My inheritance,
And given them into your hand.
You showed them no mercy;
On the elderly you laid your yoke very heavily.
[7]And you said, ‘I shall be a lady forever,’
So that you did not take these things to heart,
Nor remember the latter end of them.

[8]“Therefore hear this now, you who are given to pleasures,
Who dwell securely,
Who say in your heart,
‘I am, and there is no one else besides me;
I shall not sit as a widow,
Nor shall I know the loss of children’;
[9]But these two things shall come to you
In a moment, in one day:
The loss of children, and widowhood.
They shall come upon you in their fullness
Because of the multitude of your sorceries,
For the great abundance of your enchantments.

[10]“For you have trusted in your wickedness;
You have said, ‘No one sees me’;
Your wisdom and your knowledge have warped you;
And you have said in your heart,
‘I am, and there is no one else besides me.’
[11]Therefore evil shall come upon you;
You shall not know from where it arises.
And trouble shall fall upon you;
You will not be able to put it off.
And desolation shall come upon you suddenly,
Which you shall not know.

[12]“Stand now with your enchantments
And the multitude of your sorceries,
In which you have labored from your youth—
Perhaps you will be able to profit,
Perhaps you will prevail.
[13]You are wearied in the multitude of your counsels;
Let now the astrologers, the stargazers,
And the monthly prognosticators
Stand up and save you
From what shall come upon you.
[14]Behold, they shall be as stubble,
The fire shall burn them;

They shall not deliver themselves
From the power of the flame;
It shall not be a coal to be warmed by,
Nor a fire to sit before!
[15]Thus shall they be to you
With whom you have labored,
Your merchants from your youth;
They shall wander each one to his quarter.
No one shall save you.

Isaiah 48

Israel Refined for God's Glory

[1]"Hear this, O house of Jacob,
Who are called by the name of Israel,
And have come forth from the wellsprings of Judah;
Who swear by the name of the LORD,
And make mention of the God of Israel,
But not in truth or in righteousness;
[2]For they call themselves after the holy city,
And lean on the God of Israel;
The LORD of hosts is His name:

[3]"I have declared the former things from the beginning;
They went forth from My mouth, and I caused them to hear it.
Suddenly I did them, and they came to pass.
[4]Because I knew that you were obstinate,
And your neck was an iron sinew,
And your brow bronze,
[5]Even from the beginning I have declared it to you;
Before it came to pass I proclaimed it to you,
Lest you should say, 'My idol has done them,
And my carved image and my molded image
Have commanded them.'

[6]"You have heard;
See all this.
And will you not declare it?
I have made you hear new things from this time,
Even hidden things, and you did not know them.
[7]They are created now and not from the beginning;
And before this day you have not heard them,
Lest you should say, 'Of course I knew them.'
[8]Surely you did not hear,

Surely you did not know;
Surely from long ago your ear was not opened.
For I knew that you would deal very treacherously,
And were called a transgressor from the womb.

[9]“For My name’s sake I will defer My anger,
And for My praise I will restrain it from you,
So that I do not cut you off.
[10]Behold, I have refined you, but not as silver;
I have tested you in the furnace of affliction.
[11]For My own sake, for My own sake, I will do it;
For how should My name be profaned?
And I will not give My glory to another.

God’s Ancient Plan to Redeem Israel

[12]“Listen to Me, O Jacob,
And Israel, My called:
I am He, I am the First,
I am also the Last.
[13]Indeed My hand has laid the foundation of the earth,
And My right hand has stretched out the heavens;
When I call to them,
They stand up together.

[14]“All of you, assemble yourselves, and hear!
Who among them has declared these things?
The LORD loves him;
He shall do His pleasure on Babylon,
And His arm shall be against the Chaldeans.
[15]I, even I, have spoken;
Yes, I have called him,
I have brought him, and his way will prosper.

[16]“Come near to Me, hear this:
I have not spoken in secret from the beginning;
From the time that it was, I was there.
And now the Lord GOD and His Spirit

Have sent Me."

17Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer,
The Holy One of Israel:
"I am the LORD your God,
Who teaches you to profit,
Who leads you by the way you should go.
18Oh, that you had heeded My commandments!
Then your peace would have been like a river,
And your righteousness like the waves of the sea.
19Your descendants also would have been like the sand,
And the offspring of your body like the grains of sand;
His name would not have been cut off
Nor destroyed from before Me."

20Go forth from Babylon!
Flee from the Chaldeans!
With a voice of singing,
Declare, proclaim this,
Utter it to the end of the earth;
Say, "The LORD has redeemed
His servant Jacob!"
21And they did not thirst
When He led them through the deserts;
He caused the waters to flow from the rock for them;
He also split the rock, and the waters gushed out.

22"There is no peace," says the LORD, "for the wicked."

Isaiah 49

The Servant, the Light to the Gentiles

[1]"Listen, O coastlands, to Me,
And take heed, you peoples from afar!
The LORD has called Me from the womb;
From the matrix of My mother He has made mention of My name.
[2]And He has made My mouth like a sharp sword;
In the shadow of His hand He has hidden Me,
And made Me a polished shaft;
In His quiver He has hidden Me."

[3]"And He said to me,
'You are My servant, O Israel,
In whom I will be glorified.'
[4]Then I said, 'I have labored in vain,
I have spent my strength for nothing and in vain;
Yet surely my just reward is with the LORD,
And my work with my God.' "

[5]"And now the LORD says,
Who formed Me from the womb to be His Servant,
To bring Jacob back to Him,
So that Israel is gathered to Him
(For I shall be glorious in the eyes of the LORD,
And My God shall be My strength),
[6]Indeed He says,
'It is too small a thing that You should be My Servant
To raise up the tribes of Jacob,
And to restore the preserved ones of Israel;
I will also give You as a light to the Gentiles,
That You should be My salvation to the ends of the earth.' "

[7]Thus says the LORD,
The Redeemer of Israel, their Holy One,

To Him whom man despises,
To Him whom the nation abhors,
To the Servant of rulers:
“Kings shall see and arise,
Princes also shall worship,
Because of the LORD who is faithful,
The Holy One of Israel;
And He has chosen You.”

8Thus says the LORD:

“In an acceptable time I have heard You,
And in the day of salvation I have helped You;
I will preserve You and give You
As a covenant to the people,
To restore the earth,
To cause them to inherit the desolate heritages;
[9]That You may say to the prisoners, ‘Go forth,’
To those who are in darkness, ‘Show yourselves.’

“They shall feed along the roads,
And their pastures shall be on all desolate heights.
[10]They shall neither hunger nor thirst,
Neither heat nor sun shall strike them;
For He who has mercy on them will lead them,
Even by the springs of water He will guide them.
[11]I will make each of My mountains a road,
And My highways shall be elevated.
[12]Surely these shall come from afar;
Look! Those from the north and the west,
And these from the land of Sinim.”

[13]Sing, O heavens!
Be joyful, O earth!
And break out in singing, O mountains!
For the LORD has comforted His people,
And will have mercy on His afflicted.

God Will Remember Zion

14But Zion said, “The LORD has forsaken me,
And my Lord has forgotten me.”

15“Can a woman forget her nursing child,
And not have compassion on the son of her womb?
Surely they may forget,
Yet I will not forget you.
16See, I have inscribed you on the palms of My hands;
Your walls are continually before Me.
17Your sons shall make haste;
Your destroyers and those who laid you waste
Shall go away from you.
18Lift up your eyes, look around and see;
All these gather together and come to you.
As I live,” says the LORD,
“You shall surely clothe yourselves with them all as an ornament,
And bind them on you as a bride does.

19“For your waste and desolate places,
And the land of your destruction,
Will even now be too small for the inhabitants;
And those who swallowed you up will be far away.
20The children you will have,
After you have lost the others,
Will say again in your ears,
‘The place is too small for me;
Give me a place where I may dwell.’
21Then you will say in your heart,
‘Who has begotten these for me,
Since I have lost my children and am desolate,
A captive, and wandering to and fro?
And who has brought these up?
There I was, left alone;
But these, where were they?’ ”

[22]Thus says the Lord GOD:

“Behold, I will lift My hand in an oath to the nations,
And set up My standard for the peoples;
They shall bring your sons in their arms,
And your daughters shall be carried on their shoulders;
[23]Kings shall be your foster fathers,
And their queens your nursing mothers;
They shall bow down to you with their faces to the earth,
And lick up the dust of your feet.
Then you will know that I am the LORD,
For they shall not be ashamed who wait for Me.”

[24]Shall the prey be taken from the mighty,
Or the captives of the righteous be delivered?

[25]But thus says the LORD:

“Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away,
And the prey of the terrible be delivered;
For I will contend with him who contends with you,
And I will save your children.
[26]I will feed those who oppress you with their own flesh,
And they shall be drunk with their own blood as with sweet wine.
All flesh shall know
That I, the LORD, am your Savior,
And your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.”

Isaiah 50

The Servant, Israel's Hope

[1]Thus says the LORD:
"Where is the certificate of your mother's divorce,
Whom I have put away?
Or which of My creditors is it to whom I have sold you?
For your iniquities you have sold yourselves,
And for your transgressions your mother has been put away.
[2]Why, when I came, was there no man?
Why, when I called, was there none to answer?
Is My hand shortened at all that it cannot redeem?
Or have I no power to deliver?
Indeed with My rebuke I dry up the sea,
I make the rivers a wilderness;
Their fish stink because there is no water,
And die of thirst.
[3]I clothe the heavens with blackness,
And I make sackcloth their covering."

[4]"The Lord GOD has given Me
The tongue of the learned,
That I should know how to speak
A word in season to him who is weary.
He awakens Me morning by morning,
He awakens My ear
To hear as the learned.
[5]The Lord GOD has opened My ear;
And I was not rebellious,
Nor did I turn away.
[6]I gave My back to those who struck Me,
And My cheeks to those who plucked out the beard;
I did not hide My face from shame and spitting.

[7]"For the Lord GOD will help Me;

Therefore I will not be disgraced;
Therefore I have set My face like a flint,
And I know that I will not be ashamed.
[8]He is near who justifies Me;
Who will contend with Me?
Let us stand together.
Who is My adversary?
Let him come near Me.
[9]Surely the Lord GOD will help Me;
Who is he who will condemn Me?
Indeed they will all grow old like a garment;
The moth will eat them up.

10"Who among you fears the LORD?
Who obeys the voice of His Servant?
Who walks in darkness
And has no light?
Let him trust in the name of the LORD
And rely upon his God.
[11]Look, all you who kindle a fire,
Who encircle yourselves with sparks:
Walk in the light of your fire and in the sparks you have kindled—
This you shall have from My hand:
You shall lie down in torment.

Isaiah 51

The LORD Comforts Zion

[1]"Listen to Me, you who follow after righteousness,
You who seek the LORD:
Look to the rock from which you were hewn,
And to the hole of the pit from which you were dug.
[2]Look to Abraham your father,
And to Sarah who bore you;
For I called him alone,
And blessed him and increased him."

[3]For the LORD will comfort Zion,
He will comfort all her waste places;
He will make her wilderness like Eden,
And her desert like the garden of the LORD;
Joy and gladness will be found in it,
Thanksgiving and the voice of melody.

[4]"Listen to Me, My people;
And give ear to Me, O My nation:
For law will proceed from Me,
And I will make My justice rest
As a light of the peoples.
[5]My righteousness is near,
My salvation has gone forth,
And My arms will judge the peoples;
The coastlands will wait upon Me,
And on My arm they will trust.
[6]Lift up your eyes to the heavens,
And look on the earth beneath.
For the heavens will vanish away like smoke,
The earth will grow old like a garment,
And those who dwell in it will die in like manner;
But My salvation will be forever,

And My righteousness will not be abolished.

7“Listen to Me, you who know righteousness,
You people in whose heart is My law:
Do not fear the reproach of men,
Nor be afraid of their insults.
8For the moth will eat them up like a garment,
And the worm will eat them like wool;
But My righteousness will be forever,
And My salvation from generation to generation.”

9Awake, awake, put on strength,
O arm of the LORD!
Awake as in the ancient days,
In the generations of old.
Are You not the arm that cut Rahab apart,
And wounded the serpent?

10*Are* You not the One who dried up the sea,
The waters of the great deep;
That made the depths of the sea a road
For the redeemed to cross over?
11So the ransomed of the LORD shall return,
And come to Zion with singing,
With everlasting joy on their heads.
They shall obtain joy and gladness;
Sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

12“I, even I, am He who comforts you.
Who are you that you should be afraid
Of a man who will die,
And of the son of a man who will be made like grass?
13And you forget the LORD your Maker,
Who stretched out the heavens
And laid the foundations of the earth;
You have feared continually every day
Because of the fury of the oppressor,

When he has prepared to destroy.
And where is the fury of the oppressor?
[14]The captive exile hastens, that he may be loosed,
That he should not die in the pit,
And that his bread should not fail.
[15]But I am the LORD your God,
Who divided the sea whose waves roared—
The LORD of hosts is His name.
[16]And I have put My words in your mouth;
I have covered you with the shadow of My hand,
That I may plant the heavens,
Lay the foundations of the earth,
And say to Zion, 'You are My people.' "

God's Fury Removed

[17]Awake, awake!
Stand up, O Jerusalem,
You who have drunk at the hand of the LORD
The cup of His fury;
You have drunk the dregs of the cup of trembling,
And drained it out.
[18]There is no one to guide her
Among all the sons she has brought forth;
Nor is there any who takes her by the hand
Among all the sons she has brought up.
[19]These two things have come to you;
Who will be sorry for you?—
Desolation and destruction, famine and sword—
By whom will I comfort you?
[20]Your sons have fainted,
They lie at the head of all the streets,
Like an antelope in a net;
They are full of the fury of the LORD,
The rebuke of your God.

[21]Therefore please hear this, you afflicted,

And drunk but not with wine.
[22]Thus says your Lord,
The LORD and your God,
Who pleads the cause of His people:
“See, I have taken out of your hand
The cup of trembling,
The dregs of the cup of My fury;
You shall no longer drink it.
[23]But I will put it into the hand of those who afflict you,
Who have said to you,
‘Lie down, that we may walk over you.’
And you have laid your body like the ground,
And as the street, for those who walk over.”

Isaiah 52

God Redeems Jerusalem

[1]Awake, awake!
Put on your strength, O Zion;
Put on your beautiful garments,
O Jerusalem, the holy city!
For the uncircumcised and the unclean
Shall no longer come to you.
[2]Shake yourself from the dust, arise;
Sit down, O Jerusalem!
Loose yourself from the bonds of your neck,
O captive daughter of Zion!

[3]For thus says the LORD:

“You have sold yourselves for nothing,
And you shall be redeemed without money.”

[4]For thus says the Lord GOD:

“My people went down at first
Into Egypt to dwell there;
Then the Assyrian oppressed them without cause.
[5]Now therefore, what have I here,” says the LORD,
“That My people are taken away for nothing?
Those who rule over them
Make them wail,” says the LORD,
“And My name is blasphemed continually every day.
[6]Therefore My people shall know My name;
Therefore they shall know in that day
That I am He who speaks:
‘Behold, it is I.’ ”

[7]How beautiful upon the mountains
Are the feet of him who brings good news,

Who proclaims peace,
Who brings glad tidings of good things,
Who proclaims salvation,
Who says to Zion,
“Your God reigns!”
[8]Your watchmen shall lift up their voices,
With their voices they shall sing together;
For they shall see eye to eye
When the LORD brings back Zion.
[9]Break forth into joy, sing together,
You waste places of Jerusalem!
For the LORD has comforted His people,
He has redeemed Jerusalem.
[10]The LORD has made bare His holy arm
In the eyes of all the nations;
And all the ends of the earth shall see
The salvation of our God.

[11]Depart! Depart! Go out from there,
Touch no unclean thing;
Go out from the midst of her,
Be clean,
You who bear the vessels of the LORD.
[12]For you shall not go out with haste,
Nor go by flight;
For the LORD will go before you,
And the God of Israel will be your rear guard.

The Sin-Bearing Servant

[13]Behold, My Servant shall deal prudently;
He shall be exalted and extolled and be very high.
[14]Just as many were astonished at you,
So His visage was marred more than any man,
And His form more than the sons of men;
[15]So shall He sprinkle many nations.
Kings shall shut their mouths at Him;

For what had not been told them they shall see,
And what they had not heard they shall consider.

Isaiah 53

[1]Who has believed our report?
And to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?
[2]For He shall grow up before Him as a tender plant,
And as a root out of dry ground.
He has no form or comeliness;
And when we see Him,
There is no beauty that we should desire Him.
[3]He is despised and rejected by men,
A Man of sorrows and acquainted with grief.
And we hid, as it were, our faces from Him;
He was despised, and we did not esteem Him.

[4]Surely He has borne our griefs
And carried our sorrows;
Yet we esteemed Him stricken,
Smitten by God, and afflicted.
[5]But He was wounded for our transgressions,
He was bruised for our iniquities;
The chastisement for our peace was upon Him,
And by His stripes we are healed.
[6]All we like sheep have gone astray;
We have turned, every one, to his own way;
And the LORD has laid on Him the iniquity of us all.

[7]He was oppressed and He was afflicted,
Yet He opened not His mouth;
He was led as a lamb to the slaughter,
And as a sheep before its shearers is silent,
So He opened not His mouth.
[8]He was taken from prison and from judgment,
And who will declare His generation?
For He was cut off from the land of the living;
For the transgressions of My people He was stricken.

[9]And they made His grave with the wicked—
But with the rich at His death,
Because He had done no violence,
Nor was any deceit in His mouth.

[10]Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise Him;
He has put Him to grief.
When You make His soul an offering for sin,
He shall see His seed, He shall prolong His days,
And the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in His hand.
[11]He shall see the labor of His soul, and be satisfied.
By His knowledge My righteous Servant shall justify many,
For He shall bear their iniquities.
[12]Therefore I will divide Him a portion with the great,
And He shall divide the spoil with the strong,
Because He poured out His soul unto death,
And He was numbered with the transgressors,
And He bore the sin of many,
And made intercession for the transgressors.

Isaiah 54

A Perpetual Covenant of Peace

[1]“Sing, O barren,
You who have not borne!
Break forth into singing, and cry aloud,
You who have not labored with child!
For more are the children of the desolate
Than the children of the married woman,” says the LORD.
[2]“Enlarge the place of your tent,
And let them stretch out the curtains of your dwellings;
Do not spare;
Lengthen your cords,
And strengthen your stakes.
[3]For you shall expand to the right and to the left,
And your descendants will inherit the nations,
And make the desolate cities inhabited.

[4]“Do not fear, for you will not be ashamed;
Neither be disgraced, for you will not be put to shame;
For you will forget the shame of your youth,
And will not remember the reproach of your widowhood anymore.
[5]For your Maker is your husband,
The LORD of hosts is His name;
And your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel;
He is called the God of the whole earth.
[6]For the LORD has called you
Like a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit,
Like a youthful wife when you were refused,”
Says your God.
[7]“For a mere moment I have forsaken you,
But with great mercies I will gather you.
[8]With a little wrath I hid My face from you for a moment;
But with everlasting kindness I will have mercy on you,”

Says the LORD, your Redeemer.

9“For this is like the waters of Noah to Me;
For as I have sworn
That the waters of Noah would no longer cover the earth,
So have I sworn
That I would not be angry with you, nor rebuke you.
10For the mountains shall depart
And the hills be removed,
But My kindness shall not depart from you,
Nor shall My covenant of peace be removed,”
Says the LORD, who has mercy on you.

11“O you afflicted one,
Tossed with tempest, and not comforted,
Behold, I will lay your stones with colorful gems,
And lay your foundations with sapphires.
12I will make your pinnacles of rubies,
Your gates of crystal,
And all your walls of precious stones.
13All your children shall be taught by the LORD,
And great shall be the peace of your children.
14In righteousness you shall be established;
You shall be far from oppression, for you shall not fear;
And from terror, for it shall not come near you.
15Indeed they shall surely assemble, but not because of Me.
Whoever assembles against you shall fall for your sake.

16“Behold, I have created the blacksmith
Who blows the coals in the fire,
Who brings forth an instrument for his work;
And I have created the spoiler to destroy.
17No weapon formed against you shall prosper,
And every tongue which rises against you in judgment
You shall condemn.
This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD,
And their righteousness is from Me,”

Says the LORD.

Isaiah 55

An Invitation to Abundant Life

[1]“Ho! Everyone who thirsts,
Come to the waters;
And you who have no money,
Come, buy and eat.
Yes, come, buy wine and milk
Without money and without price.
[2]Why do you spend money for what is not bread,
And your wages for what does not satisfy?
Listen carefully to Me, and eat what is good,
And let your soul delight itself in abundance.
[3]Incline your ear, and come to Me.
Hear, and your soul shall live;
And I will make an everlasting covenant with you—
The sure mercies of David.
[4]Indeed I have given him as a witness to the people,
A leader and commander for the people.
[5]Surely you shall call a nation you do not know,
And nations who do not know you shall run to you,
Because of the LORD your God,
And the Holy One of Israel;
For He has glorified you.”

[6]Seek the LORD while He may be found,
Call upon Him while He is near.
[7]Let the wicked forsake his way,
And the unrighteous man his thoughts;
Let him return to the LORD,
And He will have mercy on him;
And to our God,
For He will abundantly pardon.

[8]“For My thoughts are not your thoughts,

Nor are your ways My ways," says the LORD.
[9]"For as the heavens are higher than the earth,
So are My ways higher than your ways,
And My thoughts than your thoughts.

[10]"For as the rain comes down, and the snow from heaven,
And do not return there,
But water the earth,
And make it bring forth and bud,
That it may give seed to the sower
And bread to the eater,
[11]So shall My word be that goes forth from My mouth;
It shall not return to Me void,
But it shall accomplish what I please,
And it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it.

[12]"For you shall go out with joy,
And be led out with peace;
The mountains and the hills
Shall break forth into singing before you,
And all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.
[13]Instead of the thorn shall come up the cypress tree,
And instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree;
And it shall be to the LORD for a name,
For an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off."

Isaiah 56

Salvation for the Gentiles

[1]Thus says the LORD:

“Keep justice, and do righteousness,
For My salvation is about to come,
And My righteousness to be revealed.
[2]Blessed is the man who does this,
And the son of man who lays hold on it;
Who keeps from defiling the Sabbath,
And keeps his hand from doing any evil.”

[3]Do not let the son of the foreigner
Who has joined himself to the LORD
Speak, saying,
“The LORD has utterly separated me from His people”;
Nor let the eunuch say,
“Here I am, a dry tree.”
[4]For thus says the LORD:
“To the eunuchs who keep My Sabbaths,
And choose what pleases Me,
And hold fast My covenant,
[5]Even to them I will give in My house
And within My walls a place and a name
Better than that of sons and daughters;
I will give them an everlasting name
That shall not be cut off.

[6]“Also the sons of the foreigner
Who join themselves to the LORD, to serve Him,
And to love the name of the LORD, to be His servants—
Everyone who keeps from defiling the Sabbath,
And holds fast My covenant—
[7]Even them I will bring to My holy mountain,
And make them joyful in My house of prayer.

Their burnt offerings and their sacrifices
Will be accepted on My altar;
For My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations.”
[8]The Lord GOD, who gathers the outcasts of Israel, says,
“Yet I will gather to him
Others besides those who are gathered to him.”

Israel’s Irresponsible Leaders

[9]All you beasts of the field, come to devour,
All you beasts in the forest.
[10]His watchmen are blind,
They are all ignorant;
They are all dumb dogs,
They cannot bark;
Sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber.
[11]Yes, they are greedy dogs
Which never have enough.
And they are shepherds
Who cannot understand;
They all look to their own way,
Every one for his own gain,
From his own territory.
[12]“Come,” one says, “I will bring wine,
And we will fill ourselves with intoxicating drink;
Tomorrow will be as today,
And much more abundant.”

Isaiah 57

Israel's Futile Idolatry

[1]The righteous perishes,
And no man takes it to heart;
Merciful men are taken away,
While no one considers
That the righteous is taken away from evil.
[2]He shall enter into peace;
They shall rest in their beds,
Each one walking in his uprightness.

[3]"But come here,
You sons of the sorceress,
You offspring of the adulterer and the harlot!
[4]Whom do you ridicule?
Against whom do you make a wide mouth
And stick out the tongue?
Are you not children of transgression,
Offspring of falsehood,
[5]Inflaming yourselves with gods under every green tree,
Slaying the children in the valleys,
Under the clefts of the rocks?
[6]Among the smooth stones of the stream
Is your portion;
They, they, are your lot!
Even to them you have poured a drink offering,
You have offered a grain offering.
Should I receive comfort in these?

[7]"On a lofty and high mountain
You have set your bed;
Even there you went up
To offer sacrifice.
[8]Also behind the doors and their posts

You have set up your remembrance;
For you have uncovered yourself to those other than Me,
And have gone up to them;
You have enlarged your bed
And made a covenant with them;
You have loved their bed,
Where you saw their nudity.
[9]You went to the king with ointment,
And increased your perfumes;
You sent your messengers far off,
And even descended to Sheol.
[10]You are wearied in the length of your way;
Yet you did not say, ‘There is no hope.’
You have found the life of your hand;
Therefore you were not grieved.

[11]“And of whom have you been afraid, or feared,
That you have lied
And not remembered Me,
Nor taken it to your heart?
Is it not because I have held My peace from of old
That you do not fear Me?
[12]I will declare your righteousness
And your works,
For they will not profit you.
[13]When you cry out,
Let your collection of idols deliver you.
But the wind will carry them all away,
A breath will take them.
But he who puts his trust in Me shall possess the land,
And shall inherit My holy mountain.”

Healing for the Backslider

[14]And one shall say,
“Heap it up! Heap it up!
Prepare the way,
Take the stumbling block out of the way of My people.”

[15]For thus says the High and Lofty One
Who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy:
“I dwell in the high and holy place,
With him who has a contrite and humble spirit,
To revive the spirit of the humble,
And to revive the heart of the contrite ones.
[16]For I will not contend forever,
Nor will I always be angry;
For the spirit would fail before Me,
And the souls which I have made.
[17]For the iniquity of his covetousness
I was angry and struck him;
I hid and was angry,
And he went on backsliding in the way of his heart.
[18]I have seen his ways, and will heal him;
I will also lead him,
And restore comforts to him
And to his mourners.

[19]“I create the fruit of the lips:
Peace, peace to him who is far off and to him who is near,”
Says the LORD,
“And I will heal him.”
[20]But the wicked are like the troubled sea,
When it cannot rest,
Whose waters cast up mire and dirt.

[21]“There is no peace,”
Says my God, “for the wicked.”

Isaiah 58

Fasting that Pleases God

[1]“Cry aloud, spare not;
Lift up your voice like a trumpet;
Tell My people their transgression,
And the house of Jacob their sins.
[2]Yet they seek Me daily,
And delight to know My ways,
As a nation that did righteousness,
And did not forsake the ordinance of their God.
They ask of Me the ordinances of justice;
They take delight in approaching God.
[3]‘Why have we fasted,’ they say, ‘and You have not seen?
Why have we afflicted our souls, and You take no notice?’

“In fact, in the day of your fast you find pleasure,
And exploit all your laborers.
[4]Indeed you fast for strife and debate,
And to strike with the fist of wickedness.
You will not fast as you do this day,
To make your voice heard on high.
[5]Is it a fast that I have chosen,
A day for a man to afflict his soul?
Is it to bow down his head like a bulrush,
And to spread out sackcloth and ashes?
Would you call this a fast,
And an acceptable day to the LORD?

[6]“Is this not the fast that I have chosen:
To loose the bonds of wickedness,
To undo the heavy burdens,
To let the oppressed go free,
And that you break every yoke?
[7]Is it not to share your bread with the hungry,

And that you bring to your house the poor who are cast out;
When you see the naked, that you cover him,
And not hide yourself from your own flesh?
[8]Then your light shall break forth like the morning,
Your healing shall spring forth speedily,
And your righteousness shall go before you;
The glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard.
[9]Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer;
You shall cry, and He will say, 'Here I am.'

"If you take away the yoke from your midst,
The pointing of the finger, and speaking wickedness,
[10]If you extend your soul to the hungry
And satisfy the afflicted soul,
Then your light shall dawn in the darkness,
And your darkness shall be as the noonday.
[11]The LORD will guide you continually,
And satisfy your soul in drought,
And strengthen your bones;
You shall be like a watered garden,
And like a spring of water, whose waters do not fail.
[12]Those from among you
Shall build the old waste places;
You shall raise up the foundations of many generations;
And you shall be called the Repairer of the Breach,
The Restorer of Streets to Dwell In.

13"If you turn away your foot from the Sabbath,
From doing your pleasure on My holy day,
And call the Sabbath a delight,
The holy day of the LORD honorable,
And shall honor Him, not doing your own ways,
Nor finding your own pleasure,
Nor speaking your own words,
[14]Then you shall delight yourself in the LORD;
And I will cause you to ride on the high hills of the earth,
And feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father.

The mouth of the LORD has spoken.”

Isaiah 59

Separated from God

[1]Behold, the LORD's hand is not shortened,
That it cannot save;
Nor His ear heavy,
That it cannot hear.
[2]But your iniquities have separated you from your God;
And your sins have hidden His face from you,
So that He will not hear.
[3]For your hands are defiled with blood,
And your fingers with iniquity;
Your lips have spoken lies,
Your tongue has muttered perversity.

[4]No one calls for justice,
Nor does any plead for truth.
They trust in empty words and speak lies;
They conceive evil and bring forth iniquity.
[5]They hatch vipers' eggs and weave the spider's web;
He who eats of their eggs dies,
And from that which is crushed a viper breaks out.

[6]Their webs will not become garments,
Nor will they cover themselves with their works;
Their works are works of iniquity,
And the act of violence is in their hands.
[7]Their feet run to evil,
And they make haste to shed innocent blood;
Their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity;
Wasting and destruction are in their paths.
[8]The way of peace they have not known,
And there is no justice in their ways;
They have made themselves crooked paths;
Whoever takes that way shall not know peace.

Sin Confessed

[9]Therefore justice is far from us,
Nor does righteousness overtake us;
We look for light, but there is darkness!
For brightness, but we walk in blackness!
[10]We grope for the wall like the blind,
And we grope as if we had no eyes;
We stumble at noonday as at twilight;
We are as dead men in desolate places.
[11]We all growl like bears,
And moan sadly like doves;
We look for justice, but there is none;
For salvation, but it is far from us.
[12]For our transgressions are multiplied before You,
And our sins testify against us;
For our transgressions are with us,
And as for our iniquities, we know them:
[13]In transgressing and lying against the LORD,
And departing from our God,
Speaking oppression and revolt,
Conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood.
[14]Justice is turned back,
And righteousness stands afar off;
For truth is fallen in the street,
And equity cannot enter.
[15]So truth fails,
And he who departs from evil makes himself a prey.

The Redeemer of Zion

Then the LORD saw it, and it displeased Him
That there was no justice.
[16]He saw that there was no man,
And wondered that there was no intercessor;
Therefore His own arm brought salvation for Him;
And His own righteousness, it sustained Him.

[17]For He put on righteousness as a breastplate,
And a helmet of salvation on His head;
He put on the garments of vengeance for clothing,
And was clad with zeal as a cloak.
[18]According to their deeds, accordingly He will repay,
Fury to His adversaries,
Recompense to His enemies;
The coastlands He will fully repay.
[19]So shall they fear
The name of the LORD from the west,
And His glory from the rising of the sun;
When the enemy comes in like a flood,
The Spirit of the LORD will lift up a standard against him.

[20]"The Redeemer will come to Zion,
And to those who turn from transgression in Jacob,"
Says the LORD.

[21]"As for Me," says the LORD, "this is My covenant with them: My Spirit who is upon you, and My words which I have put in your mouth, shall not depart from your mouth, nor from the mouth of your descendants, nor from the mouth of your descendants' descendants," says the LORD, "from this time and forevermore."

Isaiah 60

The Gentiles Bless Zion

[1]Arise, shine;
For your light has come!
And the glory of the LORD is risen upon you.
[2]For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth,
And deep darkness the people;
But the LORD will arise over you,
And His glory will be seen upon you.
[3]The Gentiles shall come to your light,
And kings to the brightness of your rising.

[4]“Lift up your eyes all around, and see:
They all gather together, they come to you;
Your sons shall come from afar,
And your daughters shall be nursed at your side.
[5]Then you shall see and become radiant,
And your heart shall swell with joy;
Because the abundance of the sea shall be turned to you,
The wealth of the Gentiles shall come to you.
[6]The multitude of camels shall cover your land,
The dromedaries of Midian and Ephah;
All those from Sheba shall come;
They shall bring gold and incense,
And they shall proclaim the praises of the LORD.
[7]All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together to you,
The rams of Nebaioth shall minister to you;
They shall ascend with acceptance on My altar,
And I will glorify the house of My glory.

[8]“Who are these who fly like a cloud,
And like doves to their roosts?
[9]Surely the coastlands shall wait for Me;
And the ships of Tarshish will come first,

To bring your sons from afar,
Their silver and their gold with them,
To the name of the LORD your God,
And to the Holy One of Israel,
Because He has glorified you.

10“The sons of foreigners shall build up your walls,
And their kings shall minister to you;
For in My wrath I struck you,
But in My favor I have had mercy on you.
11Therefore your gates shall be open continually;
They shall not be shut day or night,
That men may bring to you the wealth of the Gentiles,
And their kings in procession.
12For the nation and kingdom which will not serve you shall perish,
And those nations shall be utterly ruined.

13“The glory of Lebanon shall come to you,
The cypress, the pine, and the box tree together,
To beautify the place of My sanctuary;
And I will make the place of My feet glorious.
14Also the sons of those who afflicted you
Shall come bowing to you,
And all those who despised you shall fall prostrate at the soles of your feet;
And they shall call you The City of the LORD,
Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

15“Whereas you have been forsaken and hated,
So that no one went through you,
I will make you an eternal excellence,
A joy of many generations.
16You shall drink the milk of the Gentiles,
And milk the breast of kings;
You shall know that I, the LORD, am your Savior
And your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

17“Instead of bronze I will bring gold,
Instead of iron I will bring silver,
Instead of wood, bronze,
And instead of stones, iron.
I will also make your officers peace,
And your magistrates righteousness.
[18]Violence shall no longer be heard in your land,
Neither wasting nor destruction within your borders;
But you shall call your walls Salvation,
And your gates Praise.

God the Glory of His People

19“The sun shall no longer be your light by day,
Nor for brightness shall the moon give light to you;
But the LORD will be to you an everlasting light,
And your God your glory.
[20]Your sun shall no longer go down,
Nor shall your moon withdraw itself;
For the LORD will be your everlasting light,
And the days of your mourning shall be ended.
[21]Also your people shall all be righteous;
They shall inherit the land forever,
The branch of My planting,
The work of My hands,
That I may be glorified.
[22]A little one shall become a thousand,
And a small one a strong nation.
I, the LORD, will hasten it in its time.”

Isaiah 61

The Good News of Salvation

[1]“The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon Me,
Because the LORD has anointed Me
To preach good tidings to the poor;
He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted,
To proclaim liberty to the captives,
And the opening of the prison to those who are bound;
[2]To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD,
And the day of vengeance of our God;
To comfort all who mourn,
[3]To console those who mourn in Zion,
To give them beauty for ashes,
The oil of joy for mourning,
The garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness;
That they may be called trees of righteousness,
The planting of the LORD, that He may be glorified.”

[4]And they shall rebuild the old ruins,
They shall raise up the former desolations,
And they shall repair the ruined cities,
The desolations of many generations.
[5]Strangers shall stand and feed your flocks,
And the sons of the foreigner
Shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers.
[6]But you shall be named the priests of the LORD,
They shall call you the servants of our God.
You shall eat the riches of the Gentiles,
And in their glory you shall boast.
[7]Instead of your shame you shall have double honor,
And instead of confusion they shall rejoice in their portion.
Therefore in their land they shall possess double;
Everlasting joy shall be theirs.

[8]"For I, the LORD, love justice;
I hate robbery for burnt offering;
I will direct their work in truth,
And will make with them an everlasting covenant.
[9]Their descendants shall be known among the Gentiles,
And their offspring among the people.
All who see them shall acknowledge them,
That they are the posterity whom the LORD has blessed."

[10]I will greatly rejoice in the LORD,
My soul shall be joyful in my God;
For He has clothed me with the garments of salvation,
He has covered me with the robe of righteousness,
As a bridegroom decks himself with ornaments,
And as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.
[11]For as the earth brings forth its bud,
As the garden causes the things that are sown in it to spring forth,
So the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

Isaiah 62

Assurance of Zion's Salvation

[1]For Zion's sake I will not hold My peace,
And for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest,
Until her righteousness goes forth as brightness,
And her salvation as a lamp that burns.
[2]The Gentiles shall see your righteousness,
And all kings your glory.
You shall be called by a new name,
Which the mouth of the LORD will name.
[3]You shall also be a crown of glory
In the hand of the LORD,
And a royal diadem
In the hand of your God.
[4]You shall no longer be termed Forsaken,
Nor shall your land any more be termed Desolate;
But you shall be called Hephzibah, and your land Beulah;
For the LORD delights in you,
And your land shall be married.
[5]For as a young man marries a virgin,
So shall your sons marry you;
And as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride,
So shall your God rejoice over you.

[6]I have set watchmen on your walls, O Jerusalem;
They shall never hold their peace day or night.
You who make mention of the LORD, do not keep silent,
[7]And give Him no rest till He establishes
And till He makes Jerusalem a praise in the earth.

[8]The LORD has sworn by His right hand
And by the arm of His strength:
"Surely I will no longer give your grain
As food for your enemies;

And the sons of the foreigner shall not drink your new wine,
For which you have labored.
[9]But those who have gathered it shall eat it,
And praise the LORD;
Those who have brought it together shall drink it in My holy courts.”

[10]Go through,
Go through the gates!
Prepare the way for the people;
Build up,
Build up the highway!
Take out the stones,
Lift up a banner for the peoples!

[11]Indeed the LORD has proclaimed
To the end of the world:
“Say to the daughter of Zion,
‘Surely your salvation is coming;
Behold, His reward is with Him,
And His work before Him.’ ”
[12]And they shall call them The Holy People,
The Redeemed of the LORD;
And you shall be called Sought Out,
A City Not Forsaken.

Isaiah 63

The LORD in Judgment and Salvation

[1]Who is this who comes from Edom,
With dyed garments from Bozrah,
This One who is glorious in His apparel,
Traveling in the greatness of His strength?—

“I who speak in righteousness, mighty to save.”

[2]Why is Your apparel red,
And Your garments like one who treads in the winepress?

[3]“I have trodden the winepress alone,
And from the peoples no one was with Me.
For I have trodden them in My anger,
And trampled them in My fury;
Their blood is sprinkled upon My garments,
And I have stained all My robes.
[4]For the day of vengeance is in My heart,
And the year of My redeemed has come.
[5]I looked, but there was no one to help,
And I wondered
That there was no one to uphold;
Therefore My own arm brought salvation for Me;
And My own fury, it sustained Me.
[6]I have trodden down the peoples in My anger,
Made them drunk in My fury,
And brought down their strength to the earth.”

God’s Mercy Remembered

[7]I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the LORD
And the praises of the LORD,
According to all that the LORD has bestowed on us,
And the great goodness toward the house of Israel,
Which He has bestowed on them according to His mercies,

According to the multitude of His lovingkindnesses.
[8]For He said, “Surely they are My people,
Children who will not lie.”
So He became their Savior.
[9]In all their affliction He was afflicted,
And the Angel of His Presence saved them;
In His love and in His pity He redeemed them;
And He bore them and carried them
All the days of old.
[10]But they rebelled and grieved His Holy Spirit;
So He turned Himself against them as an enemy,
And He fought against them.

11Then he remembered the days of old,
Moses and his people, saying:
“Where is He who brought them up out of the sea
With the shepherd of His flock?
Where is He who put His Holy Spirit within them,
[12]Who led them by the right hand of Moses,
With His glorious arm,
Dividing the water before them
To make for Himself an everlasting name,
[13]Who led them through the deep,
As a horse in the wilderness,
That they might not stumble?”

[14]As a beast goes down into the valley,
And the Spirit of the LORD causes him to rest,
So You lead Your people,
To make Yourself a glorious name.

A Prayer of Penitence

15Look down from heaven,
And see from Your habitation, holy and glorious.
Where are Your zeal and Your strength,
The yearning of Your heart and Your mercies toward me?
Are they restrained?

[16]Doubtless You are our Father,
Though Abraham was ignorant of us,
And Israel does not acknowledge us.
You, O LORD, are our Father;
Our Redeemer from Everlasting is Your name.
[17]O LORD, why have You made us stray from Your ways,
And hardened our heart from Your fear?
Return for Your servants' sake,
The tribes of Your inheritance.
[18]Your holy people have possessed it but a little while;
Our adversaries have trodden down Your sanctuary.
[19]We have become like those of old, over whom You never ruled,
Those who were never called by Your name.

Isaiah 64

[1]Oh, that You would rend the heavens!
That You would come down!
That the mountains might shake at Your presence—
[2]As fire burns brushwood,
As fire causes water to boil—
To make Your name known to Your adversaries,
That the nations may tremble at Your presence!
[3]When You did awesome things for which we did not look,
You came down,
The mountains shook at Your presence.
[4]For since the beginning of the world
Men have not heard nor perceived by the ear,
Nor has the eye seen any God besides You,
Who acts for the one who waits for Him.
[5]You meet him who rejoices and does righteousness,
Who remembers You in Your ways.
You are indeed angry, for we have sinned—
In these ways we continue;
And we need to be saved.

[6]But we are all like an unclean thing,
And all our righteousnesses are like filthy rags;
We all fade as a leaf,
And our iniquities, like the wind,
Have taken us away.
[7]And there is no one who calls on Your name,
Who stirs himself up to take hold of You;
For You have hidden Your face from us,
And have consumed us because of our iniquities.

[8]But now, O LORD,
You are our Father;
We are the clay, and You our potter;
And all we are the work of Your hand.

[9]Do not be furious, O LORD,
Nor remember iniquity forever;
Indeed, please look—we all are Your people!
[10]Your holy cities are a wilderness,
Zion is a wilderness,
Jerusalem a desolation.
[11]Our holy and beautiful temple,
Where our fathers praised You,
Is burned up with fire;
And all our pleasant things are laid waste.
[12]Will You restrain Yourself because of these things, O LORD?
Will You hold Your peace, and afflict us very severely?

Isaiah 65

The Righteousness of God's Judgment

[1]"I was sought by those who did not ask for Me;
I was found by those who did not seek Me.
I said, 'Here I am, here I am,'
To a nation that was not called by My name.
[2]I have stretched out My hands all day long to a rebellious people,
Who walk in a way that is not good,
According to their own thoughts;
[3]A people who provoke Me to anger continually to My face;
Who sacrifice in gardens,
And burn incense on altars of brick;
[4]Who sit among the graves,
And spend the night in the tombs;
Who eat swine's flesh,
And the broth of abominable things is in their vessels;
[5]Who say, 'Keep to yourself,
Do not come near me,
For I am holier than you!'
These are smoke in My nostrils,
A fire that burns all the day.

[6]"Behold, it is written before Me:
I will not keep silence, but will repay—
Even repay into their bosom—
[7]Your iniquities and the iniquities of your fathers together,"
Says the LORD,
"Who have burned incense on the mountains
And blasphemed Me on the hills;
Therefore I will measure their former work into their bosom."

[8]Thus says the LORD:

“As the new wine is found in the cluster,
And one says, ‘Do not destroy it,
For a blessing is in it,’
So will I do for My servants’ sake,
That I may not destroy them all.
[9]I will bring forth descendants from Jacob,
And from Judah an heir of My mountains;
My elect shall inherit it,
And My servants shall dwell there.
[10]Sharon shall be a fold of flocks,
And the Valley of Achor a place for herds to lie down,
For My people who have sought Me.

[11]“But you are those who forsake the LORD,
Who forget My holy mountain,
Who prepare a table for Gad,
And who furnish a drink offering for Meni.
[12]Therefore I will number you for the sword,
And you shall all bow down to the slaughter;
Because, when I called, you did not answer;
When I spoke, you did not hear,
But did evil before My eyes,
And chose that in which I do not delight.”

13Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

“Behold, My servants shall eat,
But you shall be hungry;
Behold, My servants shall drink,
But you shall be thirsty;
Behold, My servants shall rejoice,
But you shall be ashamed;
[14]Behold, My servants shall sing for joy of heart,
But you shall cry for sorrow of heart,
And wail for grief of spirit.
[15]You shall leave your name as a curse to My chosen;
For the Lord GOD will slay you,

And call His servants by another name;
[16]So that he who blesses himself in the earth
Shall bless himself in the God of truth;
And he who swears in the earth
Shall swear by the God of truth;
Because the former troubles are forgotten,
And because they are hidden from My eyes.

The Glorious New Creation

[17]"For behold, I create new heavens and a new earth;
And the former shall not be remembered or come to mind.
[18]But be glad and rejoice forever in what I create;
For behold, I create Jerusalem as a rejoicing,
And her people a joy.
[19]I will rejoice in Jerusalem,
And joy in My people;
The voice of weeping shall no longer be heard in her,
Nor the voice of crying.

[20]"No more shall an infant from there live but a few days,
Nor an old man who has not fulfilled his days;
For the child shall die one hundred years old,
But the sinner being one hundred years old shall be accursed.
[21]They shall build houses and inhabit them;
They shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit.
[22]They shall not build and another inhabit;
They shall not plant and another eat;
For as the days of a tree, so shall be the days of My people,
And My elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands.
[23]They shall not labor in vain,
Nor bring forth children for trouble;
For they shall be the descendants of the blessed of the LORD,
And their offspring with them.

[24]“It shall come to pass
That before they call, I will answer;
And while they are still speaking, I will hear.
[25]The wolf and the lamb shall feed together,
The lion shall eat straw like the ox,
And dust shall be the serpent’s food.
They shall not hurt nor destroy in all My holy mountain,”
Says the LORD.

Isaiah 66

True Worship and False

[1]Thus says the LORD:

“Heaven is My throne,
And earth is My footstool.
Where is the house that you will build Me?
And where is the place of My rest?
[2]For all those things My hand has made,
And all those things exist,”
Says the LORD.
“But on this one will I look:
On him who is poor and of a contrite spirit,
And who trembles at My word.

[3]“He who kills a bull is as if he slays a man;
He who sacrifices a lamb, as if he breaks a dog’s neck;
He who offers a grain offering, as if he offers swine’s blood;
He who burns incense, as if he blesses an idol.
Just as they have chosen their own ways,
And their soul delights in their abominations,
[4]So will I choose their delusions,
And bring their fears on them;
Because, when I called, no one answered,
When I spoke they did not hear;
But they did evil before My eyes,
And chose that in which I do not delight.”

The LORD Vindicates Zion

[5]Hear the word of the LORD,
You who tremble at His word:
“Your brethren who hated you,
Who cast you out for My name’s sake, said,
‘Let the LORD be glorified,

That we may see your joy.’
But they shall be ashamed.”

[6]The sound of noise from the city!
A voice from the temple!
The voice of the LORD,
Who fully repays His enemies!

[7]“Before she was in labor, she gave birth;
Before her pain came,
She delivered a male child.
[8]Who has heard such a thing?
Who has seen such things?
Shall the earth be made to give birth in one day?
Or shall a nation be born at once?
For as soon as Zion was in labor,
She gave birth to her children.
[9]Shall I bring to the time of birth, and not cause delivery?”
says the LORD.
“Shall I who cause delivery shut up the womb?” says your God.
10“Rejoice with Jerusalem,
And be glad with her, all you who love her;
Rejoice for joy with her, all you who mourn for her;
[11]That you may feed and be satisfied
With the consolation of her bosom,
That you may drink deeply and be delighted
With the abundance of her glory.”

12For thus says the LORD:

“Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river,
And the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream.
Then you shall feed;
On her sides shall you be carried,
And be dandled on her knees.
[13]As one whom his mother comforts,

So I will comfort you;
And you shall be comforted in Jerusalem."

The Reign and Indignation of God

14When you see this, your heart shall rejoice,
And your bones shall flourish like grass;
The hand of the LORD shall be known to His servants,
And His indignation to His enemies.
15For behold, the LORD will come with fire
And with His chariots, like a whirlwind,
To render His anger with fury,
And His rebuke with flames of fire.
16For by fire and by His sword
The LORD will judge all flesh;
And the slain of the LORD shall be many.

17"Those who sanctify themselves and purify themselves,
To go to the gardens
After an idol in the midst,
Eating swine's flesh and the abomination and the mouse,
Shall be consumed together," says the LORD.

18"For I know their works and their thoughts. It shall be that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come and see My glory.

19"I will set a sign among them; and those among them who escape I will send to the nations: to Tarshish and Pul and Lud, who draw the bow, and Tubal and Javan, to the coastlands afar off who have not heard My fame nor seen My glory. And they shall declare My glory among the Gentiles.

20"Then they shall bring all your brethren for an offering to the LORD out of all nations, on horses and in chariots and in litters, on mules and on camels, to My holy mountain Jerusalem," says the LORD, "as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD.

21"And I will also take some of them for priests and Levites," says the LORD.

22“For as the new heavens and the new earth
Which I will make shall remain before Me,” says the LORD,
“So shall your descendants and your name remain.
[23]And it shall come to pass
That from one New Moon to another,
And from one Sabbath to another,
All flesh shall come to worship before Me,” says the LORD.

[24]“And they shall go forth and look
Upon the corpses of the men
Who have transgressed against Me.
For their worm does not die,
And their fire is not quenched.
They shall be an abhorrence to all flesh.”

The Book of

Jeremiah

Jeremiah 1

[1]The words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests who were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin,

[2]to whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign.

[3]It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, until the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah, king of Judah, until the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month.

The Prophet Is Called

[4]Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying:

[5]"Before I formed you in the womb I knew you;
Before you were born I sanctified you;
I ordained you a prophet to the nations."

[6]Then said I:

"Ah, Lord GOD!
Behold, I cannot speak, for I am a youth."

[7]But the LORD said to me:

"Do not say, 'I am a youth,'
For you shall go to all to whom I send you,
And whatever I command you, you shall speak.
[8]Do not be afraid of their faces,
For I am with you to deliver you," says the LORD.

[9]Then the LORD put forth His hand and touched my mouth, and the LORD said to me:

"Behold, I have put My words in your mouth.
[10]See, I have this day set you over the nations and over the kingdoms,

To root out and to pull down,
To destroy and to throw down,
To build and to plant.”

11Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, “Jeremiah, what do you see?” And I said, “I see a branch of an almond tree.”

12Then the LORD said to me, “You have seen well, for I am ready to perform My word.”

13And the word of the LORD came to me the second time, saying, “What do you see?” And I said, “I see a boiling pot, and it is facing away from the north.”

14Then the LORD said to me:

“Out of the north calamity shall break forth
On all the inhabitants of the land.
15For behold, I am calling
All the families of the kingdoms of the north,” says the LORD;
“They shall come and each one set his throne
At the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem,
Against all its walls all around,
And against all the cities of Judah.
16I will utter My judgments
Against them concerning all their wickedness,
Because they have forsaken Me,
Burned incense to other gods,
And worshiped the works of their own hands.

17“Therefore prepare yourself and arise,
And speak to them all that I command you.
Do not be dismayed before their faces,
Lest I dismay you before them.
18For behold, I have made you this day
A fortified city and an iron pillar,
And bronze walls against the whole land—
Against the kings of Judah,
Against its princes,

Against its priests,
And against the people of the land.
[19]They will fight against you,
But they shall not prevail against you.
For I am with you,” says the LORD, “to deliver you.”

Jeremiah 2

God's Case Against Israel

[1]Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

[2]"Go and cry in the hearing of Jerusalem, saying, 'Thus says the LORD:

"I remember you,
The kindness of your youth,
The love of your betrothal,
When you went after Me in the wilderness,
In a land not sown.
[3]Israel was holiness to the LORD,
The firstfruits of His increase.
All that devour him will offend;
Disaster will come upon them," says the LORD.' "

[4]Hear the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob and all the families of the house of Israel.

[5]Thus says the LORD:

"What injustice have your fathers found in Me,
That they have gone far from Me,
Have followed idols,
And have become idolaters?
[6]Neither did they say, 'Where is the LORD,
Who brought us up out of the land of Egypt,
Who led us through the wilderness,
Through a land of deserts and pits,
Through a land of drought and the shadow of death,
Through a land that no one crossed
And where no one dwelt?'
[7]I brought you into a bountiful country,
To eat its fruit and its goodness.
But when you entered, you defiled My land
And made My heritage an abomination.

[8]The priests did not say, ‘Where is the LORD?’
And those who handle the law did not know Me;
The rulers also transgressed against Me;
The prophets prophesied by Baal,
And walked after things that do not profit.

[9]“Therefore I will yet bring charges against you,” says the LORD,
“And against your children’s children I will bring charges.
[10]For pass beyond the coasts of Cyprus and see,
Send to Kedar and consider diligently,
And see if there has been such a thing.
[11]Has a nation changed its gods,
Which are not gods?
But My people have changed their Glory
For what does not profit.
[12]Be astonished, O heavens, at this,
And be horribly afraid;
Be very desolate,” says the LORD.
[13]“For My people have committed two evils:
They have forsaken Me, the fountain of living waters,
And hewn themselves cisterns—broken cisterns that can hold no water.

[14]“Is Israel a servant?
Is he a homeborn slave?
Why is he plundered?
[15]The young lions roared at him, and growled;
They made his land waste;
His cities are burned, without inhabitant.
[16]Also the people of Noph and Tahpanhes
Have broken the crown of your head.
[17]Have you not brought this on yourself,
In that you have forsaken the LORD your God
When He led you in the way?
[18]And now why take the road to Egypt,

To drink the waters of Sihor?
Or why take the road to Assyria,
To drink the waters of the River?
[19]Your own wickedness will correct you,
And your backslidings will rebuke you.
Know therefore and see that it is an evil and bitter thing
That you have forsaken the LORD your God,
And the fear of Me is not in you,"
Says the Lord GOD of hosts.

[20]"For of old I have broken your yoke and burst your bonds;
And you said, 'I will not transgress,'
When on every high hill and under every green tree
You lay down, playing the harlot.
[21]Yet I had planted you a noble vine, a seed of highest quality.
How then have you turned before Me
Into the degenerate plant of an alien vine?
[22]For though you wash yourself with lye, and use much soap,
Yet your iniquity is marked before Me," says the Lord GOD.

[23]"How can you say, 'I am not polluted,
I have not gone after the Baals'?
See your way in the valley;
Know what you have done:
You are a swift dromedary breaking loose in her ways,
[24]A wild donkey used to the wilderness,
That sniffs at the wind in her desire;
In her time of mating, who can turn her away?
All those who seek her will not weary themselves;
In her month they will find her.
[25]Withhold your foot from being unshod, and your throat from thirst.
But you said, 'There is no hope.
No! For I have loved aliens, and after them I will go.'

[26]“As the thief is ashamed when he is found out,
So is the house of Israel ashamed;
They and their kings and their princes, and their priests and their prophets,
[27]Saying to a tree, ‘You are my father,’
And to a stone, ‘You gave birth to me.’
For they have turned their back to Me, and not their face.
But in the time of their trouble
They will say, ‘Arise and save us.’
[28]But where are your gods that you have made for yourselves?
Let them arise,
If they can save you in the time of your trouble;
For according to the number of your cities
Are your gods, O Judah.

[29]“Why will you plead with Me?
You all have transgressed against Me,” says the LORD.
[30]“In vain I have chastened your children;
They received no correction.
Your sword has devoured your prophets
Like a destroying lion.

[31]“O generation, see the word of the LORD!
Have I been a wilderness to Israel,
Or a land of darkness?
Why do My people say, ‘We are lords;
We will come no more to You’?
[32]Can a virgin forget her ornaments,
Or a bride her attire?
Yet My people have forgotten Me days without number.

[33]“Why do you beautify your way to seek love?
Therefore you have also taught
The wicked women your ways.
[34]Also on your skirts is found
The blood of the lives of the poor innocents.

I have not found it by secret search,
But plainly on all these things.
[35]Yet you say, ‘Because I am innocent,
Surely His anger shall turn from me.’
Behold, I will plead My case against you,
Because you say, ‘I have not sinned.’
[36]Why do you gad about so much to change your way?
Also you shall be ashamed of Egypt as you were ashamed of Assyria.
[37]Indeed you will go forth from him
With your hands on your head;
For the LORD has rejected your trusted allies,
And you will not prosper by them.

Jeremiah 3

Israel Is Shameless

[1]“They say, ‘If a man divorces his wife,
And she goes from him
And becomes another man’s,
May he return to her again?’
Would not that land be greatly polluted?
But you have played the harlot with many lovers;
Yet return to Me,” says the LORD.

[2]“Lift up your eyes to the desolate heights and see:
Where have you not lain with men?
By the road you have sat for them
Like an Arabian in the wilderness;
And you have polluted the land
With your harlotries and your wickedness.
[3]Therefore the showers have been withheld,
And there has been no latter rain.
You have had a harlot’s forehead;
You refuse to be ashamed.
[4]Will you not from this time cry to Me,
‘My Father, You are the guide of my youth?
[5]Will He remain angry forever?
Will He keep it to the end?’
Behold, you have spoken and done evil things,
As you were able.”

A Call to Repentance

[6]The LORD said also to me in the days of Josiah the king: “Have you seen what backsliding Israel has done? She has gone up on every high mountain and under every green tree, and there played the harlot.

[7]“And I said, after she had done all these things, ‘Return to Me.’ But she did not return. And her treacherous sister Judah saw it.

[8]“Then I saw that for all the causes for which backsliding Israel had committed adultery, I had put her away and given her a certificate of divorce; yet her treacherous sister Judah did not fear, but went and played the harlot also.

[9]“So it came to pass, through her casual harlotry, that she defiled the land and committed adultery with stones and trees.

[10]“And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah has not turned to Me with her whole heart, but in pretense,” says the LORD.

[11]Then the LORD said to me, “Backsliding Israel has shown herself more righteous than treacherous Judah.

[12]“Go and proclaim these words toward the north, and say:

‘Return, backsliding Israel,’ says the LORD;
‘I will not cause My anger to fall on you.
For I am merciful,’ says the LORD;
‘I will not remain angry forever.
[13]Only acknowledge your iniquity,
That you have transgressed against the LORD your God,
And have scattered your charms
To alien deities under every green tree,
And you have not obeyed My voice,’ says the LORD.

[14]“Return, O backsliding children,” says the LORD; “for I am married to you. I will take you, one from a city and two from a family, and I will bring you to Zion.

[15]“And I will give you shepherds according to My heart, who will feed you with knowledge and understanding.

[16]“Then it shall come to pass, when you are multiplied and increased in the land in those days,” says the LORD, “that they will say no more, ‘The ark of the covenant of the LORD.’ It shall not come to mind, nor shall they remember it, nor shall they visit it, nor shall it be made anymore.

[17]“At that time Jerusalem shall be called The Throne of the LORD, and all the nations shall be gathered to it, to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem. No more shall they follow the dictates of their evil hearts.

[18]“In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I have given as an inheritance to your fathers.

[19]“But I said:

‘How can I put you among the children
And give you a pleasant land,
A beautiful heritage of the hosts of nations?’

“And I said:

‘You shall call Me, “My Father,”
And not turn away from Me.’
[20]Surely, as a wife treacherously departs from her husband,
So have you dealt treacherously with Me,
O house of Israel,” says the LORD.

[21]A voice was heard on the desolate heights,
Weeping and supplications of the children of Israel.
For they have perverted their way;
They have forgotten the LORD their God.

[22]“Return, you backsliding children,
And I will heal your backslidings.”

“Indeed we do come to You,
For You are the LORD our God.
[23]Truly, in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills,
And from the multitude of mountains;
Truly, in the LORD our God
Is the salvation of Israel.
[24]For shame has devoured
The labor of our fathers from our youth—
Their flocks and their herds,
Their sons and their daughters.
[25]We lie down in our shame,
And our reproach covers us.
For we have sinned against the LORD our God,

We and our fathers,
From our youth even to this day,
And have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.”

Jeremiah 4

[1]“If you will return, O Israel,” says the LORD,
“Return to Me;
And if you will put away your abominations out of My sight,
Then you shall not be moved.
[2]And you shall swear, ‘The LORD lives,’
In truth, in judgment, and in righteousness;
The nations shall bless themselves in Him,
And in Him they shall glory.”

[3]For thus says the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem:

“Break up your fallow ground,
And do not sow among thorns.
[4]Circumcise yourselves to the LORD,
And take away the foreskins of your hearts,
You men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem,
Lest My fury come forth like fire,
And burn so that no one can quench it,
Because of the evil of your doings.”

An Imminent Invasion

[5]Declare in Judah and proclaim in Jerusalem, and say:

“Blow the trumpet in the land;
Cry, ‘Gather together,’
And say, ‘Assemble yourselves,
And let us go into the fortified cities.’
[6]Set up the standard toward Zion.
Take refuge! Do not delay!
For I will bring disaster from the north,
And great destruction.”

[7]The lion has come up from his thicket,

And the destroyer of nations is on his way.
He has gone forth from his place
To make your land desolate.
Your cities will be laid waste,
Without inhabitant.
[8]For this, clothe yourself with sackcloth,
Lament and wail.
For the fierce anger of the LORD
Has not turned back from us.

[9]"And it shall come to pass in that day," says the LORD,
"That the heart of the king shall perish,
And the heart of the princes;
The priests shall be astonished,
And the prophets shall wonder."

[10]Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD!
Surely You have greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem,
Saying, 'You shall have peace,'
Whereas the sword reaches to the heart."

[11]At that time it will be said
To this people and to Jerusalem,
"A dry wind of the desolate heights blows in the wilderness
Toward the daughter of My people—
Not to fan or to cleanse—
[12]A wind too strong for these will come for Me;
Now I will also speak judgment against them."

[13]"Behold, he shall come up like clouds,
And his chariots like a whirlwind.
His horses are swifter than eagles.
Woe to us, for we are plundered!"

[14]O Jerusalem, wash your heart from wickedness,
That you may be saved.
How long shall your evil thoughts lodge within you?
[15]For a voice declares from Dan

And proclaims affliction from Mount Ephraim:
[16]"Make mention to the nations,
Yes, proclaim against Jerusalem,
That watchers come from a far country
And raise their voice against the cities of Judah.
[17]Like keepers of a field they are against her all around,
Because she has been rebellious against Me," says the LORD.
[18]"Your ways and your doings
Have procured these things for you.
This is your wickedness,
Because it is bitter,
Because it reaches to your heart."

Sorrow for the Doomed Nation

[19]O my soul, my soul!
I am pained in my very heart!
My heart makes a noise in me;
I cannot hold my peace,
Because you have heard, O my soul,
The sound of the trumpet,
The alarm of war.
[20]Destruction upon destruction is cried,
For the whole land is plundered.
Suddenly my tents are plundered,
And my curtains in a moment.
[21]How long will I see the standard,
And hear the sound of the trumpet?

[22]"For My people are foolish,
They have not known Me.
They are silly children,
And they have no understanding.
They are wise to do evil,
But to do good they have no knowledge."

23I beheld the earth, and indeed it was without form, and void;
And the heavens, they had no light.
24I beheld the mountains, and indeed they trembled,
And all the hills moved back and forth.
25I beheld, and indeed there was no man,
And all the birds of the heavens had fled.
26I beheld, and indeed the fruitful land was a wilderness,
And all its cities were broken down
At the presence of the LORD,
By His fierce anger.

27For thus says the LORD:

"The whole land shall be desolate;
Yet I will not make a full end.
28For this shall the earth mourn,
And the heavens above be black,
Because I have spoken.
I have purposed and will not relent,
Nor will I turn back from it.
29The whole city shall flee from the noise of the horsemen and bowmen.
They shall go into thickets and climb up on the rocks.
Every city shall be forsaken,
And not a man shall dwell in it.

30"And when you are plundered,
What will you do?
Though you clothe yourself with crimson,
Though you adorn yourself with ornaments of gold,
Though you enlarge your eyes with paint,
In vain you will make yourself fair;
Your lovers will despise you;
They will seek your life.

31"For I have heard a voice as of a woman in labor,

The anguish as of her who brings forth her first child,
The voice of the daughter of Zion bewailing herself;
She spreads her hands, saying,
‘Woe is me now, for my soul is weary
Because of murderers!’

Jeremiah 5

The Justice of God's Judgment

[1]"Run to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem;
See now and know;
And seek in her open places
If you can find a man,
If there is anyone who executes judgment,
Who seeks the truth,
And I will pardon her.
[2]Though they say, 'As the LORD lives,'
Surely they swear falsely."

[3]O LORD, are not Your eyes on the truth?
You have stricken them,
But they have not grieved;
You have consumed them,
But they have refused to receive correction.
They have made their faces harder than rock;
They have refused to return.

[4]Therefore I said, "Surely these are poor.
They are foolish;
For they do not know the way of the LORD,
The judgment of their God.
[5]I will go to the great men and speak to them,
For they have known the way of the LORD,
The judgment of their God."

But these have altogether broken the yoke
And burst the bonds.
[6]Therefore a lion from the forest shall slay them,
A wolf of the deserts shall destroy them;
A leopard will watch over their cities.
Everyone who goes out from there shall be torn in pieces,
Because their transgressions are many;

Their backslidings have increased.

7“How shall I pardon you for this?
Your children have forsaken Me
And sworn by those that are not gods.
When I had fed them to the full,
Then they committed adultery
And assembled themselves by troops in the harlots’ houses.
8They were like well-fed lusty stallions;
Every one neighed after his neighbor’s wife.
9Shall I not punish them for these things?” says the LORD.
“And shall I not avenge Myself on such a nation as this?

10“Go up on her walls and destroy,
But do not make a complete end.
Take away her branches,
For they are not the LORD’s.
11For the house of Israel and the house of Judah
Have dealt very treacherously with Me,” says the LORD.

12They have lied about the LORD,
And said, “It is not He.
Neither will evil come upon us,
Nor shall we see sword or famine.
13And the prophets become wind,
For the word is not in them.
Thus shall it be done to them.”

14Therefore thus says the LORD God of hosts:

“Because you speak this word,
Behold, I will make My words in your mouth fire,
And this people wood,
And it shall devour them.
15Behold, I will bring a nation against you from afar,
O house of Israel,” says the LORD.
“It is a mighty nation,
It is an ancient nation,

A nation whose language you do not know,
Nor can you understand what they say.
[16]Their quiver is like an open tomb;
They are all mighty men.
[17]And they shall eat up your harvest and your bread,
Which your sons and daughters should eat.
They shall eat up your flocks and your herds;
They shall eat up your vines and your fig trees;
They shall destroy your fortified cities,
In which you trust, with the sword.

18"Nevertheless in those days," says the LORD, "I will not make a complete end of you.

[19]"And it will be when you say, 'Why does the LORD our God do all these things to us?' then you shall answer them, 'Just as you have forsaken Me and served foreign gods in your land, so you shall serve aliens in a land that is not yours.'

20"Declare this in the house of Jacob
And proclaim it in Judah, saying,
[21]'Hear this now, O foolish people,
Without understanding,
Who have eyes and see not,
And who have ears and hear not:
[22]Do you not fear Me?' says the LORD.
'Will you not tremble at My presence,
Who have placed the sand as the bound of the sea,
By a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass beyond it?
And though its waves toss to and fro,
Yet they cannot prevail;
Though they roar, yet they cannot pass over it.
[23]But this people has a defiant and rebellious heart;
They have revolted and departed.
[24]They do not say in their heart,
"Let us now fear the LORD our God,
Who gives rain, both the former and the latter, in its season.
He reserves for us the appointed weeks of the harvest."

[25]Your iniquities have turned these things away,
And your sins have withheld good from you.

[26]‘For among My people are found wicked men;
They lie in wait as one who sets snares;
They set a trap;
They catch men.
[27]As a cage is full of birds,
So their houses are full of deceit.
Therefore they have become great and grown rich.
[28]They have grown fat, they are sleek;
Yes, they surpass the deeds of the wicked;
They do not plead the cause,
The cause of the fatherless;
Yet they prosper,
And the right of the needy they do not defend.
[29]Shall I not punish them for these things?’ says the LORD.
‘Shall I not avenge Myself on such a nation as this?’

[30]“An astonishing and horrible thing
Has been committed in the land:
[31]The prophets prophesy falsely,
And the priests rule by their own power;
And My people love to have it so.
But what will you do in the end?

Jeremiah 6

Impending Destruction from the North

[1]"O you children of Benjamin,
Gather yourselves to flee from the midst of Jerusalem!
Blow the trumpet in Tekoa,
And set up a signal-fire in Beth Haccerem;
For disaster appears out of the north,
And great destruction.
[2]I have likened the daughter of Zion
To a lovely and delicate woman.
[3]The shepherds with their flocks shall come to her.
They shall pitch their tents against her all around.
Each one shall pasture in his own place."

[4]"Prepare war against her;
Arise, and let us go up at noon.
Woe to us, for the day goes away,
For the shadows of the evening are lengthening.
[5]Arise, and let us go by night,
And let us destroy her palaces."

6For thus has the LORD of hosts said:

"Cut down trees,
And build a mound against Jerusalem.
This is the city to be punished.
She is full of oppression in her midst.
[7]As a fountain wells up with water,
So she wells up with her wickedness.
Violence and plundering are heard in her.
Before Me continually are grief and wounds.
[8]Be instructed, O Jerusalem,
Lest My soul depart from you;
Lest I make you desolate,
A land not inhabited."

9Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"They shall thoroughly glean as a vine the remnant of Israel;
As a grape-gatherer, put your hand back into the branches."

10To whom shall I speak and give warning,
That they may hear?
Indeed their ear is uncircumcised,
And they cannot give heed.
Behold, the word of the LORD is a reproach to them;
They have no delight in it.
11Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD.
I am weary of holding it in.
"I will pour it out on the children outside,
And on the assembly of young men together;
For even the husband shall be taken with the wife,
The aged with him who is full of days.
12And their houses shall be turned over to others,
Fields and wives together;
For I will stretch out My hand
Against the inhabitants of the land," says the LORD.
13"Because from the least of them even to the greatest of them,
Everyone is given to covetousness;
And from the prophet even to the priest,
Everyone deals falsely.
14They have also healed the hurt of My people slightly,
Saying, 'Peace, peace!'
When there is no peace.
15Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination?
No! They were not at all ashamed;
Nor did they know how to blush.
Therefore they shall fall among those who fall;
At the time I punish them,
They shall be cast down," says the LORD.

16Thus says the LORD:

“Stand in the ways and see,
And ask for the old paths, where the good way is,
And walk in it;
Then you will find rest for your souls.
But they said, ‘We will not walk in it.’
17Also, I set watchmen over you, saying,
‘Listen to the sound of the trumpet!’
But they said, ‘We will not listen.’
18Therefore hear, you nations,
And know, O congregation, what is among them.
19Hear, O earth!
Behold, I will certainly bring calamity on this people—
The fruit of their thoughts,
Because they have not heeded My words
Nor My law, but rejected it.
20For what purpose to Me
Comes frankincense from Sheba,
And sweet cane from a far country?
Your burnt offerings are not acceptable,
Nor your sacrifices sweet to Me.”

21Therefore thus says the LORD:

“Behold, I will lay stumbling blocks before this people,
And the fathers and the sons together shall fall on them.
The neighbor and his friend shall perish.”

22Thus says the LORD:

“Behold, a people comes from the north country,
And a great nation will be raised from the farthest parts of the earth.
23They will lay hold on bow and spear;
They are cruel and have no mercy;
Their voice roars like the sea;
And they ride on horses,

As men of war set in array against you, O daughter of Zion."

[24]We have heard the report of it;
Our hands grow feeble.
Anguish has taken hold of us,
Pain as of a woman in labor.
[25]Do not go out into the field,
Nor walk by the way.
Because of the sword of the enemy,
Fear is on every side.
[26]O daughter of my people,
Dress in sackcloth
And roll about in ashes!
Make mourning as for an only son, most bitter lamentation;
For the plunderer will suddenly come upon us.

[27]"I have set you as an assayer and a fortress among My people,
That you may know and test their way.
[28]They are all stubborn rebels, walking as slanderers.
They are bronze and iron,
They are all corrupters;
[29]The bellows blow fiercely,
The lead is consumed by the fire;
The smelter refines in vain,
For the wicked are not drawn off.
[30]People will call them rejected silver,
Because the LORD has rejected them."

Jeremiah 7

Trusting in Lying Words

[1]The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

[2]"Stand in the gate of the LORD's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, all you of Judah who enter in at these gates to worship the LORD!' "

[3]Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place.

[4]"Do not trust in these lying words, saying, 'The temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD are these.'

[5]"For if you thoroughly amend your ways and your doings, if you thoroughly execute judgment between a man and his neighbor,

[6]"if you do not oppress the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and do not shed innocent blood in this place, or walk after other gods to your hurt,

[7]"then I will cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers forever and ever.

[8]"Behold, you trust in lying words that cannot profit.

[9]"Will you steal, murder, commit adultery, swear falsely, burn incense to Baal, and walk after other gods whom you do not know,

[10]"and then come and stand before Me in this house which is called by My name, and say, 'We are delivered to do all these abominations'?

[11]"Has this house, which is called by My name, become a den of thieves in your eyes? Behold, I, even I, have seen it," says the LORD.

[12]"But go now to My place which was in Shiloh, where I set My name at the first, and see what I did to it because of the wickedness of My people Israel.

[13]"And now, because you have done all these works," says the LORD, "and I spoke to you, rising up early and speaking, but you did not hear, and I called you, but you did not answer, [14]"therefore I will do to the house which is called by My name, in which you trust, and to this place which I gave to you and your fathers, as I have done to Shiloh.

[15]“And I will cast you out of My sight, as I have cast out all your brethren—the whole posterity of Ephraim.

16“Therefore do not pray for this people, nor lift up a cry or prayer for them, nor make intercession to Me; for I will not hear you.

[17]“Do you not see what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

[18]“The children gather wood, the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead dough, to make cakes for the queen of heaven; and they pour out drink offerings to other gods, that they may provoke Me to anger.

[19]“Do they provoke Me to anger?” says the LORD. “Do they not provoke themselves, to the shame of their own faces?”

[20]Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: “Behold, My anger and My fury will be poured out on this place—on man and on beast, on the trees of the field and on the fruit of the ground. And it will burn and not be quenched.”

21Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices and eat meat.

[22]“For I did not speak to your fathers, or command them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices.

[23]“But this is what I commanded them, saying, ‘Obey My voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be My people. And walk in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well with you.’

[24]“Yet they did not obey or incline their ear, but followed the counsels and the dictates of their evil hearts, and went backward and not forward.

[25]“Since the day that your fathers came out of the land of Egypt until this day, I have even sent to you all My servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them.

[26]“Yet they did not obey Me or incline their ear, but stiffened their neck. They did worse than their fathers.

27“Therefore you shall speak all these words to them, but they will not obey you. You shall also call to them, but they will not answer you.

Judgment on Obscene Religion

28“So you shall say to them, ‘This is a nation that does not obey the voice of the LORD their God nor receive correction. Truth has perished and has been cut off from their mouth.

29‘Cut off your hair and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on the desolate heights; for the LORD has rejected and forsaken the generation of His wrath.’

30“For the children of Judah have done evil in My sight,” says the LORD. “They have set their abominations in the house which is called by My name, to pollute it.

31“And they have built the high places of Tophet, which is in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire, which I did not command, nor did it come into My heart.

32“Therefore behold, the days are coming,” says the LORD, “when it will no more be called Tophet, or the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter; for they will bury in Tophet until there is no room.

33“The corpses of this people will be food for the birds of the heaven and for the beasts of the earth. And no one will frighten them away.

34“Then I will cause to cease from the cities of Judah and from the streets of Jerusalem the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride. For the land shall be desolate.

Jeremiah 8

[1]"At that time," says the LORD, "they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of its princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves.

[2]"They shall spread them before the sun and the moon and all the host of heaven, which they have loved and which they have served and after which they have walked, which they have sought and which they have worshiped. They shall not be gathered nor buried; they shall be like refuse on the face of the earth.

[3]"Then death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue of those who remain of this evil family, who remain in all the places where I have driven them," says the LORD of hosts.

The Peril of False Teaching

4"Moreover you shall say to them, 'Thus says the LORD:

"Will they fall and not rise?
Will one turn away and not return?
[5]Why has this people slidden back,
Jerusalem, in a perpetual backsliding?
They hold fast to deceit,
They refuse to return.
[6]I listened and heard,
But they do not speak aright.
No man repented of his wickedness,
Saying, 'What have I done?'
Everyone turned to his own course,
As the horse rushes into the battle.

[7]"Even the stork in the heavens
Knows her appointed times;
And the turtledove, the swift, and the swallow
Observe the time of their coming.
But My people do not know the judgment of the LORD.

8“How can you say, ‘We are wise,
And the law of the LORD is with us’?
Look, the false pen of the scribe certainly works falsehood.
[9]The wise men are ashamed,
They are dismayed and taken.
Behold, they have rejected the word of the LORD;
So what wisdom do they have?
[10]Therefore I will give their wives to others,
And their fields to those who will inherit them;
Because from the least even to the greatest
Everyone is given to covetousness;
From the prophet even to the priest
Everyone deals falsely.
[11]For they have healed the hurt of the daughter of My people slightly,
Saying, ‘Peace, peace!’
When there is no peace.
[12]Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination?
No! They were not at all ashamed,
Nor did they know how to blush.
Therefore they shall fall among those who fall;
In the time of their punishment
They shall be cast down,” says the LORD.

13“I will surely consume them,” says the LORD.
“No grapes shall be on the vine,
Nor figs on the fig tree,
And the leaf shall fade;
And the things I have given them shall pass away from them.” ’ ”

[14]“Why do we sit still?
Assemble yourselves,
And let us enter the fortified cities,
And let us be silent there.
For the LORD our God has put us to silence

And given us water of gall to drink,
Because we have sinned against the LORD.

[15]“We looked for peace, but no good came;
And for a time of health, and there was trouble!
[16]The snorting of His horses was heard from Dan.
The whole land trembled at the sound of the neighing of His strong ones;
For they have come and devoured the land and all that is in it,
The city and those who dwell in it.”

[17]“For behold, I will send serpents among you,
Vipers which cannot be charmed,
And they shall bite you,” says the LORD.

The Prophet Mourns for the People

[18]I would comfort myself in sorrow;
My heart is faint in me.
[19]Listen! The voice,
The cry of the daughter of my people
From a far country:
“Is not the LORD in Zion?
Is not her King in her?”

“Why have they provoked Me to anger
With their carved images—
With foreign idols?”

[20]“The harvest is past,
The summer is ended,
And we are not saved!”

[21]For the hurt of the daughter of my people I am hurt.
I am mourning;
Astonishment has taken hold of me.
[22]Is there no balm in Gilead,
Is there no physician there?

Why then is there no recovery
For the health of the daughter of my people?

Jeremiah 9

[1]Oh, that my head were waters,
And my eyes a fountain of tears,
That I might weep day and night
For the slain of the daughter of my people!
[2]Oh, that I had in the wilderness
A lodging place for travelers;
That I might leave my people,
And go from them!
For they are all adulterers,
An assembly of treacherous men.

[3]"And like their bow they have bent their tongues for lies.
They are not valiant for the truth on the earth.
For they proceed from evil to evil,
And they do not know Me," says the LORD.
[4]"Everyone take heed to his neighbor,
And do not trust any brother;
For every brother will utterly supplant,
And every neighbor will walk with slanderers.
[5]Everyone will deceive his neighbor,
And will not speak the truth;
They have taught their tongue to speak lies;
They weary themselves to commit iniquity.
[6]Your dwelling place is in the midst of deceit;
Through deceit they refuse to know Me," says the LORD.

[7]Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts:

"Behold, I will refine them and try them;
For how shall I deal with the daughter of My people?
[8]Their tongue is an arrow shot out;
It speaks deceit;
One speaks peaceably to his neighbor with his mouth,
But in his heart he lies in wait.

[9]Shall I not punish them for these things?" says the LORD.
"Shall I not avenge Myself on such a nation as this?"

[10]I will take up a weeping and wailing for the mountains,
And for the dwelling places of the wilderness a lamentation,
Because they are burned up,
So that no one can pass through;
Nor can men hear the voice of the cattle.
Both the birds of the heavens and the beasts have fled;
They are gone.

[11]"I will make Jerusalem a heap of ruins, a den of jackals.
I will make the cities of Judah desolate, without an inhabitant."

[12]Who is the wise man who may understand this? And who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD has spoken, that he may declare it? Why does the land perish and burn up like a wilderness, so that no one can pass through?

[13]And the LORD said, "Because they have forsaken My law which I set before them, and have not obeyed My voice, nor walked according to it,

[14]"but they have walked according to the dictates of their own hearts and after the Baals, which their fathers taught them,"

[15]therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, I will feed them, this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink.

[16]"I will scatter them also among the Gentiles, whom neither they nor their fathers have known. And I will send a sword after them until I have consumed them."

The People Mourn in Judgment

[17]Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"Consider and call for the mourning women,
That they may come;
And send for skillful wailing women,
That they may come.

[18]Let them make haste
And take up a wailing for us,
That our eyes may run with tears,
And our eyelids gush with water.
[19]For a voice of wailing is heard from Zion:
'How we are plundered!
We are greatly ashamed,
Because we have forsaken the land,
Because we have been cast out of our dwellings.' "

[20]Yet hear the word of the LORD, O women,
And let your ear receive the word of His mouth;
Teach your daughters wailing,
And everyone her neighbor a lamentation.
[21]For death has come through our windows,
Has entered our palaces,
To kill off the children—no longer to be outside!
And the young men—no longer on the streets!

[22]Speak, "Thus says the LORD:

'Even the carcasses of men shall fall as refuse on the open field,
Like cuttings after the harvester,
And no one shall gather them.' "

[23]Thus says the LORD:

"Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom,
Let not the mighty man glory in his might,
Nor let the rich man glory in his riches;
[24]But let him who glories glory in this,
That he understands and knows Me,
That I am the LORD, exercising lovingkindness, judgment, and righteousness in the earth.
For in these I delight," says the LORD.

25“Behold, the days are coming,” says the LORD, “that I will punish all who are circumcised with the uncircumcised—

26“Egypt, Judah, Edom, the people of Ammon, Moab, and all who are in the farthest corners, who dwell in the wilderness. For all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in the heart.”

Jeremiah 10

Idols and the True God

[1]Hear the word which the LORD speaks to you, O house of Israel.
[2]Thus says the LORD:

"Do not learn the way of the Gentiles;
Do not be dismayed at the signs of heaven,
For the Gentiles are dismayed at them.
[3]For the customs of the peoples are futile;
For one cuts a tree from the forest,
The work of the hands of the workman, with the ax.
[4]They decorate it with silver and gold;
They fasten it with nails and hammers
So that it will not topple.
[5]They are upright, like a palm tree,
And they cannot speak;
They must be carried,
Because they cannot go by themselves.
Do not be afraid of them,
For they cannot do evil,
Nor can they do any good."

[6]Inasmuch as there is none like You, O LORD
(You are great, and Your name is great in might),
[7]Who would not fear You, O King of the nations?
For this is Your rightful due.
For among all the wise men of the nations,
And in all their kingdoms,
There is none like You.
[8]But they are altogether dull-hearted and foolish;
A wooden idol is a worthless doctrine.
[9]Silver is beaten into plates;
It is brought from Tarshish,
And gold from Uphaz,

The work of the craftsman
And of the hands of the metalsmith;
Blue and purple are their clothing;
They are all the work of skillful men.
[10]But the LORD is the true God;
He is the living God and the everlasting King.
At His wrath the earth will tremble,
And the nations will not be able to endure His indignation.

[11]Thus you shall say to them: “The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth shall perish from the earth and from under these heavens.”

[12]He has made the earth by His power,
He has established the world by His wisdom,
And has stretched out the heavens at His discretion.
[13]When He utters His voice,
There is a multitude of waters in the heavens:
“And He causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth.
He makes lightning for the rain,
He brings the wind out of His treasuries.”

[14]Everyone is dull-hearted, without knowledge;
Every metalsmith is put to shame by an image;
For his molded image is falsehood,
And there is no breath in them.
[15]They are futile, a work of errors;
In the time of their punishment they shall perish.
[16]The Portion of Jacob is not like them,
For He is the Maker of all things,
And Israel is the tribe of His inheritance;
The LORD of hosts is His name.

The Coming Captivity of Judah

[17]Gather up your wares from the land,
O inhabitant of the fortress!

[18]For thus says the LORD:

“Behold, I will throw out at this time
The inhabitants of the land,
And will distress them,
That they may find it so.”

[19]Woe is me for my hurt!
My wound is severe.
But I say, “Truly this is an infirmity,
And I must bear it.”
[20]My tent is plundered,
And all my cords are broken;
My children have gone from me,
And they are no more.
There is no one to pitch my tent anymore,
Or set up my curtains.

[21]For the shepherds have become dull-hearted,
And have not sought the LORD;
Therefore they shall not prosper,
And all their flocks shall be scattered.
[22]Behold, the noise of the report has come,
And a great commotion out of the north country,
To make the cities of Judah desolate, a den of jackals.

[23]O LORD, I know the way of man is not in himself;
It is not in man who walks to direct his own steps.
[24]O LORD, correct me, but with justice;
Not in Your anger, lest You bring me to nothing.
[25]Pour out Your fury on the Gentiles, who do not know You,
And on the families who do not call on Your name;
For they have eaten up Jacob,
Devoured him and consumed him,
And made his dwelling place desolate.

Jeremiah 11

The Broken Covenant

[1]The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

[2]“Hear the words of this covenant, and speak to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem;

[3]“and say to them, ‘Thus says the LORD God of Israel: “Cursed is the man who does not obey the words of this covenant

[4]“which I commanded your fathers in the day I brought them out of the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying, ‘Obey My voice, and do according to all that I command you; so shall you be My people, and I will be your God,’

[5]“that I may establish the oath which I have sworn to your fathers, to give them ‘a land flowing with milk and honey,’ as it is this day.” ’ ” And I answered and said, “So be it, LORD.”

[6]Then the LORD said to me, “Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying: ‘Hear the words of this covenant and do them.

[7]‘For I earnestly exhorted your fathers in the day I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, until this day, rising early and exhorting, saying, “Obey My voice.”

[8]‘Yet they did not obey or incline their ear, but everyone followed the dictates of his evil heart; therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do, but which they have not done.’ ”

[9]And the LORD said to me, “A conspiracy has been found among the men of Judah and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

[10]“They have turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers who refused to hear My words, and they have gone after other gods to serve them; the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken My covenant which I made with their fathers.”

[11]Therefore thus says the LORD: “Behold, I will surely bring calamity on them which they will not be able to escape; and though they cry out to Me, I will not listen to them.

[12]“Then the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem will go and cry out to the gods to whom they offer incense, but they will not save them at all in the time of their trouble.

[13]“For according to the number of your cities were your gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem you have set up altars to that shameful thing, altars to burn incense to Baal.

[14]“So do not pray for this people, or lift up a cry or prayer for them; for I will not hear them in the time that they cry out to Me because of their trouble.

[15]“What has My beloved to do in My house,
Having done lewd deeds with many?
And the holy flesh has passed from you.
When you do evil, then you rejoice.
[16]The LORD called your name,
Green Olive Tree, Lovely and of Good Fruit.
With the noise of a great tumult
He has kindled fire on it,
And its branches are broken.

[17]“For the LORD of hosts, who planted you, has pronounced doom against you for the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves to provoke Me to anger in offering incense to Baal.”

Jeremiah’s Life Threatened

[18]Now the LORD gave me knowledge of it, and I know it; for You showed me their doings.

[19]But I was like a docile lamb brought to the slaughter; and I did not know that they had devised schemes against me, saying, “Let us destroy the tree with its fruit, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be remembered no more.”

[20]But, O LORD of hosts,
You who judge righteously,
Testing the mind and the heart,
Let me see Your vengeance on them,

For to You I have revealed my cause.

[21]“Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the men of Anathoth who seek your life, saying, ‘Do not prophesy in the name of the LORD, lest you die by our hand’—
[22]“therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: ‘Behold, I will punish them. The young men shall die by the sword, their sons and their daughters shall die by famine;
[23]‘and there shall be no remnant of them, for I will bring catastrophe on the men of Anathoth, even the year of their punishment.’ ”

Jeremiah 12

Jeremiah's Question

[1]Righteous are You, O LORD, when I plead with You;
Yet let me talk with You about Your judgments.
Why does the way of the wicked prosper?
Why are those happy who deal so treacherously?
[2]You have planted them, yes, they have taken root;
They grow, yes, they bear fruit.
You are near in their mouth
But far from their mind.

[3]But You, O LORD, know me;
You have seen me,
And You have tested my heart toward You.
Pull them out like sheep for the slaughter,
And prepare them for the day of slaughter.
[4]How long will the land mourn,
And the herbs of every field wither?
The beasts and birds are consumed,
For the wickedness of those who dwell there,
Because they said, "He will not see our final end."

The LORD Answers Jeremiah

[5]"If you have run with the footmen, and they have wearied you,
Then how can you contend with horses?
And if in the land of peace,
In which you trusted, they wearied you,
Then how will you do in the floodplain of the Jordan?
[6]For even your brothers, the house of your father,
Even they have dealt treacherously with you;
Yes, they have called a multitude after you.
Do not believe them,
Even though they speak smooth words to you.

7“I have forsaken My house, I have left My heritage;
I have given the dearly beloved of My soul into the hand of her enemies.
8My heritage is to Me like a lion in the forest;
It cries out against Me;
Therefore I have hated it.
9My heritage is to Me like a speckled vulture;
The vultures all around are against her.
Come, assemble all the beasts of the field,
Bring them to devour!

10“Many rulers have destroyed My vineyard,
They have trodden My portion underfoot;
They have made My pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.
11They have made it desolate;
Desolate, it mourns to Me;
The whole land is made desolate,
Because no one takes it to heart.
12The plunderers have come
On all the desolate heights in the wilderness,
For the sword of the LORD shall devour
From one end of the land to the other end of the land;
No flesh shall have peace.
13They have sown wheat but reaped thorns;
They have put themselves to pain but do not profit.
But be ashamed of your harvest
Because of the fierce anger of the LORD.”

14Thus says the LORD: “Against all My evil neighbors who touch the inheritance which I have caused My people Israel to inherit—behold, I will pluck them out of their land and pluck out the house of Judah from among them.

15“Then it shall be, after I have plucked them out, that I will return and have compassion on them and bring them back, everyone to his heritage and everyone to his land.

[16]“And it shall be, if they will learn carefully the ways of My people, to swear by My name, ‘As the LORD lives,’ as they taught My people to swear by Baal, then they shall be established in the midst of My people.

[17]“But if they do not obey, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation,” says the LORD.

Jeremiah 13

Symbol of the Linen Sash

[1]Thus the LORD said to me: “Go and get yourself a linen sash, and put it around your waist, but do not put it in water.”

[2]So I got a sash according to the word of the LORD, and put it around my waist.

[3]And the word of the LORD came to me the second time, saying,

[4]“Take the sash that you acquired, which is around your waist, and arise, go to the Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole in the rock.”

[5]So I went and hid it by the Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.

[6]Now it came to pass after many days that the LORD said to me, “Arise, go to the Euphrates, and take from there the sash which I commanded you to hide there.”

[7]Then I went to the Euphrates and dug, and I took the sash from the place where I had hidden it; and there was the sash, ruined. It was profitable for nothing.

[8]Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

[9]“Thus says the LORD: ‘In this manner I will ruin the pride of Judah and the great pride of Jerusalem.

[10]‘This evil people, who refuse to hear My words, who follow the dictates of their hearts, and walk after other gods to serve them and worship them, shall be just like this sash which is profitable for nothing.

[11]‘For as the sash clings to the waist of a man, so I have caused the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah to cling to Me,’ says the LORD, ‘that they may become My people, for renown, for praise, and for glory; but they would not hear.’

Symbol of the Wine Bottles

[12]“Therefore you shall speak to them this word: ‘Thus says the LORD God of Israel: “Every bottle shall be filled with wine.” ’ And they will say to you, ‘Do we not certainly know that every bottle will be filled with wine?’

[13]"Then you shall say to them, 'Thus says the LORD: "Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land—even the kings who sit on David's throne, the priests, the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem—with drunkenness!

[14]"And I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together," says the LORD. "I will not pity nor spare nor have mercy, but will destroy them." ' "

Pride Precedes Captivity

[15]Hear and give ear:
Do not be proud,
For the LORD has spoken.
[16]Give glory to the LORD your God
Before He causes darkness,
And before your feet stumble
On the dark mountains,
And while you are looking for light,
He turns it into the shadow of death
And makes it dense darkness.
[17]But if you will not hear it,
My soul will weep in secret for your pride;
My eyes will weep bitterly
And run down with tears,
Because the LORD's flock has been taken captive.

[18]Say to the king and to the queen mother,
"Humble yourselves;
Sit down,
For your rule shall collapse, the crown of your glory."
[19]The cities of the South shall be shut up,
And no one shall open them;
Judah shall be carried away captive, all of it;
It shall be wholly carried away captive.

[20]Lift up your eyes and see
Those who come from the north.
Where is the flock that was given to you,

Your beautiful sheep?
[21]What will you say when He punishes you?
For you have taught them
To be chieftains, to be head over you.
Will not pangs seize you,
Like a woman in labor?
[22]And if you say in your heart,
“Why have these things come upon me?”
For the greatness of your iniquity
Your skirts have been uncovered,
Your heels made bare.
[23]Can the Ethiopian change his skin or the leopard its spots?
Then may you also do good who are accustomed to do evil.

[24]“Therefore I will scatter them like stubble
That passes away by the wind of the wilderness.
[25]This is your lot,
The portion of your measures from Me,” says the LORD,
“Because you have forgotten Me
And trusted in falsehood.
[26]Therefore I will uncover your skirts over your face,
That your shame may appear.
[27]I have seen your adulteries
And your lustful neighings,
The lewdness of your harlotry,
Your abominations on the hills in the fields.
Woe to you, O Jerusalem!
Will you still not be made clean?”

Jeremiah 14

Sword, Famine, and Pestilence

[1]The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the droughts.

[2]“Judah mourns,
And her gates languish;
They mourn for the land,
And the cry of Jerusalem has gone up.
[3]Their nobles have sent their lads for water;
They went to the cisterns and found no water.
They returned with their vessels empty;
They were ashamed and confounded
And covered their heads.
[4]Because the ground is parched,
For there was no rain in the land,
The plowmen were ashamed;
They covered their heads.
[5]Yes, the deer also gave birth in the field,
But left because there was no grass.
[6]And the wild donkeys stood in the desolate heights;
They sniffed at the wind like jackals;
Their eyes failed because there was no grass.”

[7]O LORD, though our iniquities testify against us,
Do it for Your name’s sake;
For our backslidings are many,
We have sinned against You.
[8]O the Hope of Israel, his Savior in time of trouble,
Why should You be like a stranger in the land,
And like a traveler who turns aside to tarry for a night?
[9]Why should You be like a man astonished,
Like a mighty one who cannot save?
Yet You, O LORD, are in our midst,
And we are called by Your name;

Do not leave us!

10Thus says the LORD to this people:

“Thus they have loved to wander;
They have not restrained their feet.
Therefore the LORD does not accept them;
He will remember their iniquity now,
And punish their sins.”

11Then the LORD said to me, “Do not pray for this people, for their good.

12“When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and grain offering, I will not accept them. But I will consume them by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence.”

13Then I said, “Ah, Lord GOD! Behold, the prophets say to them, ‘You shall not see the sword, nor shall you have famine, but I will give you assured peace in this place.’ ”

14And the LORD said to me, “The prophets prophesy lies in My name. I have not sent them, commanded them, nor spoken to them; they prophesy to you a false vision, divination, a worthless thing, and the deceit of their heart.

15“Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the prophets who prophesy in My name, whom I did not send, and who say, ‘Sword and famine shall not be in this land’—‘By sword and famine those prophets shall be consumed!

16‘And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; they will have no one to bury them—them nor their wives, their sons nor their daughters—for I will pour their wickedness on them.’

17“Therefore you shall say this word to them:

‘Let my eyes flow with tears night and day,
And let them not cease;
For the virgin daughter of my people
Has been broken with a mighty stroke, with a very severe blow.

[18]If I go out to the field,
Then behold, those slain with the sword!
And if I enter the city,
Then behold, those sick from famine!
Yes, both prophet and priest go about in a land they do not know.' "

The People Plead for Mercy

[19]Have You utterly rejected Judah?
Has Your soul loathed Zion?
Why have You stricken us so that there is no healing for us?
We looked for peace, but there was no good;
And for the time of healing, and there was trouble.
[20]We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness
And the iniquity of our fathers,
For we have sinned against You.
[21]Do not abhor us, for Your name's sake;
Do not disgrace the throne of Your glory.
Remember, do not break Your covenant with us.
[22]Are there any among the idols of the nations that can cause rain?
Or can the heavens give showers?
Are You not He, O LORD our God?
Therefore we will wait for You,
Since You have made all these.

Jeremiah 15

The LORD Will Not Relent

[1]Then the LORD said to me, “Even if Moses and Samuel stood before Me, My mind would not be favorable toward this people. Cast them out of My sight, and let them go forth.

[2]“And it shall be, if they say to you, ‘Where should we go?’ then you shall tell them, ‘Thus says the LORD:

“Such as are for death, to death;
And such as are for the sword, to the sword;
And such as are for the famine, to the famine;
And such as are for the captivity, to the captivity.” ’

[3]“And I will appoint over them four forms of destruction,” says the LORD: “the sword to slay, the dogs to drag, the birds of the heavens and the beasts of the earth to devour and destroy.

[4]“I will hand them over to trouble, to all kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh the son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, for what he did in Jerusalem.

[5]“For who will have pity on you, O Jerusalem?
Or who will bemoan you?
Or who will turn aside to ask how you are doing?
[6]You have forsaken Me,” says the LORD,
“You have gone backward.
Therefore I will stretch out My hand against you and destroy you;
I am weary of relenting!
[7]And I will winnow them with a winnowing fan in the gates of the land;
I will bereave them of children;
I will destroy My people,
Since they do not return from their ways.
[8]Their widows will be increased to Me more than the sand of the seas;

I will bring against them,
Against the mother of the young men,
A plunderer at noonday;
I will cause anguish and terror to fall on them suddenly.

[9]"She languishes who has borne seven;
She has breathed her last;
Her sun has gone down
While it was yet day;
She has been ashamed and confounded.
And the remnant of them I will deliver to the sword
Before their enemies," says the LORD.

Jeremiah's Dejection

10Woe is me, my mother,
That you have borne me,
A man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth!
I have neither lent for interest,
Nor have men lent to me for interest.
Every one of them curses me.

[11]The LORD said:

"Surely it will be well with your remnant;
Surely I will cause the enemy to intercede with you
In the time of adversity and in the time of affliction.
[12]Can anyone break iron,
The northern iron and the bronze?
[13]Your wealth and your treasures
I will give as plunder without price,
Because of all your sins,
Throughout your territories.
[14]And I will make you cross over with your enemies
Into a land which you do not know;
For a fire is kindled in My anger,
Which shall burn upon you."

[15]O LORD, You know;
Remember me and visit me,
And take vengeance for me on my persecutors.
In Your enduring patience, do not take me away.
Know that for Your sake I have suffered rebuke.
[16]Your words were found, and I ate them,
And Your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart;
For I am called by Your name,
O LORD God of hosts.
[17]I did not sit in the assembly of the mockers,
Nor did I rejoice;
I sat alone because of Your hand,
For You have filled me with indignation.
[18]Why is my pain perpetual
And my wound incurable,
Which refuses to be healed?
Will You surely be to me like an unreliable stream,
As waters that fail?

The LORD Reassures Jeremiah

[19]Therefore thus says the LORD:

"If you return,
Then I will bring you back;
You shall stand before Me;
If you take out the precious from the vile,
You shall be as My mouth.
Let them return to you,
But you must not return to them.
[20]And I will make you to this people a fortified bronze wall;
And they will fight against you,
But they shall not prevail against you;
For I am with you to save you
And deliver you," says the LORD.
[21]"I will deliver you from the hand of the wicked,
And I will redeem you from the grip of the terrible."

Jeremiah 16

Jeremiah's Lifestyle and Message

[1]The word of the LORD also came to me, saying,

[2]"You shall not take a wife, nor shall you have sons or daughters in this place."

[3]For thus says the LORD concerning the sons and daughters who are born in this place, and concerning their mothers who bore them and their fathers who begot them in this land:

[4]"They shall die gruesome deaths; they shall not be lamented nor shall they be buried, but they shall be like refuse on the face of the earth. They shall be consumed by the sword and by famine, and their corpses shall be meat for the birds of heaven and for the beasts of the earth."

[5]For thus says the LORD: "Do not enter the house of mourning, nor go to lament or bemoan them; for I have taken away My peace from this people," says the LORD, "lovingkindness and mercies.

[6]"Both the great and the small shall die in this land. They shall not be buried; neither shall men lament for them, cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them.

[7]"Nor shall men break bread in mourning for them, to comfort them for the dead; nor shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or their mother.

[8]"Also you shall not go into the house of feasting to sit with them, to eat and drink."

[9]For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, I will cause to cease from this place, before your eyes and in your days, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride.

[10]"And it shall be, when you show this people all these words, and they say to you, 'Why has the LORD pronounced all this great disaster against us? Or what is our iniquity? Or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God?'

[11]"then you shall say to them, 'Because your fathers have forsaken Me,' says the LORD; 'they have walked after other gods and have served them and worshiped them, and have forsaken Me and not kept My law.

[12]'And you have done worse than your fathers, for behold, each one follows the dictates of his own evil heart, so that no one listens to Me.

[13]'Therefore I will cast you out of this land into a land that you do not know, neither you nor your fathers; and there you shall serve other gods day and night, where I will not show you favor.'

God Will Restore Israel

[14]"Therefore behold, the days are coming," says the LORD, "that it shall no more be said, 'The LORD lives who brought up the children of Israel from the land of Egypt,'

[15]"but, 'The LORD lives who brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north and from all the lands where He had driven them.' For I will bring them back into their land which I gave to their fathers.

[16]"Behold, I will send for many fishermen," says the LORD, "and they shall fish them; and afterward I will send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain and every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks.

[17]"For My eyes are on all their ways; they are not hidden from My face, nor is their iniquity hidden from My eyes.

[18]"And first I will repay double for their iniquity and their sin, because they have defiled My land; they have filled My inheritance with the carcasses of their detestable and abominable idols."

[19]O LORD, my strength and my fortress,
My refuge in the day of affliction,
The Gentiles shall come to You
From the ends of the earth and say,
"Surely our fathers have inherited lies,
Worthlessness and unprofitable things."
[20]Will a man make gods for himself,
Which are not gods?

21“Therefore behold, I will this once cause them to know,
I will cause them to know
My hand and My might;
And they shall know that My name is the LORD.

Jeremiah 17

Judah's Sin and Punishment

[1]"The sin of Judah is written with a pen of iron;
With the point of a diamond it is engraved
On the tablet of their heart,
And on the horns of your altars,
[2]While their children remember
Their altars and their wooden images
By the green trees on the high hills.
[3]O My mountain in the field,
I will give as plunder your wealth, all your treasures,
And your high places of sin within all your borders.
[4]And you, even yourself,
Shall let go of your heritage which I gave you;
And I will cause you to serve your enemies
In the land which you do not know;
For you have kindled a fire in My anger which shall burn forever."

[5]Thus says the LORD:

"Cursed is the man who trusts in man
And makes flesh his strength,
Whose heart departs from the LORD.
[6]For he shall be like a shrub in the desert,
And shall not see when good comes,
But shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness,
In a salt land which is not inhabited.

[7]"Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD,
And whose hope is the LORD.
[8]For he shall be like a tree planted by the waters,
Which spreads out its roots by the river,
And will not fear when heat comes;
But its leaf will be green,

And will not be anxious in the year of drought,
Nor will cease from yielding fruit.

9“The heart is deceitful above all things,
And desperately wicked;
Who can know it?
10I, the LORD, search the heart,
I test the mind,
Even to give every man according to his ways,
According to the fruit of his doings.

11“As a partridge that broods but does not hatch,
So is he who gets riches, but not by right;
It will leave him in the midst of his days,
And at his end he will be a fool.”

12A glorious high throne from the beginning
Is the place of our sanctuary.
13O LORD, the hope of Israel,
All who forsake You shall be ashamed.

“Those who depart from Me
Shall be written in the earth,
Because they have forsaken the LORD,
The fountain of living waters.”

Jeremiah Prays for Deliverance

14Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed;
Save me, and I shall be saved,
For You are my praise.
15Indeed they say to me,
“Where is the word of the LORD?
Let it come now!”
16As for me, I have not hurried away from being a shepherd
who follows You,
Nor have I desired the woeful day;
You know what came out of my lips;

It was right there before You.
[17]Do not be a terror to me;
You are my hope in the day of doom.
[18]Let them be ashamed who persecute me,
But do not let me be put to shame;
Let them be dismayed,
But do not let me be dismayed.
Bring on them the day of doom,
And destroy them with double destruction!

Hallow the Sabbath Day

[19]Thus the LORD said to me: “Go and stand in the gate of the children of the people, by which the kings of Judah come in and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem;

[20]“and say to them, ‘Hear the word of the LORD, you kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, who enter by these gates.

[21]‘Thus says the LORD: “Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the Sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem;

[22]“nor carry a burden out of your houses on the Sabbath day, nor do any work, but hallow the Sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers.

[23]“But they did not obey nor incline their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear nor receive instruction.

[24]“And it shall be, if you heed Me carefully,” says the LORD, “to bring no burden through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, but hallow the Sabbath day, to do no work in it,

[25]“then shall enter the gates of this city kings and princes sitting on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they and their princes, accompanied by the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and this city shall remain forever.

[26]“And they shall come from the cities of Judah and from the places around Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin and from the lowland, from the mountains and from the South, bringing burnt offerings and sacrifices, grain offerings and incense, bringing sacrifices of praise to the house of the LORD.

[27]“But if you will not heed Me to hallow the Sabbath day, such as not carrying a burden when entering the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, then I will kindle a fire in its gates, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched.” ’ ”

Jeremiah 18

The Potter and the Clay

[1]The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying:

[2]"Arise and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause you to hear My words."

[3]Then I went down to the potter's house, and there he was, making something at the wheel.

[4]And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter; so he made it again into another vessel, as it seemed good to the potter to make.

[5]Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying:

[6]"O house of Israel, can I not do with you as this potter?" says the LORD. "Look, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are you in My hand, O house of Israel!

[7]"The instant I speak concerning a nation and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up, to pull down, and to destroy it,

[8]"if that nation against whom I have spoken turns from its evil, I will relent of the disaster that I thought to bring upon it.

[9]"And the instant I speak concerning a nation and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it,

[10]"if it does evil in My sight so that it does not obey My voice, then I will relent concerning the good with which I said I would benefit it.

[11]"Now therefore, speak to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, 'Thus says the LORD: "Behold, I am fashioning a disaster and devising a plan against you. Return now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good." ' "

God's Warning Rejected

[12]And they said, "That is hopeless! So we will walk according to our own plans, and we will every one obey the dictates of his evil heart."

[13]Therefore thus says the LORD:

"Ask now among the Gentiles,

Who has heard such things?
The virgin of Israel has done a very horrible thing.
[14]Will a man leave the snow water of Lebanon,
Which comes from the rock of the field?
Will the cold flowing waters be forsaken for strange waters?

[15]"Because My people have forgotten Me,
They have burned incense to worthless idols.
And they have caused themselves to stumble in their ways,
From the ancient paths,
To walk in pathways and not on a highway,
[16]To make their land desolate and a perpetual hissing;
Everyone who passes by it will be astonished
And shake his head.
[17]I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy;
I will show them the back and not the face
In the day of their calamity."

Jeremiah Persecuted

[18]Then they said, "Come and let us devise plans against Jeremiah; for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come and let us attack him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words."

[19]Give heed to me, O LORD,
And listen to the voice of those who contend with me!
[20]Shall evil be repaid for good?
For they have dug a pit for my life.
Remember that I stood before You
To speak good for them,
To turn away Your wrath from them.
[21]Therefore deliver up their children to the famine,
And pour out their blood
By the force of the sword;
Let their wives become widows
And bereaved of their children.
Let their men be put to death,

Their young men be slain
By the sword in battle.
[22]Let a cry be heard from their houses,
When You bring a troop suddenly upon them;
For they have dug a pit to take me,
And hidden snares for my feet.
[23]Yet, LORD, You know all their counsel
Which is against me, to slay me.
Provide no atonement for their iniquity,
Nor blot out their sin from Your sight;
But let them be overthrown before You.
Deal thus with them
In the time of Your anger.

Jeremiah 19

The Sign of the Broken Flask

[1]Thus says the LORD: "Go and get a potter's earthen flask, and take some of the elders of the people and some of the elders of the priests.

[2]"And go out to the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the Potsherd Gate; and proclaim there the words that I will tell you,

[3]"and say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem. Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, I will bring such a catastrophe on this place, that whoever hears of it, his ears will tingle.

[4]"Because they have forsaken Me and made this an alien place, because they have burned incense in it to other gods whom neither they, their fathers, nor the kings of Judah have known, and have filled this place with the blood of the innocents

[5]"(they have also built the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings to Baal, which I did not command or speak, nor did it come into My mind),

[6]"therefore behold, the days are coming," says the LORD, "that this place shall no more be called Tophet or the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter.

[7]"And I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place, and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies and by the hands of those who seek their lives; their corpses I will give as meat for the birds of the heaven and for the beasts of the earth.

[8]"I will make this city desolate and a hissing; everyone who passes by it will be astonished and hiss because of all its plagues.

[9]"And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and everyone shall eat the flesh of his friend in the siege and in the desperation with which their enemies and those who seek their lives shall drive them to despair." '

[10]"Then you shall break the flask in the sight of the men who go with you,

[11]“and say to them, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts: “Even so I will break this people and this city, as one breaks a potter’s vessel, which cannot be made whole again; and they shall bury them in Tophet till there is no place to bury.

[12]“Thus I will do to this place,” says the LORD, “and to its inhabitants, and make this city like Tophet.

[13]“And the houses of Jerusalem and the houses of the kings of Judah shall be defiled like the place of Tophet, because of all the houses on whose roofs they have burned incense to all the host of heaven, and poured out drink offerings to other gods.” ’ ”

[14]Then Jeremiah came from Tophet, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in the court of the Lord’s house and said to all the people,

[15]“Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Behold, I will bring on this city and on all her towns all the doom that I have pronounced against it, because they have stiffened their necks that they might not hear My words.’ ”

Jeremiah 20

The Word of God to Pashhur

[1]Now Pashhur the son of Immer, the priest who was also chief governor in the house of the LORD, heard that Jeremiah prophesied these things.

[2]Then Pashhur struck Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the high gate of Benjamin, which was by the house of the LORD.

[3]And it happened on the next day that Pashhur brought Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then Jeremiah said to him, “The LORD has not called your name Pashhur, but Magor-Missabib.

[4]“For thus says the LORD: ‘Behold, I will make you a terror to yourself and to all your friends; and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and your eyes shall see it. I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive to Babylon and slay them with the sword.

[5]‘Moreover I will deliver all the wealth of this city, all its produce, and all its precious things; all the treasures of the kings of Judah I will give into the hand of their enemies, who will plunder them, seize them, and carry them to Babylon.

[6]‘And you, Pashhur, and all who dwell in your house, shall go into captivity. You shall go to Babylon, and there you shall die, and be buried there, you and all your friends, to whom you have prophesied lies.’ ”

Jeremiah’s Unpopular Ministry

[7]O LORD, You induced me, and I was persuaded;
You are stronger than I, and have prevailed.
I am in derision daily;
Everyone mocks me.
[8]For when I spoke, I cried out;
I shouted, “Violence and plunder!”
Because the word of the LORD was made to me
A reproach and a derision daily.

[9]Then I said, “I will not make mention of Him,
Nor speak anymore in His name.”
But His word was in my heart like a burning fire
Shut up in my bones;
I was weary of holding it back,
And I could not.
[10]For I heard many mocking:
“Fear on every side!”
“Report,” they say, “and we will report it!”
All my acquaintances watched for my stumbling, saying,
“Perhaps he can be induced;
Then we will prevail against him,
And we will take our revenge on him.”

[11]But the LORD is with me as a mighty, awesome One.
Therefore my persecutors will stumble, and will not prevail.
They will be greatly ashamed, for they will not prosper.
Their everlasting confusion will never be forgotten.
[12]But, O LORD of hosts,
You who test the righteous,
And see the mind and heart,
Let me see Your vengeance on them;
For I have pleaded my cause before You.

[13]Sing to the LORD! Praise the LORD!
For He has delivered the life of the poor
From the hand of evildoers.

[14]Cursed be the day in which I was born!
Let the day not be blessed in which my mother bore me!
[15]Let the man be cursed
Who brought news to my father, saying,
“A male child has been born to you!”
Making him very glad.
[16]And let that man be like the cities
Which the LORD overthrew, and did not relent;
Let him hear the cry in the morning

And the shouting at noon,
[17]Because he did not kill me from the womb,
That my mother might have been my grave,
And her womb always enlarged with me.
[18]Why did I come forth from the womb to see labor and sorrow,
That my days should be consumed with shame?

Jeremiah 21

Jerusalem's Doom Is Sealed

[1]The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD when King Zedekiah sent to him Pashhur the son of Melchiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, saying,

[2]"Please inquire of the LORD for us, for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon makes war against us. Perhaps the LORD will deal with us according to all His wonderful works, that the king may go away from us."

[3]Then Jeremiah said to them, "Thus you shall say to Zedekiah,

[4]'Thus says the LORD God of Israel: "Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, with which you fight against the king of Babylon and the Chaldeans who besiege you outside the walls; and I will assemble them in the midst of this city.

[5]"I Myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger and fury and great wrath.

[6]"I will strike the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast; they shall die of a great pestilence.

[7]"And afterward," says the LORD, "I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, his servants and the people, and such as are left in this city from the pestilence and the sword and the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life; and he shall strike them with the edge of the sword. He shall not spare them, or have pity or mercy." '

[8]"Now you shall say to this people, 'Thus says the LORD: "Behold, I set before you the way of life and the way of death.

[9]"He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence; but he who goes out and defects to the Chaldeans who besiege you, he shall live, and his life shall be as a prize to him.

[10]"For I have set My face against this city for adversity and not for good," says the LORD. "It shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire." '

Message to the House of David

[11]“And concerning the house of the king of Judah, say, ‘Hear the word of the LORD,
[12]‘O house of David! Thus says the LORD:

“Execute judgment in the morning;
And deliver him who is plundered
Out of the hand of the oppressor,
Lest My fury go forth like fire
And burn so that no one can quench it,
Because of the evil of your doings.

[13]“Behold, I am against you, O inhabitant of the valley,
And rock of the plain,” says the LORD,
“Who say, ‘Who shall come down against us?
Or who shall enter our dwellings?’
[14]But I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings,” says the LORD;
“I will kindle a fire in its forest,
And it shall devour all things around it.” ’ ”

Jeremiah 22

[1]Thus says the LORD: “Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and there speak this word,

[2]“and say, ‘Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, you who sit on the throne of David, you and your servants and your people who enter these gates!

[3]‘Thus says the LORD: “Execute judgment and righteousness, and deliver the plundered out of the hand of the oppressor. Do no wrong and do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, or the widow, nor shed innocent blood in this place.

[4]“For if you indeed do this thing, then shall enter the gates of this house, riding on horses and in chariots, accompanied by servants and people, kings who sit on the throne of David.

[5]“But if you will not hear these words, I swear by Myself,” says the LORD, “that this house shall become a desolation.” ’ ”

6For thus says the LORD to the house of the king of Judah:

“You are Gilead to Me,
The head of Lebanon;
Yet I surely will make you a wilderness,
Cities which are not inhabited.
[7]I will prepare destroyers against you,
Everyone with his weapons;
They shall cut down your choice cedars
And cast them into the fire.

[8]“And many nations will pass by this city; and everyone will say to his neighbor, ‘Why has the LORD done so to this great city?’

[9]“Then they will answer, ‘Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshiped other gods and served them.’ ”

10Weep not for the dead, nor bemoan him;
Weep bitterly for him who goes away,
For he shall return no more,
Nor see his native country.

Message to the Sons of Josiah

11For thus says the LORD concerning Shallum the son of Josiah, king of Judah, who reigned instead of Josiah his father, who went from this place: “He shall not return here anymore, 12“but he shall die in the place where they have led him captive, and shall see this land no more.

13“Woe to him who builds his house by unrighteousness
And his chambers by injustice,
Who uses his neighbor’s service without wages
And gives him nothing for his work,
14Who says, ‘I will build myself a wide house with spacious chambers,
And cut out windows for it,
Paneling it with cedar
And painting it with vermilion.’

15“Shall you reign because you enclose yourself in cedar?
Did not your father eat and drink,
And do justice and righteousness?
Then it was well with him.
16He judged the cause of the poor and needy;
Then it was well.
Was not this knowing Me?” says the LORD.
17“Yet your eyes and your heart are for nothing but your covetousness,
For shedding innocent blood,
And practicing oppression and violence.”

18Therefore thus says the LORD concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah:

“They shall not lament for him,
Saying, ‘Alas, my brother!’ or ‘Alas, my sister!’

They shall not lament for him,
Saying, ‘Alas, master!’ or ‘Alas, his glory!’

[19]He shall be buried with the burial of a donkey,
Dragged and cast out beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

[20]“Go up to Lebanon, and cry out,
And lift up your voice in Bashan;
Cry from Abarim,
For all your lovers are destroyed.
[21]I spoke to you in your prosperity,
But you said, ‘I will not hear.’
This has been your manner from your youth,
That you did not obey My voice.
[22]The wind shall eat up all your rulers,
And your lovers shall go into captivity;
Surely then you will be ashamed and humiliated
For all your wickedness.
[23]O inhabitant of Lebanon,
Making your nest in the cedars,
How gracious will you be when pangs come upon you,
Like the pain of a woman in labor?

Message to Coniah

[24]“As I live,” says the LORD, “though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, were the signet on My right hand, yet I would pluck you off;

[25]“and I will give you into the hand of those who seek your life, and into the hand of those whose face you fear—the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and the hand of the Chaldeans.

[26]“So I will cast you out, and your mother who bore you, into another country where you were not born; and there you shall die.

[27]“But to the land to which they desire to return, there they shall not return.

[28]“Is this man Coniah a despised, broken idol—
A vessel in which is no pleasure?
Why are they cast out, he and his descendants,
And cast into a land which they do not know?

[29]O earth, earth, earth,
Hear the word of the LORD!
[30]Thus says the LORD:
‘Write this man down as childless,
A man who shall not prosper in his days;
For none of his descendants shall prosper,
Sitting on the throne of David,
And ruling anymore in Judah.’ ”

Jeremiah 23

The Branch of Righteousness

[1]"Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of My pasture!" says the LORD.

[2]Therefore thus says the LORD God of Israel against the shepherds who feed My people: "You have scattered My flock, driven them away, and not attended to them. Behold, I will attend to you for the evil of your doings," says the LORD.

[3]"But I will gather the remnant of My flock out of all countries where I have driven them, and bring them back to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase.

[4]"I will set up shepherds over them who will feed them; and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, nor shall they be lacking," says the LORD.

[5]"Behold, the days are coming," says the LORD,
"That I will raise to David a Branch of righteousness;
A King shall reign and prosper,
And execute judgment and righteousness in the earth.
[6]In His days Judah will be saved,
And Israel will dwell safely;
Now this is His name by which He will be called:

THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

[7]"Therefore, behold, the days are coming," says the LORD, "that they shall no longer say, 'As the LORD lives who brought up the children of Israel from the land of Egypt,'

[8]"but, 'As the LORD lives who brought up and led the descendants of the house of Israel from the north country and from all the countries where I had driven them.' And they shall dwell in their own land."

False Prophets and Empty Oracles

[9]My heart within me is broken

Because of the prophets;
All my bones shake.
I am like a drunken man,
And like a man whom wine has overcome,
Because of the LORD,
And because of His holy words.
[10]For the land is full of adulterers;
For because of a curse the land mourns.
The pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up.
Their course of life is evil,
And their might is not right.

[11]"For both prophet and priest are profane;
Yes, in My house I have found their wickedness," says the LORD.
[12]"Therefore their way shall be to them
Like slippery ways;
In the darkness they shall be driven on
And fall in them;
For I will bring disaster on them,
The year of their punishment," says the LORD.
[13]"And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria:
They prophesied by Baal
And caused My people Israel to err.
[14]Also I have seen a horrible thing in the prophets of Jerusalem:
They commit adultery and walk in lies;
They also strengthen the hands of evildoers,
So that no one turns back from his wickedness.
All of them are like Sodom to Me,
And her inhabitants like Gomorrah.

[15]"Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets:

'Behold, I will feed them with wormwood,
And make them drink the water of gall;
For from the prophets of Jerusalem

Profaneness has gone out into all the land.' "

16Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you.
They make you worthless;
They speak a vision of their own heart,
Not from the mouth of the LORD.
17They continually say to those who despise Me,
'The LORD has said, "You shall have peace" ';
And to everyone who walks according to the dictates of his own heart, they say,
'No evil shall come upon you.' "

18For who has stood in the counsel of the LORD,
And has perceived and heard His word?
Who has marked His word and heard it?
19Behold, a whirlwind of the LORD has gone forth in fury—
A violent whirlwind!
It will fall violently on the head of the wicked.
20The anger of the LORD will not turn back
Until He has executed and performed the thoughts of His heart.
In the latter days you will understand it perfectly.

21"I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran.
I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.
22But if they had stood in My counsel,
And had caused My people to hear My words,
Then they would have turned them from their evil way
And from the evil of their doings.

23"Am I a God near at hand," says the LORD,
"And not a God afar off?
24Can anyone hide himself in secret places,
So I shall not see him?" says the LORD;

“Do I not fill heaven and earth?” says the LORD.

[25]“I have heard what the prophets have said who prophesy lies in My name, saying, ‘I have dreamed, I have dreamed!’

[26]“How long will this be in the heart of the prophets who prophesy lies? Indeed they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart, [27]“who try to make My people forget My name by their dreams which everyone tells his neighbor, as their fathers forgot My name for Baal.

[28]“The prophet who has a dream, let him tell a dream;
And he who has My word, let him speak My word faithfully.
What is the chaff to the wheat?” says the LORD.
[29]“Is not My word like a fire?” says the LORD,
“And like a hammer that breaks the rock in pieces?

30“Therefore behold, I am against the prophets,” says the LORD, “who steal My words every one from his neighbor.

[31]“Behold, I am against the prophets,” says the LORD, “who use their tongues and say, ‘He says.’

[32]“Behold, I am against those who prophesy false dreams,” says the LORD, “and tell them, and cause My people to err by their lies and by their recklessness. Yet I did not send them or command them; therefore they shall not profit this people at all,” says the LORD.

33“So when these people or the prophet or the priest ask you, saying, ‘What is the oracle of the LORD?’ you shall then say to them, ‘What oracle?’ I will even forsake you,” says the LORD.

[34]“And as for the prophet and the priest and the people who say, ‘The oracle of the LORD!’ I will even punish that man and his house.

[35]“Thus every one of you shall say to his neighbor, and every one to his brother, ‘What has the LORD answered?’ and, ‘What has the LORD spoken?’

[36]“And the oracle of the LORD you shall mention no more. For every man’s word will be his oracle, for you have perverted the words of the living God, the LORD of hosts, our God.

[37]“Thus you shall say to the prophet, ‘What has the LORD answered you?’ and, ‘What has the LORD spoken?’

[38]“But since you say, ‘The oracle of the LORD!’ therefore thus says the LORD: ‘Because you say this word, “The oracle of the LORD!” and I have sent to you, saying, “Do not say, ‘The oracle of the LORD!’ ”

[39]‘therefore behold, I, even I, will utterly forget you and forsake you, and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and will cast you out of My presence.

[40]‘And I will bring an everlasting reproach upon you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.’ ”

Jeremiah 24

The Sign of Two Baskets of Figs

[1]The LORD showed me, and there were two baskets of figs set before the temple of the LORD, after Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and the princes of Judah with the craftsmen and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.

[2]One basket had very good figs, like the figs that are first ripe; and the other basket had very bad figs which could not be eaten, they were so bad.

[3]Then the LORD said to me, "What do you see, Jeremiah?" And I said, "Figs, the good figs, very good; and the bad, very bad, which cannot be eaten, they are so bad."

[4]Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

[5]"Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge those who are carried away captive from Judah, whom I have sent out of this place for their own good, into the land of the Chaldeans.

[6]'For I will set My eyes on them for good, and I will bring them back to this land; I will build them and not pull them down, and I will plant them and not pluck them up.

[7]'Then I will give them a heart to know Me, that I am the LORD; and they shall be My people, and I will be their God, for they shall return to Me with their whole heart.

[8]'And as the bad figs which cannot be eaten, they are so bad'—surely thus says the LORD—'so will I give up Zedekiah the king of Judah, his princes, the residue of Jerusalem who remain in this land, and those who dwell in the land of Egypt.

[9]'I will deliver them to trouble into all the kingdoms of the earth, for their harm, to be a reproach and a byword, a taunt and a curse, in all places where I shall drive them.

[10]'And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence among them, till they are consumed from the land that I gave to them and their fathers.’ ”

Jeremiah 25

Seventy Years of Desolation

[1]The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah (which was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon),

[2]which Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying:

[3]“From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, even to this day, this is the twenty-third year in which the word of the LORD has come to me; and I have spoken to you, rising early and speaking, but you have not listened.

[4]“And the LORD has sent to you all His servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, but you have not listened nor inclined your ear to hear.

[5]“They said, ‘Repent now everyone of his evil way and his evil doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD has given to you and your fathers forever and ever.

[6]‘Do not go after other gods to serve them and worship them, and do not provoke Me to anger with the works of your hands; and I will not harm you.’

[7]“Yet you have not listened to Me,” says the LORD, “that you might provoke Me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt.

[8]“Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: ‘Because you have not heard My words,

[9]‘behold, I will send and take all the families of the north,’ says the LORD, ‘and Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, My servant, and will bring them against this land, against its inhabitants, and against these nations all around, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, a hissing, and perpetual desolations.

[10]‘Moreover I will take from them the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones and the light of the lamp.

[11]‘And this whole land shall be a desolation and an astonishment, and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

[12]‘Then it will come to pass, when seventy years are completed, that I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation, the land of the Chaldeans, for their iniquity,’ says the LORD; ‘and I will make it a perpetual desolation.

[13]‘So I will bring on that land all My words which I have pronounced against it, all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah has prophesied concerning all the nations.

[14]‘(For many nations and great kings shall be served by them also; and I will repay them according to their deeds and according to the works of their own hands.)’ ”

Judgment on the Nations

[15]For thus says the LORD God of Israel to me: “Take this wine cup of fury from My hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send you, to drink it.

[16]“And they will drink and stagger and go mad because of the sword that I will send among them.”

[17]Then I took the cup from the LORD’s hand, and made all the nations drink, to whom the LORD had sent me:

[18]Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, its kings and its princes, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, a hissing, and a curse, as it is this day;

[19]Pharaoh king of Egypt, his servants, his princes, and all his people;

[20]all the mixed multitude, all the kings of the land of Uz, all the kings of the land of the Philistines (namely, Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod);

[21]Edom, Moab, and the people of Ammon;

[22]all the kings of Tyre, all the kings of Sidon, and the kings of the coastlands which are across the sea;

[23]Dedan, Tema, Buz, and all who are in the farthest corners;

[24]all the kings of Arabia and all the kings of the mixed multitude who dwell in the desert;

[25]all the kings of Zimri, all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes;

[26]all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another; and all the kingdoms of the world which are on the face of the earth. Also the king of Sheshach shall drink after them.

27“Therefore you shall say to them, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “Drink, be drunk, and vomit! Fall and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.” ’

[28]“And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup from your hand to drink, then you shall say to them, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts: “You shall certainly drink!

[29]“For behold, I begin to bring calamity on the city which is called by My name, and should you be utterly unpunished? You shall not be unpunished, for I will call for a sword on all the inhabitants of the earth,” says the LORD of hosts.’

30“Therefore prophesy against them all these words, and say to them:

‘The LORD will roar from on high,
And utter His voice from His holy habitation;
He will roar mightily against His fold.
He will give a shout, as those who tread the grapes,
Against all the inhabitants of the earth.
[31]A noise will come to the ends of the earth—
For the LORD has a controversy with the nations;
He will plead His case with all flesh.
He will give those who are wicked to the sword,’ says the LORD.”

32Thus says the LORD of hosts:

“Behold, disaster shall go forth
From nation to nation,
And a great whirlwind shall be raised up
From the farthest parts of the earth.

[33]“And at that day the slain of the LORD shall be from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth. They shall not be lamented, or gathered, or buried; they shall become refuse on the ground.

34“Wail, shepherds, and cry!
Roll about in the ashes,
You leaders of the flock!
For the days of your slaughter and your dispersions are fulfilled;
You shall fall like a precious vessel.
35And the shepherds will have no way to flee,
Nor the leaders of the flock to escape.
36A voice of the cry of the shepherds,
And a wailing of the leaders to the flock will be heard.
For the LORD has plundered their pasture,
37And the peaceful dwellings are cut down
Because of the fierce anger of the LORD.
38He has left His lair like the lion;
For their land is desolate
Because of the fierceness of the Oppressor,
And because of His fierce anger.”

Jeremiah 26

Jeremiah Saved from Death

[1]In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came from the LORD, saying,

[2]"Thus says the LORD: 'Stand in the court of the LORD's house, and speak to all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD's house, all the words that I command you to speak to them. Do not diminish a word.

[3]'Perhaps everyone will listen and turn from his evil way, that I may relent concerning the calamity which I purpose to bring on them because of the evil of their doings.'

[4]"And you shall say to them, 'Thus says the LORD: "If you will not listen to Me, to walk in My law which I have set before you,

[5]"to heed the words of My servants the prophets whom I sent to you, both rising up early and sending them (but you have not heeded),

[6]"then I will make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth." ' "

[7]So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

[8]Now it happened, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak to all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people seized him, saying, "You will surely die!

[9]"Why have you prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, 'This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate, without an inhabitant'?" And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

[10]When the princes of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king's house to the house of the LORD and sat down in the entry of the New Gate of the LORD's house.

[11]And the priests and the prophets spoke to the princes and all the people, saying, "This man deserves to die! For he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your ears."

12Then Jeremiah spoke to all the princes and all the people, saying: “The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city with all the words that you have heard.

13“Now therefore, amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; then the LORD will relent concerning the doom that He has pronounced against you.

14“As for me, here I am, in your hand; do with me as seems good and proper to you.

15“But know for certain that if you put me to death, you will surely bring innocent blood on yourselves, on this city, and on its inhabitants; for truly the LORD has sent me to you to speak all these words in your hearing.”

16So the princes and all the people said to the priests and the prophets, “This man does not deserve to die. For he has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God.”

17Then certain of the elders of the land rose up and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying:

18“Micah of Moresheth prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts:

> “Zion shall be plowed like a field,
> Jerusalem shall become heaps of ruins,
> And the mountain of the temple
> Like the bare hills of the forest.” ’

19“Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah ever put him to death? Did he not fear the LORD and seek the LORD’s favor? And the LORD relented concerning the doom which He had pronounced against them. But we are doing great evil against ourselves.”

20Now there was also a man who prophesied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjath Jearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah.

21And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death; but when

Urijah heard it, he was afraid and fled, and went to Egypt.

[22]Then Jehoiakim the king sent men to Egypt: Elnathan the son of Achbor, and other men who went with him to Egypt.

[23]And they brought Urijah from Egypt and brought him to Jehoiakim the king, who killed him with the sword and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people.

[24]Nevertheless the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, so that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

Jeremiah 27

Symbol of the Bonds and Yokes

[1]In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

[2]“Thus says the LORD to me: ‘Make for yourselves bonds and yokes, and put them on your neck,

[3]‘and send them to the king of Edom, the king of Moab, the king of the Ammonites, the king of Tyre, and the king of Sidon, by the hand of the messengers who come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah.

[4]‘And command them to say to their masters, “Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel—thus you shall say to your masters:

[5]‘I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are on the ground, by My great power and by My outstretched arm, and have given it to whom it seemed proper to Me.

[6]‘And now I have given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, My servant; and the beasts of the field I have also given him to serve him.

[7]‘So all nations shall serve him and his son and his son’s son, until the time of his land comes; and then many nations and great kings shall make him serve them.

[8]‘And it shall be, that the nation and kingdom which will not serve Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and which will not put its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation I will punish,’ says the LORD, ‘with the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand.

[9]‘Therefore do not listen to your prophets, your diviners, your dreamers, your soothsayers, or your sorcerers, who speak to you, saying, “You shall not serve the king of Babylon.”

[10]‘For they prophesy a lie to you, to remove you far from your land; and I will drive you out, and you will perish.

[11]‘But the nations that bring their necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him, I will let them remain in their own land,’ says the LORD, ‘and they shall till it and dwell in it.’ ” ’ ”

[12]I also spoke to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, “Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live!

[13]“Why will you die, you and your people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD has spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?

[14]“Therefore do not listen to the words of the prophets who speak to you, saying, ‘You shall not serve the king of Babylon,’ for they prophesy a lie to you;

[15]“for I have not sent them,” says the LORD, “yet they prophesy a lie in My name, that I may drive you out, and that you may perish, you and the prophets who prophesy to you.”

[16]Also I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, “Thus says the LORD: ‘Do not listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you, saying, “Behold, the vessels of the LORD’s house will now shortly be brought back from Babylon”; for they prophesy a lie to you.

[17]‘Do not listen to them; serve the king of Babylon, and live! Why should this city be laid waste?

[18]‘But if they are prophets, and if the word of the LORD is with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, do not go to Babylon.’

[19]“For thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the pillars, concerning the Sea, concerning the carts, and concerning the remainder of the vessels that remain in this city,

[20]“which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take, when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem —

[21]“yes, thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah and of Jerusalem:

[22]‘They shall be carried to Babylon, and there they shall be until the day that I visit them,’ says the LORD. ‘Then I will bring them up and restore them to this place.’ ”

Jeremiah 28

Hananiah's Falsehood and Doom

[1]And it happened in the same year, at the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year and in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azur the prophet, who was from Gibeon, spoke to me in the house of the LORD in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying,

[2]"Thus speaks the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying: 'I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon.

[3]'Within two full years I will bring back to this place all the vessels of the LORD's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place and carried to Babylon.

[4]'And I will bring back to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah who went to Babylon,' says the LORD, 'for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.' "

[5]Then the prophet Jeremiah spoke to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and in the presence of all the people who stood in the house of the LORD,

[6]and the prophet Jeremiah said, "Amen! The LORD do so; the LORD perform your words which you have prophesied, to bring back the vessels of the LORD's house and all who were carried away captive, from Babylon to this place.

[7]"Nevertheless hear now this word that I speak in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people:

[8]"The prophets who have been before me and before you of old prophesied against many countries and great kingdoms—of war and disaster and pestilence.

[9]"As for the prophet who prophesies of peace, when the word of the prophet comes to pass, the prophet will be known as one whom the LORD has truly sent."

[10]Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke off the prophet Jeremiah's neck and broke it.

[11]And Hananiah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, “Thus says the LORD: ‘Even so I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years.’ ” And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

[12]Now the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying,

[13]“Go and tell Hananiah, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD: “You have broken the yokes of wood, but you have made in their place yokes of iron.”

[14]‘For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “I have put a yoke of iron on the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him. I have given him the beasts of the field also.” ’ ”

[15]Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hananiah the prophet, “Hear now, Hananiah, the LORD has not sent you, but you make this people trust in a lie.

[16]“Therefore thus says the LORD: ‘Behold, I will cast you from the face of the earth. This year you shall die, because you have taught rebellion against the LORD.’ ”

[17]So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

Jeremiah 29

Jeremiah's Letter to the Captives

[1]Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the remainder of the elders who were carried away captive—to the priests, the prophets, and all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon.

[2](This happened after Jeconiah the king, the queen mother, the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen, and the smiths had departed from Jerusalem.)

[3]The letter was sent by the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to Babylon, to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, saying,

> [4]Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, to all who were carried away captive, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem to Babylon:
>
> [5]Build houses and dwell in them; plant gardens and eat their fruit.
>
> [6]Take wives and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons and give your daughters to husbands, so that they may bear sons and daughters—that you may be increased there, and not diminished.
>
> [7]And seek the peace of the city where I have caused you to be carried away captive, and pray to the LORD for it; for in its peace you will have peace.
>
> [8]For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Do not let your prophets and your diviners who are in your midst deceive you, nor listen to your dreams which you cause to be dreamed.
>
> [9]For they prophesy falsely to you in My name; I have not sent them, says the LORD.
>
> [10]For thus says the LORD: After seventy years are completed at Babylon, I will visit you and perform My good word toward you, and cause you to return to this place.

[11]For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says the LORD, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope.
[12]Then you will call upon Me and go and pray to Me, and I will listen to you.
[13]And you will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart.
[14]I will be found by you, says the LORD, and I will bring you back from your captivity; I will gather you from all the nations and from all the places where I have driven you, says the LORD, and I will bring you to the place from which I cause you to be carried away captive.

15Because you have said, "The LORD has raised up prophets for us in Babylon"—
[16]therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king who sits on the throne of David, concerning all the people who dwell in this city, and concerning your brethren who have not gone out with you into captivity—
[17]thus says the LORD of hosts: Behold, I will send on them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like rotten figs that cannot be eaten, they are so bad.
[18]And I will pursue them with the sword, with famine, and with pestilence; and I will deliver them to trouble among all the kingdoms of the earth—to be a curse, an astonishment, a hissing, and a reproach among all the nations where I have driven them,
[19]because they have not heeded My words, says the LORD, which I sent to them by My servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; neither would you heed, says the LORD.
[20]Therefore hear the word of the LORD, all you of the captivity, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon.

21Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, who prophesy a lie to you in My name: Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall slay them before your eyes.

[22]And because of them a curse shall be taken up by all the captivity of Judah who are in Babylon, saying, “The LORD make you like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire”;
[23]because they have done disgraceful things in Israel, have committed adultery with their neighbors’ wives, and have spoken lying words in My name, which I have not commanded them. Indeed I know, and am a witness, says the LORD.

[24]You shall also speak to Shemaiah the Nehelamite, saying,
[25]Thus speaks the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying: You have sent letters in your name to all the people who are at Jerusalem, to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, saying,
[26]“The LORD has made you priest instead of Jehoiada the priest, so that there should be officers in the house of the LORD over every man who is demented and considers himself a prophet, that you should put him in prison and in the stocks.
[27]Now therefore, why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth who makes himself a prophet to you?
[28]For he has sent to us in Babylon, saying, ‘This captivity is long; build houses and dwell in them, and plant gardens and eat their fruit.’ ”

[29]Now Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the hearing of Jeremiah the prophet.
[30]Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying:
[31]Send to all those in captivity, saying, Thus says the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, and I have not sent him, and he has caused you to trust in a lie—
[32]therefore thus says the LORD: Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his family: he shall not have anyone to dwell among this people, nor shall he see the good that I will do for My people, says the LORD, because he has taught rebellion against the LORD.

Jeremiah 30

Restoration of Israel and Judah

[1]The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

[2]"Thus speaks the LORD God of Israel, saying: 'Write in a book for yourself all the words that I have spoken to you.

[3]'For behold, the days are coming,' says the LORD, 'that I will bring back from captivity My people Israel and Judah,' says the LORD. 'And I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.' "

[4]Now these are the words that the LORD spoke concerning Israel and Judah.

[5]"For thus says the LORD:

'We have heard a voice of trembling,
Of fear, and not of peace.
[6]Ask now, and see,
Whether a man is ever in labor with child?
So why do I see every man with his hands on his loins
Like a woman in labor,
And all faces turned pale?
[7]Alas! For that day is great,
So that none is like it;
And it is the time of Jacob's trouble,
But he shall be saved out of it.

[8]'For it shall come to pass in that day,'
Says the LORD of hosts,
'That I will break his yoke from your neck,
And will burst your bonds;
Foreigners shall no more enslave them.
[9]But they shall serve the LORD their God,
And David their king,
Whom I will raise up for them.

10‘Therefore do not fear, O My servant Jacob,’ says the LORD,
‘Nor be dismayed, O Israel;
For behold, I will save you from afar,
And your seed from the land of their captivity.
Jacob shall return, have rest and be quiet,
And no one shall make him afraid.
[11]For I am with you,’ says the LORD, ‘to save you;
Though I make a full end of all nations where I have scattered you,
Yet I will not make a complete end of you.
But I will correct you in justice,
And will not let you go altogether unpunished.’

12“For thus says the LORD:

‘Your affliction is incurable,
Your wound is severe.
[13]There is no one to plead your cause,
That you may be bound up;
You have no healing medicines.
[14]All your lovers have forgotten you;
They do not seek you;
For I have wounded you with the wound of an enemy,
With the chastisement of a cruel one,
For the multitude of your iniquities,
Because your sins have increased.
[15]Why do you cry about your affliction?
Your sorrow is incurable.
Because of the multitude of your iniquities,
Because your sins have increased,
I have done these things to you.

[16]‘Therefore all those who devour you shall be devoured;
And all your adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity;
Those who plunder you shall become plunder,

And all who prey upon you I will make a prey.
[17]For I will restore health to you
And heal you of your wounds,' says the LORD,
'Because they called you an outcast saying:
"This is Zion;
No one seeks her." '

18"Thus says the LORD:

'Behold, I will bring back the captivity of Jacob's tents,
And have mercy on his dwelling places;
The city shall be built upon its own mound,
And the palace shall remain according to its own plan.
[19]Then out of them shall proceed thanksgiving
And the voice of those who make merry;
I will multiply them, and they shall not diminish;
I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small.
[20]Their children also shall be as before,
And their congregation shall be established before Me;
And I will punish all who oppress them.
[21]Their nobles shall be from among them,
And their governor shall come from their midst;
Then I will cause him to draw near,
And he shall approach Me;
For who is this who pledged his heart to approach Me?' says the LORD.
[22]'You shall be My people,
And I will be your God.' "

23Behold, the whirlwind of the LORD
Goes forth with fury,
A continuing whirlwind;
It will fall violently on the head of the wicked.
[24]The fierce anger of the LORD will not return until He has done it,
And until He has performed the intents of His heart.

In the latter days you will consider it.

Jeremiah 31

The Remnant of Israel Saved

[1]"At the same time," says the LORD, "I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be My people."

[2]Thus says the LORD:

"The people who survived the sword
Found grace in the wilderness—
Israel, when I went to give him rest."

[3]The LORD has appeared of old to me, saying:
"Yes, I have loved you with an everlasting love;
Therefore with lovingkindness I have drawn you.
[4]Again I will build you, and you shall be rebuilt,
O virgin of Israel!
You shall again be adorned with your tambourines,
And shall go forth in the dances of those who rejoice.
[5]You shall yet plant vines on the mountains of Samaria;
The planters shall plant and eat them as ordinary food.
[6]For there shall be a day
When the watchmen will cry on Mount Ephraim,
'Arise, and let us go up to Zion,
To the LORD our God.' "

[7]For thus says the LORD:

"Sing with gladness for Jacob,
And shout among the chief of the nations;
Proclaim, give praise, and say,
'O LORD, save Your people,
The remnant of Israel!'
[8]Behold, I will bring them from the north country,
And gather them from the ends of the earth,
Among them the blind and the lame,
The woman with child

And the one who labors with child, together;
A great throng shall return there.
[9]They shall come with weeping,
And with supplications I will lead them.
I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters,
In a straight way in which they shall not stumble;
For I am a Father to Israel,
And Ephraim is My firstborn.

10“Hear the word of the LORD, O nations,
And declare it in the isles afar off, and say,
‘He who scattered Israel will gather him,
And keep him as a shepherd does his flock.’
[11]For the LORD has redeemed Jacob,
And ransomed him from the hand of one stronger than he.
[12]Therefore they shall come and sing in the height of Zion,
Streaming to the goodness of the LORD—
For wheat and new wine and oil,
For the young of the flock and the herd;
Their souls shall be like a well-watered garden,
And they shall sorrow no more at all.

[13]“Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance,
And the young men and the old, together;
For I will turn their mourning to joy,
Will comfort them,
And make them rejoice rather than sorrow.
[14]I will satiate the soul of the priests with abundance,
And My people shall be satisfied with My goodness, says the LORD.”

Mercy on Ephraim

15Thus says the LORD:

“A voice was heard in Ramah,
Lamentation and bitter weeping,
Rachel weeping for her children,

Refusing to be comforted for her children,
Because they are no more."

[16]Thus says the LORD:

"Refrain your voice from weeping,
And your eyes from tears;
For your work shall be rewarded, says the LORD,
And they shall come back from the land of the enemy.
[17]There is hope in your future, says the LORD,
That your children shall come back to their own border.

[18]"I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself:
'You have chastised me, and I was chastised,
Like an untrained bull;
Restore me, and I will return,
For You are the LORD my God.
[19]Surely, after my turning, I repented;
And after I was instructed, I struck myself on the thigh;
I was ashamed, yes, even humiliated,
Because I bore the reproach of my youth.'
[20]Is Ephraim My dear son?
Is he a pleasant child?
For though I spoke against him,
I earnestly remember him still;
Therefore My heart yearns for him;
I will surely have mercy on him, says the LORD.

[21]"Set up signposts,
Make landmarks;
Set your heart toward the highway,
The way in which you went.
Turn back, O virgin of Israel,
Turn back to these your cities.
[22]How long will you gad about,
O you backsliding daughter?
For the LORD has created a new thing in the earth—

A woman shall encompass a man.”

Future Prosperity of Judah

23Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “They shall again use this speech in the land of Judah and in its cities, when I bring back their captivity: ‘The LORD bless you, O home of justice, and mountain of holiness!’

24“And there shall dwell in Judah itself, and in all its cities together, farmers and those going out with flocks.

25“For I have satiated the weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul.”

26After this I awoke and looked around, and my sleep was sweet to me.

27“Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man and the seed of beast.

28“And it shall come to pass, that as I have watched over them to pluck up, to break down, to throw down, to destroy, and to afflict, so I will watch over them to build and to plant, says the LORD.

29“In those days they shall say no more:

‘The fathers have eaten sour grapes,
And the children’s teeth are set on edge.’

30“But every one shall die for his own iniquity; every man who eats the sour grapes, his teeth shall be set on edge.

A New Covenant

31“Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah—

32“not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt, My covenant which they broke, though I was a husband to them, says the LORD.

33“But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: I will put My law in their minds, and write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be My people.

[34]"No more shall every man teach his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, 'Know the LORD,' for they all shall know Me, from the least of them to the greatest of them, says the LORD. For I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin I will remember no more."

[35]Thus says the LORD,
Who gives the sun for a light by day,
The ordinances of the moon and the stars for a light by night,
Who disturbs the sea,
And its waves roar
(The LORD of hosts is His name):

[36]"If those ordinances depart
From before Me, says the LORD,
Then the seed of Israel shall also cease
From being a nation before Me forever."

[37]Thus says the LORD:

"If heaven above can be measured,
And the foundations of the earth searched out beneath,
I will also cast off all the seed of Israel
For all that they have done, says the LORD.

[38]"Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, that the city shall be built for the LORD from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate.

[39]"The surveyor's line shall again extend straight forward over the hill Gareb; then it shall turn toward Goath.

[40]"And the whole valley of the dead bodies and of the ashes, and all the fields as far as the Brook Kidron, to the corner of the Horse Gate toward the east, shall be holy to the LORD. It shall not be plucked up or thrown down anymore forever."

Jeremiah 32

Jeremiah Buys a Field

[1]The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar.

[2]For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house.

[3]For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, "Why do you prophesy and say, 'Thus says the LORD: "Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it;

[4]"and Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape from the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him face to face, and see him eye to eye;

[5]"then he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there he shall be until I visit him," says the LORD; "though you fight with the Chaldeans, you shall not succeed" '?"

[6]And Jeremiah said, "The word of the LORD came to me, saying,

[7]'Behold, Hanamel the son of Shallum your uncle will come to you, saying, "Buy my field which is in Anathoth, for the right of redemption is yours to buy it." '

[8]"Then Hanamel my uncle's son came to me in the court of the prison according to the word of the LORD, and said to me, 'Please buy my field that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin; for the right of inheritance is yours, and the redemption yours; buy it for yourself.' Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

[9]"So I bought the field from Hanamel, the son of my uncle who was in Anathoth, and weighed out to him the money—seventeen shekels of silver.

[10]"And I signed the deed and sealed it, took witnesses, and weighed the money on the scales.

[11]"So I took the purchase deed, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open;

[12]"and I gave the purchase deed to Baruch the son of Neriah, son of Mahseiah, in the presence of Hanamel my uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses who signed the purchase deed, before all the Jews who sat in the court of the prison.

[13]"Then I charged Baruch before them, saying,

[14]'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Take these deeds, both this purchase deed which is sealed and this deed which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may last many days."

[15]'For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Houses and fields and vineyards shall be possessed again in this land." '

Jeremiah Prays for Understanding

[16]"Now when I had delivered the purchase deed to Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD, saying:

[17]'Ah, Lord GOD! Behold, You have made the heavens and the earth by Your great power and outstretched arm. There is nothing too hard for You.

[18]'You show lovingkindness to thousands, and repay the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them—the Great, the Mighty God, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

[19]'You are great in counsel and mighty in work, for your eyes are open to all the ways of the sons of men, to give everyone according to his ways and according to the fruit of his doings.

[20]'You have set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, to this day, and in Israel and among other men; and You have made Yourself a name, as it is this day.

[21]'You have brought Your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs and wonders, with a strong hand and an outstretched arm, and with great terror;

[22]'You have given them this land, of which You swore to their fathers to give them—"a land flowing with milk and honey."

[23]'And they came in and took possession of it, but they have not obeyed Your voice or walked in Your law. They have done nothing of all that You commanded them to do; therefore You have caused all this calamity to come upon them.

[24]'Look, the siege mounds! They have come to the city to take it; and the city has been given into the hand of the Chaldeans who fight against it, because of the sword and famine and pestilence. What You have spoken has happened; there You see it!

[25]'And You have said to me, O Lord GOD, "Buy the field for money, and take witnesses"!—yet the city has been given into the hand of the Chaldeans.' "

God's Assurance of the People's Return

[26]Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

[27]"Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh. Is there anything too hard for Me?

[28]"Therefore thus says the LORD: 'Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it.

[29]'And the Chaldeans who fight against this city shall come and set fire to this city and burn it, with the houses on whose roofs they have offered incense to Baal and poured out drink offerings to other gods, to provoke Me to anger;

[30]'because the children of Israel and the children of Judah have done only evil before Me from their youth. For the children of Israel have provoked Me only to anger with the work of their hands,' says the LORD.

[31]'For this city has been to Me a provocation of My anger and My fury from the day that they built it, even to this day; so I will remove it from before My face

[32]'because of all the evil of the children of Israel and the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke Me to anger—they, their kings, their princes, their priests, their prophets, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

[33]'And they have turned to Me the back, and not the face; though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not listened to receive instruction.

[34]'But they set their abominations in the house which is called by My name, to defile it.

[35]‘And they built the high places of Baal which are in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire to Molech, which I did not command them, nor did it come into My mind that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.’

[36]“Now therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city of which you say, ‘It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence:

[37]‘Behold, I will gather them out of all countries where I have driven them in My anger, in My fury, and in great wrath; I will bring them back to this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely.

[38]‘They shall be My people, and I will be their God;

[39]‘then I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear Me forever, for the good of them and their children after them.

[40]‘And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from doing them good; but I will put My fear in their hearts so that they will not depart from Me.

[41]‘Yes, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will assuredly plant them in this land, with all My heart and with all My soul.’

[42]“For thus says the LORD: ‘Just as I have brought all this great calamity on this people, so I will bring on them all the good that I have promised them.

[43]‘And fields will be bought in this land of which you say, “It is desolate, without man or beast; it has been given into the hand of the Chaldeans.”

[44]‘Men will buy fields for money, sign deeds and seal them, and take witnesses, in the land of Benjamin, in the places around Jerusalem, in the cities of Judah, in the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the South; for I will cause their captives to return,’ says the LORD.”

Jeremiah 33

Excellence of the Restored Nation

[1]Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah a second time, while he was still shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

[2]"Thus says the LORD who made it, the LORD who formed it to establish it (the LORD is His name):

[3]'Call to Me, and I will answer you, and show you great and mighty things, which you do not know.'

[4]"For thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city and the houses of the kings of Judah, which have been pulled down to fortify against the siege mounds and the sword:

[5]'They come to fight with the Chaldeans, but only to fill their places with the dead bodies of men whom I will slay in My anger and My fury, all for whose wickedness I have hidden My face from this city.

[6]'Behold, I will bring it health and healing; I will heal them and reveal to them the abundance of peace and truth.

[7]'And I will cause the captives of Judah and the captives of Israel to return, and will rebuild those places as at the first.

[8]'I will cleanse them from all their iniquity by which they have sinned against Me, and I will pardon all their iniquities by which they have sinned and by which they have transgressed against Me.

[9]'Then it shall be to Me a name of joy, a praise, and an honor before all nations of the earth, who shall hear all the good that I do to them; they shall fear and tremble for all the goodness and all the prosperity that I provide for it.'

[10]"Thus says the LORD: 'Again there shall be heard in this place—of which you say, "It is desolate, without man and without beast"—in the cities of Judah, in the streets of Jerusalem that are desolate, without man and without inhabitant and without beast,

[11]'the voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voice of those who will say:

"Praise the LORD of hosts,

For the LORD is good,
For His mercy endures forever"—

and of those who will bring the sacrifice of praise into the house of the LORD. For I will cause the captives of the land to return as at the first,' says the LORD.

[12]"Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'In this place which is desolate, without man and without beast, and in all its cities, there shall again be a dwelling place of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down.

[13]'In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the lowland, in the cities of the South, in the land of Benjamin, in the places around Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, the flocks shall again pass under the hands of him who counts them,' says the LORD.

[14]'Behold, the days are coming,' says the LORD, 'that I will perform that good thing which I have promised to the house of Israel and to the house of Judah:

[15]'In those days and at that time
I will cause to grow up to David
A Branch of righteousness;
He shall execute judgment and righteousness in the earth.
[16]In those days Judah will be saved,
And Jerusalem will dwell safely.
And this is the name by which she will be called:

THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.'

[17]"For thus says the LORD: 'David shall never lack a man to sit on the throne of the house of Israel;

[18]'nor shall the priests, the Levites, lack a man to offer burnt offerings before Me, to kindle grain offerings, and to sacrifice continually.' "

The Permanence of God's Covenant

[19]And the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

[20]"Thus says the LORD: 'If you can break My covenant with the day and My covenant with the night, so that there will not be day and night in their season,

[21]‘then My covenant may also be broken with David My servant, so that he shall not have a son to reign on his throne, and with the Levites, the priests, My ministers.

[22]‘As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, nor the sand of the sea measured, so will I multiply the descendants of David My servant and the Levites who minister to Me.’ ”

23Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

[24]“Have you not considered what these people have spoken, saying, ‘The two families which the LORD has chosen, He has also cast them off’? Thus they have despised My people, as if they should no more be a nation before them.

25“Thus says the LORD: ‘If My covenant is not with day and night, and if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth,

[26]‘then I will cast away the descendants of Jacob and David My servant, so that I will not take any of his descendants to be rulers over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. For I will cause their captives to return, and will have mercy on them.’ ”

Jeremiah 34

Zedekiah Warned by God

[1]The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army, all the kingdoms of the earth under his dominion, and all the people, fought against Jerusalem and all its cities, saying,

[2]“Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: ‘Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah and tell him, “Thus says the LORD: ‘Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.

[3]‘And you shall not escape from his hand, but shall surely be taken and delivered into his hand; your eyes shall see the eyes of the king of Babylon, he shall speak with you face to face, and you shall go to Babylon.’ ” ’

[4]“Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah! Thus says the LORD concerning you: ‘You shall not die by the sword.

[5]‘You shall die in peace; as in the ceremonies of your fathers, the former kings who were before you, so they shall burn incense for you and lament for you, saying, “Alas, lord!” For I have pronounced the word, says the LORD.’ ”

[6]Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem,

[7]when the king of Babylon’s army fought against Jerusalem and all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish and Azekah; for only these fortified cities remained of the cities of Judah.

Treacherous Treatment of Slaves

[8]This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after King Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people who were at Jerusalem to proclaim liberty to them:

[9]that every man should set free his male and female slave—a Hebrew man or woman—that no one should keep a Jewish brother in bondage.

[10]Now when all the princes and all the people, who had entered into the covenant, heard that everyone should set free his male and female slaves, that no one should keep them in bondage anymore, they obeyed and let them go.

[11]But afterward they changed their minds and made the male and female slaves return, whom they had set free, and brought them into subjection as male and female slaves.

[12]Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

[13]"Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying,

[14]"At the end of seven years let every man set free his Hebrew brother, who has been sold to him; and when he has served you six years, you shall let him go free from you." But your fathers did not obey Me nor incline their ear.

[15]'Then you recently turned and did what was right in My sight—every man proclaiming liberty to his neighbor; and you made a covenant before Me in the house which is called by My name.

[16]'Then you turned around and profaned My name, and every one of you brought back his male and female slaves, whom he had set at liberty, at their pleasure, and brought them back into subjection, to be your male and female slaves.'

[17]"Therefore thus says the LORD: 'You have not obeyed Me in proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother and every one to his neighbor. Behold, I proclaim liberty to you,' says the LORD—'to the sword, to pestilence, and to famine! And I will deliver you to trouble among all the kingdoms of the earth.

[18]'And I will give the men who have transgressed My covenant, who have not performed the words of the covenant which they made before Me, when they cut the calf in two and passed between the parts of it—

[19]'the princes of Judah, the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, the priests, and all the people of the land who passed between the parts of the calf—

[20]'I will give them into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those who seek their life. Their dead bodies shall be for meat for the birds of the heaven and the beasts of the earth.

[21]‘And I will give Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes into the hand of their enemies, into the hand of those who seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon’s army which has gone back from you.

[22]‘Behold, I will command,’ says the LORD, ‘and cause them to return to this city. They will fight against it and take it and burn it with fire; and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without inhabitant.’ ”

Jeremiah 35

The Obedient Rechabites

[1]The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying,

[2]"Go to the house of the Rechabites, speak to them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drink."

[3]Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, his brothers and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites,

[4]and I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan the son of Igdaliah, a man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the door.

[5]Then I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites bowls full of wine, and cups; and I said to them, "Drink wine."

[6]But they said, "We will drink no wine, for Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, commanded us, saying, 'You shall drink no wine, you nor your sons, forever.

[7]'You shall not build a house, sow seed, plant a vineyard, nor have any of these; but all your days you shall dwell in tents, that you may live many days in the land where you are sojourners.'

[8]"Thus we have obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, in all that he charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, or our daughters, [9]"nor to build ourselves houses to dwell in; nor do we have vineyard, field, or seed.

[10]"But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.

[11]"But it came to pass, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, 'Come, let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans and for fear of the army of the Syrians.' So we dwell at Jerusalem."

[12]Then came the word of the LORD to Jeremiah, saying,

[13]“Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, “Will you not receive instruction to obey My words?” says the LORD.

[14]“The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, which he commanded his sons, not to drink wine, are performed; for to this day they drink none, and obey their father’s commandment. But although I have spoken to you, rising early and speaking, you did not obey Me.

[15]“I have also sent to you all My servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, ‘Turn now everyone from his evil way, amend your doings, and do not go after other gods to serve them; then you will dwell in the land which I have given you and your fathers.’ But you have not inclined your ear, nor obeyed Me.

[16]“Surely the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them, but this people has not obeyed Me.” ’

[17]“Therefore thus says the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Behold, I will bring on Judah and on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the doom that I have pronounced against them; because I have spoken to them but they have not heard, and I have called to them but they have not answered.’ ”

[18]And Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites, “Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Because you have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts and done according to all that he commanded you,

[19]‘therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not lack a man to stand before Me forever.” ’ ”

Jeremiah 36

The Scroll Read in the Temple

[1]Now it came to pass in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, that this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying:

[2]"Take a scroll of a book and write on it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel, against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Josiah even to this day.

[3]"It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the adversities which I purpose to bring upon them, that everyone may turn from his evil way, that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin."

[4]Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah; and Baruch wrote on a scroll of a book, at the instruction of Jeremiah, all the words of the LORD which He had spoken to him.

[5]And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, "I am confined, I cannot go into the house of the LORD.

[6]"You go, therefore, and read from the scroll which you have written at my instruction, the words of the LORD, in the hearing of the people in the LORD's house on the day of fasting. And you shall also read them in the hearing of all Judah who come from their cities.

[7]"It may be that they will present their supplication before the LORD, and everyone will turn from his evil way. For great is the anger and the fury that the LORD has pronounced against this people."

[8]And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading from the book the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

[9]Now it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people who came from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem.

[10]Then Baruch read from the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the upper court at the entry of the New Gate of the LORD's house, in the hearing of all the people.

The Scroll Read in the Palace

11When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, heard all the words of the LORD from the book,

12he then went down to the king's house, into the scribe's chamber; and there all the princes were sitting—Elishama the scribe, Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, Elnathan the son of Achbor, Gemariah the son of Shaphan, Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes.

13Then Michaiah declared to them all the words that he had heard when Baruch read the book in the hearing of the people.

14Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to Baruch, saying, "Take in your hand the scroll from which you have read in the hearing of the people, and come." So Baruch the son of Neriah took the scroll in his hand and came to them.

15And they said to him, "Sit down now, and read it in our hearing." So Baruch read it in their hearing.

16Now it happened, when they had heard all the words, that they looked in fear from one to another, and said to Baruch, "We will surely tell the king of all these words."

17And they asked Baruch, saying, "Tell us now, how did you write all these words—at his instruction?"

18So Baruch answered them, "He proclaimed with his mouth all these words to me, and I wrote them with ink in the book."

19Then the princes said to Baruch, "Go and hide, you and Jeremiah; and let no one know where you are."

The King Destroys Jeremiah's Scroll

20And they went to the king, into the court; but they stored the scroll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the hearing of the king.

21So the king sent Jehudi to bring the scroll, and he took it from Elishama the scribe's chamber. And Jehudi read it in the hearing of the king and in the hearing of all the princes who stood beside the king.

22Now the king was sitting in the winter house in the ninth month, with a fire burning on the hearth before him.

[23]And it happened, when Jehudi had read three or four columns, that the king cut it with the scribe’s knife and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the scroll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth.

[24]Yet they were not afraid, nor did they tear their garments, the king nor any of his servants who heard all these words.

[25]Nevertheless Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah implored the king not to burn the scroll; but he would not listen to them.

[26]And the king commanded Jerahmeel the king’s son, Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to seize Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet, but the LORD hid them.

Jeremiah Rewrites the Scroll

[27]Now after the king had burned the scroll with the words which Baruch had written at the instruction of Jeremiah, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying:

[28]“Take yet another scroll, and write on it all the former words that were in the first scroll which Jehoiakim the king of Judah has burned.

[29]“And you shall say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, ‘Thus says the LORD: “You have burned this scroll, saying, ‘Why have you written in it that the king of Babylon will certainly come and destroy this land, and cause man and beast to cease from here?’ ”

[30]‘Therefore thus says the LORD concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: “He shall have no one to sit on the throne of David, and his dead body shall be cast out to the heat of the day and the frost of the night.

[31]“I will punish him, his family, and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring on them, on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and on the men of Judah all the doom that I have pronounced against them; but they did not heed.” ’ ”

[32]Then Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah, who wrote on it at the instruction of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire. And besides, there were added to them many similar words.

Jeremiah 37

Zedekiah's Vain Hope

[1]Now King Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned instead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah.

[2]But neither he nor his servants nor the people of the land gave heed to the words of the LORD which He spoke by the prophet Jeremiah.

[3]And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, "Pray now to the LORD our God for us."

[4]Now Jeremiah was coming and going among the people, for they had not yet put him in prison.

[5]Then Pharaoh's army came up from Egypt; and when the Chaldeans who were besieging Jerusalem heard news of them, they departed from Jerusalem.

[6]Then the word of the LORD came to the prophet Jeremiah, saying,

[7]"Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Thus you shall say to the king of Judah, who sent you to Me to inquire of Me: "Behold, Pharaoh's army which has come up to help you will return to Egypt, to their own land.

[8]"And the Chaldeans shall come back and fight against this city, and take it and burn it with fire." '

[9]"Thus says the LORD: 'Do not deceive yourselves, saying, "The Chaldeans will surely depart from us," for they will not depart.

[10]'For though you had defeated the whole army of the Chaldeans who fight against you, and there remained only wounded men among them, they would rise up, every man in his tent, and burn the city with fire.' "

Jeremiah Imprisoned

[11]And it happened, when the army of the Chaldeans left the siege of Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army,

[12]that Jeremiah went out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin to claim his property there among the people.

[13]And when he was in the Gate of Benjamin, a captain of the guard was there whose name was Irijah the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he seized Jeremiah the prophet, saying, “You are defecting to the Chaldeans!”

[14]Then Jeremiah said, “False! I am not defecting to the Chaldeans.” But he did not listen to him. So Irijah seized Jeremiah and brought him to the princes.

[15]Therefore the princes were angry with Jeremiah, and they struck him and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe. For they had made that the prison.

[16]When Jeremiah entered the dungeon and the cells, and Jeremiah had remained there many days,

[17]then Zedekiah the king sent and took him out. The king asked him secretly in his house, and said, “Is there any word from the LORD?” And Jeremiah said, “There is.” Then he said, “You shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon!”

[18]Moreover Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, “What offense have I committed against you, against your servants, or against this people, that you have put me in prison?

[19]“Where now are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, ‘The king of Babylon will not come against you or against this land’?

[20]“Therefore please hear now, O my lord the king. Please, let my petition be accepted before you, and do not make me return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there.”

[21]Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah to the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread from the bakers’ street, until all the bread in the city was gone. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

Jeremiah 38

Jeremiah in the Dungeon

[1]Now Shephatiah the son of Mattan, Gedaliah the son of Pashhur, Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur the son of Malchiah heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken to all the people, saying,

[2]"Thus says the LORD: 'He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence; but he who goes over to the Chaldeans shall live; his life shall be as a prize to him, and he shall live.'

[3]"Thus says the LORD: 'This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it.' "

[4]Therefore the princes said to the king, "Please, let this man be put to death, for thus he weakens the hands of the men of war who remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, by speaking such words to them. For this man does not seek the welfare of this people, but their harm."

[5]Then Zedekiah the king said, "Look, he is in your hand. For the king can do nothing against you."

[6]So they took Jeremiah and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the king's son, which was in the court of the prison, and they let Jeremiah down with ropes. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire. So Jeremiah sank in the mire.

[7]Now Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs, who was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon. When the king was sitting at the Gate of Benjamin,

[8]Ebed-Melech went out of the king's house and spoke to the king, saying:

[9]"My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon, and he is likely to die from hunger in the place where he is. For there is no more bread in the city."

[10]Then the king commanded Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian, saying, "Take from here thirty men with you, and lift Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon before he dies."

[11]So Ebed-Melech took the men with him and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took from there old clothes and old rags, and let them down by ropes into the dungeon to Jeremiah.

[12]Then Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, "Please put these old clothes and rags under your armpits, under the ropes." And Jeremiah did so.

[13]So they pulled Jeremiah up with ropes and lifted him out of the dungeon. And Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

Zedekiah's Fears and Jeremiah's Advice

[14]Then Zedekiah the king sent and had Jeremiah the prophet brought to him at the third entrance of the house of the LORD. And the king said to Jeremiah, "I will ask you something. Hide nothing from me."

[15]Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "If I declare it to you, will you not surely put me to death? And if I give you advice, you will not listen to me."

[16]So Zedekiah the king swore secretly to Jeremiah, saying, "As the LORD lives, who made our very souls, I will not put you to death, nor will I give you into the hand of these men who seek your life."

[17]Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "Thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: 'If you surely surrender to the king of Babylon's princes, then your soul shall live; this city shall not be burned with fire, and you and your house shall live.

[18]'But if you do not surrender to the king of Babylon's princes, then this city shall be given into the hand of the Chaldeans; they shall burn it with fire, and you shall not escape from their hand.' "

[19]And Zedekiah the king said to Jeremiah, "I am afraid of the Jews who have defected to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they abuse me."

[20]But Jeremiah said, "They shall not deliver you. Please, obey the voice of the LORD which I speak to you. So it shall be well with you, and your soul shall live.

[21]"But if you refuse to surrender, this is the word that the LORD has shown me:

[22]‘Now behold, all the women who are left in the king of Judah’s house shall be surrendered to the king of Babylon’s princes, and those women shall say:

“Your close friends have set upon you
And prevailed against you;
Your feet have sunk in the mire,
And they have turned away again.”

[23]‘So they shall surrender all your wives and children to the Chaldeans. You shall not escape from their hand, but shall be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon. And you shall cause this city to be burned with fire.’ ”

[24]Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “Let no one know of these words, and you shall not die.

[25]“But if the princes hear that I have talked with you, and they come to you and say to you, ‘Declare to us now what you have said to the king, and also what the king said to you; do not hide it from us, and we will not put you to death,’

[26]“then you shall say to them, ‘I presented my request before the king, that he would not make me return to Jonathan’s house to die there.’ ”

[27]Then all the princes came to Jeremiah and asked him. And he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they stopped speaking with him, for the conversation had not been heard.

[28]Now Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken. And he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

Jeremiah 39

The Fall of Jerusalem

[1]In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem, and besieged it.

[2]In the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, the city was penetrated.

[3]Then all the princes of the king of Babylon came in and sat in the Middle Gate: Nergal-Sharezer, Samgar-Nebo, Sarsechim, Rabsaris, Nergal-Sarezer, Rabmag, with the rest of the princes of the king of Babylon.

[4]So it was, when Zedekiah the king of Judah and all the men of war saw them, that they fled and went out of the city by night, by way of the king's garden, by the gate between the two walls. And he went out by way of the plain.

[5]But the Chaldean army pursued them and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. And when they had captured him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, to Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he pronounced judgment on him.

[6]Then the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes in Riblah; the king of Babylon also killed all the nobles of Judah.

[7]Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with bronze fetters to carry him off to Babylon.

[8]And the Chaldeans burned the king's house and the houses of the people with fire, and broke down the walls of Jerusalem.

[9]Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive to Babylon the remnant of the people who remained in the city and those who defected to him, with the rest of the people who remained.

[10]But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left in the land of Judah the poor people, who had nothing, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

Jeremiah Goes Free

11Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, saying,

12“Take him and look after him, and do him no harm; but do to him just as he says to you.”

13So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard sent Nebushasban, Rabsaris, Nergal-Sharezer, Rabmag, and all the king of Babylon’s chief officers;

14then they sent someone to take Jeremiah from the court of the prison, and committed him to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, that he should take him home. So he dwelt among the people.

15Meanwhile the word of the LORD had come to Jeremiah while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

16“Go and speak to Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “Behold, I will bring My words upon this city for adversity and not for good, and they shall be performed in that day before you.

17“But I will deliver you in that day,” says the LORD, “and you shall not be given into the hand of the men of whom you are afraid.

18“For I will surely deliver you, and you shall not fall by the sword; but your life shall be as a prize to you, because you have put your trust in Me,” says the LORD.’ ”

Jeremiah 40

Jeremiah with Gedaliah the Governor

[1]The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD after Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him bound in chains among all who were carried away captive from Jerusalem and Judah, who were carried away captive to Babylon.

[2]And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah and said to him: "The LORD your God has pronounced this doom on this place.

[3]"Now the LORD has brought it, and has done just as He said. Because you people have sinned against the LORD, and not obeyed His voice, therefore this thing has come upon you.

[4]"And now look, I free you this day from the chains that were on your hand. If it seems good to you to come with me to Babylon, come, and I will look after you. But if it seems wrong for you to come with me to Babylon, remain here. See, all the land is before you; wherever it seems good and convenient for you to go, go there."

[5]Now while Jeremiah had not yet gone back, Nebuzaradan said, "Go back to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people. Or go wherever it seems convenient for you to go." So the captain of the guard gave him rations and a gift and let him go.

[6]Then Jeremiah went to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, to Mizpah, and dwelt with him among the people who were left in the land.

[7]And when all the captains of the armies who were in the fields, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed to him men, women, children, and the poorest of the land who had not been carried away captive to Babylon,

[8]then they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah—Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men.

[9]And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, took an oath before them and their men, saying, “Do not be afraid to serve the Chaldeans. Dwell in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.

[10]“As for me, I will indeed dwell at Mizpah and serve the Chaldeans who come to us. But you, gather wine and summer fruit and oil, put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that you have taken.”

[11]Likewise, when all the Jews who were in Moab, among the Ammonites, in Edom, and who were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan,

[12]then all the Jews returned out of all places where they had been driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruit in abundance.

[13]Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields came to Gedaliah at Mizpah,

[14]and said to him, “Do you certainly know that Baalis the king of the Ammonites has sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to murder you?” But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam did not believe them.

[15]Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke secretly to Gedaliah in Mizpah, saying, “Let me go, please, and I will kill Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no one will know it. Why should he murder you, so that all the Jews who are gathered to you would be scattered, and the remnant in Judah perish?”

[16]But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said to Johanan the son of Kareah, “You shall not do this thing, for you speak falsely concerning Ishmael.”

Jeremiah 41

Insurrection Against Gedaliah

[1]Now it came to pass in the seventh month that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal family and of the officers of the king, came with ten men to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, at Mizpah. And there they ate bread together in Mizpah.

[2]Then Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men who were with him, arose and struck Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, with the sword, and killed him whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land.

[3]Ishmael also struck down all the Jews who were with him, that is, with Gedaliah at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans who were found there, the men of war.

[4]And it happened, on the second day after he had killed Gedaliah, when as yet no one knew it,

[5]that certain men came from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, eighty men with their beards shaved and their clothes torn, having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to the house of the LORD.

[6]Now Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went out from Mizpah to meet them, weeping as he went along; and it happened as he met them that he said to them, “Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam!”

[7]So it was, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah killed them and cast them into the midst of a pit, he and the men who were with him.

[8]But ten men were found among them who said to Ishmael, “Do not kill us, for we have treasures of wheat, barley, oil, and honey in the field.” So he desisted and did not kill them among their brethren.

[9]Now the pit into which Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men whom he had slain, because of Gedaliah, was the same one Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel. Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with the slain.

[10]Then Ishmael carried away captive all the rest of the people who were in Mizpah, the king's daughters and all the people who remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive and departed to go over to the Ammonites.

[11]But when Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces that were with him heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done,

[12]they took all the men and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah; and they found him by the great pool that is in Gibeon.

[13]So it was, when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, that they were glad.

[14]Then all the people whom Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned around and came back, and went to Johanan the son of Kareah.

[15]But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men and went to the Ammonites.

[16]Then Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, took from Mizpah all the rest of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah after he had murdered Gedaliah the son of Ahikam—the mighty men of war and the women and the children and the eunuchs, whom he had brought back from Gibeon.

[17]And they departed and dwelt in the habitation of Chimham, which is near Bethlehem, as they went on their way to Egypt,

[18]because of the Chaldeans; for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had murdered Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had made governor in the land.

Jeremiah 42

The Flight to Egypt Forbidden

[1]Now all the captains of the forces, Johanan the son of Kareah, Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people, from the least to the greatest, came near

[2]and said to Jeremiah the prophet, “Please, let our petition be acceptable to you, and pray for us to the LORD your God, for all this remnant (since we are left but a few of many, as you can see),

[3]“that the LORD your God may show us the way in which we should walk and the thing we should do.”

[4]Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them, “I have heard. Indeed, I will pray to the LORD your God according to your words, and it shall be, that whatever the LORD answers you, I will declare it to you. I will keep nothing back from you.”

[5]So they said to Jeremiah, “Let the LORD be a true and faithful witness between us, if we do not do according to everything which the LORD your God sends us by you.

[6]“Whether it is pleasing or displeasing, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God to whom we send you, that it may be well with us when we obey the voice of the LORD our God.”

[7]And it happened after ten days that the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah.

[8]Then he called Johanan the son of Kareah, all the captains of the forces which were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest,

[9]and said to them, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your petition before Him:

[10]‘If you will still remain in this land, then I will build you and not pull you down, and I will plant you and not pluck you up. For I relent concerning the disaster that I have brought upon you.

[11]‘Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom you are afraid; do not be afraid of him,’ says the LORD, ‘for I am with you, to save you and deliver you from his hand.

[12]'And I will show you mercy, that he may have mercy on you and cause you to return to your own land.'

13"But if you say, 'We will not dwell in this land,' disobeying the voice of the LORD your God,

[14]"saying, 'No, but we will go to the land of Egypt where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor be hungry for bread, and there we will dwell'—

[15]"Then hear now the word of the LORD, O remnant of Judah! Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'If you wholly set your faces to enter Egypt, and go to dwell there,

[16]'then it shall be that the sword which you feared shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt; the famine of which you were afraid shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and there you shall die.

[17]'So shall it be with all the men who set their faces to go to Egypt to dwell there. They shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence. And none of them shall remain or escape from the disaster that I will bring upon them.'

18"For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'As My anger and My fury have been poured out on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so will My fury be poured out on you when you enter Egypt. And you shall be an oath, an astonishment, a curse, and a reproach; and you shall see this place no more.'

[19]"The LORD has said concerning you, O remnant of Judah, 'Do not go to Egypt!' Know certainly that I have admonished you this day.

[20]"For you were hypocrites in your hearts when you sent me to the LORD your God, saying, 'Pray for us to the LORD our God, and according to all that the LORD your God says, so declare to us and we will do it.'

[21]"And I have this day declared it to you, but you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God, or anything which He has sent you by me.

[22]"Now therefore, know certainly that you shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence in the place where you desire to go to dwell."

Jeremiah 43

Jeremiah Taken to Egypt

[1]Now it happened, when Jeremiah had stopped speaking to all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, all these words,

[2]that Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men spoke, saying to Jeremiah, “You speak falsely! The LORD our God has not sent you to say, ‘Do not go to Egypt to dwell there.’

[3]“But Baruch the son of Neriah has set you against us, to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they may put us to death or carry us away captive to Babylon.”

[4]So Johanan the son of Kareah, all the captains of the forces, and all the people would not obey the voice of the LORD, to remain in the land of Judah.

[5]But Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces took all the remnant of Judah who had returned to dwell in the land of Judah, from all nations where they had been driven—

[6]men, women, children, the king’s daughters, and every person whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch the son of Neriah.

[7]So they went to the land of Egypt, for they did not obey the voice of the LORD. And they went as far as Tahpanhes.

[8]Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,

[9]“Take large stones in your hand, and hide them in the sight of the men of Judah, in the clay in the brick courtyard which is at the entrance to Pharaoh’s house in Tahpanhes;

[10]“and say to them, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “Behold, I will send and bring Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, My servant, and will set his throne above these stones that I have hidden. And he will spread his royal pavilion over them.

[11]“When he comes, he shall strike the land of Egypt and deliver to death those appointed for death, and to captivity those appointed for captivity, and to the sword those appointed for the sword.

[12]“I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt, and he shall burn them and carry them away captive. And he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd puts on his garment, and he shall go out from there in peace.

[13]“He shall also break the sacred pillars of Beth Shemesh that are in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of the Egyptians he shall burn with fire.” ’ ”

Jeremiah 44

Israelites Will Be Punished in Egypt

[1]The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews who dwell in the land of Egypt, who dwell at Migdol, at Tahpanhes, at Noph, and in the country of Pathros, saying,

[2]“Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘You have seen all the calamity that I have brought on Jerusalem and on all the cities of Judah; and behold, this day they are a desolation, and no one dwells in them,

[3]‘because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke Me to anger, in that they went to burn incense and to serve other gods whom they did not know, they nor you nor your fathers.

[4]‘However I have sent to you all My servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, “Oh, do not do this abominable thing that I hate!”

[5]‘But they did not listen or incline their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense to other gods.

[6]‘So My fury and My anger were poured out and kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as it is this day.’

[7]“Now therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Why do you commit this great evil against yourselves, to cut off from you man and woman, child and infant, out of Judah, leaving none to remain,

[8]‘in that you provoke Me to wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt where you have gone to dwell, that you may cut yourselves off and be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?

[9]‘Have you forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, the wickedness of the kings of Judah, the wickedness of their wives, your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they committed in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

[10]‘They have not been humbled, to this day, nor have they feared; they have not walked in My law or in My statutes that I set before you and your fathers.’

11“Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Behold, I will set My face against you for catastrophe and for cutting off all Judah.

[12]‘And I will take the remnant of Judah who have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to dwell there, and they shall all be consumed and fall in the land of Egypt. They shall be consumed by the sword and by famine. They shall die, from the least to the greatest, by the sword and by famine; and they shall be an oath, an astonishment, a curse and a reproach!

[13]‘For I will punish those who dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence,

[14]‘so that none of the remnant of Judah who have gone into the land of Egypt to dwell there shall escape or survive, lest they return to the land of Judah, to which they desire to return and dwell. For none shall return except those who escape.’ ”

15Then all the men who knew that their wives had burned incense to other gods, with all the women who stood by, a great multitude, and all the people who dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying:

[16]“As for the word that you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD, we will not listen to you!

[17]“But we will certainly do whatever has gone out of our own mouth, to burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour out drink offerings to her, as we have done, we and our fathers, our kings and our princes, in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. For then we had plenty of food, were well-off, and saw no trouble.

[18]“But since we stopped burning incense to the queen of heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have lacked everything and have been consumed by the sword and by famine.”

[19]The women also said, “And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven and poured out drink offerings to her, did we make cakes for her, to worship her, and pour out drink offerings to her without our husbands’ permission?”

20Then Jeremiah spoke to all the people—the men, the women, and all the people who had given him that answer—saying:

[21]“The incense that you burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, you and your fathers, your kings and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and did it not come into His mind?

[22]“So the LORD could no longer bear it, because of the evil of your doings and because of the abominations which you committed. Therefore your land is a desolation, an astonishment, a curse, and without an inhabitant, as it is this day.

[23]“Because you have burned incense and because you have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD or walked in His law, in His statutes or in His testimonies, therefore this calamity has happened to you, as at this day.”

24Moreover Jeremiah said to all the people and to all the women, “Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah who are in the land of Egypt!

[25]“Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying: ‘You and your wives have spoken with your mouths and fulfilled with your hands, saying, “We will surely keep our vows that we have made, to burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour out drink offerings to her.” You will surely keep your vows and perform your vows!’

[26]“Therefore hear the word of the LORD, all Judah who dwell in the land of Egypt: ‘Behold, I have sworn by My great name,’ says the LORD, ‘that My name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, “The Lord GOD lives.”

[27]‘Behold, I will watch over them for adversity and not for good. And all the men of Judah who are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by famine, until there is an end to them.

[28]‘Yet a small number who escape the sword shall return from the land of Egypt to the land of Judah; and all the remnant of Judah, who have gone to the land of Egypt to dwell there, shall know whose words will stand, Mine or theirs.

[29]‘And this shall be a sign to you,’ says the LORD, ‘that I will punish you in this place, that you may know that My words will surely stand against you for adversity.’

[30]“Thus says the LORD: ‘Behold, I will give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies and into the hand of those who seek his life, as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, his enemy who sought his life.’ ”

Jeremiah 45

Assurance to Baruch

[1]The word that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a book at the instruction of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying,

[2]"Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to you, O Baruch:

[3]'You said, "Woe is me now! For the LORD has added grief to my sorrow. I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest." '

[4]"Thus you shall say to him, 'Thus says the LORD: "Behold, what I have built I will break down, and what I have planted I will pluck up, that is, this whole land.

[5]"And do you seek great things for yourself? Do not seek them; for behold, I will bring adversity on all flesh," says the LORD. "But I will give your life to you as a prize in all places, wherever you go." ' "

Jeremiah 46

Judgment on Egypt

[1]The word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet against the nations.

[2]Against Egypt.

Concerning the army of Pharaoh Necho, king of Egypt, which was by the River Euphrates in Carchemish, and which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon defeated in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah:

[3]"Order the buckler and shield,
And draw near to battle!
[4]Harness the horses,
And mount up, you horsemen!
Stand forth with your helmets,
Polish the spears,
Put on the armor!
[5]Why have I seen them dismayed and turned back?
Their mighty ones are beaten down;
They have speedily fled,
And did not look back,
For fear was all around," says the LORD.
[6]"Do not let the swift flee away,
Nor the mighty man escape;
They will stumble and fall
Toward the north, by the River Euphrates.

[7]"Who is this coming up like a flood,
Whose waters move like the rivers?
[8]Egypt rises up like a flood,
And its waters move like the rivers;
And he says, 'I will go up and cover the earth,
I will destroy the city and its inhabitants.'
[9]Come up, O horses, and rage, O chariots!

And let the mighty men come forth:
The Ethiopians and the Libyans who handle the shield,
And the Lydians who handle and bend the bow.
[10]For this is the day of the Lord GOD of hosts,
A day of vengeance,
That He may avenge Himself on His adversaries.
The sword shall devour;
It shall be satiated and made drunk with their blood;
For the Lord GOD of hosts has a sacrifice
In the north country by the River Euphrates.

[11]"Go up to Gilead and take balm,
O virgin, the daughter of Egypt;
In vain you will use many medicines;
You shall not be cured.
[12]The nations have heard of your shame,
And your cry has filled the land;
For the mighty man has stumbled against the mighty;
They both have fallen together."

Babylonia Will Strike Egypt

[13]The word that the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet, how Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon would come and strike the land of Egypt.

[14]"Declare in Egypt, and proclaim in Migdol;
Proclaim in Noph and in Tahpanhes;
Say, 'Stand fast and prepare yourselves,
For the sword devours all around you.'
[15]Why are your valiant men swept away?
They did not stand
Because the LORD drove them away.
[16]He made many fall;
Yes, one fell upon another.
And they said, 'Arise!
Let us go back to our own people
And to the land of our nativity

From the oppressing sword.’
[17]They cried there,
‘Pharaoh, king of Egypt, is but a noise.
He has passed by the appointed time!’

[18]“As I live,” says the King,
Whose name is the LORD of hosts,
“Surely as Tabor is among the mountains
And as Carmel by the sea, so he shall come.
[19]O you daughter dwelling in Egypt,
Prepare yourself to go into captivity!
For Noph shall be waste and desolate, without inhabitant.

[20]“Egypt is a very pretty heifer,
But destruction comes, it comes from the north.
[21]Also her mercenaries are in her midst like fat bulls,
For they also are turned back,
They have fled away together.
They did not stand,
For the day of their calamity had come upon them,
The time of their punishment.
[22]Her noise shall go like a serpent,
For they shall march with an army
And come against her with axes,
Like those who chop wood.

[23]“They shall cut down her forest,” says the LORD,
“Though it cannot be searched,
Because they are innumerable,
And more numerous than grasshoppers.
[24]The daughter of Egypt shall be ashamed;
She shall be delivered into the hand
Of the people of the north.”

[25]The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: “Behold, I will bring punishment on Amon of No, and Pharaoh and Egypt, with their gods and their kings—Pharaoh and those who trust in him.

[26]"And I will deliver them into the hand of those who seek their lives, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and the hand of his servants. Afterward it shall be inhabited as in the days of old," says the LORD.

God Will Preserve Israel

[27]"But do not fear, O My servant Jacob,
And do not be dismayed, O Israel!
For behold, I will save you from afar,
And your offspring from the land of their captivity;
Jacob shall return, have rest and be at ease;
No one shall make him afraid.
[28]Do not fear, O Jacob My servant," says the LORD,
"For I am with you;
For I will make a complete end of all the nations
To which I have driven you,
But I will not make a complete end of you.
I will rightly correct you,
For I will not leave you wholly unpunished."

Jeremiah 47

Judgment on Philistia

[1]The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Philistines, before Pharaoh attacked Gaza.

[2]Thus says the LORD:

“Behold, waters rise out of the north,
And shall be an overflowing flood;
They shall overflow the land and all that is in it,
The city and those who dwell within;
Then the men shall cry,
And all the inhabitants of the land shall wail.
[3]At the noise of the stamping hooves of his strong horses,
At the rushing of his chariots,
At the rumbling of his wheels,
The fathers will not look back for their children,
Lacking courage,
[4]Because of the day that comes to plunder all the Philistines,
To cut off from Tyre and Sidon every helper who remains;
For the LORD shall plunder the Philistines,
The remnant of the country of Caphtor.
[5]Baldness has come upon Gaza,
Ashkelon is cut off
With the remnant of their valley.
How long will you cut yourself?

[6]“O you sword of the LORD,
How long until you are quiet?
Put yourself up into your scabbard,
Rest and be still!
[7]How can it be quiet,
Seeing the LORD has given it a charge
Against Ashkelon and against the seashore?
There He has appointed it.”

Jeremiah 48

Judgment on Moab

[1]Against Moab.
Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel:

"Woe to Nebo!
For it is plundered,
Kirjathaim is shamed and taken;
The high stronghold is shamed and dismayed—
[2]No more praise of Moab.
In Heshbon they have devised evil against her:
'Come, and let us cut her off as a nation.'
You also shall be cut down, O Madmen!
The sword shall pursue you;
[3]A voice of crying shall be from Horonaim:
'Plundering and great destruction!'

[4]"Moab is destroyed;
Her little ones have caused a cry to be heard;
[5]For in the Ascent of Luhith they ascend with continual weeping;
For in the descent of Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of destruction.

[6]"Flee, save your lives!
And be like the juniper in the wilderness.
[7]For because you have trusted in your works and your treasures,
You also shall be taken.
And Chemosh shall go forth into captivity,
His priests and his princes together.
[8]And the plunderer shall come against every city;
No one shall escape.
The valley also shall perish,
And the plain shall be destroyed,

As the LORD has spoken.

[9]"Give wings to Moab,
That she may flee and get away;
For her cities shall be desolate,
Without any to dwell in them.
[10]Cursed is he who does the work of the LORD deceitfully,
And cursed is he who keeps back his sword from blood.

[11]"Moab has been at ease from his youth;
He has settled on his dregs,
And has not been emptied from vessel to vessel,
Nor has he gone into captivity.
Therefore his taste remained in him,
And his scent has not changed.

[12]"Therefore behold, the days are coming," says the LORD,
"That I shall send him wine-workers
Who will tip him over
And empty his vessels
And break the bottles.
[13]Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh,
As the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel, their confidence.

[14]"How can you say, 'We are mighty
And strong men for the war'?
[15]Moab is plundered and gone up from her cities;
Her chosen young men have gone down to the slaughter," says the King,
Whose name is the LORD of hosts.

[16]"The calamity of Moab is near at hand,
And his affliction comes quickly.
[17]Bemoan him, all you who are around him;
And all you who know his name,
Say, 'How the strong staff is broken,
The beautiful rod!'

[18]“O daughter inhabiting Dibon,
Come down from your glory,
And sit in thirst;
For the plunderer of Moab has come against you,
He has destroyed your strongholds.
[19]O inhabitant of Aroer,
Stand by the way and watch;
Ask him who flees
And her who escapes;
Say, ‘What has happened?’
[20]Moab is shamed, for he is broken down.
Wail and cry!
Tell it in Arnon, that Moab is plundered.

[21]“And judgment has come on the plain country:
On Holon and Jahzah and Mephaath,
[22]On Dibon and Nebo and Beth Diblathaim,
[23]On Kirjathaim and Beth Gamul and Beth Meon,
[24]On Kerioth and Bozrah,
On all the cities of the land of Moab,
Far or near.
[25]The horn of Moab is cut off,
And his arm is broken,” says the LORD.

[26]“Make him drunk,
Because he exalted himself against the LORD.
Moab shall wallow in his vomit,
And he shall also be in derision.
[27]For was not Israel a derision to you?
Was he found among thieves?
For whenever you speak of him,
You shake your head in scorn.
[28]You who dwell in Moab,
Leave the cities and dwell in the rock,
And be like the dove which makes her nest
In the sides of the cave’s mouth.

[29]“We have heard the pride of Moab
(He is exceedingly proud),
Of his loftiness and arrogance and pride,
And of the haughtiness of his heart.”

[30]“I know his wrath,” says the LORD,
“But it is not right;
His lies have made nothing right.
[31]Therefore I will wail for Moab,
And I will cry out for all Moab;
I will mourn for the men of Kir Heres.
[32]O vine of Sibmah! I will weep for you with the weeping of Jazer.
Your plants have gone over the sea,
They reach to the sea of Jazer.
The plunderer has fallen on your summer fruit and your vintage.
[33]Joy and gladness are taken
From the plentiful field
And from the land of Moab;
I have caused wine to fail from the winepresses;
No one will tread with joyous shouting—
Not joyous shouting!

[34]“From the cry of Heshbon to Elealeh and to Jahaz
They have uttered their voice,
From Zoar to Horonaim,
Like a three-year-old heifer;
For the waters of Nimrim also shall be desolate.

[35]“Moreover,” says the LORD,
“I will cause to cease in Moab
The one who offers sacrifices in the high places
And burns incense to his gods.
[36]Therefore My heart shall wail like flutes for Moab,
And like flutes My heart shall wail
For the men of Kir Heres.

Therefore the riches they have acquired have perished.

[37]"For every head shall be bald, and every beard clipped;
On all the hands shall be cuts, and on the loins sackcloth—
[38]A general lamentation
On all the housetops of Moab,
And in its streets;
For I have broken Moab like a vessel in which is no pleasure," says the LORD.
[39]"They shall wail:
'How she is broken down!
How Moab has turned her back with shame!'
So Moab shall be a derision
And a dismay to all those about her."

40For thus says the LORD:

"Behold, one shall fly like an eagle,
And spread his wings over Moab.
[41]Kerioth is taken,
And the strongholds are surprised;
The mighty men's hearts in Moab on that day shall be
Like the heart of a woman in birth pangs.
[42]And Moab shall be destroyed as a people,
Because he exalted himself against the LORD.
[43]Fear and the pit and the snare shall be upon you,
O inhabitant of Moab," says the LORD.
[44]"He who flees from the fear shall fall into the pit,
And he who gets out of the pit shall be caught in the snare.
For upon Moab, upon it I will bring
The year of their punishment," says the LORD.

45"Those who fled stood under the shadow of Heshbon
Because of exhaustion.
But a fire shall come out of Heshbon,
A flame from the midst of Sihon,
And shall devour the brow of Moab,

The crown of the head of the sons of tumult.
[46]Woe to you, O Moab!
The people of Chemosh perish;
For your sons have been taken captive,
And your daughters captive.

[47]“Yet I will bring back the captives of Moab
In the latter days,” says the LORD.

Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

Jeremiah 49

Judgment on Ammon

[1]Against the Ammonites.

Thus says the LORD:

“Has Israel no sons?
Has he no heir?
Why then does Milcom inherit Gad,
And his people dwell in its cities?
[2]Therefore behold, the days are coming,” says the LORD,
“That I will cause to be heard an alarm of war
In Rabbah of the Ammonites;
It shall be a desolate mound,
And her villages shall be burned with fire.
Then Israel shall take possession of his inheritance,” says the LORD.

[3]“Wail, O Heshbon, for Ai is plundered!
Cry, you daughters of Rabbah,
Gird yourselves with sackcloth!
Lament and run to and fro by the walls;
For Milcom shall go into captivity
With his priests and his princes together.
[4]Why do you boast in the valleys,
Your flowing valley, O backsliding daughter?
Who trusted in her treasures, saying,
‘Who will come against me?’
[5]Behold, I will bring fear upon you,”
Says the Lord GOD of hosts,
“From all those who are around you;
You shall be driven out, everyone headlong,
And no one will gather those who wander off.
[6]But afterward I will bring back
The captives of the people of Ammon,” says the LORD.

Judgment on Edom

7Against Edom.
Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"Is wisdom no more in Teman?
Has counsel perished from the prudent?
Has their wisdom vanished?
8Flee, turn back, dwell in the depths, O inhabitants of Dedan!
For I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him,
The time that I will punish him.
9If grape-gatherers came to you,
Would they not leave some gleaning grapes?
If thieves by night,
Would they not destroy until they have enough?
10But I have made Esau bare;
I have uncovered his secret places,
And he shall not be able to hide himself.
His descendants are plundered,
His brethren and his neighbors,
And he is no more.
11Leave your fatherless children,
I will preserve them alive;
And let your widows trust in Me."

12For thus says the LORD: "Behold, those whose judgment was not to drink of the cup have assuredly drunk. And are you the one who will altogether go unpunished? You shall not go unpunished, but you shall surely drink of it.

13"For I have sworn by Myself," says the LORD, "that Bozrah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse. And all its cities shall be perpetual wastes."

14I have heard a message from the LORD,
And an ambassador has been sent to the nations:
"Gather together, come against her,
And rise up to battle!

15“For indeed, I will make you small among nations,
Despised among men.
16Your fierceness has deceived you,
The pride of your heart,
O you who dwell in the clefts of the rock,
Who hold the height of the hill!
Though you make your nest as high as the eagle,
I will bring you down from there,” says the LORD.

17“Edom also shall be an astonishment;
Everyone who goes by it will be astonished
And will hiss at all its plagues.
18As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah
And their neighbors,” says the LORD,
“No one shall remain there,
Nor shall a son of man dwell in it.

19“Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the floodplain of the Jordan
Against the dwelling place of the strong;
But I will suddenly make him run away from her.
And who is a chosen man that I may appoint over her?
For who is like Me?
Who will arraign Me?
And who is that shepherd
Who will withstand Me?”

20Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD that He has taken against Edom,
And His purposes that He has proposed against the inhabitants of Teman:
Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out;
Surely He shall make their dwelling places desolate with them.
21The earth shakes at the noise of their fall;
At the cry its noise is heard at the Red Sea.
22Behold, He shall come up and fly like the eagle,

And spread His wings over Bozrah;
The heart of the mighty men of Edom in that day shall be
Like the heart of a woman in birth pangs.

Judgment on Damascus

23Against Damascus.

“Hamath and Arpad are shamed,
For they have heard bad news.
They are fainthearted;
There is trouble on the sea;
It cannot be quiet.
24Damascus has grown feeble;
She turns to flee,
And fear has seized her.
Anguish and sorrows have taken her like a woman in labor.
25Why is the city of praise not deserted, the city of My joy?
26Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets,
And all the men of war shall be cut off in that day,” says the LORD of hosts.
27“I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus,
And it shall consume the palaces of Ben-Hadad.”

Judgment on Kedar and Hazor

28Against Kedar and against the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon shall strike.
Thus says the LORD:

“Arise, go up to Kedar,
And devastate the men of the East!
29Their tents and their flocks they shall take away.
They shall take for themselves their curtains,
All their vessels and their camels;
And they shall cry out to them,
‘Fear is on every side!’

30“Flee, get far away! Dwell in the depths,

O inhabitants of Hazor!” says the LORD.
“For Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has taken counsel against you,
And has conceived a plan against you.

[31]“Arise, go up to the wealthy nation that dwells securely,” says the LORD,
“Which has neither gates nor bars,
Dwelling alone.
[32]Their camels shall be for booty,
And the multitude of their cattle for plunder.
I will scatter to all winds those in the farthest corners,
And I will bring their calamity from all its sides,” says the LORD.
[33]“Hazor shall be a dwelling for jackals, a desolation forever;
No one shall reside there,
Nor son of man dwell in it.”

Judgment on Elam

[34]The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against Elam, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying,
[35]“Thus says the LORD of hosts:

‘Behold, I will break the bow of Elam,
The foremost of their might.
[36]Against Elam I will bring the four winds
From the four quarters of heaven,
And scatter them toward all those winds;
There shall be no nations where the outcasts of Elam will not go.
[37]For I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies
And before those who seek their life.
I will bring disaster upon them,
My fierce anger,’ says the LORD;
‘And I will send the sword after them
Until I have consumed them.

[38]I will set My throne in Elam,
And will destroy from there the king and the princes,’ says the LORD.

[39]‘But it shall come to pass in the latter days:
I will bring back the captives of Elam,’ says the LORD.”

Jeremiah 50

Judgment on Babylon and Babylonia

[1]The word that the LORD spoke against Babylon and against the land of the Chaldeans by Jeremiah the prophet.

[2]"Declare among the nations,
Proclaim, and set up a standard;
Proclaim—do not conceal it—
Say, 'Babylon is taken, Bel is shamed.
Merodach is broken in pieces;
Her idols are humiliated,
Her images are broken in pieces.'
[3]For out of the north a nation comes up against her,
Which shall make her land desolate,
And no one shall dwell therein.
They shall move, they shall depart,
Both man and beast.

[4]"In those days and in that time," says the LORD,
"The children of Israel shall come,
They and the children of Judah together;
With continual weeping they shall come,
And seek the LORD their God.
[5]They shall ask the way to Zion,
With their faces toward it, saying,
'Come and let us join ourselves to the LORD
In a perpetual covenant
That will not be forgotten.'

[6]"My people have been lost sheep.
Their shepherds have led them astray;
They have turned them away on the mountains.
They have gone from mountain to hill;
They have forgotten their resting place.
[7]All who found them have devoured them;

And their adversaries said, ‘We have not offended,
Because they have sinned against the LORD, the habitation of justice,
The LORD, the hope of their fathers.’

8“Move from the midst of Babylon,
Go out of the land of the Chaldeans;
And be like the rams before the flocks.
9For behold, I will raise and cause to come up against Babylon
An assembly of great nations from the north country,
And they shall array themselves against her;
From there she shall be captured.
Their arrows shall be like those of an expert warrior;
None shall return in vain.
10And Chaldea shall become plunder;
All who plunder her shall be satisfied,” says the LORD.

11“Because you were glad, because you rejoiced,
You destroyers of My heritage,
Because you have grown fat like a heifer threshing grain,
And you bellow like bulls,
12Your mother shall be deeply ashamed;
She who bore you shall be ashamed.
Behold, the least of the nations shall be a wilderness,
A dry land and a desert.
13Because of the wrath of the LORD
She shall not be inhabited,
But she shall be wholly desolate.
Everyone who goes by Babylon shall be horrified
And hiss at all her plagues.

14“Put yourselves in array against Babylon all around,
All you who bend the bow;
Shoot at her, spare no arrows,
For she has sinned against the LORD.
15Shout against her all around;

She has given her hand,
Her foundations have fallen,
Her walls are thrown down;
For it is the vengeance of the LORD.
Take vengeance on her.
As she has done, so do to her.
[16]Cut off the sower from Babylon,
And him who handles the sickle at harvest time.
For fear of the oppressing sword
Everyone shall turn to his own people,
And everyone shall flee to his own land.

[17]“Israel is like scattered sheep;
The lions have driven him away.
First the king of Assyria devoured him;
Now at last this Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has broken his bones.”

[18]Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel:

“Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land,
As I have punished the king of Assyria.
[19]But I will bring back Israel to his home,
And he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan;
His soul shall be satisfied on Mount Ephraim and Gilead.
[20]In those days and in that time,” says the LORD,
“The iniquity of Israel shall be sought, but there shall be none;
And the sins of Judah, but they shall not be found;
For I will pardon those whom I preserve.

[21]“Go up against the land of Merathaim, against it,
And against the inhabitants of Pekod.
Waste and utterly destroy them,” says the LORD,
“And do according to all that I have commanded you.
[22]A sound of battle is in the land,
And of great destruction.

[23]How the hammer of the whole earth has been cut apart and broken!
How Babylon has become a desolation among the nations!
I have laid a snare for you;
[24]You have indeed been trapped, O Babylon,
And you were not aware;
You have been found and also caught,
Because you have contended against the LORD.
[25]The LORD has opened His armory,
And has brought out the weapons of His indignation;
For this is the work of the Lord GOD of hosts
In the land of the Chaldeans.
[26]Come against her from the farthest border;
Open her storehouses;
Cast her up as heaps of ruins,
And destroy her utterly;
Let nothing of her be left.
[27]Slay all her bulls,
Let them go down to the slaughter.
Woe to them!
For their day has come, the time of their punishment.
[28]The voice of those who flee and escape from the land of Babylon
Declares in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God,
The vengeance of His temple.

[29]"Call together the archers against Babylon.
All you who bend the bow, encamp against it all around;
Let none of them escape.
Repay her according to her work;
According to all she has done, do to her;
For she has been proud against the LORD,
Against the Holy One of Israel.
[30]Therefore her young men shall fall in the streets,
And all her men of war shall be cut off in that day," says the LORD.

[31]“Behold, I am against you,
O most haughty one!” says the Lord GOD of hosts;
“For your day has come,
The time that I will punish you.
[32]The most proud shall stumble and fall,
And no one will raise him up;
I will kindle a fire in his cities,
And it will devour all around him.”

33Thus says the LORD of hosts:

“The children of Israel were oppressed,
Along with the children of Judah;
All who took them captive have held them fast;
They have refused to let them go.
[34]Their Redeemer is strong;
The LORD of hosts is His name.
He will thoroughly plead their case,
That He may give rest to the land,
And disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

35“A sword is against the Chaldeans,” says the LORD,
“Against the inhabitants of Babylon,
And against her princes and her wise men.
[36]A sword is against the soothsayers, and they will be fools.
A sword is against her mighty men, and they will be dismayed.
[37]A sword is against their horses,
Against their chariots,
And against all the mixed peoples who are in her midst;
And they will become like women.
A sword is against her treasures, and they will be robbed.
[38]A drought is against her waters, and they will be dried up.
For it is the land of carved images,
And they are insane with their idols.

[39]"Therefore the wild desert beasts shall dwell there with the jackals,
And the ostriches shall dwell in it.
It shall be inhabited no more forever,
Nor shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.
[40]As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah
And their neighbors," says the LORD,
"So no one shall reside there,
Nor son of man dwell in it.

[41]"Behold, a people shall come from the north,
And a great nation and many kings
Shall be raised up from the ends of the earth.
[42]They shall hold the bow and the lance;
They are cruel and shall not show mercy.
Their voice shall roar like the sea;
They shall ride on horses,
Set in array, like a man for the battle,
Against you, O daughter of Babylon.

[43]"The king of Babylon has heard the report about them,
And his hands grow feeble;
Anguish has taken hold of him,
Pangs as of a woman in childbirth.

[44]"Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the floodplain of the Jordan
Against the dwelling place of the strong;
But I will make them suddenly run away from her.
And who is a chosen man that I may appoint over her?
For who is like Me?
Who will arraign Me?
And who is that shepherd
Who will withstand Me?"

[45]Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD that He has taken against Babylon,

And His purposes that He has proposed against the land of the Chaldeans:
Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out;
Surely He will make their dwelling place desolate with them.
[46]At the noise of the taking of Babylon
The earth trembles,
And the cry is heard among the nations.

Jeremiah 51

The Utter Destruction of Babylon

[1]Thus says the LORD:

"Behold, I will raise up against Babylon,
Against those who dwell in Leb Kamai,
A destroying wind.
[2]And I will send winnowers to Babylon,
Who shall winnow her and empty her land.
For in the day of doom
They shall be against her all around.
[3]Against her let the archer bend his bow,
And lift himself up against her in his armor.
Do not spare her young men;
Utterly destroy all her army.
[4]Thus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans,
And those thrust through in her streets.
[5]For Israel is not forsaken, nor Judah,
By his God, the LORD of hosts,
Though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel."

[6]Flee from the midst of Babylon,
And every one save his life!
Do not be cut off in her iniquity,
For this is the time of the LORD's vengeance;
He shall recompense her.
[7]Babylon was a golden cup in the LORD's hand,
That made all the earth drunk.
The nations drank her wine;
Therefore the nations are deranged.
[8]Babylon has suddenly fallen and been destroyed.
Wail for her!
Take balm for her pain;

Perhaps she may be healed.

[9]We would have healed Babylon,
But she is not healed.
Forsake her, and let us go everyone to his own country;
For her judgment reaches to heaven and is lifted up to the skies.
[10]The LORD has revealed our righteousness.
Come and let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God.

11Make the arrows bright!
Gather the shields!
The LORD has raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes.
For His plan is against Babylon to destroy it,
Because it is the vengeance of the LORD,
The vengeance for His temple.
[12]Set up the standard on the walls of Babylon;
Make the guard strong,
Set up the watchmen,
Prepare the ambushes.
For the LORD has both devised and done
What He spoke against the inhabitants of Babylon.
[13]O you who dwell by many waters,
Abundant in treasures,
Your end has come,
The measure of your covetousness.
[14]The LORD of hosts has sworn by Himself:
“Surely I will fill you with men, as with locusts,
And they shall lift up a shout against you.”

15He has made the earth by His power;
He has established the world by His wisdom,
And stretched out the heaven by His understanding.
[16]When He utters His voice—
There is a multitude of waters in the heavens:

“He causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth;
He makes lightnings for the rain;
He brings the wind out of His treasuries.”

[17]Everyone is dull-hearted, without knowledge;
Every metalsmith is put to shame by the carved image;
For his molded image is falsehood,
And there is no breath in them.
[18]They are futile, a work of errors;
In the time of their punishment they shall perish.
[19]The Portion of Jacob is not like them,
For He is the Maker of all things;
And Israel is the tribe of His inheritance.
The LORD of hosts is His name.

[20]“You are My battle-ax and weapons of war:
For with you I will break the nation in pieces;
With you I will destroy kingdoms;
[21]With you I will break in pieces the horse and its rider;
With you I will break in pieces the chariot and its rider;
[22]With you also I will break in pieces man and woman;
With you I will break in pieces old and young;
With you I will break in pieces the young man and the maiden;
[23]With you also I will break in pieces the shepherd and his flock;
With you I will break in pieces the farmer and his yoke of oxen;
And with you I will break in pieces governors and rulers.

[24]“And I will repay Babylon
And all the inhabitants of Chaldea
For all the evil they have done
In Zion in your sight,” says the LORD.

[25]“Behold, I am against you, O destroying mountain,
Who destroys all the earth,” says the LORD.

“And I will stretch out My hand against you,
Roll you down from the rocks,
And make you a burnt mountain.
[26]They shall not take from you a stone for a corner
Nor a stone for a foundation,
But you shall be desolate forever,” says the LORD.

[27]Set up a banner in the land,
Blow the trumpet among the nations!
Prepare the nations against her,
Call the kingdoms together against her:
Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz.
Appoint a general against her;
Cause the horses to come up like the bristling locusts.
[28]Prepare against her the nations,
With the kings of the Medes,
Its governors and all its rulers,
All the land of his dominion.
[29]And the land will tremble and sorrow;
For every purpose of the LORD shall be performed against Babylon,
To make the land of Babylon a desolation without inhabitant.
[30]The mighty men of Babylon have ceased fighting,
They have remained in their strongholds;
Their might has failed,
They became like women;
They have burned her dwelling places,
The bars of her gate are broken.
[31]One runner will run to meet another,
And one messenger to meet another,
To show the king of Babylon that his city is taken on all sides;
[32]The passages are blocked,
The reeds they have burned with fire,
And the men of war are terrified.

[33]For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel:

“The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor
When it is time to thresh her;
Yet a little while
And the time of her harvest will come.”

[34]“Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon
Has devoured me, he has crushed me;
He has made me an empty vessel,
He has swallowed me up like a monster;
He has filled his stomach with my delicacies,
He has spit me out.
[35]Let the violence done to me and my flesh be upon Babylon,”
The inhabitant of Zion will say;
“And my blood be upon the inhabitants of Chaldea!”
Jerusalem will say.

[36]Therefore thus says the LORD:

“Behold, I will plead your case and take vengeance for you.
I will dry up her sea and make her springs dry.
[37]Babylon shall become a heap,
A dwelling place for jackals,
An astonishment and a hissing,
Without an inhabitant.
[38]They shall roar together like lions,
They shall growl like lions’ whelps.
[39]In their excitement I will prepare their feasts;
I will make them drunk,
That they may rejoice,
And sleep a perpetual sleep
And not awake,” says the LORD.
[40]“I will bring them down
Like lambs to the slaughter,
Like rams with male goats.

41“Oh, how Sheshach is taken!
Oh, how the praise of the whole earth is seized!
How Babylon has become desolate among the nations!
42The sea has come up over Babylon;
She is covered with the multitude of its waves.
43Her cities are a desolation,
A dry land and a wilderness,
A land where no one dwells,
Through which no son of man passes.
44I will punish Bel in Babylon,
And I will bring out of his mouth what he has swallowed;
And the nations shall not stream to him anymore.
Yes, the wall of Babylon shall fall.

45“My people, go out of the midst of her!
And let everyone deliver himself from the fierce anger of the LORD.
46And lest your heart faint,
And you fear for the rumor that will be heard in the land
(A rumor will come one year,
And after that, in another year
A rumor will come,
And violence in the land,
Ruler against ruler),
47Therefore behold, the days are coming
That I will bring judgment on the carved images of Babylon;
Her whole land shall be ashamed,
And all her slain shall fall in her midst.
48Then the heavens and the earth and all that is in them
Shall sing joyously over Babylon;
For the plunderers shall come to her from the north,” says the LORD.

49As Babylon has caused the slain of Israel to fall,
So at Babylon the slain of all the earth shall fall.
50You who have escaped the sword,

Get away! Do not stand still!
Remember the LORD afar off,
And let Jerusalem come to your mind.

51We are ashamed because we have heard reproach.
Shame has covered our faces,
For strangers have come into the sanctuaries of the LORD's house.

52"Therefore behold, the days are coming," says the LORD,
"That I will bring judgment on her carved images,
And throughout all her land the wounded shall groan.
53Though Babylon were to mount up to heaven,
And though she were to fortify the height of her strength,
Yet from Me plunderers would come to her," says the LORD.

54The sound of a cry comes from Babylon,
And great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans,
55Because the LORD is plundering Babylon
And silencing her loud voice,
Though her waves roar like great waters,
And the noise of their voice is uttered,
56Because the plunderer comes against her, against Babylon,
And her mighty men are taken.
Every one of their bows is broken;
For the LORD is the God of recompense,
He will surely repay.

57"And I will make drunk
Her princes and wise men,
Her governors, her deputies, and her mighty men.
And they shall sleep a perpetual sleep
And not awake," says the King,
Whose name is the LORD of hosts.

58Thus says the LORD of hosts:

“The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly broken,
And her high gates shall be burned with fire;
The people will labor in vain,
And the nations, because of the fire;
And they shall be weary.”

Jeremiah’s Command to Seraiah

59The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. And Seraiah was the quartermaster.

60So Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that would come upon Babylon, all these words that are written against Babylon.

61And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, “When you arrive in Babylon and see it, and read all these words,

62“then you shall say, ‘O LORD, You have spoken against this place to cut it off, so that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but it shall be desolate forever.’

63“Now it shall be, when you have finished reading this book, that you shall tie a stone to it and throw it out into the Euphrates.

64“Then you shall say, ‘Thus Babylon shall sink and not rise from the catastrophe that I will bring upon her. And they shall be weary.’ ” Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

Jeremiah 52

The Fall of Jerusalem Reviewed

[1]Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

[2]He also did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

[3]For because of the anger of the LORD this happened in Jerusalem and Judah, till He finally cast them out from His presence. Then Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

[4]Now it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem and encamped against it; and they built a siege wall against it all around.

[5]So the city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

[6]By the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, the famine had become so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land.

[7]Then the city wall was broken through, and all the men of war fled and went out of the city at night by way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden, even though the Chaldeans were near the city all around. And they went by way of the plain.

[8]But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king, and they overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. All his army was scattered from him.

[9]So they took the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, and he pronounced judgment on him.

[10]Then the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes. And he killed all the princes of Judah in Riblah.

[11]He also put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in bronze fetters, took him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death.

The Temple and City Plundered and Burned

12Now in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month (which was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, who served the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.

13He burned the house of the LORD and the king's house; all the houses of Jerusalem, that is, all the houses of the great, he burned with fire.

14And all the army of the Chaldeans who were with the captain of the guard broke down all the walls of Jerusalem all around.

15Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive some of the poor people, the rest of the people who remained in the city, the defectors who had deserted to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the craftsmen.

16But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left some of the poor of the land as vinedressers and farmers.

17The bronze pillars that were in the house of the LORD, and the carts and the bronze Sea that were in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke in pieces, and carried all their bronze to Babylon.

18They also took away the pots, the shovels, the trimmers, the bowls, the spoons, and all the bronze utensils with which the priests ministered.

19The basins, the firepans, the bowls, the pots, the lampstands, the spoons, and the cups, whatever was solid gold and whatever was solid silver, the captain of the guard took away.

20The two pillars, one Sea, the twelve bronze bulls which were under it, and the carts, which King Solomon had made for the house of the LORD—the bronze of all these articles was beyond measure.

21Now concerning the pillars: the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits, a measuring line of twelve cubits could measure its circumference, and its thickness was four fingers; it was hollow.

22A capital of bronze was on it; and the height of one capital was five cubits, with a network and pomegranates all around the capital, all of bronze. The second pillar, with pomegranates was the same.

23There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; all the pomegranates, all around on the network, were one hundred.

The People Taken Captive to Babylonia

24The captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the second priest, and the three doorkeepers.

25He also took out of the city an officer who had charge of the men of war, seven men of the king's close associates who were found in the city, the principal scribe of the army who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the midst of the city.

26And Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took these and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

27Then the king of Babylon struck them and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was carried away captive from its own land.

28These are the people whom Nebuchadnezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year, three thousand and twenty-three Jews;

29in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred and thirty-two persons;

30in the twenty-third year of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred and forty-five persons. All the persons were four thousand six hundred.

Jehoiachin Released from Prison

31Now it came to pass in the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fifth day of the month, that Evil-Merodach king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah and brought him out of prison.

32And he spoke kindly to him and gave him a more prominent seat than those of the kings who were with him in Babylon.

33So Jehoiachin changed from his prison garments, and he ate bread regularly before the king all the days of his life.

34And as for his provisions, there was a regular ration given him by the king of Babylon, a portion for each day until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

Lamentations

Lamentations 1

Jerusalem in Affliction

[1]How lonely sits the city
That was full of people!
How like a widow is she,
Who was great among the nations!
The princess among the provinces
Has become a slave!

[2]She weeps bitterly in the night,
Her tears are on her cheeks;
Among all her lovers
She has none to comfort her.
All her friends have dealt treacherously with her;
They have become her enemies.

[3]Judah has gone into captivity,
Under affliction and hard servitude;
She dwells among the nations,
She finds no rest;
All her persecutors overtake her in dire straits.

[4]The roads to Zion mourn
Because no one comes to the set feasts.
All her gates are desolate;
Her priests sigh,
Her virgins are afflicted,
And she is in bitterness.

[5]Her adversaries have become the master,
Her enemies prosper;
For the LORD has afflicted her
Because of the multitude of her transgressions.
Her children have gone into captivity before the enemy.

[6]And from the daughter of Zion

All her splendor has departed.
Her princes have become like deer
That find no pasture,
That flee without strength
Before the pursuer.

[7]In the days of her affliction and roaming,
Jerusalem remembers all her pleasant things
That she had in the days of old.
When her people fell into the hand of the enemy,
With no one to help her,
The adversaries saw her
And mocked at her downfall.

[8]Jerusalem has sinned gravely,
Therefore she has become vile.
All who honored her despise her
Because they have seen her nakedness;
Yes, she sighs and turns away.

[9]Her uncleanness is in her skirts;
She did not consider her destiny;
Therefore her collapse was awesome;
She had no comforter.
“O LORD, behold my affliction,
For the enemy is exalted!”

[10]The adversary has spread his hand
Over all her pleasant things;
For she has seen the nations enter her sanctuary,
Those whom You commanded
Not to enter Your assembly.

[11]All her people sigh,
They seek bread;
They have given their valuables for food to restore life.
“See, O LORD, and consider,
For I am scorned.”

12“Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by?
Behold and see
If there is any sorrow like my sorrow,
Which has been brought on me,
Which the LORD has inflicted
In the day of His fierce anger.

13“From above He has sent fire into my bones,
And it overpowered them;
He has spread a net for my feet
And turned me back;
He has made me desolate
And faint all the day.

14“The yoke of my transgressions was bound;
They were woven together by His hands,
And thrust upon my neck.
He made my strength fail;
The Lord delivered me into the hands of those whom I am not able to withstand.
15“The Lord has trampled underfoot all my mighty men in my midst;
He has called an assembly against me
To crush my young men;
The Lord trampled as in a winepress
The virgin daughter of Judah.

16“For these things I weep;
My eye, my eye overflows with water;
Because the comforter, who should restore my life,
Is far from me.
My children are desolate
Because the enemy prevailed.”

17Zion spreads out her hands,
But no one comforts her;
The LORD has commanded concerning Jacob
That those around him become his adversaries;

Jerusalem has become an unclean thing among them.

18“The LORD is righteous,
For I rebelled against His commandment.
Hear now, all peoples,
And behold my sorrow;
My virgins and my young men
Have gone into captivity.

19“I called for my lovers,
But they deceived me;
My priests and my elders
Breathed their last in the city,
While they sought food
To restore their life.

20“See, O LORD, that I am in distress;
My soul is troubled;
My heart is overturned within me,
For I have been very rebellious.
Outside the sword bereaves,
At home it is like death.

21“They have heard that I sigh,
But no one comforts me.
All my enemies have heard of my trouble;
They are glad that You have done it.
Bring on the day You have announced,
That they may become like me.

22“Let all their wickedness come before You,
And do to them as You have done to me
For all my transgressions;
For my sighs are many,
And my heart is faint.”

Lamentations 2

God's Anger with Jerusalem

[1]How the Lord has covered the daughter of Zion
With a cloud in His anger!
He cast down from heaven to the earth
The beauty of Israel,
And did not remember His footstool
In the day of His anger.

[2]The Lord has swallowed up and has not pitied
All the dwelling places of Jacob.
He has thrown down in His wrath
The strongholds of the daughter of Judah;
He has brought them down to the ground;
He has profaned the kingdom and its princes.

[3]He has cut off in fierce anger
Every horn of Israel;
He has drawn back His right hand
From before the enemy.
He has blazed against Jacob like a flaming fire
Devouring all around.

[4]Standing like an enemy, He has bent His bow;
With His right hand, like an adversary,
He has slain all who were pleasing to His eye;
On the tent of the daughter of Zion,
He has poured out His fury like fire.

[5]The Lord was like an enemy.
He has swallowed up Israel,
He has swallowed up all her palaces;
He has destroyed her strongholds,
And has increased mourning and lamentation
In the daughter of Judah.

[6]He has done violence to His tabernacle,
As if it were a garden;
He has destroyed His place of assembly;
The LORD has caused
The appointed feasts and Sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion.
In His burning indignation He has spurned the king and the priest.

[7]The Lord has spurned His altar,
He has abandoned His sanctuary;
He has given up the walls of her palaces
Into the hand of the enemy.
They have made a noise in the house of the LORD
As on the day of a set feast.

[8]The LORD has purposed to destroy
The wall of the daughter of Zion.
He has stretched out a line;
He has not withdrawn His hand from destroying;
Therefore He has caused the rampart and wall to lament;
They languished together.

[9]Her gates have sunk into the ground;
He has destroyed and broken her bars.
Her king and her princes are among the nations;
The Law is no more,
And her prophets find no vision from the LORD.

[10]The elders of the daughter of Zion
Sit on the ground and keep silence;
They throw dust on their heads
And gird themselves with sackcloth.
The virgins of Jerusalem
Bow their heads to the ground.

[11]My eyes fail with tears,
My heart is troubled;
My bile is poured on the ground

Because of the destruction of the daughter of my people,
Because the children and the infants
Faint in the streets of the city.

[12]They say to their mothers,
“Where is grain and wine?”
As they swoon like the wounded
In the streets of the city,
As their life is poured out
In their mothers’ bosom.

[13]How shall I console you?
To what shall I liken you,
O daughter of Jerusalem?
What shall I compare with you, that I may comfort you,
O virgin daughter of Zion?
For your ruin is spread wide as the sea;
Who can heal you?

[14]Your prophets have seen for you
False and deceptive visions;
They have not uncovered your iniquity,
To bring back your captives,
But have envisioned for you false prophecies and delusions.

[15]All who pass by clap their hands at you;
They hiss and shake their heads
At the daughter of Jerusalem:
“Is this the city that is called
‘The perfection of beauty,
The joy of the whole earth’?”

[16]All your enemies have opened their mouth against you;
They hiss and gnash their teeth.
They say, “We have swallowed her up!
Surely this is the day we have waited for;
We have found it, we have seen it!#8221;

[17]The LORD has done what He purposed;
He has fulfilled His word
Which He commanded in days of old.
He has thrown down and has not pitied,
And He has caused an enemy to rejoice over you;
He has exalted the horn of your adversaries.

[18]Their heart cried out to the Lord,
“O wall of the daughter of Zion,
Let tears run down like a river day and night;
Give yourself no relief;
Give your eyes no rest.

[19]“Arise, cry out in the night,
At the beginning of the watches;
Pour out your heart like water before the face of the Lord.
Lift your hands toward Him
For the life of your young children,
Who faint from hunger at the head of every street.”

[20]“See, O LORD, and consider!
To whom have You done this?
Should the women eat their offspring,
The children they have cuddled?
Should the priest and prophet be slain
In the sanctuary of the Lord?

[21]“Young and old lie
On the ground in the streets;
My virgins and my young men
Have fallen by the sword;
You have slain them in the day of Your anger,
You have slaughtered and not pitied.

[22]“You have invited as to a feast day
The terrors that surround me.
In the day of the LORD’s anger
There was no refugee or survivor.

Those whom I have borne and brought up
My enemies have destroyed.”

Lamentations 3

The Prophet's Anguish and Hope

[1]I am the man who has seen affliction by the rod of His wrath.
[2]He has led me and made me walk
In darkness and not in light.
[3]Surely He has turned His hand against me
Time and time again throughout the day.

[4]He has aged my flesh and my skin,
And broken my bones.
[5]He has besieged me
And surrounded me with bitterness and woe.
[6]He has set me in dark places
Like the dead of long ago.

[7]He has hedged me in so that I cannot get out;
He has made my chain heavy.
[8]Even when I cry and shout,
He shuts out my prayer.
[9]He has blocked my ways with hewn stone;
He has made my paths crooked.

[10]He has been to me a bear lying in wait,
Like a lion in ambush.
[11]He has turned aside my ways and torn me in pieces;
He has made me desolate.
[12]He has bent His bow
And set me up as a target for the arrow.

[13]He has caused the arrows of His quiver
To pierce my loins.
[14]I have become the ridicule of all my people—
Their taunting song all the day.

[15]He has filled me with bitterness,
He has made me drink wormwood.

[16]He has also broken my teeth with gravel,
And covered me with ashes.
[17]You have moved my soul far from peace;
I have forgotten prosperity.
[18]And I said, “My strength and my hope
Have perished from the LORD.”

[19]Remember my affliction and roaming,
The wormwood and the gall.
[20]My soul still remembers
And sinks within me.
[21]This I recall to my mind,
Therefore I have hope.

[22]Through the LORD’s mercies we are not consumed,
Because His compassions fail not.
[23]They are new every morning;
Great is Your faithfulness.
[24]“The LORD is my portion,” says my soul,
“Therefore I hope in Him!”

[25]The LORD is good to those who wait for Him,
To the soul who seeks Him.
[26]It is good that one should hope and wait quietly
For the salvation of the LORD.
[27]It is good for a man to bear
The yoke in his youth.

[28]Let him sit alone and keep silent,
Because God has laid it on him;
[29]Let him put his mouth in the dust—
There may yet be hope.
[30]Let him give his cheek to the one who strikes him,
And be full of reproach.

[31]For the Lord will not cast off forever.
[32]Though He causes grief,
Yet He will show compassion
According to the multitude of His mercies.
[33]For He does not afflict willingly,
Nor grieve the children of men.

[34]To crush under one's feet
All the prisoners of the earth,
[35]To turn aside the justice due a man
Before the face of the Most High,
[36]Or subvert a man in his cause—
The Lord does not approve.

[37]Who is he who speaks and it comes to pass,
When the Lord has not commanded it?
[38]Is it not from the mouth of the Most High
That woe and well-being proceed?
[39]Why should a living man complain,
A man for the punishment of his sins?

[40]Let us search out and examine our ways,
And turn back to the LORD;
[41]Let us lift our hearts and hands
To God in heaven.
[42]We have transgressed and rebelled;
You have not pardoned.

[43]You have covered Yourself with anger
And pursued us;
You have slain and not pitied.
[44]You have covered Yourself with a cloud,
That prayer should not pass through.
[45]You have made us an offscouring and refuse
In the midst of the peoples.

[46]All our enemies

Have opened their mouths against us.
[47]Fear and a snare have come upon us,
Desolation and destruction.
[48]My eyes overflow with rivers of water
For the destruction of the daughter of my people.

[49]My eyes flow and do not cease,
Without interruption,
[50]Till the LORD from heaven
Looks down and sees.
[51]My eyes bring suffering to my soul
Because of all the daughters of my city.

[52]My enemies without cause
Hunted me down like a bird.
[53]They silenced my life in the pit
And threw stones at me.
[54]The waters flowed over my head;
I said, “I am cut off!”

[55]I called on Your name, O LORD,
From the lowest pit.
[56]You have heard my voice:
“Do not hide Your ear
From my sighing, from my cry for help.”
[57]You drew near on the day I called on You,
And said, “Do not fear!”

[58]O Lord, You have pleaded the case for my soul;
You have redeemed my life.
[59]O LORD, You have seen how I am wronged;
Judge my case.
[60]You have seen all their vengeance,
All their schemes against me.

[61]You have heard their reproach, O LORD,
All their schemes against me,

[62]The lips of my enemies
And their whispering against me all the day.
[63]Look at their sitting down and their rising up;
I am their taunting song.

[64]Repay them, O LORD,
According to the work of their hands.
[65]Give them a veiled heart;
Your curse be upon them!
[66]In Your anger,
Pursue and destroy them
From under the heavens of the LORD.

Lamentations 4

The Degradation of Zion

[1]How the gold has become dim!
How changed the fine gold!
The stones of the sanctuary are scattered
At the head of every street.

[2]The precious sons of Zion,
Valuable as fine gold,
How they are regarded as clay pots,
The work of the hands of the potter!

[3]Even the jackals present their breasts
To nurse their young;
But the daughter of my people is cruel,
Like ostriches in the wilderness.

[4]The tongue of the infant clings
To the roof of its mouth for thirst;
The young children ask for bread,
But no one breaks it for them.

[5]Those who ate delicacies
Are desolate in the streets;
Those who were brought up in scarlet
Embrace ash heaps.

[6]The punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people
Is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom,
Which was overthrown in a moment,
With no hand to help her!

[7]Her Nazirites were brighter than snow
And whiter than milk;
They were more ruddy in body than rubies,

Like sapphire in their appearance.

[8]Now their appearance is blacker than soot;
They go unrecognized in the streets;
Their skin clings to their bones,
It has become as dry as wood.

[9]Those slain by the sword are better off
Than those who die of hunger;
For these pine away,
Stricken for lack of the fruits of the field.

[10]The hands of the compassionate women
Have cooked their own children;
They became food for them
In the destruction of the daughter of my people.

[11]The LORD has fulfilled His fury,
He has poured out His fierce anger.
He kindled a fire in Zion,
And it has devoured its foundations.

[12]The kings of the earth,
And all inhabitants of the world,
Would not have believed
That the adversary and the enemy
Could enter the gates of Jerusalem—

[13]Because of the sins of her prophets
And the iniquities of her priests,
Who shed in her midst
The blood of the just.

[14]They wandered blind in the streets;
They have defiled themselves with blood,
So that no one would touch their garments.

[15]They cried out to them,
“Go away, unclean!

Go away, go away,
Do not touch us!"
When they fled and wandered,
Those among the nations said,
"They shall no longer dwell here."

[16]The face of the LORD scattered them;
He no longer regards them.
The people do not respect the priests
Nor show favor to the elders.

[17]Still our eyes failed us,
Watching vainly for our help;
In our watching we watched
For a nation that could not save us.

[18]They tracked our steps
So that we could not walk in our streets.
Our end was near;
Our days were over,
For our end had come.

[19]Our pursuers were swifter
Than the eagles of the heavens.
They pursued us on the mountains
And lay in wait for us in the wilderness.

[20]The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the LORD,
Was caught in their pits,
Of whom we said, "Under his shadow
We shall live among the nations."

[21]Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom,
You who dwell in the land of Uz!
